An Act to rectify a Mistake in an Act, intituled An Act for making and maintaining certain Roads and Bridges in the Counties of Lanark and Dumbarton, in so far as relates to the Application of certain Exchequer Bills therein mentioned. [19th April 1823.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the First Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for making and maintaining certain Roads and Bridges in the Counties of Lanark and Dumbarton, the Commissioners for the Issue of Exchequer Bills under Two several Acts of the Fifty seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled An Act to authorize the Issue of Exchequer Bills, and the Advance of Money out of the Consolidated Fund, to a limited Amount, for the carrying on of Public Works and Fisheries in the United Kingdom, and Employment of the Poor in Great Britain, as Matters therein mentioned, and An Act to amend an Act, made in the great Session of Parliament, for authorizing the Issue of Exchequer Bills, and the Advance of Money for carrying on Public Works and Fisheries, and Employment of the Poor, were authorized and required to advance to the Commissioners of Highland Roads and Bridges, appointed by an Act of the Forty third Year of His late Majesty, intituled An Act for granting to His Majesty the Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds, to be issued and applied towards making Roads and Bridges in the Highlands of Scotland; and for enabling the Proprietors of Lands in Scotland to charge their Estates in Scotland with a Proportion of the Expence of making and keeping in Repair Roads and Bridges in the Highlands of Scotland; any Sum not exceeding Fifty one thousand four hundred and seventy five Pounds, to be applied to the making of certain Roads and Bridges in the aforesaid Counties of Lanark and Dumbarton, in the Manner by the said first recited Act directed: And Whereas by the last recited Act, intituled An Act for making and maintaining certain Roads and Bridges in the Counties of Lanark and Dumbarton, it is enacted, that such Sums of Money which shall have been expended within Fourteen Months before the passing of this Act, upon the Expence thereof being authenticated and vouched to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners of Highland Roads and Bridges to have been properly made, shall be held and taken to be a Payment or Payments, pro tanto, of the One Third Part of the estimated Expence of making the said Roads required to be advanced by the said Trustees or other Persons for the Purpose of this Act; and upon the whole of such One Third Part being completed or made up by the Advance or Deposit of the said Trustees or otherwise, to the Satisfaction of the said last mentioned Commissioners, such Commissioners may and shall advance and apply, towards the making or completing such Parts or Portions of the said Roads, for or on account of which such Sums shall have been advanced by the said Trustees and others, the other Two Third Parts of the estimated Expence of making the same; and further, that the Trustees of any District of the said Roads in which any Sums of Money shall have been advanced and expended as aforesaid, or in which such Trustees or any other Person shall have undertaken or subscribed for One Third Part of the Expence of making any Partion of the Roads of such District, or their Committees aforesaid, shall (after such Road or any Part thereof, made and completed as aforesaid, shall have been delivered over or given in charge by the said last mentioned Commissioners to such Trustees,) have the Superintendance and Management of such Districts and Portions of such Roads, and of the Tolls arising thereon; and such Tolls shall always be applied by them as follows; namely, in the First Place, towards the Annual Maintenance and Repair of the Roads of such District, and the Expence of collecting the said Tolls and putting this Act into Execution; and in the Second Place, the Net Residue or Surplus of the said Tolls shall be appropriated to the Payment, pro tanto, of the Interest (unless due upon the said Two Third Parts of the estimated Expence of making the said Roads in such District to be advanced by the said Commissioners for the Issue of Exchequer Bills, and of the One Third Part of such estimated Expence to be advanced by the said Trustees or other Persons Creditors for such Third Part, and further, that if, by reason of the said Trustees or other Persons not advancing to the said Commissioners of Highland Roads and Bridges, or depositing as aforesaid the One Third Part of the estimated Expence of making any Part or Portion of the said Roads as aforesaid, any Part of the Moneys arising by the said Exchequer Bills to be received by such Commissioners of Highland Roads and Bridges shall remain for a Time exceeding Seven Years unappointed and unapplied to the making or completing of the said Roads, such Money shall be, by the said Commissioners of Highland Roads and Bridges, repaid to the said Commissioners for the Issue of Exchange Bills; whereby it appears to have been the true Intent and Meaning of the said Act, that for every Sum to be deposited or advanced in the Manner therein mentioned by the Trustees thereby appointed, equal to One Third Part of the estimated Expence of completing any Portion or Division of the said Roads thereby authorized to be made, the said Commissioners of Highland Roads and Bridges should apply towards the making or completing such Portion or Division of the said Roads a Sum equal to Two Third Parts of the said estimated Expence; but in directing the Application of such Monies the said last mentioned Commissioners were, by a Mistake or Error in the Clause to that Effect, directed to apply a Sum equal to Two Thirds of the Amount so deposited, whereby the Intention of the Act would be utterly defeated, inasmuch as no more than One Third Part and Two Thirds of such Third Part of the estimated Expence would be provided for (that is, Five Parts in Nine), instead of One Third and Two Thirds, that is, the whole of such estimated Expence; and it is expedient and necessary that such Mistake or Error should be explained and rectified: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the true Intent and Meaning of so much of the said first mentioned Act as is above specially recited and referred to, is and shall be and is to be held to have been, that when and as often as the said Trustees thereby appointed should or may produce to the said Commissioners of Highland Roads and Bridges, or their Agent or other Person authorized by them, an Estimate, made and signed and authenticated by the Surveyor or Engineer employed or to be employed by the said last mentioned Commissioners, of the Expence of completing any Portion of the said Roads thereby authorized to be made, and also deposit in the Bank there mentioned, in the Name of the said Commissioners, a Sum equal to One Third Part of the estimated Expence of such Portion or Division of the said Roads, or applicable to the general Expence to be incurred in carrying the said Act into Execution, the said last mentioned Commissioners should and shall from time to time draw and apply, towards the making or completing such Portion of the said Roads for or on account of which such Deposit was or may be made, the Sum so deposited, and also a Sum equal to Two Third Parts of the Amount of such estimated Expence as aforesaid; any thing in the said first recited Act inconsistent herewith or to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. And be it further enacted, That the said first recited Act, and all and every the Clauses, Provisions, Conditions, Exceptions, Powers, Authorities, Articles, Rules, Penalties, Forfeitures, Matters and Things therein contained, shall remain in full Force and Effect, except in so far as the said Act is by this Act explained or rectified.

When Trustees should produce an Estimate of the Expence of completing the Roads, and deposit in the Bank One Third of such Expence, the Commissioners of Highland Roads and Bridges may apply the same Deposits, and also the other Two Thirds of the Expence.

CAP. XI.

An Act for repealing certain of the Duties of Assessed Taxes; for reducing certain other of the said Duties; and for relieving Persons who have compounded for the same. [15th March 1823.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Forty-eighth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act for repealing the Duties of Assessed Taxes, and granting new Duties in lieu thereof, and certain additional Duties to be consolidated therewith; and also for repealing the Stamp Duties on Gene Certificates, and granting new Duties in lieu thereof, to be placed under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, certain Duties were granted to His Majesty upon Houses, Windows, and Lights, as set forth in the Schedule to the said Act annexed, marked A: And whereas a Duty of Six Shillings was also granted to His Majesty by the said Act, as set forth in the Schedule therein annexed, marked C. No. 2, in respect of Gardeners, or Persons employed to work in any Garden under any Person chargeable to the Duties, mentioned in the Schedule to the said Act marked C. No. 1, and for every Gardiner employed in any Garden where the constant Labour of one Person should not be necessary: And Whereas by another Act, passed in the Fiftieth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intitled An Act for altering the Amount of certain Duties of Assessed Taxes, granted by an Act passed in the Forty-eighth Year of His present Majesty's Reign; and for granting to His Majesty certain other Duties of Assessed Taxes in the Articles therein mentioned, a Duty of Six Shillings was also granted to His Majesty for every Gardiner who should have contracted for the keeping of any Garden, where the constant Labour of one Person should not be necessary: And Whereas by another Act passed in the Fifty-second Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intitled An Act for granting to His Majesty certain new and additional Duties of Assessed Taxes, and for consolidating the same with the former Duties of Assessed Taxes, a new and additional Duty of Four Shillings was granted to His Majesty upon each and every of the said Persons so employed as Gardeners, and as also described and set forth in the Schedule to the said last mentioned Act annexed, marked C. No. 2: And Whereas certain other Duties of Six Shillings and Four Shillings respectively were also granted to His Majesty by the said Acts passed in the Forty-eighth and Fifty-second Years aforesaid, as set forth in the said respective Schedules thereof, marked C. No. 3, in respect of Male Servants and Male Persons kind file retained for the Purposes of Husbandry, Manufacture, or Trade, by which the Master or Mistress described and chargeable with the Duties therein mentioned should gain a Livelihood, at any Time employed in any Domestic Capacity, or in any of the Capacities in Schedule C. No. 1. of the said Acts last mentioned, or as a Groom, Stable Boy, or Helper in the Stables, in Manner in the said Schedule C. No. 3. also described: And Whereas

Majesty,

Alfajary, in respect of certain Horses, Mares, Geldings and Males; and which Duties so reduced were made perpetual by the said Act, passed in the First and Second Years of the Reign of His said present Majesty, shall respectively cease and determine, and be no longer paid or payable: Provided nevertheless, that the Duties hereby reduced, and to be hereafter assessed and payable, shall not include any Fraction of One Penny.

III. And Whereas under and by virtue of Two several Acts, the One whereof passed in the First and Second Year, and the other thereof passed in the Third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, divers Persons have compounded for their Assessed Taxes in Great Britain, under Contracts of Composition, which were made to continue in force on the said Duties of Windows or Lights and on Imputed Horses for the Term of Six Years, and on the other Duties of Assessed Taxes allowed to be compounded for under the said Acts for the Term of Five Years respectively, from the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty two; and it is expedient to relieve the Persons who have so compounded in respect of the said Duties, as well those wholly as those in part repealed, as of the additional Duties payable under the said Acts on the Assesse of the Duties compounded for, which are so wholly or in part repealed, upon all Installments payable on Contracts after the Period herein mentioned; Be it further enacted, That it shall and law be lawful for the respective Commissioners acting in the Execution of the said Acts and of this Act, in their respective Districts, and they are hereby authorized and required, to remit and deduct so much and such Parts of the Duties compounded for and included in any such Contract as are repealed by this Act, and also so much of the additional Duty granted by the said Acts, and payable by any such Contract on the Amount of any Duty, or any Fraction of the Duties so repealed, and to cause such reduced Amounts to be inserted in the Assessments of Composition, and in the several Duplicates thereof, to be delivered and returned by the said Commissioners under the said Acts in their respective Districts, after the said Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, and during the Periods of such respective Compositions; and every such Contract shall be of the same Force and Effect for the Recovery and enforcing Payment of the reduced Installments under the Provisions of the said Acts, and of this Act, to commence from the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, as all Intents as if the full Amount of the Installments compounded for continued payable on such Contracts.

IV. And be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to revise, set up or substitute any higher or other Duty of Assessed Taxes granted by any of the said Acts in lieu of the Duties hereby repealed, so all and every the Person and Persons respectively in the said Acts described, who before the passing of this Act were by the said recited Acts authorized and empowered, on Payment of the Duties hereby repealed, to employ any Male Servant or Person in the Carriages first hereinbefore enumerated, or to keep or use any Carriage hereinbefore described as a Taxed Cart, or any Horse, Mare, Gelding or Mule hereinbefore so described, in Payment of the Duties hereby repealed; but that all and every such Person or Persons who in any Time within the Year ending on the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, in England and Wales, or the Twenty fourth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and twenty three in Scotland, have kept, retained or employed, or who shall or may from and after the passing of this Act, retain or employ any such Male Servants and Persons respectively, and keep and use any such Carriage of the Description of a Taxed Cart, and any Horse, Mare, Gelding or Mule respectively, in the Manner and according to the Schedules, Rules and Provisions prescribed by the said Acts granting the said Duties hereby repealed, shall and is hereby declared to be free of any other or higher Duty or Assessment chargeable under the said Acts relating to the Assessed Taxes, for and in respect of the said Male Servants, Persons, Carriages and Horses respectively, for any Year or Years commencing from and after the respective Days last aforesaid, and all and every the Schedules, Rules and Provisions of the said Acts, for regulating and charging the said Duties hereby repealed, shall remain and continue in full Force and Effect for protecting all and every such Persons hereinbefore chargeable with such Duties so repealed by this Act, from any other or higher Duty in lieu of the Duties so repealed, so far as such Servants, Carriages and Horses respectively shall have been or shall be kept, employed and used in the Manner and for the Purposes in and by the said Schedules, Rules and Provisions last aforesaid respectively prescribed and allowed: Provided nevertheless, that so much of the Provisions contained in any of the said Acts which require the Words "A Taxed Cart," and the Owner's Christian and Surname, and Place of Abode, and also the Name and Place of Abode of the Maker thereof, and the full Value thereof, or the actual Price or Consideration paid or given for the same, to be marked or printed on a Black Ground in White Letters, on the Outside of the Back Panel, or Back Part of any Carriage, shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be and are hereby declared to be discontinued and repealed; but every such Carriage last aforesaid shall in every other respect (except as herein varied), be built and constructed according to the Regulations of the said Acts, and the Rules therein contained; and it shall be lawful for any Person or Persons keeping and using any Horse, Mare, Gelding or Mule, and any Carriage for the Purposes of Husbandry, to use any such Horse, Mare, Gelding or Mule in drawing any Carriage of the Description of a Taxed Cart, the Duty whereon is repealed by this Act, and kept by any such Person respectively for his, her or their own Use, free of any Duty chargeable under the said Acts in respect of any such Horse, Mare, Gelding or Mule, in and by any Assessment to be made for any Year commencing from and after the said Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty three.

Exemption from reduced Duties on Occupiers having Three Children and wholly maintained by them.

Powers granted to General Officers under former Acts to extend to this Act.

Shippens by the said Acts to every Male Person wholly maintained and lodged in the House of his Employer or Employers, such Person respectively being under the Age of Fifteen Years, shall, upon every Assessment made or to be made after the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, be extended to all and every such Male Person described in the said Act, being respectively under the Age of Eighteen Years: Provided always, that the Cases of every Exemption in respect of any such Male Person shall be truly returned and stated in the Manner directed by the said Act, and the several other Acts in force before the passing of this Act.

VI. And be it further enacted, That in case any Person who, having compounded under the said recited Acts in respect of a Carriage with Two Wheels, shall be desirous, during the Year commencing on the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, of discontinuing to keep the same, and of substituting a Carriage with Four Wheels in lieu thereof, it shall be lawful for him, her or them so to do, on giving Notice of such his or her Intention to the Surveyor of the said Duties acting for the District in which such Person shall reside, within Six Calendar Months after the passing of this Act, on Payment of the Difference of Duty so compounded for on a Two Wheelled Carriage, and reduced by this Act, and the Duty chargeable by the said Act, and also reduced by this Act, on a Four Wheelled Carriage, together with the Duty of Five Pounds per Centum on such Difference, to be endorsed by Certificate on every such Contract of Composition by any Two of the Commissioners acting in the Execution of the same Acts in the District in which such Contract shall have been entered into, and to be made payable from and after the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, by Half Yearly Installments, during the Continuance of the said Contract; and which additional Payments shall be enforced in like Manner as if they were originally inserted in every such Contract; and any Person availing the Benefit of this Provision shall and may, during the Continuance of his or her said Composition, keep and use any Four Wheelled Carriage free of Duty. [Persons so compounding to use the Privileges of Persons originally compounding for a Four Wheel Carriage, &c. See Cap. 45. § 7. post.]

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That Copies of all Cases which shall after the passing of this Act be stated and signed by any Commissioners acting in the Execution of the said Acts and of this Act, at the Instance and Request of any Assessor, Inspector, Surveyor or Person appealing under the Powers in the said Acts contained, and which shall be determined by any One or more of the Justices of the Courts of King's Bench or Common Pleas, or of the Barons of the Court of Exchequer for the time being at Westminster, in England, Wales or Berwick upon Tyne, or by any One or more of the Lords of the Court of Sessions or Barons of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, shall, together with a Copy or Copies of the said Judge's or Judges' Opinion and Determination thereto subscribed, duly certified by the Solicitors for the Affairs of Taxes for England and Scotland respectively, be annually laid before Parliament within Twenty one Days after the Meeting thereof.

VIII. And Whereas by the said Act passed in the Forty eighth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, under the said Schedule thereto marked A, there is charged for the Windows in every Dwelling House in England and Wales, and Berwick upon Tyne, having not more than Six Windows or Lights therein, a Duty of Six Shillings and Sixpence, and for every such Dwelling House in Scotland a like Duty of Four Shillings and Sixpence (such Houses respectively not being worth the Rent of Five Pounds by the Year), and which Duties are reduced by the Provisions of this Act, and it is expedient to exempt the Occupiers of such Houses in certain Cases from the said reduced Duties: Be it further enacted, That upon any Assessment of the said Duties to be made upon the Occupier of any such Dwelling House, for any Year commencing from or after the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, it shall be lawful for the respective Commissioners acting in the Execution of the said Acts and of this Act, in their respective Districts, to grant Relief to any such Occupier having Three Children born in lawful Wedlock, and wholly maintained by him or her, and at his or her Expense, and to strike out the Charge on any such Occupier on the Proof by the Rules and in the Manner authorized and required by the said recited Acts in Cases of Exemption from the said Duties by reason of Poverty.

IX. And be it further enacted, That the several and respective Persons, who for the time being shall be Commissioners for putting in Execution the Acts relating to the Assessed Taxes, shall be Commissioners for putting in execution this Act, and the Powers herein referred to or contained, in all and every the respective Counties, Ridings, Divisions, Shares and Stewartries, Cities, Boroughs, Cinque Ports, Towns and Places in Great Britain; and the several Assessors, Collectors, Inspectors General, Inspectors and Surveyors, for the time being appointed or to be appointed to put into Execution the said Acts, shall respectively be Assessors, Collectors, Inspectors General, Inspectors and Surveyors to put into Execution this Act, within the Limits of their respective Divisions, Districts and Places to which they are or shall be appointed; and the said Commissioners and others before mentioned are hereby empowered and required to do and perform all Things necessary for putting this Act in Execution, in the like and in as full and ample a Manner as they or any of them are or is authorized to put in Execution the said Acts; and all and every the Powers and Authorities, Methods, Rules, Directions, Provisions, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters and Things contained in any of the said Acts, and applying to the said several Duties by the said Acts granted (except where such Provisions are varied or other Provisions are substituted by this Act), shall, in assessing, charging, collecting, levying and accounting for the said Duties and Monies respectively, be severally and respectively duly observed, practised and put in Execution throughout Great Britain, in relation to all and every of the Duties reduced and in part repealed under the Provisions of this Act, as fully and effectually, to all Intests and Purposes, as if the said reduced Duties remaining repealed and in force were specially granted and particularized in and by this Act, and as if the same Powers, Authorities, Methods, Rules, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Chances, Matters and Things, were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act, and applied to all and every such reduced Duties and Matters aforesaid, as Part of the Provisions of this Act: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall alter or affect any of the Provisions of the said recited Acts for assessing, charging, raising, levying, and collecting any Assessment of the said Duties made or to be made for any Year or Years commencing previous to the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

X. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, varied or repealed, by any Act or Acts to be made in this present Session of Parliament.

C A P. XII.

[24th March 1823.]

[This Act is the same and the Schedules are also the same as in G. 4. c. 11. except as to Dates, and the Sections that are here retained.]

XVIII. PROVIDED always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any General or other Court Martial to sentence any Non-commissioned Officer or Private Marine to Imprisonment, or to Imprisonment and Hard Labour, in any House of Correction, Common Gaol or Public Prison, or in any other Place which such Court may deem fit and convenient for that Purpose; and all Gaolers and Keepers of such Houses of Correction or Prisons shall receive into their Custody, and keep in Confinement for such Time as they shall be respectively required so to do, or until discharged, any Non-commissioned Officer or Private Marine who may have been sentenced to Imprisonment by any General or other Court Martial, and shall provide a proper Place for the Confinement of any such Non-commissioned Officer or Private Marine, according to the Sentence of such Court, during the Period of his Imprisonment, upon receiving an Order in Writing from the Commanding Officer of the Division at which such General or other Court Martial shall have been held; and every Gaoler and Keeper of a House of Correction or Prison, who shall refuse to receive and to confine any such Non-commissioned Officer or Private Marine in Manner as aforesaid, shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of One hundred Pounds, to be recovered by Action of Debt or Information for the Use of His Majesty.

XIX. Provided also, and it is hereby declared and enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord High Admiral of the said United Kingdom, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral aforesaid, for the time being, in case he or they shall deem it expedient so to do, by any Order in Writing to be made for that Purpose, under the Hand of the said Lord High Admiral, or of Two or more of the Commissioners aforesaid, and the Seal of the Office of Admiralty, to change the Place of Confinement to be expressed in any Sentence upon any Non-commissioned Officer or Private Marine, either previous to the Commitment of such Non-commissioned Officer or Private Marine under any such Sentence, or at any Time afterwards during the Period of Confinement mentioned in such Sentence, and so from time to time as often as the said Lord High Admiral or the said Commissioners shall deem it requisite; and that the Gaoler or Keeper of the Prison, Gaol or House of Correction, in which such Non-commissioned Officer or Private Marine shall happen to be, shall immediately on the Notification of such Order to him, remove and convey, or cause to be removed and conveyed, such Non-commissioned Officer or Private Marine to the Gaol, Prison or House of Correction mentioned in the said Order so to be made as aforesaid, (for the Charges of which Removal and Conveyance he shall be allowed a Sum not exceeding One Shilling per Mile); and every Gaoler or Keeper of such last mentioned Gaol or House of Correction shall thereupon, and upon being furnished with a Copy of the Sentence of Confinement, and of such Order of Removal, (such Copies respectively to be granted by the Secretary of the Admiralty for the time being) receive into his Custody, and shall confine pursuant to such Sentence, such Non-commissioned Officer or Private Marine, under the like Penalty and Forfeiture of One hundred Pounds, in case of Refusal or Neglect, as is heretofore provided; such Penalty or Forfeiture in any of such Cases to be recovered in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster or Dublin, or in the Court of Exchequer or Court of Session at Edinburgh.

XX. And be it further enacted, That every Non-commissioned Officer or Private Marine, who shall be sentenced by any General Divisional or Detachment Court Martial to be imprisoned, shall forfeit all Right of any Pay from the Day of his Commitment during the Time of such Imprisonment; and also that, during the Continuance of any such Imprisonment, the Gaoler or Keeper of such Prison or House of Correction shall receive the Sum of Sixpence per Diem out of the Subsistence of such Non-commissioned Officer or Private Marine, during the Time that such Non-commissioned Officer or Private Marine shall continue in Custody; which said Sum the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are hereby authorized and required to cause to be paid by the Paymaster of Royal Marines to the said Gaoler or Keeper aforesaid, upon receiving an Application in Writing to their Secretary, signed by any Justice of the Peace for the County or Riding in which such Gaol, Prison or House of Correction shall be jointly situate, together with a Copy of the Order under which the said Non-commissioned Officer or Private Marine was confined: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty for the time being, if they should think fit, to order the Issue and Payment of any Arrest of Pay, or of the Surplus of such Pay, or any Portion thereof, or of any Arrears thereof, to or on account of such Non-commissioned Officer or Private Marine, during or after the Expiration of the Period of his Imprisonment in any Gaol, House of Correction or Place of Military Confinement.

XXI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in case such Imprisonment shall be in any Place of Military Confinement, and not in a Common Gaol or House of Correction, then the like Allowance of Sixpence per Day for Subsistence shall be made by the Paymaster General of Royal Marines, to the Non-commissioned Officer or Private Marine so imprisoned, in lieu of all Pay or other Allowances.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That the Sums to be paid into the Hands of such Constable or Petty Constable in England, Wales and Berwick upon Tweed, shall be according to the following Rates; that is to say, the Sum of One Shilling for every Mile any Wagon with Four or more Horses, or any Wain with Six Oxen, or Four Oxen with Two Horses, shall travel; and the Sum of Nine Pence for every Mile any Cart with Four Horses, or carrying not less than Fifteen hundred Weight, shall travel; and the Sum of Sixpence for every Mile any Wagon with narrow Wheels, or any Cart or other Carriage with less than Four Horses, and not carrying Fifteen hundred Weight, shall travel; or any further Sum not exceeding Four Pence for every Mile any Wagon with Four or more Horses, or any Wain with Six Oxen, or with Four Oxen and Two Horses, shall travel; and not exceeding Three Pence for every Mile any Cart with Four Horses, or carrying not less than Fifteen hundred Weight, shall travel; and not exceeding Two Pence for every Mile any Cart or other Carriage with less than Four Horses, and not carrying Fifteen hundred Weight, shall travel; according as the same shall be fixed and ordered by the Justices of the Peace for any County or District, assembled at any General Sessions of the Peace for such County or District, the said Justices bearing regard to the Price of Hay and Oats at the Time of fixing such additional Rates: Provided always, that in Cases where the Day's March shall exceed Fifteen Miles, such further Compensation shall be made and paid in like Manner to the Owners of the said Carriages for the Excess beyond the said Fifteen Miles, as shall be deemed reasonable by the Magistrates who granted the Warrant for impressing them, not exceeding the usual Rate and Hire of such Carriages: Provided always, that every Order of the Justices assembled at any General Sessions of the Peace, fixing a farther Sum to be paid for the Hire of Carriages as aforesaid, in addition to the customary Rates of One Shilling and Nine Pence and Sixpence per Mile respectively, shall specify the Period for which the same shall be in force, and which shall not in any Case exceed Ten Days beyond the General Sessions of the Peace for such County or District next ensuing the Date of such Order; and a Copy of every such Order, signed by the Chairman or presiding Magistrate, and One other Justice of the Peace or Magistrate at the Quarter Sessions at which the same shall be made, shall within Three Days after the making thereof be transmitted to the Secretary of the Admiralty: and so such Order shall be valid or effectual unless a Copy thereof be so signed and transmitted as aforesaid: Provided also, that in every Case of any further Sum being allowed as aforesaid for the Hire of any Carriage, the Justice of the Peace granting or signing such Warrant shall insert in his own Hand the Amount of such further Sum for each Description of Carriage, as so authorized by the Justices at the Quarter Sessions as aforesaid, and the Date of the Order of the said Justices; and such Warrant shall be given to the Officer or Non-commissioned Officer commanding the Regiment, Corps, Company, Detachment or Party requiring such Carriages, as his Voucher for the Payment of such further Sum; and no further Sum shall be demanded, but such as shall be so inserted by the Justice in the Warrant.

LXV. And for the better Encouragement of any Person or Persons to secure or apprehend such Deserter, be it further enacted, That in the Case of every Deserter apprehended in Great Britain or Ireland, the Secretary of the Admiralty, upon receiving from the Justice of the Peace or other Civil Magistrate by whom the Deserter shall have been committed, a Report stating the Name or Names of the Person or Persons by whom the Deserter was apprehended and secured, which Report such Magistrate is hereby required to give, shall transmit to such Magistrate an Order upon the Paymaster of the Royal Marines for the Payment of the Sum of Twenty Shillings, to the Person or Persons so reported by the Magistrate: Provided always, that this Reward shall only be given in Cases in which the Secretary of the Admiralty shall be satisfied that such Person or Persons is or are justly entitled to the same according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act.

LVI. And be it further enacted, That any Person who shall voluntarily surrender or deliver himself up as a Deserter from His Majesty's Royal Marine Forces, or who, upon being apprehended for Desertion, or any other Offence, shall, in the Presence of the Magistrate, confess himself to be a Deserter from such Forces, shall be deemed to have been duly enlisted, and to be a Marine, and shall be liable to serve, whether such Person shall have been ever actually enlisted as a Marine or not; and if the Person so confessing himself to be a Deserter shall be serving at the Time in the Royal Marine Forces, he shall be deemed to be and shall be dealt with as a Deserter.

LX. And Whereas it has been judged expedient, for the Prevention of Desertion, to establish Outlying Parties in the Vicinity of the respective Divisions, for the Purpose of intercepting such Men as may attempt or attempt to desert from Head Quarters, and it is fit that Encouragement should be given to the Persons composing such Parties to be diligent and active in their Duty in this Behalf; Be it therefore enacted, That, for and in respect of every Non-commissioned Officer or Private Marine so struggling or attempting to desert, who may be apprehended at a greater Distance from Head Quarters than is allowed by the Articles of War, the Party or Parties by whom he shall be apprehended shall be entitled to a Reward of Ten Shillings, to be paid upon the Delivery up of every such Marine; which Sum of Ten Shillings shall be charged against and stopped and retained out of the Pay and Substence of every such Non-commissioned Officer and Private Marine, in like manner as the Reward or Sum of Two Pounds is hereinafter directed to be charged against, stopped and retained out of the Pay and Substence of every Dissenter; any thing herein contained to the contrary in any writ notwithstanding.

LXXV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall, in any Part of His Majesty's Dominions, directly or indirectly persuade or procure any Marine in the Service of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, to desert or leave such Service as aforesaid, every such Person or Persons so offending as aforesaid, and being thereof lawfully convicted, shall for every such Offence forfeit to His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, or to any other Person or Persons who shall sue for the same, the Sum of One hundred Pounds; and if it shall happen that any such Offender so convicted as aforesaid hath not any Goods and Chattels, Lands or Tenements, to the Value of One hundred Pounds to pay and satisfy the same, or if from the Circumstances and Manner of the Crime, it shall appear to the Court, before which the said Conviction shall be made as aforesaid, that any such Offence is not a sufficient Punishment for such Offence; it shall be lawful for such Court to commit any such Offender to Prison, there to remain for any Time not exceeding Twelve Months without Bail or Margins.

LXXVI. Provided nevertheless, and it is hereby declared, That from and after the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, and as often as any Person or Persons shall be enlisted as a Marine or Marines in His Majesty's Service, he and they shall, within Four Days, but not sooner than Twenty four Hours, after such enlisting respectively, be carried or go with some Officer, Non-commissioned Officer or Marine belonging to the Recruiting Party by which he or they shall be enlisted, or with the Person employed on the Recruiting Service with whom he shall have enlisted, before some Justice of the Peace of any County, Riding, City or Place, or Chief Magistrate of any City or Town Corporate, residing in or being next to or in the Vicinity of the Place where such Person or Persons shall have been enlisted, and not being an Officer of Royal Marines, and before such Justice or Chief Magistrate be or they shall be at Liberty to declare his or their Consent to such Enlisting; and upon such Declaration, and returning the Enlisting Money, and also such Person as aforesaid paying the Sum of Twenty Shillings for the Charges expended or laid out upon him, together with such full Rate allowed by Law for the Subsistence or Diet and Small Beer furnished to such Recruit subsequent to the Period of his having been enlisted, such Person or Persons so enlisted shall be forthwith discharged and set at liberty in the Presence of such Justice or Chief Magistrate; but if such Person or Persons shall refuse or neglect, within the Space of Twenty four Hours after so declaring his or their Consent, to return and pay such Money as aforesaid, he or they shall be deemed and taken to be enlisted, as if he or they had given his or their Assent thereto before the said Justice or Chief Magistrate, and if such Person or Persons shall declare his or their having voluntarily enlisted himself or themselves, then such Justice or Chief Magistrate shall, and he is hereby required forthwith to certify under his Hand that such Person or Persons is or are duly enlisted, setting forth the Place of the Birth, Age and Calling of him or them respectively (if known), and that the Second and Third Sections of the Articles of War, for the better Government of His Majesty's Royal Marine Forces while on Shore, were read to him or them, and that he or they had taken the Oath of Fidelity mentioned in the Twelfth Section of the said Articles of War, and also the Oath mentioned in the Schedule to this Act annexed marked (A.); and if any such Person or Persons to be certified as duly enlisted shall refuse to take the said Oath of Fidelity before the said Justice or Chief Magistrate, it shall and may be lawful for such Officer from whom he has received such Money as aforesaid to detain or confine such Person or Persons until he or they shall take the Oath before required; and every Officer of Royal Marines that shall act contrary hereto, or offend hereto, upon Proof thereof upon Oath made by Two Witnesses before a General Court Martial to be thereupon called, shall for such Offence be forthwith cashiered and displaced from such his Office, and shall be thereby utterly disabled to hold any Civil or Military Office or Employment within this Kingdom, or in His Majesty's Service: Provided always, that every Non-commissioned Officer or Private Marine who shall enlist any Recruit shall, at the Time of such enlisting, enquire the Christian and Surname and Place of Abode of such Recruit, and either take the same down in Writing, or give the same to the Non-commissioned Officer commanding the Recruiting Party, to be so taken down: Provided also, that it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace to discharge any Person who shall have lawfully enlisted, and who shall apply to him to declare his Consent within such Four Days as aforesaid, upon Payment of the Sum of Money required to be paid by any Recruit declaring his Consent under this Act, notwithstanding so Officer, Non-commissioned Officer or Private Marine belonging to the Recruiting Party, shall be with the Recruit, if it shall appear to such Magistrate, upon the Examination of such Recruit, or of any other Person, that the Recruiting Party have left the Place where such Recruit was enlisted, or that such Recruit could not procure any Non-commissioned Officer belonging to such Party to go with such Recruit before the Justice of the Peace; and the Sum paid by such Recruit upon his Discharge shall be kept by the Justice of the Peace, and paid when demanded to any Person belonging to the Recruiting Party entitled thereto demanding the same: Provided always, that in every Case wherein any Person shall have received Enlisting Money, and shall have absconded, or have absented himself from the Party as aforesaid, so that it shall not be possible immediately to apprehend him, and bring him before a Magistrate, the Officer or Non-commissioned Officer commanding the Party shall produce to the Magistrate before whom the Recruit would regularly have been brought for Attestation, a Certificate of the Name and Place of Residence of such Person, and the Magistrate to whom the Certificate shall be produced shall, after satisfying himself

LXXX. And be it further enacted, That any Person who shall knowingly, wilfully and designedly make any false Representation of any Particular contained in the Form of Oath marked (A.) in the Schedule annexed to this Act, before the Justice of the Peace at the Time of his Attestation, for the Purpose of obtaining, and shall thereupon obtain any Enticing Money, or any Bounty or Part of a Bounty, for enlisting into His Majesty's Royal Marines, or any other Military, shall be deemed guilty of cheating Money under false Pretences, with intent to defraud and Breach of an Act passed in the Twentieth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intitled An Act for the more effectual Punishment of Persons who shall obtain or attempt to obtain Possession of Goods or Money by false or untrue Pretences; for preventing the unlawful passing of Goods, for the easy Redemption of Goods pressed; and for preventing Gaming in Public Houses by Jurymen, Labourers, Servants and Apprentices; and that the Production of such Oath and Proof of the Justice's Handwriting thereto, shall, in any Prosecution to be instituted against the enlisting Person or Recruit therein named, be sufficient Evidence of such Person having represented the several Particulars contained in such Oath at the Time of his being attested; and in case such Person shall be an Apprentice, or shall belong to the Militia, he shall, immediately after the Expiration of his Apprenticeship, or other sooner Determination of it, or at the Expiration of the Period of his Service in the Militia, whether he shall have been convicted and punished or not, be deemed duly enlisted, and be liable from thenceforth to serve as a Marine; and if, on the Expiration or other sooner Determination of his Apprenticeship, he shall not deliver himself up to some Officer, at the Head Quarters of One of the Divisions of His Majesty's Royal Marine Forces, or to some Royal Marine Officer authorized to receive Recruits, he shall be liable to be apprehended and dealt with as a Deserter from His Majesty's said Royal Marine Forces.

C A P. XIII.

An Act for punishing Mutiny and Desertion; and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters. [24th March 1823.]

[This Act is the same, and all the Schedules are also the same as 3 G. 4. c. 15. except as to Dates, and the Sections that are here retained.]

WHEREAS the raising or keeping a Standing Army within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in Time of Peace, unless it be with the Consent of Parliament, is against Law: And Whereas it is judged necessary by His Majesty, and this present Parliament, that a Body of Forces should be continued for the Safety of the United Kingdom, the Defence of the Possessions of His Majesty's Crowns, and the Preservation of the Balance of Power in Europe, and that the whole Number of such Forces should consist of Seventy two thousand one hundred and forty effective Officers and Men, exclusive of the Officers and Men belonging to the Regiments employed in the Territorial Possessions of the East India Company, but including the Officers and Men of the Troops and Companies recruiting for these Regiments, and the Officers and Men of the Embodied Veterans: And Whereas no Man can be tried by Martial Law, or in any other Manner than by the Judgment of his Peers, and according to the known and established Laws of the Realm, yet nevertheless, it being requisite for the retaining all the beforementioned Forces in their Duty, that an exact Discipline be observed, and that Soldiers who shall mutiny or stir up Sedition, or shall desert His Majesty's Service, be brought to a more exemplary and speedy Punishment than the usual Tenors of the Law will allow: Be it therefore enacted by His Majesty's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Person who is or shall be commissioned or in Pay as an Officer, or who is or shall be listed or in Pay as a Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier, shall at any Time during the Continuance of this Act begin, excite, raise or join in any Mutiny or Sedition in His Majesty's Land or Marine Forces, or shall not use his utmost Endeavours to suppress the same, or coming to the Knowledge of any Mutiny or intended Mutiny, shall not without Delay give Information thereof to his Commanding Officer; or shall knowingly himself before the Enemy; or shall shamefully abandon or deliver up any Garrison, Fortress, Post or Guard committed to his Charge, or which he shall be commanded to defend; or shall compel the Governor or Commanding Officer of any Garrison, Fortress or Post, to deliver up to the Enemy, or to abandon the same; or shall speak Words, or use any other Means to induce such Governor or Commanding Officer, or others, to misbehave before the Enemy, or shamefully to abandon or deliver up any Garrison, Fortress, Post or Guard committed to their respective Charge, or which he or they shall be commanded to defend; or shall leave his Post before relieved; or shall be found sleeping on his Post; or shall hold Correspondence with, or give Advice or Intelligence to any Rebel or Enemy of His Majesty, either by Letters, Messages, Signs or Tokens in any Manner or Way whatsoever; or shall treat or enter into any Terms with such Rebel or Enemy, without His Majesty's License or Licence of the General or Chief Commander; or shall apply or use any Violence against his superior Officer, being in the Execution of his Office; or shall disobey any lawful Command of his superior Officer; or shall desert His Majesty's Service: all and every Person and Persons so offending in any of the Matters

Persons making false Representations in taking the Oath marked (A.), and obtaining Bounty, shall be deemed guilty of obtaining Money under false Pretences. 33-G. 4. c. 15.

See Cap. 15. post.

Number of Forces, 72,140

Every Officer or Private Man, during the Continuance of this Act, who shall mutiny or desert, &c.; or shall be found sleeping on or shall desert his Post, &c. ; or shall hold or convey any correspondence or give any intelligence or aid to any Rebel or Enemy of His Majesty, &c. shall suffer before mentioned, whether such Offence shall be committed within this Realm or in any other of His Majesty's Dominions or in Foreign Parts, upon Land or upon the Sea, shall suffer Death or such other Punishment as by a Court Martial shall be awarded.

II. Provided always, and it is hereby declared and enacted, That an Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier who shall desert His Majesty's Service shall be exempt from the Fines and Penalties imposed by this Act for such Offence, by again enlisting into His Majesty's Service, but any such Soldier shall, notwithstanding such subsequent Enlistment, be deemed to have deserted His Majesty's Service, and shall in like Manner suffer Death, or such other Punishment as by a Court Martial shall be awarded.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That no Officer, Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier, who shall be arrested and committed to Prison upon a Charge of any Criminal Offence, shall receive any Part of his Pay from the Day of such Commitment till the Day of his Return to the Regiment, Troop, Company or Detachment to which he shall belong, or which he shall be ordered to join; provided that if he shall be acquitted of the Offence for which he was committed, he shall upon his Return to his Corps be credited to receive all Arrears of Pay which were growing due during the Time of his Confinement; but if he shall be convicted, he shall forfeit all Right to any Pay from the Day of his Commitment during the Time of his Confinement, as well under the original Commitment as under any Commitment consequent upon such Conviction, and until the Day of his Return to the Regiment, Troop, Company or Detachment to which he shall belong, or which he shall be ordered to join: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Secretary at War for the time being, to order the Issue and Payment to any such Officer, Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier, during any such Commitment or Imprisonment, or either of them, or any Part thereof, of the Pay of any such Officer, Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier, or of any Proportion of such Pay, or of any Arrears thereof, either during such Commitment or Imprisonment, or after the Discharge of such Officer, Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier, after Conviction, or otherwise, as shall appear to the Secretary at War to be proper; and the Order of the Secretary at War, for the Payment of such Pay or Arrears, shall be a sufficient Discharge for such Payment.

XXV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any General or other Court Martial to sentence any Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier to Imprisonment with or without Hard Labour, as the Court shall think fit, in any House of Correction, Common Gaol or Public Prison, or in any other Place which such Court may deem fit and convenient for that Purpose; and all Gaolers and Keepers of such Houses of Correction or Prisons shall receive into their Custody, and keep in Confinement for such Time as they shall be respectively required so to do, or until discharged, any Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier who may have been sentenced to Imprisonment by any General or other Court Martial, and shall provide a proper Place for the Confinement of any such Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier, according to the Sentence of such Court, during the Period of his Imprisonment, upon receiving an Order in Writing from the Commanding Officer of the District within which such General Court Martial shall have been held, or from the Commanding Officer of any Regiment or Corps to which such Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier as tried by any Regimental Court Martial as aforesaid shall belong; and every such Gaoler or Keeper of any such House of Correction shall, upon receiving an Order in Writing from any such Commanding Officer as aforesaid, deliver any such Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier to any Person, on producing such Order, although the Period of which he was originally sent to such Gaol or House of Correction shall not have expired; and every Gaoler and Keeper of a House of Correction or Prison, who shall refuse to receive and to confine any such Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier in manner as aforesaid, shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of One hundred Pounds, to be recovered by Action of Debt or Information for the Use of His Majesty.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That every Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier sentenced to Imprisonment by any General or other Court Martial shall forfeit all Right to any Pay from the Day of his Commitment during the Time of such Imprisonment; and also, that during the Continuance of any Imprisonment in any Gaol or House of Correction, the Gaoler or Keeper of such Prison or House of Correction in Great Britain, and in Ireland the Inspector under whose immediate Inspection such House of Correction, Gaol or Prison shall be, shall receive and apply in the Maintenance of such Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier the Sum of Sixpence per Diem out of the Subsistence of such Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier during the Time that such Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier shall continue in Custody; which said Sum the Secretary at War is hereby authorized and required to cause to be paid to the said Gaoler or Keeper, or Inspector respectively as aforesaid, upon receiving an Application in Writing signed by any Justice of the Peace for the County or Riding in which such Gaol, Prison or House of Correction shall be locally situate, together with a Copy of the Order under which the said Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier was confined: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Secretary at War, if he should think fit, to order the Issue and Payment of any Arrears of Pay, or of the Surplus of such Pay, or any Part thereof, or of any Arrears thereof, to or on account of such Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier, during or after the Expiration of the Period of his Imprisonment in any Gaol, House of Correction or Place of Military Confinement.

XXIX. And Whereas by an Act passed in Ireland in the Sixth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne, intituled An Act to prevent the Disorders that may happen by the Mustering of Soldiers and providing Carriages for the Baggage of Soldiers on their March, it was amongst other Things enacted and declared, that no Officer, Soldier or Trooper in the Army, nor the Servant of any Officer, nor any Attendant on the Train of Artillery, nor any Yeoman of the Guard or Bottle Azen, nor any Officer commanding the said Yeoman, nor any Servant of any such Officer, should at any Time thereafter have, receive or be allowed Death or such Punishment as a Court Martial may inflict. Soldiers enlisted in any other Regiment, &c. to be deemed Deserters.

Officers and Soldiers imprisoned upon a Charge of a Criminal Offence, to receive their Pay during their Confinement; but if acquitted entitled to Arrears as Officers to Corps, and if convicted to forfeit Pay during Term of Confinement.

General or other Court Martial may sentence Non-commissioned Officers or Soldiers to Imprisonment in any House of Correction, or Gaol, &c.

allowed any Quarters in any Part of Ireland, save only during such Time as he or they should be and remain in some Scottish Town in order to be transported, or during such Time as there should be any Commotion in any Part of Ireland, by reason of which Emergency the Army or any considerable Part thereof should be commanded to march from any Part of Ireland to another, or during such Time or Times as he or they should be on their March as aforesaid: And Whereas the Barracks of Ireland are not at present sufficient to lodge all the Forces upon its Military Establishment: And Whereas it may be necessary to station Part of the Troops in Places where there are not Barracks or not sufficient Barracks to hold them: Be it enacted, and it is hereby declared and agreed, That it shall not be lawful, notwithstanding the said restricted Act, to send for the Constables and other Chief Officers and Magistrates of Cities, Towns, Villages and other Places in Ireland, and in their Default or Absence for any One Justice of the Peace inhabiting in or near any such City, Town, Village or Place, and for no others, and such Constables and other Chief Magistrates as aforesaid, or in their Default, such Justice of the Peace as aforesaid, are hereby required to quarter and billet the Officers and Soldiers in His Majesty's Service in Inns, Livery Stables, Alehouses and the Houses of Solers of Wine by Retail, to be drunk in their own Houses or Places thereto belonging, and all Houses of Persons selling Brandy, Strong Water, Cider or Methevin by Retail; and where there shall not be found sufficient Rooms in such Houses, then in such manner as has been heretofore customary, taking care not to billet less than Two Men in any One House, except only in case of billeting Horses or Dragons in a manner heretofore mentioned; nor shall any Billets at any Time be ordered for more than the Number of effective Soldiers present to be quartered; all which Billets, when made out by such Chief Magistrates or Constables, or Justice of the Peace, as the Case may be, shall be delivered into the Hands of the Staff Officer employed or of the Commanding Officer present: And if any Constable or other Chief Officer or Magistrate as aforesaid shall procure to quarter or billet any such Officer or Soldier in any House not within the Meaning of this Act, without the Consent of the Owner or Occupier thereof, then such Owner or Occupier shall have his or their Remedy at Law against such Magistrate or Officer for the Damage that such Owner or Occupier shall sustain thereby; and such Constable, Chief Officer or Magistrate, being duly convicted of such Offence by Indictment, shall be imprisoned for the Space of One Calendar Month: And if any Military Officer shall take upon him to quarter Soldiers otherwise than is limited and allowed by this Act, or shall use or offer any Violence or Coercion to or upon any Mayor, Constable or other Chief Officer before mentioned, tending to deter or discourage any of them from performing any Part of their Duty hereby required or appointed, or to induce any of them to do any thing contrary to their said Duty, such Military Officer shall for every such Offence, being thereof convicted before any Two or more Justices of the Peace of the County, by the Oath of Two credible Witnesses, be deemed and taken to be ipso facto outlawed, and shall be utterly disabled to have or hold any Military Employment whatsoever; provided the said Conviction be affirmed at the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said County or County of a City or Town, and a Certificate thereof transmitted to the Secretary at War: And in case any Person shall find himself aggrieved in that such Constable, Chief Officer or Magistrate, not being a Justice of the Peace, has quartered or billeted in his House a greater Number of Soldiers than he ought to bear in proportion to his Neighbourhood, and shall complain thereof to One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace of the Division, City or Liberty where such Soldiers are quartered, or in case such Chief Officer or Magistrate shall be a Justice of the Peace, then on Complaint made to Two or more Justices of the Peace of such Division, City or Liberty, such Justice or Justices respectively shall have, and have hereby Power to relieve such Persons, by ordering such and so many of the Soldiers to be removed and quartered upon such other Person or Persons as he or they shall see Cause, and such other Person or Persons shall be obliged to receive such Soldiers accordingly.

LXVII. And that the Quarters both of Officers and Soldiers may hereafter be duly paid and satisfied, and His Majesty's Duties of Kaitie better answered, be it enacted, That from and after the Twenty fourth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, every Officer to whom it belongs to receive or to take actually receive the Pay or Subsistence Money, either for a whole Regiment or particular Troops and Companies, or otherwise, shall every Four Days, or before the Troops shall quit their Quarters, if they shall not receive so long as Four Days, settle the just Demands of all Persons keeping Inns or other Places where Officers or Soldiers are quartered by virtue of this Act, out of the Pay and Subsistence of such Officers and Soldiers, before any Part of the said Pay or Subsistence be distributed to either of them respectively: And if any Officer or Officers as aforesaid shall not satisfy, consent and pay the same, upon Complaint and Oath made thereof by any Two Witnesses, at the next Quarter Sessions for the County or City where such Quarters were (which Oath the Justices of the Peace at such Sessions are hereby authorized and required to administer), the Secretary at War is hereby required and authorized (upon Certificate of the Justices before whom such Oath was made, of the Sum due upon such Accounts, and the Persons to whom the same is owing) to give Orders to the Agent of the Troop or Company to pay and satisfy the said Sums, and to charge the same against such Officer or Officers.

LXXI. And be it further enacted, That for the better and more regular Provision of Carriages for His Majesty's Forces in their Marches, or for their Arms, Clothes or Accoutrements, in England, Ireland and Wales, the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, all Justices of the Peace, within their several Counties, Hundreds, Hundreds, Shires, Liberties and Precincts, being duly required thereto by an Order from His Majesty or the General of His Forces, or the Master General or Lieutenant General of His Majesty's Ordnance, if in England, Wales or Berwick upon Tweed, or by an Order from the Lord Lieutenant or other either Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, or from the Officer commanding His Majesty's Forces in Ireland, or other Person duly authorized in that Behalf, shall, as often as such Order is brought and shown unto One or more of such Justices by the Quartermaster, Adjutant, or other Officer or Non-commissioned Officer of the Regiment, Detachment, Troop or Company so ordered to march, issue out his or their Warrant or Warrants to the Constables or Petty Constables of, or to any Constables or Constables acting or having Authority to act in the Division, Riding, City, Liberty, Hundred and Precinct, from, through, near or to which such Regiment, Detachment, Troop or Company shall be ordered to march, for each of which Warrants the Fee of One Shilling only shall be paid; requiring them to make such Provision of Carriages and Horses or Oxen, with able Men to drive the same, as is mentioned in the said Warrant, allowing them sufficient Time to do the same, that the neighboring Parts may not always bear the Burthen; and specifying in such Warrants the Place or Places from and to which the said Carriages shall, by virtue of such Orders as aforesaid, be required to travel, also specifying the Number of Miles between the Places, for which Number of Miles only so specified Constables or Petty Constables are authorized to demand Payment, which shall not exceed the Day's March of the Troop, as prescribed in the Order produced to the Magistrate, unless in case of pressing Emergency or Necessity, and shall in no case whatever exceed Twenty five Miles from the Place at which the March shall commence; and in case sufficient Carriages cannot be provided within any such Liberty, Division or Precinct, then the Justice or Justices of the Peace of the next adjoining County, Riding, or Division, shall, upon such Order as aforesaid being brought or shown to One or more of them by any of the Officers aforesaid, issue his or their Warrant to the Constables or Petty Constables of each next County, Riding, Liberty, Division or Precinct, as shall be most convenient for the Purposes aforesaid, according to their respective Jurisdictions, to make up such Deficiency: And the aforesaid Officer or Officers, who by virtue of the aforesaid Warrant from the Justices of the Peace, are to demand the Carriage or Carriages therein mentioned of the Constable or Petty Constable to whom the Warrant is directed, is and are hereby required at the same Time to pay down in Hand to the said Constable or Petty Constable, for the Use of the Person who shall provide such Carriages and Men, the Sums hereinafter mentioned respectively, for which respective Sums so received the said Constable or Petty Constable is hereby required to give a Receipt in Writing (which Receipt need not be stamped) to the Person or Persons paying the same: And such Constable or Petty Constable shall order and appoint such Person or Persons having Carriages within their respective Liberties, as they shall think proper, to provide and furnish such Carriages and Horses, and Oxen and Men, according to the Warrant aforesaid, who are hereby required to provide and furnish the same accordingly; and no Person owning or driving or causing to be driven any such Waggon, Wain, Cart or other Carriage, shall be subject to any Penalty for Forfeiture, nor shall any such Waggon, Wain, Cart or other Carriage, be stopped or detained, by reason of any Weight in any such Waggon, Wain, Cart or other Carriage, or of being drawn by any Number of Horses or Oxen; but it shall be lawful for any Owner of any such Waggon, Wain, Cart or other Carriage, to put any additional Number of Horses or Oxen to those prescribed or paid for under this Act, any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to Highways or Turnpike Roads, or any particular Highway, or Road, to the contrary notwithstanding; and if any Military Officer or Officers, for the Use of whose Regiment, Detachment, Troop or Company the Carriage was provided, shall force and constrain any Waggon, Wain, Cart or Carriage to travel beyond the Distance specified in the Magistrate's Warrant, or shall not discharge the same in due Time for their Return Home on the same Day, if it be practicable, or shall suffer any Soldier or Servant (except such as are sick), or any Woman, to ride in the Waggon, Wain, Cart or Carriage aforesaid; or shall force any Constable or Petty Constable, by threatening or coercing Words, to provide saddle Horses for themselves or Servants, or shall force Horses from the Owners, by themselves, Servants or Soldiers, every such Officer for every such Offence shall forfeit the Sum of Five Pounds, Proof thereof being made upon Oath before Two of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace of the same County or Riding, who are to certify the same to the Secretary at War, who is hereby authorized and required to give Orders for the Payment of the aforesaid Sum of Five Pounds, according to the Order and Appointment under the Hands and Seals of the aforesaid Justices of the Peace of the same County or Riding, and for deducting the same out of such Officer's Pay.

LXXII. And be it further enacted, That the Sums to be paid into the Hands of such Constable or Petty Constable in England, Holland Revised upon Travel, shall be according to the following Rates; that is to say, the Sum of One Shilling for every Mile any Waggon with Four or more Horses shall travel; and the Sum of One Shilling for every Mile any Wain with Six Oxen, or Four Oxen with Two Horses, shall travel; and the Sum of Nine Pence for every Mile any Waggon with Narrow Wheels, or any Cart with Four Horses respectively, or carrying not less than Fifteen hundred Weight, shall travel; and the Sum of Six Pence for every Mile any Cart or other Carriage with less than Four Horses, and not carrying Fifteen hundred Weight, shall travel; or any further Sum not exceeding Four Pence for every Mile any Waggon with Four or more Horses, or any Wain with Six Oxen, or with Four Oxen and Two Horses, shall travel; and not exceeding Three Pence for every Mile any Cart with Four Horses, or carrying not less than Fifteen hundred Weight, shall travel; and not exceeding Two Pence for every Mile any Cart or Carriage with less than Four Horses, and not carrying Fifteen hundred Weight, shall travel, according to the same shall be fixed and ordered by the Justices of the Peace for any County or District, assembled at any General Sessions of the Peace for such County or District, the said Justices having regard to the Price of Hay and Oats at the Time of fixing such additional Rates: Provided always, that in Cases where the Day's March shall exceed Fifteen Miles, such further Compensation shall be made and paid in like manner to the

An Act to continue for Five Years, and from thence until the End of the then next Session of Parliament, and to amend the Laws relating to Yeomanry Corps, in Ireland.

WHEREAS an Act was made in the Forty third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act for authorizing the collecting such Troops of Yeomanry and Volunteer Cavalry, as may be deemed of assembling for the Purpose of being trained together in Great Britain and Ireland, and for subjecting to Military Discipline during the War such Sergeants arriving in any Volunteer or Yeomanry Corps of Cavalry or Infantry as receive separate Pay, and all Transports, Drummers or Bagpipers, serving therein, and recruiting Pay, in any Army or worldly Rate; and for the further regulating of such Yeomanry and Volunteer Corps which Act was to continue and be in force during the Continuance of the War, and until Six Months after the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace with France: And Whereas by an Act made in the Fifty fourth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, so much of the said recited Act of the Forty third Year of His said late Majesty's Reign, as relates to such Troops or Corps in Ireland, was continued: and by an Act made in the Fifty sixth Year of His said late Majesty's Reign, so much of the said recited Act of the said Forty third Year, as relates to such Troops or Corps in Ireland, was further continued, and was amended: and by an Act made in the First Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, the said recited Act of the Forty third Year, so far as relates to any such Troops or Corps in Ireland, and also the said recited Act of the Fifty sixth Year, so far as the same amends the said Act of the said Forty third Year, were revived and continued for Two Years, and from thence until the End of the then next Session of Parliament: And Whereas it is expedient that the said recited Acts of the Forty third and Fifty sixth Years of His said late Majesty's Reign, so far as relates to any such Troops or Corps of Yeomanry in Ireland, should be further continued, and should be amended: Be it therefore enacted, by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said recited Act of the Forty third Year of His said late Majesty's Reign, so far as relates to any such Troops or Corps in Ireland, and also the said Act of the Fifty sixth Year of His said late Majesty's Reign, so far as the same amends the said Act of the said Forty third Year, shall be and the same are hereby continued as aforesaid by this Act: and that the said Acts shall be, and remain and continue in force during the Continuance of this Act: and that all such Provisions and Regulations in the said recited Act of the said Forty third Year contained, so far as relates to such Troops or Corps in Ireland, as by the said Act are applied during War, or during the Continuance of War, or during the Continuance of the War and until Six Months after the Ratification of such Definitive Treaty of Peace as aforesaid, shall be in force as amended by the said recited Act of the Fifty sixth Year and by this Act, during the Continuance of the present Act.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, in all Cases of Treason, Rebellion or Insurrection, or Apprehension thereof respectively, in Ireland, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, or the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, to order all and every or any Corps of Yeomanry in Ireland, or any Proportion or Detachment of any Corps of Yeomanry, forthwith to assemble in their respective Districts, and every or any such Corps, or any Proportion or Detachment thereof, or of any of them, shall thereupon be liable to march according to their respective Terms of Service, and the Order for their assembling as aforesaid, and the Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, Transports, Bagpipers, Drummers and Private Men, in every or any such Corps or Detachment respectively, when so assembled as aforesaid, from such Time and until the Entry shall be defeated and expelled, and all Rebellion and Insurrection or Apprehension thereof shall cease, shall be subject to any Act then in force for the Punishment of Mutiny and Desertion, and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters, and to any Articles of War made in pursuance thereof; and all Persons who shall be required by their Commanding Officer to join their respective Corps, or any Proportion or Detachment thereof, and to assemble and march therewith, and who shall not join and assemble and march accordingly, shall be liable to be apprehended and punished as Deserters, according to the Provisions of any such Act as aforesaid, and of any Articles made in pursuance thereof.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland to direct and order that any Corps of Yeomanry in Ireland, or any Proportion or Detachment thereof, shall be assembled under the Authority of the said recited Acts and this Act, by any Warrant to be directed and transmitted to the Officer commanding any such Corps of Yeomanry, in the Form contained in the Schedule annexed to this Act, or to such other Form as the like Purpose or Effect as such Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors shall think fit and proper.

IV. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall continue in force for Five Years from the passing thereof, and from the Expiration of such Five Years until the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

An Act to explain so much of the General Turnpike Act, as relates to the Toll payable on Carriages laden with Lime for the Improvement of Land. [24th March 1823.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled An Act to amend the General Laws now in being for regulating Turnpike Roads in that Part of Great Britain called England; And Whereas Doubts have arisen whether, under the Provisions of the said Act, Lime for improving Land,

Land, although exempted from Toll by several Local Acts, may not by the said recited Act be made chargeable with Toll: For removing such Doubts, be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That nothing in the said Act shall extend or be construed to extend to enable any Collector or Collectors of Tolls authorized to be taken under any Local Act or Acts of Parliament, for Horses or Carriages employed in carrying or conveying Lime for the Improvement of Land, to take or demand any Toll for Lime as aforesaid, other than such as might have been demanded and taken under the Authority of any such Local Act, previous to the passing of the said recited Act of the last Session of Parliament; any thing in the said Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in all Cases where any Lease or Contract shall have been made upon the passing of the said recited Act, by any Trustees of any Turnpike Road or Roads to or with any Collector or Collectors of Tolls, for letting to farm any Tolls to be received or taken upon any such Road or Roads, wherein a Toll on Lime for improving Land was payable or considered to be payable under the said recited Act at the Time of making or entering into any such Lease or Contract, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Trustees to make such fair and reasonable Abatement in the Rent payable by such Collector or Collectors during the unexpired Residue of such Lease or Contract as aforesaid, as shall be agreed upon by and between the said Trustees and such Collector or Collectors as aforesaid, or such Lease or Contract shall, at the Expiration of One Calendar Month after the passing of this Act, either become absolutely void, upon Payment, but not otherwise, by such Collector or Collectors, or his, her or their Heirs, Executors or Administrators, of all Rent and Arrears of Rent, or Sum or Sums of Money which shall be due and payable by him, her or them at and up to the End of the said Calendar Month.

III. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, amended, or repealed, by any Act or Acts to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

CAP. XVII.

An Act to repeal certain Provisions of an Act passed in the Third Year of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to amend certain Provisions of the Twenty sixth of George the Second, for the better preventing of Clandestine Marriages. [30th March 1823.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Third Year of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to amend certain Provisions of the Twenty sixth of George the Second, for the better preventing of Clandestine Marriages, it is amongst other things enacted, That no Licence for any Marriage shall, from and after the First Day of September in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, be granted by any Person having Authority to grant the same, until Oath shall have been made by the Persons and to the Effect required by the said Act: And whereas Inconveniences have been found to arise from such Provisions, and from certain other Provisions of the said Act contained in that Part of the said Act which is subsequent to such heretofore recited Provisions: And Whereas it is expedient to repeal such Provisions, and so to amend the said Act that it shall be otherwise provided by Parliament, Marriages, whether solemnized by Licence or after Publication of Banns, may, save as is hereinafter provided, be regulated by the Provisions of an Act passed in the Twenty sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intitled An Act for the better preventing of Clandestine Marriages, as before the passing of the said Act of the Third Year of His present Majesty: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, the herein before recited Provisions of the said Act, and all and every the Enactments and Provisions contained in that Part of the said Act which is subsequent to such heretofore recited Provisions, shall be and the same are hereby repealed; and that Licences shall and may be granted by the same Persons, and in the same Manner and Form, and in the case of Witnesses with the same Consent, and Banns be published in the same Manner and Form, as Licences and Banns were respectively regulated by the Provisions of the said recited Act of His late Majesty King George the Second.

II. And Whereas it may happen that, after the passing of this Act, Marriages may be solemnized according to the Provisions of the said recited Act of His present Majesty: Be it therefore enacted, That all Marriages which have been or shall be solemnized under Licences granted or Banns published conformably to the Provisions of the said recited Act of His present Majesty, shall be good and valid: Provided always, that no Marriage solemnized under any Licence granted in the Form and Manner prescribed by either of the said recited Acts, shall be deemed invalid on account of Want of Consent of any Parent or Guardian.

III. And be it further enacted, That a printed Copy of this Act shall, as soon as conveniently may be after the passing thereof, be provided by His Majesty's Printer, and transmitted to the officiating Ministers of the several Parishes and Chapels in England respectively.

IV. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, amended or repealed by any Act or Acts to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

[This Act repealed, or therein mentioned, by Cap. 75. post.]

Not to enforce Collectors of Tolls to take Toll for Lime, unless authorized by some Local Act.

Abatement in Cases of Lease or Contract for Tolls, where Toll on Lime was considered to be payable, or Contract to be void after the Expiration of a Month, upon Payment of Rent, &c.

Act may be altered, &c. this Session.

An Act concerning the Disposition of certain Property of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors. [26th March 1823.]

c. 51. 51

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Thirty sixth and Fortieth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act concerning the Disposition of certain Real and Personal Property of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and also of the Real and Personal Property of Her Majesty, and of the Queen Consort for the time being, Power was given to His then Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, to grant, sell, give or devise, in Manner and Form therein mentioned, all and every or any of the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, purchased or to be purchased by His said then Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, out of Moneys issued and applied for the Use of His or Their Privy Purse, or with Moneys not appropriated to any Public Service, or which had or should come to His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, by the Gift or Devise of, or by Descent or otherwise from, any Ancestors or other Person not being King or Queen of this Realm, unto any Person or Persons, for any Estate or Estates, or for any Income or Purposes, His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors respectively, should think fit; and certain other Provisions were enacted touching and concerning such Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments: And Whereas the Powers and Provisions of the said Act do not extend to Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, whereof His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, or any Person or Persons in trust for Him or Them, was, were or may be seized or possessed at the Time of His or Their Accessions to the Crown of this Realm, and which, before such Accession, He or They might have legally granted, sold, given or devised, as He or They respectively might think fit; and it is reasonable that the said Powers and Provisions should be extended thereto: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all the Powers given to and vested in His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, by the said recited Act, over the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments purchased or to be purchased by Him or Them, or coming to Him or Them in manner in the said recited Act mentioned, and all other the Provisions of the said recited Act touching and concerning the same, shall be, and the same Powers and Provisions are hereby extended to, and shall be deemed, construed and taken to extend and apply to all Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, whether of Freehold or Copyhold, or Customary or Leasehold Tenure, whereof His Majesty, or any Person or Persons in trust for Him, at the Time of His Accession to the Crown of this Realm, or whereof His Heirs or Successors, or any Person or Persons in trust for Them, at the Time of Their respective Accessions to the Crown of this Realm, was, were or shall be seized and possessed, and which, before such Accession, He or They respectively might have legally granted, sold, given or delivered.

708-40 G. 4.
c. 51, extended to Manors, &c. in Possession at the Accession to the Crown.

C A P. XIX.

An Act for further regulating the Reduction of the National Debt. [26th March 1823.]

WHEREAS divers Acts of Parliament have been passed, and Provisions have been made in Acts of Parliament from time to time, for the Reduction of the National Debt: And Whereas it was resolved by the Commons House of Parliament, on the Eighth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, - That to provide for the Enlargement of the Public Service, to make such progressive Reduction of the National Debt as may adequately support Public Credit, and to afford to the Country a Prospect of future Relief from a Part of its present Burden, it is absolutely necessary, that there should be a clear Surplus of the Income of the Treasury beyond the Expenditure, of not less than Five Millions: And Whereas it is expedient to make Provision for the carrying the said Resolution into effect; and it is likewise necessary to repeal certain Acts of Parliament, and to amend Provisions in other Acts of Parliament, and to make further Provisions in relation thereto: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Payment of all and every Tax or Sum of Money which now are charged upon and payable out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, shall, upon and after the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, cease and determine.

Provision made of Consolidated Fund for Commissioners of National Debt to receive

All Stock and Annuities for Years in Name of Commissioners of National Debt to be received, Excepions.

II. And be it further enacted, That all Capital Stock, here and except the Capital Stock hereinafter directed to be carried to a new and separate Account, and all Annuities for Terms of Years, which on the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, shall stand or be placed in the Names of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or of the Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain trading to the South Seas and other Parts of America, and for encasing the Fishery, or of the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, either on account of the Sinking Fund, or for the Purchase of Life Annuities, by virtue of any Act or Acts now in force, shall, on and from the said Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty three (except as hereinafter is excepted), be cancelled in the Books of the said Banks and South Sea House respectively; and the Interest or Dividends which would have been due and payable on the said Capital Stock upon or after the said Fifth Day of April shall cease to be issued or to be charged upon the said Consolidated Fund; and no such Interest or Dividend shall be chargeable or charged or issued on the said Fifth Day of April, or on any subsequent Day.

III. And Whereas sundry Sums of Money have by various Acts of Parliament been directed to be set apart as the Receipts for the Exchequer for the Payment of Life Annuities payable at the Exchequer; and it has been provided that all such Annuities as have expired or been annulled for the Space of Three Years shall be paid to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt; And Whereas it is expedient that all such Sums or Sums of Money so say, on the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, be in the Exchequer for the Purpose of being paid over to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, shall not be so paid over, but shall be and remain in the Exchequer as a Part of the growing Produce of the Consolidated Fund, and shall be applied as such; and that the Charge to be made upon the Consolidated Fund, on the said Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, or on any succeeding Quarter Day, shall be such a Sum only as may be sufficient to pay the Amount of Annuities then existing and becoming due. Be it therefore further enacted, That any Sum or Sums of Money which may, on the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, be and remain in the Exchequer on account of expired or annulled Life Annuities, shall be carried to and form a Part of the growing Produce of the Consolidated Fund; and that there shall be charged upon the Consolidated Fund, on the said Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, and in every succeeding Quarter, such Sums or Sums of Money only as the unexpired Life Annuities then remaining due and unpaid may amount to; and if at any Time the Sum so charged upon the Consolidated Fund shall not be sufficient to defray the Life Annuities due and to be paid within the Quarter, the Deficiency shall be raised and paid out of the growing Produce of the Consolidated Fund.

IV. And be it further enacted, That upon the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, or at soon after as the same can be prepared, an Account shall be laid before Parliament by the said Commissioners, and shall be published in the London and Dublin Gazettes, shewing the total Amount of the Unredeemed Funded Debt and Outstanding Unfunded Debt in Exchequer Bills unprovided for, of the United Kingdom, on the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, together with the Annual Charge attending the same; and from and after the said Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty three there shall be set apart and issued at the Receipt of the Exchequer, out of the said Consolidated Fund, to be placed to the Account of the said Commissioners towards the Reduction of the National Debt, the annual Sum of Five Millions; and the said Annual Sum is hereby made chargeable thereon, by equal Quarterly Payments in each Year: the First Quarterly Payment to be charged upon the said Fund on the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty three; and the said Quarterly Payments shall be issued and paid from time to time into the Bank of England, or into the Bank of Ireland, by equal Quarterly Sums, in such Proportions, and at such Times in each Quarter, as the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt shall require, according to the Provisions and Directions of any Act or Acts of Parliament now in force respecting Sums issued from the said Exchequer towards the Reduction of the National Debt; and all Sums which by virtue of this Act shall be from time to time placed to the Account of the said Commissioners shall and are hereby appropriated to, and shall accumulate in manner hereinafter directed, and shall from time to time be applied by the said Commissioners according to the Directions, Restrictions and Provisions of the several Acts now in force relating to Sums issued for the Reduction of the National Debt of the United Kingdom.

V. And be it enacted, That so much of an Act passed in the Fifth third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to alter and amend several Acts passed in His present Majesty's Reign, relating to the Redemption of the National Debt, and for making further Provisions in respect thereof; and so much of another Act passed in the Fifth sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to alter and amend several Acts relating to the Redemption of the National Debt of Ireland, and to make further Provisions in respect thereof; which require that whenever an Amount of Capital Funded Debt of Great Britain and Ireland respectively shall have been purchased or transferred to the said Commissioners, as shall be equal to the whole Capital, and which shall have produced an Interest or yearly Dividend equal in Amount to the whole Annual Charge in perpetual Annuities of such Loan contracted since One thousand seven hundred and eighty six, that a Certificate and Declaration thereof shall be made by the said Commissioners, according to the Directions contained in the said Acts: and the Amount of the Public Debt to which such Certificate and Declaration shall relate, shall from time to time be deemed and taken to be wholly satisfied and discharged, and an equal Amount of Capital Stock, standing in the Names of the said Commissioners, shall be considered to be released, and shall from time to time be cancelled, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

VI. And be it further enacted, That no Capital Stock, or Annuities for Terms of Years, nor any Part or Parts of any Capital Stock or Annuities, which have not after the said Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, shall be placed in the Names of the said Commissioners in the Books of the said Bank of England, or of the South Sea House, or of the Bank of Ireland, shall be cancelled here and except the Stock placed in their Names for the Redemption of the Loan Tax, and the Interest of the Debt redeemed by the said Commissioners, by the Application of the said Sum of Five Millions, and of the growing Interest thereof, shall, together with the said Sum of Five Millions, Money remaining in the Exchequer on account of expired or annulled Life Annuities, shall be and remain in the Consolidated Fund.

Account of Debt and Annual Charge to be laid before Parliament and published, and an Annual Sum of 5,000,000 to be set apart for its Discharge Quarterly.

Millions, have accumulated to a Sum, the Annual Amount whereof shall not be less than the One hundredth Part of the then existing Undeemed Funded Debt and Outstanding Unfunded Debt in Exchequer Bills provided for, of the United Kingdom, taken together; and that any Capital Stock which shall be placed in the Names of the said Commissioners on account of the Sinking Fund, or for the Purchase of Life Annuities, after the said Sinking Fund shall amount to the One hundredth Part of the said Undeemed Funded and Unfunded Debt as aforesaid, taken together, shall be liable to be cancelled at such Taxes, and in such Proportions, and in such Manner as Parliament may from time to time direct.

VII. And be it further enacted, That when the Sinking Fund shall amount to the One hundredth Part of the said Undeemed and Unfunded Debt, the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt shall cause an Account to be prepared, shewing the Amount of the said Debt taken together, and also the Amount of the Sinking Fund then applicable to the Reduction thereof; which Account shall thereupon be laid before Parliament, if Parliament shall then be sitting, or if Parliament shall not be sitting, then within Fourteen Days after the next Meeting of Parliament.

VIII. And Whereas certain Sums have at various Times been given by way of Donation or Bequest, towards reducing the National Debt, and which Sums, if a separate Account had been kept thereof, would by Computation have accumulated, on the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, to One hundred and thirty seven thousand two hundred and forty three Pounds Consolidated Three Pounds per Centum Bank Annuities: And Whereas it is expedient that a new and separate Account should in future be kept thereof, as well as of any other Sums which may hereafter be given for a similar Purpose: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, a new and separate Account shall be raised in the Books of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, and as the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, under the Title of "The Account of Donations and Bequests towards reducing the National Debt" and the said Governor and Company are hereby required to cause the Sum of One hundred and thirty seven thousand two hundred and forty three Pounds Consolidated Three Pounds per Centum Bank Annuities to be taken out of the Names of the said Commissioners now standing in the Books of the said Bank as their Account, entitled "The Account of the Commissioners appointed by Act of Parliament for applying certain Sums of Money annually to the Reduction of the National Debt," and to be wrote into the Names of the said Commissioners in the new and separate Account directed to be raised in virtue of this Act, and also to cause any other Sum or Sums to be carried to the said new Account, which may hereafter be given for the like Purpose; and the Interest or Dividends which shall accrue from time to time on all Stock standing on the said Account, shall be applied from time to time to the Purchase of the public Securities comprising the National Debt, for the Purpose of fulfilling the Directions of the Persons or Persons giving or bequeathing the said Sums, and to no other Purpose whatsoever.

IX. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Forty ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for raising the Sum of Fourteen millions six hundred thousand Pounds by way of Annuities, a separate Account was directed to be kept of the Loan of Six hundred thousand Pounds to the Prince Regent of Portugal, and it is no longer necessary that the said Account should be kept separate: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, the said separate Account shall cease and determine, and the Capital Debt created by the said Loan of Six hundred thousand Pounds, together with the annual Charge thereof, shall be deemed, from and after the said Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, to be Part of the Consolidated Funded Debt and annual Charge of the United Kingdom, and the same is hereby consolidated therewith; any thing in the said Act of the Forty ninth Year of the Reign of King George the Third to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

X. And be it further enacted, That as much of the said recited Acts of the twenty sixth and Thirty seventh Years of His late Majesty King George the Third, as require the said Commissioners to lay certain Accounts annually before Parliament, relating to the Reduction of the National Debt, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

XI. And be it enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, in lieu of the Accounts required by the said Acts, the said Commissioners shall cause an Account to be prepared, containing a Statement of all Sums received and applied by them towards the Reduction of the National Debt, in every succeeding Year ending on the Fifth Day of January in each Year.

XII. And Whereas, for the Purpose of ascertaining the actual Amount of the Annual Charge standing the National Debt, it is expedient that the Expenses of the Establishment of the said Commissioners should be deemed Part of the said Annual Charge: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, the Annual Expenses of the said Establishment in Great Britain shall be charged upon the said Consolidated Fund (and the same is hereby made chargeable and charged thereon), and Sums shall be issued from time to time at the Receipt of the Exchequer in Great Britain, out of the said Consolidated Fund, under the Authority and by Direction of the Lord High Treasurer of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of Three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury of the said United Kingdom for the time being, for the Purpose of defraying the same; and the Expenses of the said Establishment shall, from and after the said Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, constitute and form Part of the Annual Charge of the National Debt of Great Britain.

XIII. And he it further enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, all the Expenses of carrying into Execution the Provisions of an Act, passed in the Forty eighth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intitled An Act for enabling the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt to grant Life Annuities, and of the Establishment necessary for enacting the said Provisions; and all the Expense of the Establishment necessary for carrying into Execution the Provisions of an Act of Parliament, passed in the Thirty sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act to enlarge the Time limited for the Redemption of the Land Tax; and to explain and amend an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intitled 'An Act for making perpetual, subject to Redemption and Purchase in the manner therein stated, 'the several Sums of Money now charged in Great Britain as a Land Tax for One Year, from the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand seven hundred and ninety eight; and of another Act passed in the Fifty fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled 'An Act to alter and amend several Statutes of the Powers and Provisions of several Acts passed for the Redemption and Sale of the Land Tax, and for making farther Provision for the Redemption thereof;' shall be charged upon the said Consolidated Fund (and the same is hereby made chargeable and charged thereon), and Sums shall be issued from time to time, at the Receipt of the Exchequer in Great Britain, out of the Consolidated Fund, under the Authority and by the Direction of the Lord High Treasurer or Three Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, for the Purpose of defraying the same; and all such Expenses, and Sums issued for the Payment thereof, shall, after the said Fifth Day of April, constitute and form Part of the Annual Charge of the National Debt of Great Britain.

XIV. And he it enacted, That the Act, or any Part thereof, may be altered, varied or repealed by any Act to be passed in this Session of Parliament.

 - Fifteenth July - One million one hundred and thirty thousand three hundred and seventy Pounds;
- One thousand eight hundred and twenty six:
 - Fifteenth January - One million ninety seven thousand eight hundred and seventy Pounds;
 - Fifteenth July - One million sixty seven thousand eight hundred and seventy Pounds;

[3d May 1823.]

Agreement of the Trustees under the said Act with the Bank.

One thousand eight hundred and twenty seven:

15th January - One million thirty seven thousand eight hundred and seventy Pounds;

15th July - Nine hundred ninety two thousand eight hundred and seventy Pounds:

One thousand eight hundred and twenty eight:

15th January - Nine hundred forty seven thousand eight hundred and seventy Pounds;

15th July - One million twenty seven thousand five hundred Pounds:

And it has been agreed between the said Trustees and the said Governor and Company, subject to the Approbation of and the Confirmation of these Presents by Parliament, that the said Trustees shall and will, on or before the Fifteenth Day of April next, transfer to the said Governor and Company, in the Books to be kept at the Bank of England for the entering and transferring of such Part or Parts of the said Annuity as shall be said as directed by the said Act, the Sum of Five hundred eighty five thousand seven hundred and forty Pounds per Annum, Part of the said Annuity of Two million eight hundred thousand Pounds created by the said Act; and that the said Governor and Company shall pay into the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer, to the Credit of the said Trustees, the said several Payments above mentioned, in the present and in each of the said Five ensuing Years, on the several Days hereinafter stipulated, and ending the Fifteenth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty eight; and that it shall be lawful for the said Governor and Company, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, at any Time or Times after the said Sum of Five hundred and eighty five thousand seven hundred and forty Pounds, Part of the said Annuity of Two million eight hundred thousand Pounds, shall be so transferred into their Names by the said Trustees, to sell, assign and transfer any Part or Parts, Partion or Portions, of the said Annuity so to be transferred into their Names as aforesaid, to any Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Public or Corporate whatsoever, freed and discharged of and from the Payment by any such Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Public or Corporate, of the then remaining Sums hereinafter stipulated to be paid by the said Governor and Company into the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer: And Whereas it is expedient that the said Agreement should be confirmed by Parliament: And Whereas the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland did, on the Fifteenth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, under the Provisions of the said recited Act, advance to the Trustees nominated and appointed by the said recited Act the Sum of One million and fifty thousand Pounds, in Exchequer Bills, to enable them to complete the Payment then becoming due from the said Trustees under the Provisions of the said recited Act; and it is expedient and proper that the said Trustees should, with the Money to be paid into the Exchequer on their Account, under the said Agreement, by the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, on the Fifteenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, and also with the Sum of One million four hundred thousand Pounds, being the Half Year's Dividend of the Annuity of Two million eight hundred thousand Pounds becoming due to the said Trustees on the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, pay on the said Fifteenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty three the Sum of One million two hundred and twenty five thousand Pounds, being the Amount of the Payment then becoming due from the said Trustees under the Provisions of the said recited Act, and that they the said Trustees should further pay the Sum of One million and sixty thousand seven hundred and sixteen Pounds, the Remainder of the said Sum of Eight hundred and eighty five thousand seven hundred and sixteen Pounds, and One million four hundred thousand Pounds, in Discharge of the Principal and Interest of the Exchequer Bills issued to them by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury on the Fifteenth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty three: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Agreement shall be and the same is hereby confirmed to be good, valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

It. And he it further enacted, That the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England may and shall from time to time advance and pay into the Exchequer the several Sums mentioned in the said Agreement, at the respective Times in the said Agreement specified, except as to the Part of the said Sums, which shall be paid immediately after the passing of this Act; and the said Governor and Company shall be entitled to and shall have and receive in lieu thereof the said Annuity or yearly Sum of Five hundred and eighty five thousand seven hundred and forty Pounds, so to be transferred to the said Governor and Company on or before the said Fifteenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, for the Remainder of the Term of Forty five Years, for which the Annuity of Two million eight hundred thousand Pounds was created; any thing contained in an Act passed in the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of King William and Queen Mary, intitled An Act for granting to their Majesties several Rates and Duties upon Tonnage of Ships and Vessels, and upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors; and for entering certain Receipts and Advantages in the said Act mentioned to such Persons as shall voluntarily advance the Sum of One million five hundred thousand Pounds towards carrying on the War against France; or in any other Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

III. And he it further enacted, That in lieu of the several Sums directed by the said recited Act of the last Session of Parliament to be paid, on or before the Fifteenth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty eight, into the Receipt of the Exchequer, by the Trustees under the said Act, at the various Times therein specified, the said Trustees shall and they are hereby required, on or before

C A P. XXIII.

AN ACT to consolidate the several Boards of Customs, and also the several Boards of Excise, of Great Britain and Ireland. [2d May 1823.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fifty sixth year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act to unite and consolidate into One Fund all the Public Revenues of Great Britain and Ireland, and to provide for the Application thereof to the general Service of the United Kingdom, the several Funds called the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain, and the Consolidated Fund of Ireland respectively, were consolidated and made to constitute One general Fund, called "The Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland;" And Whereas it is highly desirable that all the Rates, Duties, Taxes, Receipts and Revenues, forming Part of or directed to be carried to the said Fund, or under any other Denomination constituting Part of the general Revenue of the United Kingdom, under the Management and Direction of the Lord High Treasurer of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the time being, should be assessed, charged, levied, collected and managed in an uniform Manner, and under uniform Rules and Regulations throughout the whole of the United Kingdom: And Whereas it would tend greatly to accelerate the establishing such Uniformity of System and Management, if His Majesty was empowered to appoint Commissioners or other Persons for the Management of each of the general Branches or Descriptions of the said Revenues in the whole of the United Kingdom, in lieu of the Commissioners or other Authorities which have been heretofore by Law appointed for the separate Management of the same in England, Scotland and Ireland respectively: And Whereas it is expedient more particularly to make expedient Provision for such a Consolidation of Management with respect to the Revenues of the Customs and of the Excise: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, from time to time to appoint, under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, any Number of Persons, not exceeding Thirteen, to be Commissioners of Customs, and any Number of Persons, not exceeding Thirteen, to be Commissioners of Excise, for the Collection and Management of the whole of the Revenues of Customs and Excise respectively arising in and throughout the whole of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; and also to appoint any Number of Persons, not exceeding Four, to be Assistant Commissioners of Customs, and any Number of Persons, not exceeding Four, to be Assistant Commissioners of Excise, for the Purpose of acting, in manner heretofore mentioned, in conjunction with the Commissioners to be appointed as aforesaid, in the Collection and Management of each of the said Revenues of Customs and Excise respectively arising in Scotland and Ireland; and that each of such Commissioners and Assistant Commissioners, when so appointed, shall have and hold his respective Office during His Majesty's Pleasure.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to repeal or alter any Act or Acts, or any Provision in any Act or Acts of Parliament in force, relating or having reference to the said respective Duties of Customs or Excise in England, Scotland or Ireland respectively, at or immediately before the passing of this Act, except so far as such Act or Acts are expressly repealed or altered by this Act.

III. And be it further enacted, That any Four of such Thirteen Commissioners of Customs shall constitute a Board of Commissioners of Customs, and that any Four of such Thirteen Commissioners of Excise shall constitute a Board of Commissioners of Excise for the whole of the United Kingdom, to sit and act in England; and such Boards of Commissioners of Customs and of Excise respectively shall have, use, and exercise throughout the United Kingdom all and any and every such Powers and Authorities as are now given or vested in, or as might be used and exercised by the Commissioners of Customs, or the Commissioners of Excise respectively, under or by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force at or immediately before the passing of this Act, relating to the Duties and Revenues of Customs and Excise respectively, in England, Scotland or Ireland respectively, and all such Powers and Authorities shall be and are lawfully given to and vested in such Board of Commissioners of Customs as to the Duties and Revenues of Customs, and in such Board of Commissioners of Excise as to the Duties and Revenues of Excise, so fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever as if such Powers and Authorities, were severally, separately and respectively repeated and re-enacted in this Act, and made Part thereof; and all Rules, Orders, Regulations, Acts, Matters and Things which shall be made, directed and done by such Board of Commissioners of Customs or Board of Commissioners of Excise respectively, in any wise concerning the Duties or Revenues of Customs or Excise, under their respective Control or Management respectively, or relating to the Collection or Management of such Duties and Revenues respectively, and which by any Act or Acts of Parliament, Law, Usage or Custom in force at or immediately before the passing of this Act, were or were authorized or required to be made or done, or which might be made or done by the Commissioners of Customs or Excise in and for England, Scotland or Ireland respectively, in relation to the said Duties or Revenues respectively, shall be and be deemed to be as good, valid and effectual in the Law to all Intents and Purposes as if made or done under any such Act or Acts of Parliament by the Commissioners heretofore separately acting for England, Scotland and Ireland respectively; and all Persons whosoever in England, Scotland and Ireland respectively, shall be subject and liable to the same Fines and Penalties for doing or omitting to do any Act, Matter or Thing relating to or in any wise concerning any of such Duties or Revenues of Customs or Excise respectively, contrary to any such Orders or Directions, Rules or Regulations of such Commissioners, as such Persons respectively would have been subject and liable to for doing or omitting to do the same Acts and Matters or Things respectively, contrary to any Order or Direction of the Commissioners of Customs or Excise for England, Scotland or Ireland respectively, by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force at or immediately before the passing of this Act: Provided always, that all Orders, Directions, Rules and Regulations in force at the Time of the passing of this Act, which are not altered or varied by this Act, or contrary to any of the Provisions thereof, shall remain in full Force and Effect until the same shall be abrogated, limited, altered or varied by the Commissioners of Customs and Excise respectively under this Act.

IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, from time to time, or any Three or more of them, or for the Lord High Treasurer of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the time being, to order and direct any One or more of such Commissioners of Customs, and any One or more of such Commissioners of Excise, together with Two of such Assistant Commissioners of Customs, and Two of such Assistant Commissioners of Excise respectively, to sit and act as a Board of Commis-

C A P. XXIV.

An Act to make more effectual Provision for permitting Goods imported to be secured in Warehouses or other Places, without Payment of Duty on the first Entry thereof.

[14th May 1823.]

WHEREAS under and by virtue of an Act passed in the Forty third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act for permitting certain Goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in Warehouses without Payment of Duty, and of an Act made in the Forty eighth Year of His said late Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to permit certain Goods imported into Ireland to be warehoused or secured without the Duties due on the Importation thereof being first paid, and of several Acts for amending and extending the Provisions of the said recited Acts, the Importers, Proprietors or Consignees of certain Goods and Merchandize, are permitted to lodge and secure the same in Warehouses, and otherwise, without Payment, at the Time of the first Entry of such Goods and Merchandize, of the Duties of Customs and Excise due on the Importation thereof: And Whereas, for the general Encouragement and Increase of Commerce, it is expedient that all Goods and Merchandize whatsoever should be allowed to be imported into any Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and secured in Warehouses and otherwise, under Regulation to be made and declared for that Purpose, notwithstanding any Prohibition or Restriction now in force upon the Importation of any such Goods or Merchandize; and that certain Goods and Merchandize should be allowed to be taken out of such Warehouses, either for the Purpose of Exportation free of any Duty whatever, or (on Payment of the Duties for Home Consumption, at the Option of the Proprietor; and that certain other Goods and Merchandize, being heretofore subject to Prohibition or Restriction on the Importation thereof, should be exported from such Warehouses to certain Ports and Places free of any Duty whatever; and that the Prohibitions and Restrictions on the Importation of certain Goods and Merchandize should be repealed, so as to permit the Importation of such Goods and Merchandize for the Purpose of being secured in Warehouses for Exportation; and that the Regulations contained in the said recited Acts of the Forty third and Forty eighth Years of His late Majesty's Reign, and in several Acts for amending and extending the same, should be repealed, in order that the same may be revised, amended and consolidated: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Commencement of this Act, the said heretofore recited Act of the Forty third Year of His late Majesty's Reign, for permitting certain Goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in Warehouses without Payment of Duty, shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and that from and after the Commencement of this Act, the several Acts and Parts of Acts heretofore mentioned shall also be repealed; that is to say, an Act made in the Forty fifth Year of His said late Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to authorize the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury to permit certain Articles to be warehoused in different Ports in Great Britain, upon giving Security for the Payment of Duties upon the Articles therein mentioned; and also an Act made in the Forty sixth Year of His said late Majesty's Reign, made among other Things for extending the Provisions of the said recited Act of the Forty third Year of His said late Majesty's Reign to other Articles not therein mentioned, so far as the said Act relates to such Extension; and also an Act made in the Forty seventh Year of His said late Majesty's Reign, among other Things, for repealing so much of certain Acts as relate to the Regulations or Conditions under which Coffee, Cocoa Nuts, Sugar and Rice (not being the Produce of the East Indies), are allowed to be secured in Warehouses without Payment of Duty, so far as the same relates to such Coffee, Cocoa Nuts, Sugar and Rice; and also the said heretofore recited Act of the Forty eighth Year of His said late Majesty's Reign, for permitting certain Goods imported into Ireland to be warehoused or secured without the Duties due on the Importation thereof being first paid; and also an Act made in the said Forty eighth Year of His said late Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for reducing the Ervow Duties on Coffee imported into Great Britain, and for directing that Coffee and Cocoa merchandize shall be subject to the Regulations of an Act of the Forty third Year of His present Majesty, for permitting certain Goods imported to be secured in Warehouses, so far as the said Act relates to Coffee or Cocoa so warehoused; and also another Act made in the said Forty eighth Year of His said late Majesty's Reign, among other Things, for permitting Goods secured in Warehouses in the Port of London to be removed to the Outports for Exportation to any Part of Europe, so far as the said Act relates to the Removal of such Goods; and also an Act made in the Forty ninth Year of His said late Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for allowing further Time for taking Goods out of Warehouses and paying Duties thereon; and also an Act made in the Fifthth Year of His said late Majesty's Reign, for extending the Provisions of the said heretofore recited Act of the Forty eighth Year of His said late Majesty's Reign, for permitting the warehousing of Goods imported into Ireland; and also an Act made in the Fifthth Year of His said late Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to permit the Removal of Goods, Wares and Merchandize, from the Port at Great Britain where first warehoused, to any other warehousing Port, for the Purpose of Exportation; and also so much of an Act made in the Fifty

IV. And be it further enacted, That any Goods and Merchandise which, under this Act, are allowed to be lodged and deposited or secured in Warehouses or other secure Places, shall and may be imported for the Purpose of this Act, although the Importation thereof may be prohibited or restrained by any Act or Acts in force immediately before the Commencement of this Act; any thing in any such Act or Acts to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to permit the Importation of any Gunpowder, Arms, Ammunition or Utensils of War, contrary to an Act made in the First Year of the Reign of King James the Second, against such Importation, nor to permit the Importation of any dried or salted Fish (except Stock Fish), nor to permit the Importation of any Beef, Pork or Bacon, nor to permit the Importation of any infected Hides, Skins, Horns, Hoofs or of any other Part of any Cattle or Beast, nor to permit the Importation of any coarse-texted Cloths, nor to permit the Importation of any Books first composed or written or printed and published in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and reprinted in any other Country or Place, or of any Copies of Prints first engraved, etched, drawn or designed in the said United Kingdom, or of any Copies or Casts of Sculptures or Models first made in the said United Kingdom, contrary to the several Acts made and in force for the prohibiting or restraining the Importation of the said several Articles, Matters and Things, or any of them respectively, either generally or under any particular Circumstances; any thing heretofore contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, at any Time after the Commencement of this Act, by their Warrant under their Hands, or the Hands of any Three or more of the said Commissioners for the time being, from time to time to select, appoint, approve and declare in what Ports in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, and in what Warehouses or Places in such Ports, Goods and Merchandise of every Description, or Goods and Merchandise of any particular Description, or any particular Articles of Merchandise, shall and may be lodged in Warehouses, or otherwise secured, without Payment of Duty so aforesaid, and all such Goods and Merchandise, or such particular Goods and Merchandise, or such particular Articles of Merchandise, shall and may be so lodged in Warehouses or secured at any such Port in Great Britain or Ireland respectively, so appointed, approved, selected and declared, and at so other Port or Place whatever in Great Britain or Ireland respectively; and that every such Warrant of the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, in all Cases, whether the Privilege of warehousing or otherwise securing Goods and Merchandise at any Port shall extend to every Description of Goods and Merchandise, or whether such Privilege shall be confined to particular Goods and Merchandise, shall be published Three Times in the London Gazette or Dublin Gazette respectively; and that in all Cases where such Privilege shall be confined to particular Goods and Merchandise, or to particular Articles of Merchandise, a List of such Goods and Merchandise as shall be so permitted to be warehoused or secured shall be in like manner inserted and specified in the London Gazette, or Dublin Gazette respectively.

VI. And Whereas it is expedient, for the Protection of the Manufactures of this Country, that the several Goods and Merchandise the Importation of which both been prohibited by any Act or Acts in force immediately before the passing of this Act, but which by virtue of this Act may be imported and warehoused for the Purpose of Exportation only, should be lodged and deposited in Warehouses or Places of special Security: Be it therefore enacted, That all such Goods and Merchandise the Importation whereof hath been so prohibited, but which shall at any Time after the Commencement of this Act be imported under the Provisions of this Act, shall be lodged and secured, and kept separate from all other Goods and Merchandise, in Warehouses which are or shall be erected and built in Places inclosed by and surrounded with Walls, or in such other Warehouses or Places of special Security as shall be appointed and appointed by Warrant as aforesaid of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three of them, and in no other Warehouse or Place whatever; and such Warehouses and Places shall be appointed accordingly for the Reception and Security of such Goods and Merchandise, by Warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, under their Hands, or the Hands of any Three of them, specifying the Situations of the several Warehouses, and the Goods and Merchandise to be lodged or warehoused therein, and that such Goods and Merchandise shall be kept separate from all other Goods and Merchandise, and every such Warrant shall be published Three Times in the London Gazette and Dublin Gazette respectively.

VII. And, for the Security of the Revenue of Customs and Excise, be it further enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act, all such Goods and Merchandise as are enumerated and described in the Schedule marked (A.) to this Act aforesaid, shall be lodged and deposited in Warehouses which are or shall be erected and built in Places inclosed by and surrounded with Walls, or in such other Warehouses or Places of special Security as shall be from time to time appointed and appointed by Warrant as aforesaid of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three of them, to be published Three Times in the London Gazette and Dublin Gazette respectively, and in no other Warehouses or Places whatsoever.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act, all Foreign Spices, Wine, Cocoa Nuts, Coffee and Pepper, shall be lodged, deposited and secured in such Warehouses and Places as shall be from time to time appointed and appointed by Warrant as aforesaid, and in such Manner and under such Regulations as shall be directed by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three of them, to be published Three Times in the London Gazette and Dublin Gazette respectively, and in no other Warehouses or Places whatsoever.

IX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, from time to time, by Warrant under their Hands, or the Hands of any Three of the said Commissioners, to revoke any former Warrant, or to make such Alterations in or Additions to any such former Warrant, or to make or grant any new Warrant or Warrants, either with respect to the Ports, Places and Warehouses wherein such Goods and Merchandise may be lodged or secured as aforesaid, or with respect to the Goods and Merchandise to which such Privilege shall be extended, or with respect to any particular Article or Articles of Merchandise, so that the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury shall appear expedient, and every such Warrant for any such Revocation, Alteration or Addition, together with a List of the Goods, Merchandise or Articles to which any such Warrant shall relate, shall in all Cases be published Three Times in the London Gazette and Dublin Gazette respectively.

X. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Importer, Consignor or Proprietor of any Goods and Merchandise whatever, allowed to be warehoused or secured under the Provisions of this Act, to lodge and deposit, at his Option, any such Goods or Merchandise in Warehouses erected in Places inclosed by or surrounded with Walls, or in any other Warehouse or Place of special Security approved of by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury as aforesaid, although such Goods or Merchandise may not be specified in any Warrant of the said Commissioners of the Treasury, unless the said Commissioners of the Treasury shall specially prohibit the Warehousing of any such Goods or Merchandise in such Warehouse; and all such Goods and Merchandise not so specially prohibited shall be entitled to all such Privileges and Advantages, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had been so lodged or secured under the Authority of any Warrant of the said Commissioners of the Treasury.

XI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Goods or Merchandise whatsoever, which have been prohibited to be imported, or the Importation of which may be restrained by any Act or Acts in force on or immediately before the Commencement of this Act, and which under this Act are permitted to be imported and warehoused for Exportation only, nor any Goods which shall be reported into Great Britain contrary to the Laws of Navigation, and which shall be warehoused or secured under the Provisions of this Act, shall be delivered from or taken out of any such Warehouse or Place for the Purpose of being used or consumed in any Part of the United Kingdom, upon any Pretence or under any Authority whatsoever; upon pain of the Forfeiture of all such Goods and Merchandise, and also of a Sum equal to Twice the Value of such Goods and Merchandise so taken out of Warehouse contrary to this Act, to be paid by the Person or Persons to whose Use or Access such Goods or Merchandise shall be delivered out of Warehouse contrary to this Act.

XII. Provided also, and be it enacted, That no Goods or Merchandise, the Importation whereof for Home Consumption hath been prohibited by any Act or Acts in force on or immediately before the Commencement of this Act, and which shall be imported and warehoused or secured under the Provisions of this Act for Exportation, (Goods of the Manufacture of Peru, China or the East Indies excepted,) shall be delivered from or taken out of any such Warehouse or Place, for the Purpose of being exported to any British Colony, Plantation, Territory or Dominion in America or the West Indies, any thing heretofore contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding; upon pain of the Forfeiture of all such Goods and Merchandise, and also of a Sum equal to Twice the Value of such Goods and Merchandise so taken out of Warehouse contrary to this Act, to be paid by the Owner or Exporter of such such Goods or Merchandise; and such Goods shall and may be seized and prosecuted by any Officer or Officers of His Majesty's Customs in such Colonies, in the like manner as any other Goods forfeited for any Offence against the Laws of His Majesty's Revenue of Customs.

XIII. Provided also, and be it enacted, That the several Goods or Merchandise mentioned in Schedule (B) to this Act annexed, which shall be warehoused or secured under the Provisions of this Act, shall not be delivered from or taken out of any Warehouse or Place in which the same shall have been warehoused or secured under this Act, for the Purpose of being exported to any British Colony, Plantation, Territory or Dominion in America or the West Indies, nor be permitted or allowed to be imported into any such British Colony or Plantation, unless and until all Duties, as well of Customs as Excise, payable in Great Britain or Ireland respectively, on such Goods and Merchandise, if the same had been taken out for Home Consumption, shall have been first fully paid and satisfied; upon pain of the Forfeiture of all such Goods and Merchandise, and also of a Sum equal to Twice the Value of such Goods and Merchandise so taken out of Warehouse contrary to this Act, to be paid by the Owner or Exporter of such Goods and Merchandise.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That all Goods and Merchandise not directed to be warehoused or secured under the Order of the Commissioners of the Treasury, or not specified, enumerated or described in the Schedule marked (A.) annexed to this Act, or the Importation of which hath not been prohibited by any Act or Acts in force immediately before the passing of this Act, shall and may be lodged and deposited or secured in such Warehouse or Places in the Port of London, or in any other Port in the United Kingdom, as the Commissioners of Customs, and the Commissioners of Excise, in Cases where that Revenue is concerned, is or for any Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or any Three of such Commissioners within their Jurisdiction respectively, shall approve and direct, under and subject to such Rules, Regulations, Securities and Restrictions, in all respects, as are contained in this Act.

XV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of Customs and Excise, within their Jurisdiction respectively, to permit and allow any such Goods and Merchandise to be warehoused or secured in any such Warehouse, Warehouse Rooms or Places, approved and directed by the said Commissioners, in all Cases where the Owners or Consignees of such Goods and Merchandise, or the Proprietors, Renters or Lessees of such Warehouses, Warehouse Rooms or Places, which may be so approved by the said Commissioners for the Reception of such Goods and Merchandise, shall have given and entered into, or shall give and enter into sufficient Security, by Bond to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in such Amount, and with such Surety or Sureties as may be approved by the said Commissioners, for the Payment of the full Duties of Customs and Excise payable on all such Goods and Merchandise as may from time to time be lodged or secured in such Warehouses, Warehouse Rooms or Places, when such Goods and Merchandise shall be taken out for Home Consumption, or for the due Exportation of such Goods and Merchandise, according to the Provisions of this Act, and from time to time to reneue such Bond so often as the same shall become forfeited by any Breach of the Condition thereof; and that in any such Case no other or further Bond shall be required from the Importer, Proprietor or Consignor of any Goods or Merchandise warehoused or secured in such Warehouses, Warehouse Rooms or Places, any thing in this Act to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act, no foreign Brandy, Rhenish, Geneva, Spiritus, Aqua Vitæ or Wine, shall be warehoused under the Provisions of this Act, unless the same shall be imported in Casks, each containing at least Forty five Gallons, or in Bottles, in Cases consisting of at least Three Dozen Quart Bottles, or reputed Quart Bottles, or Bottles larger than reputed Quart Bottles; and that no Tobacco or Snuff shall be so warehoused, unless the same shall be imported in Casks, Hogsheads, Chests, Cases or Packages, containing at least Four hundred and fifty Pounds Averdupois net Weight each, without and free from any internal Packages separate and separately of less Weight; and that no Coffee or Cocoa Nuts shall be so warehoused, unless the same shall be imported in Casks, Bags, Boxes or other Packages, containing at least One hundred Pounds Averdupois net Weight each; and that any such Goods and Merchandise which shall be imported in Cases, Cases, Hogsheads, Chests, Bags, Boxes or other Packages, of less Content respectively than as aforesaid, shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Customs or Excise.

XVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That Rum, the Produce of the British Plantations, imported directly from thence in Casks containing at least Thirty five Gallons each, and intended to be used and disposed of solely as Stores of Ships and Vessels, may be lodged or secured in any Warehouse, and delivered from such Warehouse under the Provisions of this Act for that Purpose only.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Master or Owners of any British Ship or Vessel, at any Time arriving or being in any Port in any Part of the United Kingdom approved of by the Commissioners of the Treasury for warehousing or securing Goods under this Act, to cause the surplus Stores, (duly reported, and which may be legally used or consumed in the United Kingdom,) of any such Ship or Vessel to be lodged and deposited in such Warehouse or Warehouse as shall be approved of by the Commissioners of Customs, and by the Commissioners of Excise, in Cases where that Revenue is concerned, and to take such surplus Stores out of such Warehouse or Warehouses at such Times as the same shall be required for the Use of such Ship or Vessel, on the Departure thereof out of the said Port or Ports respectively, on any foreign Voyage, or whenever the same shall

And be it further enacted, That any Goods or Articles, the Growth or Produce of any of the Territories or Dominions of the Crown of Portugal, may be received and warehoused in such Warehouses or Decks in the Port of London as shall be approved by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them; any thing in the hitherto recited Act of the Fifth first Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, for carrying into effect the Treaty of Amity, Commerce and Navigation with Portugal, to the contrary in any case notwithstanding.

XX. And be it further enacted, That before any Goods or Merchandise, except such as are or shall be subject to the Duties of Excise only, shall be lodged in Warehouses, or otherwise secured according to the Directions of this Act, the same shall be duly entered with the proper Officer or Officers of the Customs, and regularly landed, and the proper Officer or Officers of His Majesty's Customs shall on such landing, or so soon after as conveniently may be, examine the same, and take a particular and correct Account of the Quantity, Quality, Species, Number and Contents thereof, which Account shall be regularly entered in a Book or Books to be provided and kept for that Purpose, in such Manner as the Commissioners of the Customs is or for any Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or any Three of such Commissioners within their Jurisdiction respectively, shall from time to time think proper to direct, and the Customs shall also be marked by or under the Direction and Inspection of the said Officer or Officers, in distinct and legible Characters on each and every Package; and on the Packages containing any Goods or Merchandise which have been or shall be prohibited to be imported for Home Consumption, the Word "Prohibited" shall be marked in manner aforesaid, in all Cases where the same shall be practicable, and an Allowance either for Damage or on any other Account whatsoever shall be made on any Goods or Merchandise, unless the Importer or Importers, Proprietor or Proprietors, Consignee or Consignees, at the Time such Goods or Merchandise are first examined as aforesaid, shall claim or demand the Allowance to which by Law they may be entitled, subject nevertheless to the Provisions herein after contained.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That before any Goods or Merchandise subject or liable to any Duty of Excise on the Importation thereof shall be unshipped or landed, for the Purpose of being warehoused without Payment of the Duties, the Importer or Proprietor shall make Entry thereof in Writing with the proper Collector of Excise, specifying in each Entry the Name of the Ship or Vessel, and the Manner thereof, the Number and Marks of the Casks, Cases, Bags, Boxes or other Packages, the Kind or Species of Goods or Merchandise contained in each, and at what Port or Place the same was laden or taken in.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That before any such Goods or Merchandise, subject to any Duty of Excise, shall be allowed to be warehoused without Payment of the Duties, good and sufficient Security shall be given, to be approved by the Commissioners of Excise, within their Jurisdiction, or the Person or Persons appointed or employed by them for that Purpose, which Security such Person or Persons are hereby authorized and empowered to take by Bond, to Double the Value of the Duties charged or chargeable on such Goods or Merchandise respectively, for Payment of all and every the said Duties respectively before the same shall be taken or delivered out of any Warehouse, in which the same shall or may be lodged or deposited under or by virtue of this Act, for Home Consumption; or in case the same shall not be taken or delivered out of any such Warehouse as aforesaid for Home Consumption on Payment of the Duties, or for Exportation, within Three Years from and after the Day of the Date of the Bond so given or entered into in respect thereof as aforesaid, then to pay all and every the Duties charged and chargeable on the said Goods or Merchandise respectively at the End of the said Three Years, together with all Charges that may be incurred by the Officers of Excise for or in respect of such Goods or Merchandise respectively, unless the same shall be abandoned to the Commissioners of the Customs or Excise for the Purpose of being sold or destroyed, or unless the same shall be sold or destroyed under the Orders of the Commissioners of Customs or Excise, according to the Provisions hereinafter expressed and contained: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to require any Bond or Bonds from the Proprietor or Proprietors, Consignee or Consignees of any Tobacco or Staff upon the first Entry and warehousing thereof; and that the Bond required to be given upon the Exportation of Tobacco or Staff shall not be charged with any Stamp Duty.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That no such Goods or Merchandise subject to a Duty of Excise shall be unshipped or landed, and lodged or deposited, in any such Warehouse as aforesaid, without a

Warrant

Warrant for that Purpose from the proper Collector of Excise, nor without the Presence of an Officer or Officers of Excise; and if any such Goods or Merchandise shall be so unshipped or landed without a Warrant from such Collector of Excise, or without the Presence of an Excise Officer, the same shall not be allowed to be warehoused under the Authority of this Act, but shall be subject to Forfeiture, as by any Law or Laws of Excise now in force or hereafter to be made: Provided always, that coaling herein intended shall extend or be construed to extend to prevent or hinder the proper Officer of the East India Docks, West India Docks or Leeward Docks, from causing any Goods or Merchandise, which shall not have been duly entered, to be landed and warehoused in the said Docks, pursuant to the Directions of any Act or Acts in force relating to the said Docks respectively immediately before the Commencement of this Act.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the proper Officer or Officers of Excise to take a true and particular Account of the Quantity, Quality and Species of all such Goods or Merchandise, subject to a Duty of Excise, which shall be proposed or intended to be, or shall be warehoused before Payment of the Duties, by Weight, Gauge, Tale or otherwise, as the Case may require, while the same shall be remaining on Shipboard, or while in any Boat, Barge, Lighter or Vessel, or so soon as the same shall be landed, in order to ascertain and secure the Duty or Duties of Excise chargeable thereon: Provided always, that where such Goods or Merchandise shall be on board of any Ship or Vessel which shall be lying in any Dock surrounded by Walls, the Account thereof shall not be taken until the said Goods or Merchandise shall have been loaded in such Dock or Docks, except in Cases where Suspicion shall arise that any Part of such Goods or Merchandise has been clandestinely conveyed away and applied to Home Consumption: and such Officer or Officers of Excise shall be permitted to take a Sample of any such Goods or Merchandise as aforesaid; that is to say, out of every Cask of any Kind of Spirits, a Sample not exceeding Half a Pint, and out of every Cask or other Package of Coffee or Cocoa Nut, a Sample not exceeding One Ounce, which Samples shall be regularly marked and registered, and securely kept by the proper Officer or Officers of Excise, until the Expiration of Three Calendar Months next after the Time when the Goods or Merchandise to which the same particularly refers shall have been legally delivered for Home Consumption or for Exportation: and all such Samples shall be from time to time applied, disposed of and accounted for, for the Public Service, in such Manner as the Commissioners of Excise within their Jurisdiction shall order and direct: and the said Commissioners are hereby authorized and required to give Orders for the Application and Disposal of such Samples from time to time as they shall see fit, and a Certificate of the Strength of every Kind of Spirits which shall be landed and warehoused under the Provisions of this Act, shall, within Four Days from the taking such Account by the proper Officer, be signed by such Officer, and shall by such Officer be delivered to the proper Officer of the Excise at such Port: and a Duplicate of such Certificate, signed by the proper Officer as aforesaid, shall by such Officer be delivered, on Demand, to the Person or Persons who shall enter into Bond for the Payment of the Duties on such Spirits, pursuant to the Provisions of this Act.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That all Goods or Merchandise secured in Warehouses under the Authority of this Act, shall be stowed, placed and deposited in the said Warehouses, in such Manner as that easy and convenient Access may be had to every Cask, Case, Bag, Box or other Package, for the Purpose of examining and taking a true Account of the Contents thereof; and if the Warehouse Keeper, or his Agent, shall omit, neglect or refuse to stow, place and deposit the same, or cause the same to be so stowed, placed or deposited as hereby directed, at his or their own Charge or Expence, he or they shall, for every such Omission, Neglect or Refusal as aforesaid, forfeit the Sum of Five Pounds.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases wherein any Goods or Merchandise are by this Act permitted to be lodged in Warehouses, or otherwise secured, the Expence of Warehouse Rent, and all other Charges, shall be paid by the Importer, Proprietor or Consignee of any such Goods or Merchandise (except in such Cases and during such Time as any Article is or shall be specially excepted from such Rent or Charges); and in case it shall be deemed expedient that any Warehouse or Warehouses should be provided at the Charge of the Crown, for the Purpose of securing therein any Goods or Merchandise, the Importer, Proprietor or Consignee of any such Goods or Merchandise shall pay to the Persons who may be appointed by the Commissioners of Customs or Excise, according to the Goods or Merchandise shall be subjected to Duties of Customs or Excise, and within the Jurisdiction of such Commissioners respectively, to receive the same, Warehouse Rent and other Charges for such Goods or Merchandise, to be estimated according to the usual and current Rate of such Rent and other Charges for the like Articles paid at the Port of warehousing: and such Estimate shall be made, and the Rate of Payment fixed accordingly, by such Commissioners of the Customs or Excise respectively, from time to time as Circumstances may require, with the Consent and Approbation of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, for the time being, or any Three or more of them.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That no Goods or Merchandise which shall have been lodged in any Warehouse or Warehouses, or otherwise secured, according to the Directions of this Act, or any other Act or Acts for the warehousing of Goods, shall be delivered from or taken out of any such Warehouse or Place, but upon the following Conditions: (that is to say,) if any such Goods or Merchandise shall be intended to be delivered or taken from thence respectively, for Exportation to Foreign Parts or from any Part of the United Kingdom to Oversway, Jersey, Alderney or Sark, or from Great Britain to Ireland, or from Ireland to Great Britain, or from Great Britain or Ireland to the Isle of Man, in Cases where such Exportation is permitted by Law, the Proprietor or Proprietors, or Exporter or Exporters of such Goods Goods or Merchandise shall be delivered or taken out of such Warehouse for Exportation, the time and every Part thereof shall forthwith, and without unnecessary Delay, and in the Presence of the proper Officer of Excise as aforesaid, be carried to and put on board the Ship or Vessel in which the same are intended to be exported; and in case the same, or any Part thereof, shall be altered in Quantity or Quality after being delivered from or out of the Warehouse, and before the same shall be exported, or shall not be actually put on board such Ship or Vessel, or if the Whole or any Part thereof shall, after being so shipped, be unshipped or put into any other Ship or Vessel, or into any Boat (Shipwreck or other unavoidable Accident excepted), or shall be reloaded in Great Britain or Ireland respectively, all such Goods or Merchandise, the Shipping of which shall be so omitted or neglected, or which shall be altered in Quantity or Quality, or shall be unshipped or reloaded, shall, together with the Packages containing the same, be forfeited, over and above the Penalty of the Bond given or entered into in respect of the Exportation thereof, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise or Customs.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That no Goods or Merchandise, the Duties on which shall have been secured by Bond, and which shall have been imported in Bulk, shall be delivered, except in the whole Quantity for which such Bond shall have been given, or a Quantity not less than One Ton Weight, unless by special Leave of the Commissioners of Customs for Excise, in Cases where such Goods or Merchandise are liable to Duty of Excise, within their Jurisdictions respectively, or any Three or more of them, such Leave to be had and obtained previous to such Delivery; and before any Goods or Merchandise shall be delivered out of or taken from the Warehouse or Place in which such Goods or Merchandise were lodged or secured, each and every Package of such Goods and Merchandise as shall be in Packages shall be marked in such distinguishing Manner as the said Commissioners of Customs and Excise within their respective Jurisdiction shall from time to time direct.

XXXI. Provided also and be it enacted, That all Goods and Merchandise, the Importation whereof is prohibited or restrained by any Act or Acts in force on or before the Commencement of this Act, and the Exporters thereof, shall, upon Exportation thereof from the Warehouse or Places in which the same shall have been lodged or secured, under the Provisions of this Act, be subject and liable to all such Conditions, Restrictions, Rules, Regulations and Securities as are required by Law with regard to any prohibited Goods and Merchandise so exported, by any Act or Acts in force on and immediately before the Commencement of this Act, and also to all Rules, Regulations and Restrictions relating to the warehousing and exporting of such Goods, made and directed by any Orders of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any Three of them.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That no Goods or Merchandise whatever which shall have been lodged in Warehouses, or otherwise secured, according to the Regulations of this Act, shall afterwards be exported to Foreign Parts from any such Warehouse or Place, or be entered for Exportation in any Ship or Vessel whosoever which shall not be of the Burthen of Seventy Tons or upwards: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to repeal or alter any Provision in any Act or Acts of Parliament in force at the Time of passing this Act relating to the Tonnage of any Vessel in which any Goods or Merchandise may be exported from or to Great Britain or Ireland respectively, or to which Wine, Brandy, Geneva, Rum, Tea, Coffee or Tobacco may be exported by Licence to the Isle of Man.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That no Goods or Merchandise shall be delivered out of or taken from any Warehouse or Place in which the same shall have been lodged or secured by virtue or in pursuance of this Act, or any other Act or Acts for the warehousing of Goods or Merchandise, other than in the Packages in which the same shall have been originally respectively imported from Foreign Parts, or in One entire Quantity equal thereto, and contained in a legal Package; nor shall any Brandy, Rum, Geneva, Spirit, Aqua Vitæ or Wine, be so taken out for Exportation in any less Quantity than One entire Cask, (Rum for Staves excepted, as heretofore provided) containing at least Forty five Gallons, or in Cases containing at least Three Dozen Bottles, not less than repeated Quart Bottles, except as otherwise specially provided in this Act.

XXXIV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That every Importer or Proprietor of any Goods or Merchandise warehoused or secured under this Act, or any other Act or Acts for the warehousing of Goods or Merchandise, who may have occasion or be desirous to inspect or examine, sort and separate, pack or repack any such Goods or Merchandise to him belonging, upon giving Twelve Hours' Notice at least in Writing to the proper Officers of Customs and Excise, or both or either of them, as to them may respectively belong, in the Custody of whom such Goods or Merchandise may be placed, shall be permitted by such Officers, and in their Presence, to enter into and remain in the Warehouse or Warehouses, or Place or Places in which such Goods or Merchandise shall be warehoused or secured, so long as shall be necessary, during the legal Hours of Business, for the Purpose of inspecting or examining such Goods or Merchandise, and of sorting and separating, and packing or repacking such Goods or Merchandise, and for making such lawful Alterations therein or Arrangements thereof, as may be necessary, either for the Preservation and Security thereof, or in order to the Sale, Shipment or legal Disposal of the same respectively: Provided always, that no Alterations or Arrangements shall be made of or in such Goods or Merchandise without such Notice as aforesaid, or which may in any respect tend to lessen His Majesty's Duties, or prevent the Officers of Customs and Excise, or both or either, as to them may respectively belong, from taking and keeping a true Account thereof; and that no Alteration of Package shall be made, except in the Presence of such Officer or Officers as aforesaid.

No warehoused or prohibited Goods to be to Law; Be it enacted, That no Goods whatever which shall have been secured in Warehouses without Payment of Duty, nor any Goods whatsoever which are prohibited to be imported or used or worn in any Part of the United Kingdom, and shall have been carried and put into any Warehouse approved of according to the Act, shall be carried or put on board any Ship or Vessel whatever, by Lighter, Boat or Craft, from such Warehouse for Exportation to Foreign Parts by any Person or Persons whatever (except the proper Officers of the Revenue,) other than such Person or Persons as shall be authorized for that Purpose by Licence under the Hands of the Commissioners of the Customs, within their Jurisdictions, or any Three or more of them, for the time being, who are hereby authorized to grant the same, and to require such Security as they may deem necessary, by Bond or otherwise, to be given by the Person or Persons to whom they shall grant such Licence, for the actual Delivery of the Whole of the Goods, by Lighter, Boat or Craft, on board such Ship or Vessel, to the Officers of the Revenue stationed on board, and for the faithful and incorrupt Proceeding in every respect of such Person or Persons in regard to such Goods; which said Persons, so to be licensed as aforesaid, shall and are hereby required, upon conveying any Goods on board any Ship or Vessel by Lighter, Boat or Craft, to give clear and full Information thereof in Writing to the Master or other Person then in Charge of such Ship or Vessel, for the better enabling the Master to give Notice as required by the before recited Act previous to his clearing out with any such Goods as aforesaid, which Licence, when granted by Commissioners of the Customs, shall not be withdrawn by them, or the Operation under the same in any Manner hindered, obstructed or prevented, unless either the Person or Persons to whom such Licence shall have been granted, or some other Person or Persons employed by them, and with his or their Privy or Consent, shall commit some Act against any Law now made, or hereafter to be made, to secure the Revenue of Customs or Excise, and shall be convicted thereof, in which Case the said Commissioners shall and are hereby authorized and required to withdraw such Licence.

XL. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Commissioners of Customs within their Jurisdiction shall and they are hereby required to grant such Licence as aforesaid to all and every Person and Persons who in or as now or may be by Law entitled to carry or put on board such Goods, and who shall give such Security as the said Commissioners, or any Three or more of them, shall deem necessary, and in no other Person or Persons.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That if any Goods entitled to either Drawback, Bounty or Premium, or any Goods which shall have been secured in Warehouses without Payment of Duty, or any Goods which are prohibited to be used or worn in any Part of the United Kingdom, and which shall have been carried and put into Warehouses approved of as aforesaid, shall be carried to or put on board any Ship or Vessel, by Lighter, Boat or Craft, for Exportation to Foreign Parts, by any Person or Persons (except the proper Officers of the Revenue,) other than such Person or Persons as shall have been so licensed, then and in such Case the Drawback, Bounty or Premium shall be forfeited and lost, and the Exporter, Shipper and every Person who shall carry to or put on board any Ship or Vessel bound to Foreign Parts any of the before mentioned Goods, shall severally forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That on the Removal of any Goods imported into the Port of London, subject or liable to any Duty or Duties of Excise, and on which all the Duty and Duties imposed or payable thereon have not been paid, delivered from any Vessel lying in the River Thames, in the Port of London, or from the East India Docks to the London Docks, or to any Wharf in the Port of London, or of any Wharf delivered from any Warehouse in which the same shall be lodged and secured without Payment of the Duty chargeable thereon at the Time of the Importation thereof, to be shipped to the Port of London for Exportation, or of any other Goods subject to any Duty or Duties of Excise, and so lodged and secured, and delivered from any such Warehouse in the Port of London, to be shipped in the City Canal, Commercial Docks or in any Part of the River Fleet in the Port of London at or below Wharfed in the said Port, such Goods shall not, upon any such Delivery, be put in or on board of any Lighter or other Vessel, to be so removed or shipped, unless such Lighter be a decked Lighter, having Hatches secured by proper Fastenings, for the Purpose of being locked by the proper Officer of Excise which such Goods are on board thereof, nor unless such Lighter or Vessel be in other respects safe and secure, for the Removal or Shipment as aforesaid of such Goods respectively; and if any such Goods as aforesaid, delivered as aforesaid, shall be put into or on board of any Lighter or other Vessel than as aforesaid, for any such Purpose as aforesaid, without the Decks, Hatches and Fastenings of such Lighter being first examined and approved by the proper Officer of Excise, all such Goods shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise; and if any Person or Persons shall remove any such Lighter, having any of such Goods on board thereof, before the Hatches of such Lighter have been locked by the proper Officer of Excise, or shall at any Time, whilst any such Goods are on board thereof, break or injure any Part of the Deck or Hatches, or any of such Locks or Fastenings of or on board of any such Lighter, or shall in any Manner open the same without the Consent and Approbation of the proper Officer of Excise, or remove or conceal any of such Goods put therein, or alter the same in Quantity or Quality, every Person or Persons so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit and lose the sum of Two hundred Pounds: Provided always, that it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of Excise within their Jurisdiction, if it shall appear to them expedient so to do in any particular Case, to authorize the Removal of any such Goods as aforesaid, in any Lighter or Vessel not decked, under such Securities and Regulations as the said Commissioners shall from time to time think fit to direct.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Inspector, Proprietor or Consignee of any Goods or Merchandise which have been or may be lodged or deposited in any Ware-put on board any Vessel by Lighter, Boat or Craft, for Exportation, unless by Persons licensed by the Commissioners (or by the Officers of Revenue).

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That in case any Goods or Merchandise subject to Duties of Customs only, which shall be removed under the Authority of this Act from Port to Port, shall not be well and truly delivered, without Alteration or Detraction, into the Custody and Possession of the Collector and Comptroller of the Customs, at the Port in the United Kingdom to which the same were intended or bonded to be removed, within Three Calendar Months from the Time of such Removal, except in Case of unavoidable Necessity, to be proved to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of the Customs, such Goods and Merchandise shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Customs or Excise; and the Owner, Proprietor or other Person, at whose Instance such Goods or Merchandise shall be removed, or to whose Hands the same or any Part thereof shall knowingly come, and every Person who shall knowingly harbour, keep or conceal any such Goods or Merchandise, or who shall knowingly permit or suffer any such Goods or Merchandise to be harboured, kept or concealed, shall forfeit Twice the Value of such Goods and Merchandise.

XLVIII. And be it further enacted, That previous to such Removal from one Port to another, under or by virtue of this Act, of any Goods, Wares or Merchandise which are or shall be subject to any Duty or Duties of Excise, the Importer, Proprietor or Consignor of any such Goods, Wares or Merchandise shall, with One sufficient Surety, enter into Bond to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in Double the Value of such Goods, Wares or Merchandise, with Condition that the same and every Part thereof shall be duly delivered without Alteration or Diminution into the Custody and Possession of the proper Officer of Excise at the Port or Place in the United Kingdom to which the same are intended to be removed, Perils of the Sea and Fire excepted, and to be named and expressed in such Condition, and to produce a Certificate under the Hand and Seal of the proper Officer of Excise at such Port or Place, that the said Goods, Wares or Merchandise had been so delivered into his Custody and Possession; and that such Certificate shall within Three Months from the Date of such Bond be produced to the principal Officer of Excise of the Port from which such Goods or Merchandise shall be removed, upon which such Bond shall be cancelled by the proper Officer of the Excise.

XLIX. And be it further enacted, That upon the Arrival of such Goods, Wares or Merchandise, subject to any Duty or Duties of Excise, at the Port to which the same are so intended to be conveyed, due Entry shall be made thereof with the Collector, Supervisor or other proper Officer of Excise, specifying the Weight, Quantity and Species of the Goods, Wares or Merchandise, with the Marks and Numbers of the Packages, the Date of the First Importation, the Ship or Vessel in which the same were imported, and by what Person or Persons the same were entered Inwards, and also the Port from whence removed, and, if the same are removed for Exportation, the Place to which the same are intended to be exported, and the Name of the Ship or Vessel in which the same are to be exported; and the Exporter or Exporters shall, together with One other sufficient Surety, to be approved of by the Collector, Supervisor or other proper Officer of Excise at the Port of Exportation, enter into Bond to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in Triple the Value of the said Goods, Wares and Merchandise, for the due Exportation thereof, and for producing to the Collector, Supervisor or other proper Officer of Excise of the Port from which such Goods, Wares or Merchandise are to be exported, a Certificate containing the several Matters and Things prescribed and required in and by this Act for and in respect of the Certificate therein mentioned, and to produce such Certificate to the Collector, Supervisor or other proper Officer of Excise within such Time as is hereinbefore limited or prescribed for the bringing or Production of the Certificate, as the Case may require.

L. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if after the Arrival of such Goods, Wares or Merchandise subject to any Duty or Duties of Excise at any such other Warehousing Port, the Proprietor thereof shall not ship the same for Exportation, it shall not be lawful to lodge or deposit the Articles in any Warehouse approved under the Regulations of this Act, unless ever and besides the Entry and Bond required by this Act an Entry be also made for that Purpose with the Collector, Supervisor or other proper Officer of Excise, and Bond be also given to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, by the Proprietor or his Agent, and One sufficient Surety, to be approved of by the Commissioners of Excise within their Jurisdiction, as the Case may require, or by such Collector, Supervisor or other proper Officer of Excise, in Double the Amount of the full Duties of Excise due or payable on the Importation of such Goods, Wares and Merchandise, with Condition that the said Goods, Wares and Merchandise shall either be duly exported, or that the full Duties of Excise due or payable on the Importation thereof shall be paid to the proper Collector, within such Period of Time as was allowed for that Purpose at the Port where the same were first entered and warehoused, unless the same shall be sold by Order of the Commissioners of Excise after the Expiration of such Period; and if the Proprietor shall fail or neglect to make such Entry, and give such Security, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of Excise within their Jurisdiction, as the Case may require, to cause all such Goods, Wares and Merchandise which shall not be shipped for Exportation, to be sold and disposed of, and the Produce thereof to be applied in manner directed by this Act, in case such Goods and Merchandise are not exported or taken out of Warehouse within the Period of Time allowed for that Purpose.

LI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Importer, Proprietor or Consignor of any Goods, Wares or Merchandise, which have been or may be removed under the Authority of this Act from one Port to another in the United Kingdom, to remove any such Goods, Wares or Merchandise a Second Time to any other Port in the United Kingdom where the like Articles are allowed by Law to be secured in Warehouses without Payment of Duty, subject to all such Provisions, Powers, Authorities, Penalties, Forfeitures, Regulations, Restrictions, Acts, Matters and Things in every respect, as are by this Act required when such Goods, Wares and Merchandise are first removed from the Port of Importation to any other Warehousing Port.

LII. And be it further enacted, That no Goods subject to any Duty or Duties of Excise, which shall be warehoused or otherwise secured under the Provisions of this Act in any Port or Place in the United Kingdom, shall on Removal to any other Port or Place be warehoused at the Port or Place to which the

LIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Importer, Proprietor or Consignor of any Goods or Merchandise which have been or may be lodged or deposited in any Warehouse or Warehouses, or otherwise secured under the Regulations of this Act, to remove any such Goods or Merchandise from the Warehouse or Place wherein or at which the same may have been first deposited or otherwise secured in the Port of London, or in any other Port in the United Kingdom under the Regulations of this Act, to any other Warehouse or Place in the same Port wherein or at which the like Articles are allowed to be warehoused or otherwise secured; provided, that in case of Goods or Merchandise warehoused in the Port of London, Permission for that Purpose shall have been previously obtained from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, and also from the Commissioners of Excise, if such Goods or Merchandise to be removed shall be subject to any Duty of Excise, and that the Removal shall take place at the Risk and Expence of the Importer, Proprietor or Consignor, under such Regulations as the said Commissioners respectively may deem necessary for the Security of the Revenue; and it shall and may be lawful for the Collectors and Comptrollers of the Customs, and of the Officers of the Excise (in Cases where that Revenue is concerned,) at any of the Ports in the United Kingdom other than the Port of London, to permit any Goods or Merchandise to be removed from the Warehouse or Place wherein or at which the same may have been deposited or otherwise secured at such Ports respectively, under the Regulations of this Act, to any other Warehouse or Place in the same Port wherein or at which the like Articles are allowed to be warehoused or otherwise secured, under such Regulations as may be deemed necessary by the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, for the Security of the Revenue.

LIV. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Goods or Merchandise warehoused under the Provisions of this Act shall be removed from Port to Port, or from one Warehouse to another in the same Port, under the Provisions of this Act, by any Person or Persons other than the original Bonded or Bonded thereof, new Bond shall be entered into by the Proprietor or Proprietors of such Goods or Merchandise, and the original Bond shall thereupon be void and cancelled by the proper Officer of the Customs or Excise, in the Case may be; and such Goods and Merchandise, and Proprietors thereof, shall be subject and liable, in all respects, to all and every the Provisions, Powers, Authorities, Penalties, Forfeitures, Regulations, Restrictions, Acts, Matters and Things whatever directed and provided by this Act relative to the warehousing, securing, keeping, insuring and taking Account of such Goods or Merchandise, and paying the Duties thereon, and taking the same out of Warehouse or other Place of Security for Removal to another Port or Warehouse, or for Exportation or Home Consumption, as if such Goods and Merchandise had remained in the original Warehouse or Place of Deposit, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever; and any Bond which may have been given for the due Exportation or Payment of Duties on such Goods or Merchandise shall be valid, and shall continue in force; and every Obligor shall be held to the due Performance of each and every the Conditions of such Bond, in the same manner as he would have been if the Removal of the Goods or Merchandise from the original Place of Deposit had not taken place, except the Obligors in and for former Bonds, in Cases where new or subsequent Bonds shall have been given and accepted by the Commissioners of Customs and Excise respectively for the Exportation of the Goods or Merchandise, or Security of the Duties.

L V. And Whereas by the Laws now in force certain Quantities of Wine, Brandy, Geneva, Rum, Tea, Coffee or Tobacco are allowed to be exported from Great Britain, by Licence from the Commissioners of the Customs, and imported into the Port of Douglas, in the Isle of Man, on Payment of the Duties due on such Importations, and it is expedient to permit any such Goods to be shipped directly from the Warehouse in which they may have been secured, under the Regulations of this Act; Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons to export from Great Britain to the Port of Douglas, in the Isle of Man, in British built Ships, owned, navigated and registered according to Law, and not of less Burthen than Fifty Tons, any Quantity of Wine, Brandy, Geneva, Rum, Tea, Coffee or Tobacco, which any such Person or Persons may be authorized so to export by virtue of any Licence or Licences granted by the Commissioners of the Customs within their Jurisdiction respectively, in possession of the Powers vested in them by Law; and that any such Goods intended to be exported to the said Port of Douglas, by virtue of any such Licence, shall and may be taken out of any Warehouse or Warehouses where the same may have been lodged or secured, for the Purpose of being so exported as aforesaid, without Payment of any Duty of Customs or Excise; any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to permit the Exportation from Great Britain, or the Importation into the Isle of Man, of any greater Quantity of any of the said Articles in any one Year than are now allowed by Law, or to permit any such Goods to be exported from Great Britain, or imported into the Isle of Man, in any other Package than such as are now directed and required by Law; and that on the Exportation of any such Goods from Great Britain, and on the Importation of the same respectively into the Isle of Man, pursuant to this Act, all the Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Securities, Penalties and Provisions contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament in force relating to such Goods respectively as exported or imported, and to the Payment, Recovery and Appropriation of any Fine, Penalty or Forfeiture relating thereto, and all the Classes, Provisions, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties and Forfeitures contained in any Act or Acts or Laws in force in relation to the sale of Wine, shall, so far as they are not hereby altered or varied, and in respect of which no other Provision is made by this Act, be and are hereby declared to be in full Force, and to extend to this Act, and shall be construed therewith, and as Part thereof, so far as the same respectively apply, as fully as if the same were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act.

LVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Proprietors or Consignors of any Wine or Brandy which shall have been secured in any Warehouse under this Act, with the Consent of the Commissioners of Excise, or any Three of them, and in such Warehouses and Places, and under such Rules and Regulations as shall from time to time be made by the said Commissioners with the Approbation of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, to draw off any such Wine or Brandy into opened Quart Bottles, and to pack the same in Cases containing not less than Three Dozen such Bottles each, for the Purpose of the same being exported from such Warehouse, and to export such Wine or Brandy from such Warehouse in such Bottles and Cases accordingly: Provided always, that no Bottles, Sticks or Corks of Foreign Manufacture shall be used for the said Purpose, unless the same shall have first paid the Duties of Customs and Excise charged or chargeable upon the Importation thereof, and that the Proprietor or Proprietors of any such Wine or Brandy, or their Agents, shall be permitted to send into such Warehouse and Place such Bottles, Corks, Cases and other Articles and Materials as may be required for the Purposes aforesaid.

LVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act shall extend or be construed to exceed or prevent Run, of the Produce of the British Plantations, having been warehoused under the Authority of this Act, from being delivered from such Warehouse for the Purpose of being shipped as Stores, and consumed upon the outward and homeward Voyage, to Parts beyond the Seas, or both or either of them, without Payment of any Duty of Customs or Excise, subject nevertheless to all the Conditions, Regulations, Restrictions and Securities required by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on or immediately before the passing of this Act, except as otherwise provided by this Act: Provided always, that any Bond required to be given in respect of such Run shall not be liable to any Stamp Duty; any thing in any Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

LVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Importer or Importers, or Proprietor or Proprietors of any Wine which shall be lodged or deposited in any Warehouse under the Provisions of this Act, to mix with any such Wine, once, but not oftener, such Quantity of any Foreign Brandy which shall have been lodged and deposited in any such Warehouse in the same Port, without Payment of the Duty thereon, under the Regulations of this Act, as shall be deemed necessary to preserve or improve such Wine, not exceeding in the Whole the Proportion of Ten Gallons of such Brandy for every One hundred Gallons of such Wine, provided that due Notice in Writing be given to the proper Officer of Excise, and that such Mixture be made without any unnecessary Delay in the Presence of and taken Account of by such Officer of Excise: Provided always, that no such Wine shall be afterwards mixed for Home Consumption, and that when such Wine, or any Part thereof, shall be exported or taken out of such Warehouse for Exportation, the Quantity of Wine so exported shall in all Cases be calculated by deducting therefrom the Quantity of Brandy added thereto: and the Quantity of such Brandy which shall have been mixed as aforesaid, shall be discharged from the Bond given on the Importation thereof, as if the same had been separately exported.

LIX. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Importer of any Foreign Spirits so warehoused as aforesaid to give Notice in Writing to the proper Inspector or Officer of Excise, of his or their Desire or Intention to fill up from One or more of the Casks of Spirits for which Bond was given on the warehousing thereof, any other of such Casks, specifying in such Notice the Time when such Casks are so intended to be filled up, the Name of the Ship by which the same were imported, the Master thereof, and the Place from which such Spirits were imported, and also the Name of the Person by whom Bond was given, the Date of such Bond, and the particular Kind or Denomination of such Foreign Spirits, and the Marks, Numbers, full Contents and Usage of the Casks so intended to be filled up, and of the Cask or Casks from which the Spirits are intended to be drawn for the Purpose, and such Officer shall attend for that Purpose; and the Importer of such Spirits giving such Notice as aforesaid, shall thereupon, and in the Presence of such Officer, be allowed to draw off such Spirits, and fill up such Casks as shall be specified in such Notice; and such Officer shall thereupon take a fresh Account of such Spirits; and such Importer, and also the Officer, shall be respectively authorised to draw a fresh Sample (retaining the original Samples thereof) from the Spirits contained in each such Cask after being so filled up, in like Manner and Quantity as if such Spirits were newly imported: Provided always, that no Cask of Spirits warehoused under Bond as aforesaid, shall be so filled up more than once during the Time that the same shall remain so warehoused, except at the Time of the Exportation thereof.

X. And Whereas the Flavour and Quality of Wine is improved by the Wine being carried on a distant Foreign Voyage, and it is expedient that Wine warehoused under the Provision of this Act should be permitted to be delivered from the Warehouse without Payment of Duty, to be shipped and carried on such Voyage for that Purpose, and to be brought back into the Port where the same shall have been lodged and deposited as aforesaid, when the same was delivered for such Voyage: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Importer or Proprietor of any Wine imported and so warehoused, desirous of sending any such Wine for Improvement upon a Voyage to the East or West Indies, or South America, and back to the Port where the same shall have been lodged and deposited, and from whence the same shall be shipped for Exportation, to give Notice in Writing for that Purpose and such Officer shall upon the Shipment of any such Wine from such Warehouse deliver to the Master of such Ship a Certificate of the said Wine so delivered from such Warehouse, and so shipped, containing all such Particulars thereof as aforesaid; Provided always, that the Importer or Proprietor of such Wine shall give and enter into Bond, with sufficient Sureties, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Excise, or the Person appointed by such Commissioners for that Purpose, in the Penalty of Double the Duties chargeable upon the Quantity of such Wine so intended to be taken out and shipped as aforesaid, with a Condition there- under written, that such Importer or Proprietor shall receive and take such Wine, and every Part thereof, without any unnecessary Delay or Interruption, and with all due Diligence and Dispatch, and with the Privy and Consent of the proper Officer or Officers of Excise, from and out of the Warehouse or Warehouses where the same shall be lodged and secured, and shall safely ship and stow the same, to the Satisfaction of the Officer, in and on board of the Ship or Vessel mentioned in such Notice as aforesaid, and in such Bond, and shall keep the same so and in such manner as to secure the same on the said Voyage, as well Outward as Homeward, and shall also cause the same to be duly carried and conveyed in and on board of such last mentioned Ship or Vessel, or and for each Voyage as aforesaid, and shall afterwards bring the same in and on board of the said Ship or Vessel back to the Port from whence such Wine shall have been shipped for Exportation as aforesaid (unless any Cask of such Wine shall be landed and left at some Port beyond the Sea, not being in Ireland, nor in the Islands of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, or Man); and a Memorandum duly endorsed on the Certificate hereinafter mentioned, signed by the Collector, Comptroller of the Customs or other proper Revenue Officers at such Port or Place, that such Wine was duly landed and left there, stating the Marks, Number, Content and Ullage of each such Cask, and the Description of the Wine, and the Date of the landing thereof, without permitting or suffering such Wine, or any Part thereof, to be used or consumed on board, or on shipboard, unless or put in and on board of any other Ship, Vessel or Boat (Shipwreck or other inevitable Accident only excepted), or landed in any Port or Place whatsoever, otherwise than as aforesaid, except at the Port from whence such Wine shall have been shipped as aforesaid, on the Arrival there of the said last mentioned Ship or Vessel, upon the Return thereof from the said Voyage, and under the Inspection of the proper Officer or Officers of Excise there; and shall then also produce all such Cask and Casks as aforesaid, not landed or left as aforesaid, with the respective Marks, Letters, Numbers and Figures thereon cut or being at the Time of the Delivery of such Cask or Casks from the Warehouse for Shipment for such Voyage, or the Shipment thereof as aforesaid, and shall, upon such producing thereof as aforesaid at such Port, on the Arrival of the said Ship or Vessel at such Port, on the Return thereof from the said Voyage, pay or secure to be paid the full Duty and Duties of Excise and Customs charged and chargeable on the said Wine, according to the Account taken by the proper Officer on the landing and warehousing of such Wine on the first Importation thereof; save and except on such Cask or Casks of such Wine as may have been so landed and left, and so certified as aforesaid, and on any Deficiency of or in such Quantity of such Wine so shipped as aforesaid (except as aforesaid) as may have occurred by unavoidable Waste during the said Voyage, not exceeding Ten Gallons for every One hundred Gallons of the Quantity so delivered from the Warehouse to be shipped as aforesaid for the said Voyage; and also save and except on any further or greater Deficiency that shall or may be proved upon Oath by the Master or other Person having the Command of such Vessel, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners of Excise, to have been occasioned by actual and unavoidable Leakage or Accident on Shipboard (which Oath the Commissioners of Excise are respectively hereby authorized to administer); and the Certificate of Shipment aforesaid, with such Indorsement thereon as aforesaid, if any such Wine shall have been so landed and left as aforesaid, shall be redelivered by the Master or other Person having the Command of the Vessel by which such Wine shall be returned and brought back to the Port from whence such Wine shall have been shipped for Exportation as aforesaid, to the proper Officer of Excise of the said Port, within Twelve Hours after such Master or other Person shall or ought by Law to have reported the Cargo of such Ship at such Port, on pain of forfeiting, for every Breach or Default in delivering such Certificate as aforesaid, the Sum of Fifty Pounds; and upon such Proof as aforesaid (where necessary) being given as aforesaid, and the full Duties charged or chargeable upon such Wine as aforesaid being fully paid as aforesaid, or secured to be paid, the First Importer and Bondor of such Wine shall be wholly freed and discharged, in respect of such Wine, from the Bond given and entered into upon the first Importation thereof: Provided always, that no such Wine shall be again warehoused, without Payment of Duty, for a longer Period than Three Years from the Date of the Redemption thereof into the United Kingdom; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

LXI. And be it further enacted, That the Importer or Importers, Proprietor or Proprietors, Consignee or Consignees, of any Goods or Merchandise which shall have been lodged in any Warehouse or Warehouses, or otherwise secured pursuant to the Directions of this Act, shall, within Three Years, to be consigned from the Day on which such Importers, Proprietors or Consignees of such Goods or Merchandise shall have made the First Entry thereof, clear and take all such Goods and Merchandise from and out of such Warehouses or Places respectively, (either for Exportation or to be consumed in Great Britain or Ireland respectively, subject to the Conditions and Restrictions under which such Goods and Merchandise shall have been warehoused, and in case such Importers, Proprietors or Consignees shall fail or neglect so to do, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of the Customs and Excise, if the Goods be subject or liable to any Duties of Excise, within their Jurisdiction respectively, to cause all such of the said Goods or Merchandise as by Law are or may be allowed to be used or consumed in the United Kingdom, to be publicly sold or exposed to sale for Exportation, with Permission for the Purchaser or Purchasers, after such Sale, to enter the same for Home Consumption upon the Payment of the Duties of the Customs and Excise, and after such Sale the Produce thereof shall be applied to or towards the Payment of the Freight, Primage and Charges of Warehouse Room, and other Charges that shall arise thereon; and with respect to Goods or Merchandise which are or may be prohibited to be used or consumed in the United Kingdom, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of the Customs and Excise, within their Jurisdiction respectively, to cause the same to be sold for Exportation only, under such Securities and Regulations as are required by Law with respect to Goods so prohibited, and the Produce shall be applied, in the first Place, to the Payment of Freight, Primage, Warehouse Rent and other Charges, and the Overplus (if any) shall in either of such Cases be paid to the Proprietor or other Person authorized to receive the same; and upon the Sale or Exportation of any such Goods and Merchandise, any Bond or Bonds entered into on the original Importation and warehousing thereof shall be forthwith cancelled and discharged by the proper Officers; any thing contained in any Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

LXII. Provided always, and he it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer, or the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, by Warrant under his or their Seal or Seals, to permit and allow any such Goods or Merchandise to remain warehoused or otherwise secured, without Payment of the Duty of Customs or Excise, for such further Time beyond the said Period of Three Years as the said Lord High Treasurer, or the said Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, may in their Judgment think reasonable and proper; and no Bond entered into for the Payment of any Duties shall be proceeded upon during the extended Period for which any such Goods, Wares or Merchandise shall or may be so allowed to remain warehoused, or otherwise secured, under the Authority of this Act.

LXIII. And he it further enacted, That whenever the Proprietor or Consignee of any Goods or Merchandise which shall have been lodged or secured in any Warehouse or Place under this Act, shall make a Representation or Declaration to the Commissioners of Customs or Excise, where that Revenue is concerned, within their Jurisdiction respectively, that any such Goods or Merchandise have been damaged or spoiled, or have been rendered or are wholly unmerchantable and unfit for Sale, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of Customs or Excise (or any Three of them), in case they shall be satisfied of the Truth of such Representation or Declaration, as order and direct that such Goods and Merchandise shall be destroyed or spilled, wasted and rendered wholly useless; and in such Case no Duty of Customs or Excise shall be payable for such Goods or Merchandise, and any Bond which shall have been entered into for the Payment of such Duties, or with reference to such Goods and Merchandise, shall be cancelled, so far as the same shall relate to such Goods and Merchandise.

LXIV. And he it further enacted, That if the Quantity of any Goods or Merchandise subject to any Duty of Customs or Excise, both or either, which at the full End and Expiration of Three Years from the Day of the Date of any Bond given or entered into in respect of such Goods, Wares or Merchandise, shall have been duly delivered out of any Warehouse or Place in which the same shall have been lodged or secured under this Act for Home Consumption, added to the Quantity of such Goods or Merchandise respectively which within the like Period shall have been duly exported, with such Allowance therein as hereinafter mentioned, shall fall short or be deficient of the actual Quantity ascertained and taken account of at the Time of the Importation thereof, then and in such Case the Importer or Proprietor of such Goods, Wares or Merchandise respectively, shall and he it required immediately to pay to the proper Officer of Customs or Excise, as to them may respectively belong, the whole of the Duties charged or chargeable for or in respect of the Proportion of such Goods or Merchandise deficient in the Quantity so taken out for Home Consumption; and upon the making of such Payment the Bond given or entered into for the due Payment of the Duties as aforesaid shall be delivered up and cancelled: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to charge any such Goods and Merchandise which shall have been lodged or secured in Warehouses surrounded by Walls, or in other Places of special Security, in respect of any Deficiency in any Goods or Merchandise exported, except in Cases of Suspicion of Fraud hereinafter specially provided for.

LXV. Provided always, and he it enacted, That no Duty either of Customs or Excise shall be demanded from or paid by any Importer, Consignee or Proprietor of any Goods or Merchandise whatever, which shall have been lodged or secured in Warehouses enclosed in Places inclosed or surrounded with Walls, or in any other Warehouses or Places of special Security, approved and appointed by the Warrant of the Commissioners of the Treasury pursuant to this Act, and which shall be taken out of or from any such Warehouse or Place for Exportation, on account of any Increase or Decrease, or Surplus or Deficiency in Quantity, Quality, Weight, Measure or Strength, which may have taken place during the Time that any such Goods or Merchandise shall have been so lodged or secured, excepting only in Cases where Suspicion shall arise, to be notified to the Commissioners of the Customs or Excise, or their Collectors at the Outports, both or either, as to them any respectively belong, that any Part of such Goods or Merchandise has been clandestinely conveyed away and applied to Home Consumption; and that such Goods and Merchandise (except Wine and Spirits) shall not be again weighed, gauged or measured at the Time of taking out the same for Exportation, excepting only in Cases where such Suspicion shall arise and be notified as aforesaid; and that upon all Goods and Merchandise which shall be taken out of or from such Warehouses or Places of special Security to be used or consumed in any Part of the United Kingdom, the Duties of Customs and Excise charged or chargeable thereon shall be paid according to Account taken thereof at the first Examination by the Officer or Officers of the Customs and Excise, as to them any respectively appertain, without any Deduction or Abatement whatever on account of any Deficiency arising from Waste, or from any other Cause of what Nature soever the same may be.

LXVI. And Whereas certain Goods and Merchandise are liable to natural Waste and Decrease whilst remaining warehoused or secured, and it is expedient to relieve the Importers of such Goods and Merchandise from Payment of the Duties on the Quantities of any such Goods exported from certain Warehouses, which shall, on the Examination by the Officer of the Customs or other Packages thereof mentioned in the Notice given for such Exportation, be found by him to be decreased from natural Waste; Be it therefore enacted, That whenever any Entry shall be made for the Purpose of exporting to Foreign Parts, or Germany, Jersey, Alderney or Sark, any Spirits, Wine, Coffee, Cocoa Nuts or Pepper, which shall have been warehoused or otherwise secured, under the Provisions of this Act or any other Act or Acts relating to the warehousing of Goods without Payment at the Time of Importation of the Duties imposed and payable for or in respect thereof respectively, in any Warehouse or Place, (save and except such Warehouses as are or shall be surrounded by Walls, and such as are or shall be specially approved of by the Commissioners of the Treasury under this Act, according to the Conditions contained in the Warrant of Approval,) if the Wine in any Cask so entered shall be found by the proper Officer, to be at the Time when the same is delivered for the Purpose of being exported from the Warehouse wherein the same shall have been lodged and secured as aforesaid, to be less natural Waste decreased and less in Quantity than when such Wine was imported, lodged and secured as aforesaid; or if the Spirits contained in any Cask so entered shall be found by such Officer at the Time when the same shall be delivered as aforesaid to be less natural Waste, decreased and less in Quantity than when such Spirits were imported, lodged and secured as aforesaid, according to the Account taken by the proper Officers of such Wine or Spirits at the Time the same were respectively imported, the Amount of such Loss or Decrease in Quantity being ascertained for this Purpose by deducting the Number of Gallons of such Spirits so delivered for Exportation, computed at the Strength of Proof, from the Number of Gallons of such Spirits imported, lodged and secured as aforesaid, computed at the Strength of Proof; or if the Coffee, Cocoa Nuts, or Pepper respectively so delivered, shall be found by the proper Officer, at the Time of being delivered as aforesaid, to be from natural Waste decreased and less in Weight than when such Coffee, Cocoa Nuts, and Pepper respectively were imported, lodged and secured as aforesaid, according to such Account taken by the Officer at the Time of Importation, the Importer and Importers, or Proprietor or Proprietors of such Wine, Spirits, Coffee, Cocoa Nuts or Pepper respectively shall not be charged or chargeable with or liable to pay any Duty or Duties of Excise or Customs, for or in respect of any such decreased Quantities or Quantity of any of such Goods or Merchandise respectively which any such Importer or Proprietor shall at any Time take from and out of the Warehouse or Place in which the same are or were secured as aforesaid, and export as aforesaid, subject to the Rules and Regulations provided by Law for that Purpose; unless such decreased Quantity, from natural Waste, on which such Allowance of the Duty and Duties shall be so made, shall exceed or be more than the respective Proportions following; viz. that, One Gallon of Wine for and upon every Cask of Wine so exported which shall have remained in the Warehouse, secured as aforesaid, for any Period not exceeding One Year: Two Gallons for and upon every such Cask which shall have so remained in the Warehouse for any Period exceeding One Year and not exceeding Two Years; and Three Gallons for and upon every such Cask which shall have so remained in the Warehouse for any Period exceeding Two Years; and One Gallon, Hydrometer Proof, of Spirits for every such One hundred Gallons of the Spirits from which the Spirits so delivered for Exportation were or are deducted, computed as aforesaid, to ascertain the Amount of such Decrease of Quantity thereon as aforesaid, and after the same Rate for any less Quantity of Spirits contained in any Cask or Casks so delivered which shall have remained in the Warehouse, secured as aforesaid, for any Period not exceeding Six Months; Two Gallons for every One hundred Gallons of such Spirits which shall have so remained in the Warehouse for any Period exceeding Six Months, and not exceeding Twelve Months: Three Gallons for every such One hundred Gallons of such Spirits which shall have so remained in the Warehouse for any Period exceeding Twelve Months and not exceeding Eighteen Months: Four Gallons for every such One hundred Gallons of such Spirits which shall have so remained in the Warehouse for any Period exceeding Eighteen Months and not exceeding Two Years; and Five Gallons for every such One hundred Gallons of such Spirits which shall have so remained in the Warehouse for any Period exceeding Two Years; and Two Pounds for every One hundred Pounds of Coffee, Cocoa Nuts and Pepper respectively, and so in Proportion for any less Quantity.

LXVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That every Cask of Wine and every Cask of Spirits which shall at any Time be delivered out of any such Warehouse shall be re-gauged, and the Strength of the LXVIII. Provided also, and he it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three of them, by any Order or Orders to be for that Purpose issued from time to time under their Hands, or the Hands of any Three of them, to direct under what Regulations and in what Manner the Increase or Decrease or Surplus or Deficiency, of or in the Quality, Quantity, Weight, Measure or Strength of any Goods or Merchandise not particularly provided for by this Act, lodged or secured in any Warehouse or other Place under the Provision of this Act, or any other Act or Acts relating to the warehousing of Goods, shall be from time to time ascertained, determined and taken account of; and also to direct what Charge shall be made on, or what Allowance shall be made to the Owners or Proprietors of such Goods and Merchandise, in respect of such Increase or Decrease or Surplus or Deficiency, when such Goods or Merchandise shall be taken or removed out of or from such Warehouse or Place, and such Charge or Allowance shall be made in respect of the same accordingly.

LXIX. Provided always, and he it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons who shall have landed at any Docks or Places any Goods or Merchandise, having been legally imported, and which may be legally used and consumed in the United Kingdom, to take and receive such Goods and Merchandise from and out of the said Docks and Places, the Duties of Customs and Excise on such Goods and Merchandise being first fully paid and satisfied; and also to take and receive any Goods or Merchandise from such of the said Docks and Places, for the Purpose of Exportation under the Provisions of this Act, although any such Goods or Merchandise respectively shall on have been deposited in the Warehouses at such Docks or Places, or otherwise secured under the Directions of this Act: Provided always, that such Goods and Merchandise shall in all other respects be liable to all the Rules, Regulations, Penalties and Forfeitures, to which Goods of the like Kind are subject by any Law in Force on or immediately before the Commencement of this Act.

LXX. And he it further enacted, That if any Goods or Merchandise, warehoused or otherwise secured under the Authority of this Act, shall be embossed, or fraudulently or clandestinely hid or concealed in or fraudulently or clandestinely removed from or out of any Warehouse or Place wherein the same shall have been so lodged or secured, all such Goods or Merchandise so embossed, or fraudulently or clandestinely hid or concealed or removed, together with the Packages containing the same, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of the Customs, or of Excise, in Cases where that Revenue is concerned; and the Person or Persons so embossing, hiding, concealing or removing the same, or aiding or assisting therein, or to whose Hands the same shall knowingly come, shall be subject and liable to the like Penalties and Penalties as if such Goods and Merchandise had been fraudulently shipped or loaded without Payment of Duty.

LXXI. And he it further enacted, That if any Proprietor or Importer of Brandy, Rum, Geneva, or other Spirits lodged and put into any Warehouse or Warehouse under the Direction and Authority of this Act, shall, by any Means, Art, Device or Concealment whatever, open any such Warehouse or Warehouse, except in the Presence of the proper Warehouse Keeper, or other Officer of the Customs or Excise, then and in every such Case every such Importer or Proprietor shall forfeit and lose for every such Offence the Sum of five hundred Pounds.

LXXII. And he it further enacted, That in case it shall at any Time happen that any Embossment, Waste, Spoil or Destruction shall be made of or in any Goods or Merchandise which shall be warehoused in Warehouses under the Authority of this Act, by or through any wilful Misconduct of any Officer or Officers of Customs or Excise, such Officer or Officers shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor, and shall, upon Conviction, suffer such Punishment as may be inflicted by Law in Cases of Misdemeanor; and if such Officer shall be so prosecuted to Conviction by the Importer, Consignee or Proprietor of the Goods or Merchandise so embossed, wasted, spoiled or destroyed, then and in such Case as Duty of Customs or Excise shall be payable for or in respect of such Goods or Merchandise as embossed, wasted, spoiled or destroyed; and no Forfeiture or Reliance shall take place of any Goods and Merchandise so warehoused, in respect of any Deficiency caused by such Embossment, Waste, Spoil or Destruction, and the Damage occasioned by such Embossment, Waste, Spoil or Destruction of such Goods or Merchandise, shall be repaid and made good to such Importer, Consignee or Proprietor, by the Commissioners of Customs or Excise, under such Orders, Regulations and Directions as shall be for that Purpose made and given by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three of them.

LXXIII. And he it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Importer or Proprietor of any Goods or Merchandise, which shall have been entered for the Purpose of being warehoused, or which shall have been warehoused or secured under the Provisions of this Act, or of any other Act or Acts in force for the warehousing or securing of any Goods or Merchandise, at any Time in the Presence of the proper Officer of Customs, and of the Excise, in Cases where that Revenue is concerned, to take any moderate Samples of any such Goods or Merchandise, as shall or may be allowed and directed by the Commissioners of Customs or Excise respectively, from time to time, without Entry or Payment of any Duty of Customs or Excise in respect of such Samples, and under such Rules and Restrictions as the said Commissioners may order and direct with respect to such Samples respectively.

LXXIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Officer or Officers of Excise, before the Delivery of any Brandy, Rum, Geneva or other Spirits for Exportation, or of Rum or Spirits of the British Sugar Plantations, to be shipped as Stores from or out of any Warehouse or Warehouses, in which such Spirits shall have been secured under the Authority of this Act, to take One Sample, and no more, such Sample not exceeding Half a Peck, out of each of the Casks or Packages containing such Brandy, Rum, Geneva or other Spirits, paying for such Samples (if demanded) at and after the Rate of Three Shillings per Gallon; and if any Person or Persons shall obstruct or hinder any such Officer or Officers of Excise in taking such Samples, upon his or their offering to pay for the same as aforesaid (if demanded), the Person or Persons offending therein shall for each and every such Offence severally forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds; and all such Samples shall be from time to time applied and disposed of, and accounted for † the public Service, in such Manner as the Commissioners of Excise shall order and direct; and the said Commissioners are hereby authorized and required to give Orders for the Application and Disposal of such Samples from time to time as they shall see fit.

LXXV. And be it further enacted, That upon the Importation of Coffee, which shall be deposited in any Warehouse under the Regulations of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for every Proprietor or Consignor thereof, under the Superintendance of the proper Officer or Officers of Excise, to separate the damaged Coffee from the undamaged Parts thereof, and to separate the undamaged Parts thereof according to their several Sorts and Qualities; and in every such Case such Proprietor or Consignor, under the Superintendance of such Officer or Officers, shall mark, or cause to be marked, on every Bag or Cask containing the Coffee so separated as undamaged, the Word "Sound," in Black Pens, in the Front of such Bag, or on the Head of such Cask, in Letters at least Two Inches long, and upon the Casks or Bags containing the Coffee set apart as damaged, the Words "For Exportation;" and the said Officer or Officers of the Excise it and are hereby empowered and directed to call in to his or their Assistance in such Selection and Separation the proper Officer or Officers who is or are accustomed to take and sample Coffee in the public Warehouses and Docks on Behalf of such Proprietor or Consignor.

LXXVI. And be it further enacted, That in all public Docks and Warehouses in which Coffee is or shall be received and stored, upon Application to be made in Writing from the Proprietor or Consignor of any such Coffee to the proper Officer of Excise, such Coffee shall be carefully selected and separated, and the proper Officer or Officers in such Docks and Warehouses shall and may and are hereby required and directed to make such Selection and Separation accordingly: Provided always, that before any Officer or Officers of Excise shall proceed to select and separate Coffee, such Officer or Officers shall give Notice to such Proprietor or Consignor, of the precise Period when it is the Intention of the said Officer or Officers to proceed to separate such Coffee, in order that such Proprietor or Consignor may attend, or appoint some Person to attend such Separation in his Behalf, and if on such Separation it shall appear to such Proprietor or Consignor, or his Agent so to be appointed, and being present upon the Occasion, that from Negligence or Ignorance of the Quality of the Coffee on the Part of the Officer or Officers, or from any other Cause, a greater or smaller Proportion thereof is selected as damaged, and unfit for Use, than in the Judgment of such Proprietor or Consignor, or his Agent, should have been so selected, that then and in every such Case it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of the Excise within their Jurisdiction, or any Three or more of them, upon the Affidavit of such Proprietor or Consignor, or his Agent, and upon Application for that Purpose, to order and direct that such Coffee shall be re-surveyed by Two Indifferent and disinterested Merchants or Brokers, experienced in the Nature and Value of the Article, who upon viewing the same shall certify and declare, upon their corporal Oaths, before the principal Officer of the Excise at the Place where such Coffee shall be warehoused (who is hereby authorized to administer the same), their Opinion and Determination as to the Nature and Extent of the Damage sustained, which Opinion and Determination shall be binding and conclusive on all Parties: Provided always, that in every such Case the reasonable Expence of the Persons so to be employed shall be borne by the Proprietor or Consignor of such Coffee: Provided also, that no damaged Coffee shall be delivered out of Warehouse until the same shall have been repacked for Exportation in Casks, Bags or Packages, containing each not less than One hundred Pounds net Weight Avordupois, except by the special Permission of the Commissioners of Excise within their Jurisdiction respectively, which they or any Three of them are hereby authorized to grant, on Proof to their Satisfaction of the Expediency of permitting the same to be exported in smaller Packages, and on Security, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, being first given by the Exporter, at the Rate of Ten Pounds per Hundred Weight, that the same shall be duly exported.

LXXVII. And be it further enacted, That in Cases where the damaged Parts of any particular or distinct Parcel of Coffee shall in the whole be less in Quantity than One hundred Pounds net, it shall and may be lawful for the proper Officer of Excise, at the Request of the Proprietor or Consignor, upon due Notice being given to the proper Officers of Excise, to mix the same with any other damaged Coffee belonging to such Proprietor or Consignor which may have been set apart for the Purpose of Exportation, in Casks, Bags or Packages containing not less than One hundred Pounds as before mentioned; and in like Manner it shall be lawful for the said Officer or Officers, at the just Request of any Two or more Importers or Proprietors, to mix any Parcels of such Coffee in them respectively belonging, for the Purpose of making the Packages of the Weight required by this Act previous to Exportation, such Request being made in Writing by the said respective Importers or Proprietors, to the proper Officer or Officers of Excise as aforesaid.

LXXVIII. And Whereas it is expedient that as far as practicable the Identity of the Packages in which the Coffee is imported should be preserved; Be it therefore enacted, That upon the Separation of any Coffee imported either in Casks or Bags, the damaged Parts shall in the first place be put into the Packages in which the same were imported, beginning with the lowest Number, and following in regular numerical Order; and that it shall and may be lawful for the Importer or Importers, or Proprietor or Proprietors, to enter and pay the Duties for and in respect of any undamaged Coffee for Home Consumption, and to remove the same free and out of the Warehouse, notwithstanding the Quantity of such undamaged Coffee may, in any one Bag of any Consignment to or Importation by any Person or Company, be less in Quantity than One hundred Pounds Weight; any thing contained in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

LXXIX. And be it further enacted, That where such Separation of undamaged from damaged Coffee shall have been made as aforesaid, a correct Account shall be taken by the proper Officer or Officers of Excise, of the damaged Coffee remaining in the original Packages, and of the Quantities of all undamaged Coffee; and upon Application in Writing to the said Officer or Officers, a Copy of such Account shall be delivered forthwith by him or them to the Importer or Proprietor of such Coffee, with the Mark, Number and Weight of each Package, distinguishing such Parts as are undamaged, and the several Qualities thereof, from such damaged Coffee as shall have been set apart for Exportation.

LXXX. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Proprietor or Consignor of any Pepper imported and warehoused or secured under the Provisions of any Act or Acts in force, or the Agent of such Proprietor or Consignor, with the Knowledge and in the Presence of the proper Officer of Excise, to separate from any Parcel or Quantity of such Pepper, all Stones, Dirt, Trash and Dust that shall be mixed therewith, and for such Officer to weigh and take an Account thereof, and for the Commissioners of Excise to order all such Stones, Dirt, Trash and Dust respectively to be destroyed, at such time and times and in such Manner as they shall think fit; and such Proprietor or Consignor shall thereupon be discharged from so much of such Parcel or Quantity of Pepper as the Weight of such Stones, Dirt, Trash and Dust shall amount to, and from the Payment of, and all Liability to pay, the Duty and Duties charged or chargeable for or in respect thereof, according to the Account taken by the proper Officer of such Pepper at the Time of the Importation thereof.

LXXXI. And be it further enacted, That no Watch of Foreign Manufacture shall be imported and warehoused under the Provisions of this Act, upon the Case or Cases of which any Mark or Stamp shall be impressed which shall be visible to or shall purport to be or shall be intended to represent any Mark or Stamp of the Goldenite's Company of London, or other legal British Assay Marks or Stamps; and that no Clock or Watch of Foreign Manufacture shall be so imported and warehoused, upon the Face or upon any Part of which the Word "London," or the Name of any other Town or Place of the United Kingdom, shall be engraven or passed, or shall in any way appear so as to purport or give colour that such Clock or Watch is of the Manufacture of the United Kingdom; and that no Clock or Watch of Foreign Manufacture shall be so imported and warehoused, unless a distinguishing Number, and the Name or Names of some Person and Place, shall be engraven, and shall appear visible on the Frame or other Part of such Clock or Watch independent of the Face, purporting to be the Name and Place of Abode of the Person or Persons by whom such Clock or Watch was made; and that no Clock or Watch of Foreign Manufacture shall be imported and warehoused under this Act in any Incomplete State, that is to say, not having the Movement, with all its concomitant Parts, properly fixed and secured in its Case, on pain of the Forfeiture of such Watch or Clock.

LXXXII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act, upon every Sale fully and lawfully made by the Importer or Importers, or Proprietor or Proprietors of any Goods or Merchandise which shall have been secured under the Provisions of this Act in any Warehouse in the actual Occupation of such Importer or Importers, or Proprietor or Proprietors, such Goods and Merchandise and the Possession thereof shall by such Sale be transferred to and shall be vested in the Purchaser or Purchasers thereof, to all Intents and Purposes whatever, although such Goods or Merchandise shall remain and continue in such Warehouse; and such Goods and Merchandise so sold, or the Possession thereof, or any Title thereto, shall not pass to or be vested in any Assignee or Assignees of such Importer or Importers, or Proprietor or Proprietors, unless any Commission of Bankrupt which may issue against such Importer or Importers, or Proprietor or Proprietors, before such Goods or Merchandise shall have been removed by the Purchaser or Purchasers, or their Assigns, out of or from such Warehouse; and every such Sale shall be void against such Assignee or Assignees under any such Commission of Bankrupt, any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding; provided, that upon every such Sale there shall have been a written Agreement, signed by the Parties, or a written Contract of Sale, made, executed and delivered by a Broker or Brokers or other Person or Persons legally authorized for and on behalf of the Parties respectively, and the Amount of the Price stipulated in the said Contract or Agreement shall have been actually paid or secured to be paid by the Purchaser or Purchasers of such Goods or Merchandise, and that a Transfer shall have been entered in a Book to be kept for that Purpose by His Majesty's Office of Revenue having charge of such Warehouse; which Book the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs and Excise, both or either, as the Case may be, are hereby directed to cause to be kept by such Officer, and produced upon Demand; and the said Officer is hereby required to make such Entry of Transfers, specifying the Date of such Entry, upon the Application of the Owners of the said Goods or Merchandise; provided also, that no such Assignments shall affect LXXXIII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act, all Goods or Merchandise which shall be landed in Dock, and lodged in the Custody of the Proprietors of the said Docks under the Provisions of this Act, not being Goods seized or forfeited to His Majesty, shall, when so landed, continue and be subject or liable to such and the same Claim for Freight in favour of the Master and Owner or Owners of the respective Ships or Vessels, or of any other Person or Persons interested in the Freight of the same, from or out of which such Goods or Merchandise shall be so landed, as such Goods, Wares or Merchandise respectively were subject and liable to whilst the same were on board such Ships or Vessels, and before the landing thereof; and the Directors and Proprietors of any such Docks at or in which any such Goods or Merchandise may be landed and lodged as aforesaid, or their Servants or Agents, or any of them, shall and may, and they are hereby authorized, empowered and required, upon due Notice in that behalf given to them by such Master or Masters, Owner or Owners, or other Persons as aforesaid, to detain and keep such Goods and Merchandise, not being seized or forfeited to His Majesty, in the Warehouses belonging to the said Docks as aforesaid, until the respective Freight to which the same shall be subject and liable as aforesaid shall be duly paid or satisfied, together with the Rates and Charges to which the same shall have been subject and liable, or until a Deposit shall have been made by the Owner or Owners, or Consignee or Consignees of such Goods or Merchandise, equal in Amount to the Claim or Demands made by the Master, Owner or Owners of the respective Ships or Vessels, or other Persons as aforesaid, for or on account of Freight upon such Goods or Merchandise; which Deposit the said Directors or Proprietors of such Docks, or their Agents respectively, are hereby authorized and directed to receive and hold in trust until the Claim or Demand for Freight upon such Goods shall have been satisfied, upon Proof of which, and Demand made by the Person or Persons, their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, by whom the said Deposit shall have been made, and the Rates and Charges due upon the said Goods being first paid, the said Deposit shall be returned to him or them by the said Directors or Proprietors, or their Agents on their behalf, with whom the said Deposit shall have been made as aforesaid.

LXXXIV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall exempt or be deemed or construed to exempt any Quantity or Quantities of any Goods or Merchandise which may be found or discovered after the Account thereof has been first taken, and such Goods or Merchandise have been deposited in any such Warehouse or other Place as aforesaid, from being charged and chargeable with all Duties of Customs and Excise.

LXXXV. And be it further enacted, That in case any Goods or Merchandise on which the said Duties shall have been paid, and which shall afterwards be delivered or taken from any Warehouse or other Place where the same shall have been lodged or secured according to the Directions of this Act, shall be duly exported to Foreign Parts, the Exporter or Exporters thereof shall be allowed such and the like Drawbacks of the Duties of Customs and Excise as are now payable by Law, as would have been allowed on the Exportation of any such Goods or Merchandise respectively in case this Act had not been made: Provided always, that no Drawbacks of the Duties of Customs or Excise shall be allowed or paid upon the Exportation to any British Colony, Plantation, Territory or Dominion in America or the West Indies, † upon any of the Goods or Merchandise of Foreign Manufacture mentioned in Schedule (B.) to this Act aforesaid.

LXXXVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Goods or Merchandise which shall be lodged or secured to any Warehouse or Place under the Provisions of this Act, or any other Act or Acts for the warehousing of Goods and Merchandise without Payment of Duty, shall be removed, carried or taken away without a Warrant or Certificate being first had and obtained from the proper Officer of the Customs and Excise, both or either, as to them may respectively belong, for that Purpose, certifying that the Duties thereon have been duly paid, or that such Goods or Merchandise are to be removed under the Provisions of this Act, the Occupier or Occupiers of such Warehouse or other Places shall be subject and liable to the Payment of the Duties due on such Goods so removed, carried or taken away: and the proper Officer or Officers of the Customs or Excise, both or either, as to them may respectively belong, are hereby authorized and directed to grant such Warrant or Certificate (as the Case may be) upon Demand to the Owner or Consignee of the said Goods or Merchandise, or to the Occupier or Occupiers of such Warehouse or other Places accordingly.

LXXXVII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act, whatever any Foreign Goods and Merchandise which shall have been imported and entered for the Purpose of being warehoused or secured, or which shall have been warehoused or secured, under the Provisions of this Act, or any other Act or Acts in force for permitting Goods imported to be warehoused or secured without Payment of Duty, shall be lost or destroyed by accidental sailing, or by any other unavoidable Accident, either on Shipboard or in the unshipping thereof, or in the shipping thereof for Exportation, or out of any Warehouse, it shall and † be lawful for the Commissioners of Customs and Excise for the Time being, within their Jurisdictions respectively, to remit to the Importer, Exporter, Owner, Proprietor or Consignee of any such Goods or Merchandise, the Duties of Customs and Excise which shall have been payable or shall have been paid for or in respect of such Goods or Merchandise so lost or destroyed, and to cancel and vacate the Customs and Excise Bonds for or in respect of all such Goods or Merchandise for which no such Duties shall have become payable or been paid, but for which Security shall have been given by Bond, taken for or in respect of the warehousing or securing the LXXXIX. Provided also, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to repeal or in any way alter the Duties of Battelage or Priage in Cases where the said Duties are now payable, nor the Duties of Package, Seavage, Ballage or Portage, nor any other Duties payable by Law to the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, or to the Lord Mayor of the said City for the time being, or to any other City or Town Corporation within the United Kingdom, nor any other special Privilege or Exemption to which any Person or Persons, Bodies Politic or Corporate, is or are now entitled by Law, but the same shall be construed as heretofore.

XC. Provided also, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend in any way to alter or repeal any thing contained in any Act or Acts in force on or immediately before the Commencement of this Act, relating to the Importation, Exportation or warehousing of any Cons, Nod or Fious, or the taking the same out of Warehouse for Exportation or Home Consumption.

XCI. And be it further enacted, That all such Bonds as are by this Act authorized or required, shall be taken in His Majesty's Name, and to His Majesty's Use, by the Commissioners of Excise within their Jurisdiction respectively, as the Case may require, or by the proper Officers or Officers of Excise appointed or employed for that Purpose.

C A P. XXV.

An Act for regulating the Number of Apprentices to be taken on board British Merchant Vessels; and for preventing the Desertion of Seamen therefrom. [1823, May 1825.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Thirty seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for preventing the Desertion of Seamen from British Merchant Ships trading to His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in the West Indies, it is enacted, that all and every Master and Masters of any Merchant Ship or Merchant Ships, trading to His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in the West Indies, shall have on board his or their Ship or Ships at the Time of such Ship or Ships clearing out from Great Britain, One Apprentice, who shall be under the Age of Seventeen Years, duly indentured for Three Years, for every One hundred Tons Admeasurement of such Ship or Ships, and so in Proportion for every One hundred Tons which such Ship or Ships shall admeasure, according to the Certificate of Registry; And Whereas it is expedient to repeal the said Provisions in respect to Apprentices on board Merchant Ships trading to His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in the West Indies, and to make other Provisions in lieu thereof: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of the said in part recited Act as requires the Master of any Ship trading to His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in the West Indies to have on board an Apprentice or Apprentices shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty four, all and every Master and Masters of any Merchant Ship or Merchant Ships, exceeding the Burthen of Eighty Tons, shall have on board his or their Ship or Ships, at the Time of such Ship or Ships clearing out from any Port of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, One Apprentice or Apprentices, in the following Proportion to the Number of Tons of her Admeasurement, according to the Certificate of Registry; that is to say, For every Ship or Vessel exceeding Eighty Tons and under Two hundred Tons, One Apprentice at least; for every Ship or Vessel of Two hundred Tons and under Four hundred Tons, Two Apprentices at least; for every Ship or Vessel of Four hundred Tons and under Five hundred Tons, Three Apprentices at least; for every Ship or Vessel of Five hundred Tons and under Seven hundred Tons, Four Apprentices at least; for every Ship or Vessel of Seven hundred Tons and upwards, Five Apprentices at least; who shall, at the Period of being indentured, respectively be under the Age of Seventeen Years: Provided that every Apprentice so to be employed on board any Ship or Vessel, as above described, shall be duly indentured for at least Four Years; and the Indentures or Indentures of every such Apprentice shall be duly enrolled with the Collector and Comptroller at the Custom House of the Port from whence any such Ship or Vessel shall first clear out after the Execution of such Indenture or Indentures.

III. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to alter or in any way affect any Act now in force, and not amended or repealed by this Act, whereby any Ships or Vessels are required to have on board Apprentices, and that such Apprentices as shall be on board any Ships or Vessels conformably to the Rules and Regulations of any such Act shall be counted, deemed and reckoned in the Number required by this Act.

IV. And be it further enacted, That every Apprentice so enrolled shall be and is hereby exempted from serving in His Majesty's Navy, until he shall have attained the Age of Twenty one Years, provided he is regularly serving his Time either with his first Master or Ship Owner, or some other Master or Ship Owner to whom his Indentures shall have been regularly transferred; and all and every Owner or Owners, or Master or Masters, agreeing to enrol such Indenture or Indentures as aforesaid, or who shall suffer any such Apprentice to leave his Service, except in case of Death or Desertion, Sickness or other unavoidable Cause, to be certified in the Log Book, after the Vessel shall have cleared outwards on the Voyage upon which such Ship or Vessel may be bound, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of Ten Pounds, to be paid in Manner following, that is to say, One Maltre by the Owner or Owners of such Ship or Vessel, and the other Maltre by the Master or Masters thereof, to be levied, recovered and applied in Manner hereinafter mentioned.

V. And be it further enacted, That every Person to whom such Apprentice shall have been bound may employ him at any Time in any Vessel of which such Person may be the Master or Owner, and may also with the Consent of such Apprentice, if above the Age of Seventeen, and if under that Age, with the Consent of his Parents or Guardians, transfer the Indentures of such Apprentice, by Endorsement thereon, to any other Person who may be the Master or Owner of any registered Ship or Vessel.

VI. And be it further enacted, That no Stamp Duty shall be charged on any such Transfer by Endorsement.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the First Part of every Ship or Vessel exceeding the Burthen of Eighty Tons, and the First and Second Part of every Vessel exceeding Three hundred Tons Burthen, shall be and they are hereby exempt from being impressed to serve in His Majesty's Navy, provided they are regularly entered as such upon the Articles entered into by and between the Master, Seaman and Mateens of such Merchant Ship or Vessel.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the Forfeiture given as above by this Act, shall be paid and applied in Manner following; that is to say, One Third Part thereof for and towards the Support of Greenwich Hospital; One Third Part thereof for and towards the Support of the Seaman's Hospital at the Port to which the Ship or Vessel in respect of which the Forfeiture shall arise belongs, but in case there shall be no Seaman's Hospital at the Port to which such Ship or Vessel belongs, then to and for the Use and Benefit of the old and disabled Seamen of the same Port and their Families, to be distributed at the Discretion of the Persons having the Direction of the Merchant Seamen's Fund at such Port, or in case there shall be no such Establishment there, by the Magistrates or Overseers of the Poor of such Port; and the other Third Part thereof to and for the Person or Persons who shall inform and sue for the same; and that such Forfeiture shall be recovered upon Information on the Oath of One or more Witnesses before any One or more of His Majesty's Justice or Justices of the Peace, in any Part of the United Kingdom, who shall not recede more than Ten Miles from the Place of Abode of the Person or Persons complained of, which Justice and Justices is and are hereby authorized and required to issue out his or their Warrant or Warrants to bring before him or them every Person charged with any Offence under this Act; and in case he or they shall refuse or neglect to pay such Penalties or Forfeitures as aforesaid, to issue his or their Warrant or Warrants to levy the same by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods; and in case no Distress can be found, to commit the Offender or Offenders to the Common Goal at the City, Town or Place within the Jurisdiction of such respective Justice or Justices, there to remain for the Space of Three Calendar Months, or until he or they shall pay the same.

IX. And Whereas the Laws now in force for the Prevention of the Desertion of Persons composing the Crews of Merchant Ships in Foreign Parts, have been found ineffectual for that Object, and further Provision is therefore necessary; Be it enacted, That from and after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty four, if any Person belonging to the Crew of any registered Ship or Vessel shall desert from the said Ship or Vessel during the Absence of such Ship or Vessel from this Kingdom, contrary to the Articles of Agreement entered into with the Master, or other Person having Charge or Command of such Ship or Vessel, every such Person so deserting shall not only forfeit whatever Wages may be due to him for his Services on board of the Ship or Vessel from which he may have so deserted, but shall also forfeit whatever Wages shall be due or have been agreed to be paid to him by or from the Owner or Owners, or Master or other Person having the Charge or Command of any Ship or Vessel in the Service whereof such Person may have engaged on the Voyage back to this Country.

X. And be it further enacted, That the Wages which shall have become forfeited for Desertion as aforesaid shall be applied in the following Manner; videlicet, to the Reimbursement, in the First Place, of the Expenses thereby occasioned to the Owner or Master or Person having the Charge or Command of any Ship or Vessel from which the said Seaman shall have so deserted; the Remainder to be divided in equal Proportions between Greenwich Hospital and the Hospital for sick and diseased Seamen which may have been established at the Port at which the Vessel belongs, from which such Person shall have so deserted; and in case that no such Hospital shall have been established at the Port, then the whole of the Sum forfeited, after deducting the Expenses of the Owner or Master, or other Person having the Charge or Command of such Ship or Vessel as aforesaid, shall be paid to and for the Use of Greenwich Hospital.

XI. And be it further enacted, That in every such Case of Desertion it shall and may be lawful for the Owner or Master, or other Person having the Charge or Command of any Ship or Vessel, on board of which any Person having as aforesaid shall have entered for the Voyage Home, upon receiving Notice in Writing of the Time and Place of such Desertion, from the Owner or Master or other Person having the Charge or Command of the Vessel from which such Person shall have so deserted, and such first mentioned Owner, Master or other Person having the Charge or Command of such Ship or Vessel, is hereby required to deposit with the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital the full Amount of the Wages which had been agreed to be paid to such Person for the said Home Voyage, for the Purpose of being applied to the Uses before mentioned, and which Sum shall be applied to those Uses accordingly; provided that such Person shall not, within Six Months from the Date of such Deposit having been made with the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital as aforesaid, have established his just Claim thereto before Two Justices of the Peace residing in or near the Place where such Ship or Vessel shall have ended her Voyage, or been cleared at the Custom House, or delivered her Cargo, or in the High Court of Admiralty, or in any Court of Record in which such Person may have sued for the same: Provided always, that in every Case in which it shall happen that Wages are withheld from any Person by any Owner, Master or other Person having the Charge or Command of any Ship or Vessel, upon the Plea of Desertion as aforesaid, and such Person shall, within Three Months from the Time when such Ship or Vessel shall have entered and reported at the Custom House, establish by the

An Act to repeal the Duties on certain Articles, and to provide for the gradual Discontinuance of the Duties on certain other Articles, the Manufacture of Great Britain and Ireland respectively, on their Importation into either Country from the other. [23d May 1823.]

WHEREAS by the Acts made in the Parliaments of Great Britain and Ireland respectively, for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, it is among other Things enacted, as Part of the Sixth Article of the said Union, "That for the Period of Twenty Years from the Union, certain Articles, the Manufacture of other Country, specified and enumerated in the said Article, and in the Schedule Number Two to the said Acts respectively annexed, should be subject, on the Importation into each Country from the other, to the Duties specified in the said Article and Schedule respectively;" And Whereas by an Act made in the first Year of His present Majesty, intituled An Act to continue certain Duties on several Articles, the Manufacture of Great Britain or Ireland respectively, on their Importation into either Country from the other, Provision was made for continuing the Duties on the said Articles, and for making them terminable at certain Periods in the Proportions therein specified, between the first Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty one and the thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and forty; And Whereas it is expedient that the Duties on many of the said Articles should cease and determine, and that Provision should be made for the gradual Discontinuance of the Remainder of such Duties, so that the Whole thereof may cease at an earlier Period than is provided for that Purpose by the said last mentioned Act; Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, all Duties payable on all Cottons, Calicoes and Muslins whatsoever, payable under the said recited Act, shall be and the same are hereby repealed; and that from and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, the said heretofore recited Act of the first Year of the Reign of His present Majesty shall be and the same is hereby wholly repealed.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, the Duty of Ten Pounds on every One hundred Pounds of the Value of the several Articles hereinafter enumerated, being the Manufacture of Great Britain or Ireland respectively, on their Importation into either Country from the other respectively, under or by virtue of the said Acts for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other Act or Acts in force immediately before the passing of this Act, shall cease and determine, and shall be no longer paid or payable; (that is to say,) Apparel (except New Apparel and Army Clothing as hereinafter mentioned), Wrought Brass, Cabinet Ware, Coaches and other Carriages, Wrought Copper, Flat Window Glass and Plate Glass, Hardware, Tin Plates, Wrought Iron and Hardware, Gold and Silver Lace, Gold and Silver Thread, Ballins for Lace, Pearls and Spangles, Millinery, Pottery, Saddlery and other manufactured Leather, Silk Manufactures made of Silk mixed with any other Materials, Silks and Ribbons of Silk mixed with Gold or Silver, all Silk Gloves, Silk Fringe, Silk Laces, Starching and Sewing Silk, Stuffs of Silk and Grosgrain Yarn, Stuffs mixed with Linc or Cotton, Stuffs of Silk and Worsted mixed, Stuffs of Silk mixed with any other Materials, Silk in the State called Organzine or Thrown Silk, and all Stockings made of Silk, Cotton, Woolens or Worsted, and that from and after the said Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, all Duties payable under any such Acts upon any Woollen Manufactures of Great Britain or Ireland respectively, Unworn or distinguished by the Name or Description of Ornamental Old Drapery, and also all Duties payable on any Woollen Manufactures known by the Name of New Drapery (other than and except such Articles on which any Duty is expressly imposed by this Act), imported into either Country from the other respectively, shall in like Manner cease and determine, and be no longer paid or payable; save that in the said Acts for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, or in the said recited Act of the first Year of His present Majesty's Reign, or in any other Act or Acts in force immediately before the passing of this Act, or any Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary in any way notwithstanding; save and except in all Cases and so far as shall relate to the recovering, allowing or paying any Arrears of any of the said Duties on any of the said Articles, which may remain unpaid on the said Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, or any Fines, Penalties or Forfeitures relating thereto respectively, which shall have been incurred at any time on or before the said Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty three.

III. And be it further enacted, That there shall be raised, levied, collected and paid unto and for the Use of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in ready Money, without any Discount whatsoever, upon and in respect of the several Articles hereinafter mentioned, being the Manufactures of Great Britain and Ireland respectively, on their Importation into either Country from the other respectively, the several and respective Duties following; (that is to say) Upon all Manufactures of Silk, being Handkerchiefs, Ribbons and Stuffs of Silk only; upon all Glass, (except Flat Window Glass or Plate Glass,) upon all Hats, and upon all Paper printed, painted or stained for Hangings or other Use, a Duty of Ten Pounds on every One hundred Pounds of the Value of any such Articles, which shall be so imported at any Time after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, and at any Time on or before the Thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twenty three; a Duty of Seven Pounds and Ten Shillings, and no more, on every One hundred Pounds of the Value of such Articles which shall be so imported at any Time on or after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty four, and on or before the Thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twenty four, a Duty of Five Pounds, and no more, on every One hundred Pounds of the Value of any such Articles which shall be so imported at any Time on or after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty five, and on or before the Thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twenty five; a Duty of Two Pounds and Ten Shillings, and no more, on every One hundred Pounds of the Value of any such Articles which shall be so imported at any Time on or after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty six, and on or before the Thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twenty six; and that the said Duty of Two Pounds and Ten Shillings for every One hundred Pounds of such Value shall remain in force and be payable until and upon the said Thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twenty six, and no longer, and shall then cease and determine:

Upon all Calicoes, being printed, painted or stained, except such as shall be dyed throughout of one Colour, or as shall be made of Cotton Yarn coloured or dyed before weaving, a Duty of Ten Pounds on every One hundred Pounds of the Value of any such Calicoes which shall be so imported at any Time on or after the passing of this Act, and at any Time on or before the Thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twenty five; a Duty of Eight Pounds on every One hundred Pounds of the Value of any such Calicoes which shall be so imported at any Time on or after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty six, and at any Time on or before the Thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twenty six; a Duty of Six Pounds on every One hundred Pounds of the Value of any such Calicoes which shall be so imported at any Time on or after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty seven, and at any Time on or before the Thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twenty seven; a Duty of Four Pounds on every One hundred Pounds of the Value of any such Calicoes which shall be so imported at any Time on or after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty eight, and at any Time on or before the Thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twenty eight; a Duty of Two Pounds on every One hundred Pounds of the Value of any such Calicoes which shall be so imported at any Time on or after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty nine, and at any Time on or before the Thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twenty nine; and that the said Duty of Two Pounds for every One hundred Pounds of such Value shall remain in force and be payable until and upon the said Thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twenty nine, and no longer, and shall then cease and determine:

Upon all New Apparel imported for Sale, and upon all Army Clothing imported, such Apparel or Clothing being made of any Material or Materials which would be subject to the Duty on Old Drapery if imported in the Piece or not made up, a Duty of Ten Pounds for every One hundred Pounds of the Value of any such Articles which shall be so imported at any Time after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, and at any Time on or before the Thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twenty three; a Duty of Eight Pounds and Ten Shillings on every One hundred Pounds of the Value of any such Articles which shall be so imported at any Time on or after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty four, and at any Time on or before the Thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twenty four; a Duty of Seven Pounds on every One hundred Pounds of the Value of any such Articles which shall be so imported at any Time on or after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty five, and at any Time on or before the Thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twenty five; a Duty of Five Pounds and Ten Shillings on every One hundred Pounds of the Value of any such Articles which shall be so imported at any Time on or after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty six, and at any Time on or before the Thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twenty six; a Duty of Four Pounds on every One hundred Pounds of the Value of any such Articles which shall be so imported at any Time on or after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty seven, and at any Time on or before the Thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twenty seven; a Duty of Two Pounds and Ten Shillings on every One hundred Pounds of the Value of any such Articles which shall be so imported at any Time on or after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty eight, and at any Time on or before the Thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twenty eight; a Duty of One Pound on every One hundred Pounds of the Value of any such Materials which shall be so imported at any Time on or after

An Act for the more speedy Reduction of the Number of Sergeants, Corporals and Drummers in the Militia of Ireland, when not in actual Service. [23d May 1823.]

270 A. c. 205.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fifty seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to reduce the Number of Sergeants, Corporals and Drummers in the Militia of Ireland, while disembodied; it is enacted, that an Vacancy which shall occur by the Death, Dismissal or Removal of any Sergeants, Corporals or Drummers of any Regiment or Battalion of the said Militia, which shall not be embodied and called out into actual Service, shall be supplied or filled up until the Number of such Sergeants, Corporals and Drummers shall be reduced below the Number therein mentioned: And Whereas it is expedient that Power should be given for the more speedy Reduction of the Numbers of such Sergeants, Corporals and Drummers, in such Regiments or Battalions of the said Militia in which such Reductions shall not have taken place before the passing of this Act: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That as any Time after the passing of this Act it shall be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, or for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, to direct that the Number of Sergeants, Corporals and Drummers to be retained in any Regiment or Battalion of the said Militia on permanent Pay, when not in actual Service, shall be as follows, and no more, and the same shall thereupon be the ordinary Establishment of such Regiment or Battalion; that is to say, One Sergeant and One Corporal, and no more, to every Thirty private Men, and One Drummer to every Company, with an Addition of One Drummer to each Flank Company; and if it shall happen that there shall then remain a Surplus of Fifteen private Men or upwards, and less than Thirty, every such Regiment or Battalion shall and may, in such Case, have One additional Corporal for each Surplus Number of Men; and when any such Regiment or Battalion of Militia shall be drawn out into actual Service, such Addition shall be made therein, that there shall be One Sergeant and One Corporal to every Twenty private Men, and Two Drummers to every Company.

Sergeants, &c. may be retained for any Time after passing this Act in the Proprietors Terms mentioned.

and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Person or Persons so offending, rendering the same as if sold) after deducting the Amount of such Fines or Fees, and the Charges of such Distress and Sale, to such Offender or Offenders: And Whereas it is expedient that the Provisions of the said Act should be extended to Apprentices upon whose binding out a larger Sum than Five Pounds or Ten Pounds respectively, as mentioned in the said Acts, was paid: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, the Provisions of the said recited Acts, so far as the same relate to Apprentices, shall extend and be deemed and construed to extend to all Apprentices, upon whose binding out a larger Sum than Twenty five Pounds of lawful British Money was or shall be paid; any thing contained in the said Acts, or either of them, to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, it shall and may be lawful for any Two or more of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, in any case where they shall direct any Apprentice or Apprentices to be discharged under and by virtue of the said recited Acts or of this Act, to take into Consideration the Circumstances under which such Apprentice or Apprentices shall be so discharged, and to make an Order upon the Master or Mistress of such Apprentice or Apprentices to refund all or any Part of the Premium or Premiums which may have been or shall be paid upon the binding or placing out of such Apprentice or Apprentices, as such Justices in their Discretion shall see fit; and in case any Sum or Sums of Money shall be so ordered to be refunded by such Master or Mistress, shall be obligated to be paid to the Person or Persons directed in any such Order to receive the same, it shall and may be lawful for such Two or more Justices, in Petty Sessions, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, to levy the same upon the Goods and Chattels of such Master or Mistress, with the Cost and Charges of levying such Distress, rendering the Expenses of the Sale of such Goods and Chattels, upon Demand, to such Master or Mistress; and in case there shall not be sufficient Goods and Chattels whereon to levy the same, then it shall and may be lawful for such Justices to commit such Offender or Offenders to the House of Correction for any Time not exceeding Two Months, unless the Sum or Sums ordered to be refunded, with all Costs, shall be sooner paid and satisfied.

III. And be it further enacted, That the said recited Acts, and all and every the Powers and Provisions thereof (save and except such Parts thereof as are varied, altered, or repealed), shall be in good, valid and effectual for carrying this Act into Execution as if the same had been repeated so this Act.

C A P. XXX.

An Act to regulate the Importation and Exportation of certain Articles subject to Duties of Excise, and certain other Articles the Produce or Manufacture of Great Britain and Ireland respectively, into and from either Country from and to the other. [50th May 1825.]

WHEREAS by the Acts made in the Parliaments of Great Britain and Ireland respectively, for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, it is among other Things enacted, as Part of the Sixth Article of the said Union, that any Articles of the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of either Country, which are or may be subject to internal Duty, or to Duty on the Materials of which they are composed, may be made subject, on their Importation into each Country respectively from the other, to such countervailing Duty as shall appear to be just and reasonable in respect of such internal Duties on such Articles or Materials; and that upon the Export of the said Articles from each Country to the other respectively, a Drawback shall be given equal in Amount to the countervailing Duty payable on such Articles on the Importation thereof into the same Country from the other: And Whereas by the said Acts for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, and by several Acts from time to time passed since the said Union, diverse countervailing Duties and equivalent Drawbacks have from time to time been granted and made payable in respect of divers Articles in Great Britain and Ireland respectively subject to such internal Duty, or to Duty on the Materials of which such Articles are composed: And Whereas by an Act made in the Forty sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act to prevent the free Interchange of every Species of Grain between Great Britain and Ireland; and by an Act made in the Session of Parliament holden in the First and Second Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to permit the Removal of certain Goods from Great Britain to Ireland, and from Ireland to Great Britain, by Coach, Carriage, Litter or Tonnage, and Provisions are made for the Interchange of Ceres, and the Removal of such Articles, the Produce or Manufacture of either Country respectively, as are not subject to Duty or entitled to Drawback, in like manner as Goods sent Casewise in Great Britain and Ireland respectively: And Whereas it is expedient that similar Provisions should be made with respect to certain Articles subject to Duties of Excise, and to certain other Articles the Produce or Manufacture of Great Britain or Ireland respectively, imported or exported into and from either Country from and to the other: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, in all Cases where any Articles, the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of Great Britain or Ireland respectively, are or shall be subject to internal Duties of Excise, or to Duties on the Materials or any of them of which such

In a list case Justices may order Premium to be refunded.

Must refund.

Articles liable to equal Duties of Excise in Great Britain and Ireland.

may be imposed without Duty, and no export without Drawback, between the Two Countries, under the like most Favorable Regulations throughout the United Kingdom.

Excises.

Articles imported into the highest Rate of Excise Duty in the Importing Country, to pay only Rates of Duty.

Articles liable to Duty in Importing Country, and not in Exporting Country, to pay the whole Duty on Import. No Drawback on Exportation.

Articles exported into the highest Rate of Excise Duty in Exporting Country. Drawback.

Articles liable to Duty in Exporting Country, and not in Importing Country. Drawback not liable to Duty on Importation.

Articles liable to Excise Duty, but manufactured (Duty free) may be exported from Warehouse in one Country, and be liable to Duty on Import into the other.

Articles are composed, of the same specific Amount, or of such Amount according to different Modes of charging such Duty as shall be equivalent to each other in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, such Articles, having paid such Duties, shall not, upon the Importation into either Country respectively, be subject to any other or additional Duty whatsoever; and that upon the Export of such Articles from either Country to the other, whatever shall be given, allowed or paid, in respect of any such Duties of Excise; any thing in the said Acts of Union, or in any other Act or Acts to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding: And that from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, it shall and lawfully be lawful to export from Great Britain to Ireland, or from Ireland to Great Britain, and to import into Great Britain from Ireland, or into Ireland from Great Britain, any such Articles the Produce or Manufacture of either Country respectively, in like Manner, and under such Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties and Forfeitures, as no others, as the same Articles are or may be subject and liable to when carried Coastwise from one Port to another in England; and that all such Goods and Articles (except as hereinafter mentioned) which shall be carried Coastwise, or from any one Port in the United Kingdom to any other Port in the United Kingdom, shall be and become subject in all Cases to the same Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties and Forfeitures, whether the Port or Ports from and to which they shall be so carried shall be situate in Great Britain or in Ireland; any thing contained in any Act or Acts in force immediately before the passing of this Act to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, whenever any Article, the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of Great Britain or Ireland respectively, shall be imported into either Country from the other, which shall be subject to any internal Duty of Excise, or to any Duty on the Materials or any of them of which such Article is composed, at and after a Rate or Amount, in the Country into which such Article shall be imported, higher than the Rate or Amount payable in the Country from which such Article shall be exported, such Articles respectively shall, upon their Importation into either Country from the other, be subject and liable to the Payment of such Duty only as shall be equal to the Excess of the Amount of the Duty or Duties payable as aforesaid in the Country into which any such Article shall be imported, above the Amount of such Duty or Duties as aforesaid which shall have been actually paid in the Country from which such Article shall be exported: And that whenever any Article of such Growth, Produce or Manufacture shall be so imported, which shall be subject to any such Duty or Duties as aforesaid in the Country into which such Article shall be imported, and shall not be subject to any such Duty or Duties as aforesaid in the Country from which the same shall be exported, such Article shall, upon such Importation, be subject and liable to the Payment of a Duty equal to the Amount of the Duty or Duties which shall be payable as aforesaid in the Country into which any such Article shall be imported from the Country in which such Article is not liable to any such Duty or Duties; and that in all such Cases no Drawback whatever shall be allowed on the Exportation of any such Article from either Country to the other; any thing in the said Acts of Union, or in any other Act or Acts to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

III. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, whenever any Article, the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of Great Britain or Ireland respectively, shall be exported from either Country to the other, which shall be subject to any internal Duty of Excise, or to any Duty on the Materials or any of them of which such Article is composed, at and after a Rate or Amount, in the Country from which such Article shall be exported, higher than the Rate or Amount payable in the Country into which such Article is to be imported, a Drawback shall be allowed and given equal in Amount to the Excess of the Duty or Duties as aforesaid which shall have been actually paid on such Article in the Country from which such Article shall be exported, above the Amount of the Duty or Duties payable on the like Article in the Country into which such Article is to be imported: And that whenever any Article of such Growth, Produce or Manufacture shall be so exported, which shall be subject to any such Duty or Duties as aforesaid in the Country from which such Article shall be exported, and shall not be subject to any such Duty or Duties as aforesaid in the Country into which such Article shall be imported, a Drawback shall be allowed and given equal to the Amount of the whole of the Duty or Duties as aforesaid which shall have been actually paid in the Country from which such Article shall be exported in the Country in which such Article is not liable to any such Duty or Duties as aforesaid; and that in all such Cases, no Duty whatever shall be payable on the Importation of any such Article into either Country from the other; any thing in the said Acts of Union, or in any other Act or Acts to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

IV. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, in all Cases where any Article, the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of Great Britain or Ireland respectively, shall be subject and liable to the Payment of any Duty or Duties of Excise as aforesaid, it or shall be allowed, under any Act or Acts in force in Great Britain or Ireland, to be stored in Warehouses without Payment of such Duty or Duties of Excise, it shall and may be lawful to export from Great Britain to Ireland and from Ireland to Great Britain respectively, any such Article the Produce or Manufacture of either Country respectively, out of the Warehouse in which such Article shall be lodged or stored, under all such Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties and Forfeitures, as Articles liable to the Payment of Duty thereon may be exported out of Warehouse; and that upon the Importation of any such Article into either Country from the other than such Warehouse as aforesaid, such Article shall be subject and liable to and there shall be paid thereon a Duty equal to the Amount of the Duty of Excise payable on the like Article in the Country into which any such Article shall be so imported.

V. And for the ascertaining from time to time what Articles may under this Act be imported or exported into and from Great Britain and Ireland respectively without Payment of Duty or Allowance of Drawback, and what Articles shall be subject to the Payment of any Duty or entitled to any Drawback under this Act, and the Amount of such Duty and Drawback, and what Articles may be exported from Warehouses under this Act; Be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or any Three of them, and they are hereby required, from time to time to cause One or more Table or Tables, or Schedule or Schedules, to be prepared, concerning the several Articles, whether chargeable with Duty since the same or different Places in the Two Countries, which may be imported and exported between Great Britain and Ireland respectively under this Act, without Payment of Duty or Allowance of Drawback, or subject to any Duty or entitled to any Drawback, according to the Amount payable or allowable pursuant to the Provisions of this Act, or which may be exported out of Warehouse in Great Britain or Ireland, and imported into Ireland or Great Britain from Warehouses respectively, upon Payment of any such Duty, or otherwise, pursuant to the Provisions of this Act; and in such Table or Tables, or Schedule or Schedules respectively, the Amount of Duties and Drawbacks which shall be payable or allowable according to the Provisions of this Act, so such Articles respectively, shall be stated and set forth in Figures opposite each Article respectively so enumerated; and a Copy of every such Table or Schedule, signed by the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, shall be transmitted to the Commissioners of Customs and Excise, with such Directions respecting the same as the said Commissioners of the Treasury shall think proper and necessary; and the Stamps specified in every such Table or Schedule so approved and signed, shall be demand and taken to be the proper Duties and Drawbacks payable or allowable according to the Provisions of this Act upon or in respect of any such Articles as shall be specified in any such Table or Schedule, and shall be charged and levied, and paid and allowed, in like manner as other Duties and Drawbacks of Customs or Excise, under any Act or Acts in force at the Time of the making of any such Table or Schedule as aforesaid.

VI. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, it shall be lawful to export from Great Britain to Ireland, or from Ireland to Great Britain, and to import into Ireland from Great Britain, or into Great Britain from Ireland, any Coals, the Produce of either Country respectively, under the like Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties and Forfeitures, or in case of Coals and Coarse Iron from one Part in England to another Part in England; any Act or Acts in force to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding: Provided always, that all such Duties, and no other, shall be paid upon such Coals on the other respectively, as such Coals are or shall be subject and liable to upon Importation into such Country under any Act or Acts in force at the Time of such Importation.

VII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in all Cases in which and so long as any Difference doth or shall exist between the Laws in force in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, relating to the Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties and Forfeitures, which any Articles which may be imported or exported between Great Britain and Ireland under this Act are subject and liable, the Importation and Exportation of all such Articles into or from either Country respectively shall be governed by such Rules and Regulations, and shall be subject to such Restrictions as are or may or shall be from time to time directed in that behalf by any Order in Writing signed by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three of them, and published in the London and Dublin Gazettes, with respect to the Importation thereof into the Country into which such Articles shall be imported, and with respect to Exportation thereof from the Country from which such Articles shall be exported, until further uniform Provisions shall be made for the assuaging of such Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties and Forfeitures throughout the whole of the United Kingdom; and that all Articles which, under the Provisions of the Act, shall be exported into Great Britain or Ireland respectively from the other, shall immediately upon such Importation be and become subject and liable to all such Laws, Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties and Forfeitures, and shall be admitted to all such Privileges and Advantages in all respects to which Articles of the like Nature, the Produce or Manufacture of the Country into which such Articles shall be imported, are or shall be subject and liable or entitled unto, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, and as if such Articles so imported were the Produce or Manufacture of the Country into which such Articles shall be so imported.

To be entered, and Transcripts deposited with Clerk of the Peace.

Officers not to have any Benefit in the Institution, except such Salaries as shall be appointed.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no such Institution as aforesaid shall have the Benefit of this Act, unless the Rules, Orders and Regulations for the Management thereof shall be entered in a Book or Books, to be kept by an Officer of such Institution to be appointed for that Purpose, and which Book or Books shall be open at all reasonable Times for the Inspection of the Persons receiving Assistance from such Institutions, and unless such Rules and Regulations shall be fairly transcribed on Parchment, and such Transcript shall be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the County, County of a City or County of a Town or Place wherein such Institution shall be established; which Transcript shall be filed by such Clerk of the Peace with the Rolls of the Sessions of the Peace in his Custody, without Fee or Reward to be paid in respect thereof, but nevertheless, nothing herein contained shall extend to prevent any Alteration in or Amendment of any such Rules, Orders or Regulations so entered, deposited and filed as aforesaid, or repealing or rescinding the same, or any of them, either in Whole or in Part, or making any new Rules, Orders or Regulations for the Management of any such Institution, in such manner as by the Rules, Orders and Regulations of such Institution shall from time to time be provided: but such new Rules, Orders and Regulations, or such Amendments or Amendments of former Rules, Orders and Regulations, or any Order rescinding or repealing any former Rules, Orders or Regulations, in the Whole or in Part, shall not be in force until the same respectively shall be entered in such Book or Books as aforesaid, and a Transcript or Transcripts thereof shall be deposited with such Clerk of the Peace as aforesaid, who shall file the same without Fee or Reward as aforesaid.

III. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That no such Institution as aforesaid shall have the Benefit of this Act, unless it shall be expressly provided by the Rules and Regulations for the Management thereof, that no Person or Persons, being Treasurer, Director, Trustee or Manager of such Institution, or having any Control in the Management thereof, shall derive any Benefit from any Loan made in such Institution, save only and except such Salaries and Allowances, or other necessary Expenses, as shall, according to such Rules, Orders, and Regulations, be provided for the Charges of managing such Institutions, and for Remuneration to Officers employed in the Management thereof, exclusive of the Treasurer or Treasurers, Director or Directors, or other Persons having the Management and Direction of such Institution, who shall not, directly or indirectly, have any Salary, Allowance, Profit or Benefit whatsoever therefrom.

IV. And

IV. And be it further enacted, That all Rules, Orders and Regulations from time to time made and in force for the Management of any such Institution as aforesaid, and duly entered in such Book or Books as aforesaid, and deposited with such Clerk of the Peace as aforesaid, shall be binding on the several Members and Officers of such Institution, and the several Persons receiving Relief from the same, and their Representatives, all of whom shall be deemed and taken to have full Notice thereof by such Entry and Deposit as aforesaid; and the Entry of such Rules, Orders and Regulations in such Book or Books as aforesaid, or the Transcript thereof, deposited with such Clerk of the Peace as aforesaid, or a true Copy of such Transcript, examined with the Original and proved to be a true Copy, shall be received as Evidence of such Rules, Orders and Regulations respectively in all Cases; and on Complainant shall be brought or allowed to remove any such Rules, Orders or Regulations into any of His Majesty's Courts of Record, and every Copy of any such Transcript deposited with any Clerk of the Peace as aforesaid, shall be made without Fee or Reward, except the actual Expence of making such Copy; and such Copy shall not be subject to any Stamp Duty.

V. And be it further enacted, That all Notes and Securities entered into for the Payment of such Loans, or for the Payment by Installments of the Price of such Implements of Industry by Installments, which Price shall not exceed the first Cost of any such Implements, may be made payable to the Treasurer or Clerk of the said Societies, and may be used for and recovered in his Name for the Benefit of the said Societies, by Civil Bill, before the Assistant Barrister at the Quarter Sessions to be held for the County, City, Town or Place wherein such Society is or may be established, or before the Justices assembled at any Petty Sessions for such County, County of a City or County of a Town, Ten Days' Notice at the least first being given to the Person used for the Amount of such Notes and Securities, provided the Value of such Notes and Securities so used for at such Petty Sessions do not in any Case exceed Ten Pounds.

VI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful to and for any such Society to make any Loan to any one Individual within Twelve Months, or to provide any Implements of Industry for any one Person within Twelve Months, exceeding in Amount or Value the Sum of Ten Pounds.

VII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any such Society to make a Loan or Loans to any Committee or Committees, consisting of Three or more solvent Persons, upon their joint and several Securities, of any Sum not exceeding One hundred Pounds, payable, with Interest, at the Expiration of Twelve Months, such Committee or Committees engaging to expend the Amount of the said Sum, and duly to account for the same, for the Purposes and Objects, and according to the Rules, Regulations and Orders of the Society so advancing the same; Provided always, that no greater Sum than One hundred Pounds shall be lent to any such Committee within Twelve Months; and that at the Expiration of that Period the Amount of such Loan, together with the Interest due thereon, shall be called in and paid before any new Loan shall be made to any such Committee.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Treasurer or Treasurers, or other Officer or Officers, or other Person whatsoever, who shall be entrusted with the Receipt or Custody of any Sum or Sums of Money, subscribed or deposited for the Purpose of such Institution, or any Interest or Dividend arising from time to time thereby, shall be required by the Rules or Regulations of such Institution, to become bound with Securities for the just and faithful Execution of such Office or Trust, in such Sum or Sums of Money as shall be required by the Rules, Orders and Regulations of such Institution, such Security shall and may be given by Bond or Bonds to the Clerk of the Peace for the County, County of a City, County of a Town or Place where such Institution shall be established for the time being, without Fee or Reward; and in Case of Forfeiture, it shall be lawful for the Parties authorized for that Purpose by the Rules, Regulations and Orders of such Institution, to sue upon such Bond or Bonds in the Name of the Clerk of the Peace for the time being, and to carry on such Suit at the Costs and Charges and for the Use of the said Institution, fully indemnifying and saving harmless such Clerk of the Peace from all Costs and Charges of such Suit or Suits, or in respect thereof; and no Bond or Security so to be given, shall be subject to or chargeable with any Stamp Duty whatever.

IX. And be it further enacted, That no Note or other Security which may be entered into for the Repayment of any Loan made under this Act, or for the Payment of the Price of Implements of Industry as aforesaid heretofore provided, shall be subject to or chargeable with any Stamp Duty whatever.

X. And be it further enacted, That all Looms, Spinning Wheels, Reels, Hackles, Calculators, Presses or other Implements of Industry, which shall be provided by the said Societies, shall, before they be delivered out by them, be sealed or stamped with such Mark or Marks or by the said Societies may be directed; and that no such Looms or other Implements as aforesaid, so sealed or marked, shall be distrained for Rent, or in any other Account whatever, or shall be seized by virtue of any Process or Execution by any Sheriff, Newcastle or Bailiff, or other Person whatsoever, unless in Cases when such Seizure or Sale is at the Suit or on the Behalf of the Societies established under this Act, whatsoever the Parties receiving such Implements shall fail in performing their Contract or Engagement for the Payment of the Price of the same.

XI. C A P. XXXIII.

An Act to make more effectual Regulations for the Election, and to secure the Performance of the Duties, of County Treasurers in Ireland. [20th May 1823.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that more effectual Provisions should be made for regulating the Election and securing the Performance of the Duties of Treasurers of Counties and Counties of Cities and Towns in Ireland; Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That at any Time after the passing of this Act, whenever the Office of Treasurer of any County, or County of a City or County of a Town, shall be and become vacant by Death, Resignation or otherwise, Notice of such Vacancy, signed by the Secretary of the Grand Jury of the County, County of a City or County of a Town, where such Vacancy shall happen, shall be inserted Three Times at the least in the Dublin Gazette, and also a Notice thereto, and in some Newspaper (if there shall be any such) published in the County, County of a City or County of a Town, that the Election of a Treasurer for such County, County of a City or County of a Town, will be held at some Day not less than Fourteen Days distant from the Date of such Notice, at the County Town of the County, or at the County of a City or County of a Town, as the case may be, and at such Hour as shall be mentioned in such Notice; and it shall be lawful for the Secretary of the Grand Jury to give Notice of such Meeting according to the Directions of any Three Magistrates, qualified to elect such Treasurer as hereinafter mentioned.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, the Election of any Person to the Office of Treasurer of any County, County of a City or County of a Town, in Ireland, shall be made at a Meeting of the Magistrates to be held pursuant to such Notice as aforesaid, and that it shall not be lawful for any Magistrate to meet or vote at any such Election, who shall not be qualified in such and the like manner as is required for Magistrates assembling and holding any Special Sessions for the Purposes of an Act made in the Fifty sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled An Act to amend the Laws for making, repairing and improving the Roads and other public Works in Ireland, by Grand Jury Presentments, and for a more effectual Investigation of such Presentments, and for farther amending a true, full and faithful Account of all Mowens levied under the same; and every Magistrate assembled at such Meeting for the Election of any Treasurer shall, previous to acting or giving his Vote at such Meeting, make such Oath of his Qualification as is required by the said recited Act: Provided always, that if such Qualification shall arise from any Freehold or Leasehold Estate, the same shall be situate in the County, County of a City or County of a Town for which such Election shall take place; and that such Meeting shall consist of not less than Seven Magistrates so qualified, in the Case of Election of a Treasurer for any County, and of not less than Three of the Magistrates appointed by Charter or otherwise, in the Case of Election of a Treasurer of a County or County of a City or County of a Town; and that the senior Magistrate, or such Magistrate as shall be elected thereto, shall preside at such Meeting.

III. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, no Person shall be permitted or allowed to be a Candidate for the Office of Treasurer of any County, County of a City or County of a Town, in Ireland, who shall not make Oath, in Presence of the Magistrates at the Meeting assembled for the Purpose of such Election, and previous to their proceeding to such Election, and which Oath the presiding Magistrate at such Meeting is hereby authorized, empowered and required to administer, that such Person so being such Candidate is possessed of Property, Real or Personal, or partly Real and partly Personal, in his own Right, equal in Amount to the Sum for which he shall be required to bind himself presently according to the Amount in the Schedule [A.] to this Act annexed, ever and above all his just Debts, and all Charges by Settlement or otherwise on such Property, or that he shall tender to such Magistrates so assembled such Security as shall appear to them equal in Amount thereto.

IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Person, who at the Time of the passing of this Act shall be a Treasurer, or who at any Time after the passing of this Act shall be elected to be Treasurer of any County, County of a City or County of a Town, to act as such Treasurer at any Time after the First Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty four, unless such Person being such Treasurer at the Time of the passing of this Act shall, before the End of the Quarter Session which shall be held in January next after the passing of this Act, produce to the Magistrates assembled at such Session, or being elected to be such Treasurer at any Time after the passing of this Act, shall at the Session next after his Election to such Office, (if such Session shall take place at any Period after the Expiration of One Month next after such Election,) or otherwise at the General or Quarter Sessions or Assizes next after the Expiration of such Period of One Month (as the Case may be), produce to the Magistrates assembled at such Session, or to the Grand Jury at such Assizes, the Opinion of His Majesty's Attorney or Solicitor General for Ireland, or of a King's Benchman there, approving the Validity of the Securities given by such Treasurer and his Sureties, in the Amount of the Sums specified in the Schedule (A.) to this Act annexed; nor unless such Treasurer shall previous to such Sessions or Assizes respectively, have entered into Recognizances to His Majesty with not less than Two Sureties, and with not more than six Sureties, to the Amount specified in the Schedule (A.) annexed to this Act, conditioned for the due Performance of the Duties of his Office, and for duly accounting for all Moneys received by him on account of such County, County of a City or County of a Town; and a Certificate of such Opinions having been produced, and of such Recognizances having been entered into, signed by the Chairman of such Sessions, or by the Foreman of such Grand Jury respectively, and also a Certificate signed by the proper Officer of the Court of Exchequer in Ireland, that such Recognizances have been duly deposited and entered or recorded therein, as hereinafter is provided, shall be laid before the Judge on the Second Day of the ensuing Assizes.

V. And be it further enacted, That every such Recognizance, when duly deposited and entered or recorded in the Court of Exchequer at Dublin, and shall have Priority over all other Securities for Debt, and before all other Debts of any Treasurer or his Sureties entering into such Recognizances, entered into or contracted after such Recognizance shall have been entered or recorded, in like manner to all Intents and Purposes as in the Case of any Collector or Receiver of any of His Majesty's Revenues in Ireland.

VI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in lieu and instead of entering into the Recognizances to the Amount and with the Sureties required by this Act, it shall and may be lawful for any Person who at the Time of the passing of this Act shall be a Treasurer, or who at any Time after the passing of this Act shall be chosen to be a Treasurer of any County, County of a City or County of a Town, to invest in any of the Government Funds or Securities transferable at the Bank of Ireland, in the Name and with the Privity of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery of Ireland, or per se such Person, and the County, County of a City or County of a Town of which such Person shall be Treasurer, such Sum of Money as shall be equal to the Amount of Security required to be given by such Treasurer, to be applied under the Orders of the said Court of Chancery, and which Orders such Court is hereby authorized to make from time to time in a summary Manner, on the Application of any Person or Persons authorized by the Grand Jury, for the Purpose of making good any Deficiencies in accounting for any Money received by such Treasurer on account of such County, County of a City or County of a Town; and a Certificate that such Investment has been made, signed by such Accountant General, shall be produced to the Magistrates at the Sessions or Assizes, and shall be laid before the Judge on the Second Day of the Assizes, in manner required by this Act with respect to the Opinions of the Attorney or Solicitor General as to the Validity of the Securities of such Treasurer, and with respect to the Certificate of the Officer of the Exchequer in Ireland of the duly depositing, entering and recording of Recognizances required by this Act; and in such Case such Treasurer shall be and is hereby discharged from entering into any Recognizances or giving such Security as is required by this Act; and after the Death or Resignation of such Treasurer it shall be lawful for the Court of Chancery, by any summary Order or Orders, to direct the Transfer of such Securities, or any Part thereof, in the first place, in Payment of any Sum or Sums which may be due from such Treasurer in respect of his Office of Treasurer, in preference to all other Debts and to all other Claims on the Property of such Treasurer, and to direct the Transfer of the Remainder of such Securities (or in case no such Sum or Sums shall be so due, then to direct the Transfer of the Whole of such Securities) to such Treasurer, or to or among the Representatives of such Treasurer, or to or among such other Person or Persons as shall appear to such Court to be entitled thereto, or to any Part thereof: Provided always, that the Interest and Dividends of the Government Funds and Securities in which any Sum shall be so invested, shall from time to time be received by and be paid and payable to the Treasurer by whom the same was so invested, until some Order or Orders of the said Court of Chancery shall be made to the contrary.

VII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, every Treasurer of any County, County of a City or County of a Town, in Ireland, shall keep open his public Office in the Assize Town for Three Days at least before the First Day, and Six Days at least after the Last Day of each of the Two Assizes, and for the Last Day of the October Sessions and the Six subsequent Days, during Six Hours at least in each and every such Days (Sundays excepted), for the Transaction of the Business relating to the Duty of his Office; and that the several Collectors of the Grand Jury Assessments of every County, County of a City or County of a Town, shall, Two Days at least before the First Day of every Assize, pay into the Office of the Treasurer at such Assize Town, the Amount of all Assessments collected by such Collectors; and in case such Payments shall not be fully made by such Collector Two Days at least before the First Day of every such Assize, such Collector shall lose and forfeit all Poundage payable to him on the Collection of such Assessments; and no Payment or Allowance of such Poundage shall in such Case be paid or allowed to such Collector, any Law, Custom or Regulation to the contrary notwithstanding.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall not be lawful for the Treasurer of any County, County of a City or County of a Town, to make any Composition for any Sum duly assessed on any Person or Persons under the Presentment of the Grand Jury, or to receive any less Sum than the Sum so duly assessed, nor to make any Deductions from any such Sum or Sums, other than such as he shall duly account for; and that every such Treasurer shall lay before the Grand Jury on the First Day of every Assize, an exact Statement of his Accounts up to that Day, duly made up for the Examination of such Grand Jury; and that if any such Treasurer shall be guilty of any Offence or Neglect contrary to the Provisions of this Act in the Particulars last aforesaid, or if any

C A P. XXXIV.

An Act to enlarge the Powers of Justices in determining Complaints between Masters and Servants, and between Masters, Apprentices, Artificers and others. [17th June 1823.]

20 G. 4. c. 140.

4 G. 4. c. 22.

c. 23. 1823.

Masters or their Agents may make Complaint against Apprentices.

Justices may issue Warrants to the House of Correction.

Justices may order Payment of Wages to Apprentices, or to any person who is liable to pay the same.

On Refusal.

Process.

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Twentieth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Second, entitled An Act for the better adjusting and more easy Recovery of the Wages of certain Servants, and for the better Regulation of such Servants, and of certain Apprentices; and another Act was passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act for better regulating Apprentices, and Prisons working under Contract; and also another Act was passed in this present Session of Parliament, intitled An Act to increase the Power of Magistrates in cases of Apprenticeships; and it is expedient to extend the Powers of the said Acts: Be it therefore enacted by His Majesty's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful, not only for any Master or Mistress, but also for his or her Steward, Manager or Agent, to make Complaints upon Oath against any Apprentices, within the Meaning of the said before recited Acts, to any Justice of the Peace of the County or Place where such Apprentices shall be employed, or for any Magistrate, Mayor, or other Officer of any such Apprentices; or if such Apprentices shall have absconded, it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace of the County or Place where such Apprentices shall be found, or where such Apprentices shall have been employed, and any such Justice is hereby empowered, upon Complaint thereof made upon Oath by such Master, Mistress, Steward, Manager or Agent, which Oath the said Justice is hereby empowered to administer, to issue his Warrant for apprehending every such Apprentice; and further, that it shall be lawful for any such Justice to hear and determine the same Complaint, and to punish the Offender by abating the Whole or any Part of his or her Wages, or otherwise by Confinement to the House of Correction, there to remain and be held to hard Labour for a reasonable Time, not exceeding Three Months.

II. And be it further enacted, That all Complaints, Differences and Disputes which shall arise between Masters or Mistresses and their Apprentices, within the Meaning of the said before recited Acts, or any of them, touching or concerning any Wages which may be due to such Apprentices, shall and may be heard and determined by One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace of the County or Place where such Apprentices or Apprentices shall be employed, which said Justice or Justices is and are hereby empowered to examine on Oath any such Master or Mistress, Apprentice or Apprentices, or any Witness or Witnesses, touching any such Complaint, Difference or Dispute, and to summon such Master or Mistress to appear before such Justice or Justices at a reasonable Time to be named in such Summons, and to make such Order for Payment of so much Wages to such Apprentices or Apprentices, as according to the Tenor of his or their Indentures of Apprenticeship shall appear to such Justice or Justices, under all the Circumstances of the Case, to be justly due, (provided that the Sum in question do not exceed the Sum of Ten Pounds;) the Amount of such Wages to be paid within such Period as the said Justice or Justices shall think proper, and shall order the same to be paid, and in case of a Refusal or Nonpayment thereof, such Justice and Justices shall and may issue forth his and their Warrant, to levy the same by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of such Master or Mistress, rendering the Overplus to the Owing, after Payment of the Charges of such Distress and Sale.

III. And be it further enacted, That if any Servant in Husbandry or any Artificer, Calico Printer, Handicraftsman, Miner, Collier, Keelman, Pitman, Glassman, Potter, Labourer or other Person, shall contract with any Person or Persons whatsoever, to serve him, her or them for any Time or Times whatsoever, or in any other manner, and shall not enter into or commence his or her Service according to his or her Contract (such Contract being in Writing, and signed by the contracting Parties) or having entered into such Service shall abscond himself or herself from his or her Service before the Term of his or her Contract, whether such Contract shall be in Writing or not in Writing, shall be culpable, or neglect to fulfil the same, or be guilty of any other Misconduct or Misdemeanor in the Execution thereof, or otherwise respecting the same, then and in every such Case it shall and may be lawful for any Justice of the Peace of the County or Place where such Servant in Husbandry, Artificer, Calico Printer, Handicraftsman, Miner, Collier, Keelman, Pitman, Glassman, Potter, Labourer or other Person, shall have so contracted, or be employed or be found, and such Justice is hereby authorized and empowered, upon Complaint thereof made upon Oath to him by the Person or Persons, or any of those, with whom such Servant in Husbandry, Artificer, Calico Printer, Handicraftsman, Miner, Collier, Keelman, Pitman, Glassman, Potter, Labourer or other Person shall have so contracted, or by his, her or their Steward, Manager or Agent, which Oath such Justice is hereby empowered to administer, to issue his Warrant for the apprehending every such Servant in Husbandry, Artificer, Calico Printer, Handicraftsman, Miner, Collier, Keelman, Pitman, Glassman, Potter, Labourer or other Person, and to examine into the Nature of the Complaint; and if it shall appear to such Justice that any such Servant in Husbandry, Artificer, Calico Printer, Handicraftsman, Miner, Collier, Keelman, Pitman, Glassman, Potter, Labourer or other Person, shall not have fulfilled such Contract, or hath been guilty of any other Misconduct or Misdemeanor as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for such Justice to commit every such Person to the House of Correction, there to remain and be held to hard Labour for a reasonable Time, not exceeding Three Months, and to submit a proportionable Part of his or her Wages, for and during such Period as he or she shall be so confined in the House of Correction, or so lieu thereof, to pass the Offender by abating the Whole or any Part of his or her Wages, or to discharge such Servant to Husbandry, Artificer, Calico Printer, Handicraftsman, Miner, Collier, Keelman, Pitman, Glassman, Potter, Labourer or other Person from his or her Contract, Service or Employment, which Discharge shall be given under the Hand and Seal of such Justice gratis.

IV. And Whereas it frequently happens that such Masters, Mistresses or Employers reside at considerable Distances from the Parishes or Places where their Business is carried on, or are occasionally absent for long Periods of Time, either beyond the Seas, or at considerable Distances from such Parishes or Places, and during such Residence or occasional Absences entrust their Business to the Management and Superintendance of Stewards, Agents, Bailiffs, Foremen or Managers, whereby such Servants, Artificers, Handicraftsmen, Miners, Colliers, Keelmen, Pitmen, Glassmen, Pottery, Labourers or other Persons and Apprentices are or may be subjected to great Difficulties and Hardships, and put to great Expence in recovering their Wages, It is therefore enacted, That in either of the said Cases, it shall and may be lawful and for any Justice or Justices of the County or Place where such Servant in Husbandry, Artificer, Handicraftsman, Miner, Collier, Keelman, Pitman, Glassman, Potter, Labourer or other Person or Apprentice shall be employed, upon the Complaint of any such Servant, Artificer, Handicraftsman, Miner, Collier, Keelman, Pitman, Glassman, Potter, Labourer or other Person or Apprentice touching or concerning the Nonpayment of his or her Wages, to summon such Steward, Agent, Bailiff, Foreman or Manager, to be and appear before him or them at a reasonable Time to be named in such Summons, and to hear and determine the Matter of the Complaint in such and the like manner as Complainers of the like Nature against any Master, Mistress or Employer are directed to be heard and determined in and by this and the before recited Acts, and also to make an Order for the Payment by such Steward, Agent, Bailiff, Foreman or Manager, to such Servant, Artificer, Handicraftsman, Miner, Collier, Keelman, Pitman, Glassman, Potter, Labourer or other Person or Apprentice, of so much Wages as to such Justice or Justices shall appear to be justly due; provided that the Sum so ordered to be paid by such Steward, Agent, Foreman, Bailiff or Manager, for the Space of Thirty one Days from the Date of such Order, such Justice or Justices as aforesaid shall and may issue forth his or their Warrant to levy the same by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of such Master, Mistress or Employer, rendering the Overplus to the Owner or Owners, or to such Steward, Agent, Bailiff, Foreman or Manager, for the Use of such Master, Mistress or Employer, after Payment of the Charges of such Distress and Sale.

V. And be it further enacted, That every Justice or Justices of the Peace before whom any Complaint shall be made, in pursuance of the said before recited Act made in the Thirtieth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, or of another Act made in the Thirty first Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intitled 'An Act to amend an Act made in the Third Year of the Reign of King William and Queen Mary, intitled 'An Act for the better Explanation and supplying the Defects of the former Laws for the Settlement of the Peace, so far as the same relates to Apprentices gaining a Settlement for Inheritance; and also to empower Justices of the Peace to determine Differences between Masters and Mistresses and their Servants in Husbandry, touching their Wages, though such Servants are hired for less than one Year, shall and may order the Arrears of the Wages that shall appear due to any Servant in Husbandry, Artificer, Labourer or other Person named in the said Acts, or either of them, to be paid to the Person entitled thereto, within such Period as the said Justice or Justices shall think proper; and in case of Refusal or Nonpayment thereof, shall and may levy the same by Distress and sale, as

An Act to enable Trustees or Commissioners under Acts of Parliament to meet and carry such Acts into Execution, although they may not have met according to the Directions of such Acts.

When Trustees or Commissioners named were met on the Day appointed as herein mentioned for their First Meeting, any Three may meet on the Fourteenth Day after the passing of such Act.

WHEREAS it has happened that the Trustees or Commissioners appointed to carry into Execution any Act or Acts of Parliament have not been able to meet on the Day appointed by such Act or Acts for carrying the same into Execution, by reason that the Day appointed for such Meeting has been antecedent to the passing of such Act or Acts, whereby the Intent of such Act or Acts hath been or may be frustrated: For Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in all Cases where the Trustees or Commissioners appointed by any Act or Acts of Parliament have not been or shall not be able to meet on the Day appointed for their First Meeting by any such Act or Acts, by reason that the Day appointed for such Meeting has been or shall be antecedent to the passing of such Act or Acts, it shall and may be lawful for Three or more of the said Trustees or Commissioners appointed to execute such Act or Acts to meet at the Place appointed by such Act or Acts for the First Meeting of such Trustees or Commissioners, on the Fourteenth Day after the passing of such Act or Acts, or of this Act; and every such Meeting shall be as good, valid and effectual as if such Trustees or Commissioners had met in pursuance of the Act or Acts of Parliament which they are appointed to carry into Execution.

C A P. XXXVI.

An Act to discourage the granting of Leases in Joint Tenancy in Ireland. [27th June 1823.]

WHEREAS the Practice of granting Leases to Persons jointly, in common, or in partnership, still prevails in some Parts of Ireland, to the mutual Prejudice of the Improvement of the People; And Whereas the Continuance of such Practice is much induced by the Facility thereby afforded of multiplying Qualifications (often colourable only) to vote for Members to serve in Parliament, contrary to the Spirit of the Laws and Constitution: And Whereas it is highly expedient such Inducement should cease: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That after the passing of this Act, it shall not be lawful for any Person to register any Freehold under the yearly Value of Twenty Pounds, held by virtue of any Lease, Deed or other Instrument, given or executed to any Person or Persons jointly, in common, or in partnership, after the First Day of July next, or vote for a Member or Members to serve in Parliament for any Place in Ireland by virtue of any such Freehold.

No Register of Freehold under 20*l*. held jointly under Lease shall after 1st July 1823; or vote hereon for Member of Parliament. Addition to Oath of Freeholders under 20*l*.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Person offering to register any Freehold under the yearly Value of Twenty Pounds, shall add to any Oath or Oaths which he may be legally required to take, the following Words: "And that I do not hold my said Freehold by virtue of any Lease, Deed or other Instrument, executed after the First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, given or executed to any Person or Persons jointly, or in common, or in partnership," which Addition to such Oath or Oaths the Person or Persons legally authorized to administer such Oath or Oaths is and are hereby empowered and required to administer: Provided always, that nothing in this Act shall be construed to extend to Persons who have registered or shall register Freeholds under the yearly Value of Twenty Pounds, under a Lease or Leases for Lives, renewable for ever, pursuant to the Provisions of an Act made in the First Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for the better regulating of Polls, and for making further Provisions touching the Election of Members to serve in Parliament for Ireland.

Proviso for Persons registering Freeholds under 20*l*. Value under a Lease for Lives renewable for ever. 800 G. 2. & 1 G. 4. c. 11.

III. And be it further enacted, That in case any Person shall wilfully and corruptly swear falsely in the said Addition to the said Oath or Oaths, and shall be thereof duly convicted, such Person shall be deemed guilty of Perjury, and shall suffer the like Pains and Penalties, and incur the same Disabilities, as Persons guilty of wilful and corrupt Perjury are subject to and incur.

An Act to amend an Act for the more speedy Return and Levying of Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures, and Recognitions returned.

1 G. 4. c. 46.

WHEREAS an Act passed in the Third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for the more speedy Return and Levying of Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures, and Recognitions returned: And Whereas it is expedient that some of the Provisions of the said Act should be amended:

May

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the Justices assembled at any General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace, and they are hereby authorized and required, at the following or any subsequent General or Quarter Sessions held after the Return of the Writ and Roll issued from any preceding General or Quarter Sessions, at the opening of the Court, to insert or cause to be inserted in any following Roll, all such Fines, Issues, Amerciaments, forfeited Recognizances, Sums or Sums of Money to be paid in lieu or satisfaction of them or any of them, which have not been duly levied or recovered or properly accounted for by the Sheriff, Bailiff or other Officer, or have not been discharged on Appeal before the General or Quarter Sessions, or by Signi Manual, Warrant or Authority of any Three or more of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and as in and by the said Process from Sessions to Sessions, till it shall be duly ascertained, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, that the Party in Default has set any Goods or Chattels, Lands or Tenements in the County, Division, Riding, City, Town or Place, on which a Levy can be made, nor in any other County, Division, Riding, City, Town or Place in Great Britain, and that he is not to be found, or that his Body cannot be lodged in any of His Majesty's Gaols: Provided always, that the said Sheriff, Bailiff or other Officer to whom the Writ of Distingas and Copias or Fieri Facias, or other Writs demanded necessary by the Justices at any such General or Quarter Sessions to meet the exigency of the Case, shall be sent by Order of the said Court, shall keep and detain in his Possession the Writ or Writs as directed to him, and the Roll or Rolls attached to such Writ or Writs, delivering to the said Court of General or Quarter Sessions a Copy of such Roll or Rolls, on the First Day of the Sitting of the said Court, and also a Copy of any former Roll or Rolls, where the Fines, Issues, Amerciaments, forfeited Recognizances, † Sum or Sums of Money paid or to be paid in lieu or satisfaction of them, or any of them, shall not have been delivered; and such original Writ and Roll, or Writs and Rolls, shall continue in Force and Effect, and shall be sufficient Authority, without any further Writ or Roll; and each Sheriff, Bailiff or other Officer is hereby authorized and required, on quitting his Office, to deliver over to his Successor all Rolls and Writs in his Possession, particularizing any Fines, Issues, Amerciaments, forfeited Recognizances, Sum or Sums of Money paid or to be paid in lieu or satisfaction of them, or any of them, in order that the Sheriff, Bailiff or other Officer coming into office may use every Means in his Power for recovering the Same as unpaid, and not charged to his Predecessor on the passing of his Accounts at the Eschequer, or before any Auditor or Auditees, or other Person duly authorized to pass the same, the Officer or Officers concerned with the Execution of the Process in any County, Division, Riding, City, Town or Place, being first duly and diligently examined on Oath by the Court, at the Delivery of the Roll, on the First Day of each General or Quarter Sessions, and in case such Examination should not then take place, then on the subsequent Day; and every such Examination shall be duly recorded by the Clerk of the Peace or Town Clerk, or other proper Officer, in order that such Sheriff, Bailiff or other Officer may be chargeable with all Sums not satisfactorily accounted for on the final passing of his Accounts.

† II. And Whereas it is enacted by the said recited Act directed, that in all Cases where the Party incurring any Fine, Issue, Amerciamment, forfeited Recognizance, Sum or Sums of Money to be paid in lieu or satisfaction of them or any of them, shall reside in another County, or in any City, Borough or Place having peculiar Jurisdiction, or shall have fled into any other County, or into any such City, Borough or Place, after such Fine, Issue, Amerciamment, forfeited Recognizance, Sum or Sums of Money to be paid in lieu or satisfaction of them or any of them, shall have been incurred, or shall have removed his Goods and Chattels out of the Jurisdiction in which such Fine, Issue, Amerciamment, forfeited Recognizance, Sum or Sums of Money to be paid in lieu or satisfaction of them or any of them shall have been imposed, it shall be lawful for the said Sheriff, Bailiff or Officer, and he is hereby required, to apply to any Justice of the Peace acting for such County, City, Borough or Place into which the Party may have fled, or removed his Goods and Chattels; and such Justice is hereby required, upon Proof on Oath of the Handwriting of the Sheriff or Under Sheriff, Bailiff or Officer granting such Warrant, to induce his Neice thereon, which shall be a sufficient Authority to the Person bringing such Warrant, and to all other Persons to whom the same may be directed, to execute the same in such other County, City, Borough or Place; and in Case sufficient Dames shall not be found, whereas to levy such Fine, Issue, Amerciamment, forfeited Recognizance, Sum or Sums of Money to be paid in lieu or satisfaction of them or any of them, and all Costs and Charges attending the Recovery thereof, then to take the Body of the Party, and lodge him in the Gaol of the County, City, Borough or Place in which the Forfeiture had been incurred, there to await the Decision of the Court at the ensuing General or Quarter Sessions: And Whereas such Provision has been found insufficient for the Purposes thereby intended, and it is necessary that better Provision should be made for that Purpose; Be it therefore enacted, That so much of the said recited Act shall be repealed, and is hereby declared to be null and void to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

III. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where the Party incurring or subject to any Fine, Issue, Amerciamment, forfeited Recognizance, † Sum or Sums of Money to be paid in lieu or satisfaction of them or any of them, shall reside, or shall have fled or removed from or out of the Jurisdiction of the Sheriff, Bailiff or other Officer, in which any such Fine, Issue, Amerciamment, forfeited Recognizance, Sum or Sums of Money to be paid in lieu or satisfaction of them or any of them, shall have been incurred, imposed or forfeited, forfeited, or become due, it shall be lawful for such Sheriff, Bailiff or other Officer, and he is hereby authorized and required to issue his Warrant, together with a Copy of the Writ; directed to the Sheriff, Bailiff or other Officer acting for the County, Riding, City, Borough or Place in which such Person shall then reside or be, or in which any Goods or Chattels or other Property shall be found, requiring such Sheriff, Bailiff or other Officer to execute such Writ, and every such Intentioned Sheriff, Bailiff or other Officer, is hereby authorized and required to act in all respects under such Warrant, in the same Manner as if the original Writ had been delivered to him by Order of the Court of the General or Quarter Sessions of the County, Riding, City, Borough or Place for which such Sheriff, Bailiff or other Officer shall act; and the said Sheriff, Bailiff or other Officer is hereby required, within Thirty Days after the Receipt of such Warrant, to return to the Sheriff, Bailiff or other Officer, from whom he shall have received the same, what he shall have done in the Execution of such Process, and whether the Party shall have given good and sufficient Security to appear at the ensuing General or Quarter Sessions to be held for the County, Riding, City, Borough or Place from which the Writ issued, and in case a Levy shall have been made, to pay over all Moneys received in pursuance of the Warrant to the Sheriff, Bailiff or other Officer from whom he shall have received the same.

IV. And be further enacted, That every Sheriff, Bailiff or other Officer acting for any County, Division, Riding, City, Borough or Place, shall and he is hereby required to make up or cause to be made up annually, and immediately after the Expiration of the Year for which he shall act, or after the usual Period for making up his Account, in case he shall act under any Grant, Appointment or other Authority for a longer Period than One Year, an Account in Writing, containing the Names and Residences of all Persons securing Fines, Issues, Amerciaments, forfeited Recognizances, † Sums or Sums of Money paid or to be paid in lieu or satisfaction of them or any of them, which he has been authorized or required to levy by virtue of any Writ or Writs issued to him, or to any Predecessor in Office; and in case any Fine, Issue, Amerciament, forfeited Recognizance, Sum or Sums of Money paid or to be paid in lieu or satisfaction of them or any of them, shall not have been levied or paid, the Causes of Nonpayment shall be fully and particularly stated; and such Account such Sheriff, Bailiff or other Officer is hereby required to transmit, within Thirty Days from the Expiration of the Year for which such Account ought to be made up, to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or at or within such other Period as such Sheriff, Bailiff or other Officer shall be required by the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, in order that such Account may be duly examined, checked and approved, under the Direction of the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them; and when so examined and approved, such Account shall be transmitted to the proper Officer in the Court of Exchequer, or to the Auditor or other Officers duly authorized to pass such Account.

V. And be it further enacted, That every Clerk of the Peace and Town Clerk, or other proper Officer, is hereby required, within Twenty Days from the opening of the Court of General or Quarter Sessions, to send to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury a Copy or an Extract of the Roll or Rolls delivered by the Sheriff, Bailiff or other Officer, on the First Day of the opening of such Court of General or Quarter Sessions, in such Form as shall be required by the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, also the Causes of Discharge in case any Person shall have been relieved on Appeal to the said Court of General or Quarter Sessions, and the Answer given by any Sheriff, Bailiff or other Officer to such Court, where any Fine, Issue, Amerciament, forfeited Recognizance, † Sum or Sums of Money paid or to be paid in lieu or satisfaction of them, or any of them, has not been received by such Sheriff, Bailiff or other Officer duly authorized to receive the same.

C A P. XXXVIII.

An Act for settling the Compensation to the Holders of certain Offices in the Courts of Law in Ireland, abolished under an Act passed in the First and Second Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, for regulating the same. [17th June 1823.]

1823 c. 22

WHEREAS by an Act made in the Seventh of Parliament holden in the First and Second Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to regulate the Proceedings in the Civil Side of the Court of King's Bench, and also in the Court of Common Pleas, and in the Pleas or Common Law Side of the Court of Exchequer, in Ireland, it was among other Things enacted, that from and after the Commencement of the said Act the Rights of the Holders of the Office of Prothonotary and Filicer and Keeper of the Writs, Processes, Rules, Orders and Records in the Civil Side of the Court of King's Bench, and of the Office of Prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas, and of the Office of Filicer and Exigister of the said Court of Common Pleas, of, as and to the said Offices respectively, should severally cease and determine: and that the Holders of the said Offices respectively should receive, during the Terms of their several Lives respectively, certain Allowances, according to the Provisions of the said Act, in Compensation and Consideration of the Loss incurred by them respectively, by the ceasing and determining of their several Rights in the said Offices respectively; and for ascertaining the Amount of the Allowances and Considerations to be made to the said Holders of the said Offices, it is enacted, that the Commissioners appointed to inquire into the Duties, Salaries and Emoluments of the Officers, Clerks and Ministers of Justice in all Temporal and Ecclesiastical Courts in Ireland, should make inquiry into the Salaries and Emoluments of the several Offices heretofore mentioned and specified, and should ascertain the annual Amount of each Salary and Emolument respectively, in manner in the said Act specified; and that the said Commissioners of Inquiry, or any

Three of them, should certify under their Hands and Seals the Amount of the yearly Income of every such Office, on the Average of Seven Years, as reduced by the Exclusion of certain Emoluments, Fees, Profits, Disbursements and Deductions in the said Act specified, so as to state only the net annual Income of the said Offices respectively, according to the mode of estimating the same directed by the said Act: and that the said Certificate should contain a Statement of the particular Fees, Profits and Emoluments on which such Averages should have been taken as aforesaid, and also of the Fees, Profits and Emoluments which should be excluded from such Averages; and that the said Certificates should be filed in the Office of the Auditor General in Dublin Castle, and should remain there as a Record; and it is also by the said recited Act further enacted, that from and after the filing of the said Certificate of the said Commissioners there should be issued and paid to each of the Holders of the said several Offices heretofore mentioned and specified, out of the Consolidated Fund, an annual Sum equal to the Sum which should be so ascertained by such Certificate to be the net annual Amount of the Income and Emolument of each of the said Offices respectively, in full of all Compensation under the said recited Act, unless any legislative Provision should be made as in the said Act is mentioned; and it is also by the said recited Act further enacted, that Copies of all such Certificates of the said Commissioners of Inquiry should be laid before both Houses of Parliament, and that in case no legislative Provision should be made for the Compensation of the several Officers whose Claims should have been so decided upon by the Commissioners of Inquiry, in the Course of the Session in which such Certificate should be laid before Parliament, the said Certificate should become final and conclusive to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever; and it is also by the said recited Act further enacted, that the said Commissioners of Inquiry should investigate the Fees and Emoluments of the Crier and Usher of the Court of Exchequer, and that their Report on the same should be laid before Parliament, and that such Report should be made in like manner as in the said Act is provided for the Certificate of the average Profits of the said Offices of Prothonotaries and Filices; And Whereas the said Commissioners of Inquiry have proceeded under the said recited Act to make Inquiry into the Salaries and Emoluments of the several Offices heretofore mentioned, pursuant to the Directions of the said Act, and in so doing certain particular Fees, Profits and Emoluments were included and admitted by some Three, being a Majority of the said Commissioners of Inquiry, as Part of the annual Incomes of such Offices respectively (certain others of the said Commissioners dissenting thereon, and not agreeing to include or admit such Fees, Profits or Emoluments as Part of such Incomes), and certain other particular Fees, Profits and Emoluments were so admitted and included by some other Three, being a Majority of such Commissioners (certain others of the said Commissioners dissenting and disagreeing as aforesaid); but inasmuch as all the several Fees, Profits and Emoluments of the said Offices were not included and admitted by the same Three Commissioners, as Part of the annual Income of such Offices respectively, no Three of the said Commissioners considered themselves justified in certifying under their Hands and Seals the total Amount of the yearly Income of the said Offices, arising from the average Amount of all such Fees, Profits or Emoluments as have been included and admitted as Part of the Income of such Offices by some Three, being a Majority of the said Commissioners; and the said Commissioners have in consequence made and filed several Certificates, each of such Certificates stating Two distinct separate Assessments of the several net yearly Incomes of each of the said before mentioned Offices respectively, according to the different Views which had been taken by the several Commissioners with respect to such Fees, Profits and Emoluments as aforesaid, in neither of which Assessments on any Three of the said Commissioners concur, so as to agree in signing and sealing a Certificate of such Amount as required by the said Act; and it has therefore become necessary that some legislative Provision should be made for the Compensation of the Parties heretofore before the said Offices respectively: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, in lieu of such Sums as under the said recited Act might have been issued out of the Consolidated Fund, as being equal to the Sums which ought to have been ascertained by any Certificate or Certificates, under the Hands and Seals of the said Commissioners of Inquiry on any Three of them, to be the net annual Amount of the Income and Emolument of each of the said Offices respectively, there shall be issued and paid and payable to the Person who, at the Time of the passing of the said recited Act, were Holders of the several Offices following: that is to say, the Office of Prothonotary, and Filicer, and Keeper of the Writs, Possessor, Ruler, Ordener and Records in the Civil Side of the Court of King's Bench, the Office of Prothonotary of the said Court of Common Pleas, and the Office of Filicer and Exigent of the said Court of Common Pleas, and the Office of Crier and Usher of the Court of Exchequer, and to the Assigns of such Holders of such Offices respectively, yearly and every Year during the Term of the respective natural Lives of such Persons respectively, and according to the Rights and Titles of such Persons respectively, out of and charged and chargeable upon the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in full of all Compensation under the said recited Act, such Sums to be equal to the highest Amount of the net Incomes of the said several Offices respectively, specified in any such Certificate or Certificates respectively; and such annual Sums so equal to the highest Amount of such net Incomes so respectively specified, shall be paid and payable to all and every such Person and Person, and their and his Assigns respectively, during the Term of the several natural Lives of all and every such Persons and Person, and according to the Rights and Titles of all and every such Persons and Person respectively, by Four equal Quarterly Payments in each and every Year, free hereinafter mentioned) as far as relates to Scotland: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act the said several recited Acts, and all or any such Parts of all or any of the said several recited Acts, shall be repealed, whereby any Rule, Regulation, Restriction, Fine, Penalty or Forfeiture, Condition or Proviso, is made or imposed in any way relating to the Importation, Exportation and Sale of Linnens or Hempens; or to the steeping, making up or Sale of Hemp or Flax; or to the Exportation and Sale of Linnen Yarn, or to the dressing, weaving and making up thereof; or to the Measure and Length of the Reels, or of the Weaving Grains, such as Heddies and Roods; or to the Measure, Length and Breadth or Standard of Linnen Cloth, bleached and unbleached; or to the Number, Length, Size and Description, Quality or Colour of Threads, to be in any way used in the Manufacture or making up of the several Kinds or Descriptions thereof; or to the making up of the same into Pieces, Half Pieces or other Classes or Denominations; or to the clean and even working, cutting, knitting, taking up and setting thereof; or to the soiling, measuring, stamping, marking or lapping of such Linnens, by any Person or Persons whatsoever, previous to Exportation or Sale, or to the Fees payable in respect thereof; or to the Use of Lane or Pigeon's Dung, or Soap Dregs or Lye, in the bleaching of Linnen; and all Clauses, Provisions, Powers and Authorities conferred upon or granted to any Person or Persons whatsoever, for inspecting, viewing, searching for or taxing any Yarn or Linnen Cloth, or otherwise for the securing and enforcing the Fulfillment of any such Rules, Regulations and Restrictions, or for the Recovery of any such Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures, or Conditions, or for the Inflicting of any such Penalties; and so much and such Parts of the said several recited Acts are hereby repealed accordingly, as far as relates to the said several Matters and Things hereinbefore recited, except only in such Cases and for such Purposes as are hereinafter mentioned, excepted and provided for.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to spin and reel Linnen or Hempen Yarn, and to manufacture Linnen and Hempen Cloth in Scotland, free from all the Rules, Regulations and Restrictions, by this Act repealed, and without the Necessity of soiling, measuring, weighing, marking or lapping such Linnen or Hempen Cloth as aforesaid; any thing in the said recited Acts or any of them, or in any other Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding; except only in such Cases as are hereinafter mentioned and provided for.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for every Manufacturer or Weaver of Linnen, and every Trader and Dealer in Linnen Manufacture in Scotland, to sew or cause to be sewn his Name, or to fix any such Mark or Seal as he shall think fit, in or to any Piece of Linnen Cloth manufactured by or for such Manufacturer, Weaver, Trader or Dealer, for the Purpose of denoting either the true and correct Length and Breadth, or Quality, of any such Piece of Linnen Cloth, or the Name of the Manufacturer thereof, or both; and if any other Person or Persons shall counterfeit such Mark or Name, such Person or Persons shall, upon being lawfully convicted thereof, upon the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, before Two or more Justices of the Peace or Magistrates within any Burgh, forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds for the Use of the Person whose Mark shall be so counterfeited, to be raised, levied and paid in such Manner as is directed by the said recited Act of the Thirtieth Year of the Reign of King George the First, with respect to the Penalty of One hundred Pounds for counterfeiting any Mark or Name under the said Act.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to repeal any Enactments or Provisions in any of the said recited Acts or any of them contained, whereby Makers of Heddies, Spinning Wheels, Reels, Weaving Looms and Weaving Stools, or Weavers or Manufacturers of Linnen, Flax or Hempen Cloth, or Heddies or Dressers of Flax or Hemp, are authorized to exercise their Trades respectively within any City, Town, Corporation, Burgh or Place in Scotland, without any Licent or Hindrance from any Person or Persons whatsoever, and without being chargeable or charged with Payment of any Entry Money or other Duty whatsoever, for or in respect of following such Trade or Business.

V. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall extend to and shall take effect only to that Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Scotland.

C A P. XLI.

[27th June 1823.]

WHEREAS the Wealth and Strength of this Kingdom, and the Prosperity and Safety of every Part of the British Empire, greatly depend on the Encouragement given to Shipping and Navigation; And Whereas divers Acts have from time to time been passed for the Purpose of conferring to Ships wholly built in His Majesty's Dominions the Advantages which were formerly given by the Legislature to Ships owned and navigated by His Majesty's Subjects, and for that Purpose divers Regulations have from time to time been made, for the registering of, and the transferring of the Property in such Ships; which Regulations have been found in some respects imperfect, and in others inconcert; And Whereas the Object of the Legislature in passing the said several Acts may be more effectually obtained by repealing the same, and by comprising and consolidating in one Act the several Provisions contained therein, but varied and altered in some respects: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, so far as such Act, Matter or Thing can be applicable to the registering of any Ship or Vessel at such Place.

IV. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said Thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, in case any Ship or Vessel, not being duly registered, and not having obtained such Certificate of Registry as aforesaid, shall exercise any of the Privileges of a British Ship, the same shall be subject to Forfeiture, and also all the Guns, Furniture, Ammunition, Tackle and Apparel to the same Ship or Vessel belonging, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of His Majesty's Customs: Provided always, that nothing in this Act shall extend or be construed to extend to affect the Privileges of any Ship or Vessel which shall have been registered by virtue of any Act or Acts in force for the Registry of British Ships, and granting Certificates thereof prior to the said Thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, until such time or times as such Ships or Vessels shall be required by this Act to be registered de novo, under the Regulations thereof.

V. And be it further enacted, That no Ship or Vessel shall be registered, or, having been registered, shall be deemed to be duly registered by virtue of this Act, except such as are wholly of the Bulk of the said United Kingdom, or of the Isle of Man, or of the Islands of Guernsey or Jersey, or of some of the Colonies, Plantations, Islands or Territories in Asia, Africa or America, or of Malta, Gibraltar or Heligoland, which belong to His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, at the Time of the building of such Ships or Vessels; or such Ships or Vessels as shall have been condemned in any Court of Admiralty as Prize of War, or such Ships or Vessels as shall have been condemned in any competent Court for the Breach of the Laws made for the Prevention of the Slave Trade, and which shall wholly belong, and continue wholly to belong, to His Majesty's Subjects duly entitled to be Owners of Ships or Vessels registered by virtue of this Act.

VI. And be it further enacted, That no Ship or Vessel shall continue to enjoy the Privileges of a British Ship after the same shall have been repaired in a Foreign Country, if such Repairs shall exceed the Sum of Twenty Shillings for every Ton of the Burthen of the said Ship or Vessel, unless such Repairs shall have been necessary by reason of extraordinary Damage sustained by such Ship or Vessel during her Absence from His Majesty's Dominions, to enable her to perform the Voyage in which she shall have been engaged, and to return to some Port or Place of the said Dominion; and whenever any Ship or Vessel, which has been so repaired in a Foreign Country, shall arrive at any Port in His Majesty's Dominions, as a British registered Ship or Vessel, the Master or other Person having the Command or Charge of the same shall, upon the first Entry thereof, report upon Oath to the Collector and Comptroller of His Majesty's Customs at such Port, that such Ship or Vessel has been so repaired, under Penalty of Twenty Shillings for every Ton of the Burthen of such Ship or Vessel, according to the Admeasurement thereof; and if it shall be proved, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, that such Ship or Vessel was Sea worthy at the Time when she last departed from any Port or Place in His Majesty's Dominions, and that no greater Quantity of such Repairs have been done to the said Vessel than was necessary as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, upon a full Consideration of all the Circumstances, to direct the Collector and Comptroller of the Port where such Ship or Vessel shall have arrived, or where she shall then be, to certify on the Certificate of the Registry of such Ship or Vessel, that it has been proved to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, that the Privileges of the said Ship or Vessel have not been forfeited, notwithstanding the Repairs which have been done to the same in a Foreign Country.

VII. And be it further enacted, That if any Ship or Vessel, registered under the Authority of this or any other Act, shall be deemed or declared to be stranded or unseaworthy, and incapable of being recovered or repaired to the Advantage of the Owners thereof, and shall for such Reasons be sold by Order or Decree of any competent Court, for the Benefit of the Owners of such Ship or Vessel, or other Persons interested therein, the same shall be taken and deemed to be a Ship or Vessel lost or broken up, to all Intents and Purposes within the Meaning of this Act, and shall never again be entitled to the Privileges of a British built Ship, for any Purposes of Trade or Navigation.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That no British Ship or Vessel which has been or shall hereafter be captured by, and become Prize to, an Enemy, or sold to Foreigners, shall again be entitled to the Privileges of a British Ship; Provided always, that nothing contained in this Act shall extend to prevent the registering of any Ship or Vessel whatever, which shall be condemned in any Court of Admiralty as Prize of War, or in any competent Court for Breach of Laws made for the Prevention of the Slave Trade.

IX. And be it further enacted, That no such Registry shall hereafter be made, or Certificate thereof granted, by any Person or Persons heretofore authorized to make such Registry, and grant such Certificates, in any other Port or Place than the Port or Place to which such Ship or Vessel shall properly belong, except so far as relates to such Ships or Vessels as shall be condemned as Prizes in any of the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey or Alder; which Ships or Vessels shall in future be registered in manner hereinafter directed, but that all and every Registry and Certificate granted in any Port or Place to which any such Ship or Vessel does not properly belong, shall be utterly null and void, to all Intents and Purposes, unless the Officers aforesaid shall be specially authorized and empowered to make such Registry, and grant such Certificates in any other Port, by an Order in Writing under the Hands of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, which Order the said Commissioners are hereby authorized and empowered to issue in manner aforesaid, if they shall see fit; and at every Port where Registry shall be made in pursuance of this Act, a Book shall be kept by the Collector and Comptroller, in which all the Particulars contained in the Form of the Certificate of Registry heretofore devised to be used shall be duly entered; and every Registry shall be numbered in Progression, beginning such progressive Numeration at the Commencement of each and every Year; and such Collector and Comptroller shall forthwith, or within One Month at the furthest, transmit to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs a true and exact Copy, together with the Number of every Certificate which shall be by them so granted.

X. And be it further enacted, That every Ship or Vessel shall be deemed to belong to some Port at or near to which some or one of the Owners who shall take and subscribe the Oath required by this Act, before Registry be made, shall reside; and whenever such Owner or Owners shall have transferred all his or their Share or Shares in such Ship or Vessel, the same shall be registered ex novo, before such Ship or Vessel shall sail or depart from the Port to which she shall then belong, or from any other Port which shall be in the same Part of the United Kingdom, or the same Colony, Plantation, Island or Territory as the said Port shall be in: Provided always, that if the Owner or Owners of such Ship or Vessel consent in sufficient Time comply with the Requisites of this Act, so that Registry may be made before it shall be necessary for such Ship or Vessel to sail or depart upon another Voyage, it shall be lawful for the Collector and Comptroller of the Port where such Ship or Vessel may then be, to certify upon the Back of the existing Certificate of Registry of such Ship or Vessel, that the same is to remain in Force for the Voyage upon which the said Ship or Vessel is then about to sail or depart: Provided also, that if any Ship or Vessel shall be built in any of the Colonies, Plantations, Islands or Territories in Asia, Africa or America, to His Majesty belonging, for Owners residing in the United Kingdom, it shall be lawful for such Ship or Vessel to proceed to any Part of the United Kingdom, whether by a direct or circuitous Voyage, and there to impart a Cargo before Registry shall have been made of such Ship or Vessel; provided the Manner of such Ship or Vessel, or the Agent for the Owner or Owners thereof, shall have produced to the Collector and Comptroller of the Port at or any to which such Ship or Vessel was built, or from which she shall be cleared for her Voyage as aforesaid, the Certificate of the Builder required by this Act, and shall have made Oath before such Collector and Comptroller of the Names and Descriptions of the principal Owners of such Ship or Vessel, and that she is the identical Ship or Vessel mentioned in such Certificate of the Builder, and that no Foreigner, to the best of his Knowledge and Belief, has any Interest therein; whereupon the Collector and Comptroller of such Port shall cause such Ship or Vessel to be surveyed and measured in like manner as is directed for the Purpose of registering any Ship or Vessel, and shall give the Master of such Ship or Vessel a Certificate under their Hands and Seals, purporting to be under the Authority of this Act, and stating what and where, and by whom such Ship or Vessel was built, the Description, Tonnage and other Particulars required on Registry of any Ship or Vessel, and the Voyage for which such Ship or Vessel is cleared by them; and such Certificate shall for such Voyage have all the Force and Virtue of a Certificate of Registry under this Act, and such Collector and Comptroller shall transmit a Copy of such Certificate to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs.

XI. And be it further enacted, That no Person who has taken the Oath of Allegiance to any Foreign State, except under the Terms of some Capitulation, unless he shall afterwards become a Deacon or unsworn Subject of the United Kingdom by His Majesty's Letters Patent, or by Act of Parliament, or any Person usually residing in any Country not under the Dominion of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, unless he be a Member of some British Factory, or Agent for or Partner in any House or Copartnership actually carrying on Trade in Great Britain or Ireland, shall be entitled to be the Owner in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, of any Ship or Vessel required and authorized to be registered by virtue of this Act.

XII. And be it further enacted, That no Registry shall heretofore be made or Certificate granted, until the following Oath be taken and subscribed, before the Person or Persons heretofore authorized to make such Registry and grant such Certificate respectively (which they are hereby respectively empowered to administer), by the Owner of such Ship or Vessel, if such Ship or Vessel is owned by or belongs to One Person only, or in case there shall be Two joint Owners, then by both of such joint Owners, if both shall be resident within Twenty Miles of the Port or Place where such Register is required, or by One of such Owners, if one or both of them shall be resident at a greater Distance from such Port or Place, or if the Number of such Owners or Proprietors shall exceed Two, then by the greater Part of the Number of such Owners or Proprietors, if the greater Number of them shall be resident within Twenty Miles of such Port or Place as aforesaid, not in any Case exceeding Three of such Owners or Proprietors, or by One of such Owners, if all shall be resident at a greater Distance:

I A. B. of [Place of Residence and Occupation] do make Oath, That the Ship or Vessel [Name] of [Port or Place], whereof [Master's Name] is at present Master, being [kind of Build, Burthen, or] et cetera, as described in the Certificate of the surveying Officer, was [when and where built, or of Prize, Capture and Condemnation], and that I, the said A. B. [and the other Owners' Names and Occupations, if any, and where they respectively reside; whether, Town, Place or Parish and County; or if Member of and resident in any Factory in Foreign Parts, or in any Foreign Town or City, being an Agent for, or Partner in any House or Copartnership, actually carrying on Trade in Great Britain or Ireland, the Name of such Factory, Foreign Town or City, and the Names of such House or Copartnership], am [or are] sole Owner [or Owners] of the said Vessel, and that no other Person or Persons whatever hath or have Manner of Ad- measurement to ascertain Ton- nage.

XV. And be it further enacted, That for the Purpose of ascertaining the Tonnage of Ships or Vessels, the Rule for Admeasurement shall be as follows; to-wit, the Length shall be taken on a straight Line along the Sabbet of the Keel from the Back of the Main Stern Post to a perpendicular Line from the Fore Part of the Main Stern under the Bowprit, from which, subtracting Three Fifths of the Breadth, the Remainder shall be esteemed the just Length of the Keel to find the Tonnage; and the Breadth shall be taken from the Outside of the Outside Plank in the broadest Part of the Ship, whether that shall be above or below the Main Wale, exclusive of all Manner of Doubling Planks that may be wrought upon the Sides of the Ship; then multiplying the Length of the Keel by the Breadth so taken, and that Product by Half the Breadth, and dividing the whole by Ninety four, the Quotient shall be deemed the true Contents of the Tonnage.

Manner of ascer- taining Ton- nage when Vessels are short.

XVI. And Whereas it would in some Cases endanger Ships or Vessels, to cause them to be laid on Shore; Be it therefore enacted, That in Cases where it may be necessary to ascertain the Tonnage of any Ship or Vessel when absent, according to the foregoing Rule, the following Method shall be observed; that is to say, Drop a Plumb Line over the Stern of the Ship, and measure the Distance between such Line and the after Part of the Stern Post at the Lead Water Mark; then measure from the Top of the Plumb Line, in a parallel Direction with the Water, to a perpendicular Point immediately over the Lead Water Mark at the fore Part of the Main Stern, subtracting from such Measurement the above Distance, the Remainder will be the Ship's Extreme, from which it is to be deducted Three Inches for every Foot of the Lead Draught of Water for the Rake shaft, also Three Fifths of the Ship's Breadth for the Rake forward, the Remainder shall be esteemed the just Length of the Keel to find the Tonnage; and the Breadth shall be taken from Outside to Outside of the Plank, in the broadest Part of the Ship, whether that shall be above or below the Main Wale, exclusive of all Manner of Sheathing or Doubling that may be wrought on the Side of the Ship; then multiplying the Length of the Keel for Tonnage by the Breadth so taken, and that Product by Half the Breadth, and dividing by Ninety four, the Quotient shall be deemed the true Contents of the Tonnage.

Engine Boats in Steam Ves-

XVII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in each of the several Rules hereinbefore prescribed, when used for the Purpose of ascertaining the Tonnage of any Ship or Vessel propelled by Steam, Stems, the Length of the Engine Room shall be deducted from the whole Length of such Ship or Vessel, and the Remainder shall, for such Purpose, be deemed the whole Length of the same.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That whenever the Tonnage of any Ship or Vessel shall have been ascertained according to the Rule herein prescribed (except in the Case of Ships or Vessels which have been advertised about) such Account of Tonnage shall ever after be deemed the Tonnage of such Ship or Vessel, and shall be repeated in every subsequent Registry of such Ship or Vessel; unless it shall happen that any Alteration has been made in the Form and Burthen of such Ship or Vessel, or it shall be discovered that the Tonnage of such Ship or Vessel had been erroneously taken and computed.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That at the Time of obtaining the Certificate of Registry as aforesaid, sufficient Security by Bond shall be given to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, by the Master and such of the Owners as shall personally attend as it hereinafter required, such Security to be approved of and taken by the Person or Persons heretofore authorized to make such Registry, and grant such Certificate of Registry, at the Port or Place in which such Certificate shall be granted, in the Penalties following; that is to say, if such Ship or Vessel shall be a decked Vessel, or be above the Burthen of Fifteen Tons, and not exceeding Fifty Tons, in the Penalty of One hundred Pounds; if exceeding the Burthen of Fifty Tons, and not exceeding One hundred Tons, in the Penalty of Three hundred Pounds; if exceeding the Burthen of One hundred Tons, and not exceeding Two hundred Tons, in the Penalty of Five hundred Pounds; if exceeding the Burthen of Two hundred Tons, and not exceeding Three hundred Tons, in the Penalty of One thousand Pounds; and the Condition of every such Bond shall be, that such Certificate shall not be sold, lost or otherwise disposed of to any Person or Persons whatever, and that the same shall be solely made use of for the Service of the Ship or Vessel for which it is granted; and that in case such Ship or Vessel shall be lost or taken by the Enemy, burnt or broken up, or otherwise prevented from returning to the Port to which she belongs, or shall on any account have lost and forfeited the Privileges of a British Ship, or shall have been seized and legally condemned for illicit Trading, or shall have been taken in Execution for Debt, and sold by due Process of Law, or shall have been sold to the Crown, or shall under any Circumstances, have been registered de novo, the Certificate, if preserved, shall be delivered up within One Month after the Arrival of the Master in any Port or Place in His Majesty's Dominions, to the Collector and Comptroller of same Port in Great Britain, or of the Isle of Man, or of the British Plantations, or to the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Commander in Chief for the Time being of the Islands of Guernsey or Jersey; and that if any Foreigner, or any Person or Persons for his Use and Benefit, shall purchase or otherwise become entitled in the Whole or any Part or Share of or any Interest in such Ship or Vessel, and the same shall be within the Limits of any Part of Great Britain, Guernsey, Jersey, Man, or the British Colonies, Plantations, Islands or Territories abroad, then and in such Case the Certificate of Registry shall, within Seven Days after such Purchase or Transfer of Property in such Ship or Vessel, be delivered up to the Person or Persons heretofore authorized to make Registry and grant Certificate of Registry at such Port or Place respectively as aforesaid; and if such Ship or Vessel shall be in any Foreign Port when such Purchase or Transfer of Interest or Property shall take place, then that the same shall be delivered up at the British Consul or other Chief British Office resident at or nearest to such Foreign Port; or if such Ship or Vessel shall be at Sea when such Purchase or Transfer of Interest or Property shall take place, then that the same shall be delivered up to the British Consul or other Chief British Office at the Foreign Port or Place in or at which the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of such Ship or Vessel shall first arrive after such Purchase or Transfer of Property at Sea, immediately after his Arrival at such Foreign Port: but if such Master or other Person who had the Command thereof at the Time of such Purchase or Transfer of Property at Sea shall not arrive at a Foreign Port, but shall arrive at some Port of Great Britain, Guernsey, Jersey, Man, or His Majesty's said Colonies, Plantations, Islands or Territories, then that the same shall be delivered up in manner aforesaid, within Fourteen Days after the Arrival of such Ship or Vessel, or of the Person who had the Command thereof, in any Part of Great Britain, Guernsey, Jersey, Man, or any of His Majesty's said Colonies, Plantations, Islands or Territories: Provided always, that if it shall happen that at the Time of Registry of any Ship or Vessel the same shall be at any other Port than the Port to which she belongs, so that the Master of such Ship or Vessel cannot attend at the Port of Registry, to join with the Owner or Owners in such Bond as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for him to give a separate Bond to the like Effect at the Port where such Ship or Vessel may then be, and the Collector and Comptroller of such other Port shall transmit such Bond to the Collector and Comptroller of the Port where such Ship or Vessel is to be registered; and such Bond, and the Bond also given by the Owner or Owners, shall together be of the same Effect against the Master and Owner or Owners, or either of them, as if they had bound themselves jointly and severally to nor Bond.

XX. And be it further enacted, That when and so often as the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of any Ship or Vessel registered in manner heretofore directed shall be changed, the Master or Owner of such Ship or Vessel shall deliver to the Person or Persons heretofore authorized to make such Registry and grant such Certificate of Registry at the Port where such Change shall take place, the Certificate of Registry belonging to such Ship or Vessel, who shall thereupon indorse and subscribe a Memorandum of such Change, and shall forthwith give notice of the same to the proper Officer of the Port or Place where such Ship or Vessel was last registered pursuant to this Act, who shall likewise make a Memorandum of the same in the Book of Registry, which is hereby directed to be destroyed.

Tonnage when as ascertained, to be ever after deemed the Tonnage of such Vessel.

Bond to be given at the Office of Comptroller of the Registry.

Condition of such Bond

If Ship, at the Time of Registry, be at any other Port than that of Registry, the Master may give separate Bond.

When Master is changed, new Master to give similar Bond, and his Name to be indorsed on Certificate of Registry.

XXV. And Whereas it is not proper that any Person under any Pretence whatever should detain the Certificate of Registry of any Ship or Vessel, or hold the same for any Purpose other than the lawful Use and Navigation of the Ship or Vessel for which it was granted; Be it therefore enacted, That in case the Master of any Ship or Vessel, or any other Person who shall have received or obtained by any Means, or for any Purpose whatever, the Certificate of the Registry thereof, (whether such Master or other Person shall be a Part Owner or not,) shall wilfully detain and refuse to deliver up the same to the proper Officers of His Majesty's Customs for the Purposes of such Ship or Vessel as occasion shall require, it may and shall be lawful to and for any Owner or Owners of such Ship or Vessel, the Certificate of Registry of which shall be detained and refused to be delivered up as aforesaid, to make Complaint on Oath against the Master of the Ship or Vessel, or other Person who shall so detain and refuse to deliver up the same, of such Detainer and Refusal, to any Justice of the Peace residing near to the Place where such Detainer and Refusal shall be in Great Britain or Ireland, or to any Member of the Supreme Court of Justice, or any Justice of the Peace in the Islands of Jersey, Guernsey or Man, or in any Colony, Plantation, Island or Territory to His Majesty belonging, in Asia, Africa or America, or Malis, Gibraltar or Heligoland, where such Detainer and Refusal shall be in any of the Places last mentioned; and on such Complaint, the said Justice or other Magistrate shall and is hereby required, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, to cause such Master or other Person to be brought before him, to be examined touching such Detainer and Refusal; and if it shall appear to the said Justice or other Magistrate, on Examination of the Master or other Person, or otherwise, that the said Certificate of Registry is not lost or mislaid, but is wilfully detained by the said Master or other Person, such Master or other Person shall be thereof convicted, and shall forfeit and pay the Sum of One hundred Pounds, and on Failure of Payment thereof, he shall be committed to the Common Gaol, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize for such Time as the said Justice or other Magistrate shall in his Discretion deem proper, not being less than Three Months, nor more than Twelve Months; and the said Justice or other Magistrate shall and is hereby required to certify the aforesaid Detainer, Refusal and Conviction to the Person or Persons who granted such Certificate of Registry for such Ship or Vessel, who shall, on the Terms and Conditions of Law being complied with, make Registry of such Ship or Vessel de novo, and grant a Certificate thereof, conformably to Law, notifying on the Back of such Certificate the Ground upon which the Ship or Vessel was so registered de novo; and if such Master or other Person who shall have detained and refused to deliver up such Certificate of Registry as aforesaid, or shall be verily believed to have detained the same, shall have absconded, so that the said Warrant of the Justice or other Magistrate cannot be executed upon him, and Proof thereof shall be made to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to permit such Ship or Vessel to be registered de novo, or otherwise in their Discretion to grant a Licence for the present Use of such Ship or Vessel, in like manner as is heretofore provided, in the Case wherein the Certificate of Registry is lost or mislaid.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Ship or Vessel, after she shall have been registered pursuant to the Directions of this Act, shall in any Manner whatever be altered so as not to correspond with all the Particulars contained in the Certificate of her Registry, in such Case such Ship or Vessel shall be registered de novo, in manner heretofore required, as soon as she returns to the Port to which she belongs, or to any other Port which shall be in the same Part of the United Kingdom, or in the same Colony, Plantation, Island or Territory as the said Port shall be in, on Failure whereof such Ship or Vessel shall in all Intents and Purposes be considered and deemed and taken to be a Ship or Vessel not duly registered.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That the Owner or Owners of all such Ships and Vessels as shall be taken by any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War, or by any private or other Ship or Vessel, and condemned as lawful Prize in any Court of Admiralty, or of such Ships or Vessels as shall be condemned in any competent Court for Breach of the Laws for the Prevention of the Slave Trade, shall, upon registering such Ship or Vessel, before he or they shall obtain such Certificate as aforesaid, produce to the proper Officers of His Majesty's Customs a Certificate of the Condemnation of such Ship or Vessel, under the Hand and Seal of the Judge of the Court in which such Ship or Vessel shall have been condemned (which Certificate such Judge is hereby authorized and required to grant), and also a true and exact Account in Writing of all the Particulars contained in the Certificate heretofore set forth, to be made and subscribed by One or more skillful Person or Persons to be appointed by the Court, then and there to survey such Ship or Vessel, and shall also make Oath before the said Officer (which he is hereby authorized and required to administer), that such Ship or Vessel is the same Vessel which is mentioned in the Certificate of the Judge aforesaid.

XXVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Ship or Vessel which shall be taken and condemned as Prize in any Court of Admiralty as aforesaid, or other competent Court, shall be registered in the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey or the Isle of Man, although belonging to His Majesty's Subjects residing in those Islands, or in some One or other of them; but the same shall be registered either at Southwington, Wiganagh, Exeter, Plymouth, Falmouth, Liverpool or Whitehaven, by the Collector and Comptroller at such Ports respectively; who are hereby authorized and required to register such Ship or Vessel, and to grant a Certificate thereof, in the Form and under the Regulations and Restrictions in the Act contained.

XXIX. And he it further enacted, That when and so often as the Property in any Ship or Vessel, or any Part thereof, belonging to any of His Majesty's Subjects, shall, after Registry thereof, be sold to any other or others of His Majesty's Subjects, the same shall be transferred by Bill of Sale, or other Instrument in Writing, containing a Recital of the Certificate of Registry of such Ship or Vessel, or the principal Contents thereof, otherwise such Transfer shall not be valid or effectual for any Purpose whatever, either in Law or in Equity: Provided always, that no Bill of Sale shall be deemed void by reason of any Error in such Recital, or by the Recital of any former Certificate of Registry instead of the reciting Certificate, provided the Identity of the Ship or Vessel therein intimated be effectually proved thereby.

XXX. And he it further enacted, That the Property in every Ship or Vessel of which there are more than One Owner shall be taken and considered to be divided into Sixty four Parts or Shares; and the Proportion held by each Owner shall be described in the Registry as being a certain Number of Sixty fourth Parts or Shares; and that no Person shall be entitled to be registered as an Owner of any Ship or Vessel, in respect of any Proportion of such Ship or Vessel, which shall not be an integral Sixty fourth Part or Share of the same: Provided always, that upon the first Registry of any Ship or Vessel, after the said Thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, the Owner or Owners who shall take and subscribe the Oath required by this Act before Registry be made, shall also declare upon Oath the Number of such Parts or Shares then held by each Owner, and the same shall be so registered accordingly: Provided always, that if at any Time happen that the Property of any Owner or Owners in any Ship or Vessel cannot be reduced by Division into any Number of integral Sixty fourth Parts or Shares, it shall and may be lawful for the Owner or Owners of such fractional Parts as shall be over and above such Number of integral Sixty fourth Parts or Shares, into which such Property in any Ship or Vessel can be reduced by Division, to transfer the same one to another, or jointly, to any new Owner, by Memorandum upon their respective Bills of Sale, or by fresh Bill of Sale, without such Transfer being liable to any Stamp Duty: Provided also, that the Right of such Owner or Owners to such fractional Parts, shall not be affected by reason of the same not having been registered: Provided also, that it shall be lawful for any Number of such Owners named and described in such Registry, being Partners in any House or Copartnership actually carrying on Trade in any Part of His Majesty's Dominions, to hold any Ship or Vessel, or any Share or Shares of any Ship or Vessel, in the Name of such House or Copartnership as joint Owners thereof, without distinguishing the proportionate Interest of each of such Owners; and that such Ship or Vessel, or the Share or Shares thereof so held in Copartnership, shall be deemed and taken to be Partnership Property to all Intents and Purposes, and shall be governed by the same Rules, both in Law and Equity, as relate to and govern all other Partnership Property in any other Goods, Chattels and Effects whatsoever.

XXXI. And he it further enacted, That as greater Number than Thirty two Persons shall be entitled to be the legal Owners at one and the same Time of any Ship or Vessel, as Tenants in Common, or to be registered as such: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall affect the equitable Title of Minors, Heirs, Legatees, Creditors or others, exceeding that Number, duly represented by or holding from any of the Persons within the said Number, registered as legal Owners of any Share or Shares of such Ship or Vessel: Provided also, that if it shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs that any Number of Persons have associated themselves as a joint Stock Company, for the Purpose of owning any Ship or Vessel, or any Number of Ships or Vessels, as the joint Property of such Company, and that such Company have duly elected or appointed any Number not less than Three of the Members of the same to be Trustees of the Property in such Ship or Vessel, or Ships or Vessels so owned by such Company, it shall be lawful for such Trustees, or any Three of them, with the Permission of such Commissioners, to take the Oath required by this Act before Registry be made, except that instead of stating therein the Names and Descriptions of the other Owners, they shall state the Name and Description of the Company to which such Ship or Vessel, or Ships or Vessels, shall in such Manner belong: Provided also, that if it shall become necessary to register any Ship or Vessel, or Ships or Vessels, belonging to any Corporate Body in the United Kingdom, the Oath required by this Act to be taken before Registry be made, shall be taken by the Secretary or other proper Officer of such Corporate Body, who shall in such Oath declare the Name and Description of such Corporate Body, instead of the Names and Descriptions of the Owners of such Ship or Vessel.

XXXII. And he it further enacted, That whenever any Ship or Vessel, which shall have been registered before the said Thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, shall be registered de novo, the Number of such Shares held by each Owner shall be registered as far as the same be practicable; and to that Intent the Owner or Owners who shall take and subscribe the Oath required by this Act before Registry be made, shall produce the Bills of Sale or other Titles of themselves and of the other Owners, in order that the Number of such Shares held by each of them may be ascertained and registered accordingly; and if the Registry of such Ship or Vessel then in force shall be the First Registry, and the Shares of any of the Owners shall remain the same as they were at the Time of such Registry, and the Owner or Owners or any One of them who shall attend to take and subscribe the Oath required by this Act, before Registry be made, shall be the same as was or were the Owner or Owners, or one of them, who took and subscribed such Oath before such First Registry was made, such original Owner or Owners, instead of producing the Bills of Sale, shall declare upon Oath, to the best of his or their Knowledge and Belief, the Number of such Shares held by him or them, and by any other original Owner or Owners, whose proportionate Property in such Ship or Vessel shall have remained unchanged: Provided always, that if at the Time of such Registry de novo, such Owner or Owners shall make Oath, that he and they and each of them are unable to produce the Bill or Bills of Sale, or to give any certain Account or Proof of the Share or Shares of the other previous Owners, or some or any One of them, it shall be lawful for the Collector and Comptroller to register such Ship or Vessel, without requiring the Share or Shares of such Owner or Owners to be declared and specified.

XXXIII. Provided also, and to be further enacted, That from and after the Expiration of Two Years from the said Thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, or from and after the First Arrival and Entry of any Ship or Vessel, after the Expiration of such Two Years, at the Port to which she belongs, or at any other Port which shall be in the same Part of the United Kingdom, or in the same Colony, Plantation, Island or Territory as the said Port shall be in, no Certificate of Registry shall be in force, except such as shall be granted under the Authority of this Act, and in which the Share or Shares heretofore described held by each Owner shall be set forth; unless it shall be certified thereon by the Collector and Comptroller of the Port to which such Ship or Vessel belong, that further Time has been granted by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, for ascertaining and registering the Number or Numbers of such Shares as cannot then be ascertained.

XXXIV. And to be it further enacted, That upon the First Registry in Compliance with this Act, of any Ship or Vessel which had been before registered, no Stamp Duty shall be charged upon the Bond licencia required to be given; and if the Certificate of such former Registry then delivered up to be cancelled shall have a Mediterranean Pass attached thereto, no Stamp Duty shall be charged on account of the new Mediterranean Pass, which shall be obtained in lieu of the one so delivered up and cancelled.

XXXV. And to be it further enacted, That no Bill of Sale or other Instrument in Writing shall be valid and effectual to pass the Property in any Ship or Vessel or in any Share thereof, or for any other Purpose, until such Bill of Sale or other Instrument in Writing shall have been produced to the Collector and Comptroller of the Port to which such Ship or Vessel belongs, and until the Collector and Comptroller shall have entered in the Book of Registry of such Ship or Vessel, and which they are hereby required to do upon the Production of the Bill of Sale or other Instrument for that Purpose, the Name, Residence and Description of the Vendor or Mortgagee, or of each Vendor or Mortgagee, if more than One, the Number of Shares transferred, the Name, Residence and Description of the Purchaser or Mortgagee, or of each Purchaser or Mortgagee, if more than One, and the Date of the Bill of Sale or other Instrument, and of the Production of it; and further, the said Collector and Comptroller shall and they are hereby required to indorse the aforesaid Particulars of such Bill of Sale or other Instrument on the Certificate of Registry of the said Ship or Vessel, when the same shall be produced to them for that Purpose, in Manner and to the Effect following; videlicet,

^a Custom House [Part and Date; Name, Residence and Description of Vendor or Mortgagee] has transferred by [Bill of Sale or other Instrument] dated [Date; Number of Shares] to [Name, Residence and Description of Purchaser or Mortgagee].

^b A. B. Collector.

^c C. D. Comptroller.

And forthwith to give Notice thereof to the Commissioners of Customs: And in case the Collector and Comptroller shall be desired so to do, and the Bill of Sale or other Instrument shall be produced to them for that Purpose, then the said Collector and Comptroller are hereby required to certify, by Indorsement upon the said Bill of Sale or other Instrument, that the Particulars before mentioned have been so entered in the Book of Registry, and indorsed upon the Certificate of Registry as aforesaid.

XXXVI. And to be it further enacted, That when and to whom as the Particulars of any Bill of Sale or other Instrument, by which any Ship or Vessel, or any Share or Shares thereof, shall be transferred, shall have been so entered in the Book of Registry as aforesaid, the said Bill of Sale or other Instrument shall be valid and effectual to pass the Property thereby intended to be transferred, as against all and every Person and Persons whatsoever, and to all Intents and Purposes, except as against such subsequent Purchasers and Mortgagees who shall first procure the Indorsement to be made upon the Certificate of Registry of such Ship or Vessel in manner hereinafter mentioned.

XXXVII. And to be it further enacted, That when and after the Particulars of any Bill of Sale or other Instrument, by which any Ship or Vessel, or any Share or Shares thereof, shall be transferred, shall have been so entered in the Book of Registry as aforesaid, the Collector and Comptroller shall not enter in the Book of Registry the Particulars of any other Bill of Sale or Instrument purporting to be a Transfer by the same Vendor or Mortgagee, or Vendors or Mortgagees, of the same Ship or Vessel, Share or Shares thereof, to any other Person or Persons, unless Thirty Days shall elapse from the Day on which the Particulars of the former Bill of Sale or other Instrument were entered in the Book of Registry; or in case the Ship or Vessel was absent from the Port to which she belonged at the Time when the Particulars of such former Bill of Sale or other Instrument were entered in the Book of Registry, then unless Thirty Days shall have elapsed from the Day on which the Ship or Vessel arrived at the Port to which the same belonged; and in case the Particulars of Two or more such Bills of Sale or other Instruments as aforesaid shall at any Time have been entered in the Book of Registry of the said Ship or Vessel, the Collector and Comptroller shall not enter in the Book of Registry the Particulars of any other Bill of Sale or other Instrument as aforesaid, unless Thirty Days shall in like manner have elapsed from the Day on which the Particulars of the last of such Bills of Sale or other Instrument were entered in the Books of Registry, or from the Day on which the Ship or Vessel arrived at the Port to which she belonged, in case of her Absence as aforesaid; and in every Case where there shall at any Time happen to be Two or more Transfers by the same Owner or Owners of the same Property, in any Ship or Vessel entered in the Book of Registry as aforesaid, the Collector and Comptroller are hereby required to indorse upon the Certificate of Registry of such Ship or Vessel the Particulars of that Bill of Sale or other Instrument under which the Person or Persons claims or claim Property; who shall produce the Certificate of Registry for that Purpose within Thirty Days next after the Entry of his said Bill of Sale or other Instrument in the Book of Registry as aforesaid, or within Thirty Days next after the Return of the said Ship or Vessel to the Port to which she belongs, in case of her Absence at the Time of such Entry as aforesaid, and in case no Person or Persons shall produce the Certificate of Registry within either of the said Spaces of Thirty Days, then it shall be lawful for the Collector and Comptroller, and they are hereby required to indorse upon the Certificate of Registry the Particulars of the Bill of Sale or other Instrument to which such Person or Persons as shall first produce the Certificate of Registry for that Purpose, it being the true Intent and Meaning of this Act that the several Purchasers and Mortgagees of such Ship or Vessel, Share or Shares thereof, who more than One appear to claim the same Property, shall have Priority one over the other, not according to the respective Times when the Particulars of the Bill of Sale or other Instrument by which such Property was transferred to them were entered in the Book of Registry as aforesaid, but according to the Time when the Indorsement is made upon the Certificate of Registry as aforesaid: Provided always, that if the Certificate of Registry shall be lost or mislaid, or shall be detained by any Person whatever, so that the Indorsement cannot, in due Time, be made thereon, and Proof thereof shall be made by the Purchaser or Mortgagee, or his known Agent, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to grant such further Time as to them shall appear necessary for the Recovery of the Certificate of Registry, or for the Registry de novo of the said Ship or Vessel, under the Provisions of this Act; and thereupon the Collector and Comptroller shall make a Memorandum in the Book of Registry of the further Time so granted; and during such Time no other Bill of Sale shall be entered for the Transfer of the same Ship or Vessel, or the same Share or Shares thereof.

In what Case Collectors may indorse Transfers on Certificates of Registry.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That if the Certificate of Registry of such Ship or Vessel shall be produced to the Collector and Comptroller of any Port where she may then be, after any such Bill of Sale shall have been recorded at the Port to which she belongs, together with such Bill of Sale, containing a Notification of such Record, signed by the Collector and Comptroller of such Port as before directed, it shall be lawful for the Collector and Comptroller of such other Port to indorse on such Certificate of Registry, being required so to do, the Transfer mentioned in such Bill of Sale; and such Collector and Comptroller shall give Notice thereof to the Collector and Comptroller of the Port to which such Ship or Vessel belongs, who shall record the same in like manner as if they had made such Indorsement themselves, but inserting the Name of the Port at which such Indorsement was made: Provided always, that the Collector and Comptroller of each other Port shall first give Notice to the Collector and Comptroller of the Port to which such Ship or Vessel belongs, of such Requisition made to them, to indorse the Certificate of Registry; and the Collector and Comptroller of the Port to which such Ship or Vessel belongs shall thereupon send Information to the Collector and Comptroller of each other Port, whether any and what other Bills or Bills of Sale have been recorded in the Book of the Registry of such Ship or Vessel; and the Collector and Comptroller of each other Port having such Information shall proceed in manner directed by this Act, in all respects in the indorsing of the Certificate of Registry, as they would do if such Port were the Port to which such Vessel belonged.

Provision Made to be given to Officers of the Port of Registry.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That if it shall become necessary to register any Ship or Vessel de novo, and any Share or Shares of such Ship or Vessel shall have been sold since she was last registered, and the Transfer of such Share or Shares shall not have been recorded and indorsed, in manner heretofore directed, the Bill of Sale thereof shall be produced to the Collector and Comptroller of His Majesty's Customs, who are to make Registry of such Ship or Vessel, otherwise such Sale shall not be indorsed in such Registry de novo, except as hereinafter excepted: Provided always, that upon the future Production of such Bill of Sale, and of the aforesaid Certificate of Registry, such Transfer shall and may be recorded and indorsed, as well after such Registry de novo as before.

Upon Change of Property, Registry de novo may be granted if desired, although not required by Law.

XL. And be it further enacted, That if upon any Change of Property in any Ship or Vessel, the Owner or Owners shall desire to have the same registered de novo, although not required by this Act, and the Owner, or proper Number of Owners, shall attend at the Custom House at the Port to which such Ship or Vessel belongs for that Purpose, it shall be lawful for the Collector and Comptroller of His Majesty's Customs at such Port, to make Registry de novo of such Ship or Vessel at the same Port, and to grant a Certificate thereof, the several Requisites heretofore in this Act mentioned and directed being first duly observed and complied with.

Copies of Oaths and Affidavits from Books of Registry indorsed in Evidence.

XLI. And Whereas great Inconvenience hath arisen from the registering Officers being served with Subpoenas requiring them to bring them, and produce on Trials in Courts of Law relative to the Ownership of Vessels, or otherwise, the Oaths or Affidavits required to be taken by the Owners thereof, prior to the registering thereof, and the Books of Registry, or Copies or Extracts therefrom: And Whereas it would tend much to the Dispatch of Business, if the Attendance of such registering Officers with the same upon such Trials were dispensed with: Be it therefore enacted, That the Collector and Comptroller of His Majesty's Customs at any Port or Place, and the Person or Persons acting for them respectively, shall, upon every reasonable Request by any Person or Persons whatsoever, produce and exhibit for his, her or their Inspection and Examination, any Oath or Affidavit taken or sworn by any such Owner or Owners, Proprietor or Proprietors, and also any Register or Entry in any Book or Books of Registry required by this Act to be made or kept relative to any Ship or Vessel, and shall upon every reasonable Request by any Person or Persons whatsoever permit him, her or them to take a Copy or Copies, or an Extract or Extracts thereof respectively; and that the Copy or Copies of any such Debt or Affidavit, Register or Entry, shall upon being proved to be a true Copy or Copies thereof respectively, be allowed and received as Evidence upon every Trial at Law, without the Production of the Original or Originals, and without the Testimony or Assurances of any Collector or Comptroller, or other Person or Persons acting for them respectively, in all Cases, as fully and to all Intents and Purposes, as such Original or Originals, if produced by any Collector or Collectors, Comptroller or Comptrollers, or other Person or Persons acting for them, could or might legally be admitted or received in Evidence.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That if the Ship or Vessel, or the Share or Shares of any Owner thereof, who may be out of the Kingdom, shall be sold in his Absence by his known Agent or Correspondent, under his Directions either expressed or implied, and acting for his Interest in that Behalf, and such Agent or Correspondent who shall have executed a Bill of Sale to the Purchaser of the whole of such Ship or Vessel, or of any Share or Shares thereof, shall not have received a legal Power to execute the same, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, upon Application made to them, and Proof to their Satisfaction of the fair Dealings of the Parties, to permit such Transfer to be registered, if Registry de novo be necessary, or to be recorded and indexed, as the Case may be, so as may be directed by this Act, as if such legal Power had been produced; and if it shall happen that any Bill of Sale cannot be produced, or if, by Reason of Distance of Time or the Absence or Death of Parties concerned, it cannot be proved that a Bill of Sale for any Share or Shares in any Ship or Vessel had been executed, and Registry de novo of such Ship or Vessel shall have become necessary, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, upon Proof to their Satisfaction of the fair Dealings of the Parties, to permit such Ship or Vessel to be registered de novo, in like manner as if a Bill of Sale for the Transfer of such Share or Shares had been produced: Provided always, that in any of the Cases herein mentioned good and sufficient Security shall be given to produce a legal Power or Bill of Sale, within a reasonable Time, or to abide the future Claims of the absent Owner, his Heirs and Successors, as the Case may be, and at the future Request of the Party whose Property has been so transferred, without the Production of a Bill of Sale from him or from his lawful Attorney, such Bond shall be available for the Protection of his Interest, in addition to any Powers or Rights which he may have in Law or Equity against the Ship or Vessel, or against the Parties concerned, until he shall have received full Indemnity for any Loss or Injury sustained by him.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That when any Transfer of any Ship or Vessel, or of any Share or Shares thereof shall be made only as a Security for the Payment of a Debt or Debts, either by way of Mortgage or of Assignment to a Trustee or Trustees, for the Purpose of selling the same for the Payment of any Debt or Debts, then and in every such Case the Collector and Comptroller of the Port where the Ship or Vessel is registered, shall, in the Entry in the Book of Registry, and also in the Indorsement on the Certificate of Registry in manner herebefore directed, state and express that such Transfer was made only as a Security for the Payment of a Debt or Debts, or by way of Mortgage or to that Effect; and the Person or Persons to whom such Transfer shall be made, or any other Person or Persons claiming under him or them as a Mortgagee or Mortgagees, or a Trustee or Trustees only, shall not by reason thereof be deemed to be the Owner or Owners of such Ship or Vessel, Share or Shares thereof, nor shall the Person or Persons making such Transfer be deemed, by reason thereof, to have ceased to be an Owner or Owners of such Ship or Vessel, any more than if no such Transfer had been made, except so far as may be necessary for the Purpose of rendering the Ship or Vessel, Share or Shares so transferred, available by Sale or otherwise, for the Payment of the Debt or Debts for securing the Payment of which such Transfer shall have been made.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That when any Transfer of any Ship or Vessel, or of any Share or Share thereof, shall have been made as a Security for the Payment of any Debt or Debts, either by way of Mortgage or of Assignment as aforesaid, and such Transfer shall have been duly registered according to the Provisions of this Act, the Right or Interest of the Mortgagee or other Assignee as aforesaid shall not be in any manner affected by any Act or Acts of Bankruptcy committed by such Mortgagee or Assignee, Mortgagees or Assignees, after the Time when such Mortgage or Assignment shall have been so registered as aforesaid, notwithstanding such Mortgagee or Assignee, Mortgagees or Assignees, at the Time he or they shall so become Bankrupt as aforesaid, shall have in his or their Possession, Order and Disposition, and shall be the reputed Owner or Owners of the said Ship or Vessel, or the Share or Shares thereof, so by him or them mortgaged or assigned as aforesaid; but that such Mortgage or other Assignment shall take place and be preferred to any Right, Claim or Interest, which may belong to the Assignee or Assignees of such Bankrupt or Bankrupts in such Ship or Vessel, Share or Shares thereof, say Law or Statute to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

XLV. And be it also further enacted, That the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in Scotland and Ireland respectively shall transmit, at the End of every Month in each Year, to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England, true and exact Copies of all such Certificates as shall be granted by them, or by any Officer or Officers within the Limits of their Commission, in pursuance of this Act.

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Commander in Chief of any of His Majesty's Colonies, Plantations, Islands or Territories, and they are hereby respectively authorized and required, if any Suit, Information, Libel or other Prosecution or Proceeding of any Nature or Kind whatever, shall have been commenced, or shall here-

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall falsely make Oath to any of the Matters heretofore required to be so verified, such Person or Persons shall suffer the like Pains and Penalties as are incurred by Persons committing wilful and corrupt Perjury; and that if any Person or Persons shall counterfeit, erase, alter, or falsify any Certificate or other Instrument in Writing, required or directed to be obtained, granted or produced by this Act, or shall knowingly or wilfully make use of any Certificate or other Instrument so counterfeited, erased, altered or falsified, or shall wilfully grant such Certificate or other Instrument in Writing, knowing it to be false, such Person or Persons shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of Five hundred Pounds.

XLVIII. And be it further enacted, That all the Penalties and Forfeitures inflicted and incurred by this Act shall and may be used for, prosecuted and recovered in such Courts, and be disposed of in such Manner, and by such Ways, Means and Methods, as any Penalties or Forfeitures inflicted, or which may be incurred for any Offence committed against the Laws of Customs, may now legally be used for, prosecuted, recovered and disposed of; and that the Officer or Officers concerned in Seizures or Prosecutions under this Act, shall be entitled to and receive the same Share of the Produce arising from such Seizures, as in the Case of Seizures for unlawful Importation, and in such Share of the Produce arising from any pecuniary Tax or Penalty for any Offence against this Act, as any Officer or Officers is or are now by any Law or Regulation entitled to upon Prosecutions for pecuniary Penalties.

XLIX. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, varied or repealed by any Act or Acts to be passed in this Session of Parliament.

C A P. XLII.

An Act to amend the several Acts for the Assistance of Trade and Manufactures, and the Support of Commercial Credit, in Ireland. [7th June 1823.]

WHEREAS by an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intitled An Act to amend an Act made in the first Year of His present Majesty's Reign, for the Assistance of Trade and Manufactures in Ireland, by authorizing the Advance of certain Sums for the Support of Commercial Credit there; it is, amongst other Things, enacted, that it should be lawful for the Commissioners for the Execution of the said Acts to repair and take Security for the Repayment of any Loan granted under the said Acts, by Mortgages or Assignments of, or other competent Assurances upon the Freehold or Leasehold Estate or Estates of any Principal or Surety; and that all such Mortgages, Assignments, or other Real Securities, should be respectively granted and made in and vested in such Commissioners for the Time being; And Whereas it is expedient to make further Provisions with respect to such Mortgages and Securities, in manner hereinafter mentioned; Be it therefore enacted, by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in all Cases in which any Mortgage or Assignment of, or any Assurance upon any Freehold or Leasehold Estate, has been or shall be made in or vested in the Commissioners for the Execution of the said Acts for the Time being, under or by virtue of the said recited Act of the last Session of Parliament, the Mortgagee or Mortgagee, or other Person or Persons making such Mortgage, Assignment or Assurance, shall continue liable to the Payment of all Rents and other Charges issuing or payable, or charged or chargeable out of or upon the Estate or Estates so mortgaged, assigned or assured, so long as such Mortgagee or Mortgagee, or other Person or Persons, shall be allowed to remain in Possession of such Estate or Estates, and the Receipt of the Rents and Profits thereof, and until such Estate or Estates shall be taken Possession of, and the Rents and Profits thereof shall be actually received by or for the Use of the said Commissioners; and that until Possession of such Estate or Estates, and of the Rents and Profits thereof, shall be actually taken and had by or on Behalf of the said Commissioners for the Time being, such Commissioners shall not be subject or liable to the Payment of any Rents or other Charges whatsoever, issuing or payable, or charged or chargeable out of or upon any such Estate or Estates; and that such Commissioners now or for the Time being, nor any of them, shall not be or become personally or individually responsible for or liable to the Payment of any Rents or other Charges whatsoever issuing or payable as aforesaid, by reason of their acting as such Commissioners only, and not having any personal or private Interest in any such Estate or Estates; any thing in the said recited Acts, or any of them, or any Act, Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

II. And Whereas in Cases in which Loans have been advanced by the said Commissioners under the said recited Act of the First Year of His present Majesty's Reign, or of some Act for amending the same, the Repayment thereof has been stipulated for, with Interest at the Rate of Six Pounds per Centum per Annum: And Whereas it may be expedient to reduce the Rate of Interest to the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum (being the Rate of Interest at the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum advanced to and under the passing and under the Authority of the said heretofore recited Act of the last Session of Parliament, upon the Terms and subject to the Conditions hereafter mentioned: He it therefore further enacted, That any Parties or Persons to whom any Loan or Loans have been advanced under the Provisions of the said recited Act of the First Year of His present Majesty's Reign, or of any Act for amending the same, repayable with Interest at the Rate of Six Pounds per Centum per Annum, and who shall pay, or cause to be paid, all Arrears of Principal and Interest which may have accrued due on the Loan or Loans advanced to them respectively, (according to the Provisions of the several Securities, or according to any Conditions of Extension entered into by them respectively,) on the Day of Payment named in their respective Securities or Conditions of Extension, and which may follow next after the passing of this Act, or on any subsequent Day of Payment named in such Securities or Conditions of Extension respectively, shall, from and after the Payment of such Arrears of Principal and Interest, be entitled to receive a Certificate under the Hands of any Three or more of the said Commissioners for the Execution of the said recited Acts, and which Certificate the said Commissioners are hereby authorized and empowered to grant, certifying such Payment, and which Certificate shall bear Date on the Day of such Payment, and shall be in such Form as the said Commissioners may direct; and from and after the Date of such Certificate, and by virtue thereof, the Parties or Persons receiving the same shall be chargeable only, except as hereinafter mentioned, with Interest at the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum on the Loan or Loans advanced to them respectively, or such Part thereof as may remain unpaid, and shall, on the future Payment of Interest at the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, except as aforesaid, on such Loan or Loans, or the Part thereof remaining unpaid as aforesaid, be entitled to receive such and the like Acquittances and Discharges in all respects as if such Parties or Persons respectively had continued to pay Interest at the Rate of Six Pounds per Centum per Annum, according to the Provisions of their several Securities and the said several Acts; any thing contained in the Securities given by the said Parties or Persons respectively to the said Commissioners under the said several Acts or any of them, or any thing in the said several Acts or any of them contained, except as aforesaid, to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

III. Provided nevertheless, and he it further enacted, That in case it shall happen that any Parties or Persons, who may claim a Reduction of the Rate of Interest so payable by them respectively in manner aforesaid, shall, after such Reduction made, and such Certificate granted as last aforesaid, make Default in all or any of the Installments which may therewith become due on their respective Loans, so as to render it necessary for the Commissioners for the Execution of the said several Acts to put in force any of the Provisions made by the said several Acts, or any of them, for the Recovery and Recoup of any Loans or Advances made in pursuance thereof; then and in every such Case it shall be lawful for such Commissioners, and they are hereby required so to proceed against the Parties or Persons respectively so making such Default in manner provided by the said several Acts, for the whole or any Part of the Loan due from them respectively, together with Interest at the Rate of Six Pounds per Centum per Annum from the happening of such Default, and in such and the like manner in all respects as if no such Certificate had been granted as last aforesaid, and as if this Act had not been made; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

IV. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Expiration of One Calendar Month next after the passing of this Act, no further Loan or Loans, or Sum or Sums of Money, shall be advanced for the Support of Commercial Credit in Ireland, under the said recited Acts, or any of them, any thing in the said recited Acts, or any of them, or in this Act, to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding; and that from and after the Expiration of the said Calendar Month next after the passing of this Act, so much and such Part of the Sum of Five hundred thousand Pounds, authorized to be advanced under the said recited Acts, or any of them, as shall not have been advanced for the Purposes of the said recited Act (but not exceeding the Sum of One hundred thousand Pounds in the Whole,) shall and may be advanced under the Direction of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for furthering the Purposes of an Act made in the Tenth seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, for authorizing the Issue of Exchange Bills, and the Advance of Money out of the Consolidated Fund, for the carrying on of Public Works and Fisheries in the United Kingdom, or of any Act or Acts for amending the same, either upon Loans or in Aid of any Payment made by any Grand Jury in Ireland, for any new Line of Road, or for altering the Line or any Part of the Line of any Turnpike Road, or towards the Erection, or in Completion of any Harbor, Canal, Railway or any other Public Work under the Provisions of an Act made in the First Year of His present Majesty's Reign, for amending the said Act of the Tenth seventh Year of His late Majesty's Reign, and under any other Acts for the Advance of Money for carrying on Public Works, and for other Purposes, so far as the said Act relate to Ireland.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted, That whenever any Payment shall be made by any Grand Jury for any Road or other Public Work under the said recited Act of the First Year of His present Majesty's Reign, it shall and may be lawful for such Grand Jury to direct that the Amount of such Payment shall be levied by such and so many Installments as to such Grand Jury shall seem fit and proper;

1 G. 4. c. 29.

After Payment of Arrears of Interest at 6^o per Cent. under said Act, and Certificate granted by the Commissioners, the Loans shall bear only 5^o per Cent. in future.

In case of Default at future Payments, Commissioners may proceed against Defaulters, and recoup 6^o per Cent.

After One Month after the passing of this Act, no further Loan shall be advanced for the Support of Commercial Credit in Ireland by the Extension of Great law to be applied. 25 G. 3. or 26. 184.

proper; and in such Case it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, to direct by his or their Warrant, if he or they shall so think fit, that a Sum equal to every such Instalment respectively shall be paid in Aid of any such Road, or other Public Work, as soon as it shall be ascertained and certified (in manner directed by the said recited Act,) that the Amount of each Instalment hath been well and lawfully expended on and upon and towards the Execution or Completion of the Road or Work mentioned in such Presentment, or any Part or Parts thereof, in like manner and under such Rules and Regulations as are contained in the said recited Act with respect to any Sum, or any Part of any Sum, by the said Act authorized to be advanced or paid under the Orders and Directions of the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland.

VI. And be it further enacted, That whenever the Plan and Estimates of any Harbour, Canal, Railway or other Public Work shall have been approved of and laid before the Commissioners for the Execution of the said Act of the First Year of His present Majesty's Reign, and certified by the said Commissioners to the Lord Lieutenant, in Manner required by the said recited Act, it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, to direct by his or their Warrant, if he or they shall think fit, that a Sum equal to One eighth Part of the Amount of such Estimate shall be paid in Aid of such Harbour, Canal, Railway or Public Work, as soon as it shall be ascertained in manner required by the said Act, that One fourth Part of the Amount of such Estimate hath been well and lawfully expended in, upon and towards the Execution and Completion of the Work mentioned in such Estimate, in like manner and under all such Rules and Regulations as are mentioned in the said recited Act with respect to the Advancement of a Sum equal to the Tenth of such Estimate, or any Part of such Money.

C A P. XLIII.

An Act to regulate the Amount of Presentments by Grand Jurors, for Payment of the Public Officers of the several Counties in Ireland. [27th June 1823.]

WHEREAS various Acts of Parliament have been from Time to Time passed, and are in force in Ireland, with respect to the Compositions to be granted by Presentments of Grand Jurors, and several Public Officers of Counties, Counties of Cities, and Counties of Towns in Ireland, under which the Amount of the Payments to such Public Officers are in some Instances uncertain, and in others have been found to be burthensome; and it is expedient that such Payments should in future be regulated in manner hereinafter mentioned; Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all Clerks of the Crown, Clerks of the Peace, Secretaries to Grand Jurors, Sheriffs, Medical Officers of Prisons and all other Officers and Persons mentioned and specified in the Table to this Act annexed, for the Payment or Remuneration of whose Duties, Salaries or Expenses any Presentment or Presentments in or as required to be made by Grand Jurors under any Act or Acts in force at the Time of the passing of this Act, shall from and after the passing of this Act be paid and remunerated for all such Duties, Services and Expenses, by Annual Salaries only, payable Half Yearly at such several Annies, by royal Warrant, and according to the Amount mentioned in the Table of Classification of Counties and Salaries of County Officers annexed to this Act; and that from and after the passing of this Act, it shall not be lawful for any Grand Jury of any County, County of a City, or County of a Town, in any case to make Presentment of any Sum or Sums for any such Officer at the several Annies to be held in any One Year in any such County, County of a City or County of a Town, other than the Amount of the Annual Salary payable to any such Officer under and by virtue of this Act; and that such Sum or Sums so presented, not exceeding in the whole such Annual Sum so respectively specified and set forth in such Table, shall be in full and complete Satisfaction and Remuneration for all Duties and Services to be done and performed, and for all Expenses to be incurred by such Officers in the Execution of their several Offices, for which any Presentment may lawfully be made by any Grand Jury, under any Act or Acts in force immediately before the passing of this Act; any thing in any such Act or Acts, or any Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in case of any inefficient Discharge or Neglect of Duty by any such Officer or Officers, it shall and may be lawful for any Grand Jury of any County, County of a City or County of a Town in Ireland, at the several Annies in any One Year, with the express Sanction of the Court, and not otherwise, to present any Sum or Sums, less in the whole than the Amount of the Annual Salary specified in the said Table, to be paid to any Officer or Officers in the said Table mentioned; and also to withhold and refuse to make any Presentment whatever, at any Annies, for any such Officer or Officers, or shall seem fit to such Grand Jury in their Discretion, under the express Sanction of the Court, and not otherwise.

III. And be it further enacted, That in any County wherein a special Commission or adjourned Assize shall be held for the Trial of Offenders, the several Grand Jurors at the Assizes seen immediately ensuing shall, subject to the Provisions of this Act, make a further Presentment for the Clerks of the Crown, Sheriffs and Judges' Clerks, equal to One Half of the Salary to which such Officers would have been entitled for One Year's Duty under this Act.

IV. And be it further enacted, That before any Clerk of the Crown or Clerk of the Peace shall be entitled to receive such Salary as is specified in the Schedule to this Act annexed, he shall, at each and every

V. And be it further enacted, That the Presentments to be made under this Act for the Secretaries to the several Grand Juries shall be in full Acquittance of all Demands to be made by such Secretaries for Stationery, which such Secretaries shall be bound to furnish to the several Grand Juries without further Charge, not however exceeding the Expense of Printing, as regulated by Law.

VI. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act the several Grand Juries as aforesaid shall make Provision in Place of and as a Compensation for Fees, by way of Salary, and not otherwise, for the Keepers of Gaols, Penitentiaries and Bridewells, and Matrons and Turnkeys employed therein, within the several Counties, Counties of Cities and Counties of Towns specified in the Schedule annexed to this Act.

VII. And Whereas by an Act made in the First Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for the better Regulation of Polls, and for making further Provision touching the Election of Members to serve as Parliament for Ireland, it was enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Grand Jury of every County, County of a Town or County of a City, at every Spring Assizes, to present such Sum or Sums of Money as should be a proper Remuneration to the Clerk of the Peace for the Expense of printing the Registry Books of such such County; Be it therefore further enacted, That as much of the said Act shall be and is hereby repealed; and therein shall and may be lawful for the Grand Jury of every County, County of a Town and County of a City in Ireland, at every Spring Assizes, and they are hereby required, authorized and empowered, to present such Sum or Sums of Money as may be necessary to defray the Expense of printing the Registry Books in the Manner described in the said Act, to the Person or Persons who shall print the same, according to the Agreement entered into between such Person or Persons and the Clerk of the Peace of any such County, in pursuance to the Provisions of the said Act.

VIII. And Whereas it is expedient that Provision should be made for the Payment of Coronors in manner hereinafter mentioned; Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful for the Grand Jury of every County in Ireland, at every Assizes or Presenting Terms, to present any Sum not exceeding Five Guineas for each and every Inquest which any and every Coroner within such County (not exceeding the Number of Coronors specified in the Schedule to this Act annexed) shall have held upon the Body of any Person at any Term since the then last preceding Assizes or presenting Term; provided that no greater Sum than Thirty Guineas shall be presented at any one Assizes or Presenting Term as aforesaid, for the Remuneration of any one Coroner, in respect of all the Inquests which shall have been held within the County by such Coroner, since the then last preceding Assizes or Presenting Term; and that such Presentments shall be in lieu of the Presentments authorized by an Act made in the First Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act to repeal an Act made in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, for regulating the Fees of Coronors in Ireland upon holding Inquisitions, and to make other Provisions for that Purpose; and that all Sums so presented shall be levied and paid in such Manner, and under such Conditions, as are directed by the said recited Act with respect to the Presentments authorized by the said Act, and the Provisions of the said recited Act (except only so far as the same are altered by this Act) shall be applied to Presentments to be made for Coronors under this Act.

IX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to prevent any Coroner in any County of a City in Ireland (who is now or shall be hereafter appointed a Coroner by virtue of the Charter of such County of a City) from receiving any Payment or Presentment to which he is entitled by virtue of any Local Acts relating to such County of a City; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

X. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to repeal, alter or vary any of the Powers and Provisions contained in an Act passed in the Fifty second Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled An Act for erecting a Court House, County House or Sessions House, for the Use of the City and County of Londonderry, so far as the same relate to the Salary payable to the Court House Keepers thereof.

XI. Provided also, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act, or the Table thereto annexed, shall extend to the County of Dublin, or to the County of the City of Dublin.

XII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act shall be construed to alter or affect any Provision relating to Clerks of the Peace in an Act, intituled An Act for suppressing Insurrections and preventing Disturbances of the public Peace in Ireland, or of any Act which may be passed for continuing the same Act.

C A P. XLIV.

An Act to repeal the Duties and Drawbacks on Barilla imported into the United Kingdom, and to grant other Duties and Drawbacks in lieu thereof. [27th June 1823.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that the Duties of Customs payable upon the Importation into the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland of Barilla, and the Drawbacks allowed thereon, should cease and determine; and that other Duties of Customs should be imposed and other Drawbacks allowed in lieu thereof; Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty three (a), the several Duties of Customs payable under any Act or Acts in force immediately before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, upon the Importation into the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland of Barilla, and the several Drawbacks allowed on the Exportation of such Barilla, shall cease and determine; save and except in all Cases relating to the recovering and allowing any Arrears thereof respectively, which may at the Time of passing this Act remain unpaid or not allowed, or relating to any Fines, Penalties or Forfeitures in respect thereof, which shall have been incurred at any Time before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty three.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, in lieu and instead of the several Duties of Customs hereby made to cease and determine, there shall be raised, levied, collected and paid unto His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, upon Barilla imported into the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the several Duties of Customs as the same are respectively inserted or described and set forth in Figures in the Table to this Act annexed marked (A.); and that on the Exportation of such Barilla there shall also be paid and allowed the several Drawbacks of the several Duties of Customs as the same are also respectively inserted or described and set forth in Figures in the said Table marked (A.)

III. And be it further enacted, That the Duties and Drawbacks by this Act imposed and allowed shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of the Customs, and shall be raised, levied, collected, paid, recovered and allowed in such and the like Manner, and by the same Means, Ways and Methods, as former Duties of Customs and Drawbacks of Duties of Customs upon Goods, Wares or Merchandise in general.

IV. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, varied or repealed by any Act to be passed in this Session of Parliament.

C A P. XLV.

An Act for allowing Persons to compound for their Assessed Taxes for the Remainder of the Periods of Composition limited by former Acts; and for giving Relief in certain Cases therein mentioned.

[4th July 1813.]

1 A 3 G. 4.
c.111.

3 G. 4. c.26.

WHEREAS under and by virtue of an Act passed in the First and Second Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act to continue several Acts for the Relief of Persons compounding for their Assessed Taxes from an annual Assessment for a further Term, and to amend the Acts relating to Assessments, and Compositions of Assessed Taxes; and of another Act passed in the Third Year of His said Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to extend the Period allowed to Persons compounding for their Assessed Taxes, and to give further Relief in certain Cases therein mentioned; all and every the Persons therein described were allowed to compound for the Duties on Houses, Windows and Lights, for the Term of Six Years, and other Assessed Taxes therein enumerated for the Term of Five Years, to be respectively completed from the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, on the Terms and Conditions, and under the Provisions contained in the said Acts, on such Persons giving the Notice of his, her or their Intention to compound, required by the said Acts, on or before certain Days, which have since elapsed: And Whereas it is expedient to extend the Provisions of the said Acts, for enabling Persons now to enter into Composition for the Remainder of the Periods therein limited, and which were unexpired on the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, in the Manner herein provided: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons who shall be duly assessed to the said Rates and Duties, for the Year commencing the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, and who shall give the Notice of their, his or her Intention to compound within the Time and in the Manner hereinafter provided, and they are hereby respectively declared to be competent to compound for the Rates and Duties assessed on their, his or her Dwelling House for the Term of Five Years, and for their, his or her other Assessed Taxes allowed to be compounded for by the said Acts, and therein particularly enumerated, for the Term of Four Years respectively, to commence from the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, together with an additional annual Duty of One Shilling for every Twenty Shillings of the respective Amounts so assessed, and so after that Rate for any greater or lesser Sum than Twenty Shillings; and the Assessments are to be made and compounded for under this Act shall severally be and remain in the same annual Amount for the respective Periods last mentioned, to all intents as if the said Duties had been compounded for under the said Acts.

Persons may compound upon Assessments commencing the April 1813, in respect of Arrears allowed by the former Acts Persons intending to compound under this Act, to give Notice required by 1 G. 4. c.111. Sec. No. 2. on or before the 1st Sept. 1813.

II. And he is further enacted, That all and every Person and Persons desirous of compounding under this Act shall, on or before the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, deliver or cause to be delivered, free of Charge, to the Surveyors acting for the respective Districts comprising the Parishes or Places wherein such Persons shall respectively reside, a Notice in Writing according to the Form in the Schedule to the said first mentioned Act annexed, marked Number 1, and in the Manner by the said Acts directed, declaring their, his or her Intention to compound under this Act, and which Notice shall be acted upon, observed and followed for the Purposes of Composition on a full and complete Assessment for the said Year, commencing from the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty three; and the said Commissioners shall and are hereby authorized and required to contract with such Persons respectively under the Provisions in the said recited Acts and this Act respectively contained, for the Periods and in the Manner herein limited, and according to the Form of Contract set forth in the Schedule to this Act annexed, under and subject, to all intents as if such Notice had been delivered within the Times by the said Acts limited, and under the several Provisions thereof.

III. And Whereas by reason of the Repeal of the Duties of Assessed Taxes in Ireland, Persons who have entered into Composition in that Part of the United Kingdom, under the Provisions of the Act authorizing Compositions in Ireland, will, on their Removal to Great Britain, lose the Benefit of such Compositions in regard to any Increase of the Description of Articles so compounded for in Ireland; and it is expedient to give Relief to such Persons, by allowing them to compound under the Provisions of this Act, according to the Number and Value only of the Articles compounded for in Ireland: Be it further enacted, That in every Case in which any Person or Persons so having compounded in Ireland shall, on the Occasion of their, his or her Residence in Great Britain, be desirous of retaining the Benefit of the same Contract of Composition entered into in Ireland, it shall be lawful for them, him or her so to do, and for that Purpose to annex to the said Notice of their, his or her Intention to compound under this Act, in be given within the Period and in Manner hereinafter described, the original Contract of Composition entered into in Ireland, or a true Copy thereof, duly authenticated by the proper Officer in that behalf, and on the Receipt of such Notice and Contract, or a true Copy thereof, it shall and may be lawful for the respective Commissioners acting in the Execution of this Act in and for the District in which such Notice shall be delivered, and such Person shall reside, to make an Assessment of Duty as every such Person respectively, for the Year commencing from the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, according to the Number only of the particular Articles so included in the said Contract of Composition, and which shall be deemed and taken in such Cases as a full Assessment, for the Purposes of Composition, for the like Description of Articles under this Act; and it shall throughout be lawful for the said Commissioners to enter into a Contract of Composition with such Persons respectively, under the Provisions of this Act; and all such Compositions as to be entered into shall be of the same Force and Effect, and shall give the Person or Persons composing the like Privileges and Advantages in respect of the same Description of Articles contained in such Composition, as would have been enjoyed under any other Contract authorized to be made by virtue of this Act: Provided nevertheless, that no such Contract so to be entered into as last aforesaid, and nothing herein contained, shall be construed to exempt any such Persons last mentioned from Assessment during the Continuance of their, his or her said Composition, by reason of their, his or her Residence in Great Britain, for and in respect of any Articles kept and used, and chargeable with any Duty under the said Acts, of a Description different from the Duties compounded for in Foreign, but such Persons respectively may, on giving Notice of their, his or her Intention in that Behalf, in the Manner heretofore directed, respectively compound under this Act for such other Articles, upon and according to a full and true Return and Assessment for the same, to be made for the said Year, commencing as aforesaid, in the Manner directed by this Act in other Cases of Composition; and the whole of the Duties as to be compounded for shall and may in such Cases be included in one and the same Contract.

IV. And be it further enacted, That where any Person or Persons composing under the said recited Acts or this Act shall have removed from the District in which such Composition shall have been entered into, to another Dwelling House and Place of Residence, and shall thereupon cease to have any Dwelling House or Place of Residence within the District in which they, he or she so compounded, the Annual Assessment payable on such Composition for the Year commencing from the Fifth Day of April next following such Removal, shall be transferred to the District in which such Person or Persons shall then reside; and it shall be lawful for the respective Commissioners acting in the Execution of the said Acts and of this Act, within and for the District to which such Person or Persons shall have so removed, and they are hereby required, upon receiving a Certificate thereof, and of the Amount of the Annual Assessment payable on any such Person's Contract of Composition in the former District, under the Hands of any Two of the Commissioners acting for such last mentioned District, (and which Certificate to be prepared under the Authority of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, the said Commissioners acting for the said District are hereby required to sign and cause to be delivered to the Surveyor for the same District from time to time, as soon as conveniently may be, after every such Removal,) in case the several Amounts of the Duties and Instalments compounded for and payable from and after the Period last aforesaid, by any such Person or Persons, to be added to and charged in the Assessment of the Parish to which such Person or Persons shall have so removed, and in the Annual Duplicate of Assessment required to be made out by the said Commissioners under the said Acts for such last mentioned District; and all such Assessments and Instalments of Composition shall, when so transferred, be collected, levied and raised under the same Powers, and by the same Rates, Provisions, Ways and Means, as if the said Duties had been originally compounded for and made payable to the Collectors or Collector in the said last mentioned District, and as if the same originally formed Part of the Assessment of the Parish, Ward or Place to which the said Instalments shall have become transferred under the Authority of this Act, any thing in the said recited Acts or in any Contract contained to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided nevertheless, that nothing herein contained, notwithstanding the Transfer of the said future Instalments, shall prevent the raising and levying of all Arrears of Composition payable by the Persons last herein described, in the District from which they, he or she shall have so removed as aforesaid, or otherwise, up to the Fifth Day of April next following such Removal, by the same Powers and Provisions as the said Duties were recoverable before the passing of this Act; and all such future Instalments, until actually transferred to the Assessment of another Parish, Ward or Place, shall so in like Manner be raised and levied under the Provisions of the said Acts, as Part of the Assessments of the District in which such Compositions were entered into.

V. And be it further enacted, That in every Case when and as the future Instalments payable under any Composition shall have been transferred, and added to the Assessment of the Parish, Ward or Place, in the District to which any Person or Persons shall have removed under the Provisions last hereinbefore contained, and which shall be duly certified under the Authority of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners acting for the District from which the Person or Persons whose Composition shall be so transferred shall have ceased to reside, to discharge all such future Instalments so transferred, from the Assessment as the Parish, Ward or Place therewith before charged, and in the Duplicates of the said Duties to be prepared and transmitted from the said last mentioned District, under the Provisions of the said Acts.

VI. And be it further enacted, That in order to the due Collection and Payment of the Instalments on Compositions, in all Intents as Annual Assessments in the Districts in which the Persons chargeable shall reside during the Continuance of such Compositions, it shall and may be lawful for the respective Commissioners acting for any District from which any such Person shall again and from time to time remove, to observe and follow the like Provisions for transferring the Instalments due and payable on such Composition, for the Year commencing from the Fifth Day of April next following such Removal, to the District, Parish, Ward and Place in which such Person shall again remove, and for the Commissioners acting for the last mentioned District to add the same to the Assessment, and cause the same to be raised in such last mentioned District, by the same Ways and Means as are herein provided with respect to a first Removal, and all and every the said Provisions last herein contained, as applied to a first Removal, shall be observed, followed and applied to and upon every subsequent Removal of the same Person or Persons, as well for enforcing the Payment of all Arrears of the said Compositions, as for charging and raising Compositions not to exempt from Assessment Articles of a different Description to those compounded for, but for which they may compound in One Contract.

Where Persons composing remove to other Districts, the Commissioners may be sworn, sworn and entered in the Diary of actual Residence on Certificates.

All Instalments and Arrears owing within or prior to the Year of Removal to be paid in the former District.

On Transfer of Arrears Payable on Compositions to Assessment of Parish of Removal, Assessment therein may be discharged.

The foregoing Provisions for Transfer of Composition to Parish of Residence, applied to Arrears transferred by the same Persons during the Continuance of their Compositions.

raising the future Instalment or Instalments, as Part of the Assessment of the Parish, Ward or Place, in and in which the Person or Persons so compounding shall actually remove and reside, as for assessing and discharging the Assessments and Duplicates for the Parish, Ward and Place from which such Person or Persons shall have so again removed.

VII. And be it further enacted, That where any Person or Persons having compounded under the said Acts for a Carriage with Two Wheels, shall have substituted a Four Wheel Carriage in lieu thereof, and have compounded for the same, and for Payment of the Difference of Duty, under the Power given for that Purpose by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intitled An Act for reducing certain of the Duties of Assessed Tolls, for relieving certain other of the said Duties, and for relieving Persons who have compounded for the same, it shall be lawful for every such Person or Persons to have and enjoy the same Privileges during the Continuance of their, his or her said Contract, as they, he or she would have enjoyed under the said Acts, if they respectively had originally compounded for a Carriage with Four Wheels; and all and every Person or Persons who have or hath compounded under the said Acts, or who shall compound under this Act for a Male Servant or Male Servants, comprehable with Duty under Schedule (C.) Number 1. of an Act passed in the Fifty second Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, may employ any Male Person or Male Persons, not being Servants to such Persons so compounding, as occasional Waiters, or in any of the Capacities enumerated in the said Schedule (C.) Number 1. free of any Duty, provided such respective Employments shall not exceed or extend beyond those allowed and defined by the Rules contained in the Schedule marked (C.) Number 5. of the said last mentioned Act, in respect of such Male Persons last mentioned; and all Assessments made or to be made as such Persons so compounding as last aforesaid, during the Continuance of his, her, or their Compaction, in respect of any such occasional Waiters or Male Persons aforesaid, shall be null and void.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the several Persons who for the Time being shall be Commissioners for putting in Execution the Acts relating to Assessed Taxes, and the said recited Acts for compounding for the said Duties, shall be Commissioners for putting in Execution this Act, and the Powers herein referred to or contained, in all and every the respective Counties, Ridings, Divisions, Shires and Stewartries, Cities, Boroughs, Cinque Ports, Towns and Places in Great Britain; and the several Assessors, Collectors, Surveyors, Inspectors and Inspectors General for the Tithes being appointed or to be appointed to put in Execution the said Acts, shall respectively be Assessors, Collectors, Surveyors, Inspectors and Inspectors General, to put in Execution this Act within the Limits of their respective Divisions, Districts and Places to which they are or shall be appointed, and the respective Commissioners and other Persons authorized by the said recited Acts to contract and agree for such Compositions, or to do or perform any other Matter or Thing for carrying the said recited Acts into Execution, shall severally and respectively contract and agree for the Compositions to be entered into under this Act, and do and perform all such other Matters and Things as are required to be done and performed in the Execution of this Act, within the Limits of their respective Jurisdictions; and all the Powers and Authorities given and granted to them by or under the said recited Acts, so far as they apply, and are not repugnant to the Provisions of this Act, shall and they are hereby declared to be levied and continued for and during the respective Terms herein limited, in as ample and effectual a Manner as if the same Powers and Authorities were expressly re-enacted by this Act, and shall severally be applied, construed, deemed and taken to belong to this Act, as Part thereof, in like Manner as if the same had been herein expressly given, granted, and applied by this Act; and the said Commissioners and others before mentioned are hereby empowered and required to do and perform all Things necessary for putting this Act in Execution, in the like and in as full and ample a Manner as they or any of them are or were or was authorized to put in Execution the said several recited Acts.

IX. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Provisions, Directions, Rules, Regulations, Methods, Classes, Matters and Things contained in the said recited Acts, although expressly applied to the Compositions made under the said Acts, or either of them, shall severally and respectively be construed and deemed to apply to the Compositions to be entered into under this Act, and (except where other Provisions, Directions, Rules, Regulations, Methods, Classes, Matters and Things are substituted in and by this Act,) shall severally and respectively be used and pursued in ascertaining the Amount on which any Composition is to be made, and the additional Rate to be imposed thereon, and in doing and performing all other Matters and Things necessary for carrying this Act into Execution, and shall be construed, deemed, and taken to belong to this Act, as Part thereof, in like Manner as if the same were severally repeated in and expressly applied to the Provisions of this Act; and where other Provisions, Directions, Rules, Regulations, Methods, Classes, Matters or Things are substituted by this Act, in lieu of any Provisions, Directions, Rules, Regulations, Methods, Classes, Matters or Things contained in the said Acts, the same respectively shall be construed, used and practised in such Manner and to the like Effect in all respects, as if the said recited Acts and this Act had been incorporated, and as if this Act had expressly abrogated and made void the several Parts of the said recited Acts, in lieu whereof any Part or Parts of this Act are or is substituted.

X. And Whereas Doubts have arisen whether, under the Provisions of an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intitled An Act for reducing certain of the Duties of Assessed Tolls, for relieving certain other of the said Duties, and for relieving Persons who have compounded for the same, the Duty of Three Shillings, therefore chargeable under the Schedule marked (F.) of an Act passed in the Fifty-second Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third (s), therein described, for Horses,

(s) [See Chap. 4. § 1. ante.]

Privileges herein mentioned allowed to Persons who have substituted and compounded for a Four Wheel Carriage in Place of a Two Wheel Carriage under c. 11. 1803, and to Persons who compound for Male Servants, under 5th. (C.) 512 § 2. c. 33.

Commissioners and other Officers acting under the Terms or Conditions here in, to act in the Manner in the Execution of this Act.

Provisions of former Compositions Acts to remain in force, except as varied by this Act.

512 § 2. c. 33. Schedule (F.) The Report of Mares or Geldings being under the Height of Thirteen Hands, are wholly repealed, or reduced only, and it is reasonable and proper to remove such Doubts; Be it further enacted, and it is hereby declared, That all and every the Provisions in the said Act contained, for repealing the several Duties of Three Shillings, and of Two Shillings and Ten Pence, and Two Pence, respectively, chargeable by the several Acts therein recited for and in respect of Horses, Mares, Geldings or Males, shall be decreed and taken to extend to the Repeal of the said Duties of Three Shillings on all Horses, Mares or Geldings under the Height of Thirteen Hands in the said Schedule (F.) described; any thing in the said recited Acts contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XI. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, varied or repealed, by any Act or Acts to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

An Act for repealing the Capital Punishments inflicted by several Acts of the Sixth and Twenty seventh Years of King George the Second, and of the Third, Fourth and Twenty second Years of King George the Third; and for providing other Punishments in lieu thereof, and in lieu of the Punishment of Fraze breaking under an Act of the Twenty eighth Year of the same Reign. [4th July 1823.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled *An Act for making perpetual the several Acts therein mentioned, for the better Regulation of Ferries, and for empowering the Justices of Sessions or Justices for the Counties Palatine of Chester, Lancaster and Durham, to appoint a Special Jury in Mesneer therein mentioned; and for continuing the Act for regulating the Manufacture of Cloth in the West Riding of the County of York (except a Clause therein contained); and for continuing an Act for the more effectual punishing woked and evil disposed Persons going armed in Disguise, and for other Purposes therein mentioned; and to prevent the cutting or breaking down the Bank or Banks of any River or any Sea Bank, whereby any Lands shall be overflowed or damaged, every Person so offending, being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death as in Cases of Felony without Benefit of Clergy: And Whereas by the same Act it is further enacted, that if any Person or Persons shall unlawfully and maliciously cut any Hap Bards growing on Poles in any Plantation of Hops, every Person or Persons so offending, being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death as in Cases of Felony without Benefit of Clergy: And Whereas by an Act passed in the Twenty seventh Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intituled *An Act for discharging the Corporation of the Governor, Merchants and Company of the Company of Conservators of the Great Level of the Fens, commonly called Bedford Level, from a Debt due to the Duke of Bedford and Earl of Arundel; and for enabling the Proprietors of Lands in the North Level, Part of the said Great Level, to raise Money to discharge the Proprietors of the said North Level in the Debt of the said Corporation; and for authorizing and approving the Taxes to be laid on the said North Level; and for the more effectual draining and providing the said North Level, and divers Lands adjoining thereto, in the Manor of Crowland; and in witness whereof Things enacted, that if any Person or Persons shall maliciously cut, break down, burn, demolish or destroy any Bank, Mill, Engine, Flood Gate or Sluice, making or erecting, or made or erected, supported or maintained, for answering the Purposes specified in the said Act, every Person or Persons so offending, being thereof convicted, shall be guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death as Felons without Benefit of Clergy: And Whereas by an Act passed in the Third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled *An Act to empower the Commissioners or Governors of the Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich, after defraying the necessary Expenses thereof, to provide for such Seamen, women and Income decreed in the Service of their Country, who shall not be provided for within the said Hospital, and to enable them to receive such Pensions as shall be granted them by the said Commissioners or Governors in the said city and counties of Kent, and for permitting Friends and Aliens attending the same, if it issuing other Things enacted, that whosoever wilfully and knowingly shall personate or take any Name or Character of, or person, any other to personate or falsely to assume the Name and Character of any Person entitled or supposed to be entitled as an Out Pensioner to any Out Pension or Allowance of Money, from the Commissioners or Governors of the said Hospital, in order to receive the Money due or supposed to be due on such Out Pension, every such Person so offending, and being thereof convicted of any such Offence or Offences, shall be deemed guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death as a Felon without Benefit of Clergy: And Whereas it is expedient that a lesser Degree of Punishment should be provided for the several Offences created by the above recited Acts: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That as much of the said recited Acts as exclude the Benefit of Clergy from Persons convicted of the Felonies thereby respectively created, shall be and the same are hereby repealed; and that from and after the passing of this Act, any Person convicted of the said Felonies, or any of them, shall be held, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported beyond the Seas for Life, or for any Term not less than Seven Years, or to be imprisoned only, or to be imprisoned and left to hire Labour in the Common Gaol or House of Correction, for any Term not exceeding Seven Years.

II. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for the better establishing a Manufactory of Cambricks and Laces, or Goods of the kind usually known under those Denominations, now carrying on at Widdowes in the County of Sussex, and for improving, regulating and extending the Manufacture of Cambricks and Laces, or Goods of the kind usually known under those Denominations, in that Part of Great Britain called England, Provisions made for the Capital Punishment of Persons convicted of divers Offences, in stealing, cutting and destroying Linnen Yarn, Linnen Cloth or Manufactures of Linnen Yarn, and the Looms, Tools and Implements used therein: And Whereas by an Act passed in the Twenty second Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intituled An Act for punishing Persons wilfully and maliciously destroying any Woolles, Silks, Linnen or Cotton Goods, or any Implements prepared for or used in the Manufacture thereof; and for repealing so much of Two Acts, made in the Twelfth Year of King George the First, and in the Sixth Year of His present Majesty, as relate to the Punishment of Persons destroying any Woolles or Silks Manufactures, or any Implements prepared for or used therein, Provision was made for the Capital Punishment of Persons convicted of divers Offences, in destroying the Woolles, Silks, Linnen and Cotton Manufactures, and the Tools, Tackle and Utensils used therein: And Whereas it is expedient to provide a lesser Degree of Punishment for such Offences, and to amend some Defects in the said Two Acts, and to incorporate therewith the Provisions made by an Act passed in the Twenty eighth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intituled An Act for the better and more effectual Protection of Stocking Frames, and the Machines or Engines annexed thereto, or used therein; and for the Punishment of Persons destroying or injuring of such Stocking Frames, Machines or Engines, and the Framework knitted Pieces, Stockings and other Articles and Goods used and made in the History or Framework knitted Manufactory; or breaking or destroying any Machinery contained in any Mill or Mills used or any way employed in preparing or spinning of Wool or Cotton for the Use of the Stocking Frame, for the Punishment of Persons convicted of divers Offences, in cutting and destroying Framework knitted Pieces, Stockings and other like Articles, and breaking, destroying and damaging Frames, Machines, Engines, Tools, Instruments and Utensils used in the same Manufacture and Machinery in the said Act intitled 'Be it therefore further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, the whole of the said recited Act of the Twenty second Year aforesaid, except so much thereof as repeals former Acts, and so much of the said recited Acts of the Fourth and Twenty eighth Years aforesaid, as create Fines, or stealing, damaging or destroying Manufactures, Implements or Machinery, shall be and the same are hereby repealed, save only as to Offences committed before the passing of this Act, as to which the said Three last recited Acts shall continue in force; and that from and after the passing of this Act, if any Person shall by Day or by Night break into any House, Shop or Building, or enter by Force into any House, Shop or Building, with intent to cut, break, destroy or damage, in the Loom or Frame, or on any Machine or Engine, or on the Rack or Tenters, or in any Stage, Process or Progress of Manufacture, any Woolles, Silks, Linnen or Cotton Goods, or any Goods of any one or more of these Materials mixed with each other, or mixed with any other Material, or to cut, break, destroy or damage any other Article of the Woolles, Silks, Linnen or Cotton Manufactures in the Loom or Frame, or on any Machine or Engine, or on the Rack or Tenters, or in any Stage, Process or Progress of Manufacture; or to cut, break, destroy or damage any Warp or Struts of Woolles, Silks, Linnen or Cotton, or of any one or more of these Materials mixed with each other, or mixed with any other Material, or any Framework knitted Piece, Stocking, Hose or Linn; or to burn, break, cut, destroy or damage any Loom, Frame, Machine, Engine, Rack, Tool, Tackle, Utensil, Instrument or Implement, whether fixed or moveable, prepared for or employed in carding, spinning, throwing, weaving, fulling, shearing or otherwise manufacturing or preparing any such Goods or Articles; or shall wilfully and maliciously, and without lawful Authority, cut, break, destroy or damage any such Woolles, Silks, Linnen, Cotton or Mixed Goods, or Articles, in the Loom or Frame, or on any Machine or Engine, or on the Rack or Tenters, or in any Stage, Process or Progress of Manufacture; or burn, break, cut, destroy or damage any such Loom, Frame, Machine, Engine, Rack, Tool, Tackle, Utensil, Instrument or Implement as aforesaid; or counsel, procure, aid or abet the Commission of the said Offence, or of any of them; every Person so offending, being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be guilty of Felony, and shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported beyond the Seas for Life, or for any Term not less than Seven Years, or to be imprisoned only, or to be imprisoned and kept to hard Labour in the Common Goal or House of Correction, for any Term not exceeding Seven Years.

C A P. XLVII.

An Act for authorizing the Employment at Labour, in the Colonies, of Male Convicts under Sentence of Transportation. [4th July 1823.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Fifty sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to amend several Laws relative to the Transportation of Offenders, to continue in force until the First Day of May One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, which was, by an Act passed in the First and Second Years of His present Majesty's Reign, continued for Two Years and to the End of the then next Session: And Whereas by the said first recited Act it was among other Things enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty, from time to time by an Order in Writing, to be notified by One of His Principal Secretaries of State, to direct the Removal of any Male Offenders who should be under Sentence of Death, but reprieved during His Majesty's Pleasure, or under Sentence or Order of Transportation, and who, having been examined by an experienced Surgeon or Apothecary, should appear to be free from any pained or infectious Distemper, and fit to be removed from the Goal or Prison in which such Offenders should be confined, to such Place of Confinement, within England or Wales, either at Land, or on board any Ship or Vessel to be provided by His Majesty in the River Thames, or any navigable or other River, or within the Limits of any Port or Harbour of England or Wales, as His Majesty should from time to time appoint, under the Management of a Superintendent and Overseer, to be appointed by His Majesty; and that every Offender who should be so removed, should continue in the said Place of Confinement, or be removed to and confined in any other such Place or Places as aforesaid, as His Majesty should from time to time appoint, until such Offender should be transported according to Law, or by the Expiration of the Term of such Transportation or otherwise, should be entitled to his Liberty, or until His Majesty should direct the Return of such Offender to the Goal or Prison from which he should have been so removed; and it was further enacted, that the Superintendent or Overseer who should have the Custody of every such Offender should, during the Term of such Confinement, have the same Powers over him as are incident to the Office of a Sheriff or Gaoler, and in like manner be answerable for any Escape of such Offender; and also during such Confinement should see him fed and clothed, according to a Scale of Diet and Clothing to be fixed on, and notified in Writing by One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State to the Superintendent, and should keep such Offender to Labour, at such Places and under such Regulations, Directions, Limitations and Remissions, as His Majesty should from time to time, by any Order, to be directed to such Superintendent or Overseer for their Instructions, appoint; And Whereas by an Act passed in the Twenty fifth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, similar Provisions were made with respect to Male Offenders convicted in Scotland, which were by this said secondly recited Act continued for the same Term: And Whereas under the Provisions of the said Acts, many Male Convicts have been confined on board Ships or Vessels provided by His Majesty, in the River Thames and within the Limits of certain Ports or Harbours of England, and have been kept to Labour in some of His Majesty's Dock Yards, and on other Public Works of great Utility and Importance; whereas there have resulted not only great Advantage to the Public, but also considerable Reformation of many of the Offenders as kept to Labour: And Whereas Public Works of a similar Kind are and may hereafter be undertaken in other Parts of His Majesty's Dominions out of England, on which it may be expedient to employ Male Offenders convicted in Great Britain, being under Sentence or Order of Transportation, in the same manner as Male Offenders are employed in England under the said recited Acts: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to declare His Royal Will and Pleasure, that Male Offenders convicted in Great Britain, and being under Sentence or Order of Transportation, shall be kept to Labour in any Part of His Majesty's Dominions out of England, to be named in such Order or Orders in Council; and that whenever His Majesty's Will and Pleasure shall be so declared in Council, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by an Order in Writing to be notified by One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to direct the Removal and Confinement of any such Male Offender, either at Land or on board any Ship or Vessel to be provided by His Majesty, within the Limits of any Port or Harbour in that Part of His Majesty's Dominions which shall be named in such Order in Council, under the Management of the Superintendent now being or hereafter to be appointed in England, and of an Overseer to be appointed by His Majesty for such Ship or Vessel or other Place of Confinement to be provided under this Act, and that every Offender who shall be so removed shall continue on board the Ship or Vessel or other Place of Confinement to be so provided, or any similar Ship or Vessel or other Place of Confinement to be from time to time provided by His Majesty, until His Majesty shall otherwise direct, or until the Offender shall be entitled to his Liberty.

His Majesty, by Order in Council, may direct Convicts to be employed in any Part of His Majesty's Dominions out of England, under a Superintendent and Overseer.

Overseer's Powers.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Overseer to be appointed under this Act shall possess the same Powers and Authorities, and shall perform the same Duties, and shall be liable to the same Control, as any Overseer appointed under the said first recited Act; provided, that the Oath thereby required to be by him taken, for verifying the Returns of Prisoners, shall be taken before a Judge or Justice of Peace of the Colony in which the Overseer shall be resident; and that the Superintendent shall make the same Reports and Returns respecting every such Offender, as respecting Offenders confined under the said first recited Act; and that every such Offender as aforesaid, confined under the Authority of this Act, shall be liable to the same Penalties and Punishments, for any Crime or Misdemeanour by him committed, whether on board such Ship or Vessel, or other Place of Confinement to be provided under the Authority of this Act, or on board any Ship or Vessel in which he shall be conveyed from England, to the Part of His Majesty's Dominions specified in any Order in Council to be made under the Authority of this Act, and for escaping from on board any of such Ships or Vessels, or other Place of Confinement, and being at large; and every Person rescuing, or attempting to rescue, or assisting in rescuing any such Offender confined under the Authority of this Act, shall be liable to the same Punishment as if such Offender had been confined under the said first recited Act.

Superintendent to report.

Offender to be liable to same Penalties as under former Act.

Rescue.

In Action for rescuing Act. Offens' Issue.

III. And be it further enacted, That if any Suit or Action shall be prosecuted against any Person for any thing done in pursuance of this Act, such Person may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereon, and that the same was done by the Authority of this Act; and if a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant, or the Plaintiff shall become Nonvult, or discontinue his Action, after Issue joined, or if, upon a Demurrer or otherwise, Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant shall recover Treble Costs, and have the like Remedy for the same as any Defendants have by Law in other Cases; and notwithstanding a Verdict shall be given in any Plaintiff or Suits as aforesaid, such Plaintiff shall not have Costs against the Defendant, unless the Judge before whom the Trial shall be shall certify his Approbation of the Verdict.

Treble Cost.

IV. And

IV. And be it further enacted, That all Actions, Suits and Prosecutions to be commenced against any Person or Persons, for any thing done in pursuance of this Act, shall be laid and tried in the Place where the Fact was committed, or if committed on the Seas, then in the County of Middlesex; and shall be commenced within Six Calendar Months after the Fact committed, and not otherwise.

V. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall continue and be in force during the Continuance of the said recited Act of the Fifty sixth Year of His late Majesty's Kings, and no longer.

An Act for enabling Courts to abstain from pronouncing Sentence of Death in certain Capital Felonies. [4th July 1823.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that in all Cases of Felony not within the Benefit of Clergy, except Murder, the Court before which the Offender or Offenders shall be convicted shall be authorized to abstain from pronouncing Judgment of Death, whenever such Court shall be of Opinion that, under the particular Circumstances of any Case, the Offender or Offenders is or are a fit and proper Subject or fit and proper Subjects to be recommended for the Royal Mercy; Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, whenever any Person shall be convicted of any Felony, except Murder, and shall by Law be excluded the Benefit of Clergy in respect thereof, and the Court before which such Offender shall be convicted shall be of Opinion that, under the particular Circumstances of the case, such Offender is a fit and proper Subject to be recommended for the Royal Mercy, it shall and may be lawful for such Court, if it shall think fit so to do, to direct the proper Officer then being present in Court to require and ask, whereupon such Officer shall require and ask, if such Offender hath or knoweth any thing to say why Judgment of Death should not be recorded against such Offender; and in case such Offender shall not allege any Matter or Thing sufficient in Law to arrest or bar such Judgment, the Court shall and may and is hereby authorized to abstain from pronouncing Judgment of Death upon such Offender; and instead of pronouncing such Judgment to order the same to be entered of Record, and thereupon such proper Officer as aforesaid shall and may and is hereby authorized to enter Judgment of Death as Record against such Offender, in the usual and accustomed Form, and in such and the same Manner as is now used, and as if Judgment of Death had actually been pronounced in open Court against such Offender, by the Court before which such Offender shall have been convicted.

Court may abstain from pronouncing Sentence of Death on Persons convicted of any Felony, except Murder.

II. And be it further enacted, That a Record of every such Judgment, so entered as aforesaid, shall have the like Effect to all Intents and Purposes, and be followed by all the same Consequences, as if such Judgment had actually been pronounced in open Court, and the Offender had been reprieved by the Court.

Effect of Judgment in law same Effect as if pronounced.

III. And be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend to that Part of the United Kingdom called Scotland.

Act not to extend to Scotland.

' Britania called Scotland.' Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, all the Enactments, Provisions, Matters and Things in this Act contained, shall extend to all Acts of Parliament now in force, and to all Acts of Parliament which shall hereafter be passed for making, widening, turning, amending, repairing or maintaining any Turnpike Road in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland (save and except as to such Enactments, Provisions, Matters and Things as shall be expressly varied, altered or repealed by any such Act as shall be hereafter passed).

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to repeal, alter or affect the Enactments, Provisions and Regulations contained in an Act passed in the First Session of the Forty seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act for continuing the Term and enlarging the Powers of Two Acts passed in the Twentieth and Thirty seventh Years of His present Majesty, for making and repairing certain Roads in the County of Fife, and for making and keeping or Repair several other Roads in the said County.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Qualification of Trustees for carrying into Execution the Powers and Provisions of this Act, and of all Local Turnpike Acts of Parliament which are now in force, or which shall hereafter be in force in Scotland, shall be such as are or shall be enacted and contained in each such Local Turnpike Act respectively: Provided always, that no Person shall hereafter act as a Trustee in the Execution of any Act of Parliament for making, repairing or maintaining any Turnpike Road, unless (if so required by any Trustee then present) he hath taken, or shall, before he shall act as such Trustee, take and subscribe the Oath or Affirmation following, before any Two or more of the Trustees appointed or to be appointed by or in pursuance of such Act, who are hereby authorized and empowered to administer the same, in the Words or to the Effect following: [that is to say,]

I do swear, [or, being of the People called Quakers, do solemnly affirm,] That I truly and bona fide am [here insert the Qualification required by the Act, as the Case may be.] So help me GOD.

[Or, being a Quaker, omit the Words 'So help me GOD.']

V. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That no Person appointed a Trustee by any Act for making, repairing or maintaining Turnpike Roads, shall be capable of acting as such in the Execution of any such Act, whilst he holds any Place or Employment of Profit under any such Act or this Act; or who shall be a Tackman of the Tolls on any Turnpike Road, or of any Part thereof; and if any Person not being qualified as aforesaid, or being disqualified by any of the Cases aforesaid, or not having taken and subscribed the Oath heretofore mentioned, or being a Quaker, not having made and subscribed the Affirmation heretofore mentioned, if so required, shall nevertheless presume to act as a Trustee in the Execution of any such Act, (except in administering the Oath or Affirmation heretofore mentioned,) every such Person shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of Twenty Pounds to any Person who shall prosecute for the same, to be recovered, with Expenses, by summary Action before the Sheriff or Stewart of the Shire or Stewartry in which such Road is situated, or in the Court of Sessions; and the Person so prosecuted shall prove that he is qualified as aforesaid, or otherwise shall pay the said Penalty, without any other Proof or Evidence on the Part of the Prosecutor than that such Person hath acted as a Trustee in the Execution of any Act for making, repairing or maintaining Turnpike Roads: Provided nevertheless, that no Act or Proceeding touching the Execution of any such Act, which shall be done or performed by such unqualified or disqualified Person, previous to his being convicted of the Offence before mentioned, shall be thereby impeached or rendered nugatory; but all such Proceedings shall be as valid and effectual as if such Person had been duly qualified.

VI. And be it further enacted, That no Trustee appointed under any Turnpike Act, who is in the Commission of the Peace, shall be disqualified from acting as a Justice of the Peace in the Execution of any such Act, by reason of his being such Trustee.

VII. And be it further enacted, That no Lender of Money upon the Credit of the Tolls, or Assignee of any such Lender, nor any Person receiving Interest out of Tolls for any such Money lent, shall on that account only be deemed unqualified to act as a Trustee in the Execution of any such Act.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the Trustees of Turnpike Roads, having met on the Authority of an Act of Parliament by which they are appointed, may three times in time adjourn to meet at such Place and at such Time as the said Trustees or the major Part of them present at any Meeting shall appoint, and at all their several Meetings the Trustees shall pay and defray their own Expenses; and all Orders and Determinations of the Trustees in the Execution of any such Act shall be made at Meetings to be held in pursuance thereof, and not otherwise (except in the Cases hereby otherwise particularly provided for), and that no Order or Determination shall be made, unless the major Part of the Trustees present shall concur therein; and that all Acts, Orders and Proceedings of the Trustees relating to any such Act, and all the Powers and Authorities hereby in them vested generally, shall be exercised by the major Part of the Trustees who shall be present at the respective Meetings to be held by virtue of any such Act, the whole Number present not being less than the Number directed by the Act under which such Trustee shall be appointed to be present to carry the Act into Execution; and that a Proviso shall, in the first Place, be appointed at every Meeting to be held by virtue of any Turnpike Act, or of this Act, who, in case of an equal Number of Votes (including the Vote of the Preses), shall have the casting Vote; and that no Order or Determination at any Meeting of the said Trustees once made, agreed upon or entered into, shall be revoked or altered at any subsequent Meeting, unless Notice of the Intention to propose such Revocation or Alteration shall have been given at a previous Meeting holden for the same

Road, and entered in the Book of Proceedings of such Meeting, and also by Two several Advertisements in some Newspaper usually circulated in the Shire or Stewartry in which such Road is situated, Ten Days at least previous to such subsequent Meeting, or by affixing such Notice for Two consecutive Sittings on the Church Doors of the Parish or Parishes within which such Road is situated, and on all the Toll Bars then erected upon such Road, Fourteen Days at least before such Meeting, of which Notice having been duly given, a Certificate by the Preiester or Toll Gatherer shall be sufficient Evidence.

X. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Two Trustees, or for the Clerk of the Trustees of any Turnpike Road, to call a General Meeting of the Trustees of such Road upon the Requisition in Writing of any Two Trustees, in which Requisition shall be stated the Purpose for which such Meeting is called; and the Notice for calling such Meeting, in which shall be stated the Purpose thereof, shall be published Two several Times in some Newspaper usually circulated in the Shire or Stewartry in which the said Road is situated, or by affixing the same on the Toll Bars of such Road, at least Ten Days before such Meeting.

X. And be it further enacted, That the Trustees acting under any Turnpike Act shall have Power at any General Meeting to divide the Road comprised in such Act into Districts, to name Committees of their Number, being qualified to act as Trustees under this Act and such Turnpike Act, for the more immediate Direction and Management of particular Parts of such Roads, and to give such Committees (whereof Three to be a Quorum) such Instructions and such Powers as they shall from time to time think fit and expedient.

XI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Trustees acting under any Turnpike Act, at any General Meeting, to appoint a Clerk and Treasurer, and also to appoint, if they shall think fit, a Superintendent for all or each or any Part of the Roads within their Trust, with remunerating Salaries to such Clerk, Treasurer and Superintendent, and to apportion such Salaries among the several different Roads within their Trust; and that they shall also have Power in their District and Committee Meetings to appoint Clerks, Collectors, Treasurers, Surveyors and other Officers, with reasonable Salaries for their Trouble.

XII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Trustees of every Turnpike Road shall (unless where all the Monies collected on any such Turnpike Road shall be lodged, in an Account to be opened in the Name of the Trustees thereof, with the Bank of Scotland, the Royal Bank of Scotland, or the Bank of the British Linen Company of Scotland, or any of the Branches of the said Banks), take sufficient Security from every Treasurer to be appointed by them for the Purpose of any Act of Parliament for making, repairing or maintaining any Turnpike Road, for the due and faithful Execution of his Office, before such Treasurer shall enter upon his Office; and if they shall so think proper, shall also take such Security from any other Officer to be appointed under or by virtue of this or any other Act, and shall look the Sum beyond which he shall not retain any Money belonging to the Trustees.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Trustee or Commissioners to continue or appoint the Person who has been or may be appointed to act as their Clerk in the Execution of any Act or Acts of Parliament for repairing and maintaining any Turnpike Road, or the Partner of any such Clerk, to be or to hold the Offices of Clerk and Treasurer for the Purpose of such Act or Acts, or to continue or appoint the Person who has been or may be appointed Treasurer, or the Partner of any such Treasurer, to be the Treasurer and Clerk for the Purpose of such Act or Acts; and if any Person shall act in both the Capacities of Clerk and Treasurer, or if any Person being the Partner of any such Clerk shall act as Treasurer, or being the Partner of such Treasurer shall act as Clerk, in the Execution of this or any other Act, every Person shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of Fifty Pounds, to any Person or Persons who shall prosecute for the same, to be recovered with Expenses by summary Action in the Court of Session.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That all Orders and Proceedings of the Trustees of every Turnpike Road, together with the Names of the Trustees present at every Meeting, shall be entered in a Book to be kept by the Clerk to the said Trustees for that Purpose, and be signed by the Preses of the Meeting at which such Orders or Proceedings shall be from time to time made or had; and that such Book shall be open at all reasonable Times to the Inspection of any of the Trustees without Fee or Reward; and Extracts of such Proceedings, signed by the Clerk, shall bear Faith and be received in Evidence in the same manner as Extracts of Proceedings of Courts of Law in Scotland.

XV. And be it further enacted, That the Trustees of every Turnpike Road shall direct a Book to be provided and kept by their Clerk for the Use being, in which Book such Clerk shall enter true and regular Accounts of all Sums of Money received and expended on account of the Road for which such Clerk shall act, and of the several Articles, Matters and Things for which such Sums of Money shall have been disbursed; and which Book shall at all reasonable Times be open to the Inspection of the said Trustees, or any Creditor on the Tolls collected and taken on the Road to which such Books relate, or any Person who shall be liable to pay any of the Tolls authorized to be taken on such Roads respectively; and the said Trustees and Creditors and other Persons, or any of them, may take Copies of the said Book or any Part thereof, without such Trustee or Creditor paying any thing for the same; and the said Book shall be produced by the said Clerk at all Meetings of the said Trustees; and in case any Clerk shall not permit or shall refuse to produce the said Book, or in case such Clerk shall refuse or neglect to produce such Book, or to take such Copies as aforesaid, or in case such Clerk shall refuse or neglect to produce such Book at any Meeting of the said Trustees, such Clerk shall forfeit and pay any Sum of Money not exceeding ceeding Five Pounds, to be levied and applied in the same manner as other Penalties are hereby directed to be recovered and applied, provided that every Person not being a Trustee or Creditor shall pay the Sum of Five Shillings to the Clerk for each such Inquest.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That the Trustees of every Turnpike Road may sue and be sued in the Name of their Clerk or Treasurer for the time being; and that no Action to be brought or commenced by or against any Trustee of any Turnpike Road, by virtue of this or any other Act of Parliament, in the Name of their Clerk or Treasurer, shall cease by the Death or Removal of such Clerk or Treasurer, or by the Act of such Clerk or Treasurer, without the Consent of the said Trustee; but that the Clerk or Treasurer for the time to the said Trustee shall always be deemed to be the Plaintiff or Defendant (as the Case may be) in every such Action or Process: Provided always, that all Expenses of Process or Proceedings so incurred by such Clerk or Treasurer shall be reimbursed and paid out of the Trust Funds of the Turnpike Road for which he shall act.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That all such Officers as shall be appointed by any Trustee of any Turnpike Road shall, as often as required by the Trustee, render and give to them, or to such Person as they shall for that Purpose appoint, a true, exact and perfect Account in Writing under their respective Hands, with the proper Vouchers, of all Moneys, which they shall respectively, to the Time of rendering such Accounts, have received, paid and disbursed by virtue of this or any Turnpike Act, or for or on account or by reason of their respective Offices; and in case any Money so received by any such Officer shall remain in his Hands, the same shall be paid to the Trustee, or to such Person as they shall in Writing under their Hands authorize and empower to receive the same; and if any such Officer shall refuse or wilfully neglect to render and give such Account, or to produce and deliver up such Vouchers, or shall for the Space of Fourteen Days after being thereto required by the said Trustee so refuse or neglect to render and give up to them, or to such Person as they shall direct or appoint, all Books, Papers, Writings, Tools, Matters and Things in his Hands, Custody or Power belonging or relating to the Road for which he shall act, then it shall be lawful for the Sheriff or Stewart, or Justices of the Peace in Quarter Sessions assembled, for the Shire or Stewartry where the Officer so refusing or neglecting shall be or reside, upon Complaint made by or on behalf of the said Trustee, to hear and determine such Complaint in a summary Way, and to cause such Money as shall appear to be due and unpaid to be levied by Peaching and Sale of the Goods and Effects of such Officer, (rendering to him the Surplus (if any) of the Money remaining due, after deducting the Expenses of such Peaching and Sale; and if sufficient Goods and Effects cannot be found, or if it shall appear to any such Sheriff, Stewart or Justices assembled as aforesaid, that any such Officer shall have wilfully refused to give such Account, or to deliver up all or any Books, Papers, Writings, Tools, Matters and Things in his Custody or Power, relating to the Execution of his Office, such Sheriff, Stewart or Justices shall commit him to the House of Correction or Common Gaol of the Shire or Stewartry where such Offender shall be or reside, there to remain until he shall make and give a true and perfect Account, and verify the same in Manner aforesaid, and shall produce and deliver up the Vouchers relating thereto, and shall have paid the Money (if any) remaining in his Hands as aforesaid, according to the Direction of the Trustee, or shall have compounded with the said Trustee for such Money, and paid such Composition according to their Direction, which Composition all Trustee are hereby empowered to make and receive, or until he shall deliver up such Books, Papers and Writings, Tools, Matters and Things as aforesaid, or have given Satisfaction to the Trustee concerning the same; but no such Officer, who shall be committed on account of his not having sufficient Goods and Effects as aforesaid, shall be detained in Prison by virtue of this Act for any longer Time than Six Calendar Months.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That the Trustees of every Turnpike Road shall, and they are hereby required, either by themselves or some Committee of their Number, annually to examine the Vouchers, and audit and settle the Accounts of the respective Clerks and Treasurers appointed by them, and to examine into the State of the Revenues and Debts, distinguishing Bonded from Floating Debt, of the several Roads for which they shall act as Trustees, and to make up Abstracts of such Accounts, which Abstracts shall contain a Statement of the Revenues and Debts of the Trust, and also an Account of all Bonds given by the Trustee, and the Dates thereof; which said Abstracts of Accounts and Statements shall be signed by not less than Three of the Trustees.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That no Tackman of Tolls, or Toll Gatherer, or other Person, except in the Cases hereinafter mentioned, shall hold any Place of Profit under any Trustee of any Turnpike Road, shall sell any Wine, Ale, Spirituous Liquors or Provisions by Retail: Provided always, that where any Toll Bar is situated in any remote Part of the Country, and the Trustee of the Turnpike Road on which such Toll Bar is placed shall represent to the Justice of the Peace for the Shire or Stewartry in their Quarter Sessions assembled, that it will be convenient to Travellers using such Road, that such Tackman of the Toll or Toll Gatherer, or other Person stationed at such Toll Bar, should be licensed to sell Provisions and Ale and Spirituous Liquors by Retail, it shall be lawful for the said Justice to grant to the Tackman, Toll Gatherer or other Person stationed at such Toll Bar, a License, in the Form granted by Justice to Publicans; and such Tackman, Toll Gatherer or other Person may thence receive the other Licenses granted to Publicans by the Commissioners of Excise, which said Excise Licenses the said Commissioners, or the Person by them authorized to grant the same, are hereby empowered to grant; any thing in an Act passed in the Thirty third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled An Act for repealing the Duties on Coals, Cakes and Candles brought or carried Customous into Scotland, and for granting other Duties on Licenses to sell certain distilled Spirituous Liquors in the thereof, or in any other Act of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding; and after obtaining such Licences, it shall be lawful for such Tacksmen or Toll Gatherers, or other Person to whom the same shall be granted, to hold such Place of Post as Tacksmen or Toll Gatherers, and at the same Time to exercise the Trade of a Victualler at each Toll House, and to sell by Retail the Articles specified in such Licences, for the Term for which such Licences shall be granted; and every such Tacksmen or Toll Gatherer, or other Person so obtaining such Licences, shall be subject and liable to such and the like Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures, Rules, Regulations and Restrictions, as any other Person licensed to deal in Ale or other Spirituous Liquors is or may be subject and liable to by Law.

subject to existing Laws.

XX. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Trustees of Turnpike Roads to accept Subscriptions for such Sums of Money as may be requisite for the making or maintaining any particular Part of the said Roads, and for securing the Repayment thereof, with Interest, to assign the Tolls authorized to be levied on any of the said Roads; and that it shall also be lawful for the said Trustees to contract and agree with the Person subscribing Money as aforesaid, for making or maintaining the said Roads, or any particular Part thereof as aforesaid, to apply the same in making and maintaining such Parts of such Roads; and they are hereby required to lay out and apply the Money so lent for that express Purpose accordingly.

Trustees may accept of Subscriptions for making particular Parts of Roads.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person who has subscribed or shall subscribe towards the making and maintaining the Roads by any Act intended to be made and repaired, shall, after Forty Days' Notice given by any Person authorized by the said Trustees to receive and recover the Subscriptions Money, neglect or refuse to pay the Sum by him or her subscribed, to the Person so authorized, it shall be lawful to such Person, and he is hereby required to sue for and recover the said Subscription Money, in any Court competent in Scotland.

Payment of Subscriptions
enforced.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Trustees of every Turnpike Road to borrow and take up as Interest, on the Credit of the Tolls arising on such Road, such Sum of Money as they shall from time to time respectively think proper, and to assign the Tolls on such Road, or any Part or Parts thereof, (the Expenses of which Assignations to be paid out of the Tolls,) as a Security to any Person, or his Trustees, who shall advance such Sum of Money; which Assignation shall be in the Words or to the Effect following; (that is to say,)

Power to Trust-
Money.

BY virtue of an Act passed in the Year of the Reign of intituled [here set forth the Title of the Act or Acts], We, a Quorum of the Trustees for executing the said Act [or Acts] in Consideration of the Sum of Sterling advanced and paid to the Treasurer of the said Turnpike, do hereby grant and assign unto A. B. and his Executors and Assignees, [here specify the Matter assigned,] to be had and holden from the Day of in the Year of our Lord for and during the Residue of the Term for which the said Tolls are granted by the said Act, unless the said Sum of per Centum per Annum, shall be sooner paid and with Interest after the Rate of per Centum per Annum, shall be sooner paid and discharged.

Form of Assignation.

And Copies of such Assignations shall be entered by the Clerk to the said Trustees in the said Book of Orders and Proceedings; and it shall be lawful for all Persons respectively, to whom any Assignation of Tolls shall be made as aforesaid, or who shall be from time to time entitled to the Money thereby secured, to transfer, by Indorsement on such Assignation, his her, or their Right and Interest in and to such Assignation of Tolls, and the Principal Money and Interest thereby secured, to any other Person whatsoever; and such Assignation, with Notice to the Clerk of the said Turnpike, and Entry thereof in their Books of Proceedings, shall be equivalent to and have all the Effects of an intimated Assignation as affording a Preference; and every Indorsement may in like manner indorse the same; and such Indorsement, with Notice thereof, entered as aforesaid, shall have all the Effects of an intimated Assignation, and so in like manner; and all Persons to whom any such Assignation or Indorsement shall be made as aforesaid shall, in Proportion to the Sum of Money thereby secured, be Creditors to the Tolls by such Act granted, in equal Degree one with another, or in such Order as shall be agreed upon and stipulated by the said Trustees at the Time of the Advance of their respective Sums.

entered.

with Notice.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall also be lawful for the Trustees of every Turnpike Road to borrow on Lifelong Annuity, and to assign the Toll Dues leviable on the same to the Lender of the Money, for and during the Residue of the Term for which the said Toll Dues are granted, such Sums as they shall from time to time think proper; and it shall be lawful for the Grantee of such Annuity to transfer the same in like manner by Indorsement, which, with Notice to the Clerk, and Entry in the Books of the Trustees, shall be equivalent to an intimated Assignation as affording a Preference; and that such Indorsement shall have also Power to transfer in like manner such Annuity, and so in like manner during the Life of the Grantee thereof; and that the Person claiming the Payment of the same shall be at all times bound, if so required, to produce satisfactory Proof of the said Grantee having been alive up to the Date of such Claim: Provided always, that it shall not be lawful for the Trustee to give more than Ten per Centum on any Sum of Money so to be borrowed by the said Trustees on Annuity, or to grant any such Annuity on any Life under Fifty.

Trustees may

Trustees not
liable.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That the said Trustees shall not be held or adjudged to have rendered themselves personally liable for the Repayment of any Money borrowed, or interest thereof, by reason of having signed the said Securities, but which Securities are to be held and considered as granted upon the sole Credit and Security of the Tolls; nor shall any Trustee or Subscriber be held personally really liable upon any Pretence for Payment of any Sum which he shall not have bound himself to pay personally as an Individual, independent of his Office as a Trustee under any Turnpike Act of Parliament.

Proprietors under Estates or their Curators may borrow their Estates.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Proprietor or Heir of Estate in Possession of any Entailed Estate, or the Tutor or Curator of such Proprietor or Heir of Estate, who may be desirous of advancing or lending any Sum or Sums of Money for the Purposes of making or maintaining any Turnpike Road, or building any Bridge on the same, to be made or built subsequent to the passing of this Act, either to bind himself personally as a Trustee of such Turnpike Road, and also to bind the succeeding Heirs of Estate for the Repayment of any such Sum or Sums, to any Person or Persons who may advance the same to the Trustees of such Turnpike Road; or to advance such Sum or Sums, and to render the same a Burden upon the said entailed Estate and the succeeding Heirs of Estate; or, having advanced such Sum or Sums, to borrow the like Sum or Sums, and to bind himself or herself, and the said Estate, and the Heirs of Estate according to him or her, for the same; and all Bonds and Obligations for Money so to be advanced or borrowed and applied shall be held to bind such Proprietors in Cases where they have personally bound themselves, and also the Heirs of Estate in such Estates, for the Repayment of such Money; and such Bonds and Obligations shall be valid and effectual against the Grantees of the same, and also against the Heirs of Estate according to them in such entailed Estates, and such Sums shall be and continue to be a real Burden on such Estates till repaid out of the Tolls and Duties levied on such Turnpike Road: Provided always, that the Share or Proportion of such Sum or Sums of Money to be so advanced or borrowed affecting such succeeding Heirs of Estate, shall not exceed One Year's free Rent of the entailed Lands of such Proprietor, situated in each Parish respectively through which any such Turnpike Road or any Part thereof shall run, or to which any such Bridge or any Part thereof shall be built; and that the Heir of Estate in Possession of such entailed Estate shall be obliged to keep down the Interest of such Sum or Sums of Money so advanced or borrowed, but it shall not be lawful to the Creditor or Creditors in right of any such Debt, to seize or otherwise evict the entailed Estate for Payment thereof or any Part thereof; provided also, that it shall and may be competent to such Creditor or Creditors to prosecute such Remedy or Remedies against the Heirs thereof as are given and allowed by the Law of Scotland to heritable Creditors.

Persons as to the extent thereof.

Proprietors of entailed Estates and Curators, &c. may encumber Estates.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be in the Power of Proprietors of entailed Estates, and of all Trustees, Tutors and Curators of any Person under any legal Disability or Incapacity, to give up and reconnoitre every Claim of Damage or otherwise, competent to them, for such Ground and Materials as any Turnpike Road may occupy or require on their respective Properties, and that such Reconnoitance shall be equally binding on the Heirs of such Persons.

Taking off Horses to avoid Payment of Toll or Penalty.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall take off or cause to be taken off any Horse or other Beast of Draught from any Coach, Chaise, Waggon, Cart or other Carriage, at or before the same shall come to any Toll Bar, and after having passed such Toll Bar shall add or put on such Horse or other Beast of Draught to such Coach, Chaise, Waggon or other Carriage, with Intent to avoid any Toll payable or Penalty imposed by this or any Turnpike Act of Parliament, every Person so offending, and being convicted thereof before the Sheriff or Steward, or any Justice of the Peace for the Shire or Stewartry where the Offence shall be committed, upon the Oath of any credible Witness or other competent Evidence, shall forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings for each Offence.

Penalty.

Power to erect Weighing Machines.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Turnpike Trustees to erect Weighing Machines on any convenient Part of any Turnpike Road, so as not to interrupt the travelling along the same; and to direct all Waggons, Carts or other Carriages carrying any Load, and which shall come within One hundred Yards of the said Machine, to be weighed thereon, together with the Loading thereon.

Allowing Goods, &c. to cross Toll.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall unload or cause to be unladen any Goods, Wares or Merchandise, from any Horse or other Beast of Burden, Waggon, Cart or other Carriage, at or before the same shall come to any Toll Bar or Weighing Engine erected in pursuance of any Turnpike Act or of this Act, or shall load or lay upon such Horse or other Beast of Burden, Waggon, Cart or Carriage, after the same shall have passed any such Toll Bar or Weighing Engine, any Goods, Wares or Merchandise taken or unladen from any Horse or other Beast of Burden, Waggon, Cart or other Carriage, belonging to or hired or borrowed by any Person, in order to avoid the Payment of Tolls payable for Overweight; every Person so offending as aforesaid, and being thereof lawfully convicted before the Sheriff or Steward or any Justice of the Peace for the Shire or Stewartry where the Offence shall be committed, upon the Oath of any credible Witness, or other competent Evidence, shall forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings for each Offence.

Penalty.

Duty of Toll-keepers as to weighing.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That the Keeper of every Toll Bar where any Weighing Engine shall be erected, or any other Person appointed by the Trustees of any Turnpike Road to the Care of such Weighing Engine, shall weigh all such Waggons, Carts or other such Carriages which shall pass loaded through such Bars respectively, and which he shall believe to carry greater Weights than are allowed to pass without paying additional Toll; and if any Tollkeeper, or Person so appointed, shall knowingly permit any such Waggon, Cart or other such Carriage to pass through any such Toll Bar with greater Weights than are allowed by any Act of Parliament to be carried without Payment of additional Toll on the Road on which such Bar or Weighing Engine shall be placed, without weighing the same, and receiving such additional Tolls as aforesaid, he shall for every such Offence forfeit a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds; and if the Owner or Driver of any Wagon or Cart shall refuse to allow the same to be weighed, or shall resist any Toll Keeper or Toll Gatherer in weighing the same, every Owner or Driver so offending shall forfeit and Pay a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Trustee or Surveyor of any Turnpike Road, or he shall suspect any such Convoyance or Neglect as aforesaid, to cause any Wagon, Cart or other Carriage which shall have passed through any Toll Bar where any Weighing Engine shall be erected, and shall not have passed above Two hundred Yards beyond such Toll Bar, to return to such Weighing Engine, and be there weighed with the Loading which passed through such Toll Bar, in the Presence of such Trustee or Surveyor, upon requiring the Driver thereof to drive such Carriage back to such Weighing Engine, and upon paying or tendering to him the Sum of One Shilling for so doing, which shall be returned to the Person paying the same if upon weighing such Carriage and the Loading thereof it shall be found above the Weight allowed to be carried on such Carriage without Payment of additional Toll; and if the Driver of any such Carriage, being so requested to return with his Carriage to such Weighing Engine, shall neglect or refuse so to do, he shall forfeit a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings; and it shall be lawful for any Peace Officer or any other Person being then present, upon such Neglect or Refusal, to drive and take such Carriage back to such Weighing Engine, in order to be weighed as aforesaid.

XXXII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That when Two or more Turnpike Roads meet at or near the same Place, it shall be lawful for the Trustees of such Turnpike Roads respectively, at a Meeting to be held for that Purpose, to fix upon some convenient Place to erect a Weighing Engine upon, which will accommodate all such Turnpike Roads, and by Agreement amongst themselves at such Meeting to proportion the Expenses which may attend the making, erecting, maintaining and keeping in repair such Weighing Engine, and likewise to proportion the Money arising from Forfeitures to be secured for Overweight at such Weighing Engine amongst all such Turnpike Roads, in such manner as to them shall appear just and reasonable.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That if the Owner or Driver of any Wagon, Cart or other Carriage, travelling on any Turnpike Road where any Weighing Engine is erected, shall drive or turn out of the same, in order to avoid having the same weighed, every such Owner or Driver, convicted of such Offence before the Sheriff or Stewart, or any Justice of the Peace for the Shire or Stewartry where such Offence shall be committed, upon the Oath of any credible Witness, or other competent Evidence, shall forfeit, if he be the Owner, any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, and if he be the Driver and not the Owner, any Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings, upon Conviction for every such Offence.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That where any Carriage whatsoever, with Four Wheels, shall pass through any Toll Bar affixed to any Wagon or Cart, it shall be liable to the same Toll as if it had passed through drawn by Two Horses; and in case any Carriage whatsoever, with Two Wheels only, shall pass through any Toll Bar so affixed to any Wagon or Cart as aforesaid, it shall be liable to the same Toll as it would have been if passing through and drawn by One Horse only; and where any Horse shall be fastened to, but not used in drawing any Wagon, Cart or other Carriage, such Horse shall not be liable to a higher Toll than a single Horse laden or unladen, as the Case may be.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That no Toll shall be demanded or taken on any Turnpike Road for any Horses or Carriages attending His Majesty or any of the Royal Family, or retreating therefrom.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That no Toll shall be demanded or taken at any Toll Bar from any Person for any Horse or other Beast of Draught, or for any Wagon, Cart or other Carriage, employed in carrying or conveying, or going empty to fetch, carry or convey, or returning empty from carrying or conveying, having been employed only in carrying or conveying any Materials for making or maintaining any Turnpike Road or Highway, or for building, rebuilding or repairing any Bridge or Toll House on any Turnpike Road or Highway; or for any Horse or other Beast of Draught, or Carriage employed in carrying or conveying, having been employed only in carrying or conveying on the same Day, on the Turnpike Road on which such Gate is placed, any Ploughs, Harrows or other Implements of Husbandry, (unless laden also with some other Thing not hereby exempted from Toll), or any Hay, Straw or Dung, Fodder for Cattle, and Corn in the Straw, or other Produce of such Farm, from one Part of any Farm to another; or for any Horse or other Beasts of Husbandry going to or returning from Plough or Harrow, or to or from Pasture or Watering Place, or going to be or returning from being shod or farried at their usual Stables; or for any Person going to or returning from his Inn, beer or their usual Place of Religious Worship tolerated by Law, or Synagoges, or on any Day on which Divine Service is by Authority ordered to be celebrated; nor from any Clergyman going to or returning from visiting any sick Parsonage, or on other his parochial Duty within his Parish; nor shall any Toll be exacted within the Parish from any Person attending or retreating from having attended the Funeral of any Person who shall die and be buried within the Parish; or for any Horse or other Beast of Draught, Wagon, Cart or other Carriage, employed only in carrying or conveying Criminals or Vagrants sent by Warrants or legal Passes, or returning empty after having been so employed; or for any Horse or other Beast of Draught or Berdies, or Carriage of whatever Description, employed or to be employed in conveying the Mails of Letters and Expresses, under the Authority of His Majesty's Postmaster General, either when employed in conveying, sending or guarding such Mails or Expresses, or in returning back free conveying the same, except so far as such Horse or other Beast of Draught or Carriage are specially made liable to the Payment of Tolls and Duties by virtue of an Act made in the Fifth year of the weighing, &c.

Penalty.

27 G. 3. c. 23.

Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act to repeal the Exemption from Toll granted for or in respect of Carriages with more than Two Wheels conveying the Mail in Scotland; and for granting a Rate for Passage on an Indemnity for the Loss which may arise in the Revenue of the Post Office from the Payment of such Tolls; nor shall any Toll be demanded or taken for the Horses of any Officers or Soldiers on their March or on Duty, or for any Horses or other Beasts, or any Waggon, Cart or other Carriage, employed in carrying or conveying, or returning empty from conveying, or conveying, having been employed only in carrying or conveying the Arms or Baggage of any such Officers or Soldiers, or employed in carrying or conveying, or returning empty from carrying or conveying, having been employed only in carrying or conveying any sick, wounded or disabled Officers or Soldiers; or for any Waggon, Cart or other Carriage whatsoever, nor for any Horse or other Beast of Draught drawing the same, employed in conveying any Ordnance, or Barrack, or Commission, or other Public Stores of or belonging to His Majesty, or for the Use of His Majesty's Forces, or returning empty from having been so employed; or for any Carriage conveying Volunteer Infantry, or for any Horse furnished by or for any Person belonging to any Corps of Yeomanry or Volunteer Cavalry or Infantry, and ride by him in going to or returning from any Place appointed for and on the Days of Exercise, Inspection or Review, or on other Public Duty, provided that such Person shall be dressed in the Uniform of his Corps, and shall have his Arms, Furniture and Accoutrements according to the Regulations of such Corps at the Time of crossing the Exception; or for any Horses or Carriages which shall only cross any Turnpike Road, or shall not pass above One hundred Yards thereon: Provided always, that if any Person shall, by any fraudulent or collusion Means whatsoever, claim or take the Benefit of any of the Exceptions aforesaid, and being entitled to the same, every such Person shall forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, which shall be applied to the Use of such Road, and in all Cases the Proof of Exception shall be upon the Person claiming the same: Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall affect the Exceptions in any Lease of Tolls executed under any Local Act, prior to the passing of this Act, in such Cases where Tolls have been let, subject to fewer or less Exceptions than the Exceptions hereby granted.

Waggons, &c. conveying Ordnance, &c.

Yeomanry, Volunteers, &c.

Horses crossing or not travelling above 100 Yards on Road. Excess Penalty. Process for entering Leases of Tolls.

Carriages conveying King's Stores, &c. except from Fortresses for Ordnance.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That no Person owning or driving, or causing to be driven, any Waggon, Cart or other Carriage provided for the Service of His Majesty's Forces, or conveying any Ordnance, or Barrack, or Commission, or other public Stores of or belonging to His Majesty, or for the Use of His Majesty's Forces, shall be subject to any additional Toll, Penalty or Forfeiture for Overweight; nor shall any such Waggon, Cart or other Carriage, or the Horses or Beasts drawing the same, while so employed, be stopped or detained by reason of any Weight in any such Waggon, Cart or other Carriage, or of being drawn by any Number of Horses or other Beasts of Draught; but it shall be lawful for the Owner or Driver of any such Waggon, Cart or other Carriage, to put any Number of Horses or other Beasts of Draught to such Waggon, Cart or other Carriage, any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to Turnpike Roads to the contrary notwithstanding.

Post Horses having passed through any Gate, may return Toll free before Nine in the Morning of the following Day.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That all Horses travelling for Hire under the Post Horses Duties Acts, having passed through any Turnpike Gate erected or to be erected on any Turnpike Road drawing any Carriage in respect of which any Toll shall have been paid, on returning through the Turnpike Gate at which the Toll shall have been paid, and the other Gates (if any) cleared by such Payment, either without such Carriage, or drawing such Carriage, the same being empty, and without a Ticket denoting a fresh Hiring, shall be permitted to pass Toll free, although such Horses or Carriage shall not have passed through such Turnpike Road on the same Day: provided that such Horses so travelling shall return before Nine of the Clock of the Morning succeeding the Day on which they first passed the Turnpike Gate at which the Toll shall have been paid.

Horses having passed through a Gate and returning drawing a Carriage, the Toll paid on the Horses to be deducted.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That where any Horse or Horses as last aforesaid shall pass through any Turnpike Gate on any Road not drawing any Carriage, and a Toll shall be paid on such Horse or Horses at such Turnpike Gate, and the same Horse or Horses shall return drawing any Carriage on the same Day, or before Nine of the Clock of the Morning succeeding the Day on which they first passed such Gate, the Toll paid on such Horse or Horses on their originally passing shall be deducted from the Toll payable on the same when drawing the Carriage to which they shall be attached on their Return, so that no higher Toll shall on the whole be taken than if such Horse or Horses had in the first place passed through such Turnpike Gate drawing the said Carriage.

Stage Coaches, &c. to pay for every Time of passing.

XI. And be it further enacted, That the Tolls made payable by any local Turnpike Act shall be paid for and in respect of all Horses or Beasts of Draught drawing any Stage Coach, Diligence, Van, Caravan or Stage Waggon or other Stage Carriage conveying Passengers or Goods for Hire or Reward, every Time of passing or stopping along the said Roads, or any of them.

Horses hired drawing Post Chaises, &c. subject to Toll such as Hiring.

XII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That the Tolls made payable by any local Turnpike Act shall be paid for and in respect of all Horses or Beasts of Draught let out to Hire, and drawing any Post Chaise or other Carriage, every Time of passing along the said Roads, or any of them, whenever any new Hiring thereof shall take place, and a Ticket denoting such Hiring shall be produced.

Provision to put up a Table of the Tolls at every Toll Bar.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the Treasurers of every Turnpike Road shall put up and continue at every Toll Bar a printed Schedule or Table, containing the Name of the Toll Bar where the same shall be affixed, with a List of the Tolls payable at every such Bar, and also the Name of any other Bar which shall be cleared by the Payment of Toll at the Bar where such Table of Tolls shall be affixed; and shall provide Tickets denoting the Payment of Toll, and mentioning the Bar so cleared, one of which Tickets shall be delivered to the Person paying the Toll, and which shall also have printed on written thereon the Day of the Month on which the same is delivered; and 2^o the Production of such Ticket at any Bar closed by the Payment of the Toll at the Bar where such Ticket was delivered, the Person producing the same shall pass through such Bar without paying any additional Toll: Provided always, that if no such Schedule or Table as aforesaid shall be put up and continued at any Toll Bar, it shall not be lawful to collect any Toll at such Toll Bar.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person subject to the Payment of any Toll under and by virtue of any Act of Parliament for making or maintaining any Turnpike Road, shall, after Demanded thereof made, wilfully neglect or refuse to pay the same, it shall be lawful for the Person authorized to collect such Tolls, taking such Assistance as shall be necessary, to seize and pound any Horse, Beast, Cattle, Carriage or other Thing, upon or in respect of which any such Toll is imposed, or any Carriage in respect of the Horses or other Beasts of Draught drawing the Carriage on which such Toll is imposed, or any of the Goods or Effects of the Person so neglecting or refusing to pay (except the Saddle or Reins of any Horse or other Beast separate from the Harn or Hous); and if the Toll, or any Part thereof so neglected or refused to be paid, and the reasonable Charges of such Seizure and Pounding, shall not be paid within the Space of Four Days next after such Seizure and Pounding, the Person so seizing and pouncing may, with the Authority of the Sheriff, Steward or any Justice of the Peace for the Shire or Stewartry, who are hereby empowered to grant such Authority, sell by public Auction any Horse, Beast, Cattle, Carriage or Thing so seized and possessed, or a sufficient Part thereof, returning the Surplus of the Money (if any) arising from such Sale, and what shall remain unsold, to the Owner thereof, after such Tolls, and the reasonable Charges occasioned by such Seizure, Pounding and Sale, shall be deducted.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Dispute shall arise about the Amount of the Tolls due, or the Expenses of keeping or selling any Articles pointed for Nonpayment of any Tolls, it shall be lawful for the Toll Gatherer, or the Person pouncing, to retain such Articles, or the Money arising from the Sale thereof (as the Case may be), until the Amount of the Tolls due, and the Expenses of Keeping and selling the Articles as aforesaid, be ascertained by the Sheriff or Steward, or any Justice of the Peace for the Shire or Stewartry wherein the Toll Bar at which the Toll is dispute shall be payable shall be situate, who, upon Complaint made for that Purpose, shall in a summary Manner determine the Amount of the Tolls due, and shall adjudge such Expenses to either Party as to the said Sheriff, Steward or Justice shall appear right and proper.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall, with any Horse, Cattle, Beast or Carriage, pass from any Turnpike Road over any Land near or adjoining thereto, (not being a public Highway), and such Person not being the Proprietor or Occupier, or Servant or One of the Family of the Proprietor or Occupier of such Land, with Intent to evade the Payment of the Tolls granted by any Act of Parliament; or if any Proprietor or Occupier of any such Land shall knowingly or willingly permit any Person (except as aforesaid) so to pass over such Land with such Intent; or if any Person other than the Toll Gatherers shall give, or if any Person shall receive from any Person other than the Toll Gatherers, or forge, counterfeite or alter any Note or Ticket directed to be given, with Intent to evade the Payment of the Tolls; or if any Person shall intentionally or forcibly pass through any Toll Bar as aforesaid, or shall leave, before coming to any Toll Bar, any Horse, Cattle, Beast or Carriage whatsoever, by reason whereof the Payment of any Tolls or Duties shall be avoided or lessened; or if any Person shall do any other Act whatever, in order to evade the Payment of any of the Tolls, and whereby the same shall be evaded, every such Person shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds.

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Trustees of every Turnpike Road, previous to letting the Tolls, to compound and agree, for any Term not exceeding One Year at any one Time, with any Person using such Road, for the passing of their Horses, Cattle or Carriages through any of the Toll Bars to be erected on such Road, or on the Isles thereof; which Composition shall be paid in advance; and as a default thereof, the Composition or Agreement with the Person making such default shall thereupon be void; and all such Composition Money shall be paid and applied in such Manner as the Tolls are directed to be paid and applied: Provided nevertheless, that it shall not be lawful for the Tackman or Toll Gatherer to compound with any Person for the Payment of any Tolls, or to accept any lower Tolls than those settled by the Trustees of any Turnpike Road to be taken, or pay back or return any Sum of Money to Persons becoming any Turnpike Road and paying the Tolls thereon, with the Intent of avoiding the Provisions of this Act or any Turnpike Act, under a Penalty for each such Offence of Twenty Pounds.

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Trustees of every Turnpike Road, at a Meeting to be held for that Purpose, (of which One Calendar Month's Notice shall be given in Writing, to be affixed on all the Toll Bars upon such Roads, or by Advertisement in some public Newspaper generally circulated in that Part of the County,) from time to time to lessen and reduce the Tolls granted by any Turnpike Act, or to take down and remove any Toll Bar erected across or at the Side of any Turnpike Road, or to grant Exemption at the same, for and during such Time as a Majority of the said Trustees, being a Quorum, shall think proper; and in like manner to advance any of the Tolls so reduced, so that the several and respective Tolls do not exceed the Tolls allowed to be demanded and taken by such Turnpike Act, and again to erect the Toll Bar that may have been so taken down, and again to collect Tolls thereon: provided nevertheless, that where the whole Money borrowed on the said Credit of the Tolls granted by any such Act shall not have been discharged, so such and afterwards may advance Tolls and replace Toll Bars.

Tolls shall be reduced, nor each Toll Bar removed, nor such Exemption from Tolls be granted, without the Consent in Writing of the Persons entitled to Three Fourths of the Money remaining due upon such respective Tolls.

Resolves on writing up Toll Bars.

XLVIII. And be it further enacted, That no Toll Bar shall hereafter be erected across or on the Side of any Turnpike Road, unless the same be ordered by the Trustees at a Meeting, of which Fourteen Days' public Notice shall have been given in some Newspaper usually circulated in the Shire or Stewartry in which such Road is situated, or by allowing the same upon all the Toll Bars erected on such Road, which shall not be farther distant than Six Miles from the Place where such Toll Bar is proposed to be erected, and also on the Church Doors of the Parish within which such Toll Bar is proposed to be erected, and unless a Majority of the Trustees present shall sign the said Order at such Meeting.

Order erected contrary to Law may be removed.

XLIX. And be it further enacted, That if the Trustees of any Turnpike Road shall erect any Toll Bar where they have not any Power by virtue of any Act of Parliament so to do, it shall be lawful for the Sheriff or Stewart, or the Justices of the Peace in Quarter Sessions assembled, for the Shire or Stewartry where any such Bar is erected, upon Complaint in a summary Way to hear and determine therein, and to order such Bar to be removed.

On Death of Collector, Trustees may appoint another till next Meeting. Collector, &c. relating to the last Person, who, &c. if as Justice may give Power, &c.

L. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Two Trustees of any Turnpike Road, upon the Death of any Person appointed to collect the Tolls upon such Turnpike Road for the Trustees of such Road, and that if any Person who shall be discharged from his Office by the Trustees shall refuse to deliver up the Possession of the House, Gardens and Pertinents which he enjoyed in right of his Appointment to that Office, within Three Days after Notice of his Discharge shall be given to him or left at his House, or to the Wife or Family of any such Person who shall die as aforesaid shall refuse to deliver up the Possession of such House, Gardens and Pertinents within Three Days after such new Appointment shall be made as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Sheriff, Stewart or any Justice of the Peace for the Shire or Stewartry where such Toll House shall be, by Warrant under his Hand, to order a Constable or other Peace Officer, with such Assistance as shall be necessary, to enter such House and Premises on the Day There, and to remove the Persons who shall be found therein, together with their Goods, out of such House, and to put the Person appointed to collect the Tolls at such Place into the Possession thereof.

Carriage, without Owner's Name to pay Double Toll.

LI. And be it further enacted, That where any Owner of any Coach, Chaise or such other Carriage, and of any Waggon, Cart or such other Carriage, as is hereinafter directed to have the Owner's Name painted upon it, shall fail to have his Name and Place of Abode painted in legible Characters upon some conspicuous Part of such Carriages respectively, in manner hereunder directed, the Tacksmen of the Tolls or the Toll Gatherer shall, under a Penalty of not exceeding Forty Shillings for each Offence, demand and take, at any Bar or any Turnpike Road, before any such Carriage respectively shall pass through such Bar, Double the Tolls otherwise leviable for such Carriages as aforesaid.

LII. And be it further enacted, That every Toll Gatherer appointed by the Trustees or Tacksmen on every Turnpike Road shall place on some conspicuous Part of the Front of their several Toll Houses his or her Christian and Surname, painted in Black on a Board with a White Ground, each of the Letters of such Name to be at least Two Inches in Length, and of a Breadth in Proportion; and that such Board shall remain at such Toll House during the whole of the Time that the Person whose Name shall be expressed thereon shall be on Duty thereat: and every Tacksmen or Toll Gatherer shall place on the Front of the Toll House the printed Schedule or Table hereinafter directed to be provided by the Trustees; and if any Tacksmen or Gatherer shall not place such Board or Schedule or Table respectively, and keep the same there during the Time such Person shall be such Tacksmen or Gatherer, or shall demand or take a greater or less Toll than such Tacksmen or Gatherer shall be authorized to do, or shall demand or take a Toll from any Person who shall be exempt from the Payment thereof, and who shall claim such Exemption, or shall refuse to permit any Person to read such Board, Schedule or Table, or shall refuse to tell his or her Christian and Surname to any Person who shall demand the same, or being paid the said Tolls, or shall give a false Name, or shall refuse or neglect to give a Ticket denoting the Payment of the Tolls, and naming and specifying the several Toll Bars freed by such Payment, or upon the legal Toll being paid or tendered, shall unnecessarily detain or wilfully obstruct any Passenger from passing through any Toll Bar, or shall make use of any scurrilous or abusive Language to any Trustee, Surveyor, Traveller or Passenger, or offend against the Provisions of any Turnpike Act or of this Act, such Person shall forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds for every such Offence.

Fines.

If Toll Gatherer offend against, Penalty to be levied as Tacksmen of Tolls.

LIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in case any Toll Gatherer, or Person acting as such, shall offend against any of the Provisions of any Turnpike Act or of this Act, whereby any Penalty shall be incurred, and shall abscond or absent himself or herself as or not to be found, then it shall be lawful for the Sheriff or Stewart, or any Justice of the Peace before whom any such Toll Gatherer or Person shall be convicted of any such Offence, to order and adjudge that the Penalty incurred as aforesaid shall be paid by the Tacksmen of the Tolls under whom such Gatherer or other Person shall act; all which Penalties shall be levied, recovered and applied in manner hereinafter directed.

Power to let by public Bazaar the Tolls.

LIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Trustees of every Turnpike Road, at a Meeting appointed for the Purpose, to let by public Bazaar the Tolls of the several Bars erected upon their respective Turnpike Roads: Provided always, in case so Bazaar shall offer, or in case the said Tolls shall not be let by public Bazaar, it shall then be lawful for the said Trustees to let the same by private

Tender;

Tender; provided also, that no Tolls upon any Turnpike Road shall be let for a longer Time than Three Years, and that at all such Lettings the Trustees shall be entitled to bid for the Tolls so to be let, either by themselves or their Clerk or Treasurer, or any other Person by them respectively authorized.

L.V. Provided always, That it shall be lawful for the said Trustees to enter into any Agreement with His Majesty's Postmaster General, as to the Amount of Tolls that shall be paid for any Mail Coach traveling along any such Turnpike Road, without any Limitation as to the Amount of the Tolls to be payable, or the Number of Years for which such Agreement shall subsist.

LVI. And be it further enacted, That the Trustees of all Turnpike Roads shall have Power and they are hereby authorized to widen and extend all Turnpike Roads now existing, and all Highways now existing and which shall hereafter be made Turnpike, so that the same shall be in all Places Twenty Feet in Width of clear passable Road, Twenty Feet being hereby declared to be the least legal Breadth of a Turnpike Road; and so such Trustees shall pay any thing for any Ground necessary to make any such Turnpike Road of such legal Breadth; reserving his Class of Damages to the Proprietor, for any Fences which may be altered or removed by widening such Road as aforesaid.

LVII. And be it enacted, That the Trustees of all Turnpike Roads shall have Power and they are hereby authorized, if they shall see fit, to widen any Turnpike Road to the Width of Forty Feet of clear passable Road, exclusive of the Bank or Ditch on either Side thereof, on making full Satisfaction to the Proprietors and Occupiers of any Land, Ground or other Premises taken for the Purpose of such widening, for the Land or Ground so to be taken over and above the Width of Twenty Feet as aforesaid, in manner hereinafter directed.

LVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Trustees of any Turnpike Road to treat, contract and agree for, and they are hereby empowered to take and acquire, and it shall be lawful for all Bodies Politic or Corporate, Heirs of Entail or Trustees, as also Guardians, Tutors and Curators of every Person whatsoever, under any legal Disability or Incapacity, to sell, feu, let and convey all such Lands or Buildings as shall by such Trustees of Turnpike Roads be deemed necessary to be purchased or acquired by them for the Purpose of widening, diverting, altering or improving such Roads, or for Toll Houses and Gardens, or for making convenient Places for turning Carriages at Weighing Engines, or for storing Materials or otherwise; or to treat, contract and agree for the Compensation for any Loss or Damage any Proprietor or Occupier, or any other Person, may sustain by any Operation of such Trustees of Turnpike Roads; such Trustees making such Satisfaction to the Proprietor and Occupier of such Lands or Buildings so to be taken or acquired, as shall be agreed upon between the Trustees of the Turnpike Roads and such Proprietor or Occupier, or as shall be awarded in manner hereinafter mentioned.

LIX. And be it further enacted, That in case the Proprietor of any Lands or Buildings as aforesaid shall refuse to treat, or shall not be satisfied with the Price offered him by the Trustees of any Turnpike Road, it shall be lawful for such Trustees to make Application to the Sheriff or Steward of the Shire or Stewartry where such Lands or Buildings lie, to assess a Jury of Nine indifferent Persons to Majority of whom shall determine, in order to value the Lands or Buildings necessary to be taken and used as aforesaid, and the Loss or Damage arising from the altering or removing of Fences; and the said Sheriff or Steward is hereby empowered and required, upon such Application, to give Fifteen Days Notice thereof to the Proprietor and Occupier of such Lands or Buildings, and afterwards to issue his Precept in the usual Manner for calling together a Jury, who being duly sworn, the said Sheriff or Steward shall proceed to examine upon Oath in his Presence, and the Presence of the Jury, such Witnesses as shall be summoned by either Party, and upon their Depositions, or other competent Evidence, such Jury shall determine the Yards or Damages to be paid by such Trustees; and in estimating the Same to be paid to the Proprietors and Occupiers of Lands and Buildings as aforesaid, and in making up their Verdict, the said Jury shall have right and they are hereby empowered to take under their Consideration all Circumstances, particularly the Advantages arising to the Proprietors and Occupiers by new or altered Roads; and in ascertaining the Value of the Fences which it may be necessary to pull down, the Jury shall have power to direct such Fences as may thereby become useless to be taken down and removed by the said Trustees, upon Payment of such Allowance for the same as the said Jury may determine; and it shall be optional to the Proprietors and Occupiers, either to accept of the Allowance so awarded, or to retain the Materials of the said Fences for their own private Use; and after a Verdict is pronounced as aforesaid, the said Sheriff or Steward is hereby required to adjudge Payment of the Value and Amount of the Loss or Damage awarded to the Persons having a Right thereto, and upon Payment being made by the said Trustees of the same, or Consignation of such Sums in the Bank of Scotland, or Royal Bank of Scotland, or Bank of the British Linen Company of Scotland, to the order of the said Trustees, such Trustees shall have a Right to take the said Lands and Buildings; and the said Proceedings and Orders of the said Sheriff or Steward shall be final, and not be subject to Review by Adversion or Suspension, or by Reduction to or by any Court whatever, any Law or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

LX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in the Event that such Jury shall award a greater Compensation than the Trustees shall have offered, but less than the Proprietor or Occupier shall have required, the Expenses of the Proceedings shall be borne by such Trustees and the said Proprietor or Occupier equally, but in case the said Jury shall award to such Proprietor or Occupier the Sum so required, or any greater Sum, the whole of the said Expense shall be paid by such Trustees; and on the other Hand, if the said Jury shall award the Sum offered by such Trustees, or a less Sum, the whole

LXVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Money shall be agreed or awarded to be paid for any Lands, Tenements or Heritages, purchased, taken, or used by virtue of the Powers of this Act, or any Turnpike Act, for the Purpose of any Turnpike Road, or for the Purpose of being added in any Minister's Globe as hereinafter directed, which are held under Rental, or are subject to Life-rent, Annuities or other Incumbrances, or shall belong to any Incorporation, married Woman, Infant, Lunatic or Person or Persons under any legal Disability or Incapacity, such Money shall, in case the same shall amount to the Sum of Two hundred Pounds Sterling, under the Direction and by the Authority of the Court of Session, be with all convenient Speed paid into the Bank of Scotland, or Royal Bank of Scotland, or Bank of the British Linen Company, to the intent that such Money shall be applied, under the Direction and with the Approbation of the said Court, to be invested by an Order made upon a Petition to be preferred in a summary way by the Person or Persons who would have been entitled to the Rents and Profits of the said Lands, Tenements or Heritages, in the Redemption or Purchase of the Land Tax, or discharge of any Debt or Debts, or such other Incumbrance or Part thereof as the said Court shall authorize to be paid, affecting the said Lands, Tenements or Heritages, or affecting other Lands, Tenements or Heritages standing settled therewith, to the same or the like Uses, Intents or Purposes; or where such Money shall not be so applied, then the same shall be laid out and invested, under the like Direction and Approbation of the said Court, in the Purchase of other Lands, Tenements or Heritages, which shall be conveyed and settled to, for and upon such and the like Uses, Intents and Purposes, in the same Manner as the Lands, Tenements or Heritages which shall be so purchased, taken or used as aforesaid, should be settled or leased, or such of them as at the Time of making such Conveyance and Settlement

shall be existing undetermined and capable of taking effect; and in the meantime and until such Purchase shall be made, the Interest or annual Produce of such Money shall from Time to Time be paid, by Order of the said Court, to the Person or Persons who would for the Time being have been entitled to the Rents and Profits of the Lands, Tenements and Heritages so hereby directed to be purchased, in case such Purchase or Settlement were made.

LXVII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Money so agreed or awarded to be paid for any Lands, Tenements or Heritages so purchased, taken or used for the Purposes aforesaid, and belonging to any Incorporation, or to any Person or Persons under Disability or Incapacity as aforesaid, shall be less than the Sum of Two hundred Pounds Sterling, and not less than the Sum of Twenty Pounds Sterling, then and in all such Cases the same shall, at the Option of the Person or Persons for the Time being entitled to the Rents and Profits of the Heritages so purchased, taken or used, or of his, her or their Tutors or Custars, in case of Infancy or Lunacy, to be signified in Writing under their respective Hands, under the like Direction and Authority, be paid into either of the said Banks, and be placed to his or their Account as aforesaid, in order to be applied in manner hereinafter directed; or otherwise the same shall be paid at the like Option to Two Trustees to be nominated by the Person or Persons making such Option, and approved of by Three or more of the Trustees of the Turbidge Head or Heads on account of which such Money shall have been agreed or awarded to be paid, (such Nominations and Approbation to be signified in Writing under the Hands of the nominating or approving Parties,) in order that such principal Money, and the Interest arising therefrom, may be applied in any Manner hereinafter directed, so far as the Case be applicable.

LXVIII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That where such Money so agreed or awarded to be paid as last before mentioned shall be less than Twenty Pounds Sterling, then and in all such Cases the same shall be applied to the Use of the Person or Persons who would for the Time being have been entitled to the Rents and Profits of the Heritages so purchased, taken or used for the Purposes of this Act, in such Manner as such Trustees of any Turbidge Head as aforesaid, or any Two or more of them, shall think fit; or in case of Infancy or Lunacy, then to his, her or their Tutors and Custars, to and for the Use and Benefit of such Person or Persons so entitled respectively.

LXIX. And be it further enacted, That in case any Person or Persons to whom any Sum or Sums of Money shall be awarded for the Purchase of any Lands, Tenements or Heritages, to be purchased by virtue of this Act, shall refuse to accept the same, or shall not be able to make a good Title to the Freehold to the Satisfaction of the said Trustees, or in case such Person or Persons to whom such Sum or Sums of Money shall be so awarded as aforesaid cannot be found, or if the Person or Persons entitled to such Lands, Tenements or Heritages be not known or discovered, then and in every such Case it shall and may be lawful to and for such Trustees of any Turbidge Head or Heads as aforesaid, or any Two or more of them, to order the said Sum or Sums of Money so awarded as aforesaid, to be paid into the Bank of Scotland, or Royal Bank of Scotland, or Bank of the British Linen Company, to the Credit of the Parties interested in the said Lands, Tenements or Heritages (describing them), subject to the Order, Control and Disposition of the Court of Session; which said Court, on the Application of any Person or Persons making claim to such Sum or Sums of Money, or any Part thereof, by Petition, shall be and is hereby empowered, in a summary way of Proceeding or otherwise, as to the same Court shall seem meet, to order the same to be laid out and invested in the Public Funds, and to order Distribution thereof, or Payment of the Dividends thereof, according to the respective Estate or Estates, Title or Interest of the Person or Persons making claim thereunto, and to make such other Order in the Premises as to the said Court shall seem just and reasonable; and the Cashier or Cashiers of the Bank of Scotland, or Royal Bank of Scotland, or Bank of the British Linen Company, who shall receive such Sum or Sums of Money, it and are hereby required to give a Receipt or Receipts for such Sum or Sums of Money, mentioning and specifying for what and for whom the same is or are received; to such Person or Persons as shall pay any such Sum or Sums of Money into the Bank as aforesaid.

LXX. And be it further enacted, That where any Question shall arise touching the Title of any Person to any Money to be paid into the said Banks in pursuance of this Act, for the Purchase of any Lands, Tenements or Heritages, or of any Estate, Right or Interest in any Lands, Tenements or Heritages, to be purchased in pursuance thereof, the Person or Persons who shall have been in Possession of such Lands, Tenements or Heritages, at the Time of such Purchase, and all Persons claiming under such Person or Persons, or under the Possession of such Person or Persons, shall be deemed and taken to have been lawfully entitled to such Lands, Tenements or Heritages, according to such Possession, until the contrary shall be shewn to the Satisfaction of the said Court of Session; and such Money, and the Interest thereof, shall be paid, applied and disposed of accordingly, unless it shall appear to the said Court that such Possession was a wrongful Possession, and that some other Person or Persons was or were lawfully entitled to such Lands, Tenements or Heritages, or to some Estate or Interest therein.

LXXI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where by reason of any Disability or Incapacity of the Person or Corporation entitled to any Lands or Heritages to be purchased under the Authority of any Turbidge Act or of this Act, the Purchase Money for the same shall be required to be paid into the said Banks, and so be applied in the Purchase of other Lands or Heritages to be settled in the like Manner in pursuance of this Act, it shall be lawful for the said Court to order the Expenses of all Purchases from time to time to be made in pursuance of this Act, or so much of such Expenses as the said Court shall deem reasonable, together with the necessary Expenses of obtaining such Order, to be paid paid by the said Trustees out of the Purchase Money of the Lands or Heritages acquired by them, who shall from time to time pay such Sums of Money for such Purposes as the said Court shall direct.

LXXII. And he it further enacted, That in altering the Course of any Turnpike Road, or widening the same, it shall be in the Power of the Trustees of such Road to cause the same to be carried through any Minister's Glebe, Fifteen Days' previous Notice of their Intention so to do being given to the Minister of the Parish, and the Clerk of the Presbytery of the Bounds: Provided always, that such Quantity of Ground shall be laid to the Glebe lying most contiguous and convenient thereto, as shall be a sufficient Compensation for that taken for the said Road; which Grounds such Trustees shall have Power to purchase from the contiguous Proprietor or Occupier, who shall in like Manner be empowered and bound to sell such Land, whether the same be under Endow or otherwise; and in case of any Difference with regard to the Amount of such Compensation, or the Price to be paid to such Proprietor or Occupier, Application shall be made to the Sheriff or Steward of the Shire or Stewartry, who shall summon a Jury, and determine the same, in like Manner as is heretofore directed in regard to Lands to be taken for the Purpose of altering or widening Turnpike Roads; and upon such Determination, and upon Payment being made by such Trustees of such Price to the Proprietor or Occupier of the Ground, or Compensation thereof in any of the said Books, such Trustees shall from thenceforth have a Right to cause the Addition to be made to the Glebe, and to take and use the Part of the Glebe necessary for the Purpose of altering or widening such Roads; and the Proceedings and Order of the said Sheriff or Steward shall be final and conclusive, and shall not be reversible in any other Court by Addition, Suspension or Reduction, or otherwise.

LXXIII. Provided always, and he it declared and enacted, That in every Case where it may be necessary to exchange or take Ground as heretofore allowed for the Purposes of Turnpike Roads, or for making a Compensation for Glebes, the same shall not affect, alter or diminish the valued Rent of the Lands from which such Ground shall be so taken.

LXXIV. And he it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for the Trustees of any Turnpike Road, in altering or directing the Course of the Turnpike Road under their Care and Management, to deviate over any inclosed Lands or Grounds more than One hundred Yards from the Line or Course of such Turnpike Road, or to take down or remove any Dwelling House or other Building, the Side Walls of which exceed Twenty Feet in Height, or to take in or make use of any Policy, Orchard, Garden, the Contents of which exceed Half an Acre, Lawn, planted Walk or Avenue to a House, or any inclosed Ground planted as an Ornament or Shelter to a House, without the Consent in Writing of the Owner thereof, or of his Agent or Factor: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be deemed, taken or construed to extend to erecks, lease, abridge, alter or vary any Powers or Authorities contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament existing and in force at the passing of this Act for making, altering, or directing any Turnpike Road or the Course thereof, to be made or directed and maintained under the Authority of such Acts, but the same Powers and Authorities shall and may be used, exercised and carried into Effect by the Trustees appointed by such Acts, fully and effectually, any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

LXXV. And he it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Trustees of every Turnpike Road, or any Person authorized by them, to search for, dig and carry away Materials for making or repairing such Turnpike Road, and the Footpaths thereof, or building or repairing any Toll House, Bridge or any other Work connected with such Road, from any Common Land or Waste, without paying any thing for such Materials, and to carry away the same through the Ground of any Person, without being deemed a Trespasser, such Trustees and other Persons filling up the Pits or Quarries, leveling the Grounds wherefrom such Materials shall be taken, or fencine off such Pits or Quarries, so that the same shall not be dangerous to any Person or Cattle, and paying for or tendering the Damage done by going through and over any inclosed or Arable Lands for or with such Materials, such Damages to be ascertained as heretofore mentioned; and also that it shall be lawful for such Trustees and other Persons to search for, dig and carry away any such Materials, in or out of the Land of any Person where the same may be found, within any Parish in which any Part of the Turnpike Road is situate, or in any adjoining Parish, such Materials not having been dug or raised for the private Use of the Owner of such Land, and such Land not being an Orchard, Garden, Lawn, Policy, Nursery for Trees, planted Walk or Avenue to any House, nor any inclosed Ground planted as an Ornament or Shelter to a House, and unless where Materials have been taken by the said Trustees previous to the passing of this Act, making or tendering such Satisfaction for Stones taken from Quarries for Hire, and for the Surface Damage done to the Owner or Occupier of the Lands from whence the same shall be dug and carried away, or over which the same shall be carried, as such Trustees shall judge reasonable; and also to lead as and carry through or over any inclosed Lands, (not being a Garden, Lawn, planted Walk, Policy, Orchard, Avenue to a House or Nursery for Trees, nor any inclosed Ground planted as an Ornament or Shelter to a House,) or over any open uninclosed Land, or any Common, any Materials for making or repairing any such Road, or for building or repairing any Toll House, Bridge or other Work connected with such Road, paying or tendering for the Damage done in landing on or going over any inclosed Lands for or with such Materials, such Sums of Money as such Trustees shall judge reasonable; and in case such Trustees, and the Proprietor and Occupier of such Lands, shall differ as to the Amount of such Payments and Damages as aforesaid, the Sheriff, Steward or Two Justices of the Peace for the Shire or Stewartry wherein the Place from whence such Materials shall have been taken, or on which the same shall have been loaded or carried, shall be sworn, on Three Days' Notice thereof being given in Writing, by either Party to the other, shall hear and determine the Amount of such Payments and Damages, and the Expenses attending the same.

LXXVI. And be it further enacted, That when the Materials for making or repairing any Turnpike Road cannot elsewhere be got within a reasonable Distance from the same, it shall be lawful for any Trustee or Person acting under the Authority of any Turnpike Act, or of this Act, to search for, dig and carry away any Materials for making or repairing any Turnpike Road, or for building or repairing any Toll House, Bridge or other Work connected with any Turnpike Road, out of any (included or Arable Land, or from the Sea Shore, or out of any River or Watercourse, Notice in Writing, signed by Two Trustees, having been given to the Proprietor or Occupier of the Land or of the Lands on each Side of any River or Watercourse from which it is intended to take such Materials, or his or her known Agent, or left at the usual Place of Abode of such Proprietor or Occupier, to appear before any Two Justices of the Peace acting for the Shire or Stewartry where the said Lands, River or Watercourse shall be situated, and if such River or Watercourse is the Boundary of Two Shires or Stewartries, then before Two Justices of either Shire or Stewartry, to show Cause why such Materials should not be had therefrom; and in case such Proprietor, Agent or Occupier shall attend pursuant to such Notice, but shall not show sufficient Cause to the contrary, such Justices may authorize such Trustees, or other Persons, to search for, dig and carry away such Materials, at such Time as to such Justices shall seem proper; and if such Proprietor, Agent or Occupier shall neglect or refuse to appear, such Justices may (upon Proof on Oath of the Service of such Notice) make such Order therein as they shall think fit, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if such Proprietor, Occupier or Agent had attended; and the Order of such Justices shall be final and conclusive.

LXXVII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Trustees of any Turnpike Road to purchase, feu or rent any Land for the Purpose of getting Materials for the Repair or Use of any Turnpike Road, and at any Time afterwards to sell the Land so purchased by Public Auction, provided that the said Trustees shall dispose of the same in manner hereinbefore directed in respect to Land not wanted for the Purpose of any Turnpike Road.

LXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Person to take away any Materials which shall have been procured or provided or used for the Repair or Use of any Turnpike Road, or to take any Materials out of any Quarry which shall have been opened by any Turnpike Trustees for the Purpose of getting Materials for any Turnpike Road, so as to interrupt or interfere with the Workings carried on by such Trustees, and every Person so offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds; provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent the Owner of any Quarry to take and carry away Materials from the same for his own Use solely.

LXXIX. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Trustees of any Turnpike Road to make and keep in repair Footpaths on the Sides of the same, so making full Satisfaction to the Proprietor and Occupier of Ground taken for the same, when the Road shall exceed Twenty Feet in Width; and also to make a Road through the Grounds adjoining to any ruinous or narrow Part of any Turnpike Road, (not being the Site or Ground whereon any House stands, nor being a Garden, Lawn, Pleace, planted Walk or Avenue to any House, or any inclosed Ground planted and set apart as a Nursery for Trees,) to be made use of as a Public Highway, while the old Road is repairing or widening, making Recompense to the Proprietor and Occupier of such Grounds, for the Damages they may thereby sustain; and in case such Trustees and such Proprietor or Occupier shall differ as to the Amount of such Damages, it shall be lawful for the Sheriff, Steward or any Two Justices of the Peace for the Shire or Stewartry, on Three Days' Notice in Writing being given by either Party to the other, to determine the Damages to be paid to such Proprietor or Occupier, in manner hereinbefore directed.

LXXX. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Trustees of every Turnpike Road to make sufficient Side Drains on any such Road, with Power to conduct the Water therefrom into any adjoining Land, Ditch or Watercourse (such Land not being the Site of any House or Garden), in such Manner as shall be least injurious to the Proprietor or Occupier of such Land; the said Side Drains to be maintained at the Expense of the Trustees.

LXXXI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Trustees of every Turnpike Road to make sufficient Ditches along the Sides of any such Road, provided that if the Land is inclosed on the Side of such Turnpike Road, such Ditch shall be made on the Field Side of the Fence, and with Power to make proper Ditches and Outlets from the said Side Ditches through any Lands adjoining any such Turnpike Road (not being the Site of any House or Garden) in such Manner as shall be least injurious to the Proprietor or Occupier of such Land, and after such Side Ditches or other Ditches or Outlets are made, the Proprietor or Occupier of such Land (unless such Land be uninclosed and waste), shall be obliged in all Times thereafter to keep clear such Side Ditches, or other Ditches or Outlets, as well as all Ditches already made along the Sides of any Turnpike Road, when so required by the said Trustees or their Surveyors; and in case the Proprietor or Occupier shall neglect or refuse to cleanse such Side Ditches or other Ditches or Outlets when duly required by such Trustees or Surveyors, such Trustees or Surveyors shall have Power to cleanse such Side Ditches or other Ditches or Outlets, and levy the Expense thereof on the Proprietor or Occupier of such Grounds in manner as before: Provided by this Act imposed: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall prohibit any Proprietor or Occupier from submitting, to the Satisfaction of the Trustees, any other equally effectual Ditch or Outlet in place of that constructed by the Trustees.

An Act for the rebuilding of London Bridge, and for improving and making suitable Approaches thereto. [4th July 1823.]

29 G. 2. c. 40.
WHEREAS the Mayor, and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, Time out of Mind have had, exercised and ought to have accustomed themselves to have and exercise the Office of Build and Conservator of the Water of Fleet, from the Town of Staines, in the County of Middlesex, unto Ludlow Bridge, and from thence to Kewall otherwise Yealand otherwise Yeland, towards the Sea, and their Title to the said Office has been confirmed by divers Charters and Acts of Parliament; And Whereas the said Mayor, and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London are seized of or entitled to certain Messuages, Lands and Hereditaments in the City of London, and in the Counties of Surrey, Kent and Essex, (which are commonly called "The Bridge House Estates of the City of London,") as Trustees for maintaining and repairing London Bridge; and the Rents and Profits of the said Estates are received by the Wardens or Keepers of London Bridge, on account of the said Mayor, and Commonalty and Citizens, and are (subject to certain Charges thereon now existing) applicable to the Repair and Support of the said Bridge: And Whereas an Act was passed in the Twenty sixth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled An Act to improve, widen and enlarge the Passage over and through Ludlow Bridge; and the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, were thereby authorized and required to widen or enlarge One or more of the Arches of the said Bridge, as they should from time to time judge necessary and direct; and also from time to time to repair, assign and lay out and in what manner the Passage over and through the said Bridge should be widened, enlarged and rendered more safe and commodious: And Whereas in pursuance of the said Act Two of the Arches or Waterways of the said Bridge were converted into One; and the Passage over and through the said Bridge has been widened and improved: And Whereas an Act was passed in the Third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for the Removal of the Waterworks at London Bridge; And Whereas the great Fall of Water at certain Times of the Tide, occasioned by the large Stairways and numerous Piers of the said Bridge, renders the Navigation through the said Bridge dangerous and destructive to the Lives and Property of His Majesty's Subjects: And Whereas it is expedient that the said Bridge should be taken down, and that a new Bridge on a better Principle of Construction, should be erected upon or near to the Site of the present Bridge, and that convenient Approaches should be made thereto: And Whereas it is expedient that as large a Sum of Money should be raised on the Credit of the Rents and Profits of the Bridge House Estates, after appropriating thereto the Sum of Twelve thousand Pounds per Annum for the Purposes hereinafter mentioned, as the said Estates may prove to be adequate to bear the Charge of; and that the said Sum so to be raised, together with the Monies now invested in the Public Funds, and in the Hands of the said Wardens or Keepers of London Bridge, on account of the Rents and Profits of the said Estates, together with such other Sum or Sums of Money as may be advanced by the Lord High Treasurer of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in pursuance of this Act, should be applied in the Purposes hereinafter mentioned: But as the several Purposes aforesaid cannot be effected without the Aid of Parliament, may it please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; And be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commoners of the said City of London, in Common Council assembled, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to pull down and remove, or cause to be pulled down and removed, the said present Bridge, called Ludlow Bridge, and the Stairs and other Works belonging thereto, and to sell or cause to be sold the Materials of the said Bridge and Works to be pulled down and removed as aforesaid, or to retain such of them as they shall think proper for the Purposes of the new Bridge to be erected as hereinafter is mentioned; and the Monies to be produced by the Sale thereof (after deducting the Expenses of pulling down and removing the said Bridge and Works, and of such Sale or Sales,) shall be applied and disposed of for or towards the Costs and Expenses of erecting a new Bridge, in manner hereinafter mentioned.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commoners, in Common Council assembled, shall think it expedient that the new Bridge to be erected as hereinafter is mentioned should be built on the Western Side of the present Bridge, so as in order to be unnecessary to remove the present Bridge for the Purpose of erecting the same, then and in such Case the said present Bridge shall not be pulled down or removed as aforesaid, until after the Passage over the said new Bridge shall have been opened, but shall remain and be used in the mean Time as a temporary Bridge.

III. And be it further enacted, That in case the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commoners, in Common Council assembled, shall think it expedient that the said new Bridge should be erected on the Site of the present Bridge, or so near thereto as to render it necessary to remove the said present Bridge, or any Part thereof, for the Purpose of erecting the same, then and in such Case, before the said present Bridge shall be pulled down as aforesaid, or rendered impassable, the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commoners, in Common Council assembled, shall erect and build, or cause to be erected and built, and maintain or cause to be maintained, a temporary Bridge, with such Materials, upon such Construction and at such Place or Places, near to the present Bridge, as they shall judge to be most proper and convenient, and to open and make such Ways or Approaches thereto as they shall think proper; and when and so soon as the Passage over the new Bridge, to be erected as hereinafter is mentioned, shall be opened, they shall pull down and remove, or cause the said temporary Bridge to be pulled down and removed, and sell or cause to be sold the Materials thereof, and the Monies to be produced by the Sale thereof (after deducting the Expenses of pulling down and removing the said temporary Bridge, and of such Sale or Sales,) shall be applied and disposed of for or towards the Payment of the Costs and Expenses of building the said new Bridge.

IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commoners of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, and they are hereby authorised, empowered and directed without Delay, to erect and build, or cause to be erected and built, and complete, maintain and keep in repair a new Bridge across the said River Thames, upon the Site of the said present Bridge, or westward of the said present Bridge, within the Distance of One hundred and eighty Feet from the Western Side thereof, and to dig and make proper Foundations in the said River, and on the Lands and Grounds lying on each Side thereof, for the Piers and Abutments of the said Bridge, and to cut and level the Banks of the said River in such Manner as shall be necessary and proper for building the said Bridge, and to make proper Dams in the said River, and to execute all other Things, requests and necessary, useful or convenient, for erecting and building, maintaining and supporting the said Bridge; and that the said Bridge shall be erected and built of the best Granite Stone, and other marble Materials, with Five Arches, of such Height, Width and Dimensions as are shown by the Model and the Plans and Specifications, as far as they relate to the Construction of the Bridge itself, designed by the late John Rennie Esquire, Civil Engineer, as exhibited to the Committee of the House of Commons, and deposited at the Office of Works at the Guildhall of the City of London: Provided always, that if it shall appear to the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commoners of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, that any Abatement ought to be made in the Plan for the said Bridge, designed by the said John Rennie as aforesaid, or that a Bridge should be constructed upon any other Plan, and the same shall be approved by, and such Approval certified by Writing under the Hands of the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commoners of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, and they are hereby required to make such Abatement accordingly, and to build a Bridge upon such altered or other Plan as aforesaid.

V. And be it further enacted, That in order to make convenient and suitable Approaches to the said intended new Bridge, on both Sides of the said River, it shall be lawful for the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commoners, in Common Council assembled, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to design, lay out, widen, open and make, or cause to be designed, laid out, widened, opened and made, a spacious and convenient Street, Way or Passage, at each End of the said intended Bridge, and to lay out, or cause to be laid out, such Part thereof respectively for Carriages, and such Part for Foot Passengers as they shall think proper.

VI. And be it further enacted, That no Engineer shall be employed for the Superintendance of the said Works, nor any Contractor employed in the Execution of the same, nor any Surety taken for the due gager or Mortgagee, or other the Person or Persons entitled to the Redemption thereof, or to the same Possession subject thereto, shall, upon Payment or Tender of the Sum to be awarded or assessed as the Value of the Wharf, Warehouse, House, Buildings, Lands, Grounds, Tenements and Hereditaments, or Part or Parts thereof, to be purchased or taken as aforesaid, to such Mortgagee or Mortgagees, Person or Persons, entitled thereto, or into the Bank as aforesaid, forthwith, without any Consideration, convey, assign or release his, her or their Right, Equity of Redemption or Estate and Interest in such Wharf, Warehouse, House, Buildings, Lands, Grounds, Tenements and Hereditaments, or Part or Parts thereof, to the said Mayor, and Commonalty and Citizens, or to such Person or Persons as shall be appointed as aforesaid, and in Default of so doing shall be and are hereby barred and foreclosed from all Right or Equity of Redemption of and in the same Premises, and all the Estate, Right, Title, Interest, Property, Claim and Demand of him, her or them, and every Person and Persons, in Trust for him, her and them in the same Premises, shall vest in the said Mayor, and Commonalty and Citizens, and they shall be deemed to be in the actual Possession thereof to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

Consent of London empowered to pull down the present Bridge.

Proviso for present Bridge remaining until new Bridge completed.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That all and every Body and Bodies, Person and Persons, in the actual Possession of any Wharf, Warehouse, House, Buildings, Lands, Grounds, Tenements and Hereditaments, or any Part thereof, to be taken or purchased by virtue of this Act, as Owner, Leaseholder, Tenant at Will or Lessee for a Year, or for any shorter Time, or otherwise, shall at the Expiration of Six Calendar Months from and after the next Quarter Day, after Notice in Writing from the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty, in Common Council assembled, or their Agent duly authorized, shall have been left at or affixed upon the same Premises, or so soon after as he, she or they shall be required, peaceably and quietly deliver up the Possession of the said Premises to the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty, in Common Council assembled, or the Person or Persons authorized by them to take Possession thereof; and that in case any such Body or Bodies, Person or Persons, shall refuse to give up such Possession as aforesaid, then it shall be lawful for the said Court of Mayor and Aldermen to issue their Precept or Precepts to the Sheriff of the said City of London, or to the High Bailiff of the Borough of Southwark (as the Case may require), to deliver Possession of the Premises to such Person or Persons as shall in such Precept or Precepts be appointed to receive the same; and the said Sheriff or Bailiff are and is hereby required to deliver such Possession accordingly of the said Premises, and to levy such Costs as shall accrue from the issuing of such Precept or Precepts on the Person or Persons so refusing to give up such Possession as aforesaid, by Distress and Sale of his, her or their Goods.

XLV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case any Tenant at Will, or Lessee for a Year, of any such Wharf, Warehouse, House, Buildings, Lands, Grounds, Tenements, Hereditaments and Premises, or any Part or Parts thereof, shall by virtue of this Act deliver up the Possession of the same before the Expiration of the Time for which he would otherwise have been authorized to keep Possession thereof, then and in every or any such Case such Sum or Sums of Money shall be paid to such Tenant at Will or Lessee for a Year, in Satisfaction and Compensation for delivering up Possession of the same Premises, as shall be agreed upon between such Tenant at Will or Lessee for a Year, and the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty, in Common Council assembled; and in case such Tenant at Will or Lessee for a Year, and the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty, in Common Council assembled, shall not agree as to the Amount or Value of such Satisfaction or Compensation, then the same shall be ascertained and settled by the Verdict of a Jury in Manner hereinafter directed for ascertaining and settling the Value or Respective Value for Wharf, Warehouse, House, Buildings, Lands, Grounds, Tenements, Hereditaments and Premises, to be taken or purchased for the Purposes of this Act. Provided always, that in case any Tenant at Will or Lessee for a Year, who shall be entitled to Compensation and Satisfaction by virtue of this Act, shall be desirous of delivering up the Possession of the Premises in his or her Possession at the Expiration of Six Calendar Months next after the next Quarter Day after such Notice shall have been left or affixed upon the same Premises for that Purpose as aforesaid, notwithstanding he or she may not be then required so to do, then and in every such Case the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty, in Common Council assembled, shall immediately after the Expiration of the said Six Calendar Months, or as soon after as the same Sum or Sums of Money to be paid for Satisfaction or Compensation to such Tenant at Will or Lessee for a Year respectively shall be agreed upon or awarded, cause Possession to be taken of the same Premises, and the Sum or Sums of Money so to be agreed upon or awarded for Compensation as aforesaid, to be thereupon paid.

XLVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all Sums of Money or other Considerations, Respective or Satisfaction to be paid pursuant to any such Agreement or Verdict as aforesaid, shall be paid or tendered to the Party or Parties entitled to the same, or into the Bank of England, so herein mentioned, before the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty, in Common Council assembled, or any Person or Persons authorized by them, shall proceed to take Possession of or pull down any Wharf or Wharfs, Warehouse or Warehouses, House or Houses, or other Erections or Buildings, or to take the Ground or any other Tenements or Hereditaments comprised in or affected by such Agreement or Verdict respectively, or Part thereof, for any of the Purposes of this Act, except for landing, working and using Materials and Things as hereinafter mentioned, unless Leave shall be given for that Purpose in Writing by the Owners or Occupiers of such Wharf, Warehouse, House, Erection, Buildings, Lands, Grounds, Tenements or Hereditaments.

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty, in Common Council assembled, and they are hereby empowered to pull down or cause to be pulled

LIV. And be it further enacted, That the Grass Streets laid in the said Barial Crossed of the Parish of Saint Andrew shall be removed into and put up and laid in such new Barial Ground as aforesaid, in such Manner as the said Lord Bishop of London for the Time being, or such Person as he shall appoint, shall direct, and the Expence thereof defrayed by the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commoners, in Common Council assembled, out of the Monies to be advanced by virtue of this Act.

L.V. And be it further enacted, That in case and so often as at any Time hereafter any House or Building situate between Leicester Street in the said City of London, and Saint Margaret's Hill in the Borough, on the Western Side of Goodchurch Street, Fish Street Hill, or High Street, Southward, or any Street or Place leading into or adjoining the same, within Fifty Feet of the present Front of the Houses on the Western Side of the said Street or Ways respectively, shall be burnt down, or the same or more than One Third Part thereof shall be taken or pulled down for any Purpose whatsoever, or the Owner or Owners thereof shall be willing or agree to pull down the same, or a sufficient Part thereof, then and in any such Case it shall be lawful for the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commoners, in Common Council assembled, to take and lay open such Part of the Site thereof, and convert the same into Part of the said Street or Way as they shall think proper, for the Purpose of widening such Street or Way respectively, making Satisfaction to the Owner or Owners of such Houses or Buildings, in the same Manner as heretofore is directed in respect of the Hereditaments to be taken or purchased for the Purpose of this Act.

L.VI. And be it further enacted, That in case any Ground or Hereditaments which shall be taken, purchased and cleared, by virtue of this Act, shall not be laid into and form Part of the said Street or Ways, when widened and improved as aforesaid, then and in such Case it shall be lawful for the said Mayor and Commonalty, and Citizens of the said City of London, and they are hereby authorized and required, as soon as conveniently may be after the Houses and Buildings on such Ground and Hereditaments as aforesaid or short on the Avenues or Approaches to the said Bridge, or any other Ground or Hereditaments, except such Parts thereof of any sort may be appropriated for a new Barial Ground, which they shall think it expedient to let, shall be pulled down, by an Indenture or Indentures, under the Common Seal of the said City, to demise and lease all such Ground and Hereditaments, either altogether or in Parts, to any Person or Persons who shall erect and build, or convert and agree to erect and build thereon, or on any Part or Parts thereof, Houses, Erections and Buildings, of such Rate or Class, or respective Rates or Classes, of Buildings, upon such Plan and Elevation, or respective Plan and Elevation, of such Height or respective Heights, and with such Stories as the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commoners, in Common Council assembled, shall think proper, for any Term or Number of Years to determine at or before the Expiration of Sixty five Years from and after the passing of this Act, so as there be reserved in every such Demise or Lease such Yearly Rent or Rents, to be incident to the Immediate Reversion of the Premises therein comprized, as to the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commoners in Common Council assembled, shall seem reasonable, and so that in every such Demise or Lease there be contained a Covenant for the Payment of the Rent thereby to be reserved, and such other Covenants on the Part of the Tenant or Lessee, therein to be made, as the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commoners, in Common Council assembled, shall reasonably advise or require: and also a Clause in the Nature of a Condition of Rec-entry on Non Payment of the Rent thereby to be reserved, or on Non Performance of the Covenants therein to be contained on the Part of the Tenant or Lessee to be observed and performed; and that every such Tenant or Lessee shall give such good and sufficient Security for the meeting, finishing and completing of every such House, Erection and Building, which he shall covenant or agree to erect, within the Time in which he shall have contracted to finish the same, as the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commoners, in Common Council assembled, shall order and direct.

L.VII. And be it further enacted, That as soon as conveniently may be after the Houses, Erections and Buildings, to be erected and built as heretofore is mentioned, or any of these, shall be finished and completed, the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commoners, in Common Council assembled, shall and they are hereby authorized to sell and dispose of, or cause to be sold and disposed of, the Ground Rents to be reserved by the Lease or Demise, or Lease or Demises, in pursuance of, or in consideration of which the same Houses respectively shall have been erected and built, and also the Reversion and Inheritance in Fee Simple in Possession (subject to such Lease or Demise, or Lease or Demises) of the Premises or Parts of Ground therein demise, and such Houses and other Buildings thereon, either altogether or in Parts, by public Auction or private Contract, for such Price or Prices, or Sum or Sums of Money, as the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commoners, in Common Council assembled, shall think reasonable; and the said Mayor, and Commonalty and Citizens shall, and they are hereby empowered and required, at the Request, Costs and Charges of the Purchaser or Purchasers of the same Premises respectively, upon Payment of the Sum or Sums of Money agreed to be given for the same respectively, to the Chamberlain of the City of London for the Time being, to convey and assure the Piece or Pieces of Ground, or Pieces or Parts of Ground, so purchased by such Purchaser or Purchasers respectively, together with the Houses, Erections and Buildings, there erected and built thereon respectively, and the Fee Simple and Inheritance thereof, with the Appurtenances, to such Purchaser or Purchasers respectively, his, her or their Heirs and Assigns respectively, or as he or they respectively shall in that Behalf order or direct, free from all Incumbrances whatsoever (except the Building Lease or Building Leases to be granted thereof by virtue of this Act).

L.VIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful so and for the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commoners, in Common Council assembled, to sell and dispose of, and by Indenture under their Common Seal, absolutely to grant and convey such Part or Parts of the said Ground not adjoining to or abutting upon the said Avenues or Approaches, or any other Hereditaments, which shall be taken or purchased by virtue of this Act, as they shall think not proper to let or afterwards: Provided always, that the said Mayor, Aldermen and Common, as Common Council assembled, before they shall sell and dispose of such Ground or Hereditaments, as shall here be purchased or taken for the Purposes of this Act, or any Estate or Interest therein, shall first offer to sell the same to the Body or Bodies, Person or Persons, from whom they shall have purchased the same, for such Estate or Interest as such Person or Persons had therein, and sold to the said Mayor, or Aldermen and Common, in Common Council assembled, if such Person or Persons shall be known, or can be found, for a proportionate Price: and in case the said Mayor, Aldermen and Common, in Common Council assembled, and any such Person or Persons shall differ, and not agree as to the Price or Prices thereof, and such Person or Persons shall nevertheless signify his, her or their Desire to purchase the same, by a Notice in Writing, to be given or left at the Office of the said Comptroller of the Bridge House Estates, within Fourteen Days after such Offer, at a Price to be adjusted and settled by a Jury, to be summoned, as in Cases of Purchase made by the said Mayor, Aldermen and Common, in Common Council assembled, as herein mentioned, namely, such Notice shall be deemed an actual Contract for Purchase of the said Premises, as against the Party or Parties giving the same, at the Price which shall be adjusted and settled by such Jury: and in case such Person or Persons shall not be known and cannot be found, or shall not agree to repurchase such aforesaid Interest therein, or shall not give such Notice of his, her or their Intention of purchasing the same within Fourteen Days after such Offer, or in case the Owner or Owners of the Premises purchased were not known or known at the Time that the same were taken for the Purposes of this Act, then and in every such Case, an Affidavit being made and sworn before a Master or a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery, or before One of the Aldermen of the said City of London, by some competent Person or Persons, stating that such Person or Persons were not known and could not be found, or that such Offer was made by or on the Behalf of the said Mayor, Aldermen and Common, in Common Council assembled, and was not then and thereupon agreed to by the Person or Persons to whom the same was so made, and that such Notice as aforesaid was given, or that the Owner or Owners thereof were unknown when the same Premises were purchased (as the Case may be), shall in all Courts be sufficient Evidence and Proof that such Person or Persons were not known or could not be found, or that such Offer was made and not agreed to by the Person or Persons to whom it was made, and that such Notice as aforesaid was not given, or that the Owner or Owners were unknown when the Premises were purchased (as the Case may be).

LIX. And be it further enacted, That the Receipt or Receipts of the said Chamberlain or his lawful Clerk, for any Purchase Monies, Rents or Prebts, or other Sums or Sums of Money payable unto him by virtue of this Act, shall be a sufficient and effectual Discharge, or sufficient and effectual Discharge for the Money in such Receipt or Receipts expressed or acknowledged to be received: and that the Purchaser or Purchasers to whom the same respectively shall be given shall not afterwards be answerable or accountable for the Misapplication, or Nonapplication, or for in any wise obliged or constrained to see to the Application of the Money in such Receipt or Receipts expressed or acknowledged to be received.

LX. And be it further enacted, That any of the Monies to be paid into the Bank of England as Satisfaction or Compensation for any Wharfs, Warehouses, Houses, Buildings, Lands, Grounds, Tenements or Hereditaments, taken or used for the Purposes of this Act, which belong to the said Mayor, and Commonalty and Citizens in their own Right, or are seated in them as Part of the said Bridge House Estates as heretofore is mentioned, shall and may be laid out and availed under the Direction and Approbation of the said Court of Chancery, in Manner herebefore directed, in the Purchase of the Grand Roads and Hevertons, Ground and Hereditaments authorized to be sold, as lastly heretofore is mentioned, or any of them.

LXI. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Sums and Sums of Money which shall be received by the said Chamberlain from any Sale or Sales heretofore directed to be made, and also the Rents (if any) which shall be received from all the said Pieces or Parcels of Ground, so to be demised as aforesaid, or any of them, and the same shall be sold, shall (after Payment of the Costs and Expenses of the said Sale or Sales which are hereby directed to be paid thereout) be applied in paying off the Monies to be advanced by virtue of this Act, as heretofore is mentioned, or may be invested in Aid and Augmentation of the Sinking Fund intended to be established by and with the Roadside or Surplus of the Yearly Sums of Twelve thousand Pounds, and such additional Sums, if any, as is heretofore required to be set apart in the same Manner as heretofore is directed concerning the same, or may be applied to any other the Purposes of this Act.

LXII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Customs and Excise of England, Ireland and Scotland respectively, and with the Consent and under the Authority in Writing of the Lord High Treasurer of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or for any Three or more of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being respectively, to make all or any Provisions of the Duties of Customs or Excise respectively, or to order the same to be drawn back or repaid, for, upon or in respect of any Stone, Bricks, Timber or other Materials, which shall be used for the Procure and used to the building of the said Bridge and Appurtenances, under the Provisions of this Act: and such Duties shall in every such Case be remitted, drawn back or repaid, as the Case may be, under such Rules, Regulations and Restrictions, and in such Manner as shall be ordered and directed provided to and by any Order which may be made: Provided always that the said Person shall be made.

LXXXII. And be it further enacted, That there shall be Yearly laid before each House of Parliament a true Copy of the Receipts and Application of the Sums of Money which shall be raised and advanced respectively by virtue of this Act, and of the said Sinking Fund and the Accruals thereof, and the Sums or Sums of Money (if any) paid off and discharged by and out of the same.

LXXXIII. Provided always, nevertheless, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained, nor any Mortgage, Bond, Note or Security, to be given by the said Mayor, and Commonalty and Citizens, for the Payment of any Sum or Sums of Money, to be raised or borrowed by virtue of this Act, and Interest thereon, or any Annuities to be granted in respect thereof, shall extend or be deemed or construed to extend to render the said Mayor, and Commonalty and Citizens, or their Successors, or their Estates, Heirs and Executors, subject or liable to the Payment of any Sum or Sums of Money, Interest or Annuities, secured or granted as heretofore is mentioned, or any Costs, Charges and Expenses, occasioned by the Nonpayment thereof, in case the Inter and Profits on the Credit of which the same Sums of Money respectively shall have been raised or granted shall happen to become insufficient; and that the said Mayor, and Commonalty and Citizens, and their Successors, shall not be liable to any Action or Suit in respect of any Mortgage, Bond, Note or Security, to be given by them as aforesaid, excepting in case of Misapplication of any Sum or Sums of Money to be received by them by virtue of this Act, as heretofore is expressed; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

LXXXIV. And be it further enacted, That the said Mayor, and Commonalty and Citizens, and their Successors, and all Persons acting under their Direction or Authority, shall not be subject or liable to any Action, Suit, Indictment, Claim or Demand whatsoever, for or in respect or on account of any Damage or Injury which may arise to any Person or Persons, Body or Bodies, or his or their Houses, Lands, Estates, Vessels or Property, by reason or on account of the increased Rise of the Tide of the said River above the said Bridge, or the Alteration of the Channels or Currents of the said River, or of the Want of Water for navigating the same, nor for or by reason or on account of any other Matter or Thing occasioned by the Removal of the said present Bridge, nor to any Indictment, Action, Suit, Claim and Demand whatsoever, for any Nuisance, Obstruction or Injury, on account of the said Bridge, Approach or other the Works to be executed under or by virtue of this Act, remaining unfinished, in case the Sums or Sums of Money to be raised and advanced by virtue of this Act shall be insufficient to complete the same.

LXXXV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commoners, in Common Council assembled, from time to time to appoint One or more Committees or Committees to manage and transact all or any of the Matters or Purposes which they the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commoners, in Common Council assembled, are hereby required to do, execute or perform, which Committee or Committees shall have such or so many of the Powers and Authorities by this Act given to the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commoners, in Common Council assembled, as the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commoners, in Common Council assembled, shall think fit or proper to delegate to such Committee or Committees.

LXXXVI. Provided nevertheless, and be it further enacted, That if any Person, being a Member of the said Committee, shall be directly or indirectly interested or concerned in any Contract which shall be made or entered into, by or on Behalf of such Committee, for or concerning any of the Works to be performed or done in pursuance of this Act, or for or concerning any Materials to be used or employed therein, every such Contract shall be void; and the Person who, being a Member of such Committee, shall be so interested or concerned, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of One hundred Pounds to any Person or Persons who shall sue for the same, to be recovered in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plea or Information, to be commenced within Six Calendar Months next after the Offence committed, in which Action or Suit respectively no Protection, Escoign or Waiver of Law, or more than One Imparance shall be allowed.

LXXXVII. And be it further enacted, That the said Committee or Committees shall and may, and they are hereby authorized and empowered from time to time to employ any fit Person or Persons, whether free of the said City or not, in or about any of the Works, Matters or Things which they shall cause to be performed or done by virtue or in pursuance of this Act, and to contract for the Doing and Performance of such Works, Matters and Things, or any of them, with any Person or Persons, in such Manner as the said Committee or Committees shall think fit; and that no Person or Persons who shall be so employed or contracted with is, about or for any of the Purposes of this Act, nor any Person or Persons to be set to work by or under them, or any of them, shall, for any Act done or to be done in or about the Premises, be subject or liable to be said for any Breach of the Customs of London, or for any Penalty inflicted by any Bye Law of the said City.

them, to the House of Correction for the said City, there to be kept to hard Labour for any Time not exceeding Six Calendar Months, and such Offender or Offenders shall not be discharged before the Expiration of the Time for which he, she or they shall be committed, unless such Forfeiture and Satisfaction shall be sooner paid and given, and if any Person shall negligently or accidentally break, throw down or otherwise damage, take away or waste any of the said Lamps or Oil, or any of the Posts, Irons or other Furniture thereof, and shall not upon Demand make Satisfaction to the said Mayor, and Commonalty and Citizens, or to their Surveyor, for the Damage by such Person so done, it shall be lawful for any Alderman of the said City, and he is hereby required, upon any Complaint to be made thereof, to summon the Party complained of, and upon his or her Appearance, or making Default to appear, (Oath being made that the Party complained of was served with such Summons, or that the same was left at his, her or their Dwelling House or Place of Abode, if known, or that he or she could not be found) such Alderman shall proceed to examine the Matter of the said Complaint, and upon Proof thereof, either by the Confession of the Party complained of, or by the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, shall award and order such Satisfaction to be made by the Party complained of, and for the Damage to done by him, her or them, as to such Alderman shall appear just and reasonable, and shall cause the Sum so awarded in case the same shall not be paid forthwith, upon the making of such Award, to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Offender, rendering to him or her the Overplus (if any be), upon Demand, after the Charges of prosecuting such Complaint, and of such Distress and Sale, shall be deducted; and in case sufficient Distress cannot be found, such Alderman may cause the Party complained of to any Goal or House of Correction for the City of London, for any Time not exceeding Six Calendar Months, or until he or she shall pay the Sum so awarded, together with the Costs and Charges as aforesaid.

XCIII. And he it further enacted, That the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commoners, in Common Council assembled, or such Committee or Committees as aforesaid, are hereby empowered from time to time, if they see Occasion, to appoint such Number of fit and able bodied Men as they shall think proper, to be armed and clothed in such Manner as the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commoners, in Common Council assembled, shall direct, to be employed as Watchmen, Guards or Patrols, either on Foot or Horseback, upon the said Bridge, or temporary Bridge (if any), and to appoint any Person or Persons to be Superintendants or Superintendentss thereof, and from time to time remove any of the said Superintendants, Watchmen, Guards or Patrols, and to appoint others in their Room, and from time to time to make such Rules, Orders and Regulations for the better governing the Superintendants, Watchmen, Guards or Patrols, and for the watching and guarding the said Bridge, and keeping the Peace thereon, as the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commoners, in Common Council assembled, or such Committee or Committees as aforesaid, shall think proper.

XCIV. And he it further enacted, That the Superintendants, Watchmen, Guards and Patrols, shall use their best Endeavours to prevent Fires, Murders, Burglaries, Robberies, Disturbances, Obstructions, Stoppages, Breaches of the Peace and all Outrages, Misdemeanours and Disorders on or near to the said Bridge, and to this End are hereby jointly and severally empowered and required, without further Warrant, to arrest, apprehend and detain in the Watchhouse of the Ward of Bridge, or in any other Watchhouse or convenient Place, (whichever provided or appointed by the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commoners, in Common Council assembled, or such Committee or Committees as aforesaid, or otherwise,) all Malefactors, Rogues, Vagabonds and other disorderly and suspicious Persons, who shall be found committing any Disorder or Offence, or loitering, wandering or idly or negligently obstructing the Passage, or misbehaving themselves, or when the said Superintendants, Watchmen, Guards and Patrols shall have just cause or reason to suspect of any evil Design, and the Person or Persons so apprehended to convey as soon as conveniently may be, before One or more of the said Aldermen of the said City, to be examined and dealt with according to Law.

XCV. And he it further enacted, That the Costs and Charges of erecting and maintaining the said Lamp Posts, Lamp Posts and Lamps, and the Purchase thereof, and of supplying, mending and repairing the same, and of keeping the same lighted as aforesaid, and also the Salaries, Wages and Expenses of such Superintendants, Watchmen, Guards or Patrols as aforesaid, and of watching the said Bridge, shall be defrayed and paid out of the Estates and Revenues belonging to the said Bridge.

XCVI. And Whereas by reason of pulling down Houses and Buildings in pursuance of this Act, there may be Deficiencies in the Produce of Watching, Paving, Cleansing and Lighting Rates, and the Land Tax, within the Ward of Bridge, and within the Parishes of Saint Andrew and Saint Olive, in the Town and Borough of Southwark: Be it therefore further enacted, That after the Occupier or Occupiers of any of the Houses and Buildings in the said Ward, and Town and Borough respectively, to be taken down for the Purposes of this Act, shall have quitted the Possession thereof, in pursuance of any Notice or Notices to be left at or affixed upon the same Premises as aforesaid, and until the whole of the Houses and Buildings intended to be built in the said Ward, and Town, and Borough or Parish respectively, upon the Ground fronting the Streets to be made or altered as aforesaid, shall be completed and occupied, the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commoners, in Common Council assembled, shall, out of the Monies to be applied for the Purposes of this Act, pay and make good all such Sum and Sums of Money as shall from time to time be deficient in respect to the Produce of the Assessment for the Watching and Paving, Cleansing and Lighting Rates, and Land Tax, within the said Ward, and in the said Town and Borough, or Parish respectively, by reason or reasons of the Alterations arising from the Want of Occupiers in, or the taking down of the said several Houses and Buildings respectively, to be completed according to the Proviso of each several or the like Rates and Assessments, as near as the Nature of the Case will admit, in such Ward, and in the said Town and Borough or Parish respectively, from the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty two to the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty three; and the same shall be accordingly paid to the several Collectors of the said Rates and Taxes, and such Sums and Sums of Money to be paid and made good as aforesaid shall diminish in proportion to the Value of the Houses and Buildings which from time to time shall be erected and occupied.

XCVII. And Whereas by reason of pulling down the Houses and Buildings aforesaid, and making the Alterations aforesaid, in pursuance of this Act, there may be Deficiencies in the Produce of the Church and Poor's Rates in the United Parishes of Saint Magnus and Saint Margaret, London, and the respective Parishes of Saint Saviour and Saint Olave, Southwark: Be it therefore further enacted, That after the Occupier or Occupers of any of the said Houses and Buildings in any of the said Parishes respectively to be taken down for the Purposes of this Act, shall have quitted the Possession thereof, in pursuance of any Notice or Notices to be left at or affixed upon the same Premises as aforesaid, and until the whole of the Houses and Buildings intended to be built in the said Parishes respectively upon the Ground fronting the Street so to be made or altered as aforesaid shall be completed and occupied, the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commoners, in Common Council assembled, shall out of the said Money to be applied for the Purposes of this Act pay and make good all such Sums and Sums of Money as shall from time to time be deficient in respect to the Produce of the Assessments for Church and Poor's Rates within such Parishes respectively, by reason or means of the Alterations arising from the Want of Occupiers in, or the taking down of the said several Houses and Buildings situated in such Parishes respectively, according to the Produce of such several Rates and Assessments respectively, in such Parishes respectively, from the said Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty two to the said Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, and the same shall be accordingly paid to the several Collectors of the said Rates, and such Sums and Sums of Money to be paid and made good as aforesaid shall diminish in proportion to the Value of the Houses and Buildings which from time to time shall be erected and occupied.

Compensation for Deficiencies in Parishes of Saint Magnus and Saint Margaret

XCVIII. And for indemnifying the Rectors of the respective Churches of the said United Parishes of Saint Magnus and Saint Margaret, and the respective Parishes of Saint Saviour and Saint Olave, and their respective Successors for the Time being, against such Loss as might otherwise accrue to them respectively by reason of taking down the said Houses and Buildings: Be it enacted, That after the Occupier or Occupers of any of the said Houses and Buildings in the same Parishes respectively, to be taken down for the Purposes of this Act, shall have quitted the Possession thereof in pursuance of this Act as aforesaid, or in pursuance of any Notice or Notices to be left at or affixed upon the same Premises as aforesaid, and until the whole of the Houses and Buildings intended to be built in such Parishes respectively, upon the Ground fronting the Streets so to be made or altered as aforesaid, shall be completed and occupied, the Tithes or Yearly Sums of Money, or customary Payments in lieu of Tithes and Rectory Rates charged respectively, on such Houses or Buildings as shall be quitted as aforesaid for the Purposes of this Act, and all Arrears and growing Payments thereof, or Annual Sums of Money equal to the Loss in Tithes, or Sums of Money or customary Payments in lieu of Tithes, or Rectory Rates, which the said Rectors of the said Parishes respectively may sustain by the Want of Occupiers in or taking down of such Houses and Buildings respectively, shall be paid and payable out of the Moneys to be applied to the Purposes of this Act to the respective Rectors of the said Parishes respectively, and their respective Successors for the Time being, clear of all Taxes and Deductions, at the First next usual Feast or Days of Payment on every Year, (that is to say) the Twenty fifth Day of March, the Twenty fourth Day of June, the Twenty sixth Day of September, and the Twenty fifth Day of December, by equal Payments in every Year, the first Payment thereof respectively to be made on each of the said Feast Days or Days of Payment as shall first and next happen after the Occupier or Occupiers of any of such Houses or Buildings, in such Parishes respectively, or any Part or Parts thereof, shall have quitted the same as aforesaid, together with all Arrears; and such Sums and Sums of Money to be paid and made good as aforesaid shall diminish in proportion to the Value of the Houses and Buildings which from time to time shall be erected and occupied.

Compensation for Tithes, and Houses, &c. as aforesaid.

XCIX. And be it further enacted, That in every or any Case in which by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament, Law or Custom, the present London Bridge is a boundary to the Extent of any Jurisdiction, Authority, District, Liberty or Privilege on the River Thames, the new Bridge intended to be built as aforesaid shall be the Boundary, and define the Limits thereof in the same Manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as the present Bridge would have done, if the same had not been pulled down.

New Bridge to mark the Extent of Jurisdiction.

C. And be it further enacted, That the Northern Half of the said intended Bridge, extending from the Abutment to the Centre thereof, shall be and be deemed to be in the said Parish of Saint Magnus, and that the Southern Half of the said intended Bridge, extending from the Abutment to the Centre thereof, shall, if all of the said Abutment shall be in the Parish of Saint Olave, or the Part thereof in that Parish shall be greater than the Part thereof in the Parish of Saint Saviour, be and be deemed to be in the Parish of Saint Olave; but if all the said Abutment shall be in the Parish of Saint Saviour, or the Part thereof in that Parish shall be greater than the Part thereof in the said Parish of Saint Olave, then the same shall be and be deemed to be in the said Parish of Saint Saviour.

New Bridge to be in Parishes in which Abutments stand.

CII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall draw or cause to be drawn upon the said Bridge any Tree or Piece of Timber, or any Stone, otherwise than upon Wheel Carriages, or shall suffer any Part of any Tree or Piece of Timber which shall be conveyed upon any Wheel Carriage to fall upon any Part of the said Bridge to the Prejudice thereof; every such Person shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Ten Shillings.

CIII. And be it further enacted, That no Hackney Coach, Chariot, Cabriolet or other Carriage whatsoever licensed to ply for Hire, shall stand for Hire on the said intended Bridge, or within One hundred Feet from either End of the said Bridge; and if any such Coach or other Carriage shall stand upon the said Bridge, or in any of the Streets or Places aforesaid, contrary to this Act, the Driver or Drivers thereof shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings, to be levied and recovered by such Ways and Methods as by the several Acts of Parliament in Force respecting Hackney Coaches Penalties for Offences are authorized to be levied and recovered.

CIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall assault, interrupt, hinder or disturb any Person or Persons whatsoever employed by the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commoners, in Consequence of any Part of this Act, every such Person shall, for any such Offence, forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds.

CV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall wilfully and maliciously burn or destroy or attempt to burn or destroy any temporary Bridge to be erected as aforesaid, every such Person an Offending, and being thereof legally convicted, shall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and shall be liable to be transported beyond the Seas for the Term of his or her natural Life, or for any Term of Years, at the Court before which say such Person shall be convicted shall adjudge.

CVI. And be it further enacted, That if the said Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commoners shall not, within Ten Years from and after the passing of this Act, complete the said Bridge, so as to make the same passable for Horses and Carriages, that then and from thenceforth all and singular the Powers and Authorities vested in them by this Act relating to the said Bridge shall cease and determine, to all Intent and Purposes whatsoever, save and except as to so much thereof as shall then have been completed.

CVII. And be it further enacted, That all Penalties, Forfeitures and Fines by this Act inflicted or authorized to be imposed (the Manner of levying, recovering and applying whereof is not herein otherwise directed) shall, upon Proof of the Offence respectively, before any Alderman or Justice of the Peace for the City, County, Liberty or Place where the Offence shall have been committed (in the Case any required, either by the Confessor of the Party offending, or by the Oath of any credible Witness or Witnesses (which Oath such Alderman or Justice is in every Case hereby fully authorized to administer), be taken, together with the Costs attending the Information and Conviction, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Party or Parties offending, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of such Alderman or Justice (which Warrant such Alderman or Justice is hereby empowered and required to grant) and the Overplus (if any), after such Penalties, Forfeitures and Fines, and the Charges of such Distress and Sale are deducted, shall be retained upon Demand unto the Owner or Owners of such Goods and Chattels; and in case such Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures shall not be forthwith paid upon Conviction, then it shall be lawful for such Alderman or Justice to order the Offender or Offenders so convicted to be detained and kept in safe Custody until Return can be conveniently made to such Warrant of Distress, unless the Offender or Offenders shall give sufficient Security, to the Satisfaction of such Alderman or Justice, for his or their Appearance before such Alderman or Justice, on such Day or Days as shall be appointed for the Return of such Warrant of Distress, such Day or Days not being more than Five Days from the Time of taking any such Security; and which Security the said Alderman or Justice is hereby empowered to take, by way of Recognizance or otherwise; but if upon the Return of such Warrant it shall appear that no sufficient Distress can be had thereupon, then it shall be lawful for any such Alderman or Justice of the Peace as aforesaid, and he is hereby authorized and required, by Warrant or Warrants under his Hand and Seal, to cause each Offender or Offenders to be committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction of the City, County, Liberty or Place where the Offender shall be or reside, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize, for any Time not exceeding Six Calendar Months, unless such Penalties, Forfeitures and Fines, and all reasonable Charges attending the same, shall be sooner paid or satisfied; and the Monies arising by such Penalties, Forfeitures and Fines respectively, when paid or levied, if not otherwise directed to be applied by this Act, shall be from time to time paid into the Chamber of the City of London, and applied and disposed of for the Purposes of this Act, or any of them.

CVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any of the said Wardens or Keepers of London Budge, Surveyors or other Officers respectively, and such Person or Persons as they or any of them shall call to their Assistance (and which all Bys standers and other Persons on Demand are hereby required to give), without any Warrant or Authority than this Act, to seize or detain any Person or Persons being unknown to such Wardens or Keepers, Surveyors or other Officers, who shall commit any Offence or Offences against this Act, and take him, her or them before any Alderman or Aldermen, Justice or Justices of the Peace for the City, County, Liberty or Place, where the Offence or Offences shall be committed; or such Offender or Offenders shall be seized and apprehended, and such Alderman or Aldermen, Justice or Justices, shall and is hereby required to proceed and act with respect to such Offender or Offenders according to the Provisions of this Act.

CIX. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Alderman or Aldermen, Justice or Justices, by whose any Judgment, Sentence or Determination, shall be given, pronounced or made, concerning any Offence or Offences against this Act, from time to time, where he or they shall see cause to mitigate, compound or lessen any of the Penalties or Forfeitures by this Act inflicted for the same Offence or Offences, as he or they in his or their Discretion shall think fit, so as such Mitigation or Compromise do not extend to remit above One Moiety of any Penalty or Forfeiture inflicted and directed to be levied by this Act; and that every such Mitigation or Compromise shall be a sufficient Discharge to the Person or Persons offending respectively, for so much of the Penalty or Forfeiture, Penalties or Forfeitures, as shall be so remitted.

CX. Provided nevertheless, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Alderman or Aldermen, Justice or Justices, from time to time, if he or they shall see cause, to adjudge that the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commoners, as Common Council assembled, shall pay and apply such Part of the said Penalties and Forfeitures, or any of them, as the said Alderman or Aldermen, Justice or Justices, shall think fit, and for the Use of the Inferior or Inferiors, or any Person or Persons (not being a Witness or Witnesses), taking, serving or assisting therein, or any of them; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

CXI. And for the more easy and speedy Conviction of Offenders against this Act, he is further enacted, That all and every the Alderman or Aldermen, Justice or Justices, before whom any Person or Person shall be convicted of any Offence against this Act, shall and may cause the Conviction to be drawn drawn up in the following Form of Words, or in any other Form of Words to the same Effect, as the Case shall happen; that is to say,

Form of Conviction. BE it remembered, That on the _____ Day of _____ in the Year of our Lord _____ A. B. is convicted before C. D. One [or Two, as the Case may be.] of the Aldermen of the City of London, or Justices for the Town and Borough of Southwark, [specifying the Offence, and Time and Place when and where the same was committed, as the Case may be.] contrary to the Form of the Statute made in the Fourth Year of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled [here set forth the Title of this Act], and I [or, we] do adjudge, that he hath theretofore forfeited the Sum of _____ [here insert the Penalty], or shall be committed to [Place of Imprisonment] for the Space of [Time of Imprisonment]. Given under my Hand and Seal [or, our Hands and Seals] the Day and Year first above written.

Distress not to be taken for want of Term. CXII. And be it further enacted, That when any Distress shall be made by virtue of this Act, the Distress itself shall not be deemed unlawful, nor the Party or Parties making the same be deemed a Trespasser or Trespassers on account of any Defect or want of Term in the Summons, Conviction or Warrant, or Distress, or in the Appointment of the Officer or Officers, or in any Proceeding relating thereto, nor shall the said Party or Parties be deemed a Trespasser or Trespassers at all, on account of any Irregularity which shall happen to be done in making the said Distress; but the Party or Parties aggrieved by such Irregularity shall and may recover full Satisfaction for the Special Damage which he, she or they shall have sustained thereby, with usual Costs, and so more, in an Action of Trespass, or on the Case, at the Election of the Party or Parties so aggrieved.

Appeal. CXIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall think himself, herself or themselves aggrieved by any Thing done in pursuance of this Act, and for which no particular Mode of Relief hath been already appointed, such Person or Persons may appeal, if the Cause of such Appeal shall arise in the City of London, to the Aldermen at their Quarter Sessions, to be holden for the said City of London; or if the Cause of Appeal shall arise within the Borough of Southwark, to the Aldermen at their General Sessions for the Borough of Southwark; or if the Cause of such Appeal shall arise within any other Place, to the Justices of the Peace of the General or Quarter Sessions to be holden for the Place where such Cause shall arise, within Three Calendar Months next after such Cause of Complaint shall arise, unless the same shall arise within Twenty one Days preceding such Sessions, in which Case such Appeal may be brought at the Second Sessions after such Cause shall arise; and the said Aldermen or Justices are hereby authorized and required to take Cognizance thereof, and to hear and determine such Complaint or Complainants, and shall and may, if they see Cause, by Order of such Sessions, mitigate at their Discretion all or any Part of the Penalties or Forfeitures laid upon or incurred by the Party or Parties complaining, or vacate or set aside the Conviction or Convictions, and set the Parties at liberty, or otherwise may ratify or confirm the same, with such Costs as to them in their Discretion shall seem reasonable, and to levy by their Order or Warrant such Costs so awarded by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Person or Persons who shall refuse to pay the same; and for want of sufficient Distress, to commit such Person or Persons to the common Goal for the said City of London, or the Town and Borough of Southwark, or County or Place where the Cause of Appeal shall arise, for any Time not exceeding Three Calendar Months, or until Payment of such Costs: Provided always, that the Person or Persons so appealing as aforesaid shall and he, she and they are hereby required to give Notice in Writing of such his, her or their Intention of bringing or prosecuting such Appeal Fourteen Days before the said Quarter Sessions, and shall before such Notice given enter into a Recognizance before One or more Aldermen or Alderwomen of the City of London, or Justice or Justices of the Peace where the Cause of Appeal shall arise, in the Sum of Twenty Pounds, with Two sufficient Sureties in the Sum of Ten Pounds each, with condition to prosecute such Appeal, and to pay all Costs, in case such Appeal shall be determined against the Party or Parties so appealing.

Imprisonment. CXIV. And be it further enacted, That no Proceedings to be had touching the Conviction of any Offender or Offenders against this Act, or any Order made, or any other Matter or Thing to be done or transacted in or relating to the Execution of this Act, shall be vacated or quashed for want of Term, only, or be removed or removable by Certiorari, or any other Writ or Process whatsoever, into any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster (except as hereinafter is mentioned), any Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

Proceedings not to be quashed for want of Term. CXV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Action or Suit shall be commenced or brought for any Thing done in pursuance of this Act, until Fourteen Days' Notice shall have been given, or after Satisfaction or Tender thereof shall have been made to the Party aggrieved, or after Three Calendar Months next after the Fact committed; and every Action or Suit shall be had, brought and tried in the County, City or Place, where the Cause of Action shall have arisen, and not elsewhere; and the Defendant or Defendants in every such Action or Suit may at his, her or their Election, plead specially or the General Issue, and give this Act or the special Matter in Evidence at any Time to be had thereupon, and that the same was done in pursuance and by the Authority of this Act; and if the same shall appear to be so done, or if such Action or Suit shall be brought before Fourteen Days' Notice thereof shall be given as aforesaid, or after sufficient Satisfaction made or tendered as aforesaid, or after the Time limited for bringing the same as aforesaid, or shall be brought in any other City or County than as aforesaid, then the Jury shall find for the Defendant or Defendants; and upon such Verdict, or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall be nonsuited, or discontinued his, her or their Action or Suit, after the Liberties of Actions. General Issue.

Defendant

Defendant or Defendants shall have appeared, or if upon Demurrer Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, then the Defendant or Defendants shall recover Treble Costs, and shall have such Remedy for recovering the same as any Defendant or Defendants hath or have for his, her or their Costs in any other Cases by Law.

CXVI. Provided also, and he it further enacted and declared, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to prejudice or derogate from the Estates, Rights, Interests, Privileges, Possibilities, or Authority of the King's Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, or of the Mayor, and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, or their Successors, or the Lord Mayor of the said City for the Time being, or so possibill, defeat, alter or diminish any Power, Authority or Jurisdiction, which at the Time of making this Act His Majesty, or the Mayor, and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, or the Lord Mayor of the said City for the Time being, as Conservator of the River of Thames, did or might lawfully claim, use or exercise: and further, that it shall be lawful for the Lord Mayor of the said City for the Time being, in like Manner as he hath used to do in other Cases, to enquire of, hear and determine, by Presentment or Indictment taken before him, as Conservator of the said River and Water, all Offences contrary to this Act; and upon Conviction of the Offender or Offenders to impose a Penalty or Penalties contrary to this Act; and he it further enacted, That nothing in this Act shall extend to prejudice, diminish, alter or take away any of the Rights, Powers or Authorities vested in the Commissioners of Sewers of the City of London, or the Commissioners of Sewers for the Liberties extending from East Molesey in the County of Surrey, to Buxenburse in the County of Kent, except as hereinbefore is enacted.

CXVII. Provided also, and he it further enacted, That nothing in this Act shall extend to prejudice, diminish, alter or take away any of the Rights, Powers or Authorities vested in the Commissioners of Sewers of the City of London, or the Commissioners of Sewers for the Liberties extending from East Molesey in the County of Surrey, to Buxenburse in the County of Kent, except as hereinbefore is enacted.

CXVIII. And he it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to give to or invest the said Mayor, Aldermen and Common, in Common Council assembled, or any other Person or Persons whatsoever, with any Right, Power or Authority which may at all interfere with the Rights, Powers, Authorities or Provisions heretofore granted by an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for paving Streets and Lanes within the Town and Borough of Southwark, and certain Parts adjacent, in the County of Surrey, and for cleaning, lighting and watching the same; and also the Courts, Yards, Alleys and Passages therein; and for preventing Annoyances therein; and by an Act passed in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intituled An Act to explain and amend so much of an Act of the Sixth Year of His present Majesty for paving the Town and Borough of Southwark, in the County of Surrey, as relate to the Commissioners of Sewers; and for regulating the Manner of issuing Chaises, and other Public Buildings, within the Limits of the said Act; and also by another Act passed in the Fifty second Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intituled *An Act for better paving, cleaning, lighting and watching the Streets, Lanes and other public Passages and Places within the Manor of Southwark, otherwise called the Clerk, or Bishop of Winchester's Liberty, in the Parish of Saint Saviour, Southwark, in the County of Surrey, and also an Act passed in the Twenty sixth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intituled An Act for making, widening and keeping in Repair certain Roads in the Parishes of Lambeth, Newington, Saint George Southwark, Bermondsey and Christ Church, in the County of Surrey, and for watching and lighting the said Roads; and also by an Act passed in the Twenty eighth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intituled An Act for enabling the Commissioners for putting into Execution an Act made in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for paving the Streets and Lanes within the Town and Borough of Southwark, and certain Parts adjacent, in the County of Surrey; and for cleaning, lighting and watching the same, and also the Courts, Yards, Alleys and Passages adjoining therein, and for preventing Annoyances therein, to open, widen and better regulate the several Streets, Lanes and Passages within the East Division, in the said Act described; and also by another Act, passed in the Forty fourth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intituled An Act for altering and amending an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for paving the Streets and Lanes within the Borough of Southwark, and certain Parts adjacent, in the County of Surrey, and for cleaning, lighting and watching the same; and also the Courts, Yards, Alleys and Passages adjoining therein, and for preventing Annoyances therein, so far as the same relates to the West Division thereof, as therein mentioned; and by another Act, passed in the Forty seventh Year of His said late Majesty, intituled An Act for enlarging the Powers of an Act of the Twenty sixth Year of His present Majesty, for making and keeping in Repair certain Roads in the Parishes of Lambeth, Newington, Saint George Southwark, Bermondsey and Christ Church, in the County of Surrey, and for watching and lighting the same Roads; and also by an Act, passed in the Forty second Year of His said late Majesty, intituled *An Act for repairing the Act passed in the Twenty fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, for more effectually repairing the Roads leading from the Stone's End, in Blackman Street, in the Borough of Southwark, in the County of Surrey, to Highgate, in the County of Sussex, and several other Roads therein mentioned, and for granting other Powers for their Purposes; but all the Rights, Powers and Authorities vested in the said several Commissioners for carrying the said several Acts into Execution shall be as good, valid and effectual as if this Act had not been made, save and except as in and by this Act is herein particularly otherwise declared and enacted.

CXIX. And he it further enacted, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a Public Act, and shall be judicially taken Notice of as such by all Judges, Justices and others, without being specially pleaded.

An Act to encourage the Consumption of Beer; and to amend the Laws for securing the Excise Duties thereon. [24th July 1823.]

WHEREAS Strong Beer or Ale, or Beer or Ale above Sixteen Shillings the Barrel, exclusive of the Duty by Law imposed on such Beer or Ale, and not being Trempney Ale mentioned and described in the Seventh Article of the Treaty of Union with Scotland, which shall be brewed in Great Britain by any Common Brewer, or other Person or Persons who shall sell or tap out Beer or Ale publicly or privately, is by Law subject to a Duty of Excise of Ten Shillings for every Barrel thereof; and Table Beer, or Beer or Ale of Sixteen Shillings the Barrel or under, exclusive of the Duty by Law imposed thereon, which shall be brewed in Great Britain by any Common Brewer, or other Person or Persons who shall sell or tap out Beer or Ale publicly or privately, is subject to an Excise Duty of Two Shillings for every Barrel thereof; And Whereas it is expedient, for supplying the Public with Beer or Ale of an intermediate Strength between Strong Beer and Table Beer, and subject to a proportionate Excise Duty, to make such Provision as hereinafter mentioned: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons, under the Licences, Rules, Conditions and Restrictions hereinafter contained, to brew for sale and sell such Beer or Ale as is hereinafter mentioned, upon Payment of an Excise Duty for the same as and after the following Data; (that is to say,) for every Barrel, containing Thirty six Gallons Ale Measure, of such Beer or Ale as is hereinafter mentioned, which shall be brewed in Great Britain, to be paid by the Brewer thereof, the Sum of Five Shillings, and so in Proportion for any greater or less Quantity thereof than a Barrel.

II. And be it further enacted, That all such Beer or Ale as shall be brewed or sold in Great Britain under the Provisions of this Act, shall be and the same is hereby required to be brewed in the Proportion of not less than Five Barrels, containing Thirty six Gallons Ale Measure each, of such Beer or Ale, nor more than Five and a Half of such Barrels, for and from each and every Quarter of Malt which shall be used for the Purpose of brewing such Beer or Ale, and every such Brewer and Brewers shall be charged by the proper Officer with such Duty as aforesaid, at and after the Rate of Five such Barrels as aforesaid at the least, for every Quarter of Malt so used by him, her or them in brewing, Beer shall be brewed and sold under the Provisions of this Act, subject to Duty of 5s per Barrel.

Beer to be brewed in the Proportion herein mentioned with respect to Malt.

or which shall be found at any Time to be deficient [16], and on taking an Account of his, her or their Malt Stock, as hereinafter mentioned, and for so much more Beer, not exceeding Five Barrels and a Half for every Quarter of Malt so used, as such Officer shall find and ascertain by or on his Survey to have been made by any such Brewer or Brewess, and so in proportion for any greater or less Quantity; and that all such Beer or Ale which shall be sold in any Quantity at one Time of Nine Gallons, or One Quarter of each Barrel thereof as aforesaid, or upwards, shall be sold at a Rate or Price not exceeding Twenty seven Shillings the Barrel, and so in proportion for any Quantity greater or less than a Barrel; and that all such Beer or Ale which shall be sold in any Quantity at one Time of less than Nine Gallons thereof, shall be sold at a Rate or Price not exceeding Ten Pence the Gallon, and so in proportion for any Quantity greater or less than a Gallon; and if any Person or Persons who shall make Entry to brew such Beer or Ale as aforesaid under the Provisions of this Act, shall brew or cause or permit or suffer any Beer or Ale to be brewed of any greater or less Strength or Quantity than in the Proportions aforesaid, of not less than Five Barrels, containing Thirty six Gallons Ale Measure each, or more than Five and a Half of such Barrels, for and from each and every Quarter of Malt which shall be used for brewing such Beer or Ale, all such Beer or Ale brewed of greater Strength than as aforesaid shall be subject and liable to be charged and shall be charged with Duty at and after the Rate of Ten Shillings for every such Barrel thereof as aforesaid, and so in proportion for any Quantity greater or less than a Barrel; and if any such Person or Persons as aforesaid shall brew any Porter, or shall use, or cause or permit or suffer to be used, in the brewing of any such Beer or Ale as aforesaid, any other Material or Ingredients than Water, Malt, Hops and Yeast, or put into or mix with any such Beer or Ale, or the Wort or Worts thereof, any Water, or any other Material or Ingredient than Hops and the necessary Quantity of Yeast and Fining for such Beer, Ale or Worts respectively, all such Porter, and all such Beer, Ale and Worts respectively, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise; and every such Person or Persons so offending as aforesaid, either by brewing, or causing, permitting or suffering to be brewed, any Beer or Ale of greater or less strength than as aforesaid, or by brewing any Porter, or by adulterating any such Beer, Ale or Worts as aforesaid, shall for every such Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of Two hundred Pounds; and if any Person or Persons shall sell, or cause or permit or suffer to be sold, any Beer or Ale brewed under the Provisions of this Act in any Quantity at one Time of Nine Gallons, or One Quarter of such Barrel thereof as aforesaid, or upwards, at a greater or higher Rate or Price than Twenty seven Shillings the Barrel, and so in proportion for any greater or less Quantity than a Barrel, or any Quantity of such Beer or Ale at one Time, less than Nine Gallons thereof, at a greater or higher Rate or Price than Ten Pence the Gallon, and so in proportion for any greater or less Quantity than a Gallon, every such Person shall for every such Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

III. Provided always, That whenever Malt or Hops shall rise to and be of such Price as, in the Judgment of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, to require that the Brewer and Seller of Beer or Ale brewed or sold under the Provisions of this Act should, according to the Intent and Meaning thereof, be allowed to sell such Beer or Ale at a higher Rate or higher Rates, Price or Prices, than are by this Act specified, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury by the Time being, by any Warrant or Order signed by any Three or more of them, to authorize the Brewers of Beer or Ale under the Provisions of this Act, or the Retailers thereof, whilst the Price of Malt or Hops shall be so advanced, to sell such Beer or Ale at and after such greater or higher Rate or Rates, Price or Prices, as shall be limited and expressed in such Warrant or Order, without such Brewer or Brewers or other Person or Persons securing any Penalty or Forfeiture in respect of such Sale or Sales, during the Time that any such Warrant or Order shall be in force and unrevoked or continued; any thing hereto contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all and every Person or Persons who shall be desirous of brewing Beer or Ale under the Provisions of this Act, shall make Entry of any House or Premises for that Purpose as hereinafter mentioned, shall, before he, she or they shall begin to brew any such Beer or Ale, take out and pay for an Excise Licence authorizing such Person or Persons to brew such Beer or Ale; and that every such Person and Persons so making Entry as aforesaid shall be subject and liable to, and shall pay Duty for every such Licence at and after the same Rate and Proportion which is by Law imposed on Licences to Common Brewers of Strong Beer; and every such Licence as aforesaid shall be granted at and for such Times, and under, subject and according to the several Laws and Regulations relating to Licences to be granted to Common Brewers of Strong Beer; and every such Person and Persons so making Entry and taking out a Licence to brew under the Provisions of this Act, shall in all respects be subject and liable to the same Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Conditions, Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures (except so far as is expressly altered by this Act) to which Common Brewers of Strong Beer are subject and liable by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force at or immediately before the passing of this Act.

V. And be it further enacted, That no Brewer or Brewess who shall make Entry and take out a Licence to brew under the Provisions of this Act shall be entitled to any Allowance or Abatement of the Duty hereby imposed, or on the Return of such Duty, for or in respect of Waste by Filings and Leakages of such Beer or Ale, or any other Consideration whatsoever, or shall remove to, take or receive at his, her or their Premises entered for brewing Beer or Ale under the Provisions of this Act, any other Beer, Ale or Porter whatsoever; and that it shall and may be lawful for any such Brewer or Brewers to sell and retail such Beer or Ale at and from such unexcised Premises, where the same has been brewed, at and after the more effectual Punishment of Persons who shall attain or attempt to attain Possession of Goods or Money by false or untrue Pretences for preventing the lawful passing of Goods, for the easy Redemption of Goods pawned, and for preventing Gaming in Public Houses by Swindlers, Labourers, Servants and Apprentices, it is enacted, that all Persons who shall knowingly send or deliver any Letter or Writing, with or without a Name or Names subscribed thereto, or signed with a fictitious Name or Names, Letter or Letters, threatening to accuse any Person of any Crime punishable by Law with Death, Transportation, Pillory or any other infamous Punishment, with a View or Intest to extort or gain Money, Goods, Wares or Merchandises from the Person or Persons so threatened to be accused, shall be deemed Offenders against Law and the Public Peace; and the Court before whom such Offender or Offenders shall be tried, shall in case he, she or they shall be convicted of any of the said Offences, order such Offender or Offenders to be fined and imprisoned, or to be put in the Pillory or publicly whipped, or to be transported for the Term of Seven Years, as the Court in which any such Offender or Offenders shall be convicted shall think fit and order: And Whereas it is expedient that a lesser Degree of Punishment should be provided for the Offence of sending threatening Letters, in the Cases mentioned in the Two first recited Acts, and that the same Degree of Punishment should be inflicted in the Cases mentioned in the last recited Act, and be extended to Persons accessory to the said Offences: Be it therefore further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, so much of the said recited Acts of the Ninth Year of the Reign of King George the First, and of the Twenty seventh and Thirtieth Years of the Reign of King George the Second, as relate to the sending and delivering Letters in the Cases therein respectively mentioned, shall be, and the same is hereby repealed, save only as to Offences committed before the passing of this Act, as to which the said Acts shall continue in force; and that from and after the passing of this Act, if any Person shall knowingly and wilfully send or deliver any Letter or Writing, with or without any Name or Signature subscribed thereto, or with a fictitious Name or Signature, demanding Money or other valuable Thing, or threatening to kill or murther any of His Majesty's Subjects, or to harm or destroy his or their Houses, Outhouses, Barns, Stacks of Corn or Grain, Hay or Straw, or shall knowingly and wilfully send or deliver any such Letter or Writing, threatening to accuse any of His Majesty's Subjects of any Crime punishable by Law with Death, Transportation or Pillory, or of any infamous Crime, with a View or Intest to extort or gain Money, Security for Money, Goods or Chattels, Wares or Merchandises, from the Person or Persons so threatened, or shall procure, counsel, aid or abet the Commission of the said Offences, or of any of them, or shall forcibly rescue any Person being lawfully in Custody of any Officer or other Person for any of the said Offences, every Person so offending, being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported beyond the Seas for Life, or for such Term, not less than Seven Years, as the Court shall adjudge, or to be imprisoned only, or to be imprisoned and kept to hard Labour in the Common Gaol or House of Correction, for any Term not exceeding Seven Years.

IV. Provided always, and be it hereby declared, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to alter or affect the Remedy given by the said first recited Act to the Party damaged, by killing or murthering Cattle, or by cutting or destroying Trees, against the Inhabitants of the Hundred, but that the same Remedy shall remain in as full and ample Manner as before the passing of this Act.

V. And Whereas it is expedient to make better Provision for the Punishment of Persons guilty of Offences against the Form of an Act made in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled An Act for the more effectual Punishment of Assaults with Intent to commit Robbery, and to amend the said Act: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, the said last recited Act shall be, and the same is hereby repealed, save only as to Offences committed before the passing of this Act, as to which the said Act shall continue in force; and that from and after the passing of this Act, if any Person shall maliciously assault any other Person with Intent to rob such other Person, or shall by Menaces or by Force maliciously demand Money, Security for Money, Goods or Chattels, Wares or Merchandises, of any other Person, with Intent to steal the same, or shall maliciously threaten to accuse any other Person of any Crime punishable by Law with Death, Transportation or Pillory, or of any infamous Crime, with a View or Intest to extort or gain Money, Security for Money, Goods or Chattels, Wares or Merchandises, from the Person so threatened; or shall procure, counsel, aid or abet the Commission of the said Offences, or of any of them; every Person so offending, being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported beyond the Seas for Life, or for such Term, not less than Seven Years, as the Court shall adjudge, or to be imprisoned and kept to hard Labour in the Common Gaol or House of Correction, for any Term not exceeding Seven Years.

Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from henceforth so much of an Act, passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the Thirty fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act for regulating the Election of Members to serve as Parliament, and for repealing the several Acts therein contained; and also so much of an Act, passed in the Thirty seventh Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intitled An Act for the further Regulation of the Election of Members to serve in Parliament; and also so much of an Act, passed in the Forty fifth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intitled An Act for amending an Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland, in the Thirty fifth Year of His present Majesty, for regulating the Election of Members to serve in Parliament, so far as relates to Freeholds under the Yearly Value of Twenty Pounds, and for making further and other Regulations relating thereto; and also, so much of an Act, passed in the First Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, intitled An Act for the better Regulation of Polls, and for making further Provisions touching the Election of Members to serve in Parliament for Ireland, as relate to the Election of Members to serve in Parliament for any County of a City or County of a Town, shall be repealed.

II. And Whereas the Number of Justices who are empowered to act within several of the Counties of Cities or Counties of Towns in Ireland, agreeable to the Charters thereof, is extremely limited, and often confined to those who from Age and Infirmary are incapacitated for active Performance of Duty;

And Whereas it is necessary to provide against any consequent Inconvenience or Delay of Persons possessed of Freehold Property, who wish duly to register such Freeholds, and to qualify themselves for exercising the elective Franchise: Be it further enacted, That in all Counties of Cities, and Counties of Towns in Ireland, on the Day immediately preceding the opening of each General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, unless such Day shall fall upon a Sunday, and in such Case on the Day next but one preceding the opening of each General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, and upon the Day immediately after the criminal and other Business of every such Sessions shall have been fully transacted, unless such Day shall fall upon a Sunday, and in such Case on the Second Day after such Business shall have been fully transacted, the Mayor or other Chief Magistrate of each County of a City or County of a Town, or his sufficient Deputy appointed by his Assent to Charter or Prescription, in case of his Absence from such City or Town, or his Heirs, shall, upon being required so to do by any Freeholder of such County of a City or County of a Town, hold an open Court of Sessions for the Purpose of registering all such Freeholders as shall present themselves for that Purpose, in such Manner and Form as is by this Act required; and that the said Mayor or other Chief Magistrate, or his Deputy, shall commence his Sitting on each Day at the Hour of Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon, and shall continue it until the Hour of Four of the Clock in the Afternoon: Provided, however, that in case any Two Justices of the Peace for said County of a City or County of a Town shall attend at such Sessions during the

Time appointed for the attendance of the said Mayor or other Chief Magistrate, upon such respective Days or either of them, or during any Portion of such Time, then and in such Case the Attendance of the said Mayor or other Chief Magistrate shall not be required during the Time of the Attendance of such Two Justices of the Peace.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Person possessed of a Freehold in any County of a City or County of a Town, to register the same before the Mayor or other Chief Magistrate, or his Deputy, or before any Two Justices of the Peace presiding at such Sessions, to be held for such

County of a City or County of a Town, or before any Two Justices of the Peace, or the Recorder or Deputy Recorder, presiding in open Court at any Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the County of the City or County of the Town in which such Freehold is situate, or at any Adjournment thereof, or any Adjournment of such Adjournment.

IV. And be it further enacted, That when any Person, seized of any Freehold in any County of a City or County of a Town, which Freehold shall not consist of a Rentcharge, shall be desirous to register the same as being of the Value of Fifty Pounds or Twenty Pounds, such Person shall in open Court, at some Sessions to be held as aforesaid, or Adjournment thereof, before the Mayor or other Chief

Magistrate, or his Deputy, or before Two Justices of the Peace, or before the Recorder or Deputy Recorder presiding thereat, take and subscribe the following Oath [or, if a Quaker, the following

Affirmation]:

I _____ of _____ in the County of _____ or of the City or

Freehold of _____ and that I have, and am now in actual Possession of a Freehold therein, amounting to a House or Houses, or from Land, or both, or other Hereditaments [as the Case may be] of the clear yearly Value of _____ or _____ [as the Case may be] above all Charges payable out of the same, lying and being sit or in [naming the Land out of which such Freehold shall arise, if the same shall arise out of Land, or the Street or Place where such House or

Houses or other Hereditaments shall be situate, in case such Freehold shall arise out of any House or Houses, or other Hereditaments] in the County of the City [or County of the Town, at the Case may be] of _____ and that the said Freehold does not arise from a Rentcharge, nor have I procured it fraudulently, nor has it been granted fraudulently to me, or in exchange for a Freehold in any other County:

V. And be it further enacted, That when any Person seized of any Freehold in any County of a City or County of a Town, which Freehold shall consist of a Rentcharge, shall be desirous to register the same as being of the Value of Fifty Pounds, or Twenty Pounds, such Person shall in open Court, at some Sessions to be held as aforesaid, or Adjournment thereof, before the Mayor or other Chief Magistrate, or his Deputy, or before Two Justices of the Peace, or before the Recorder or Deputy Recorder presiding thereof, take and subscribe the following Oath, or if a Quaker, the following Affirmation:

227. or 228. to take the following Oath.

I of the County of or of the City or Town of [as the Case may be] do swear [or, if a Quaker, do affirm], That I am a Freeholder of [as the Case may be] and that I have a Freehold therein of the clear yearly Value of a Rentcharge [as the Case may be] at the least, above all Charges payable out of the same, consisting of a Rentcharge [as the Case may be] created by Deed, bearing Date the Day of in the Year [if the same shall be granted by Deed, and in case it shall not be granted by Deed, then stating the Particulars of the Title of said Person to such Rentcharge as a House or Houses, or as Land, or both, or other Hereditaments, as the Case may be,] lying and being as or in [naming the Land out of which such Rentcharge shall arise, if the same shall arise out of Land, or the Street or Place where such House or Houses, or other Hereditaments, shall be situate, in case such Rentcharge shall arise out of any House or Houses, or other Hereditaments,] in the County of the City or County of the Town [as the Case may be] of and that I am in the Possession thereof to the clear Amount of [as the Case may be] yearly Value thereof, and am entitled to receive the same as it becomes due.

Form of Oath.

VI. And be it further enacted, That every Person who shall be seized of a Freehold under the Value of Twenty Pounds in any County of a City or County of a Town, and who shall be desirous to register the same, shall in open Court, at some Sessions to be held, aforesaid, or Adjournment thereof, before the Mayor or other Chief Magistrate, or his Deputy, or before Two Justices of the Peace, or before the Recorder or Deputy Recorder presiding thereof, produce the Deed, Lease or Instrument under which his Freehold shall arise, and shall take and subscribe the following Oath, or, if a Quaker, the following Affirmation:

Freeholders under the Value of 20l. to take the following Oath.

I of the County of or of the City or Town of [as the Case may be] do swear [or, if a Quaker, do affirm], That I am a Freeholder of and that I have a Freehold therein, arising from a House or Houses, or from Lands, or both, or other Hereditaments [as the Case may be] of the clear yearly Value of Forty Shillings at the least, above all Charges payable out of the same, lying and being as or in [naming the Land out of which such Freehold shall arise, if the same shall arise out of Land, or the Street or Place where such House or Houses or other Hereditaments shall be situate, in case such Freehold shall arise out of any House or Houses or other Hereditaments] in the County of the City [or County of the Town, as the Case may be] of and that the said Freehold does not arise from a Rentcharge, and that the same arises by virtue of the Deed, or by virtue of the Lease, or by virtue of the Instrument, or by virtue of the Deed, Lease or Instrument [saying all or any or either of the said Terms, Deed, Lease or Instrument] which I now produce, bearing Date the Day of in the Year of for the Life or Lives of [or, in case the said Freehold be not for Life or Lives, then stating the Nature of his Tenure, as the Case may be] at the yearly Rent of [specifying the whole yearly Rent, or the yearly Rent per Acre, or such yearly Rent per Acre, together with the Number of Acres] and that I am in the actual Occupation thereof by purchasing thereof, or by tilling or by grazing, or by both tilling and grazing [or by all or any or either of the said Means, naming the same copulatively or disjunctively, as the Case may be] to the Amount of at least Forty Shillings yearly Value thereof, and that the said Freehold is not let or agreed to be let to the Person or Persons who executed the said Deed, Lease or Instrument [as the Case may be], or to the Heirs or Assigns of such Person or Persons, or to any one in Trust for him, her or them, nor do I intend to let the same to such Person or Persons, or any of them; and that I have not agreed to let it for the Term for which I hold it, nor have I procured it fraudulently or in Exchange for a Freehold in any other County. So help me GOD.

Form of Oath

And if the Freehold, in right of which any Person shall desire so qualify himself to vote, shall not arise by virtue of a Deed, Lease or Instrument, the Person desiring to register it shall describe the same in the Oath or Affirmation so to be taken by him, according to the true State and Nature of his Tenure, in which Case the Words in the foregoing Oath, respecting that the same arises by virtue of a Deed, Lease or Instrument, shall be omitted, and such Description inserted in the Place thereof.

Freeholds not arising from a Deed or Lease to be described in the Oath.

VII. And be it further enacted, That no Public or Parliamentary Tax, County, Church or Parish Case, or any Township or Division of any Parish or Barony, shall be deemed any Charge payable out of any Freehold Estate, within the Meaning of this Act, or any of the foregoing Oaths or Affirmations.

§ 40. No Tax, Case, &c. deemed a Charge, &c.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That every such Oath or Affirmation as is hereinbefore mentioned shall, when sworn or affirmed to, be signed by the said Mayor or other Chief Magistrate or his Deputy, or by such Two Justices of the Peace, or before the Recorder or Deputy Recorder presiding at such Sessions as aforesaid, and shall be then and there delivered by such Mayor or other Chief Magistrate or his Deputy, or by such Justices of the Peace, or by the said Recorder or Deputy Recorder, to the Clerk of the Peace of such County of a City or County of a Town, to be filed and kept amongst the Records of the Court.

Oath to be signed by Mayor, &c. and delivered to Clerk of the Peace.

IX. And be it further enacted, That where the Freehold, whether consisting of a Rentcharge or not, shall be of the clear yearly Value of Fifty Pounds, and the Freeholder who shall be seized of the same shall shall take and subscribe the Oath or Affirmation (as the Case may be) respectively required as aforesaid to be by him taken for registering a Freehold (whether Rentcharge or not) as of the Value of Fifty Pounds, in any of the Courts of King's Bench, Common Pleas or Exchequer, in the City of Dublin, or at any Assizes, and the same shall be subscribed by one of the Judges of such Courts, or the Judge of Assize, such Oath or Affirmation so subscribed may be produced at any Sessions of the Peace as aforesaid, held in the County of the City or County of the Town where such Freehold lies, and when read aloud there in open Court, shall be signed by the Mayor or other Chief Magistrate or his Deputy, or by the Justices of the Peace, or by the Recorder or Deputy Recorder presiding there, and shall then be delivered by the Court to the acting Clerk of the Peace, to be filed and kept amongst the Records of such County of a City or County of a Town; and every such Oath or Affirmation so taken shall be of equal Effect for registering such Freehold, within the Meaning of this Act, as if it had been made at the Sessions of the Peace as aforesaid.

X. And be it enacted, That if any Person seized of a Freehold, whether consisting of a Rentcharge or not, shall be in actual Service, either in the Army or Militia, out of the County of a City or County of a Town where such Freehold lies, and shall take and subscribe the Oath or Affirmation required by this Act to be by him taken for registering such Freehold, at any Sessions of the Peace or Adjudgment thereof held in the County, Town or City in which he shall be quartered or stationed, sitting therein the Regiment, Battalion, Troop or Company (as the Case may be) to which he belongs, such Affidavit shall be subscribed by the Mayor or other Chief Magistrate or his Deputy, or by the Justices of the Peace, or by the Recorder or Deputy Recorder presiding there, and countersigned by the Clerk of the Peace for such County, Town or City, who shall certify that the Corps in which he serves is quartered or stationed therein; and such Oath or Affirmation so subscribed and countersigned may be produced at any Sessions of the Peace or Adjudgment thereof, or at any Adjudgment of an Adjudgment, held in the County of the City or County of the Town in which such Freehold lies, and when read aloud therein in open Court shall be signed by the Mayor or other Chief Magistrate or his Deputy, or by the Justices of the Peace, or by the Recorder or Deputy Recorder presiding there, and shall be delivered to the acting Clerk of the Peace, to be filed and kept amongst the Records of the County; and every such Oath or Affirmation so taken shall be of equal Effect for registering such Freehold, as if it had been made at the Sessions of the Peace for the County of the City or County of the Town in which such Freehold is situated.

XI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Mayor and other Chief Magistrate or his Deputy, or the Justice of the Peace, Recorder or Deputy Recorder presiding at such Sessions, shall not allow any Person to register his Freehold by virtue of any written Instrument, unless the same be stamped according to Law; and the Clerk of the Peace shall cause in every Certificate to be provided by him, as aforesaid, of the Registry of a Freehold registered by virtue of a written Instrument, as of the Value of Forty Shillings only, that the same was registered by virtue of a written Instrument stamped according to Law.

XII. And be it further enacted, That every Clerk of the Peace for the County of a City or County of a Town shall give, immediately on the Registry of any Freehold as aforesaid, to every Person registering the same, if he shall demand it, a Form of Certificate, wherein it shall be certified that such Person hath duly registered such Freehold, and wherein shall be recited exactly the Oath or Affirmation made or taken by such Person, and such Certificate shall, if required by the Person registering such Freehold, be signed by the Mayor or other Chief Magistrate or his Deputy, or by the Justices of the Peace, or the Recorder or Deputy Recorder presiding at such Sessions as aforesaid; and such Certificate of Registry so signed as aforesaid shall be sufficient Evidence at any Election of the Registry of such Freehold, if such Certificate shall be without any Erasure or Interpolation; and the Clerk of the Peace shall be paid by such Freeholder for every such Form of Certificate the Sum of Three Pence.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the acting Clerk of the Peace at every Sessions of the Registry shall, within Ten Days after each Affidavit or Affirmation of Registry shall have been signed as aforesaid, enter in a Book or Books the Substance of every Affidavit or Affirmation, in the Form following:

Form of Entry of Affidavit.

| Number. | Name of Freeholder. | Place of Abode. | Situation of Freehold. | Name of Landlord. | Value of Freehold. | Sum of Livery or other Tenure. | Date of Registry. |

XIV. And be it further enacted, That every Deed, Lease or Instrument produced by any Person intending to register a Freehold under the Value of Twenty Pounds as aforesaid, shall be entered at the Time in open Court, by the acting Clerk of the Peace, with his Name, and the Day of the Month and Year, and the Clerk of the Peace shall then and there compare the Deed, Lease or Instrument, with the Affidavit of Registry.

XV. And be it further enacted, That the Registry of any Freehold shall not be impeached on account of any Irregularity in the holding or enjoyment of any such Freehold shall have been registered shall have been adjusted, or Adjustments, provided such latter Sessions shall be held in due and regular manner.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act extended so as to limit, abridge or defeat the Possession of any Person or Persons who before the passing of this Act shall have duly registered his or their Freehold or Freeholds, under the Act or Acts in force at the Time of such Registry.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That if the Mayor or other Chief Magistrate of any County of a City or County of a Town shall neglect or wilfully omit to hold any such Session by himself, or by his sufficient Deputy, in Manner and Form as heretofore directed, upon being required so to do by any Freeholder of any County of a City or County of a Town; or the Justice, Recorder or Deputy Recorder, presiding at any such Session of the Peace to be held for any County of a City or County of a Town, shall neglect or wilfully refuse to register the Freehold of any Person duly qualified, who shall present himself for that Purpose to such Mayor or other Chief Magistrate, Justice, Recorder or Deputy Recorder, such Mayor or other Chief Magistrate, Justice, Recorder or Deputy Recorder so offending, shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds for each and every such Neglect or Duty; and that if the Clerk of the Peace for any County of a City or County of a Town shall neglect or omit to attend at any such Sessions of the Peace as aforesaid, upon due Notice being given to him of the holding of the same, by any Freeholder of such County of a City or County of a Town, or shall neglect or omit to do all or any of the Acts hereby required to be done by him for the Registry of Freeholds, such Clerk of the Peace shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds; such Penalties to be recovered by Information in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record in Westminster, One Molesey whomever shall be payable to our Lord the King, and the other Molesey to him who shall sue for and recover the same.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That the Clerk of the Peace of every County of a City or County of a Town shall enter, in the Form heretofore appointed for the Entry of Freeholds, the Substance of every Affidavit of every Freeholder who shall have registered a Freehold for such County of a City or County of a Town, of Forty Shillings, or Twenty Pounds, from the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, and the Substance of every Affidavit of every Freeholder who shall have registered a Freehold for such County of a City or County of a Town, of Fifty Pounds; but such Entries shall be made in alphabetical Order, according to the Surnames of the Persons who shall have registered Freeholds, and in separate Books, having One Book for each Letter of the Alphabet; and each of such Books shall be divided into Three Parts, the First Part containing the Forty Shillings Freeholds registered from the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, the Second containing the Entries of Twenty Pounds Freeholds from the same Time, and the Third Part the Entries of Fifty Pounds Freeholds; and such Clerk of the Peace shall affix before each Name a Number, to show how many have been registered of each Description of Freehold under such Letter of the Alphabet; and shall also affix before each Name the Number affixed thereto in the original Registry Book or Books; and the Clerk of the Peace of every County of a City or County of a Town shall from time to time enter in the same Manner and Form every Affidavit of Registry which shall hereafter be made.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That within One Calendar Month next after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty four, every Clerk of the Peace shall cause to be printed in the cheapest Manner, and by Contract, not less than Fifty or more than Two hundred Copies of all Entries in the said Registry Books; and that every Clerk of the Peace shall, within One Calendar Month after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty four, and within One Calendar Month after the First Day of January in every succeeding Year, cause to be printed not less than Fifty or more than Two hundred Copies of all Entries in the Registry Book of each County of a City or County of a Town, of all Affidavits or Affirmations of Persons who have registered their Votes within the Year then last past, ending on such First Day of January respectively; and that the Clerk of the Peace of every County of a City or County of a Town shall deliver in each Year one printed Copy of the Registry Books to each Justice of the Peace residing in such County of a City or County of a Town, and Six Copies thereof to each Member of Parliament for the Time being for such County or Town: Provided always, that the Clerk of the Peace shall not suffer the original Registry Books to be out of his Possession, but shall cause Copies of them to be made for the Purpose of printing the same.

XX. And be it further enacted, That every Clerk of the Peace of any County of a City or County of a Town shall from time to time, at the Request of any Freeholder of such County of a City or County of a Town, within Ten Days from such Request, deliver to such Person a true Copy of the Registry of all Freeholders which shall have been registered in such County of a City or County of a Town, as appearing on the original Registry Books, or a true Copy of the same as appearing in the alphabetical Books heretofore mentioned, or the Registry of any Freeholds, as appearing in any or either of the said Books, within any Period to be stated by the Freeholder making such Request, and the Clerk of the

And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Grand Jury of every County of a City or County of a Town, and they are hereby authorized, empowered and required to present such Sum or Sums of Money as shall be proper for the Expence of printing the aforesaid Books in the Manner and Form hereinafore directed: such Grand Jury shall also present the Expences of providing the Registry and Alphabetical Books hereinafore mentioned.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That no Person shall be admitted to vote at any Election of a Member or Members to serve in Parliament for any County of a City or County of a Town, by virtue of a Freehold, unless such Freehold shall have been registered in Messors hereinafore directed; and that no Person shall be admitted to vote at any such Election by virtue of a Freehold registered as the Value of Twenty Pounds or Forty Shillings, unless such Freehold shall have been registered within Eight Years preceding the Time of the Writ for holding such Election; and that no Person who shall have registered any Freehold as of the Value of Fifty Pounds or Twenty Pounds, such Freehold not arising out of a Rentcharge, shall be admitted to vote at any such Election, unless such Freehold shall have been registered Six Months at the least before the Time of the Writ for holding such Election; and if such Person shall have let or agreed to let the same to the Person or Persons from whom he holds it, or to the Heirs or Assigns of such Person or Persons, or to any One in Trust for him, her or them, or who has let or agreed to let the same, or more thereof than shall leave a Residue sufficient to constitute such Freehold, for the Term for which he holds it, then such Person shall not be permitted to vote at any such Election, unless he shall have registered such Freehold Twelve Calendar Months previous to the Time of such Writ; and that no Person, having registered a Freehold arising out of a Rentcharge, shall be admitted to vote at any such Election, unless such Freehold shall have been registered Twelve Months at the least before the Time of the Writ for holding such Election; and no Person, having registered a Freehold as of the Value of Forty Shillings, shall be admitted to vote at any such Election by virtue of any Freehold which shall be let or demised to the Person or Persons from whom he holds or derives the same, or to any Person in Trust for him or them, or to his or their Heirs or Assigns, or which shall be let or demised to any Person or Persons for the same Term for which he holds the same; and that no Person, having registered a Freehold as of the Value of Forty Shillings, shall be admitted to vote at any such Election, unless such Freehold shall have been registered Twelve Calendar Months at the least before the Time of the Writ for holding such Election, except such Freehold shall have come to him by Descent, Devise, Marriage or Marriage Settlement; and in case such Freehold shall have come to him by Descent, Devise, Marriage or Marriage Settlement, then such Person shall not be permitted to vote by virtue thereof, unless the same shall have been registered Six Calendar Months previous to the Time of such Writ.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That no Person shall be admitted to vote at any Election of any Member or Members to serve in Parliament for any County of a City or County of a Town, by virtue of any Freehold granted fraudulently, or in Exchange for a Freehold in any other County, or in Consideration of any increase of Rent out of any other Lands in the same or in any other County, held by such Person from the Grantor, though such Consideration be not expressed in the Deed or Grant.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That no Person shall be admitted to vote at any Election of a Member or Members to serve in Parliament, who is under the Age of Twenty one Years.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall fraudulently and knowingly grant any Interest importing to be a Freehold, which really is not so, with Intent to enable any Person to vote as a Freeholder at any Election of a Citizen or Citizens, by any County of a City or County of a Town, such Grant shall be good and valid against the Grantor thereof, for every Purpose but enabling the Grantor to vote.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That if such Grantor shall be possessed only of a Term of Years therein, and shall demise the same, or any Part thereof, for a Life or Lives, with Intent to induce the Lessee therein to register such as a Freehold for any County of a City or County of a Town, or to vote as a Freeholder thereof, he shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds to any Person who shall sue for the same, by Action, Bill, Plein or Information, in any Court of Law.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act all Estates, Grants, and Conveyances whatsoever, made to any Person or Persons in any fraudulent or collusive Manner, on Purpose or with Intent to qualify him or them to give his or their Vote at any Election or Elections, Election, Chances for Counties or Cities, Burghs or Counties of Towns, subject to Conditions or Agreements to defect or determine such Estates, Grants and Conveyances, shall be deemed and taken against the Person or Persons who granted such Estates in free and absolute, and be holden and enjoyed by all and every Person and Persons to whom such Conveyance or Grants shall be made as aforesaid, and absolutely acquitted, exonerated and discharged of and from all Manner of Trusts, Conditions, Leases of Re-entry, Powers of Revocation, Powers of Redemption, or other Disburthens whatsoever in or with the said Parties, or any other Person or Persons in Trust for them; and that all Bonds, Oaths, Collateral or other Securities, Contracts or Agreements between or with the said Parties, or any other Person or Persons in Trust for them, or any of them, for the redeeming, re-vesting or defeating such Estate or Estates, or for the restoring or recovering thereof, or any Part thereof, to any Person or Persons, in Trust for them or any of them, shall be null and void to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever; and that every Person who shall make and execute such Conveyance or Conveyances as aforesaid, or, being party to such Purpose, shall devise or prepare the same, and every Person who, by Colour thereof, shall give any Vote at any Election for any such Member to serve in Parliament, shall for every such Grant and Conveyance so made or given, forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds Sterling to any Person who shall sue for the same, to be recovered by Inforcement in any of His Majesty's Courts.

XXXI. And he it further enacted, That no Person shall be admitted to vote at any Election by reason of any Trust, Estate or Mortgage, unless such Trustee of Mortgage shall have been in the actual Possession or Receipt of the Profits thereof, for his own Use, Twelve Calendar Months before the Tests of the Writ for holding such Election, and the Mortgagee or Certain Trust in Possession (or both, as the Case may be) may vote out of such Estate, notwithstanding such Mortgage or Trust: Provided always, that as Receiver, Vicar or Curate, shall be obliged to register his Freehold arising from his Rectory, Vicarage, Curacy or other Ecclesiastical Payment, or be precluded from voting at any Election on account of his not having registered the same: Provided always, that no Person shall be precluded from voting by virtue of any Freehold, on account of having sold, aliened or disposed of any Part of the Freehold he shall have registered between the Date of such Registry and the Day he shall offer his Vote, if he shall have retained thereof to the annual Value sworn in such Registry.

XXX. And he it further enacted, That the Town Clerk or other Officer of each County of a City or County of a Town in England, who shall have Charge of the Books whereby it shall appear to what Persons the Freeholds of such City or Town shall be granted, and by which it shall appear what Persons have been declared entitled to their Freehold as of Right, shall keep a Book containing a List of the Names of the Persons elected or admitted Freeman, and of the Persons to whom all Freeholds shall be granted, and of the Persons who shall be declared entitled to their Freehold as of Right; and such Town Clerk or other Officer shall, at the Request of any Freeman of the said City or Town, within Ten Days from the Time of making such Request, deliver to such Person a List of the Names of the Persons elected or admitted Freeman, and of the Persons to whom such Freeholds shall be so granted, and of the Persons who shall be so declared entitled to their Freehold as of Right, within such Time as shall be pointed by such Person, such Town Clerk or other Officer receiving for the same at the Rate of Three Pence for every Hundred Persons' Names contained in such List; and if any Town Clerk or other Officer as aforesaid shall omit to keep a Book containing the Entry of such Names, or shall omit to furnish a List of the Names of such Persons within the Time appointed for furnishing the same as aforesaid, after Request made as aforesaid, such Town Clerk or other Officer shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds to any Person suing for the same.

XXXI. And he it further enacted, That any Mayor, Bailiff, Town Clerk or other Officer of any Corporation having a Right to return Members to Parliament, shall upon the Demand of any Candidate, Agent, or Freeman of such Corporation, on Payment of Two Shillings and Sixpence, permit such Freeman, between the Hours of Twelve at Noon and Three in the Afternoon, at any Time to inspect the Books and Papers whereby the Admission of Freeman shall be entered, and to have Copies or Minutes of the Admissions of so many Freeman as such Candidate, Agent or Freeman shall think fit, upon Payment to such Mayor or other Officer of Two Shillings and Sixpence for every such Admission; and such Books and Papers shall, if demanded by such Candidate or his Agent or Freeman, be produced by such Mayor or other Officer; and if such Mayor or other Officer shall refuse or deny such Candidate, Agent or Freeman the Inspection of such Books and Papers at any Election, if demanded and paid for in the Manner herebefore said forth, such Mayor or other Officer shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds to him, her or them who shall sue for the same, to be recovered in Manner herebefore mentioned.

XXXII. And he it further enacted, That no Person shall be admitted to vote at a Election at any Election of a Member to serve in Parliament, whose Freedom shall not have come to him by Service, Birthright or Marriage, unless he shall have been elected or admitted to his Freedom, or his Freedom shall have been granted to him, Six Calendar Months at the least before the Tests of the Writ for holding such Election.

XXXIII. And he it further enacted, That immediately after the Receipt of the Writ for making an Election for any County of a City or County of a Town, the Sheriffs or other Returning Officers of such County of a City or County of a Town shall and they are hereby required to indorse thereon the Date of receiving the same; and that such Sheriffs or other Returning Officers shall, within Two Days after the Receipt of such Writ, cause Proclamation of the Time and Place of holding such Election to be made, at the usual Place of holding such Elections, between the Hours of Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon and Two of the Clock in the Afternoon; and that the said Sheriffs or other Returning Officers on the Wherever more than 400 Freeholders in any County of a City or County of a Town, at different Places of polling persons, &c. Deputies and Poll Clerks to be appointed.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That whenever in any County of a City or County of a Town the Number of Freeholders appearing by the Books of the Clerk of the Peace capable of voting at any Election for the same shall exceed Eight hundred Freeholders, it shall and may be lawful for the Returning Officers and they are hereby required to provide Two or more Places for the polling the Freeholders of such County of a City or County of a Town, and to make such Division or Divisions of the Freeholders of such County of a City or County of a Town, according to the First Letter of their Names, that it shall not be necessary for more than Eight hundred Freeholders to poll in any one Place of polling, but as so as not to divide the Names beginning with the same Letter of the Alphabet; and such Returning Officers shall and they are hereby required to appoint as many Deputies and Poll Clerks as shall be necessary to take the Poll in such Places of polling, not exceeding One Deputy and One Poll Clerk for each Place of polling; provided, however, that no greater Number of polling Places shall be provided by such Returning Officers than One for every Eight hundred Freeholders, appearing by the Books of the Clerk of the Peace to be capable of voting at such Election.

When Freeman exceed 1200, Two Places of polling to be provided.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That whenever, in any County of a City or County of a Town, the Number of Freeman appearing by the Grand Panel or Roll of Freeman of such County of a City or County of a Town, capable of voting at any Election for the same, shall exceed One thousand, it shall and may be lawful for the Sheriffs or other Returning Officers, and such Returning Officers are hereby required to provide Two Places for the polling of the Freeman of such County of a City or County of a Town; and that it shall and may be lawful for the Returning Officers, and they are hereby required to appoint as many Deputies and Poll Clerks as shall be necessary to take the Poll in such Places of polling, not exceeding One Deputy and One Poll Clerk for each Place of polling; the respective Places of polling of Freeman to be separate and distinct from the Places appointed for the polling of Freeholders; provided, however, that no greater Number of polling Places than Two shall be provided by such Returning Officers for such County of a City or County of a Town.

When Polls to begin, and how long to continue, and when to conclude.

XXXVI. And be it enacted, That every Poll which shall be demanded at any Election of a Member or Members to serve in Parliament for any County of a City or County of a Town in England shall commence on the Day upon which the same shall be demanded, or upon the next Day after at farthest (unless such Day shall happen to be a Sunday, Christmas Day or Good Friday, and in such Case on the Day next after), and shall be duly and regularly proceeded in from Day to Day, for so many Hours of each polling Day as the Returning Officer or Officers is or are by this Act directed to keep the Poll open (Sundays, Christmas Day and Good Friday always and only excepted), until the same be finished, but so that no Poll for the Election of a Member or Members to serve in Parliament for any County of a City or County of a Town in England shall continue more than Fifteen Days at the most (Sundays, Christmas Day and Good Friday always excepted); and if such Poll shall continue until the Fifteenth Day, then the same shall be finally closed at or before the Hour of Three o'Clock in the Afternoon of the same Day; and the Returning Officer or Officers at every such Election shall, immediately after the final Close of the Poll, truly, fairly and publicly declare the Name or Names of the Person or Persons who hath or have the Majority of Votes on such Poll, and shall forthwith make a Return of such Person or Persons.

Returns made on 15th Day.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That every Returning Officer shall, before the Commencement of polling, take and subscribe in open Court the Oath following, which every Justice of the Peace is hereby required and authorized to administer:

Returning Officer to take the following Oath.

“ I A. B. do swear, That I will honestly, impartially and without Favour to any Candidate, take the Poll at this Election; and that I have not directly or indirectly received, nor will I hereafter directly or indirectly receive any Money, Gift, Reward, Promise, Contract or Security for Money or other Reward, for or in respect of the Conduct which I shall observe during the ensuing Poll; and that I will return a true and fair Return of all such Persons as shall tender their Votes before me, to be by me taken to the Returning Officer or Officers by whom I am appointed, whenever and as often as I shall be thereunto required by him or them.”

Deputies to take the following Oath.

And that every Deputy appointed by virtue of this Act shall, before he proceeds to take the Poll, take and subscribe, in open Court, the Oath following, in the Presence of the Returning Officer or Officers, who is and are hereby required and empowered to administer the same:

“ I A. B. do swear, That I will honestly, impartially and without Favour to any Candidate, take the Poll at this Election; and that I have not directly or indirectly received, nor will I hereafter directly or indirectly receive any Money, Gift, Reward, Promise, Contract or Security for Money or other Reward, for or in respect of the Conduct which I shall observe during the ensuing Poll; and that I will make a true and fair Return of all such Persons as shall tender their Votes before me, to be by me taken to the Returning Officer or Officers by whom I am appointed, whenever and as often as I shall be thereunto required by him or them.”

And a Memorandum of every of the said Oaths being taken shall be entered on the Poll Book.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That every Person whom any Returning Officer at any Election for a Member to serve in Parliament for any County of a City or County of a Town shall employ to act as Clerk for taking the Poll of Freeholders shall, before his beginning to take such Poll, take an Oath in the Form following:

‘ I A. B. do swear, That I will at this Election of a Member [or, Members, as the Case may be,] to serve in Parliament for the County of the City or the County of the Town [as the Case may be,] of truly and indifferently take the Poll, and set down the Name opposite to the Name of each Freeholder, in the Registry Book, his Name and the Place of his Abode, and the Situation and the Value of his Freehold, and for whom he shall poll.’

Which Oath every Returning Officer is hereby authorized and empowered to administer, and every such Clerk of the Peace † shall enter in a Book, to be provided for that Purpose, the Number which shall appear in the alphabetical Registry Book opposite to the Name of each Freeholder who shall tender his Vote, or offer to poll at such Election, in the Booth to which such Clerk shall be appointed, the Name of such Freeholder, and the Place of his Abode, the Situation and Value of his Freehold, and for whom he shall vote.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That every Person whom any Returning Officer, at any Election for a Member to serve in Parliament for any County of a City or County of a Town, shall employ to act as a Clerk for taking the Poll of Freemen, shall, before his beginning to take such Poll, take an Oath in the Form following:

‘ I A. B. do swear, That I will at this Election of a Member or Members [or the Case may be,] to serve in Parliament for the County of the City or County of the Town [as the Case may be,] of truly and indifferently take the Poll, and set down the Name and the Place of Abode of each Freeman, and for whom he shall poll.’

Which Oath every Returning Officer is hereby authorized and required to administer; and every such Clerk shall enter in a Book to be provided for that Purpose, the Name and the Place of Abode of each Freeman who shall tender his Vote, or offer to poll at such Election, in the Booth for which such Clerk shall be appointed, the Place of Abode of such Freeman, and for whom he shall vote.

XL. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Sheriff and other Returning Officers, at any Election for a Member to serve in Parliament for any County of a City or County of a Town, and they are hereby required to erect a Booth or Booths, unless there shall already be some fit and convenient Place for the Purpose, wherein they may and shall decide all the disputed Questions, and all the Objections to Votes that may be referred to them, and which Booth or Booths, or other Places, shall be separate from and exclusive of the Number of Booths or Buildings, or other Places necessary for the polling of the Electors; and such Returning Officers, or One of them, is and are hereby required to give his or their constant Attendance in such separate Booth, Building, or other Place, as which the polling shall continue each Day.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That the respective Deputies to be appointed by the Sheriff or other Returning Officers, in Manner herein mentioned, shall appear in each Place of polling such One Person for each Candidate as shall be nominated to him by such Candidate, to be an Inspector of the Clerk appointed for taking the Poll, and the Agent of such Candidate in such Place of polling; and shall also appear such One other Person for each Candidate as shall be nominated by such Candidate, to be a Clerk for keeping a Cheque Book of the Poll Book in such Place of polling.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That the Sheriff, or other Returning Officers of every County of a City or County of a Town, may from time to time during every Election remove any Deputy who shall be appointed in Manner herein directed, and appoint another in his Room, or may change any Deputy from one Booth or Building to another, as such Returning Officers shall think fit: Provided always, that every such Removal or new Appointment of a Deputy, or Change from one Booth or Building to another, shall be made publicly, and proclaimed in the Place where such Deputy shall take the Poll, by the Returning Officer or Officers, or some Person to be for that Purpose appointed by him or them.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Officers at any Election for a County of a City or County of a Town in Ireland, and they are hereby required, as the Demand is Writing of any Candidate, to appoint a sufficient Number of competent Persons to act as Interpreters, in order to translate faithfully such Oaths, Affirmations and such Questions and Answers as are required to be taken, made, asked or given, at any such Election; and that every such Interpreter shall, immediately after such Appointment and before he shall proceed to act under such Appointment, take the following Oath, and every Returning Officer is hereby required and empowered to administer the same:

‘ I A. B. do swear, That I will faithfully interpret such Oaths, Affirmations, Questions and Answers, as I shall be directed to interpret by the Returning Officer or Officers, and his or their Deputy or Deputies [as the Case may be].’

And that every such Person so appointed for the Purpose aforesaid shall be entitled to receive the Sum of Ten Shillings for each Day of his Attendance.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That the Clerk of the Peace, at every Election of a Member to serve in Parliament for any County, of a City or County of a Town in Ireland, shall appoint, or in Failure thereof, the Sheriff or other Justice Officers thereof shall appoint a Deputy Clerk of the Peace, who shall attend with the

XLV. And be it further enacted, That at every Election of a Member to serve in Parliament for any County of a City or County of a Town in England, the Town Clerk or other Officer having Charge of the Books relating to the granting or electing of or Admissions to Freeholds for such County of a City or County of a Town shall appoint, or in Failure thereof the Sheriff or other Returning Officers shall appoint a Deputy Town Clerk or other such Officer as shall have Charge of such Books, and such Deputy or appointed shall attend in the Place appointed for the Attendance of such Sheriff or other Returning Officers, and shall take such Books with him thertoe; and in case the Sheriff or other Returning Officer shall deem it expedient to refer to any of the Entries contained in such Books, such Deputy Town Clerk or other Officer shall produce the same to such Sheriff or other Returning Officer; and such Deputy Town Clerk or other Returning Officer shall be entitled to receive the Sum of Ten Shillings, and no more, for each Day of his Attendance.

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That at every Election for a Member to serve in Parliament for a County of a City or County of a Town in England, the Town Clerk or other Officer having Charge of the Grand Panel or Roll of Freeemen of such County of a City or County of a Town, shall provide a Copy of such Grand Panel or Roll of Freeemen for each Place of polling Freeemen at such Election; and shall appoint, or in Failure thereof, the Sheriff or other Returning Officers of such County of a City or County of a Town shall appoint a Deputy Town Clerk or other Officer, having Charge of such Grand Panel or Roll of Freeemen for such Place of polling Freeemen at such Election; and such Deputy or appointed shall take with him to such Place of polling a Copy of such Grand Panel or Roll of Freeemen, and shall produce and refer to the same, as shall be directed by the Sheriff or other Returning Officers or their Deputy, presiding in such Place of polling; and each of such Deputies shall be entitled to receive the Sum of Ten Shillings and so more for each Day of his Attendance.

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That at every Election of a Member or Members to serve in Parliament for any County of a City or County of a Town, the Returning Officer's Deputy shall, if required by any Candidate or the Inspector of any Candidate so to do, in Person administer, in the Place of polling in which he presides an Oath, in the following Form, to every Person separately who shall tender his Vote or offer to poll at such Election, and immediately after the Production of the Certificate or Affidavit of Registry, when any such Person offers to vote by virtue of a Freehold: (that is to say)

‘ I, A. B. do swear, [or being a Quaker or Moravian, do solemnly affirm,] That I will true answer and make to all such Questions as the Sheriff, or other Returning Officer's Deputy [as the Case may be], presiding in this Booth, shall demand of me; and I do also swear, [or, being One of the People called Quakers or Moravians, do solemnly affirm,] That I have not polled before at this Election, and that I am, as I believe, Twenty one Years of Age. ‘ So help me GOD.’

XLIX. And be it further enacted, That in every Case in which any Person shall tender his Vote, or offer to poll at any Election for a Member to serve in Parliament for a County of a City or a County of a Town, a Town, by virtue of a Freehold, the Returning Officer shall, in the first Place, refer to the Entry of the Registry of the Affidavit or Affirmation, in the alphabetical Book furnished by the Clerk of the Peace in which the same shall be contained, and write down opposite to the same the Initial Letters of his Name, and then he shall refer to the Certificate of Affidavit of the Registry of the same; and that if any such Person shall produce a Certificate of the Registry of his Freehold corresponding with such Entry of the original Affidavit or Affirmation, without any Erasure or Interlineation thereon, signed as required by Law, such Certificate shall, without further Proof, be deemed of equal Authenticity with the original Oath or Affirmation, and conclusive Evidence that such Person so tendering his Vote, or offering to poll, had registered such Freehold, and the Returning Officer's Deputy shall write down the Initials of his Name upon the Margin of such Certificate; and that in all Cases wherein no such Certificate shall be produced by the Person tendering his Vote, or offering to poll, or wherein such Certificate, if produced, shall appear to the Returning Officer's Deputy not to be in Manner and Form as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for the Returning Officer's Deputy, and he is hereby required to direct the Deputy Clerk of the Peace to produce the original Affidavit or Affirmation of the Registry of the Freehold of such Person so tendering his Vote, or offering to poll.

L. And be it further enacted, That whenever the Entry of the Affidavit or Affirmation shall appear in the Registry Book, and that any such Person shall have produced such a Certificate of Registry as is hereinafter described, or that the original Affidavit or Registry shall have been produced by the Deputy Clerk of the Peace, and that such Person so tendering his Vote, or offering to poll, shall have taken the Oath aforesaid, if required so to do, such Deputy shall then ask such Person for whom he votes, and the Vote of such Person shall be entered on the Poll Book according to his Answer, unless such Deputy shall be required by any Candidate, or the Agent of any Candidate, to put to such Person the Questions hereinafter mentioned, or unless an Objection be made to such Vote in Manner herein directed: Provided always, that it shall and may be lawful to and for the Returning Officer's Deputy to take the Vote of any Person tendering his Vote, or offering to poll, whose Freehold appears on the Registry Book, without referring to the Certificate or Affidavit or Affirmation of Registry, if he be not required by any Candidate, or any Inspector of any Candidate, so to do.

LL. And be it enacted, That the Returning Officer's Deputy shall, if required by any Candidate or the Agent of any Candidate so to do, put the following Questions, and so others, to any Person tendering his Vote, or offering to poll at any Election for a Member to serve in Parliament for a County of a City or County of a Town in Ireland, without allowing any Person to interrupt him:

1. What is your Name?
2. Where do you reside?
3. Do you swear that you are possessed of a Freehold in the County of the City or County of the Town of [naming the County of a City or County of a Town for which the Election is held]?
4. Where is such Freehold situated?

And that the Returning Officer's Deputy shall then, if required by any Candidate or the Inspector of any Candidate so to do, refer to the Certificate of Registry, if one be produced by the Person tendering his Vote or offering to poll, or if none be produced, to the original Affidavit of Registry, and then shall immediately ask, if required by any Candidate or the Inspector of any Candidate so to do, without making or allowing any other Person to make any Comments or Observations upon the said Certificate or Affidavit, the following Questions:—

5. Is the Freehold described in this Certificate or Affidavit of Registry [as the Case may be] the same Freehold which you now swear you are possessed of, or by virtue of which you now offer to vote?

And that in case it shall appear to the Returning Officer's Deputy, from the Certificate or Affidavit of Registry, that any Person shall tender his Vote or offer to poll in respect of a Freehold of the Value of Forty Shillings only, the said Deputy shall then, if required by any Candidate so to do, put the following Questions:—

6. Do you swear that you have been in the usual Occupation of the Freehold, as described in your Certificate or Affidavit of Registry [as the Case may be] by tilling it or by grazing it or by residing upon it during the Whole of the last Twelve Months?
7. Do you swear that the Freehold is now of the clear yearly Value of Forty Shillings, above all Charges payable out of the same?

And when such Person so tendering his Vote or offering to poll shall have answered the Questions that shall have been demanded of him as aforesaid, such Deputy shall ask such Person for whom he votes, and the Vote of such Person shall be entered in the Poll Book according to his Answer, unless an Objection be made to such Vote in Manner herein directed: Provided always, that if it shall appear to such Deputy, from the Answers which shall be given by any Person to the first Four Questions aforesaid, that his Freehold arises from a Rectory, Vicarage, or Curacy, or other Ecclesiastical Preferment, the said Deputy shall not proceed to put to such Person the other Questions herebefore mentioned; but when such Person shall have answered such Four Questions, such Deputy shall ask such Person for whom he votes: and the Vote of such Person shall be entered in the Poll Book according to his Answer, unless an Objection be made to such Vote in Manner herein directed; and provided always, that if an Entry of the Words of Registry deemed conclusive Evidence, and to defile thereof, the original Affidavit.

LXX. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Deputy of any Returning Officer to put any Questions to any Person tendering his Vote or offering to poll at any Election for a Member to serve in Parliament for a County of a City or a County of a Town, save and except those Questions heretofore directed to be put, or to make any Comments or Observations on the Answers which may be given to the same, or on any Matter or Thing relating to any Vote which may be tendered before him; and that if any Objection be made to any Vote or any Election for a County of a City or a County of a Town, or other Place, such Objection shall be forthwith referred by the Returning Officer's Deputy as heretofore directed to the Returning Officer; and that it shall not be lawful for any such Deputy to investigate the Right of any Person as a Voter or otherwise than as heretofore directed, or to reject the Vote of any Person, without Reference to the Returning Officer.

LXI. And be it further enacted, That every Returning Officer shall give such Instructions in Writing to his Deputy or Deputies appointed for taking the Poll at any Elections, as may be necessary to point out to him or them what is required of him or them to be done in respect of the Objections to Votes which may be made, and in respect of the Manner of transmitting them to such Returning Officer or Officers, and in respect of the due Performance of his or their Duty as such Deputy or Deputies, and that every such Deputy shall obey such Instructions as shall be so given by such Returning Officer or Officers.

LXII. And be it further enacted, That every Deputy shall, upon Notice given to him by the Returning Officer, each Day close his Poll Book, and deliver it the same immediately to such Officer, who shall sign up thereupon the Number of Votes polled on each Day for each Candidate, to be read aloud in open Court; and if any Deputy shall refuse to deliver his Poll Book when required by the Returning Officer, or shall continue to take the Poll after he shall have been directed by him to stop, and before he shall be again directed by him to proceed, or after his deputations shall be revoked, he shall forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds, to any Person who shall sue for the same, to be recovered as heretofore directed; and every Vote admitted by him after such Refusal or Direction to stop, or Revocation, shall be void, and the Person who offered such Vote shall not be deemed to have voted, and is hereby declared not to have voted or to have been polled at such Election.

LXIII. And be it further enacted, That any Deputy Sheriff, Poll Clerk, Clerk of the Peace, Deputy Clerk of the Peace, Assistant Deputy Clerk of the Peace, Deputy Town Clerk, or other Officer, Interceptor, Constable, Bailiff or Peace Officer, who shall absent himself from the Duty of his Office at any Election of a Member or Members to serve in Parliament for any County of a City or County of a Town, during any Part of the Time that the Poll shall be kept open on each Day, shall forfeit all Compensation for his Attendance during such Election, and that the Returning Officer or Officers is and are hereby authorized and required, in case of the Absence, Neglect, Misconduct or Inefficiency of any such Person or Persons immediately to remove any such Person or Persons, and to appoint a Person or Persons to fill his or their Place or Places.

LXIV. And be it further enacted, That the Returning Officer or Officers, at every Election for a Member to serve in Parliament for any County of a City or County of a Town, shall cause the Poll to be kept open in every Place, and on every Day of polling, from Ten of the Clock in the Morning, except on the First Day of Polling, until Five of the Clock in the Afternoon, except on the last Day of polling, between the Fifteenth Day of April and the Fifteenth Day of September, and from Ten of the Clock in the Morning, except on the First Day of polling, until Four of the Clock in the Afternoon, except on the last Day of polling, between the Fifteenth Day of September and the Fifteenth Day of April; and that in case any disputed Question, or any Objections to Votes referred to him or them by his or their Deputy or Deputies, shall not be decided during the Time for which the Poll shall be so kept open, the Returning Officer or Officers shall give his or their Attendance in his or their Booth or other Place of Sitting, and proceed to decide the same after the polling shall have ceased, or before the polling shall have commenced on any Day or Days of polling, except the last Day of polling.

LXV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Returning Officer or Officers, at any Election for a Member to serve in Parliament for every County of a City or County of a Town, and be and they is and are hereby required, on any Day after the Fourth Day of polling, commencing therein the Day on which the Poll shall be commenced, to close finally the Poll in any Booth or Place of polling in which no more than Twenty Persons have polled, or been returned for Deputies to the Returning Officer or Officers, during that Day: Provided always, that in case it shall appear, upon the Evidence of Two or more credible Witnesses taken upon Oath (and which Oath the Returning Officer or Officers is and are hereby empowered to administer), to the Returning Officer or Officers, that any Person intending to offer themselves to poll in such Booth or Place of polling have been prevented by Force and Violence from coming to the same for the Purpose of polling on that Day, that then and in every such Case it shall be lawful to and for the Returning Officer or Officers to keep such Booths or Place of polling open for another Day, and so on from Day to Day if such Force and Violence be repeated, and be found to have taken place in such Evidence as aforesaid, to the Satisfaction of the Returning Officer or Officers.

LXVI. And be it further enacted, That at any Election of a Member to serve in Parliament for any County of a City or County of a Town, it shall be lawful to and for the Returning Officer or Officers to summon all Constables, Bailiffs and other Peace Officers to attend the Places of polling, and to keep the Peace at such Election, and to perform such other Things as shall be assigned to him by the Returning Officer or Officers, and to appoint any Number of Special Constables that he or they may think proper to aid and assist therein; and that every Constable, Bailiff or Peace Officer, when so summoned, who shall neglect to attend during the whole of such Election, or to obey the lawful Commands of the LXVIII. And he it further enacted, That no Returning Officer or Officers for any County of a City or County of a Town, shall, upon any Pretence whatsoever, return more than the Number of Persons they or he shall by the Writ or Precept, be required to return; and that, in case of an Equality of Voices for any Two or more Candidates, where Two Sheriffs or other Returning Officer shall preside, upon the Close of the Poll, the Sheriff or other Returning Officer, whose Name shall stand first in the Appointment to the Office, shall, if he be present, give a casting Voice; and if he be not present, the junior Sheriff or Returning Officer shall give such casting Voice, whether such Sheriffs or other Returning Officers shall be otherwise legally qualified to vote or not, or whether they shall have voted or not at such Election, and if any Returning Officer or Officers shall return more than the Number of Persons, who shall by the Writ or Precept be directed to be returned, such Returning Officer or Officers shall forfeit the Sum of Two thousand Pounds to the Person who shall first sue for the same, to be recovered as hereinafter directed; and such Returning Officer or Officers shall be rendered incapable of ever after voting at any Election for a Member or Members to serve in Parliament.

LXIX. And he it further enacted, That if any Returning Officer or Officers, or any Deputy, who shall be appointed pursuant to this Act, shall unnecessarily and wilfully protract the Poll or be guilty of any wilful and unnecessary Delay in taking the same, every such Returning Officer or Officers and every such Deputy so offending shall forfeit the Sum of Five hundred Pounds to any Person who shall sue for the same, to be recovered as hereinafter directed.

LXX. And he it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall violently, riotously or outrageously disturb or interrupt any Election, or the Proceedings of the Poll, such Disturbance, Riot or Misbehaviour shall not be any Excuse to the Returning Officer or Officers, nor afford him or them any Pretence for closing the Poll or making a Return; but the Court shall thereupon be adjourned for some convenient Time, as the Occasion may require; and, if necessary, shall be further continued by Adjournment from time to time, until such Disturbance shall have ceased, when such Returning Officer shall again proceed to taking the Poll, and every Person who shall be, by due course of Law, convicted of having violently, riotously or outrageously disturbed the Court, or otherwise misbehaved, so as greatly to interrupt the Proceedings of the Poll, or of having wilfully effaced, obliterated, torn, altered or destroyed the whole or any Part of the Poll Books of the Returning Officer or Officers, or any Deputy, whereas any thing relative to the said Election shall have been entered, or of having forcibly or fraudulently taken or secured the same, or any Part thereof, or the Writ or Precept for holding such Election, shall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and be answerable for Seven Years.

LXXI. And he it further enacted, That in every Case in which a Poll shall take place at any Election for any County of a City or County of a Town in Ireland, the Returning Officer shall certify in his Return to the Writ for holding such Election the Names of the Candidates, and the Numbers who voted for each Candidate, as it appeared at the final Close of the Poll, and such Certificate shall be admitted as Evidence of the Truth of the Facts therein certified, unless disproved by contrary Evidence.

LXXII. And he it further enacted, That in case of a general Election, the Returning Officer or Officers, who shall receive any Writ for the Election of any Member or Members to serve in Parliament for any County of a City or County of a Town, shall make due Return of such Writ to the Clerk of the Crown, on or before the Day on which such Writ shall be returnable; and that in all Cases where such Writ shall be issued during a Session or Prorogation of Parliament, the Return shall be made of such Writ to the Clerk of the Crown, within Forty Days after the Tenth thereof; and all and every such Re-

Returning Officer or Officers as shall make Default therein shall forfeit to any Person who shall sue for the same the Sum of One hundred Pounds for each Day such Default shall be made, to be recovered in Manner hereinafter mentioned.

LXXIII. And be it further enacted, That no Fee, Gratuity or Reward whatsoever shall be given, paid, received or taken, by any Sheriff or Returning Officer or Officers of any County of a City or County of a Town, for making out, or for the Delivery, Return or Execution of any Writ or Precept, for the electing a Member or Members to serve in Parliament, and that all Contracts, Promises, Bonds and Securities to be made or given to any Sheriff, or other Returning Officer or Officers, for making a Return of any Member to serve in Parliament, or to pay such Sheriff or Returning Officer or Officers any Sum or Sums of Money, by way of Gratuity or Reward for making such Return or otherwise in respect thereof, shall be and are hereby declared to be null and void; and whosoever shall make, give or accept of such Contract, Promise, Bond or other Security, or any Gift or Reward to procure any false Return, shall forfeit a Sum equal to the Value given or intended to be given or accepted in such Contract, Promise or other Security, Gift or Reward; and also the further Sum of Two hundred Pounds to any Person who shall first sue for the same, to be recovered as hereinafter directed.

LXXIV. And be it further enacted, That every Election or Return of any Persons to serve in Parliament for any County of a City or County of a Town, who shall be under the Age of Twenty one Years, shall be deemed null and void; and that if it shall be determined by any Committee of the House of Commons, who shall try any Petition presented against any such Election or Return, that such Person was under the Age of Twenty one Years on the Day of such Election, a new Writ shall forthwith issue for the Election of another Person in his Place.

LXXV. And be it further enacted, That every Returning Officer who shall be by due Course of Law convicted of having acted corruptly or partially in the Execution of his Duty as Returning Officer, at any Election of a Member or Members to serve in Parliament, for any County of a City or County of a Town, shall be adjudged guilty of high Misdemeanour, and shall be imprisoned for a Period not exceeding Three Years; and such Person so convicted is hereby declared to be for ever incapable of holding any Office or Station, Civil or Military, under the Crown.

LXXVI. And be it further enacted, That in every Case in which a Poll shall take place as aforesaid, the Returning Officer shall, within Twenty one Days of the final Close of such Poll, deliver all the Poll Books of such Election to the Clerk of the Peace for such County of a City or County of a Town, verifying upon Oath, (which Oath any Justice of the Peace for such County, County of a City, County of a Town or Place, is hereby empowered to administer,) that the Poll Books which he delivers in are the original Poll Books of such Election, upon which the Return was founded; and that from the final Close of the Poll to the Time he delivers in the same there has not been any Obliteration, Erasure, Addition or Alteration made thereon, and such Poll Books shall be carefully kept amongst the Records of such County of a City or County of a Town, and the Production of such Poll Books, by such Clerk of the Peace or Officer, or his Deputy, shall be deemed sufficient Evidence of the Authenticity thereof, unless the same shall be disproved.

LXXVII. And be it further enacted, That the Sheriffs or other Returning Officers of every County of a City or County of a Town shall, at the same Time that they shall return the Poll Books used at every Election for such County of a City or County of a Town to the Clerk of the Peace, as herebefore directed, return therewith an Account of the Sums received for the Expenses of such Election from the several Candidates, and the Application thereof, and shall verify the same on Oath, which Oath any Justice or Justices of the Peace is and are hereby authorized to administer.

LXXVIII. And for the better securing the Performance of the Duties directed to be performed by the Clerk of the Peace or his Deputy, in respect to the Registry of Freeholds, be it further enacted, That the several Clerks of the Peace, or their Deputies, of the several Counties of Cities and Counties of Towns of Ireland, shall, at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace or Adjournment thereof next after the passing of this Act, or at the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace or Adjournment thereof next after his Appointment, take and subscribe an Oath in the Form following, and which Oath the Justices presiding at the said Sessions are hereby directed and empowered to administer:

LXXXVI. And be it further enacted, That all pecuniary Penalties inflicted by this Act shall be recovered with full Costs by Actions of Debt, Bill, Plea, or Indemnity, in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, and that it shall be sufficient for the Plaintiff in any such Action of Debt or Indemnity to set forth in the Declaration that the Defendant is indebted to him in the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, and to allege the particular Offence for which such Action or Indemnity is brought, and that the Defendant hath thereto acted contrary to this Act, without mentioning the Writ of Summons to Parliament, or the Return thereof; and that it shall be sufficient, in any Indemnity for any Offence contrary to this Act, to allege the particular Offence, and that the Defendant is guilty, without mentioning the Writ of Summons to Parliament, or the Return thereof; and that upon Trial of any Issue in any such Action, Indemnity or Indemnity, the Plaintiff, Informer or Prosecutor shall not be obliged to prove the Writ of Summons to Parliament, or the Return thereof, or any Warrant or the Sheriff, granted upon such Writ of Summons.

LXXXVII. And be it further enacted, That in case the Plaintiff or Informer, in any Action or Indemnity given by this Act, shall die intestate, or be assaulted, a Judgment shall be given against him, the Defendant shall recover Double Costs: Provided always, that every Action, Indemnity, Indemnity or Prosecution, grounded upon this Act, be commenced within One Year after the Offence shall be committed; and provided also, that in any Action or Suit brought against any Person or Persons, for any thing done in pursuance of this Act, or in relation to the Matters therein contained, the Defendant or Defendants shall or may, at his or their Election, plead specially or the General Issue, and give this Act and the special Name in Evidence as any Trial, and that the same was done in pursuance and under the Authority of this Act; and in case the Jury shall find a Verdict for the Defendant or Defendants, or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall be assaulted, or forsaken his, her or their Action or Suit, after the Defendant or Defendants shall have appeared, or upon any Demurrer, Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, then and in every such Case the Defendant or Defendants shall recover Double Costs, and have such Remedy for recovering the same as any Defendants hath or have in other Cases by Law.

C A P. LVI.

An Act for maintaining in Repair the Military and Parliamentary Roads and Bridges in the Highways of Scotland, and also certain Ferry Piers and Shipping Quays erected by the Commissioners for Highland Roads and Bridges.

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Forty third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intitled *An Act for granting to His Majesty the Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds, to be raised and applied towards making Roads and building Bridges in the Highways of Scotland, and for enabling the Proprietors of Land in Scotland to charge their Estates with a Proportion of the Expence of making and keeping in Repair Roads and Bridges in the Highways of Scotland: And Whereas, in addition to the said Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds, the further Sum of Two hundred and thirty thousand Pounds has at sundry Times since been granted in further Execution of the said Act, by means of which many useful Roads (to the Extent of Eight hundred and seventy five Miles) and many Bridges have been made and completed under several Contracts and Agreements entered into according to the Provisions and Regulations of the said Act: And Whereas another Act was passed in the Fifty sixth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intitled *An Act to repeal Two Acts made in the Fifty fourth and Fifty fifth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, for maintaining and keeping in Repair certain Roads and Bridges in Scotland; to provide more effectually for that Purpose; and for Regulation of Ferries in Scotland: And Whereas the Commissioners appointed Act were appointed Commissioners for the Purpose of the said last recited Act, together with the Lord Keeper of the Privy Seal of Scotland, and the First Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues in England, who were by the said last recited Act appointed Commissioners for carrying that Act, and also the said first recited Act into Execution; any Three of which Commissioners it was by the said Second recited Act directed should constitute a Quorum, of which one of the Commissioners appointed by virtue of his Office should always be one; and by which Act the said Commissioners were directed to maintain in Repair the before mentioned Roads and Bridges, and also several Roads made in the Course of the last Century for the Purpose of Military Communication in Scotland, inasmuch that nearly Twelve hundred Miles of Road are now under the Care of the said Commissioners: And Whereas, in addition to Five thousand Pounds directed to be annually issued by the Barons of the Exchequer in Scotland, for the Purpose of maintaining in Repair such Roads

* Roads and Bridges, certain Assessments were, by virtue of the said last recited Act, directed to be made and levied, in the Manner therein prescribed, upon the Counties wherein any of the Roads and Bridges therein mentioned were situated, and to such an Amount that the said Counties respectively should thereby be enabled to repay the said Commissioners Three Fourths of the Sum expended on the Roads in the preceding Year; but in case such Assessment of any County or One Penny in the Pound upon the Rates and Profits assigned to the Property Tax in the Year ending the Fifth Day of April, in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, under Schedule A, should not be sufficient to repay Three Fourths of the Sum advanced, then and in that Case such County should be further assessed so as to be enabled to repay One Half instead of Three Fourths of the further Sum of Money advanced by the said Commissioners for the Repair of such Roads and Bridges: And Whereas it is become expedient that Power should be given further to increase such Assessments, or to erect Toll Gates upon the said Roads and Bridges, or some of them, for the Purpose of maintaining the same in Repair, in aid of or in lieu of the Assessments so directed to be made and levied on the several Counties, provided such Toll Gates shall not be erected in any County, the Heritors of which shall not have previously signified their Consent thereto; and moreover it is expedient that the said last recited Act should be altered, in such respects as may be necessary, for the Purpose of enabling the said Commissioners to make such Arrangements as may be required, with the Heritors of the said Counties, or any of them, by reason of the Erection or Non-erection of such Toll Gates: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted: And be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby authorized, to signify (if they shall think fit) to the Heritors and Commissioners of Supply of any County in which any of the aforesaid Roads or Bridges are situated, that the County Assessment, levied by virtue of the last recited Act, together with the Parliamentary Allowance thereby given, is insufficient for the due Repair and Maintenance of the said Roads and Bridges, situated in such County, and that therefore they require the said Heritors and Commissioners of Supply to meet and assemble for the Purpose of considering, whether it will be fit and proper further to increase such Assessments; or that Toll Gates should be erected on any of the said Roads and Bridges within such County, in aid of or in lieu of the Assessment levied in such County; the said Notifications to be communicated to the Heritors and Commissioners of Supply, by sending it in Writing to the Conveener of such County; and, upon receiving such Notification in Writing, such Conveener shall within Three Months thereafter summon and assemble, or cause to be summoned and assembled, the Heritors and Commissioners of Supply (in the Way and Manner in which Heritors and Commissioners of Supply are summoned to meet and assemble in Scotland), for the Purpose of taking into Consideration the said Notification; and, upon being so summoned, such Heritors and Commissioners of Supply shall meet and assemble accordingly, and come to a Resolution or Resolutions in such Behalf, which Resolution or Resolutions shall forthwith be transmitted to the aforesaid Commissioners for the Repair of Roads and Bridges appointed by the Act of the Fifty ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty hereinbefore recited, in which Resolution or Resolutions it shall be stated and thereby ascertained, whether the Heritors and Commissioners of Supply of such County are willing and desirous further to increase such Assessment, or that Toll Gates shall be erected, and Tolls levied in Aid of the County Assessment before mentioned, or in lieu of such County Assessment; or that the County Assessment shall not be increased, and that no such Toll Gates shall be erected.

Notification to be made by Commissioners to Heritors that County Assessment is insufficient.

Resolution to be come to by Heritors.

Proceedings in case Resolution shall be in increase the County Assessment.

Copy of Order signifying Process and transmitted to Clerk of Commissioners.

How Commissions to proceed thereon.

II. And be it further enacted, That in case the said Resolution or Resolutions of the Heritors and Commissioners of Supply shall bear, that they are willing and desirous that the County Assessment shall be further increased, so as to defray the total Expense of maintaining in Repair the said Roads and Bridges in such County, beyond the Sum allowed for that Purpose out of the Five thousand Pounds hereinbefore mentioned, then and in such Case, the said further Assessment shall be made, levied and collected, under the Act of the Fifty sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, hereinbefore recited; provided nevertheless, that in all such Counties as are chargeable with a Sum not exceeding One hundred and fifty Pounds respectively, as their Proportion of the Expense of repairing the said Roads and Bridges, in the Year One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of Supply of such County, at any Meeting which shall be held in any County for this special Purpose within Six Months after the passing of this Act, to order and direct the Way and Manner in which such Assessment shall be made and levied in such County, in each and every Year thereafter, either separately or along with any other Assessment in such County; and a Copy of the Order thereupon to be made, signed by the Process of such Meeting, shall be forthwith transmitted to the Clerk of the Commissioners of Supply of such County, and the same shall be laid by the Clerk of Supply before the First Meeting of the Commissioners of Supply, which shall be held thereafter, and from and after the Receipt of such Order the Commissioners of Supply of such County are hereby directed to proceed accordingly.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That for the greater Convenience of Computation and of Collection of the Proportion of the Expense of repairing the said Roads and Bridges, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of Supply of any County to make and appoint such an Assessment as shall produce a Sum larger than the Sum advanced by the said Commissioners for the Repair of Roads and Bridges, and due to them by the said County, the Surplusage thereof to remain applicable in aid of the Assessment of the following Year or Years: Provided always, that such Surplusage shall not exceed One Fourth Part in addition to the Sum advanced by the Parliamentary Commissioners, and due to them by the said County, payable out of the County Assessment.

IV. And be it further enacted, That in case the said Resolution or Resolutions of the Heritors and Commissioners of Supply shall bear, that they are willing and desirous that Toll Gates shall be erected, and Tolls levied, in aid of the County Assessment upon any of the Roads or Bridges situated in such County, the said Commissioners for the Repair of Roads and Bridges shall determine whether in their Opinion the Tolls thence accruing will probably aid and relieve the County Assessment and Parliamentary Allowance, to such Amount, that the other Roads on which Tolls are not proposed to be levied may be maintained in Repair under the Provisions of the said recited Act, passed in the Fifth sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty: and if the said Commissioners shall determine in the Affirmative, they shall proceed to erect Toll Gates and levy Tolls accordingly, as hereinafter directed: provided always, that separate Accounts shall be kept of the Charge of maintaining the Roads maintained by Tolls, and of the Roads maintained as at present: but if the said Commissioners shall be of Opinion, that the Tolls proper to be imposed on the Roads specified in the aforesaid Resolutions will not be sufficient for the Maintenance of the same, or if they shall be of Opinion that the Roads specified in the Resolution or Resolutions of the County Meeting are not the preferable Roads on which Tolls ought to be levied in such County, then and in that Case such Opinion of the Commissioners for the Repair of Roads and Bridges shall be communicated to the Convener of such County in order that the Matter may be again laid before the Heritors and Commissioners of Supply of such County, and if they shall not concur in the Opinion of the Commissioners for the Repair of Roads and Bridges, the said Commissioners are hereby authorized and empowered to proceed as if the Heritors and Commissioners of Supply had determined not to increase the County Assessment, and that no Toll Gates whatever should be erected.

V. And be it further enacted, That in case the said Resolution or Resolutions of the Heritors and Commissioners of Supply shall bear, that they are willing and desirous that Toll Gates shall be erected, and Tolls levied, in lieu of the County Assessment, upon such of the said Roads or Bridges as the said Commissioners for the Repair of Roads and Bridges shall think fit, then and in such Case the said last mentioned Commissioners are hereby authorized and empowered to erect Toll Gates, and to levy Tolls, on such of the Roads or Bridges as in their Opinion may be maintained by Tolls in lieu of the Assessment of such County; and such County Assessment shall cease and determine, and be no more assessed or levied, beyond what may be assessed and leviable in Reparation of the Advance made by the Commissioners for the Repair of Roads and Bridges, in the Year in which such Resolution for the Establishment of Tolls in lieu of the County Assessment, shall be scotful to the said Commissioners: Provided always, that it shall and may be lawful for the said last mentioned Commissioners, and they are hereby required, to repair any other of the Roads or Bridges now under their Care in such County, upon requisit made from any Heritor or Heritors of such County as shall have determined that Toll Gates shall be erected in lieu of the County Assessment, a Sum equal to Two Third Parts of the estimated Expence of repairing the same, or any Part thereof.

VI. And be it further enacted, That in case the said Resolution or Resolutions of the Heritors and Commissioners of Supply shall bear, that they are unwilling to increase the County Assessment, or that any Toll Gates shall be erected by virtue of this Act, then and in such Case the Commissioners appointed by the said recited Act of the Fifth sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, are hereby authorized to declare and notify to the Convener of such County, that in their Opinion the County Assessment, leviable by virtue of the said recited Act passed in the Fifth sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, together with the Sum allotted to such County out of the Five thousand Pounds per Annum thereby given, is insufficient for the Purpose of maintaining in due Repair the Roads and Bridges in such County now under the Care of the said Commissioners, and that therefore they intend to withdraw themselves from any further Care of the same: whereupon they shall be, and are hereby authorized accordingly, at the End of the Year in which such Notice shall have been made: Provided always, that the County shall remain bound to repay to the said Commissioners the Sum advanced in that Year for the Repair of Roads and Bridges in such County.

VII. And be it further enacted, That after a Resolution of the Heritors and Commissioners of Supply of any County, to the Effect that they are willing and desirous that Tolls should be levied in such County, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby empowered to direct such Number of Toll Gates to be erected across any Part of any of the said Roads or Bridges in such County, and such Number of Toll Houses as they shall think fit, and to authorize Collectors or Tacksmen acting under their Authority, from time to time as they shall find necessary, to take and levy at each of such Gates, before any Passage be permitted, a Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding the following Rates; that is to say,

For every Horse or other Beast of Draught, drawing any Coach, Berlin, Landau, Chariot, Chaise, Calash or other such Carriage with Four Wheels, the Sum of Nine Pence Sterling:

For every Horse or other Beast of Draught, drawing any Chaise, Gig, Carriage or other like Carriage, with Two Wheels, the Sum of Sixpence Sterling:

For every Horse or other Beast of Draught, drawing any Wagon, Wain, Cart or other like Carriage, the Sum of Three Pence Sterling:

Provided always, that in case of Heritors in case of erecting Toll Gates, levying Tolls, &c.

And where the Commissioners of Supply shall be of Opinion that the Tolls will be insufficient.

In what Case County Assessment shall cease.

Proviso for the Repair of other Roads.

In what case the Commissioners under 2000 l. c. 155. are authorized from the Care of Roads and Bridges.

County to repay Commissioners.

Property of Toll Houses and Materials vested in Commissioners.

Power to purchase or take in Lease Grounds necessary for Toll Houses.

Application of Tolls.

Applying to receive the Tolls.

VIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Post Horse which shall be hired to draw any Carriage shall when going to fetch or draw such Carriage be liable to any Toll on passing through any Toll Gate to be erected by virtue of this Act.

IX. And be it further enacted, That within One Calendar Month after any Toll Gate shall be erected by virtue of this Act, the said Commissioners shall, and they are hereby required to put up or cause to be put up, and afterwards to be continued at every such Toll Gate, a Table, painted in distinct and legible Black Letters on a Board with a White Ground, containing at the Top thereof the Name of the Gate at which the same shall be put up, and also a List of all the Tolls payable at every such Gate, distinguishing the several Tolls, and the different Sorts of Carriages for which they are to be paid, where there shall be any Variation therein, and also a List of the several Gates which shall be wholly or partially cleared by the Payment of Toll at the Toll Gate or Bar where such Table or Tolls shall be affixed; and the said Commissioners shall also provide Tickets denoting the Payment of Toll, and on such several Tickets shall be named and specified the Name of the Gate at which the same respectively shall be delivered, and also the Names of the several Gates freed by such Payment, one of which Tickets shall be delivered gratis to the Person paying the Toll, and on the Production of such Ticket at any Gate or Gates therein mentioned as being cleared as aforesaid by the Payment of the Toll at the Gate where such Ticket was delivered, the Person producing the same shall pass through the Gate or Gates therein mentioned, without paying any further or additional Toll.

X. And be it further enacted, That the Tolls so to be raised and collected by virtue of this Act shall and are hereby declared to be vested in the said Commissioners, and shall be strictly applied to and for the Uses and Purposes by this Act directed, and shall any Part thereof be expended without their Direction; and if any Person or Persons subject to the Payment of Tolls hereby granted shall, after Demand made, neglect or refuse to pay the same, the said Commissioners shall be and are hereby empowered, by such Person or Persons as they shall appoint, to levy the same by Distress and Sale of any Horse or Horses, or other Cattle or Carriage upon which such Toll is imposed, and in case the Toll and Charges of the Distress shall not be paid at the Expiration of Six Days after the same shall have been so distrained, to sell the Cattle or Carriage distrained by Public Auction, Keep or Ostery, at the Toll House where the Toll should have been paid, retaining the Overplus (if any be) to the Owner on Demand, after Deduction of such Toll, and all Charges for distraining, keeping, appraising and selling the same.

XI. And be it further enacted, That the Right and Property of all and every the said Toll Gates, Toll Houses and Premises, to be erected by virtue of this Act, and of the Materials thereof, with the Materials that shall be collected and dug up for making and repairing the said Roads and Bridges, shall be vested in the said Commissioners, who may and they are hereby authorized to dispose of them as they shall think proper for the Purposes of this Act only.

XII. And for the better enabling the said Commissioners to erect the Toll Houses necessary for collecting the said Tolls, be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall be and they are hereby empowered to purchase or take in Lease such Pieces of Ground as they shall judge most convenient, not exceeding One Fourth of an Acre for each House if Waste Land, and not exceeding One Eighth of an Acre if inclosed or cultivated Land; and if they cannot agree with the Proprietor and Occupier of the Ground, they shall apply to the Justices of the Peace assembled in Quarter Sessions, who shall have Power, and they are hereby required to oblige such Proprietor or Occupier to give a Lease of the said Ground for any Term not exceeding the Continuation of this Act, and so to fix the Rent of the same.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Dispute shall happen about the Amount of the Tolls due, or the Charges of making, keeping or selling any Distress, such Disputes shall be settled and determined by some Justice of the Peace for the County wherein such Dispute shall arise, who, on Application made to him for that Purpose, shall examine the Matter as the Oath of the Parties or other Witness or Witnesses, and shall determine the Amount of the Tolls due, and shall award such Costs and Charges to either Party as to the said Justice shall appear right and proper; all which Costs and Charges shall and may be levied and recovered, in case of Nonpayment thereof forthwith, by Warrant under the Hand of such Justice, rendering the Overplus (if any) on Demand, after deducting the Costs and Charges of making such Distress and Sale, to the Person or Persons whose Goods and Effects shall be so distrained and sold.

XIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That after deducting the Charges of Management, and other legal Burdens, the Produce of the Tolls granted by this Act shall be applied by the said Commissioners towards repairing and upholding, improving or altering the said several Roads and Bridges whereon such Tolls or Duties shall respectively be collected; or to the repairing and building Fences, Drains and other Works thereupon, where the same shall be found necessary.

XV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person occupying any Lands or other Premises near to any of the said Roads and Bridges shall suffer to permit any Person or Persons, not being his or her Servants, or of his, her or their Family, to pass over the same, or through any Gate or Passage, with any any Horse, Beast or Carriage, for which Toll it is to be paid by virtue of this Act, or shall covisee thereof, with intent to evade the Payment of the said Tolls or any of these; or if any Person shall forcibly pass through or about any Person is passing through any Gate erected by virtue of this Act, whereby the Payment of such Toll may be evaded, such Person so persisting, and the Person or Persons riding or driving such Horse, Beast or Carriage through such Levels or Private Passage; and any Person or Persons riding or driving any Horse, Beast or Carriage through any private Road, (not being within the Exception aforesaid) or forcibly passing through any such Gate, being convicted thereof by the Testimony of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses before the Sheriff, Osgate or Substute, or any One or more of the Justices of the Peace for the County wherein the Offence shall be committed, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay to the said Commissioners, or to their Collector or Collectors, any Sum not exceeding

Penalty.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall take off any Horse or Horses, or Cows, or other Beasts of Draught, from any Carriage at or before the same shall come to any of the Gates erected by virtue of this Act, and after having passed any such Gate shall afterwards add or put on the same to such Carriage, with an Intention to evade the Payment of any of the Tolls hereby imposed, or any Part thereof, and every Person or Persons so offending in any of the Cases aforesaid, and being thereof convicted in Manner aforesaid, shall forfeit and pay to the said Commissioners, or to their Collector for the Time being, any Sum not exceeding

Taking off Horses, &c. to evade Tolls

Penalty

XVII. And be it further enacted, That no Person or Persons having paid the Tolls herebefore granted at any of the said Gates, shall on the same Day (to be computed from Twelve of the Clock at Night to Twelve of the Clock of the succeeding Night) be liable to pay again the said Tolls at any Gate through which they shall have passed, for the same Horses or other Beasts of Draught, drawing the same Coach, Cart or other Wheel Carriage, or for the same Horses or other Beasts or Cattle, for which any such Toll shall have been so previously paid on the same Day.

Tolls payable only once in the same Day.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Gates shall be erected by virtue of this Act within a less Distance of each other than Six Miles, any Person or Persons producing a Ticket to shew that he, she or they have paid the Tolls at one Gate, shall not pay any further Tolls till the Distance shall exceed Six Statute Miles, from the Gate at which he, she or they shall have paid: Provided always, that if at any Time the Commissioners shall think fit to lessen the Number of such Gates, without diminishing the Amount of Tolls payable, it shall and may be lawful for them so to do, and thereafter to demand and take Double Toll at any Gate which shall not be placed within Nine Miles of any other Gate: Provided always, that the Number of said Tolls demanded and taken shall not exceed One for Six Miles of Road.

Toll Gates within Six Miles from each other.

Toll may be increased when Gates diminished.

XIX. And Whereas on several of the Roads to be maintained in Repair by virtue of this Act no Post Horses can be bred, by reason of which the same Horses cannot return in the same Day (as is usual on other Turnpike Roads), and will thereby become again subject to Toll, contrary to the true Intention and Meaning of this Act (Be it therefore enacted, That Horses so returning with an empty Carriage, or without any Carriage, shall not be chargeable with any Toll in case the highest Rate of Toll authorized by this Act shall have been demanded and paid for the same Horses within sufficient Time (to be determined by the said Commissioners) for the same Horses to return from the Place or Places nearest to the first Toll Gate where Post Horses can be bred on each Road respectively; but in case the full Toll shall not have been paid, such further Toll may be demanded and taken for the said returning Horses as shall, with the Toll previously paid for such Horses, amount to not more than the full Toll authorized by this Act.

In what Case Post Horses are to pay when returning.

XX. And be it further enacted, That upon Payment of the said Tolls the Collector or Collectors thereof shall and he is hereby required to deliver gratis to the Person paying such Tolls, a Note or Ticket denoting such Payment, and there shall be printed and specified thereon the Names of the several and respective Gates freed from such Payment.

Tickets to be delivered on Payment of Tolls.

XXI. And for preventing Fraud and Abuse in the said Tolls, be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons having a Note or Ticket, Notes or Tickets, signifying the Payment of such Toll, shall give or dispose of the same to any other Person or Persons in order to avoid Payment of the said Toll, every such Person so giving or disposing of such Note or Ticket, Notes or Tickets, or receiving the same, being convicted thereof upon Oath before One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace, or before the Sheriff, Osgate or Substute of the County wherein the Offence shall have been committed, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Twenty Shillings Sterling to the said Commissioners or their Collector or Collectors.

Giving Tickets to another Person.

Penalty.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall assault, interrupt, hinder, obstruct or disturb, or cause, procure or encourage to be assaulted, interrupted, hindered or disturbed, any Collector of the said Tolls, every such Person shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings.

Obstructing Collectors.

Penalty.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That all and every Toll Collector appointed either by the said Commissioners, or by any Leasee or Lessees under them, to collect the Tolls payable at any Toll Gate erected by virtue of this Act, shall and he is hereby required to place his Christian and Surname, painted on a Board of legible Characters, on the Front or some other conspicuous Part of the Toll House or Toll Gate immediately upon his coming on Duty, and shall continue the same so placed during the whole Time he shall be upon such Duty, each of the Letters of such Name or Names to be at least One Inch in Length, and of a Breadth in proportion, and painted in White Letters on a Black Ground, or Black Letters on a White Ground; and if any Collector of the said Tolls shall not place such Board as aforesaid, and keep the same there during the Time aforesaid, or shall not give constant Attendance at all Hours, or shall demand or take a greater or less Toll from any Person or Persons than he shall be authorized to do by virtue of the Powers of this Act, or shall demand and take a Toll from any Person or Persons who shall be exempt from the Payment thereof, or shall refuse to permit or suffer, or shall in anywise hinder any Person or Persons from reading such Christian or Surname, or shall refuse to tell his Christian or Surname to any Person or Persons who shall demand the same on having paid the said Tolls, or any of these, or shall give a false Name or Names on such Demand, or shall refuse or neglect to give a Ticket denoting the Payment of the Toll, and naming and specifying the several Gates fixed by such Payment, or shall make use of any scurrilous or blasphemous Language to any Person or Persons travelling upon the said Roads and Bridges, or shall without sufficient Cause detain or delay any Person or Persons travelling thereon, then and in every such Case every such Collector shall forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Twenty Shillings for every such Offence, as the Justice or Justices before whom the Information shall be laid shall adjudge.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That this Act shall not extend or be construed to extend to charge with Toll any Horses or Carriages attending His Majesty or any of the Royal Family.

XXV. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted and declared, That no Person or Persons shall be charged with any of the Tolls aforesaid, for passing through any of the Toll Gates to be erected by virtue of this Act, who shall not travel above Two hundred Yards on any of the said Roads; nor any Person carrying or conveying Stones or other Materials for making, repairing and building the said Roads and Bridges, or other Public Roads or Bridges, or any of the Causeways within or belonging to the same, or going or returning empty for these Purposes; nor shall any Occupier or Occupiers of Land be charged with any of the Tolls aforesaid for passing from one Part to another of the same Farm; nor shall any Occupier or Occupiers of Fields or Barns or Roads or other Farms or other Buildings erected for the Use of the said Fields or Lands, be liable to pay any of the said Tolls for any Horses or Carriages carrying Dung to the said Fields or Roads from the said Yard where such Dung is made, for the Use of the said Fields or Roads; nor carrying any Corn in the Straw, Hay or Grass, being the Produce of the said Fields or Roads, to the Place where the said Corn in the Straw, Hay or Grass is usually left or used by the said Occupier or Occupiers; nor shall any empty Carriages returning from carrying the Matters aforesaid or any of them; nor shall any Toll be demanded from any Person or Persons who shall pass or return through the said Gates to or from their proper Church or Chapel, or any Person or Persons going to or returning from his, her or their usual Place of Religious Worship tolerated by Law upon Sunday, or any other Day on which Divine Worship is ordered by Authority to be celebrated; nor from any Clergyman within his own Parish going to or returning from visiting any sick Person, or upon other his Parochial or Ministerial Duty as Sunday, or on any other Day on which Divine Services are ordered by Authority to be celebrated, nor for any Person or Persons who shall pass or return attending the Funeral of any Person or Persons who shall be buried within the Parish in which such Person or Persons died; nor for Horses or Cattle going to or returning from pasturing or watering Places, or going to Stables for the Purpose of being shod, nor for any Horses or Carriages of whatever Description employed or to be employed in carrying the Mails of Letters and Expresses under the Authority of His Majesty's Postmaster General, either when employed in carrying, fetching or guarding such Mails or Expresses, or in returning from conveying the same; nor for the Horses or Carriages of Officers or Soldiers upon their March or upon Duty, or for any Horses, Cattle or Carriages employed in carrying or conveying the Arms or Baggage of any such Officers or Soldiers, or in carrying any sick, wounded or disabled Officers or Soldiers, or in returning from carrying or conveying the same; nor for any Horses, Mares or Geldings, furnished by or for any Person belonging to any Corps of Yeomanry or Volunteer Cavalry, and rode by them in going to or returning from the Place appointed for and on the Days of Exercise; provided always, that such Persons shall be dressed in the Uniform of their respective Corps, and have their Arms, Furniture, and Accoutrements according to the Regulation provided for each Corps respectively; nor for Carts, Carriages or Waggon, travelling with and conveying Vagrants or Criminals sent with legal Passes or Warrants, or returning from conveying the same; and if any Person shall claim or take the Benefit of any of the said Exemptions not being legally entitled to the same, every such Person shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds Sterling.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That no Person owning or driving, or causing to be driven any Waggon, Wain, Cart or other Carriage provided for the Service of His Majesty's Forces, or conveying any Ordnance, Barrack or Commissariat or other Public Stores or of belonging to His Majesty, or for the Use of His Majesty's Forces, shall be subject to any Penalty or Forfeiture for Overweight; nor shall any such Waggon, Wain, Cart or other Carriage be stopped or detained by reason of any Weight in such Waggon, Wain, Cart or other Carriage, or of being drawn by any Number of Horses or Oxen; but it shall be lawful for any Owner or Driver of any such Waggon, Wain, Cart or other Carriage, to put any Number of Horses or Oxen to such Waggon, Wain, Cart or other Carriage; any Thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to Highways or Turnpike Roads or in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

upon every Toll Gate after the same shall have been erected, and also by Insertion thereof in some public Newspaper circulated in that Part of the Country, and from and after the Expiration of One Year after the Tolls at any such Gate shall have been once let, specifying in every such Notice the Sum which the said Tolls produced in the preceding Year, clear of the Salary for collecting the same, in case any hired Collector was appointed; and that they will let such Tolls by Auction to the best Bidder, on his producing sufficient Sureties for Payment of the Money monthly or otherwise (as in such Notice shall be specified) and that they will be put up at the Place which they were let for or produced in the preceding Year, clear of the Salary of the Collector; and to prevent Fraud, or any undue Preference in the letting thereof, the said Commissioners are hereby required to provide a Glass with an inch Sand in it so well run from one End of it to the other in One Minute, which Glass, at the Time of letting such Tolls, shall be set upon a Table, and immediately after every Bidding the Glass shall be turned, and as soon as the Sand is run out shall be turned again, and so for Three Times, unless some other Bidding intervene; and if no other Person shall bid until the Sand shall have run through the Glass Three Times, the best Bidder shall be the Farmer or Rentor of the said Tolls, and shall forthwith enter into a proper Agreement for the taking thereof and paying the Money at the Times specified in such Notice, with such Surety or Sureties for Payment thereof, and under such Conditions and in such Manner as the said Commissioners shall think fit, and if the Person being the best Bidder shall not forthwith enter into such Agreement, it shall and may be lawful to put up the said Tolls upon immediately for another Bidder, and in like Manner to continue putting up the same until a Bidder shall be found who shall enter into such Agreement; and in case no Bidder shall offer, or in case the same shall not be let at any such Auction, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to accept a private Tender for the same, and to decrease or let in firm or agree to decline or let to furnish all or any of such Tolls at any Sum not less than the Sum at or for which they shall then have been last let, or the said Commissioners may appoint a Collector of such Tolls, or Ex some future Day for the letting thereof, as they shall judge most proper, upon giving such Notice thereof as aforesaid, and shall send any in that Case put them up at such Sum as they shall think fit; and if the Person or Persons who shall be the Farmer or Rentor or Collector of Collectors of such Tolls shall take a greater or less Toll than any Person or Persons then what is authorized and directed by this Act, he or they shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of Five Pounds, and the said Agreement for renting the Tolls shall, if the said Commissioners shall think fit to secure the same, become and be null and void: Provided always, that at all such Lettings, the said Commissioners shall be entitled to bid for the Tolls as to be let, either by themselves or any other Person by them respectively authorized: Provided also, that no such Tolls shall be decreased or raised for any longer Term than Three Years at any One Time.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall have Power to compound, or agree with any Person or Persons using any of the said Roads and Bridges, or any Ferry Pass or Shipping Quay hereinafter mentioned, for any specified Sum of Money to be paid, or for any specified Quantity of Labour to be performed by him, her or them, in lieu of paying Tolls or Tonnage Rates during One whole Year, and Copies of all such Agreements shall be entered in a Book or Books to be kept for that Purpose by the Chief Inspector of Highland Roads, and by the Law Agent of the said Commissioners, to be seen and perused by any Person or Persons at all reasonable Times without Fee or Reward.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall wilfully or maliciously break down or otherwise destroy or deface any Gates, Mile Stones, Posts, Chains, Bars, Houses, Pickets or other Works whatsoever, erected for the Use of such Toll Gates, or any of the Ferry Pass or Shipping Quay hereinafter mentioned, or shall receive any Person in Company for any of these Offences, every Person so offending, being thereof lawfully convicted in any Prosecution ordered by the said Commissioners, upon the Oath of One or more credible Witness or Witnesses, before the Sheriff, Depute, or his Substitutes, or any Two or more Justices of the Peace of the County wherein the Offence shall be committed, shall be condemned to pay any Sum not exceeding Two Pounds Sterling, and to be imprisoned any Time not exceeding One Calendar Month, and thereafter until the Damages awarded shall be paid.

XXX. And Whereas in certain Counties in the Highlands of Scotland there are Military Roads which are not under the Care and Superintendance of the Commissioners appointed by the heretofore cited Act passed in the Fifth sixth Year of His late Majesty, by reason that such Counties have hitherto been unwilling to raise by Assessment a Portion of the Sum necessary for maintaining the same in Repair: And Whereas such Counties or some One of them may be willing to raise, by Means of Tolls, a Sum which may be sufficient to put and maintain the said Military Roads in such County, or a Part of such Military Roads in Repair: Be it therefore enacted, That in such Case it shall and may be lawful for the Heritors and Commissioners of Supply of any such County, at any General Meeting specially summoned by the Comptroller for that Purpose, to determine on a Resolution to such Effect, and to communicate the same to the said Commissioners, who shall thereupon take the same into Consideration, and if it shall appear to them that the said Military Road, or Part of such Military Road, in such County can be put and maintained in Repair, in such Case it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners to signify their Opinion as to that Effect, to the Heritors and Commissioners of Supply of such County, and to publish the same in the Newspaper or Newspapers usually circulated in such County; and thereupon Toll Gates shall and may be erected and Tolls levied pursuant to this Act, and the said Military Road, or Part of such Military Road, in such County, shall thereafter be placed under the Care and Superintendance of the said Commissioners, in the Manner provided by the said heretofore cited Act, passed in the Fifth sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty.

Provision for Repair of Ferry Boats and Shipping Quays.

XXXV. And Whereas several Ferry Boats and Shipping Quays have been erected by the Commissioners appointed by the said recited Act passed in the Forty third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, entitled An Act for granting to His Majesty the Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds, to be issued and applied towards making Roads and building Bridges in the Highlands of Scotland, and for enabling the Proprietors of Land in Scotland to charge their Estates with a Proportion of the Expense of making and keeping in repair Roads and Bridges in the Highlands of Scotland; And Whereas it is expedient to provide Funds for maintaining the same in Repair: Be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby empowered to direct that no Person shall be permitted to embark from, or to land on such Pier or Quay, by means of any Ferry Boat plying for Hire, or any other Boat, unless and until a Sum not exceeding Two Pence per Boat (at the Discretion of the said Commissioners) shall be paid for every such Ferry Boat or other Boat arriving at or departing from any such Pier or Quay; nor shall any Goods or other Commodities be embarked from or landed at any such Plat or Quay from any Vessel or Boat (not being a Ferry-Boat plying for Hire nor a Vessel whose Tonnage is regulated), unless and until a Sum not exceeding Two Pence per Ton shall be paid for every Ton Weight of such Goods or Commodities so embarked or loaded; and any fractional Part of a Ton Weight less than a Quarter, Half or Three Quarters of a Ton shall be charged as a Quarter, Half or Three Quarters of a Ton respectively, and any fractional Part exceeding Three Quarters of a Ton shall be charged as a whole Ton; and in case of Vessels whose Tonnage is regulated, a Sum not exceeding Two Pence per Ton shall be chargeable and paid for every Ton of the regulated Tonnage of such Vessel arriving at or departing from such Plat or Quay.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and lawfully be lawful for the said Commissioners to make such Rules and Regulations as they shall think fit to prescribe for the Preservation and Use of such Ferry Piers and Shipping Quays, and to enforce the same by such moderate Penalties as they shall think proper, not exceeding Ten Shillings for any One Offence: Provided always, that the said Commissioners shall put up or cause to be put up and afterwards to be renewed when destroyed, defaced or obliterated, upon some conspicuous Place or Places at such Ferry Piers and Shipping Quays, a Table printed in distinct and legible Black Letters on a Board with a White Ground, containing such Rules and Regulations, which Rules and Regulations, so put up or renewed, shall be sufficient to justify all Persons who shall be authorized by the said Commissioners to enforce the said Rules and Regulations, provided they be not repugnant to the Laws of Scotland, or any of the Directions of this Act: and all such Rules and Regulations shall be subject to appeal to a Mayor directed by this Act, and if any Person or Persons shall wilfully destroy, deface or obliterate any Board, or any Part thereof, containing any of such Rules and Regulations, every Person so offending, and being convicted thereof by the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, before the Sheriff Deputy or Substitute, or any One or more of the Justices of the Peace of the County wherein the Offence shall be committed, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay to the said Commissioners, or any Person only authorized by them in that Behalf, any Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings Forfeiture.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall wilfully pull down or damage any Bridge, Wall or any other Building or Structure made by the Commissioners for the Repair of Roads and Bridges, or shall haul or draw, or cause to be hauled or drawn, upon any Part of any of the said Roads, any Trestle, Stone or other Thing, otherwise than upon wheeled Carriages, or shall suffer any Timber, Stone or other Thing, which shall be carried principally or in Part upon wheeled Carriages, to drag or trail upon any Part or Parts of such Road, to the Prejudice thereof; or shall use any Tipstrik, Joggle or other Instruments, for the Purpose of retarding the Progress of any Cart or other Carriage, draw any Hill, in such Manner as to destroy, injure or detrap the Surface of any such Road; or shall, in or upon any such Road, or by the Side or Sides thereof, or in any exposed Station near thereof, kill, slaughter, mangle, scald, burn, dress or cut up any Head, Pelt, Skin, Calf, Lamb or other Cattle; or if any Person driving any Horse or other Beast on any of the said Roads, carrying any Iron Bar or Rod, Basket or Pannier, or any other Matter or Thing, shall place such Bar or Rod, Basket or Pannier, Matter or Thing, so that the same or any of them shall project more than Thirty Inches from the Side of such Horse or other Beast, or so as in any Manner to obstruct or impede the Passage of any Person, or any Horse, Beast or other Carriage travelling along such Road, or if any Blacksmith or other Person occupying a Blacksmith's Shop, anise near any of the Roads, and having a Warden or Windmill facing the said Road, shall not by good and close Shutters, every Evening, after it becomes Twilight, bar and prevent the Light from such Shop shining into or upon such Road; or if any Person or Persons shall make or assist in making any Fire or Fires commonly called Barfires, or shall set fire to or wastefully let off or throw any Squib, Rocket, Serpents or other Firework whatever, within Eighty Feet of the Centre of such Road, or if any Person shall loose any Wagon, Wheel, Cart or other Carriage whatever, upon such Road, or on the Side or Sides thereof, without any proper Person in the sole Custody or Care thereof, longer than may be necessary to load or unload the same, except in Cases of Accident, and in Cases of Accident for a longer Time than may be necessary to remove the same, or shall not place such Wagon, Wheel or other Carriage, during the Time of loading or unloading the same, or of taking Refreshment, so near to one Side of the Road as conveniently may be, either with or without any Horse or Beast of Draught harnessed or yoked thereto, or shall lay any Timber, Stone, Hay Stacks, Dung, Manure, Soil, Ashes, Rubbish or other Matter or Thing whatsoever, upon such Road, or on the Side or Sides thereof, to the Prejudice of such Road, or to the Prejudice, Annoyance, Inconvenience or personal Danger of any Person or Persons travelling thereon, or shall suffer any Water, Mire, Dirt or other offensive Matter or Thing whatsoever, to run or flow on or upon such Road or Footpaths from any House, Building, Erection, Lands or Premises adjacent thereto, or if any Person driving any Pigs or Swine upon any such Road, shall suffer such Pigs or Swine to root up or damage such Road, or the Fences, Hedges, Banks or Copses, on either Side thereof respectively; or if any Person shall, after having blocked or stopped any Cart, Wagon or other Carriage, in going up a Hill or rising Ground, cause or suffer to be or remain on such Road the Stone or other Thing with which such Cart or other Carriage shall have been blocked or stopped, every Person offending in any of the Cases aforesaid shall, for each and every such Offence, forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings over and above the Damages occasioned thereby.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That no Door or Gate of any Building, Park, Field or Inclosure whatsoever, shall be made to open into or towards any Part of any of the said Roads, or be suffered to continue so to open, except the hanging Post thereof shall be fixed or placed so far from the Centre of any Part of such Road, as that no Part of such Door or Gate shall, when open, project over any Part of such

C A P. LIX.

An Act to defray the Charge of the Pay, Clothing and contingent and other Expenses of the Disembodied Militia in Great Britain and Ireland; and to grant Allowances in certain Cases to Subaltern Officers, Adjutants, Quartermasters, Sergeants, Assistant Sergeants, Sergeants' Mates and Sergeant Majors of Militia, until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty four. [24th July 1823.]

WHEREAS it is necessary that Provision should be made for defraying the Charge of the Pay, Clothing and contingent and other Expenses of the Regular Militia, and of the Minors of Cornwall and Devon (when disembodied), in Great Britain and Ireland; and also for making Allowances of Reduced Pay in certain Cases to Subaltern Officers and Sergeants' Mates of the Regular Militia, and Minors of Devon and Cornwall, in Great Britain, while disembodied; and also Allowances to Adjutants and Sergeant Majors of the Regular Militia, who have been or may be reduced; and to Adjutants, Sergeants and Quartermasters, after long Service: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Secretary at War for the Time being may and shall, and he is hereby authorized, empowered and required to cause to be issued and paid the whole Sum required for the Regular Militia of Great Britain and Ireland (when disembodied), in the Manner and for the several Uses hereinafter mentioned; (that is to say,) for the Pay of the said Regular Militia at the Rates following; (that is to say,)

For each Adjutant, Eight Shillings per Diem -

For each Paymaster, in Corps consisting of Three Companies and upwards, Six Shillings per Diem;

For each Paymaster, in Corps consisting of Two Companies, Five Shillings per Diem;

For each Paymaster, in Corps consisting of One Company, Four Shillings per Diem;

For each Sergeant, Six Shillings per Diem;

For each Quartermaster, where One had been appointed as a Corps while embodied at an Establishment of not less than Three hundred and sixty Private Men, Five Shillings per Diem; and as an Establishment of less than Three hundred and sixty Private Men, Three Shillings per Diem;

For each Sergeant Major, having been Sergeant Major of a Provisional Battalion of Militia, Two Shillings and Sixpence per Diem;

For each Sergeant Major, where One is appointed in Corps consisting of Two or more Companies, One Shilling and Ten Pence per Diem;

For each Quartermaster Sergeant of the Militia of Ireland, One Shilling and Ten Pence per Diem;

Najars, Sergeants, Corporals and Drummers, who may be retained on assistant Pay, and resident at Head Quarters, shall be clothed once in Two Years:

And also at the Rate of Two Pence per Month for each Private Man and Drummer, for defraying the contingent Expenses of each Regiment, Battalion or Corps.

It. Provided always, and he is further enacted, That any Paymaster of Disabled Militia, being either an Naval or Military Half Pay, or being entitled to any Allowance as having served in any of His Majesty's Regular Forces, or Navy or Marines, shall and may and he is hereby empowered to receive and take the aforesaid Rates of Disabled Pay; (to-wit, Six Shillings, Five Shillings, or Four Shillings per Annum, as the Case may be; and the receiving and taking such Rates of Disabled Pay as aforesaid shall not prevent such Paymaster on Half Pay, or being entitled to any such Allowance, from receiving his Half Pay, or such Allowance; and such Paymaster shall take the following Oath before any Justice of the Peace, who is hereby empowered to administer the same:

I, A. B. do swear, That I had not between the _____ and the _____ any Piece or Employment of Profit, Civil or Military, under His Majesty, besides my Allowance of _____ to His Majesty's Army or Navy, or Marines, or the Case may be, save and except my Disabled Pay (of Six Shillings, Five Shillings, or Four Shillings, as the Case may be,) as Paymaster of the _____ Militia.

And the taking the said Oath shall be sufficient to entitle such Paymaster to receive his Half Pay or the said Allowance, without taking any other Oath, any Law, Usage, or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

III. And he is further enacted, That every Adjutant, Paymaster, Sergeant, Quartermaster, and every Non Commissioned Officer and Drummer on permanent Pay of Regular Militia, when disabled, shall be constantly resident within the City, Town or Place where the Arms of the Corps to which such Officers belong are kept, or within such reasonable Distance of the Depot as shall be intimated by the Secretary at War: Provided always, that every such Adjutant, Paymaster, Sergeant, Quartermaster, Non Commissioned Officer or Drummer, shall forfeit his Pay for any Period during which he shall be absent, except when absent by Leave from the Colonel or Commandant of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps, which Leave shall not extend beyond Three Calendar Months in One Year, nor to a greater Proportion than One Third of the Non Commissioned Officers and Drummers at the same Time, except in case of certified Sickness.

IV. And he is further enacted, That the Quartermaster of each Regiment of Militia in which a Quartermaster is appointed, and when no Quartermaster is appointed, then the Paymaster shall have the Charge and Care of the Arms, Accoutrements, Great Coats, Clothing, Necessaries and other Stores, under the Superintendance of the Colonel or Commandant, and the Paymaster shall, out of the Allowance of Two Pence per Month for each Private Man and Drummer directed by this Act to be issued and paid for defraying the contingent Expenses of such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, from time to time issue and pay such Sums of Money as may be necessary for the Repaire of Arms and other small contingent Expenses, upon an Order in Writing signed by the Colonel or other Commandant; and after Payment of such Sums as aforesaid, he shall Three Times in the Year make up Accounts of all such Money, and of the Expediture thereof, shewing the Balances remaining in his Hands, (which said Balances shall form a Stock Fund for the Use of the Regiment, Battalion, or Corps,) and shall transmit the same to the Colonel or other Commandant of such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, to be by him examined, allowed and signed; and the said Accounts so allowed and signed shall be and are hereby directed to be the proper Vouchers and Acquittal of such Paymaster for the Application and Disposal of such Money.

V. And he is further enacted, That in the occasional and unavoidable Absence of the Adjutant from the City, Town or Place, where the Arms of any Corps of Militia when disabled are kept, or during any Vacancy in the Appointment of Adjutant, the Sergeants, Corporals and Drummers shall be under the Command of the Quartermaster in Cases in which one is appointed, and when no Quartermaster is appointed, then under the Command of the Paymaster; and such Quartermaster and Paymaster respectively shall render the same Returns, and perform such other Acts, as are by Law required from the Adjutant.

VI. And he is further enacted, That the Officers and Non Commissioned Officers, Drummers and Private Men of the Regular Militia shall, for the Period or Periods during which they shall be called out for the Purpose of annual Exercise or Training, be entitled to the same Pay and Allowances as the Officers, Non Commissioned Officers, Drummers and Private Men of the Militia when embodied.

VII. And Whereas it is expedient to grant Allowances to certain Officers of the said Militia Forces of Great Britain and Ireland while disembodied, under certain Regulations; Be it further enacted, That the following Allowances shall be made and paid to the Aforesaid, under the Restrictions and in the Manner hereinafter expressed, to every Subaltern Officer and Surgeon's Mate in Great Britain, and to every Subaltern Officer and Assistant Surgeon in Ireland, who held or shall hold a Commission in the Militia of Great Britain or Ireland, and was or shall be serving therein when the Corps was or shall be disembodied, and also to every Supernumerary Subaltern Officer and Assistant Surgeon of any Regiment of Militia in Ireland, which shall have been augmented during the War, had which shall have been reduced to its original Establishment; (that is to say,)

VIII. Provided also, and he it further enacted, That no Person who is or shall during the Continuance of this Act become possessed of such an Estate or Income as would by Law qualify him to hold the Commission of Captain of a Company in the said Militia, or who is or shall be appointed Adjutant, Sergeant, Paymaster, or Quartermaster in any Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Militia, nor any Officer on Full Pay of the Navy, Army or Marines, shall have or be in any way entitled to the said Allowances, or any Part or Share thereof; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

The following Oath to be taken to receive such Allowances.

IX. And be it further enacted, That the Subaltern Officers, Sergeant's Mates and Assistant Sergeants of the Militia who shall claim under the Authority of this Act to receive any Part of the said Allowances, shall, previous to receiving the same, and in order to entitle themselves thereto, take and subscribe an Oath before some One of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace in the United Kingdom, in the Words or to the Effect following: (viz[er],)

I, A. B. do swear, That I belonged to the _____ of Militia when the same was dissolved, and that I have continued to serve thereof from that Time until the _____ Day of _____ in _____, as a Lieutenant, Ensign, Sergeant's Mate or Assistant Surgeon (as the Case may be), and that I was not in any such Right or in the Right of my Wife, during any Part of the Period for which I now claim to receive any Allowance, that is to say, from the _____ Day of _____ to the _____ Day of _____ both inclusive, in the actual Possession and Enjoyment or Receipt of the Rent and Profits of Land, Tenements or Hereditaments of such an annual Value above Expressions as would qualify me to hold a Commission of Captain of a Company in the Militia, that I have not during the above Period held the Appointment of Adjutant, Sergeant, Paymaster or Quartermaster in any Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Militia; that I did not hold or enjoy, nor did any Person for me hold or enjoy, during the said Period, any Office or Income whatsoever from the Public, or from any other Government, besides the Allowance of _____ a Day ors, claimed, except my Full Pay as a _____ of the _____ Army, or Navy or Marines, or of a Provisional Battalion formed from the Militia (as the Case may be), and my Pay and Allowance from the _____ to the _____ both Days inclusive, during which Period the Corps was assembled for Training and Exercise. So help me GOD!

Which Oath so taken and subscribed shall be produced to the Paymaster of the Regiment of Militia by the Subaltern Officer, Sergeant's Mate or Assistant Surgeon claiming the Allowance.

Subaltern Officers and Sergeants' Mates, to be sworn to the above Oath, &c.

X. And be it further enacted, That every Subaltern Officer, Sergeant's Mate and Assistant Surgeon of the Militia, who shall be entitled to claim to be entitled to the Benefits of this Act, shall regularly attend the annual Exercise and Training of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which he belongs, during the whole of the Time by Law appointed for that Purpose, and shall during the said Time personally do and perform his Duty as a Subaltern Officer, Sergeant's Mate or Assistant Surgeon of such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, on pain of forfeiting the said Allowance, as well as the Rest of his Pay, and every Part thereof, which may be due for the current Year in which he shall neglect or refuse to attend; and Certificates of his having so attended and performed his Duty, signed by the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which he may belong, shall be furnished by the said Commanding Officer to the Paymaster of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Militia to which the Officer shall belong: Provided always, that in case any such Subaltern Officer, Sergeant's Mate or Assistant Surgeon, claiming to be entitled to such Allowance, shall by his Commanding Officer be permitted or suffered, for any special Cause or unavoidable Necessity, to be absent during the Whole or any Part of such annual Exercise, for which Purpose it shall be lawful for such Commanding Officer to grant such Leave of Absence, then and in such Case it shall be lawful for such Subaltern Officer, Sergeant's Mate or Assistant Surgeon who may be so permitted to be absent, and have such Leave in Writing, to demand and receive the said Allowance and every Part thereof in like Manner as if he had attended during the whole of the said annual Exercise: Provided always, that the Reason for such Absence, as well as the Duration thereof, shall be carefully and truly specified in Certificates (in lieu of those before mentioned), to be signed by the Commanding Officer; and to be furnished as soon as conveniently may be to the Paymaster of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps wherein such Subaltern Officer, Sergeant's Mate or Assistant Surgeon shall be serving.

Reasons of Absence certified

It is required that the following Oath be taken by the Paymaster, &c.

XI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case any Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Militia, after the dissolving thereof, and before the Time fixed for the Payment of the said Allowances, shall not be called out for the annual Exercise and Training thereof, every Subaltern Officer, Sergeant's Mate and Assistant Surgeon belonging to any such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, and coming within the Description of this Act, who shall have taken and subscribed the Oath heretofore mentioned before any such Justice of the Peace as aforesaid, shall be entitled to the said Allowance as if such Subaltern Officers, Surgeons' Mates or Assistant Surgeons had regularly attended the annual Exercise and Training of such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, during the whole of the Time by Law appointed for that Purpose, and as if a Certificate of such Attendance, signed by the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps, had been furnished to the Paymaster of the Regiment.

XII. And be it further enacted, That upon such Oaths and Certificates as aforesaid, or where any Regiment of Militia shall not have been called out to their annual Exercise as aforesaid, upon the said Oaths being produced to the respective Paymasters, it shall be lawful for such Paymasters, and they are hereby authorized and required, to pay to the said Subaltern Officers, Surgeons' Mates and Assistant Surgeons, according to their respective Commissions of Lieutenant, Ensign, Surgeons' Mates or Assistant Surgeons, the Allowance above mentioned, for Three Months, or other proper Period, on the Twenty fourth Day of June each fourth day hundred and twenty three; and the other Proportions of the same on the Twenty fourth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, the Twenty fourth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, and the Twenty fourth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty four, without any Deduction whatsoever; the Oaths and Certificates before mentioned to be by them procured and produced among the Vouchers for the Payments from time to time made by them in pursuance of this Act or of any Regulation made by the Secretary at War.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the Subaltern Officers, Surgeons' Mates and Assistant Surgeons of the Militia entitled or claiming to be entitled to the Benefits of this Act, shall at all Times be liable to serve in the respective Regiments, Battalions or Corps to which they belong, whenever the same shall be embodied and called out upon actual Service; and in case of Neglect or Refusal to attend when called upon at such Times or for such Occasions as may be required of them in pursuance of the Laws now in force respecting the Militia when embodied, each and every such Subaltern Officer, Surgeon's Mate and Assistant Surgeon, shall on such Neglect or Refusal being certified to the Lord Lieutenant and Paymaster by the Colonel or other Commandant of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which such Subaltern, Surgeon's Mate or Assistant Surgeon shall belong, forfeit his Claim to the said Allowance and every Part thereof, and shall also be considered as having resigned and vacated his Commission to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Supernumerary Lieutenant, Ensign or Assistant Surgeon of any Regiment of Militia is Invalid, which shall have been aggregated during War, and which shall have been reduced to its original Establishment, shall have succeeded or shall succeed to any Vacancy which shall have occurred or shall occur in any such Regiment respectively, such Lieutenant, Ensign or Assistant Surgeon shall, from the Time of his so succeeding, be entitled to such Pay and Allowances under this Act, and in like Manner and to the like Amount, and under the like Restrictions and Regulations, as any Lieutenant, Ensign or Assistant Surgeon who shall have been serving on the original Establishment of such Regiment at the Time of the disembodiment thereof; and such Lieutenant, Ensign or Assistant Surgeon so succeeding shall be deemed to have belonged to such Regiment when the same was disembodied, and to have continued to serve therein from that Time, and shall in all respects, from and after his so succeeding, be subject to the Regulations in this Act contained with respect to any Lieutenant, Ensign or Assistant Surgeon of the said Militia, who shall class and receive the Pay and Allowances under this Act.

XV. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to entitle any Subaltern Officer, Surgeon's Mate or Assistant Surgeon as aforesaid, to the said Allowance or any Part thereof during the time the Militia to which he belongs shall be embodied or ordered out on actual Service.

XVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That any Person being on Naval or Military Half Pay, or being entitled to any Allowance as having served in any of His Majesty's Forces, or Navy or Marines, and serving in the Militia, shall and may and he is hereby empowered to receive and take the Pay and Allowances by this Act directed to be paid to the Field Officers, Captains, Lieutenants, Ensigns, Adjutants, Quartermasters, Sergeons, Surgeons' Mates and Assistant Sergeons, when assembled for annual Training; and the receiving and taking any such Pay and Allowances by any such Field Officer, Captain, Lieutenant, Ensign, Adjutant, Quartermaster, Surgeon, Surgeon's Mate or Assistant Surgeon, shall not prevent such Person on Half Pay, or being entitled to any such Allowance, from receiving his Half Pay or such Allowance; and such Person shall take the following Oath before some Justice of the Peace, who is hereby empowered to administer the same:

I, A. B. do swear, I had not between this _____ and the _____ any Place or Employment of Profit, Civil or Military, under His Majesty, besides my Allowance of Half Pay as a _____ reduced _____ in His Majesty's Army, or Navy or Marines, [as the Case may be,] save and except my Pay or Allowance as a Field Officer, Captain, Lieutenant, Ensign, Adjutant, Paymaster, Quartermaster, Surgeon, Surgeon's Mate or Assistant Surgeon, while assembled for Training and Exercise [as the Case may be,] for serving in the Militia of the County of _____

And the taking the said Oath shall be sufficient to entitle such Person to receive his Half Pay or the said Allowance, without taking any other Oath; any Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

be paid, on taking Oath before mentioned.

Paymasters to pay Allowance on 7th June, 20th September and 20th December 1822, and 10th March 1824.

On Neglect of Attendance of Subalterns, &c. being certified, Allowance forfeited.

Supernumerary Lieutenants, &c. of Regiments of Militia become entitled according to any Vacancy, entitled to Pay and Allowance.

Allowance not paid while Militia embodied.

Persons being on Half Pay or entitled to Allowance as having served in the Army or Navy, employed or serving in the Militia, to receive the Pay and Allowances hereby directed to be paid, on taking the following Oath.

Adjutants, &c. Non-commissioned Officers, or Private Men, not to lose their Right to Chastity, Pensions, &c.

XVII. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That no Adjutant, Quartermaster, Non-commissioned Officer, Drummer or Private Man in the Regular Militia, entitled to receive any Chastity or Allowance on account of Service in the Regular Army, shall forfeit or lose his Right to the same by reason of his serving and receiving Pay in the Regular Militia; nor shall any Subaltern, Sergeant's Mate or Assistant Surgeon forfeit or lose his Right to receive any such Chastity or Allowance on account of his receiving the Allowance of Two Shillings and Sixpence or Two Shillings a Day granted by this Act to Subalterns, Sergeants' Mates or Assistant Sergeants when discharged.

Adjutants to be made to Surgeons for Medals in addition to their Pay.

XVIII. And he it further enacted, That there shall be granted to the Surgeon of each Regiment of Regular Militia, when discharged, a Sum of Money in addition to his Pay, after the Rate of One Guinea for every One hundred Men of each such Regiment, for the Expense of necessary Medicines for the sick Non-commissioned Officers, Drummers and Private Men of such Regiment, during the Period or Periods of Assembly for annual Exercise or Training; and also an Allowance of Sixpence per Month for each of the Non-commissioned Officers and Drummers of such Regiment on Convalescent Pay at Head Quarters, for the Expense of necessary Medicines and Attendance given to the said Non-commissioned Officers and Drummers while such Regiment is not called out for annual Training and Exercise.

Adjutants appointed before Dec. 24. 1814, entitled under the circumstances herein mentioned to an Allowance of 8s. per Day, and Adjutants appointed since Dec. 24. 1814, no Allowance of 8s. per Day.

XIX. And he it further enacted, That every Adjutant of Regular Militia who shall have been appointed as such before the Twenty fourth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, and who shall have served faithfully, either in His Majesty's Regular Forces, or in the Regular or Local Militia, for the full Term of Twenty Years in the whole, whereof Ten shall have been in Service as an Adjutant of Regular Militia, who shall have been or shall be by Age or Infirmary rendered unfit for further Service, shall, on producing to the Secretary at War a Certificate of such Service of Twenty Years as aforesaid from the Commanding Officers of the different Corps to which he shall have belonged, and upon obtaining an Order from the Secretary at War founded upon such Certificate, be entitled to receive, and the Paymaster shall and he is hereby authorized to pay to such Person, an Allowance at the Rate of Eight Shillings per Diem: Provided always, that no Person shall be entitled to receive such Allowance as aforesaid, who shall hold any Military Office or Employment of Profit under His Majesty, or any Civil Office or Employment under His Majesty, the annual Profits or Emoluments of which shall exceed Three Times the Amount of the said Allowance of Eight Shillings a Day: Provided always, that any Adjutant who shall have been appointed since the Twenty fourth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, who shall have served faithfully either in His Majesty's Regular Forces, or in the Regular or Local Militia, for the full Term of Thirty Years in the whole, whereof Fifteen shall have been in Service as an Adjutant of Regular Militia, and who shall be by Age or Infirmary rendered unfit for further Service, shall, upon producing to the Secretary at War a Certificate of such Service of Thirty Years as aforesaid from the Commanding Officers of the different Corps to which he shall have belonged, and upon obtaining an Order from the Secretary at War founded upon such Certificate, be entitled to receive, and the Paymaster shall and he is hereby authorized to pay to such Person, an Allowance at the Rate of Six Shillings a Day, subject to the same Restrictions and Conditions as the aforesaid Allowance of Eight Shillings: Provided also, that no such Adjutant shall lose any Right he may have to Half Pay or Out Pension by reason of receiving such Allowance as aforesaid, but shall be entitled to receive such Half Pay as well as such Allowance.

Adjutants who are entitled to Half Pay or Out Pension.

Quartermasters, after a Service of 30 Years, entitled to an Allowance, and also to Half Pay or Out Pension.

XX. And he it further enacted, That any Quartermaster of Regular Militia who shall have served faithfully, either in His Majesty's Regular Forces or in the Regular or Local Militia for the full Term of Thirty Years in the whole, whereof Fifteen shall have been as a Quartermaster of Regular Militia, and who shall have been or shall be by Age or Infirmary rendered unfit for further Service, shall, on producing to the Secretary at War a Certificate of such Service of Thirty Years as aforesaid from the Commanding Officers of the different Corps to which he shall have belonged, and obtaining from the Secretary at War an Order founded upon such Certificate, be entitled to receive, and the Paymaster of the Regiment shall and he is hereby authorized to pay to such Person an Allowance at the Rate of his Pay when serving in the discharged Regular Militia: Provided always, that no Person shall be entitled to receive such Allowance as aforesaid who shall hold any Military Office or Employment of Profit under His Majesty, or any Civil Office or Employment under His Majesty, the annual Profits or Emoluments of which shall exceed Three Times the Amount of the said Allowance: Provided also, that no such Quartermaster shall, by reason of receiving such Allowance as aforesaid, forfeit any Right which he may have to Half Pay or Out Pension, but shall be entitled to receive such Half Pay or Out Pension as well as such Allowance.

Surgeons, under the circumstances herein contained, to receive in full Pay.

XXI. And he it further enacted, That if any Surgeon of Regular Militia, having faithfully served in His Majesty's Regular Forces or in the Militia for the full Term of Twenty Years, shall by Age or Infirmary be rendered unfit for further Service, he shall, on producing to the Secretary at War a Certificate of such Service of Twenty Years in the whole $\frac{1}{2}$ (Ten of which he shall have served as a Surgeon of Militia), from the Commanding Officers of the different Corps to which he shall have belonged, and obtaining an Order from the Secretary at War founded upon such Certificate, be entitled to receive, and the Paymaster of the Regiment shall and he is hereby authorized and required to pay to such Person an Allowance at the Rate of Six Shillings per Diem: Provided always, that no Person shall be entitled to receive such Allowance as aforesaid who shall hold any Military Office or Employment of Profit under His Majesty, or any Civil Office or Employment under His Majesty, the annual Profits or Emoluments of which shall exceed Three Times the Amount of the said Allowance of Six Shillings a Day; but no Person receiving such Allowance shall by reason thereof forfeit his Right to any Half Pay to which he may be entitled.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That in case any Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Militia shall have already ceased and discontinued or been reduced in its Establishment, or shall cease and determine or be reduced in its Establishment during the Continuance of this Act, the Sum of Four Shillings per Diem shall be paid to each Person as has actually served as Adjutant to such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, from the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, or from the Time such Regiment shall cease and determine or be reduced in its Establishment, as the Case may be, in the Twenty fourth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty four: Provided always, that no Person shall be entitled to receive such Allowance as aforesaid, who shall hold any Military Office or Employment of Profit under His Majesty, or any Civil Office or Employment under His Majesty, the annual Profits and Emoluments of which shall exceed Three Times the Amount of the said Allowance of Four Shillings a Day; but on such reduced Adjutant shall no any Right he may have to Half Pay of the Navy, Army, Marines or Provisional Battalion formed from the Militia, by reason of receiving such Allowance as last aforesaid, but shall be entitled to receive such Half Pay as well as such Allowance.

XXIII. And Whereas certain Adjutants and Sergeant Majors are entitled to and have received certain Allowances in consequence of having been reduced, under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Thirty sixth and Fortieth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty, which Allowance has been continued, and as to such Adjutants augmented to Four Shillings per Diem: Be it therefore enacted, That all such Adjutants and Sergeant Majors shall be entitled to receive and shall receive such Allowance from the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty three to the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty four, to be issued and paid to them under the Direction of the Secretary at War.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That every reduced adjutant entitled to any Allowance granted under the said Act of the Thirty sixth and Fortieth Years aforesaid, and continued by any subsequent Acts, or by this Act, may receive and take such Allowance, together with any Full Pay, Half Pay or Allowance which was tenable together with such reduced Allowance under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Twenty sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, entitled An Act for amending and enforcing into one Act of Parliament the Laws relating to the Militia in that Part of Great Britain called England, or under the Provisions of the aforesaid Acts of the Thirty sixth and Fortieth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty: Provided always, that no such reduced Adjutant shall be entitled to receive any Allowance under this Act during the Time he shall hold any Military Office of Profit under His Majesty, other than such as aforesaid, or any Civil Office or Employment under His Majesty, the annual Profits and Emoluments of which shall exceed Three Times the Amount of such reduced Allowance.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That all Sums of Money granted for the Pay, Clothing, Allowances and contingent and other Expenses for the Regular Militia when disembodied as aforesaid, shall be issued and paid under the Direction of the Secretary at War, according to such Regulations as have been or shall be established on that Head.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That in every County in Great Britain where the Regular Militia is or shall be raised, Allowances shall be paid to the Clerks of the General Meetings and Clerks of the several Subdivision Meetings, at the Rates following; that is to say, to the Clerk of the General Meetings at the Rate of Five Pounds Five Shillings for each Meeting, and the several Clerks of the Subdivision Meetings at the Rate of One Pound One Shilling for each Meeting; and such further Allowance shall be made to each respective General and Subdivision Clerks for their Expenses and Trouble in attending the Returns of Persons returned liable to serve in the Regular Militia, by taking out the Names of all Persons who may appear, and whose Appeals or Claims of Exemption have been allowed, and inserting the Names of any Persons that shall have been omitted to be inserted, and in numbering the Returns, and making out the Tickets for the Ballot, after the Rate of One Pound Fifteen Shillings for every One thousand Names of Persons returned liable to serve, and also for the actual Expenses incurred by such respective Clerks, and for Printing and Stationery used for the Purposes of this Act, as in the Lord Lieutenants or Deputy Lieutenants of the respective Counties shall appear reasonable and proper; and in case the Orders made by the Lord Lieutenants or Deputy Lieutenants for the Payment of such further Allowance as aforesaid shall be confirmed at a General Meeting, consisting of not less than Five Deputy Lieutenants, but not otherwise; and the aforesaid Clerks of General Meetings and Clerks of Subdivision Meetings shall transmit to the Secretary at War the Accounts, Returns and Orders upon which they claim the aforesaid Allowances, in order that the Secretary at War may give the necessary Directions for the Payment thereof.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That all Bills, Drafts and Orders drawn for the Pay or Allowances of the Regular Militia when disembodied under this Act, may be or shall be drawn upon unstamped Paper, and no such Bill, Draft or Order shall be void by reason of being drawn or written on unstamped Paper.

XXVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Fee or Gratuity whatsoever shall be given or paid for or upon account of any Warrant or Sum of Money which shall be issued in relation to or in pursuance of this Act.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That the Hire or Cost of any House or Place to be provided for the keeping of the Arms, Accoutrements, Clothing or other Stores, and for the Residence and Accommodation

C A P. LX.

An Act for granting to His Majesty a Sum of Money to be raised by Lotteries. [9th July 1823.]

[This Act is the same as 3 G. 4. c. 101. except as to Dates, and the Sections that are here omitted.]

Regulations as to the Suppression of Illegal Lotteries and Insurance, and as to the promoting the Sale and publishing Proposals for
Foreign Lot-

XIX. AND Whereas it may be expedient to discontinue raising Money for the Public Service by way of Lottery after the Sale of the Tickets authorized by this Act, and in that Case it will be necessary to continue in Force such Parts of this Act as will be necessary to repress unlawful Insurance in Little Goods and Private Lotteries, and prevent the Sale and publishing Proposals for the Sale of Foreign Lottery Tickets within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and to provide for the Payment of Prizes which shall be argued and outstanding, and to enable the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury to retain and appoint such Commissioners, Officers and Clerks of the Lottery Office as will be necessary for those Purposes, as well as to give and grant reasonable Compensation to those Commis- sioners, Officers, Clerks and other Persons who shall have been employed in the Lottery Office, or in and about the Drawing of the Lottery, and be no longer necessary for the Purposes above mentioned? Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the Drawing of the Lottery authorized by this Act, and the Matters relating thereto, the Clauses herein contained relative to the Suppression of illegal Lotteries and Insurance Tickets, and to the preventing the Sale and publishing Proposals for the Sale of Foreign Lottery Tickets shall remain in full force and virtue, notwithstanding other Powers given by this Act may have ceased and determined, and that the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury shall have full Power and Authority to continue and appoint these Commissioners of Lottery for the Period of Three Years after the Discontinuance of Lotteries, who shall be lawfully enabled and authorized to take in the Postoffice Tickets of any and every Lottery authorized by this or any former Act for granting to His Majesty a Sum of Money to be raised by Lotteries, and deliver out Certificates for the same, to be numbered and made out in the Manner hereinafter mentioned, and to be signed by the major Part of the said Commissioners as retained or appointed as above mentioned, and their Secretary for the Time being, who, with such Officers and Clerks as the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury shall deem necessary, shall be continued for the Purposes mentioned herein, and shall, with the contingent Expenses of the Office, be paid out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in such Manner as the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury shall direct.

XX. And be it further enacted, That after the Conclusion of the Drawing of the Lotteries authorized by this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury to grant such reasonable Allowances or Commissions as they may deem just and fit, to such of the Commissioners, Officers, Clerks and others thereto employed in the Drawing of the Lottery, and in Matters relating thereto, as may appear deserving of the same, and to charge the Amount thereof upon the said Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland: Provided always, that an Account of such Payments, Allowances and Commissions shall be laid before Parliament within Six Weeks from the Commencement of the first Session after the granting the same.

C A P. LXI.

An Act for the better Administration of Justice in the Court of Chancery in Ireland.

[10th July 1823.]

WHEREAS it hath appeared, by Reports made to the King's most Excellent Majesty from the Commissioners appointed by His Majesty, upon an Address of the Knights, Citizens and Burgesses in Parliament assembled, to inquire into the Duties and Emoluments of the Officers, Clerks and Ministers of Justice in all Temporal and Ecclesiastical Courts in Ireland, that the several Ministerial Offices of His Majesty's High Court of Chancery in Ireland require Regulations for ensuring the more easy, cheap and expeditious Administration of Justice in the said Court: And Whereas some of such Regulations may be carried into effect by general Orders of the said Court, but certain other Regulations are required, which cannot be carried into effect without the Aid of Parliament: And Whereas it is expedient that the Fees to be taken by the Lord High Chancellor of Ireland, or the Lord Keeper, or the Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal, and by the several Officers of the said Court, should be ascertained and regulated by Law: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted? And be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Commencement of this Act it shall and may be lawful for the Lord High Chancellor, or the Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of Ireland, or the Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal of Ireland for the Time being, and for the Deputy Keeper of the Rolls, Registers, Six Clerks, Examiners, Clerk of the Hanaper, Clerk of the Crown, Coroner and other Officers, and their several and respective Deputies and Clerks, in, or belonging to the said Court of Chancery, mentioned and described in the several Tables to this Act annexed, to ask, demand, have, receive, take and accept, for and by reason and on account of the several Acts, Matters and Things to be done in or concerning the Business of the several and respective Offices, or of the several Services to be performed touching or concerning such Offices, the several Fees, Payments and Sums and Sums of Money in the said Tables hereto annexed respectively mentioned, and some other or greater Fees or Sums of Money whatever; and that no Officer or Attendant of the said Court, nor any Deputy or Clerk of any such Office, nor any Person acting in any of the Offices of the said Court, or doing any Part of the Business thereof, shall ask, demand or receive, from any of the Suitors of the said Court, or from any Person or Persons whatsoever on their Behalf, any Fee or Sum or Sums of Money whatever, on account of, or for the Performance of, or under Pretence of performing any Act, Matter or Thing whatsoever, in anywise relating to the Business of the said Court, and mentioned in the said Tables, or some or one of them, as payable for or in respect of such Act, Matter or Business, except under the Provisions of this Act, any Law, Usage or Custom at any Time heretofore made, used or exercised to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding (a); and that the said Tables, and all Directions, Matters and Things contained therein, shall be taken as Part of this Act to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever. (b) [See Sections, 4—6, post.]

It. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Chancellor in Ireland, or Lord Keeper or Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal of Ireland for the Time being, from time to time to vary and alter the Amount of any of the Fees aforesaid, by decreasing or increasing the same, or to abolish any of the said Fees altogether; and also to direct and authorize the Payment of any new or additional Fee to the several Officers and Persons in the said Tables mentioned, any Taxes, inasmuch as it is, thought that Powers of this Act may have ceased, &c. Treasury may retain Commissioners for Three Years after Discontinuance of Lotteries.

Treasury may grant Commissions to Commissioners and Officers employed in Drawing the Lottery.

Fees of Lord Chancellor and all other Officers of the Court of Chancery to be taken according to Tables annexed to the Act.

Tables annexed second part of Act.

Fees may be altered, or new Fees allowed, by Order of Lord Chancellor, Keeper

or any of them, or to any other Persons, for or in respect of any Matters or Things mentioned in the said Tables, or any of them, or of any other Matters or Things to be done in the Execution of the Duty of the Office of such Officers or Persons respectively; and all such Fees the Amount whereof shall be so altered, and all such new or additional Fees which shall be so made payable, and also any Order for the Abolition of any Fee, shall be specified and set forth in a Table or Tables to be made by Order of the said Court of Chancery, and signed by the Lord Chancellor, or Lord Keeper or Commissioners as aforesaid; and such Order shall specify the Grounds and Reasons upon which such Fees shall have been altered, abolished or made payable respectively, and a Copy of every such Order, signed as aforesaid, shall be transmitted by the Lord Chancellor, or Lord Keeper or Commissioners as aforesaid, to the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, who shall cause Copies of the same to be laid before both Houses of Parliament immediately after the Commencement of the then next Session of Parliament, and thereupon every such Fee shall be and be deemed and taken to be a legal Fee according to the Terms of such Order, and payable and receivable as such, from and after the last Day of such Session of Parliament, as if the same had been included in any of the Tables annexed to this Act.

Such Orders to
be transmitted to Lord Lieutenants, who shall cause
Copies thereof
to be laid before Parliament.

Lord Chancellor may alter Duties of Proceedings in
cery.

III. Provided also, and be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Chancellor of Ireland, or the Lord Keeper or Commissioners for the County of the Great Seal of Ireland for the Time being, to make any such Order or Orders of the said Court of Chancery, for the altering or discharging any Course of Proceedings as aforesaid, or to be brought in the said Court, and to direct that such Process shall issue, and in such Manner and Course in all such Suits as to the said Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Commissioners respectively shall seem fitting and expedient, in the same Manner, and with the same Force and Effect in all respects as if this Act had not passed; and that no Cause, Matter or Thing contained in any Act or Acts then true to time in force in Ireland, for the granting or regulating the Payment of any Stamp Duty or any Process in any Suit in the said Court, shall extend or be construed to extend to prevent, alter or affect the Course of any such Proceedings, or the issuing of any such Process, or to warrant or authorize the Receipt of any greater Fee by the Alteration of the Number of Words in any Sheet of Proceeding; and that the several Stamp Duties from time to time imposed or payable on any such Proceeding or Process shall be paid and payable upon the same as altered by the said Court, or upon such Proceeding or Process as shall be substituted for any which may be abolished, such Process or Proceeding being by such Order declared to be so substituted.

Stamp Duties
cess as aforesaid.

Proviso for existing Clerk of the Crown and Highways to receive their usual
Fees.

IV. Provided also, and be it enacted, That nothing contained in this Act, nor in the Table (No. 10.) thereto annexed, shall extend or be construed to dissent to prevent the Clerk of the Crown and Clerk of the Highways and his Deputy, during the Tenure of the present Possessor of the said Office, from demanding or receiving the several Fees which have been accustomed to be paid for and by reason and on account of all such Acts, Matters and Things done in and concerning the Business of the said Office until the Appointment of the Successor of the present Possessor of the said Office: Provided nevertheless, that nothing in this Act shall extend or be taken to extend to authorize the said Clerk of the Crown and Highways, or his Deputy, to demand or accept any Fee contrary to the Provisions of any Act of Parliament, or otherwise contrary to Law.

and every Office and Officers in or under the said Court of Chancery, which each Person shall hold or be possessed of at the Time of such Office, and shall for ever after be acceptable and inopacitated from holding any Office in or under the said Court. [See Section I. ante.]

VII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Third Day of the Micholmas Term next after the passing of this Act, no Person whatsoever shall in anywise act in the Business of any of the Offices or Places under the said Court of Chancery mentioned in the Tables to this Act annexed, or any of these, or shall do any Act relating to the Business of any such Office, whether as a Principal or Deputy, or a Clerk, until such Person shall have taken and subscribed before the Lord Chancellor, or Lord Keeper or Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal of Ireland, an Oath, in the Form following; that is to say,

I, A. B. do solemnly swear, That I will, to the best of my Knowledge, Skill and Judgment, execute and perform, such of the Duties of the Office of [here state the Description of the Office] in the Court of Chancery in Ireland, as I shall personally execute; and that I will well and faithfully pay every Deputy or Clerk whom I shall or may at any Time employ in any Part of the Business of the said Office, such Salaries and Allowances as they shall from time to time be respectively entitled to by Law, or such additional Fees as I shall contract or agree to pay to them respectively; and that I will not, by myself, or by any Deputy or Clerk, or other Person or Persons, ask or demand, or have, take, accept or receive any Gift, Fee, Reward, Gratuity or Remuneration whatever, other than such as shall at the Time of receiving the same be authorized and allowed by the Tables which shall be then in force, or under the Provisions of some Act of Parliament; and that I will in all Things relating to my said Office conduct myself according to the Rules and Regulations which shall from time to time be in force for the Regulation of such Office, and of the Business thereof. So help me GOD.

And any Officer, Deputy, Clerk or other Person who shall, at any Time after the Third Day of the said Micholmas Term, personally act in any Business relating to the Business of any such Office in the said Court, without having taken and subscribed such Oath as aforesaid, shall for every Day on which he shall so act forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That every Officer of the said Court of Chancery shall, on or before the Third Day of the Micholmas Term next after the passing of this Act, and every Officer of the said Court who shall hereafter be appointed within Three Calendar Months after he shall have taken the Oath of Office required by this Act, affix or cause to be affixed or hung up in his Office a Table of all such Fees as it shall be then lawful to receive, pursuant to the Directions of this Act, in his said Office, in respect of the Business thereof; and if at any Time any of such Fees shall be altered or abolished, or any new Fee or Fees authorized according to the Directions of this Act, in respect of the Business of such Office, then and in every such Case such Officer shall, within One Week from the Time of such Change, alter such Table so kept in his Office pursuant and according to such Change, and to the Order for making the same; and such Table shall at all Times be written or printed in fair and legible Characters, and shall be framed and glazed, so as to be preserved from being erased or altered in any other Manner save as aforesaid, and shall be always kept affixed or hung up in such Manner that the same shall be accessible to and legible by all Persons resorting to such Office; and in case such Table shall not be so affixed or hung up, and continually kept so framed and glazed and legible in the said Office, such Officer shall, for every Day on which such Table shall not be so kept and legible as aforesaid in such Office, forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

IX. And be it further enacted, That every Officer of the said Court of Chancery shall once in every Five Years, that is to say, in Micholmas Term One thousand eight hundred and twenty eight, and in the like Manner on some Day in Micholmas Term One thousand eight hundred and thirty three, and so in Micholmas Term in every Fifth Year succeeding, deliver to the Register of the said Court in open Court a Table or Schedule, under the Hand and Seal of such Officer respectively, specifying and setting forth the Rate of all Fees charged or received in the Office of such Officer, at any Time during Five Years then next immediately preceding, and paid to or received by such Officer, or any his Deputy or Clerk, or other Person whatsoever, directly or indirectly, for the Benefit of such Officer, or his Deputy or Clerks respectively; and every such Officer shall, at the Time of the Delivery of such Table, take Oath to the Truth thereof in open Court, to the best of his Knowledge and Belief, which Oath shall be written at the Foot of such Table, and shall be signed by such Officer.

X. And be it further enacted, That the Registrar of the said Court shall, upon the Receipt of such Tables, carefully examine the same, and the several Fees therein stated and set forth, and shall compare the same with the several Fees contained in the Tables to this Act annexed, and with such Orders of the said Court as may have altered the said Fees or any of them, or may have added any new or other Fees; and in case it shall appear to such Registrar upon Examination that any Fee or Fees contained in the said Table shall exceed in Amount the Fee allowed to be taken according to the Tables to this Act annexed, or any Orders of the said Court for altering the same, or shall not be included in or allowed by such Tables or Orders respectively, the said Registrar shall lay the said Tables before the Lord Chancellor, or Lord Keeper or Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal, for his or their Directions; and the said Registrar shall file all such Tables of Fees to which an Objection shall appear, or which shall be approved of by the Lord Chancellor, or Lord Keeper or Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal, and shall transmit a Copy of every such Table of Fees so filed, signed by such Registrar, to the Clerk of His Majesty's Privy Council in Ireland, on or before the Thirty first Day of

XI. And be it further enacted, That the said Register of the said Court of Chancery shall, on or before the Thirty first Day of December next after every such Mikolofidus Term in each Fifth Year, transmit to the Clerk of His Majesty's Privy Council in Ireland a List of all Officers of the said Court who shall have neglected or omitted to deliver the Tables required by this Act, for the Five Years preceding such Mikolofidus Term; and if any Officer shall omit or neglect to deliver such Table as is required by this Act, or if any Registrar shall neglect or omit to transmit to the Privy Council Copies of the Tables so delivered as aforesaid by the Officers of the said Court or any of them, or shall neglect or omit to transmit a List of such Officers so neglecting to deliver in such Tables, every such Officer and Registrar so making Default shall forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

XII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the First Day of Mikolofidus Term One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, it shall not be lawful for any Person who now holds any Office of Excellence or Chief of the said Court, or of Master's Clerk or Examiner in the said Court, to act or practise, either in his own Name or in the Name of any other Person or Persons, as a Solicitor in the said Court of Chancery, or to be in Partnership with any Solicitor in the said Court of Chancery in Ireland; and that from and after the said First Day of Mikolofidus Term it shall not be lawful for any Person who shall be hereafter appointed to hold any of the Offices of the said Court mentioned and specified in any of the Tables to this Act annexed, or who shall hereafter be appointed a Deputy or Clerk to any Person who now holds or shall hereafter hold any Office, to act or practise, either in his own Name or in the Name of any other Person or Persons, as an Attorney or Solicitor in any of the Courts of Law or Equity in Ireland; and every such Officer or Person who shall directly or indirectly, by himself or any other Person in Partnership with or as Trust for him, act as such Attorney or Solicitor, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, shall, for every Time he shall so act, forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That all Officers of the said Court of Chancery, who shall be entitled to any Fees under the Provisions of this Act, shall employ in their respective Offices a sufficient Number of Writing Clerks, to make Copies of Bills, Pleadings, Affidavits, Orders, Decrees and other Things belonging to their respective Offices, and required by or on Behalf of the Suitors of the said Court, and to do and perform all other Business requisite to be done and performed in such respective Offices, so that the Business of any Suitor of the said Court shall not be unnecessarily delayed thereon; and such Officer shall pay to every such Writing Clerk, for all Copies made by such Writing Clerk, after the Rate of one penny less than One Penny Halfpenny for every Office Sheet, consisting of Seventy two Words, of every such Copy made by such Clerk, and for a Part or Portion of any Office Sheet; and it shall not be lawful for any such Officer to cause or direct or knowingly permit any such Copy, or any Part thereof, to be made in any other Place, or by any other Person, than in the proper Office of such Officer, and by a Writing Clerk employed in such Office, and paid exclusively by such Officer after the Rate aforesaid at the least; and every such Officer shall be responsible for the Accuracy of every Copy so made in his Office, and for the same being duly compared with the Original from which it shall be made, and every such Officer who shall cause or direct or knowingly permit any Copy to be made contrary to this Act, or who shall not pay the Writing Clerk for writing the same according to the Rate by this Act directed at the least, shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

XIV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if at any Time or Times it shall be ascertained by Affidavit or otherwise, to the Satisfaction of the Lord Chancellor of Ireland, or the Lord Keeper or the Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal of Ireland, that any Officer of the said Court hath not in his Office sufficient Room for the reasonable Accommodation of himself, his Deputies and Assistants, and of a sufficient Number of Clerks to do and perform the Business so required to be done in such Office as aforesaid, then and in every such Case it shall and may be lawful to and for such Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Commissioners, to make an Order declaring that the same has been so proved, and that it shall be lawful for such Officer to cause, direct or permit any such Copy, or any Part thereof, to be made in any Place and by any Person whatever; and that for every Copy or Part of a Copy which shall be so made in any other Place than the said Office, such Officer, in commencing and charging his Fees in respect thereof, shall allow out of the Fees usually payable on such Copies or Parts of Copies One Penny Halfpenny for every Office Sheet thereof; and every such Order shall be good and valid, and shall be a sufficient Justification in all respects in any Person acting in pursuance thereof, for One Year from the Date thereof, unless sooner rescinded, and shall and may be removed from thence to time, until, by reason of new Buildings or new Arrangements or otherwise, sufficient Room shall have been obtained for the Purposes in that Behalf aforesaid; and the Residue only of the Fees to which such Officer would then be lawfully entitled, in case such copying had been regularly done in his Office, which shall remain after such Deduction as aforesaid, shall be deemed and taken to be the lawful Fees or Fee of such Officer in such Case.

XV. Provided also, and be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Solicitor of the said Court of Chancery to prepare for the Attendants of the proper Officers of the said Court Copies of all or any such Decrees, Reports, Accounts, Affidavits and others Matters or Things, as such Solicitor shall have occasion to file; and that every such Officer shall compare and attest such Copy, and shall in such Case deduct and allow out of the Fee payable to such Officer for such attested Copy the Sum of One Penny Halfpenny for every Office Sheet thereof; and shall mark the Fees on such Documents pursuant to the Act, as if such Copy had been prepared by such Officer; and further, that it shall and may be lawful for any Solicitor of the said Court of Chancery to prepare Drafts of Deceets, and all other Deceets, in like Manner as the Solicitors of the said Court have heretofore been accustomed to do.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That in all Copies, Engragements, Exemplifications or Extracts of any Rules, Pleadings, Deceets or other Matters chargeable according to the Length thereof, whether the Charge for the same shall be computed according to the Sheet, the Skin, the Roll or the Side, a Fraction of a Sheet, Skin, Roll or Side respectively, of any such Copy, Engragement, Exemplification or Extract, may be charged for by any Officer as an entire Sheet, Skin, Roll or Side, provided that on each such Copy, Engragement, Exemplification or Extract respectively, there shall be charged only One sixth Fraction of a Sheet, Skin, Roll or Side respectively.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That in all Copies of Schedules and Accounts whatsoever issued from any Office in the said Court of Chancery, the Charge or Fee whereupon is or are or shall or may be lawfully computed according to the Contents, all Sums of Money and Dates of the Year, and Days of the Month and Numbers, shall be expressed in Figures, and shall be charged as if the same were expressed in Figures, and not in Words, in Manner and according to the Directions following: (that is to say,) One Pound, or any Number of Pounds, shall be charged as One Word; One Shilling, or any Number of Shillings, shall be charged as One Word; One or more Penny or Pence, whether with or without any Fraction of a Penny, shall be charged as One Word; any Fraction of a Penny not joined with any Penny or Pence shall be charged as One Word, whether the same shall occur singly or shall be combined in any Manner or Form whatsoever; and any definite Number whatsoever shall be charged as One Word and no more.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That upon the Back of all Copies, Engragements, Exemplifications and Writings, which shall be issued from any Office of the said Court of Chancery, or by any Officer of the said Court, there shall be endorsed and written by the said Officer, or his sufficient Deputy or Clerk, the full Amount of all Office Fees charged on such Copy, Engragement, Exemplification or Writing respectively, and the Rate of such Fees, and the Mode of Charge according to which such Fees shall be computed, and the Number of Sheets, Skins or Sides on which such Fees shall be charged or calculated; and upon any Taxation of Costs between Party and Party, or between Attorney and Client, such Copy, Engragement, Exemplification or Writing, shall be produced before the Taxing Officer, in all Cases where it shall appear to him practicable; and it shall not be lawful for the Taxing Officer to allow any Charge of any Solicitor or Attorney, with respect to any such Document so produced, upon which the Amount and Rate of Fees shall not be so endorsed, but that all and every such Charge shall be struck out of the Bills of such Solicitor or Attorney by such Taxing Officer.

XIX. And for the Removal of Doubts as to the Extent of the Duty of the Taxing Officers of the said Court of Chancery, be it further enacted, That upon all Taxations of Bills of Costs, whether between Party and Party, or between Attorney and Client, it shall be the bounden Duty of the Taxing Officer, whether he shall be required so to do or not, and whether any Objection shall have been made or not, to examine and ascertain, by all reasonable Methods, that each and every Charge in any Bill of Costs contained (whether such shall be a Fee for Counsel, Solicitor or Officer of Court, or Stamp Duty, or any other Disbursement whatsoever, or any Charge for Business done by the Person charging the same) is in the proper Charge which, under the Circumstances of the Case, ought to be made; and that upon all such Taxations the Taxing Officer shall determine upon all Charges made by any Officer of the Court of Chancery, and allow only such as shall appear to him made according to the true Right of such Officer respectively.

XX. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act, the Deputy Keeper of the Rolls, or the Clerk of the Enrolments, or any Clerk or other Person employed in the Rolls Office, to demand or accept, for or on account of any Act, Matter or Thing done in or concerning the Business of the Rolls Office, as the same are set forth in the Table (No. 2) to this Act annexed, or as may be payable under any Order or Orders of Court made in pursuance of the Provisions in this Act contained, save and except only in such Cases where, under the Provisions of any Act of Parliament now in Force in England, any lesser Fees are appointed to be taken; and that the said Deputy Keeper of the Rolls shall Quarterly and every Quarter, on the Twenty-fifth Day of March, Twenty-fourth Day of June, Twenty-sixth Day of September and Twenty-fifth Day of December, or within Ten Days next after, receive and pay, out of the Produce of such Fees, the several Sums, Charges and Disbursements following, to and for the Use of him the said Deputy Keeper of the Rolls, and the several Offices following: that is to say, to and for the Use of him the said Deputy Keeper of the Rolls, the Sum of Two hundred and fifty Pounds, being One thousand Pounds yearly; to and for the Use of the Clerk of the Enrolments, the Sum of One hundred Pounds, being Four hundred Pounds yearly; to and for the Use of the Clerk for regulating the Pleadings after they are copied and returned, and for removing the Pleadings once a Year from the Inner Office into the Record Room, the Sum of Seven Pounds Two Shillings and Two Pence Farthing, being Twenty-eight Pounds Eight Shillings and Nine Pence yearly; and to and for the Use of the Treasurer of the Master of the Rolls, the Sum of Thirty-seven Pounds Ten Shillings, being One hundred and fifty Pounds yearly; to and for the Use of the Clerk of the Rolls Court, the Sum of Twelve Pounds Ten Shillings, being Fifty Pounds yearly; to and for the Use of the Housekeeper, the Sum of Six Pounds Five Shillings, being Twenty-five Pounds yearly; to and for the Use of the Rolls Court Keeper, the Sum of Two Pounds Five Shillings and Sixpence, being Nine Pounds Two Shillings yearly, and to and for the Use of the conducting Clerks, copying Clerks and comparing Clerks, and the Clerks for engraving

XXI. And be it further enacted, That in case the said Deputy Keeper of the Rolls, his Executors or Administrators, shall at any Time or Times neglect or make default in delivering in such Account as heretofore directed, to the said Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts, within the Periods aforesaid respectively specified for that Purpose, or in paying into the said Exchequer such Balance as aforesaid for the said Space of Six Days after such auditing, then and in every such Case such Deputy Keeper of the Rolls, or such Executors or Administrators, having Assets sufficient to make such Payment, shall pay into the said Exchequer, together with such Balance, Interest for the same at the Rate of Twenty Pence per Centum from the Expiration of the said Period of Six Days, until paid in as aforesaid.

XXII. And, to the end that the Payment of such Balance may be ascertained, be it further enacted, That upon Payment of such Balance, an Acquittance or Discharge for the same shall be signed by the proper Officer in the Exchequer, which shall be produced and exhibited by the said Deputy Keeper to the said Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts, with the next ensuing Quarter's Account, within One Calendar Month from the Date thereof, or by his Executors or Administrators within Three Calendar Months from the Date thereof; and the said Commissioners are hereby required to demand and have the same so produced to them, before they shall audit and certify any subsequent Account for such Deputy Keeper in Manner heretofore directed.

XXIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in case it shall happen that the Sums received by the said Deputy Keeper shall in any Quarter be found insufficient to pay the different Sums payable thereon as heretofore directed, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts, and they are hereby required and authorized and empowered to inquire into, and to audit and certify such Deficiency, and thereupon such Deficiency shall be charged and chargeable upon the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, after paying and satisfying all such Sums and Sums of Money as have been directed by any former Act or Acts of Parliament to be paid out of the said Consolidated Fund, and shall be used thereout to such Deputy Keeper of the Rolls, to be by him applied in pursuance of the aforesaid Directions in relation thereto.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act, the Duties of the Office of Deputy Keeper of the Rolls, and the Clerk of the Enrolments, shall be distributed and executed in Manner following; that is to say, the Deputy Keeper of the Rolls, in addition to the Duties as aforesaid-superintending in general the Performances of the Ministerial Duties in the Rolls Office, and the other Duties heretofore discharged by him with respect to the attested Copies of Pleadings and Certificates, shall, in Person, or by proper Persons duly employed in his Office, keep the Rough Bill Book, and insert therein the Name or Names of the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, and Defendant or Defendants (as the Case may be), the Counsel's Name, and the Name of the ~~Solicitor~~ Solicitor respectively, the Time of filing the Bill and the Number of Shens which each Bill shall contain; and shall also in like Manner, within One Week from the filing of each Bill, enter the same in the Book of Pleadings; and shall also in like Manner enter into the said Book of Pleadings all Answers, Pleas, Demurrors, Replications and Rejoinders; and shall in like Manner make the Entries and do the Duties as to amended Bills and Pleadings heretofore discharged by the Clerk of the Enrolments; and the said Deputy Keeper shall in like Manner, from the Person aforesaid, personally keep and make up the Quarterly Accounts of the Fees received in the said Office, and the Payments made thereout, pursuant to the Provisions of this Act; and the Clerk of the Enrolments shall in like Manner make Searches and discharge the Duties in relation thereto, and attend the Masters under Orders to expunge, where Pleadings are reported scandalous, prolix or impertinent, and attend the Masters and Courts of Justice with the Records when offered in Evidence, and make all Enrolments, and enter and index the same; and further, shall in like Manner open and keep in the Office, as Part of the Public Books thereof, to which Reference may be had, a Calendar or Index of the Decrees to be enrolled, which Calendar or Index shall be kept in the same Manner, containing similar Heads, and specifying similar Particulars, as the Index furnished at the Rolls Office by the Commissioners of Public Records of Ireland, and shall be continued from the First Day of Hilary Term One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, mentioned in such Index; and the Clerk of the said Enrolments shall in like Manner complete the Entry of all Decrees enrolled in the preceding Term and Vacation, on or before the first Sitting Day of each ensuing Term.

XXV And Whereas, under the Provisions of the Two Acts of Parliament next hereinafter mentioned, the Master of the Rolls in Ireland for the Term being is entitled to receive from His Majesty's Treasury as much in or for each Quarter, as, together with the Fees received by him therein, shall make up the Sum of One thousand and seventy Five Pounds Sterling: And Whereas from and after the Commencement of this Act no Fees whatsoever will be payable to the Master of the Rolls in Ireland, and

It is therefore expedient to abolish such Mode of Payment, and to make Provision for maintaining the Bank and Impotence of the said Office in Manner hereinafter mentioned: Be it therefore enacted, That all such Parts of Two Acts made in the Parliament of the United Kingdom, one Act in the Forty first Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for the better Regulation of the Office of Master of the Rolls in that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, and for augmenting the Salary annexed to the said Office; and the other Act of the Fifty fifth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intituled An Act to augment the Salary of the Master of the Rolls in Ireland, and to enable His Majesty to grant an additional Assesment to each Master of the Rolls on the Resignation of his Office; and to regulate the Disposal of the Offices of the Six Clerks in the Court of Chancery in Ireland; as relate in any way to the Salary of the Master of the Rolls in Ireland, and as relate in any Account to be delivered by or on Behalf of the said Master of the Rolls, of the Salary, Fees and pecuniary Profits received by or payable to him in respect of the Execution of his Office, shall, from and after the Commencement of this Act, be and the same are hereby repealed; and that any Salary heretofore charged on the Civil List, for the Master of the Rolls for the Time being, shall from thenceforth cease and determine.

XXVI And be it further enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act, there shall be issued and paid and payable to the Master of the Rolls in Ireland for the Term being, out of and charged and chargeable upon the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, after paying and reserving sufficient to pay all such Sums and Sums of Money as have been directed by any former Act or Acts of Parliament to be paid out of the said Consolidated Fund, but with Preference to all other Payments which shall or may be hereafter charged upon or payable out of the said Fund, the annual Sum of Four thousand three hundred Pounds Irish Currency; and the said Sum of Money to be issued in pursuance of this Act shall from time to time from thenceforth be payable and paid Quarterly, free and clear of all Taxes and Deductions whatsoever, on every Twenty fifth Day of March, Twenty fourth Day of June, Twenty ninth Day of September and Twenty fifth Day of December; the first Payment thereof to be made on the first of the said Quarterly Days which shall immediately next follow the Commencement of this Act, and in Proportion only to the Time which shall have then elapsed from the Commencement of this Act.

XXVII Provided always, and be it further enacted, That whenever any Person holding the Office of Master of the Rolls shall, during the Course of any Quarter, resign his said Office, or shall die, then the Person so resigning the said Office, or the Executors or Administrators of such Person so dying, (as the Case may be,) shall be entitled to such Proportionable Part of the said Salary as shall have accrued during such Part of the said Quarter as such Person shall have executed such Office as aforesaid; and every Master of the Rolls to be hereafter appointed shall, on the Quarter Day next after his Appointment, be entitled to have and receive out of the said Consolidated Fund such Proportion of the said Salary as shall have arisen from the Date of the Losses Petition of his Appointment.

XXVIII And Whereas the said Commissioners so appointed as aforesaid have recommended that the Duty of Taxation in the said High Court of Chancery should cease to be performed by the Masters in Ordinary of the said Court, and that the said Masters should receive certain stated Fees for the Performance of their remaining Duties, and that the Duty of Taxation should in future be performed by

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act, there shall be issued and paid and payable, during their good Behaviour, to each and every Master of the Court of Chancery in Ireland for the Tax being, out of, and charged and chargeable upon the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, after paying and reserving sufficient to pay all such Sums and Sums of Money as have been decreed by any former Act or Acts of Parliament to be paid out of such Consolidated Fund, but with Preference to all other Payments which shall or may be hereafter charged upon or payable out of the said Fund, the annual Sum of Three thousand Pounds Irish Currency: every such annual Sum to be issued in pursuance of this Act shall from Time to Time from thenceforth be payable and paid Quarterly, free and clear from all Taxes and Deductions whatsoever, on every Twenty fifth Day of March, Twenty fourth Day of June, Twenty sixth Day of September and Twenty fifth Day of December: the first Payment thereof to be made on the first of the said Quarterly Days which shall immediately next follow the Commencement of this Act, and in proportion only to the Time which shall have then elapsed from the Commencement of this Act.

XXX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That whenever any Person holding, or who shall hold the Office of a Master in Chancery in Ireland, shall during the Course of any Quarter resign or quit his said Office, or shall die, then the Person so resigning, quitting or the Executors or Administrators of such Person so dying (as the Case may be), shall be entitled to such proportionate Part of such Salary as shall have accrued during such Part of the said Quarter as such Person shall have executed the said Office; and every Master in Chancery to be hereafter appointed shall, on the Quarter Day next after his Appointment, be entitled to have and receive out of the said Consolidated Fund such Proportion of such Salary as shall have arisen from the Date of the Letters Patent of his Appointment.

XXXI. And Whereas the present Masters in Ordinary of the said Court of Chancery will, in consequence of the Provisions of this Act, suffer a considerable Diminution of the Income hitherto received by them as Masters of the said Court: And Whereas it is just and proper that reasonable Compensation should be made to them for such Losses: Be it therefore enacted, That the present Masters of the said Court, that is to say, Thomas Ellis, Thomas Bell, William Hens and Malcolme Connor, shall, out of the Sum of Ten thousand Pounds hereafter reserved as a Fund to recompense the several Officers of the said Court of Chancery who may suffer Losses in their Incomes by means of the Provisions of this Act, each receive a Sum of Two hundred Pounds yearly, during the Time they shall respectively remain in Office, to be paid to them and each of them by four Quarterly Payments, to wit, on every Twenty fourth Day of December, Twenty fifth Day of March, Twenty fourth Day of June and Twenty sixth Day of September, the first Payment thereof to take place on the first of the said Days which shall happen next after this Act shall take effect; and the said Sums of Two hundred Pounds to each of said Masters shall be the first Payment to be made out of the said Sum of Ten thousand Pounds hereafter particularly mentioned, and to be in lieu of and in full Satisfaction of all Losses or Diminution of Income which such Person shall or may sustain by reason of the several Provisions in this Act contained.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That in all References or Matters before any Master in Chancery, in which it has been heretofore customary to issue Subpoenas for the Parties to attend such Sittings, the Master before whom any Proceeding on such Subpoena or Matter shall be had, shall continue to issue Subpoenas from time to time, and shall not in any Case, or under any Pretence whatever, proceed on any such Reference or Matter, unless a Subpoena for the Meeting at which such Proceeding shall be required shall have been signed by him, and shall be produced before him at the Meeting for proceeding on such Reference or Matter.

XXXIII. And Whereas it frequently happens that Delays and Adjournments of Meetings on References and Proceedings in the Office of Masters in Chancery frequently take place, for the Accountedness and Convenience, or through the Negligence and Non-attendance of one of the Parties concerned in such Reference or Proceeding, and it is unreasonable and unjust that the Party attending and prepared to proceed should pay the Expence of Meetings so rendered nugatory by the Non-attendance of the opposite Party, even though such opposite Party should by a final Decree, or otherwise, to be ordered to pay the several Costs of the Cause; and according to the present Practice of the Court of Chancery the Masters in Chancery have not any Power or Authority to make any Order touching the Costs of the Proceedings before themselves; Do it therefore enacted, That at any and every Meeting which shall be had before any Master of the Court of Chancery in Ireland, upon Summons issued in Manner aforesaid, the Master shall on the Back of the Summons for such Meeting, to be produced to him according to the Directions of this Act, endorse or cause to be endorsed, and shall sign such Order as under the Circumstances of the Case shall to him seem fit, as to the Payment of the Costs of such Meeting, and as to the Person or Persons by whom the Costs of such Meeting shall be paid, as between Party and Party, or whether such Costs shall abide the Rule, Order or Decree, as to the Payment of Costs, which may be made on the Hearing of the Cause, or whether such Costs shall be paid by the Complainant or Defendant, or other Party in the Cause or Matter, independent of any general Order or Decree which may be pronounced by the Court as to the general Costs of such Cause or Matter, or whether as between Solicitor and Client, the Costs of such Meeting in the Master's Office, as so aforesaid readen and signatory, shall constitute a fair and reasonable Charge against the Client; and every such Summons with such Order so thereon endorsed, and signed by the said Master, shall, on the Taxation of such Costs, be produced to the Master when taxing such Costs, who shall allow or disallow the Costs in respect thereof accordingly, either as between Party and Party, or as between Solicitor and Client, or otherwise, according to the Order so as aforesaid endorsed on the Back of such Summons; and so no Case shall the Master, upon the Taxation of any Bill of Costs, allow any Sum or Sums as and for the Expenses of any such Meeting or Proceeding, unless the Summons on which such Meeting was had be produced before such Master at the Time of such Taxation.

XXXIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in all Cases where any Summons shall issue for any Proceeding before the said Master, and that such Summons shall be lost and mislaid, that in such Case it shall and may be lawful to allow the Costs of such Proceedings on a Taxation of Costs, in case it shall appear by an Entry in the Master's Book, or by such other Evidence as to the said Master shall appear sufficient, that a Summons has really and deed filed been issued on such Proceedings.

XXXV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act shall extend to prevent any Master in Ordinary of the said Court of Chancery, or the present Registrar of the said Court, or his Deputies, from taking, receiving or recovering all such Fees as shall be legally and deed due to any such Master, or the present Registrar or his Deputies, for any Business done, or for any Services performed in the Execution of the Duty of his or their respective Offices, at any Time previous to the First Day of Michaelmas Term One thousand eight hundred and twenty three.

XXXVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to prevent the Masters in Ordinary of said Court from taxing all Bills of Costs for Business done previous to the First Day of Michaelmas Term One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, according to the Rules and Regulations by which any Bill of Costs were taxable at or immediately previous to the Day of passing of this Act.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Ireland, to give and grant unto any Person who may or shall have executed the Office of a Master in Ordinary of the Court of Chancery for the Term of Twenty Years, or to any Person having executed the said Office for any shorter Period not less than Ten Years, or who shall after his Appointment to any such Office have become afflicted with any permanent Infirmary, disabling him from the due Execution of his Office, and who shall be desirous of resigning the same, an Annuity or yearly Sum of Money not exceeding the Sum of One thousand five hundred Pounds Irish Currency, in case the said Master shall have served to such Office Twenty Years, and not exceeding One thousand Pounds in case he shall have served for such shorter Period; and an Annuity not exceeding Two thousand Pounds in case such Master shall have served in such Office Twenty five Years; and an Annuity not exceeding Two thousand five hundred Pounds in case such Master shall have served in such Office for Thirty Years or more; in which Letters Patent the Cause or Ground for making thereof shall be distinctly stated and specified; and the Annuity or yearly Sum so granted shall be paid accordingly out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, by even and equal Quarterly Payments, on the Fifth Day of January, Fifth Day of April, Fifth Day of July, and Tenth Day of October in every Year, to such Master in Ordinary, from the Period of which he shall resign his said Office, for and during the Term of his natural Life, without any Deduction for Fees or Payoutage, or otherwise.

XXXVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Allowance shall in any Case be made under this Act to any Master in Chancery by way of Retired Salary or Pension, unless such Master as Chancery shall have served in the same Office during the full Term of Ten Years.

XXXIX. Provided nevertheless, and be it further enacted, That every such Master in Ordinary of the Court of Chancery, being desirous to resign his Office, shall before he resigns the same take and subscribe the following Oath before the Lord Chancellor of Ireland, or the Lord Keeper or Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal of Ireland.

I, A. B. do solemnly swear, That I neither have received nor will receive, directly or indirectly, by myself or by any One in trust for me, any Sum or Sums of Money, Gift, Pardon or Engagement, as a Consideration, Inducement, or Reward for my Resignation of the Office of Master in Chancery.

XL. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, the present and all future Masters in Ordinary of the said Court of Chancery in Ireland, do and shall hold and be possessed of their

XLIII. And Witness the Commissioners appointed to inquire into the Duties, Salaries and Emoluments of the Officers, Clerks and Ministers of Justice, in all Temporal and Ecclesiastical Courts in Ireland, by their First Report had before Parliament relative to the Court of Chancery in Ireland, have reported that several Abuses and Inconveniences to the Suitors had arisen from the Practice of the said Court, relative to the Examination of Witnesses under Oaths taken issuing out of the said Court to Commissioners for that Purpose; and it is expedient that all such Abuses and Inconveniences should be amended, and a better System introduced; Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act, in all Cases where it may be necessary that an Examination of Witnesses should take place, either in chief in any Cause, or in aid of any Inquiry or Account ordered or directed to be made or taken before any Master in Ordinary of the said Court, other than the Examinations of Witnesses before the Examiners of the said Court, an Order shall be made by such Court for referring it to a Master in Ordinary of the said Court, according to the usual Practice of the said Court in such Case, to approve of and appoint one fit and proper Person to act as Examiner in all such Cases as aforesaid, and such Person as to be approved of and appointed by such Master shall, so far as the same is practicable, be totally unconnected with either or any of the Parties interested in such Cause, and such Person so approved of and appointed shall be and shall be taken as and shall be considered to be an Officer of the said Court of Chancery, and shall be subject to such summary Interference and Control of the said Court, as any other Officer of the said Court in this Act particularly mentioned; and a Commission shall issue to such Person as so aforesaid appointed, authorizing and empowering him to proceed in the Examination of all such Witnesses as may be necessary, in the same Manner and according to the same Form as are at present established (save and except in Cases where such established Practice is altered by this Act), touching and concerning the Examination of Witnesses under Commission to examine Witnesses, issuing out of the Court of Chancery in Ireland, at any Time before the Commencement of this Act; and every Person so approved of and appointed, a Commissioner to examine Witnesses under the Provisions of this Act, before he shall exercise any of the Duties of such Commissioner, shall take and subscribe, before a Master in Ordinary or a Master Extraordinary of the said Court, the following Oath, and such Oath shall be annexed to the said Commission, and shall be returned with the said Commission to the said Court, to be there filed and recorded; (that is to say,)

“ I, A. B. do swear, That I will, according to the best of my Skill and Knowledge, truly and faithfully perform the Duty of a Commissioner, to examine Witnesses pursuant to the Powers vested in me by the annexed Commission; and that I will truly, faithfully and without Partiality to any or either of the Parties in this Cause, take, write down the Examinations and Depositions of all and every Witness and Witnesses who shall be produced before and examined by me, upon the Interrogatories filed for that Purpose; and that until Publication in the said Cause shall duly pass, I will not publish, disclose or make known any Part of the Purpose or Contents of any Deposition of any Witness to be taken by me; and further, that I will fairly and truly enter and set down in Writing, in the Dominical of such Examination, the Hours of the Day on each Day that I shall be employed as such Commissioner, at which I shall respectively commence and conclude the Examination of the Witnesses under such Commission, as also the real and true Cause or Causes of my not commencing such Examination at or before Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon, if such should be the Case; and also, of my not commencing such Examination till Three o'Clock † in the Afternoon, if such should be the Case; and also, by whose Delay or Default, so far as I can judge, such Examination was not commenced and continued (as the Case may be) from Eleven o'Clock † in the Forenoon till Three in the Afternoon. So help me GOD.”

XLIV. And he it further enacted, That no Witness, who shall reside more than Thirty Miles from the City of Dublin, shall in any Case be obliged to leave his or her House in order to be examined before any Chief Examiner; but that all such Witnesses who shall reside or be in Ireland, and more than Thirty Miles from the City of Dublin, shall and may be examined before a Commissioner so to be appointed, unless such Witness, and also the Party producing such Witness, shall choose that he or they shall be examined in Dublin before One of the Chief Examiners, or before One of the regular Examiners appointed by the Master in Ordinary or otherwise in and of Ireland or Accidents to be taken ad hoc there, and it shall be lawful for every such Commissioner to cross examine any Witness produced before him, in case he shall be required so to do by any Person against whom the direct Examination of such Witness shall have been taken; and it shall be lawful for every Commissioner so to be appointed to receive such Fees and Allowances for the Execution of his Duty in the Examination of Witnesses, and for the Expenses of such Commissioner in travelling; and they shall respectively be subject to such other Rules and Regulations as shall be for that Purpose from time to time authorized, directed and made by any Order or Orders of the said Court of Chancery.

XLV. And Whereas the Chief Examiners of the said Court are by their Appointments authorized to appoint Deputies, and it is not fit that such Power should be exercised without sufficient Reason; Be it enacted, That no such Chief Examiner shall in any case appoint a Deputy, unless and until the Occasion for such Appointment, and also the Person to be appointed shall have been approved of by the Court, upon a Petition verified by Affidavit; and that nothing shall be considered by the Court as a fit Occasion for such Appointment, but Inability in the Principal to attend, either from Sickness or from unavoidable Business; and such Order shall be regularly entered in the Registrar's Office; and no such Appointment shall continue for any longer Time than shall be allowed or directed by such Order, either by fixing a precise Time, or by some general Words, or by Reference to some Master capable of being distinctly ascertained, or in such other Manner as the Court shall think proper; and if any such Appointment shall be made otherwise than as aforesaid, or for any longer Period than as aforesaid, then and in every such Case such Chief Examiner making such Appointment, and also such Deputy, if he shall presume to act therein, shall be deemed guilty of a Contempt of the Court, and be punished accordingly.

XLVI. And he it further enacted, That every Examiner, Deputy Examiner and Commission Examiner, shall take down the Depositions of all Witnesses on their Examination with his own Hand, and that no Clerk shall be present at any such Examination; and that every Clerk who shall be employed before Publication, so as to have any Access to any Deposition or Depositions, shall before he shall set in the Execution of such Office, and he is hereby required to take and subscribe the following Oath, before the Examiner by whom any such Clerk shall respectively be so employed, and such Examiner is hereby empowered and required to administer the said Oath:

“ I, C. D. do swear, That according to the best of my Skill and Knowledge I will truly and faithfully execute and exercise the Office of a Copying Clerk in the Office of A. B. One of the Examiners of His Majesty's High Court of Chancery in Ireland, whereunto I am admitted, so long as I shall continue to hold the said Office; and that I will also well and faithfully preserve and keep such of the King's Records wherewith I shall be entrusted, or wherewith I shall have Access; and that I will not publish, disclose or make known to any Person or Persons whatsoever the Particulars or the Purpose or Contents of any Deposition or Depositions copied or read by me in the Execution of my said Office, or to which I shall have Access thereby, said Publication thereof respectively shall duly pass. So help me GOD.”

XLVII. And Whereas it is expedient that Provision should be made for the Examination of Witnesses in aid of the Statement of Accounts and other Inquiries depending before the Masters in the Court of Chancery in Ireland respectively, under any Orders or Decrees of the said Court, and that such Examinations should be had before the said Masters or their Clerks respectively; Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for each and every of the said Masters of the said Court, to appoint by Instrument under Hand and Seal any Person whom he shall think proper to be his Clerk of such Master, during his Pleasure; and such Instrument being enrolled in the said Court of Chancery, such Person shall be such Clerk accordingly, and shall as such be an Officer of the said Court; and that, from and after One Calendar Month from the passing of this Act no Person shall be or be deemed or taken or considered to be in any Manner whatsoever the Clerk of any of the said Masters, but under and by virtue of such Appointment as aforesaid.

XLVIII. And be it further enacted, That every such Clerk of any Master in Chancery, before he shall act as such in the Examination of any Witness, shall take the following Oath before the Master by whom he shall be appointed, or before any other Master of the said Court:

I, A. B. do swear, That I will, according to the best of my Skill and Knowledge, truly and faithfully execute and exercise the Office of Master's Clerk and Examiner in the Office of C. D. Esquire, one of the Masters of His Majesty's High Court of Chancery in Ireland, so long as I shall continue to hold the said Office; and that I will well and faithfully preserve and keep all such Records, Inventories, Depositions, Deeds, Documents and Instruments whatsoever, wheresoever I shall be interested, or wheresoever I shall have Access under or by virtue of my said Office; and that I will not publish, disclose or make known to any Person whatsoever, the Particulars, Purport or Contents of any Deposition or Depositions taken, copied or read by me in the Execution of my said Office, or to which I shall have Access thereby, until Publication thereof respectively shall duly pass.

So help me GOD.

XLIX. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where an Examination shall be directed by the said Court of Chancery, upon, under or in aid of any Account, Inquiry, or other Matter whatsoever, which shall at any Time be depending before any Master of the said Court, it shall and may be lawful to and for such Master, if he shall think proper, and if he shall not so think proper, then to and for such his Clerk in the Presence of such Master, if such Master shall so think fit, without any Commission whatsoever, to examine all Witnesses who shall be produced before him, touching any Matter as to which such Examination of Witnesses shall have been so directed, or arising thereon, and to take down in Writing the Depositions of all such Witnesses, in the Manner and Form usual in such Cases.

L. And be it further enacted, That from and after the First Day of Miscellaneous Term One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, it shall not be lawful for any Master in Ordinary in the said Court of Chancery to accept of any Sum of Money or Security as Money, or to stipulate for or receive any Share or Proportion of the Profits of the said Office, or receive any other valuable Consideration whatsoever, as and for a Consideration for the Appointment of any Person whatsoever to the Office of Place of a Clerk or Examiner to said Master in Ordinary.

LI. And Whereas by an Act made in the Parliament of Ireland, in the Twenty third and Twenty fourth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled An Act for the better carrying the Monies, and Effects of the Seniors of the Court of Chancery and the Court of Exchequer, by depositing the same in the Bankers Bank, and to prevent the forging and counterfeiting any Deeds, Orders or other Vouchers for the Payment or Delivery of such Monies or Effects, and for other Purposes; and reciting that the Usher of the said Court of Chancery had been entitled to a Fee of Sixpence in the Pound for all such Monies as had by Order of the said Court been paid out of the same by the said Usher; it was enacted, that every Person who should obtain any Deed or Order for the Payment at any such Money as had heretofore been usually deposited with and paid out by the said Usher, or which, if the said recited Act had not passed, would have been deposited with and paid out by the said Usher, should, at the Time of demanding, as in the said Act is expressed, from the Accountant General of the said Court, deposit and lodge with the said Accountant General such Fee or Sum of Sixpence in the Pound as aforesaid, to be handed over to the said Accountant General, to and for the proper Use of the said Usher. And Whereas it is expedient that the said Fee should be abolished in Manner hereinafter expressed; Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the Commencement of the existing Interest of the present Possessor of the said Office of Usher of the said Court of Chancery, the said recited Clause of the said recited Act shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and that no Usher of the said Court of Chancery, who shall be appointed at any Time after the Determination of such existing Interest in the said Office, shall ask, demand or take the said Fee of Sixpence in the Pound, or any other Fee whatever, in respect or under pretext of the Payment of any such Money; and that the said Fee shall not be lodged or deposited with the Accountant General, or be asked, demanded, received or paid in any Manner or by any Person whatsoever; but the said Fee, and all and every Fee in respect of or under pretext of the Payment of any such Money, shall, from and after the Determination of such existing Interest, be and the same is hereby abolished, and shall then cease and be no longer paid or payable; any Thing in the said recited Act, or any Usage or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

LII. And Whereas the present Usher of the Court of Chancery in Ireland claims to be entitled to certain Fees in the Tables to this Act annexed, or some of them, set down as payable to other Officers of the said Court, and it is reasonable that if he is entitled to any such Fee or Fees, the same should not be so transferred during his Continuance in the said Office; he is therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Under to proceed in such Manner as he shall be advised to establish his Right to any such Fee or Fees, and thereupon to recover and receive the same as long as he shall hold the said Office, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if this Act had not passed; but that from the Time of his ceasing to hold the said Office, such Fees and Provisions of this Act and of the said Tables of Fees as shall be thereby so altered or affected, shall have their full Force and Effect according to the Terms and Meaning thereof.

LIII. And he it further enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act, the Clerk of the Hanaper and the Clerk of the Crown of the said Court of Chancery shall, within Fourteen Days after the Fifth Day of January, Fifth Day of April, Fifth Day of July and Tenth Day of October in each and every Year, deliver to the Commissioners of Accounts, who are required to audit the same, and to certify the Balance, an Account signed by such Clerk of the Hanaper and Clerk of the Crown, for or on account of the Payments usually known by the Name of The King's Salary, as the same are mentioned, specified and set forth in the Second Column of the Table (Number 10.) to this Act annexed, in the Course of a Quarter of a Year ending on such Fifth Day of January, Fifth Day of April, Fifth Day of July and Tenth Day of October respectively, and how applied; and such Clerk of the Hanaper and Clerk of the Crown shall, within Twenty one Days next after the same Balance shall be certified, pay into the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer in Double the full Amount of all Sums specified in every such Quarterly Account, and the same shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

LIV. And he it further enacted, That whenever and so long as it is or shall be lawful for the Comaker of the said Court of Chancery to appoint a Deputy for the Performance of the Duties of the said Office of Comaker, such Comaker shall allow to such Deputy a Salary of not less than One hundred Pounds a Year, payable quarterly.

LV. And he it further enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act, there shall be issued and paid and payable out of and charged and chargeable upon the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland (after paying and reserving sufficient to pay all such Sums and Sums of Money as have been decreed by any former Act or Acts of Parliament to be paid out of the said Consolidated Fund, but with Preference to all other Payments which shall or may be hereafter charged upon or payable out of the said Fund), the annual Sum of One thousand two hundred and eighty Pounds Ervo Currency, and which Sum of Money so to be issued shall from time to time be applied in Payment of the following Sums; that is to say, to the Accountant General of the said Court, the annual Sum of Seven hundred Pounds, for and in lieu of any Salary to which he is by Law entitled; to his Head Clerk, the Sum of Four hundred Pounds; to his Second Clerk the annual Sum of One hundred Pounds; and to his Third Clerk, the annual Sum of Eighty Pounds; which Salaries shall commence from the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, and shall be payable by equal quarterly Payments, free and clear of all Deductions whatsoever, for Fells, Penalties or otherwise, on the Fifth Day of January, Fifth Day of April, Fifth Day of July and Tenth Day of October in every Year.

LVI. And he it further enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the said Accountant General by himself or his Clerks, to ask, demand and receive for all Copies of all Accounts extracted from the Books of the said Accountant General, the Sum of Two Pence for every Line on the Debit Side of such Account, and the like Sum of Two Pence for every Line on the Creditor Side of such Account, if the said Account shall consist of Forty Lines, or any less Number on each Side of the said Account; and if the said Account shall consist of any greater Number of Lines than Forty on each Side of the said Account, then the Sum of One Pound and no more; and that from and after the Commencement of this Act, it shall not be lawful for the said Accountant General, or any Clerk or other Person in his Office, to ask, demand or receive any Fee for any Certificate of any Balance of Stock or Cash on any Account in the Books of the said Accountant General, nor for any other Business, Matter or Thing whatsoever in or relating to the Office of the said Accountant General; and if any Clerk or other Person belonging to or employed in, or who shall hereafter belong to or be employed in the Office of such Accountant General, shall take any other Fee or Reward on account of any Business, Matter or Thing whatsoever in or relating to the Office of Accountant General, or do the Duty of any Clerk therein, every such Person shall be deemed guilty of Embezzlement, and shall and may be prosecuted for the same by Indictment or Information, or upon Complaint thereof made to the said Court of Chancery shall be punished for the same as for a Contempt of the said Court, and shall forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

LVII. And he it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Chancellor of Ireland, or for the Lord Keeper or Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal of Ireland for the Time being, from time to time at his and their Will and Pleasure, to appoint a Broker or Brokers by whom all Sales and Purchases of Stock, with the Privy of the Accountant General of the said Court, shall be made, and to remove such Broker at his or their Will and Pleasure; and such Broker shall be entitled to receive the usual Commission of Brokerage on any such Sale and Purchase; and whenever such Commission or Brokerage shall amount to One Guinea, or any greater Sum, then and in any such Case such Broker shall thereupon pay the Stamp Duty of Half a Guinea, to be charged on the Approbation of such Sale or Purchase, by the Master approving the same.

Provision for the existing Under to receive Fees claimed by him.

Clerk of the Hanaper and Clerk of the Crown to deliver to Commissioners of Accounts quarterly, Amount of King's Salary accrued by them, and pay Amount to the Consolidated Fund.

Provision to pay his Deputy 100*l* a Year.

Salaries to Accountant General, and his Clerks, charged on Consolidated Fund.

The Amount of such Salaries.

Course of Deductions.

Accountant General may take Fees on Copies of Accounts.

No other Fee to his Office.

Taking such interest penalty of Embezzlement.

Commission of Court, and Penalty 50*l*.

Lord Chancellor, or any other may appoint a Broker for Sale and Purchase of Stock.

Office of Clerk of the Reports abolished, and the Duty performed by Registrar.

LXVIII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act, the Office of Clerk of the Office of Reports of the said Court of Chancery shall be and the same is hereby abolished, and that all Matters and Things which in and by the said heretofore recited Act, made in the Parliament of Ireland in the Twenty third and Twenty fourth Years of the Reign of his late Majesty, are required to be done and performed by the Clerk of the Reports in the said Court, shall be done and performed by the Registrar of the said Court; any thing in the said recited Act, or any Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

LIX. And Whereas under and by virtue of an Agreement made by or on Behalf of His Majesty with the Bank of Ireland, which Agreement is established and confirmed by an Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the Thirty sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for securing the Payment of the Annuities, and of the Interest upon the principal Sums thereof provided, for and towards the Discharge of such principal Sums, in such Manner as is therein directed, and for enabling the Officers of His Majesty's Treasury to receive certain Sums for a limited Time in Manner therein mentioned, and for granting to His Majesty a certain Sum of Money out of the Consolidated Fund, and for applying a certain Sum of Money therein mentioned for the Service of the Year One thousand seven hundred and ninety six, and for other Purposes, the Governor and Company of the said Bank of Ireland were, for the Considerations therein respectively mentioned, made liable to the Payment of a Sum of One hundred and twenty Pounds yearly to the said Clerk of the Reports, and it is not reasonable that on the Abolition of the said Office for the Public Benefit the Salary thereof should sink for the Benefit of the said Bank; He is therefore enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act, the said yearly Sum of One hundred and twenty Pounds shall be payable and paid by the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland into the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer in Ireland, in the same Manner and on the same Days and Times as the same hath heretofore been payable to the Clerk of the Reports for the Time being, and the same, when so paid, shall be carried to and become Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The said 1805, a Year to be paid into the Exchequer, and carried to Consolidated Fund.

LX. And Whereas by and under the Provisions contained in this Act, and also in certain General Orders prepared to be adopted by the Lord Chancellor and Master of the Rolls in Ireland, transmitted on the Third Day of April One thousand eight hundred and eighteen, by the said Lord Chancellor and Master of the Rolls, in a Letter to William Gregory Esquire, for the Information of his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, the Emoluments of the present Six Clerks, and some other Officers of the said Court of Chancery and three Deputies, whether expressly mentioned in this Act or not, may be considerably diminished, and it is reasonable that Compensation should be made in such Case to the said present Six Clerks, and other Officers of the said Court and their Deputies; Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Commissioner for the Custody of the Great Seal of Ireland for the Time being, and the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Commissioner for the Custody of the Great Seal, or any one or more of them, as they shall see fit and proper to ascertain the same, to make Inquiry into the Salaries and Emoluments of each and every of the present Officers of the said Court of Chancery, save and except the Masters in Ordinary and their Deputies respectively, who shall by Petition desire that such Inquiry should be made, in order and with a view to ascertain the average annual Amount of such Salaries and Emoluments in the said Office respectively, for a Period of Seven Years next preceding the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty three; and also in order and with a view to exclude out of such average or annual Amount all such Emoluments and Income as shall appear, according to the best Judgment that the said Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal, can form thereof, to have arisen from any new Fees, or from any Increase of Fees introduced into any such Office of Deputyship, subsequent to the Appointment of the present Holders thereof respectively, or subsequent to the Appointment of the immediate Predecessor of any Officer or Deputy who shall have been appointed to such Office or Deputyship subsequent to the first Appointment of the said Commissioners of Inquiry, or to have arisen from computing the Contents of Office Sheets of Seventy two Words instead of Ninety Words each, or to have arisen from any new Fees, or from any Increase of Fees which may have been introduced within Twenty Years prior to the Commencement of this Act, or from any Fees which may have been demanded or received contrary to the Provisions of any Act of Parliament, or otherwise contrary to Law; and for those Purposes it shall and may be lawful for the said Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal, and he or they are hereby authorized, empowered and required, by all such Ways or Means as to him and them shall seem fit and proper to ascertain the same, to examine the said present Officers and Deputies respectively, on Oath, and also in like Manner to examine all such Witnesses as he or they shall think proper to require, together with all such Accounts, Books and Vouchers as he or they shall call for; and the said Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal, shall thereupon certify under their Hands and Seals, or under the Hands and Seals of any Three or more of them, the Average Amount of the yearly Income of every such Officer and Deputy, so reduced by the Exclusion of such Emoluments and Income as aforesaid, for the said Period of Seven Years, distinguishing the gross Income from the net Income, and stating the Particulars of the Disbursements out of the gross Income, which constitute the Difference between the gross and the net Income, so far as they can ascertain the same; and the said Certificate shall contain

Lord Chancellor, to make Inquiry into and ascertain the average annual Amount of Salaries and Emoluments of Six Clerks and other Officers for Seven Years preceding the Jan. 1823, and certify same into the Office of the Auditor General.

What each Certificate is to contain.

a Statement of the particular Fees, Profits and Emoluments on which such Averages shall have been taken as aforesaid, and also of the Fees, Profits and Emoluments herebefore received, which shall be excluded from such Averages; and the said Certificate shall be filed in the Office of the Auditor General in Dublin Castle, and shall remain there as a Record, and be conclusive to all such Matters and to the Purpose of this Act.

LXI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in case, from the Want of sufficient Accounts at Viscounts or from any other Cause, the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper and Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal of Ireland, shall be unable satisfactorily to ascertain the annual Amount of the Salary and Emoluments in the Office of any of the said present Officers on the Average of each Period of Seven Years, then and in such Case it shall and may be lawful for the said Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Commissioners, at the Request of any of the said Officers, to certify the average annual Income arising from the Salary and Emoluments in the Office of any such Officer, as amounting to a Sum equal to the smallest Sum which shall have been certified by the said Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Commissioners, as being the annual average Amount of the Salary and Emoluments in the Office of any other Officer of the same Class.

LXII. And be it further enacted, That at the End of One Year from the passing of this Act, or at any Time within Six Calendar Months after the said Period, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Chancellor of Ireland, Lord Keeper or Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal for the Time being, to ascertain in like Manner as aforesaid the gross and net Income in the Office of each and every of the said present Officers and Deputies, who shall by Notice desire the same, including therein all and every Salary and Emolument arising from such Office for and during the said Year, and if the said gross Income shall be less than the average gross Income in the Office of such Officer or Deputy as certified as aforesaid, then to require and ascertain in like Manner whether such Deficiency, or any and what Part thereof, arose from this Act, or and from any of the Provisions therein, or the said Orders; and in case it shall appear that such Deficiency, or any Part thereof, did so arise, then to certify the Amount of such Deficiency so arising from this Act, or any of the Provisions thereof, or the said Orders, and so in every succeeding Year to inquire and certify in like Manner, so long as any of the said present Officers or Deputies shall live and retain their said Offices respectively; and every such Certificate shall in like Manner be filed in the said Auditor General's Office, and shall be conclusive as to the said Matter.

LXIII. And be it further enacted, That within Three Calendar Months next after the filing of any such annual Certificate of such Lord Chancellor of Ireland, or Lord Keeper or Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal for the Time being, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, to order that a Sum equal to the Amount of the said Deficiency, so certified to arise from this Act, or from the said General Orders, or to or in such Proportion thereof as such Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors shall think proper, shall be paid out of the Consolidated Fund to such Officer or Deputy, his Executors or Administrators, in full Compensation for such Deficiency: Provided always, that the whole Amount of the Sum so to be paid in any one Year to the several Officers aforesaid, other than and except the Principal Register of the said Court, and the Clerk of the said Court, shall not exceed the Sum of Ten thousand Pounds Irish Currency.

LXIV. And Whereas by and under the Provisions of this Act, the Office of Principal Register of the said Court, now held as a Sinecure by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Ireland, for the Term of the natural Life of the present Possessor thereof, is to cease and determine, and it is just and reasonable that Compensation should be made to such Officer for the same: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Person who at the Time of the passing of this Act shall be the Principal Register of the said Court, to apply by Petition to the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal of Ireland, to make Inquiry into the Income and Emolument of such Office of Principal Register of the said Court of Chancery, for a Period of Seven Years next preceding the passing of this Act; and whereupon it shall and may be lawful for the said Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal, and they are hereby authorized, empowered and required, to make such Inquiry, and to ascertain the same accordingly, in such Manner and with such View and Intent, and on such Examination, as is and by this Act is specified for ascertaining the net average annual Amount of the Salaries and Emoluments of other Officers of the said Court and their Deputies respectively; and the said Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal, shall certify under his or their Hand and Seals, the Amount of the annual Income of the said Principal Register as an Average of the said Seven Years, in like Manner and subject to the like Reduction as in and by this Act they are directed to certify the same average annual Amount of the Income and Emoluments of any other Officers and their Deputies as aforesaid; and such Certificate shall be filed in the Office of the Auditor General in Dublin Castle, and shall remain there as a Record, and be conclusive on to all such Matters, and to the Purpose of this Act.

LXV. And be it further enacted, That from and after the filing of such Certificate, there shall be paid and be paid and payable to the Person who at the Time of the passing of this Act shall hold the said Office of Principal Register of the said Court of Chancery, and his Assigns, yearly, and every Year during the Term of his natural Life, out of and charged and chargeable upon the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland (after Payment of all Sums previously charged on the said Fund) a Sum equal to the Sum which shall be so ascertained by such Certificate, to be the net annual average Amount of the Income and Emoluments of the said Office of Principal Registrar of the said Court as aforesaid, in full Compensation for the same, and such annual Sum shall be paid and payable to such Person and his Assigns, during the Term of his natural Life, by Four Quarterly Payments in each and every Year, free and clear of all Taxes and Deductions whatsoever, on every Twenty fifth Day of March, the Twenty fourth Day of June, the Twenty sixth Day of September, and the Twenty fifth Day of December; the first Payment thereof to be made on the first of the said Days which shall next happen after the Commencement of this Act, and in proportion only in the Time which shall immediately next happen after the Commencement of this Act, and also such Proportion of any such Quarterly Payment as at the Time of the Decease of such Person shall be due from the Quarter Day next preceding the Term of such Decease.

LXVI. And Whereas some Delay may occur in ascertaining the Amount of the annual Income of the said Principal Registrar, and procuring said Certificate as herein before directed, during which Time said Principal Registrar would be totally deprived of the Income which he had heretofore enjoyed from his said Office; Be it therefore enacted, That in the mean time, and until such Certificate shall be obtained and filed as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, or any of them, to order that there shall be paid and payable to the Person who at the Time of the passing of this Act shall hold the said Office of Principal Registrar of the said Court of Chancery and his Assigns, such annual Sum or Sums of Money, on account of the Compensation to be thereafter awarded to said Principal Registrar, as to said Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland shall appear to be just and reasonable, but not exceeding the net average Amount of the Income and Emoluments of the said Office, as reported by the Commissioners appointed to inquire into the Duties, Salaries and Emoluments of the Officers, Clerks and Ministers of Justice, in all Temporal and Ecclesiastical Courts in Ireland, for Three Years preceeding such Report; such annual Sum to be paid and payable to such Principal Registrar and his Assigns by Four Quarterly Payments in each and every Year, free and clear of all Taxes and Deductions whatsoever, on every Twenty fifth Day of March, Twenty fourth Day of June, Twenty sixth Day of September and Twenty fifth Day of December; the first Payment thereof, on account as aforesaid, to be made on the first of said Days which shall next happen after the Commencement of this Act, and in proportion to the Term which shall immediately next happen after the Commencement of this Act; such Payments (if any) to said Principal Registrar or his Assigns, to be credited on the Foot of such annual Income as it shall appear by said Certificate, when filed as aforesaid, that said Principal Registrar is entitled to; and in case the Sum or Sums so to be paid as aforesaid shall exceed the Sum to which said Registrar shall appear by said Certificate to be entitled to, then and in such Case such Excess or Overplus shall be deducted from the Quarterly Payment which shall next happen after the filing of said Certificate.

LXVII. And Whereas by and under the Operation of this Act, and of the said General Orders proposed to be adopted by the Lord Chancellor and Master of the Rolls in Ireland, the Emoluments of the Under of the said Court of Chancery will be considerably diminished, and it is reasonable that Compensation should be made to the said Officer; Be it therefore enacted, That upon the Petition to the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal of Ireland, by the Person holding the Office of Under of the said Court at the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for the said Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal, to make Inquiry into and to ascertain the average annual Amount of the Salaries and Emoluments of the said Officer, for a Period of Seven Years next preceeding the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, and to certify the average Amount thereof, subject to the like Reduction, and in like Manner in all respects as the said Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Commissioners are by this Act required to do, in making Inquiry into, and in ascertaining the Salaries and Emoluments of other Officers of the said Court; and thereupon it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor of Ireland, or Lord Keeper or Lords Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal for the Time being, to ascertain the gross and net average annual Income of the said Officer, and to ascertain any Deficiency arising in the said net Income by the Operation of this Act, or any of the Provisions therein contained, or from the said Orders, and to certify the Amount of such Deficiency annually as long as the said Officer shall live and retain his said Office, in like Manner in all respects as is by this Act directed with respect to the annual Income and Deficiencies thereof of any other Officers of the said Court; and such Certificate shall be filed in like Manner as is herein required with respect to any Certificate relating to such other Officers of the said Court; and it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, to order that a Sum equal to the Amount of such Deficiency, as aforesaid, shall be paid out of the said Consolidated Fund to such Under, his Executor or Administrators, or such Compensation for such Deficiency, in like Manner as by this Act is directed and provided with respect to any other Officers of the said Court of Chancery.

LXVIII. And Whereas, by and under the Provisions of this Act, and of the said General Orders, certain Duties will be imposed upon divers Officers of the Court of Chancery, which have not usually and ought not by Law to have been performed by them respectively, and for the Performance whereof the Employment of additional Clerks, or increased Payment to the Clerks by them hitherto employed, may become necessary; and it is reasonable to provide that the Employment of such additional Clerks, and such increased Payments should not reduce the net Income of such Officers as hold their respective Offices during the Term of their respective Lives, or during their good Behaviors, or who have legally to produce two duplicate Copies; Be it therefore enacted, That each and every such Officer shall be at his Office, at any Time within Six Months after the Commencement of this Act, to apply by Petition to the said Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal of Ireland, requesting that he or they would proceed to inquire and certify what Clerks it may be reasonable and necessary, in consequence of the Provisions of this Act, and of the said General Orders, to employ in addition to such Clerks as have hitherto been usually employed or ought to have been employed by such Office, and what Salary it may be reasonable and necessary to allow them, and what further and increased Payment it may be reasonable to make to the Clerks by them hitherto employed, beyond that Payment to which such Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal shall consider that such Officers ought hitherto to have been liable; and thereupon it shall and may be lawful for the said Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal, and they are hereby required to make such Inquiry in like Manner and by the Ways and Means above directed, and to certify under his or their Hand and Seals the Number and Description of such additional Clerks, and such Salaries as may appear to the said Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal reasonable for their Reimbursement in each such Office respectively, and also such further and increased Payment to the Clerks heretofore employed by any such Office; and every such present Officer having obtained such last mentioned Certificate shall, upon the Decision of accounting as above directed, have Credit for the Sums expressed in such last mentioned Certificate, as in Addition to the gross Income as certified as above directed by the said Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal for the Time being, † shall include the Salaries and further Payments above referred to: Provided always, that every such Officer shall on such accounting satisfy the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Commissioners for the Time being, that he has actually employed such Clerks, and made such Payments as referred to in such Certificate respectively.

LXX. And Whereas certain of the Officers of the said Court of Chancery are now by Law permitted to sell their respective Offices, and the said Offices are likely to be rendered of less Value by and under the Provisions of this Act, and of the said General Orders; and it is reasonable to provide some Compensation for such Officers in reference thereto; Be it therefore enacted, That if any such Officer shall, at any Time after the passing of this Act, so sell his Office, such Officer shall be at liberty, at any Time within Six Months after the Sale thereof, to apply by Petition to the Lord Chancellor of Ireland, or to the Lord Keeper or Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal, for the Time being, to exist into the Amount of the Compensation payable to such Officer under the Provisions of this Act; and the said Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Commissioners respectively, shall thereupon, by all or such of the Ways and Means as they shall think proper, examine and certify, in like Manner as aforesaid, the average annual Amount of such Compensation; and such last mentioned Certificate shall yearly and every Year, during the Life of such Officer, be of the like Force and Efficacy for and towards satisfying such Officer to Compensation, as if he had continued to hold his said Office, and annually receive such Certificate.

LXXI. And Whereas it is by this Act provided, that certain Sums to be hereinafter ascertained may be paid out of the Consolidated Fund, for the Compensation of certain Persons holding Offices in and under the said Court of Chancery, other than and except the Principal Register and Usuer of the said Court herein before particularly mentioned; Be it enacted, That a list of all Sums certified as Deficiencies arising in consequence of this Act, or of the Regulations had Orders of the Court as aforesaid, together with Copies of the Certificates relating thereto, whether for Compensation or Allowances for additional Clerks, filed in the Office of the Auditor General, and the Orders of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor of Ireland made thereon, shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament immediately after the Commencement of the Session of Parliament next ensuing the making of any such Order, by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor as aforesaid; and that no Issue of Money for Compensation as aforesaid shall be made from the Consolidated Fund, till the same shall have been submitted to Parliament.

LXXII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to limit, abridge, bar, prejudice or defeat any Action or Indictment, or any Remedy or Proceeding whatsoever, which at any Time heretofore may or might have been brought, found, had or taken against any Officer, Deputy or Clerk in or under the said Court of Chancery, for or in respect of any Misconduct in Office which may have occurred or taken place, or which may take place at any Time before the Commencement of this Act; but that all such Actions, Indictments, Remedies and Proceedings for any such Misconduct, may be brought, found, had or taken, as if this Act had never been made.

LXXIII. And be it further enacted, That all and every Forfeiture and Penalty to be incurred and forfeited in pursuance or by virtue of this Act, or any of the Matters herein contained, shall and may be sued for and recovered by any Person who will sue for the same, by Action of Debt, Bill, Pleint or Information in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at the Four Courts Dublin, and not elsewhere, in which no Executo, Prohibition or Wages of Law, nor more than One Imparison, shall be allowed; and that One Moiety of every such Penalty shall be for the Use of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety thereof to the Use of the Person or Persons who shall sue for the same.

LXXIV. And be it further enacted, That this Act, and the several Provisions therein contained, shall commence and take effect from the First Day of Michaelmas Term One thousand eight hundred and twenty Officers requiring additional Clerks under the Provisions of this Act may apply to Lord Chancellor, who is to require into the Amount of additional Salaries necessary for the Clerks of such Offices, and certify accordingly.

C & P. LXII.

An Act to repeal the Duties upon Horses let to hire for the Purpose of travelling in Great Britain, and to grant other Duties in lieu thereof; and to provide for letting the same to hire.

WHEREAS it is expedient to repeal the Rates and Duties now payable upon or in respect of Horses, Mares and Geldings let for Hire, for the Purpose of travelling in Great Britain; and also the Duty on Licences required to be taken out by Persons letting such Horses, Mares and Geldings for Hire; and to grant other Duties upon all Horses, Mares and Geldings let for Hire, in lieu thereof; And Whereas it is also expedient to repeal the several Acts now in force relating to the said Rates and Duties, and to reduce the same into One Act of Parliament, and to make other Provisions for the better collecting the said Duties hereinafter granted, and for letting the same to hire; Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Thirty-first Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty-four, so much of an Act passed in the Twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled *An Act for repealing the Duties on Licences taken out by Persons letting Horses for the Purpose of travelling Post, and on Horses let to hire for travelling Post and by Time, and on Stage Coaches, and for granting other Duties in lieu thereof, and also additional Duties on Horses let to hire for travelling Post and by Time, as relates to the Duties on Horses hired to be used in travelling Post and by Time, and also an Act passed in the Twenty-seventh Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intituled *An Act to enable the Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, to let to hire the Duties granted by an Act made in the Twenty-fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, on Horses let to hire for travelling Post and by Tax, in such Persons as should be willing to contract for the same; and also so much of an Act passed in the Forty fourth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intitled An Act to repeal the several Duties under the Commissioners for managing the Duties upon stamped Vellum, Parchment and Paper as Great Britain, and to grant new and additional Duties in lieu thereof, as relates to the Duties on Horses bred to be used in travelling in Great Britain; and also an Act passed in the Fifty seventh Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intitled An Act for letting to farm the Post Horse Duties, and for better ordering and facilitating the Recovery of the said Duties; and also an Act passed in the First Year of the Reign of His present Majesty King George the Fourth, intitled An Act to continue, until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty five, an Act of the Fifty seventh Year of His late Majesty, for letting to farm the Post Horse Duties, and to amend the Acts relating to the Post Horse Duties; and all the Rates and Duties, Clauses, Provisions and Regulations contained in any other Acts, as far as the same relate to the said Rates and Duties, shall cease and determine: save and except as far as the said Acts or any of them, or any Enactments, may have repealed any former Acts or Enactments therein contained, relating to the Payment or Collection of the said Rates and Duties, or any Part thereof, which may be now payable or which may become payable, or to any Penalty or Penalties which hath or have been or may be incurred under any of the said Acts; which said Rates, Duties and Penalties shall be recoverable, and Proceedings or Suits thereon shall be instituted and carried on, in such and the same Manner as if this Act had not been made: Provided always, that the several Bounts given or which may hereafter be given, in pursuance of the said Acts or any of them, shall continue and be in full Force and Effect, with respect to all Duties due and owing, or which may become due and owing by virtue of any of the said Acts, and that the several Licences granted or which may hereafter be granted in pursuance of any of the said Acts, shall continue and be in full Force and Effect for and during the Periods for which the same have been or may be respectively granted; and that the several Deputations and Appointments which have been or may be made under the Provisions of any of the said Acts, shall remain and continue in full Force and Effect until duly revoked or determined.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said Thirty first Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty five, there shall be collected and paid, throughout the Kingdom of Great Britain, and to be used for the Use of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, the several Duties following; that is to say,

Every Postmaster or other Person in Great Britain, who shall let Horses, Mares or Geldings for Hire (except as hereinafter mentioned) shall pay usually unto His Majestys, His Heirs and Successors, the Sum of Two Shillings for a Licence authorizing him, her or them so to do:

And that for and in respect of every Horse, Mare or Gelding let for Hire by the Mile (at the usual Rate charged for Horses travelling Post at the Place at which such Horse, Mare or Gelding shall be let for Hire), the Sum of One Penny Halfpenny for every Mile such Horse, Mare or Gelding shall be hired or used to travel or go:

And that for and in respect of every Horse, Mare or Gelding let for Hire, to go no greater Distance than Eight Miles from the Place of letting for Hire every such Horse, Mare or Gelding, One Fifth Part of the Sum charged for such letting for Hire, or the Sum of One Shilling and Nine Pence for every Horse, Mare or Gelding so let for Hire:

And that for and in respect of every Horse, Mare or Gelding let for Hire, to go in greater Distance than Eight Miles from the Place of letting for Hire every such Horse, Mare or Gelding, where such Horse, Mare or Gelding shall not bring back any Person or Persons, and shall not deviate from the usual Line of Road between the Place of letting and the Place or Distance to which every such Horse, Mare or Gelding shall be hired to travel or go, the Sum of One Shilling for every such Horse, Mare or Gelding so let for Hire as last aforesaid;

And that for and in respect of every Horse, Mare or Gelding let for Hire or used for any Period of Time less than Twenty eight successive Days, or in any other Manner than by the Mile, or to go no greater Distance than Eight Miles, in either of the Cases aforesaid One Fifth Part of the Sum charged on every such letting for Hire or using, or the Sum of Two Shillings and Sixpence for each Day not exceeding Three Days, and the Sum of One Shilling and Nine Pence for each Day exceeding Three Days and not exceeding Thirteen Days, and the Sum of One Shilling and Three Pence for each Day exceeding Thirteen Days and less than Twenty eight Days, during the Time for which every such Horse, Mare or Gelding shall be so let for Hire or used:

And that for and in respect of every Horse, Mare or Gelding let for Hire or used for Twenty eight successive Days, or for any longer Period of Time, where any such Horse, Mare or Gelding shall be returned in a less Period of Time than Twenty eight successive Days, and not to be exchanged for another Horse, Mare or Gelding in Continuance of the same Hiring, One Fifth Part of the Sum received or agreed to be received for such letting for Hire or using, for and in respect of every such Horse, Mare or Gelding, or the Sum of Two Shillings and Sixpence for each Day not exceeding Three Days, and the Sum of One Shilling and Nine Pence for each Day exceeding Three Days and not exceeding Thirteen Days, and the Sum of One Shilling and Three Pence for each Day exceeding Thirteen Days and less than Twenty eight Days, during the Time every such Horse, Mare or Gelding shall have been under the Direction of the Person hiring the same, by virtue of such letting for Hire.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Duties posted by this Act shall be deemed to attach and be payable upon or in respect of every Horse, Mare or Gelding let for Hire or used as aforesaid, either as a saddle Horse, or for drawing any Carriage or Vehicle, conveying any Person or Person, Penalty 10s. Persons on receiving First License to give Security by Bond, conditioned to answer for the

IX. And be it further enacted, That no Postmaster or other Person whatsoever, licensed or to be licensed by Authority of this Act, shall by virtue of One License keep more than One Inn, House or other Place for letting Horses for Hire, but that for each and every Inn, House or other Place which any Postmaster or other Person shall keep for the Purpose of letting Horses for Hire as aforesaid, a separate and distinct License shall be taken out and paid for by such Postmaster or other Person, upon pain to forfeit for every Inn, House or Place, so kept by him, her or them, at which any Horse, Mare or Gelding shall be let for Hire, and not named or described in any License granted or to be granted to him, her or them as aforesaid, the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

X. And be it further enacted, That every Postmaster or other Person so licensed to let Horses for Hire, as heretofore mentioned, shall cause the Words "Licensed to let Horses for Hire" to be painted or written in legible Characters, either on a Sign hung out from or fixed upon some visible Place in the Front of his, her or their House, Stables or Out-office, at the respective Places at which he, she or they may be licensed to let Horses for Hire as aforesaid, so denote that such Postmaster or other Person is a letter of Horses for Hire; and that if any Postmaster or other Person, so licensed as aforesaid, shall presume to let out for Hire any Horse, Mare or Gelding, as heretofore mentioned, without hanging out or fixing such Sign as aforesaid, every such Postmaster or other Person so offending shall, for every such offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of Five Pounds.

XI. And be it further enacted, That where any Person or Persons who shall be licensed to let Horses for Hire in the Manner aforesaid shall keep any Carriage or Carriages, to be furnished at the same Time with any Horse or Horses by him, her or them let for Hire by the Mile as aforesaid (except Heaves and Morning Coaches) he, she or they shall, before such Carriage or Carriages shall be so furnished or used, cause the same to be numbered with different Numbers, beginning with Number One and proceeding upwards progressively to the highest Number of Carriages which he, she or they shall so keep, and shall also mark or paint, or cause to be marked or painted, in One or more straight Line or Lines on the Outside Part of each Door of every such Carriage which shall have a Door thereon, and on some conspicuous Part of each of the Out-sides of every such Carriage which shall not have a Door thereon, his, her or their Christian and Surname, and the Name of the City, Town or Place where he, she or they shall keep such Carriage or Carriages, in large and legible Characters, and Figures of Black or White, whichever shall most differ from the Colour of the Figures whereon the same shall be marked or painted, each Letter to be at least One Inch in Length, and each Figure at least One Inch and an Half in Length, and both Letters and Figures to be of a proper Breadth in Proportion to the Length thereof respectively, and shall continue the same on every such Carriage as long as such Carriage shall be kept for the Purpose aforesaid, varying the Numbers on each Carriage from Time to Time as Occasion shall require, so as to make the same correspond with the actual Number of such Carriages which he, she or they shall then keep; and if any Person or Persons so licensed as aforesaid shall neglect or omit to number, mark or paint any such Carriage in Manner aforesaid, or shall mark or paint, or cause to be marked or painted thereon, any false or fictitious Name or Place of Residence, or any higher Number than the greatest Number of such Carriages which he, she or they shall then keep, or shall keep Two or more such Carriages with the same Number marked or painted thereon, or shall continue any Number upon any such Carriage after he, she or they shall come to keep any Number of such Carriages corresponding therewith, he, she or they shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of Ten Pounds.

XII. And be it further enacted, That every Postmaster or other Person so licensed to let Horses for Hire as aforesaid shall, at the Time of receiving his, her or their first License, give Security by Bond to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in the Sum of Fifty Pounds, with a Condition that he, she or they will, whosoever thereto shall be required, re-deliver, or cause to be re-delivered, and every the Stamp Office Tickets which he, she or they may have received, and that may remain unaccounted for by him, her or them, or that he, she or they will pay the Value of such Tickets, to be ascertained as hereinafter mentioned.

smentioned; and that he, she, or they will also deliver to the Person or Persons properly authorized by the said Commissioners of Stamps, the Stamp Office Weekly Accounts so delivered to such Postmaster or other Person, faithfully made out and signed as hereinafter directed, and make Payment of all such Sum and Sums of Money as shall be due and payable to His Majesty in pursuance of and according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act; and also that he, she and they shall and will truly and faithfully observe and perform all the Directions, Matters and Things herein contained, on his, her or their Behalf to be observed and performed: Provided always, that every Postmaster or other Person so licensed to let Horses for Hire as aforesaid is hereby required to renew from time to time such Security by Bond to His Majesty, conditioned as aforesaid, at the Expiration of Three Years from the Date of the first, or if more than One Bond shall have been given, at the Expiration of Three Years from the Date of the last preceding Bond, by another Bond conditioned as aforesaid; and in case of the Non-performance or Breach of any such Condition, or any Part thereof, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, or the Persons so appointed by them, to cause such and every such Bond to be prosecuted according to Law, and in case of Judgment against the Defendant, the said Commissioners may, if they shall think fit, refuse to grant to such Person against whom such Judgment shall be obtained any License to let Horses for Hire as aforesaid in future.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That every Person appointed a Collector under this Act shall, at or before the Expiration of every Three Months, transmit and send to the said Commissioners of Stamps every Bond given as a security to His Majesty, as aforesaid, which may have been taken from any Postmaster or other Person, conditioned as hereinafore set forth, and shall also make out and deliver within the Time aforesaid, an Account or List in writing of the Licences granted by him, as such Collector as aforesaid, to any Person or Persons to let Horses, Mares or Geldings for Hire as aforesaid, which List or Account shall specify the Christian and Surname of the Person or Persons licensed, the Place of Residence, the Names of the Inn (if any) and the Date of every such Licence; and if any such Collector shall neglect or refuse to transmit and send every such Bond, Account or List as aforesaid, he shall be for every such Neglect or Refusal forfeit and pay the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That no Deputation or Commission to be heretofore granted pursuant to this Act, appointing any Person to be a Collector of the said Duties on Horses let for Hire in the Manner aforesaid, shall be chargeable or chargeable with any higher Stamp Duty than One Pound and Fifteen Shillings; and that no Bond by this Act required to be given by any Postmaster or other Person letting Horses for Hire as aforesaid shall be chargeable or chargeable with any higher Stamp Duty than Ten Shillings.

XV. And be it further enacted, That every Postmaster or other Person letting any Horse, Mare or Gelding for Hire shall be chargeable with and made liable for the Payment of the Duty by this Act imposed in respect of every such letting for Hire, whether the Person letting such Horse, Mare or Gelding for Hire shall have received such Duty or not; and that every Postmaster or other Person who shall receive the Hire for any Horse, Mare or Gelding, shall be considered as the Person to whom the Duties herebefore granted shall be paid, and shall be chargeable with and accountable for the same, as if such Postmaster or other Person was the actual Proprietor of such Horses, Mares or Geldings, although the same may belong to and be the Property of some other licensed Postmaster or other Person; and that where any Postmaster or other Person so licensed as aforesaid, at whose Inn, House or other Place any Person or Persons shall apply to charge Horses, if he, she or they cannot furnish Horses to convey such Person or Persons on his, her or their Journey, when applied to for that Purpose, such Postmaster or other Person shall, and he or she is hereby directed to issue, to any Person requiring the same, a fresh Ticket properly filled up, and to receive the Duty due thereon, and to charge himself or herself therewith in the same Manner as if such Horses had been hired from such Postmaster or other Person.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons, not being licensed to let Horses for Hire as aforesaid, shall, after the said Thirty first Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty first, let for Hire any Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings as aforesaid, he, she or they shall be chargeable with and accountable for the Duty or Duties hereby made payable for and in respect of every Horse, Mare or Gelding which shall be so let for Hire, in such and the same Manner as if he, she or they had obtained such License as aforesaid, and had received such Duty or Duties of and from the Person or Persons hiring such Horse, Mare or Gelding as aforesaid; and shall from time to time, upon a Week's Notice in Writing for that Purpose given by any Collector of the said Duties for the County, District or Place where he, she or they shall so let any Horse, Mare or Gelding for Hire as aforesaid, deliver to such Collector, whenever by him requested, after the Expiration of such Notice, a true Account in Writing, signed by him, her or them, of every such Horse, Mare or Gelding, which he, she or they shall have let for Hire in the Manner aforesaid, and shall set then have already accounted for, and of the Mode and Manner in which every such Horse, Mare or Gelding shall have been let for Hire, and of the Duty or Duties payable in respect thereof, in such and the same Manner as is hereby required to be done by Persons licensed to let Horses for Hire as aforesaid, and shall also verify such Account by Oath or Affirmation (to be administered by such Collector) in like Manner as licensed Persons are hereby required to do, and shall thereupon pay to such Collector the Amount of such Duty or Duties; and in case of any Refusal or Neglect so to do, then he, she or they shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Twenty Pounds for every Default in not delivering such Account, verified as aforesaid, and double the Amount of the Duty or Duties which he, she or they shall be then chargeable with: Provided

XVII. And be it further enacted, That no Person being any Horse, Mare or Gelding, shall be compelled to pay for a greater Number of Mares, for the Hire of such Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, than shall be expressed upon the Ticket by this Act directed to be delivered to such Person; and if any Postmaster or other Person so licensed as aforesaid shall insert in such Ticket the Name of any other Town or Place than the Town or Place to, or to and from which the Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, shall be hired to go, or to go and return, or a less Number of Miles, every Postmaster or other Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of Ten Pounds; and the said Commissioners shall, if they think fit, after Conviction of such Offence, refuse to grant such Offender any License in future.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Postmaster or other Person, licensed to let Horses for Hire in Manner aforesaid, shall die or become insolvent, it shall and may be lawful for his or her Executors or Administrators, Assignees or Trustees, or other Persons succeeding to or taking Possession of such Inn, House or other Place, to let Horses for Hire in Manner aforesaid, until such Time as such Person shall procure such License and give such Security as heretofore directed, without being liable to the Penalty heretofore imposed upon Persons letting Horses for Hire without being licensed to that Effect; provided that such License be taken out within Thirty Days after the Death or Insolvency of such Postmaster or other Person; and such Person or Persons shall be subject to the same Rules, Regulations and Charges, and liable to account for and pay the Duties hereby imposed, in like Manner as such Postmaster or other Person was subject and liable.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That every Postmaster or other Person who shall, from and after the said Thirty first Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty four, let any Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, for Hire, shall by himself or herself, or his or her Servants, previous to the using any such Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, deliver or cause to be delivered to the Person or Persons hiring any such Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, One or more Ticket or Tickets, properly filled up as to all the Particulars heretofore mentioned, which shall be applicable to the Hiring of such Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings; and that every Postmaster or other Person who shall let for Hire any Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, for Twenty eight successive Days or more, shall in like Manner as aforesaid deliver or cause to be delivered to the Person hiring such Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, One or more of the Certificates heretofore mentioned, properly filled up as to the several Particulars heretofore mentioned, in respect of every such letting for Hire; and if any Postmaster or other Person as aforesaid, under any Pretence whatsoever, shall neglect or refuse to deliver to the Person or Persons hiring any such Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, One or more of the Tickets or Certificates heretofore directed to be delivered to such Person or Persons, properly filled up as to the several Particulars heretofore mentioned, applicable to such respective letting for Hire, such Postmaster or other Person shall for each and every such Neglect or Refusal forfeit and pay the Sum of Ten Pounds.

XX. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said Thirty first Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty four, where any Person so licensed to let Horses for Hire as aforesaid shall let for Hire any Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, for Twenty eight successive Days or more, and such Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, shall be given up and returned to the Person letting the same before the Expiration of the Time for which such Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, shall have been so let for Hire, the Person or Persons so letting such Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, shall, at the Time of receiving back such Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, ask for and receive of and from the Person or Persons so returning or giving up such Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, the Check Ticket which he, she or they shall have received in Exchange for the original Ticket or Certificate delivered to him, her or them, on the Letting for Hire such Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, and shall within Three Days after the Return of such Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, deliver up or transmit such Check Ticket to the Collector of the aforesaid Duties, to whom he, she or they shall be bound to deliver his or her Stamp Office Weekly Account; and if any Person so licensed as aforesaid shall refuse or neglect to ask for such Check Ticket, or having received the same shall refuse or neglect to deliver it up or transmit the same to the said Collector within the Time aforesaid, he, she or they shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of Twenty Pounds; and if he, she or they shall use any such Check Ticket, or permit the same to be used, or give out the same to any Person or Persons for the Purpose of being used to cover and protect any other letting for Hire whenever from the Duty hereby granted, he, she or they shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That every Person hiring any Horse, Mare or Gelding, before using the same, shall receive of and from the Person or Persons letting the same One or more of the Tickets or Certificates, properly filed up as to the several Particulars in that Behalf hereinbefore mentioned, which shall be applicable to the Hiring of such Horse, Mare or Gelding, and shall leave and deliver, or cause to be left and delivered, every such Ticket or Certificate with the Keeper of any Toll Gate or Bar, at the first Toll Gate or Bar which the Person hiring or using any such Horse, Mare or Gelding shall pass or go through, and shall ask for and receive of and from such Keeper of any Toll Gate or Bar the necessary Exchange or Check Ticket as aforesaid, containing the several Particulars in that Behalf hereinbefore mentioned, which shall be applicable to the Hiring of any such Horse, Mare or Gelding, which Exchange or Check Ticket shall be produced and shown by the Person hiring or using any such Horse, Mare or Gelding, at every Toll Gate or Bar through which he or she shall afterwards pass or go with such Horse, Mare or Gelding, at any Time within the Period for which such Horse, Mare or Gelding shall have been let for Hire as aforesaid.

XXII. And he it further enacted, That if any Person bring or using any Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, shall neglect or refuse to deliver, produce or shew, at any Toll Gate or Bar, the Ticket, Exchange Ticket, Certificate or Check Ticket which he or she ought, according to the Provisions of this Act, to deliver, produce or shew at such Toll Gate or Bar, and shall falsely allege such Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, with which he or she shall pass such Toll Gate or Bar, to be his or her own Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, and not a hired Horse, Mare or Gelding, or hired Horses, Mares or Geldings, in order to avoid being stopped, or to avoid the Payment of the Sum which the Keeper of any Toll Gate or Bar shall be entitled to demand, in default of such Ticket, Exchange Ticket, Certificate or Check Ticket being delivered or shewn as aforesaid, every Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of Ten Pounds.

XXIII. And he it further enacted, That the Keeper of every Toll Gate or Bar in any City, Town or other Place through which any Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, let for Hire for drawing any Carriage or Vehicle as aforesaid, shall or may first pass or go, shall ask and demand of and from the Person or Persons using such Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, the Ticket or Tickets, Certificate or Certificates, issued for and in respect of such Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings; and every such Keeper of such Toll Gate or Bar shall deliver to the Person or Persons hiring or using any such Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, One or more Exchange Tickets or Check Tickets, properly filed up as to the Particulars in that Behalf hereinbefore mentioned, and shall receive and write his or her Name upon and file all and every such Ticket or Tickets, Certificate or Certificates; and every such Keeper of such Toll Gate or Bar is hereby authorized and empowered to prevent any Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, let for Hire in any of the Ways aforesaid, passing or going through such Toll Gate or Bar, unless the Person or Persons hiring or using any such Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, shall first deliver or produce and shew to the Keeper of such Toll Gate or Bar the necessary Ticket, Certificate, Exchange Ticket, or Check Ticket aforesaid, containing and specifying the Particulars in that Behalf hereinbefore mentioned, which shall be applicable to the Hiring of such Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings as aforesaid, or shall pay or offer to pay to the Keeper of such Toll Gate or Bar the Sum of One Shilling and Nine Pence for and in respect of every such Horse, Mare or Gelding; which Sum or Sums the Keeper of such Toll Gate or Bar is hereby authorized to ask, demand and receive, to and for his or her own Use and Benefit.

XXIV. And he it further enacted, That if any Keeper of any Toll Gate or Bar shall neglect or refuse to demand, or shall refuse to receive from any Person hiring or using any Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, any Ticket or Certificate hereby directed to be delivered to such Keeper of any Toll Gate or Bar as aforesaid, or shall neglect or refuse to write his or her Name, or to file the same when delivered, such Keeper of such Toll Gate or Bar as aforesaid shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of Ten Pounds.

XXV. And he it further enacted, That if any Keeper of any Toll Gate or Bar shall neglect or refuse to give to any Person or Persons hiring or using any Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, the Ticket or Tickets hereby directed to be given in Exchange; or shall deliver an Exchange or Check Ticket without having first received the necessary Ticket or Certificate containing the Particulars in that Behalf hereinbefore mentioned, applicable to the Hiring of any Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings as aforesaid; or shall make, or permit or cause or suffer to be made, any Alteration whatever in any Ticket hereby authorized to be received and filed by him or her, after any such Ticket shall have come to his or her Possession or Custody; or shall deliver any Ticket, hereinbefore directed to be received and filed by him or her, to any Person or Persons other than the Person or Persons duly authorized as herein mentioned to receive the same; or shall permit or suffer any Person or Persons to examine, see, or inspect any Ticket or Tickets directed to be by him received and filed as aforesaid, other than the Person or Persons duly authorized to receive such Ticket or Tickets; or if any Keeper of any Toll Gate or Bar shall ask, demand or receive, or agree to take or accept any less Sum or Sums of Money than he or she is hereby authorized to ask, demand and receive, and retain to his or her own Use, every such Keeper of any Toll Gate or Bar as aforesaid, offending in any or either of the Cases aforesaid, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of Ten Pounds.

XXVI. And he it further enacted, That the Keeper of every Toll Gate or Bar within the Distance of Five Miles from the Head Office of Stamps in the City and Liberties of Westminster shall bring or cause to be brought all and every the Tickets and Certificates required by him or her to be received in the said Head Office, or to each other Place within the Bills of Mortality as the said Commissioners shall appoint; and and if such Toll Gate or Bar shall be beyond the Distance of Five Miles from the Head Office aforesaid, then the Keeper of every such Toll Gate or Bar shall bring or cause to be brought all and every the Tickets and Certificates by him or her received as aforesaid to such Places and at such Times as the Collector appointed to collect such Tickets and Certificates shall require, provided such Places shall not be at a greater Distance than the nearest Market Town; and such Keeper of every such Toll Gate or Bar shall, upon Demand made to him or her for that Purpose, deliver up or cause to be delivered up all such Tickets and Certificates as aforesaid to the Collector to be appointed as aforesaid; and if any Keeper of any Toll Gate or Bar shall neglect or refuse to attend with and deliver up all and every the Ticket or Tickets, Certificate or Certificates, as received by him or her as aforesaid, at the Time and Place hereinbefore mentioned in that Behalf as aforesaid, every such Keeper of any Toll Gate or Bar shall, for each Ticket or Certificate he or she shall so neglect or refuse to deliver up, forfeit and pay the Sum of Twenty Shillings.

XXVII. And for the Encouragement of the Keepers of the Toll Gates or Bars in the Execution of this Act, and as a Compensation for their Trouble, he it further enacted, That every Keeper of any Toll Gate or Bar shall be and he is hereby authorized to demand and receive, from the Collector or other Person appointed to get in such Tickets as aforesaid, and to whom such Keeper of any Toll Gate or Bar shall deliver such Tickets as aforesaid, the Sum of One Farthing for and in respect of each Horse specified in any Ticket; and also the Sum of One Farthing for each such Horse for every Day more than One and less than Twenty eight successive Days in such Tickets mentioned; and such Collector or other Person is hereby authorized to pay and allow the same accordingly, which Allowance shall be over and above the Allowance or Privilege hereby given to such Keepers of any Toll Gate or Bar of retaining the Money by him, her or them collected from such Persons or Persons who shall not, pursuant to this Act, deliver, produce or show the Ticket, Exchange Ticket, Certificate or Check Ticket, as is hereinbefore directed, to the Keeper of any Toll Gate or Bar as aforesaid.

XXVIII. And he it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Collector, or other Person duly authorized as aforesaid, from time to time to enter into and remain in any Toll House or other Place as the Gate or Bar of which any Toll is by Law payable, for the Purpose of examining and receiving the Tickets and Certificates by this Act directed to be delivered, and if any Keeper of any Toll Gate or Bar, or any other Person or Persons, shall refuse to permit any Collector or other Person authorized as aforesaid, from time to time to enter into and remain in any such Toll House or other Place as aforesaid, or to examine and receive such Tickets or Certificates as aforesaid, or shall obstruct, hinder or molest such Collector, or other Person so authorized, in entering into and remaining in such Toll House or other Place as aforesaid, for the Purpose of examining and receiving such Tickets or Certificates, or if any Keeper of any Toll Gate or Bar, or any other Person or Persons, shall in any way hinder, molest, interrupt or disturb any such Collector, or other Person authorized as aforesaid, in the reasonable Use of such Toll House or other Place as aforesaid for the Purpose aforesaid, every Keeper of any such Toll Gate or Bar, and every Person siding and assisting such Keeper of any Toll Gate or Bar, offending in any of the Cases aforesaid, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

XXIX. And he it further enacted, That in calculating the Amount of Duty to be paid, when the same shall be One Fifth Part of the Sum charged for any letting for Hire of any Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, such One Fifth Part shall be calculated upon the whole Sum charged by such Postmaster or other Person letting such Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, for and in respect of such Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings as let for Hire, and of the Carriage (if any) used therewith; and that in calculating the Amount of the Duty to be paid as aforesaid, no fractional Part of any Sum of Money amounting to a less Sum of Money than One Penny shall be charged in respect of any Part of the said Duties; and that the Inn, House or other Place at which any Person or Persons shall be licensed to be Horses for Hire as aforesaid, shall be deemed and taken to be the Place of letting for Hire of every Horse, Mare or Gelding by him, her or them so let for Hire; and that where any Horse, Mare or Gelding which shall have been let for Hire for any Period of Time, and shall be retained and kept beyond the Expiration of the Term for which the same shall have been let for Hire without a new Hiring or new Hireings, every such Horse, Mare or Gelding shall be deemed and taken, so far as relates to the Duties imposed by this Act, to have been retained and kept upon a Hiring or Hireings similar to that for which every such Horse, Mare or Gelding was originally let for Hire.

XXX. And he it further enacted, That from and after the said Thirty first Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty four, all and every Person and Persons letting Horses for Hire as aforesaid, shall insert and set forth in his, her or their Stamp Office Weekly Account the several Particulars following; (that is to say) whenever he, she or they shall let for Hire by the Mile any Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, the Day of the Month, the Month and Year for which such Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings shall be let for Hire, the Names of the Town or Place from which and to which, or from and to which and back again, such Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, shall be hired to go, the Number of every Carriage which he, she or they shall furnish with any such Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings (if by this Act required to be numbered), the Christian and Surname of every Postilion or Driver employed therewith, the Number of Horses, Mares or Geldings so let for Hire, and also the Amount of the Duty payable for and in respect of every such letting for Hire; and whenever such Person or Persons letting Horses for Hire as aforesaid shall let for Hire for a Day or less Period of Time, to be used within the Distance of Eight Miles from the Place of letting for Hire any Horse, Mare or Gelding as aforesaid for the Purpose of drawing any Carriage conveying any Person or Persons as aforesaid, any Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, he, she or they shall insert and set forth in his, her or their Stamp Office Weekly Account, the several Particulars following: (that is to say,) the Day of the Month, the Month and Year on which such Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, shall be let for Hire, the Number of every Carriage, if by this Act required to be numbered, the Christian and Surname of every Postilion or Driver employed with such Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, the Number of Horses, Mares or Geldings so let for Hire, and the Amount of the Sum charged for such letting for Hire; and shall be answerable and accountable for One Fifth Part of such Sum of Money so charged, or for the Sum of One Shilling and Nine Pence for each Horse, Mare or Gelding so let for Hire; and shall enter in his, her or their Stamp Office Weekly Account such One Fifth Part of such Sum charged, or the Sum of One Shilling and Nine Pence for each Horse, Mare or Gelding, so let for Hire as aforesaid; and whenever such Person or Persons letting Horses for Hire as aforesaid shall let for Hire any Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, to no greater Distance than Eight Miles from the Place of letting for Hire, any Horse, Mare or Gelding, where such Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, shall not bring back any Person or Persons, and shall not deviate from the usual Line of Road between the Place of letting and the Place or Distance to which every such Horse, Mare or Gelding shall be hired to travel or go, for the Purpose of drawing any Carriage or Vehicle conveying any Person or Persons as aforesaid, he, she or they shall insert and set forth in his, her or their Stamp Office Weekly Account the several Particulars following: that is to say, the Day of the Month, and Month and Year, on which such Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, shall be so let for Hire, the Number of every Carriage, if by this Act required to be numbered, the Christian and Surname of every Postilion or Driver employed with such Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, the Number of Horses, Mares or Geldings so let for Hire, and also the Amount of the Duty payable for and in respect of every such letting for Hire as aforesaid; and whenever such Person or Persons letting Horses for Hire as aforesaid shall let for Hire for any Period of Time less than Twenty eight successive Days, and in any other Manner than by the Mile, or to go no greater Distance than Eight Miles in either of the Cases aforesaid, any Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, he, she or they shall insert and set forth in his, her or their Stamp Office Weekly Account the several Particulars following: (that is to say,) the Day of the Month, the Month and Year, on which such Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, shall be let for Hire, and from and to what Place or from and to what Place and back again, such Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, shall be hired to go, the Number of every Carriage which shall be furnished therewith, if by this Act required to be numbered, the Christian and Surname of every Postilion or Driver employed with such Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, the Amount of the Sum charged for the Hire or Use of such Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, the Time for which the same shall be let for Hire or used, the Number of Horses, Mares or Geldings so let for Hire, and where the Distance shall be ascertained the Number of Miles which the same shall be hired to go or to go and return; and in all Cases the Amount of the Duty payable for and in respect of every Horse, Mare or Gelding, upon every Letting for Hire or using; and whenever such Person or Persons letting Horses for Hire as aforesaid shall let for Hire, for Twenty eight successive Days or more, any Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, as aforesaid, he, she or they shall insert and set forth in his, her or their Stamp Office Weekly Account the several Particulars following: (that is to say,) the Number of Horses, Mares or Geldings, as let for Hire, the Day of the Month, the Month and Year, on which such Horse shall commence, the Number of every Carriage which shall be furnished therewith, (if by this Act required to be numbered,) the Christian and Surname of every Postilion or Driver employed with such Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, the Time for which the same shall be hired, and the Name and Place of Abode of the Person hiring the same; and he, she or they shall also insert in every such Account a Memorandum or Notice of all Horses, Mares or Geldings which shall have been let for Hire by him, her or them as aforesaid, for Twenty eight successive Days or more, and which, since the Date of his, her or their last Account, shall have been given up and returned to him, her or them by the Hiree, before the Expiration of the Time for which such Horse, Mare or Gelding, or Horses, Mares or Geldings, shall have been let for Hire, and the Day of the Month on which the same shall have been so given up and returned, and shall be answerable and account for One Fifth Part of the Sum received or agreed to be received for such letting for Hire or using, for and in respect of every such Horse, Mare or Gelding, or the Sum of Two Shillings and Sixpence for each Day not exceeding Three Days, and the Sum of One Shilling and Nine Pence for each Day exceeding Three Days and not exceeding Thirteen Days, and the Sum of One Shilling and Three Pence for each Day exceeding Thirteen Days and less than Twenty six Days, during the Time every such Horse, Mare or Gelding, shall have been under the Direction of the Person or Persons hiring the same, by virtue of such letting for Hire as aforesaid; and in case of any Refusal or Neglect of any Person or Persons letting any Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, for Hire as aforesaid, to insert in his, her or their Stamp Office Weekly Account the Particulars hereinbefore respectively mentioned or any or either of them, applicable to such letting for Hire, such Person or Persons shall for each and every such Refusal or Neglect forfeit and pay the Sum of Twenty Pence.

Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings as aforesaid, shall enter or cause to be entered in his, her or their Stamp Office Weekly Account the several Particulars by this Act required to be inserted therein, on the same or following Day on which any such Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, shall be so let for Hire, or so given up and returned as aforesaid, and in Default thereof he, she or they shall, for every such Default, forfeit and pay the Sum of Forty Shillings.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That the Stamp Office Weekly Account required to be kept by every Postmaster or other Person licensed to let Horses for Hire as aforesaid, shall be open for the Inspection and Examination, at all reasonable Times, of the said Commissioners of Stamps or any Collector appointed by them as aforesaid; and if any Postmaster or other Person as aforesaid shall refuse to permit and suffer the said Commissioners of Stamps, or any Collector appointed by them as aforesaid, at any reasonable Time, to inspect his, her or their Stamp Office Weekly Account, such Postmaster or other Person so licensed as aforesaid shall, for every such Refusal as aforesaid, forfeit and pay the Sum of Ten Pounds.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said Thirty first Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty four, every Person licensed as aforesaid, residing in the City of London or Liberty of Westminster, or within the Distance of Five Miles from the Head Office of Stamps or within the Bills of Mortality, shall attend and deliver his or her Stamp Office Weekly Accounts, and pay the Duties for which he, she or they shall be accountable, unto the said Commissioners of Stamps, at the said Head Office, or to some Collector authorized to receive the same, at each Place and at each Time as shall be appointed for that Purpose, by a Notice to be written or printed upon the Blank Forms of the Stamp Office Weekly Accounts, which shall from time to time be delivered in him or her by any authorized Collector of the said Duties, for the Purpose of making thereon the Entries required by this Act, provided such Place be not at a greater Distance than Two Miles from the said Head Office; and every Person so to be licensed as aforesaid, not residing within Five Miles of the Head Office of Stamps, or within the Bills of Mortality, shall attend and deliver his, her or their Stamp Office Weekly Accounts, and pay the Duties for which he, she or they shall be accountable, unto the Collector authorized to receive the same, at such Place as the Market Town in which he, she or they shall reside, or in the nearest Market Town to his, her or their Place of Residence, and at such Time as shall be appointed for that Purpose by a Notice to be written or printed upon the Blank Forms of the Stamp Office Weekly Accounts, which shall from time to time be delivered to him, her or them by any authorized Collector of the said Duties, for the Purpose of making thereon the Entries required by this Act, under the Penalty of Ten Pounds for every Default in not delivering such Account, and double the Amount of the Duties due and payable by such licensed Person.

XXXIV. And for the more effectually taking an Account of the several Duties imposed by this Act, and preventing Frauds therein: Be it further enacted, That from and after the said Thirty first Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty four, every Postmaster or other Person so licensed to let Horses for Hire as aforesaid, shall, at the respective Times of delivering his or her Account or Accounts to the said Commissioners, or other Person authorized by them to receive the same, and the Money due thereon, make Oath, or being One of the People called Quakers, make and subscribe a solemn Affirmation before such Commissioners or other Person authorized as aforesaid, who are hereby respectively authorized and empowered to administer such Oath and Affirmation, to the Truth of the Accounts then delivered in the Form following:

I, A. B. do swear [or affirm, in the Case of a Quaker], That the Stamp Office Weekly Account [or Accounts] now delivered by me, doth or do contain a just and true Statement of the Number of Horses, Mares and Geldings which have been let for Hire by me, or my Servants, or on my Account and Behalf, from the Day of _____ to the Day of _____ both inclusive, together with the Manner in which such Horses, Mares and Geldings have been so let for Hire as aforesaid, and also the full Amount of the Duty due and payable by me, or for which I am chargeable or accountable, for or in respect of every such Horse, Mare or Gelding so let for Hire by me, or on my Account as aforesaid, during the Time aforesaid: all which said Statements, Matters and Things, and all the other Particulars contained in the said Account or Accounts, so far as regards myself and my own Acts, are true, and so far as regards the Acts of my Servants, or of any other Person or Persons on my Behalf, are true to the best of my Knowledge and Belief. So help me GOD! Which said Oath or Affirmation shall be made and subscribed before the said Commissioners of Stamps, or other Person authorized to receive such Account or Accounts as aforesaid; which said Commissioners of Stamps, or other Person authorized as aforesaid, are and is hereby respectively empowered to administer such Oath or Affirmation; and if any Person making such Oath or Affirmation shall knowingly and wilfully make a false Oath or Affirmation, or if concerning any of the Matters to be therein specified and set forth, every Person so offending, and being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be subject and liable to such Fines and Penalties as by any Law now in force Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury are subject and liable.

XXXV. And to prevent Disputes as to the Rate or Value at which any of the Tickets, delivered in pursuance of this Act to Postmasters, or other Persons letting Horses for Hire as aforesaid, and which may remain unaccounted for at the Thirty first Day of January in each and every Year, shall be settled and accounted for: Be it enacted, That every such Ticket delivered as aforesaid, and which shall remain unaccounted for at the Time aforesaid, shall be valued as account and paid for at and after the Rate of

One Shilling for each Horse, according to the Number of Horses expressed by Figures on such Ticket, and in the Receipt given by such Postmaster or other Persons for the same.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That the Receiver General at the Head Office, and the said other Collectors hereby appointed to receive the Duties hereby imposed, shall, at the Time of settling the respective Accounts of the several licensed Postmasters and other Persons, allow to such Postmasters and other Persons and deduct from their respective Accounts, at and after the Rate of Three Pence in the Pound out of the Moneys by them regularly accounted for, and paid to such Receiver General or other Collector, on account of the Duties imposed by this Act.

XXXVII. And for the Convenience of Persons residing in Cities or populous Towns, (other than the Cities of London and Westminster, or the Borough of Southwark,) letting for Hire or using Horses, Mares or Geldings for drawing Coaches or other Carriages, to be used as or in the Nature of Hackney Coaches, and for rendering it unnecessary for such Persons, in respect of Horses, Mares or Geldings let for Hire or used as last aforesaid, to keep the Weekly Accounts hereby directed to be kept by Persons letting Horses for Hire: Be it further enacted, That every Person letting for Hire or using any Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, for drawing any such Coach or Carriage, to be used as or in the Nature of a Hackney Coach, any Distance not exceeding Five Miles from the General Post Office of any City, Town or Place, (such Coach or Carriage not being licensed as a Carriage or Vehicle conveying Passengers for Hire at separate Fares, as a public Stage Coach or Carriage,) shall be subject and liable to the Payment of the Duties following; (that is to say,) the Sum of Five Shillings per Week for or in respect of the Horses, Mares or Geldings let for Hire, or used for drawing every such Coach or Carriage, used as or in the Nature of a Hackney Coach, when drawn by Two Horses, Mares or Geldings; and the Sum of Three Shillings per Week for or in respect of every Horse, Mare or Gelding let for Hire, or used for drawing any such Coach or Carriage, used as or in the Nature of a Hackney Coach, when drawn by One Horse, Mare or Gelding, in less of the Duties by this Act chargeable upon Horses, Mares or Geldings let for Hire: Provided always, that if any Horse, Mare or Gelding used for drawing any such Coach or Carriage, used as or in the Nature of a Hackney Coach, shall go a greater Distance than Five Miles from any such General Post Office as aforesaid, the Person or Persons letting for Hire or using any such Horse, Mare or Gelding shall be subject to the same Rates and Regulations, and shall be chargeable with and accountable for the Duties hereby generally imposed in respect of Horses, Mares or Geldings let for Hire; and provided also, that the Person or Persons letting for Hire or using any Horse, Mare or Gelding for drawing any such Coach or Carriage, as or in the Nature of a Hackney Coach as aforesaid, shall take out a Licence expressly authorizing him, her or them so to do, and shall cause every such Coach or Carriage to be numbered, and shall cause his, her or their Christian and Surname, and the Name of the City, Town or Place, to be painted and inscribed upon the Outside Panel of each Door, or upon some conspicuous Part of such Coach or Carriage as aforesaid, in like Manner as a heretofore directed in respect of Carriages kept to be furnished or used with Horses let for Hire, under and subject to the like Penalties as are hereby imposed upon Persons neglecting to take out Licences; or to number or cause to be numbered any Coach or Carriage kept to be furnished or used as aforesaid; or to paint or cause to be painted thereon the Name of the Person or Persons letting for Hire or using any such Horse, Mare or Gelding, and the Name of the City, Town or Place where such Coach or other Carriage shall be kept; and every Person letting or using such Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings for Hire, for drawing such Coach or Carriage used as or in the Nature of a Hackney Coach as aforesaid, shall attend and pay the said Weekly Duties at such Times and Places as Persons licensed to let Horses for Hire are required by this Act to do, and shall be subject and liable to the like Penalties or Punishes for any Neglect or Default in attending and paying such Duties as aforesaid; provided also, that nothing in this Clause contained shall be construed to exempt from the Payment of the General Duties by this Act imposed, any Person or Persons letting Horses for Hire to draw any such Coach or Carriage, unless such Coach or Carriage shall be regularly and constantly used, and shall regularly and constantly ply in the public Streets of some City or Town as a Hackney Coach; and that in all Informations, Actions, Suits or other Proceedings in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record, or before any Justice or Justices of the Peace, respecting the Payment of any Duty, or the Recovery of any Penalty in respect of any Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, used in drawing any such Coach or Carriage, the Proof of such Coach or Carriage being a Coach or Carriage regularly and constantly used, and regularly and constantly plying in the public Street as aforesaid, shall be upon the Person or Persons letting such Horse, Mare or Gelding, Horses, Mares or Geldings, for Hire; and provided also, that nothing in this Act contained respecting the Licences to be taken out by Persons letting for Hire, or using any Horses, Mares and Geldings for drawing any Coaches or Carriages to be used as or in the Nature of Hackney Coaches, or respecting the painting the Names or Numbers upon such Coaches, shall be construed to extend to Coaches or Carriages which are or hereafter may be subject to the Provisions contained in any Local Act or Acts of Parliament.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said Thirty first Day of January one thousand eight hundred and twenty four, where any Person or Persons liable to account for and pay any Duty or Duties granted by this Act for and in respect of Horses, Mares or Geldings by him, her or them let for Hire as aforesaid, shall refuse or neglect to account for and pay the same, according to the Directions of this Act, to the Collector appointed to receive such Duties for the County, District or Place where he, she or they shall have let to Hire such Horses, Mares or Geldings, and such Duty or Duties are to be paid for.

And be it further enacted, That any pecuniary Penalty imposed by this Act, which shall amount to the Sum of Ten Pounds or more, shall or may be paid for in any of His Majesty's Courts at Westminster, for any Offence committed in England or Wales or Berwick upon Tweed, and in His Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Safford, for any Offence committed in that Part of Great Britain called Safford, by Action of Debt, Bill, Pleint or Information, whereas no Ensign, Protection, Privilege, Wager of Law or more than one Imparance shall be allowed.

XLIV. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Justice of the Peace, residing near the Place where the Offence shall be committed, to hear and determine any Offence against this Act which may subject any Offender or Offenders to any pecuniary Penalty not amounting to Fifty Pounds, which said Justice of the Peace is hereby authorized and required, upon any Information exhibited or Complaint made to him in that Behalf, to summon the Party accused, and also the Witnesses on either Side, and to examine into the Matter of Fact, and upon due Proof made thereof, either by the voluntary Confession of the Party accused, or by the Oath of One or more Witnesses or Witnesses, to give Judgment or Sentence of Dismissal or for the Penalty or Forfeiture, as is hereby directed; and so award and issue out his Warrant under his Hand and Seal for the levying any pecuniary Penalty or Forfeiture, Penalties or Forfeitures so adjudged, together with the Costs and Charges by this Act directed to be allowed, on the Goods of the Offender or Offenders, and to cause Sale to be made thereof, in case they shall not be redeemed within Six Days, reckoning to the Party the Overplus (if any); and where Goods of such Offender or Offenders cannot be found sufficient to answer the Penalty or Penalties, Costs and Charges as aforesaid, to commit each Offender or Offenders to Prison, there to remain for the Space of Six Calendar Months, unless such pecuniary Penalty or Penalties, Costs and Charges shall be sooner paid and satisfied; and if any Person or Persons shall find himself, herself or themselves aggrieved by the Judgment or Sentence of Dismissal of any such Justice, then he, she or they shall and may (upon giving Security to the Amount of the Penalty or Penalties sought to be recovered, together with such Costs and Charges as shall be awarded by such Justice, in case Judgment or Sentence of Dismissal shall be affirmed) appeal to the Justices of the Peace at the next General Quarter Sessions for the County, Riding or Place, who are hereby empowered to summon and examine Witnesses upon Oath, and finally to hear and determine the same; and in case the Judgment or Sentence of Dismissal of such Justice shall be affirmed, it shall be lawful for such Justice to award the Person or Persons so appealing to pay such Costs occasioned by such Appeal as to such Justices shall seem meet: Provided always, that if the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace shall fall within Six Days after such Judgment or Sentence of Dismissal, it shall and may be lawful for the Person or Persons so finding himself, herself or themselves aggrieved as aforesaid, if he, she or they shall think fit, giving such Security as aforesaid, to appeal to the next subsequent Quarter Sessions, and that no such Proceedings so to be had or taken shall be quashed or vacated for Want of Form, or removed by Certiorari, or any other Writ or Process, into any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or elsewhere in England or Wales, nor shall any such Proceeding before such Justice be taken or removed by a Certiorari, Suspension, Advocation or Reduction, or by any other Writ, Process or Proceeding, into the Court of Session, Court of Justiciary or Court of Exchequer in Scotland, any Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall be summoned as a Witness to give Evidence before any Justice or Justices of the Peace, touching any of the Matters relating to this Act, either on the Part of the Prosecution or of the Person or Persons accused, and shall neglect or refuse to appear at the Time and Place to be for that Purpose appointed, without a reasonable Excuse for such his or her Neglect or Refusal, to be allowed by such Justice or Justices of the Peace, or appearing shall refuse to be examined on Oath, and give Evidence before such Justice or Justices of the Peace before whom the Prosecution shall be depending, every Person so summoned and so neglecting or refusing as aforesaid, shall forfeit for every such Neglect or Refusal the Sum of Five Pounds.

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That a Conviction, or a Judgment, or a Sentence of Dismissal, in the Form and to the Effect following (mutatis mutandis), as the Case shall happen to be, shall be good and effectual, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, without stating the Case, or the Facts or Evidence in any particular Manner; (that is to say,)

BE it remembered, That on this _____ Day of _____ in the Year of our Lord _____ at _____ in the _____ of _____ A. B. came before me, C. D., One of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said _____ residing near the Place where the Offence was committed, and informed me that E. F. of _____ on the _____ Day of _____ at _____ in the said _____ did (have or forth the Fact for which the Information is laid); whereupon the said E. F., after being duly summoned to answer the said Charge, appeared before me on the _____ Day of _____ at _____ in the said _____ and having heard the Charge contained in the said Information, declared he was guilty of the said Offence; [or, (so the Case may happen to be), did not appear before me pursuant to the said Summons (or, did neglect or refuse to make any Defence against the said Charge); but the same being fully proved upon the Oath of G. H. a credible witness, or (so the Case may happen to be), acknowledged and voluntarily confessed the same to be true; and it (so the Case may be), that he the said E. F. is guilty of the Offence charged upon him in the said Information, I do hereby convict him of the Offence aforesaid, and do declare and adjudge that he the said E. F. hath forfeited the Sum of _____ of lawful Money of Great Britain for the Offence aforesaid, to be distributed as the Law directs, according to the Form of the Statute in that Case made and provided: [or, after stating the Summons and Non-appearance of the said Defendant, or, the Appearance of the said Defendant, and that he was not guilty of the said Offence, as the Case may be], and it manifestly appearing to me that he the said E. F. is not guilty of the said Offence charged upon him by the said Information, I do therefore dismiss the said Complaint or Information. Given under my Hand and Seal, this _____ Day of _____

Mitigation of Penalties

Provided nevertheless, that it shall and may be lawful for the said Justice, where he shall see cause, to mitigate and lessen any such Penalty or Penalties, as he shall think fit or reasonable, (Costs and Charges of the Officers and Informants, as well in making the Discovery as in prosecuting the same, being always allowed over and above such Mitigation,) and so as such Mitigation do not reduce such Penalties in less than One Fourth Part of the Penalty or Penalties incurred over and above the said Costs and Charges, any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

+ No Recovery and Application of Penalties

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said Thirty^d Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty four, all necessary Penalties incurred by this Act, which shall be used for, in respect of which any Information shall be exhibited within Six Calendar Months after the same shall have been incurred, shall be distributed and paid in the Manner following; that is to say, one Moiety thereof to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety thereof, together with full Costs of Suit incurred in suing, prosecuting or informing for and in respect of such Penalties, to the Person or Persons who shall inform and sue or prosecute for the same as aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for any Person or Persons whatsoever to exhibit any Information or Complaint before any Justice or Justices of the Peace or other Magistrate or Magistrates whatsoever, within the Time aforesaid, against any Person or Persons, for the Recovery of any Fine, Penalty or Forfeiture incurred by virtue of this Act, which shall not amount to the Sum of Fifty Pounds, any Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding; and that all such Penalties as shall not be used for, or respecting which no Information or Informations shall have been exhibited within the Time aforesaid, shall belong and be paid to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors; and that the Moiety of every such Penalty payable to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors as aforesaid, shall be paid into the Hands of His Majesty's Solicitor of Stamps for the Time being in England, Wales or Scotland respectively.

Treasury may let Duties to farm

XLVIII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or any Three or more of them for the Time being, and he or they in and are hereby empowered from time to time, as it shall be necessary, either by himself or themselves, or by the said Commissioners of Stamps, or the major Part of them, to let to farm the said several Duties hereby granted, for and in respect of Houses let for Hire in the Manner hereinafter mentioned, to such Person or Persons as shall be willing to farm the same, in separate Divisions or Districts, according to the Regulations and in the Manner hereinafter mentioned: Provided always, that it shall not be lawful to let to farm the said Duties, or any Part thereof, at any one Time, for a longer Period or Term than Three Years from the Day on which any such letting to farm shall commence and take effect.

Persons as to lease

Notice of letting to be inserted in London Gazette

XLIX. And be it further enacted, That One Month's Notice at least shall be given by the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three of them, or the said Commissioners of Stamps, or the major Part of them, authorized as aforesaid, in the London Gazette, of the Time and Place of letting the said Duties, specifying the Divisions or Districts within which it is intended to let to farm such Duties, and also the Place or Office at which Proposals for taking such Duties, or any Part thereof, shall be delivered.

Proposals to be delivered Three Days previous to letting

Modes of Proceeding in putting up Duties

L. And be it further enacted, That no Proposals shall be proceeded upon, unless the same be signed by and in the proper Names of the Parties proposing to become Bidders, and specifying the Place of their Abode, and shall have been delivered as aforesaid, at least Three Days previous to the Day mentioned in the London Gazette for letting the said Duties to farm.

Contract to be executed, and Security for Rent given by Farmer

LI. And be it further enacted, That the Biddings for such Duties shall be conducted under such Regulations as shall be established for that Purpose by the said Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, or any Three of them, or by the said Commissioners of Stamps, or the major Part of them, duly authorized as aforesaid; and the Person or Persons who shall be the highest Bidder or Bidders shall be the Farmer or Rentier, Farmers or Rentiers of the said Duties, or such Part thereof as shall be then put up to farm, for such Term, not exceeding Three Years as aforesaid, as may be determined on, and as shall be inserted in the London Gazette; and shall forthwith execute a Contract to be prepared in pursuance of this Act, and give Security by Bond to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, with Three or more Securities, for Payment to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, of the Money or ready Rent so contracted for, the said Money or Rent to be paid into the Hands of the Receiver General of His Majesty's Stamp Duties, at the Head Office of Stamps, in equal Payments, by Eight several Payments in the Year, on the Days to be fixed and appointed before any such letting to farm as aforesaid.

Deposit to be made by Person farming Duties

If not made good, Treasury may declare Contract void

LII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or at any Three or more of them, or the said Commissioners of Stamps, or the major Part of them, authorized as aforesaid, to appoint the Time for making a Deposit of a Sum of Money, and the Amount thereof, on account of the Rent to be paid by the Person or Persons who shall be the best Bidder or Bidders for, and be declared the Farmer or Farmers of any of the said Duties hereby allowed to be farmed; and in case any such Person or Persons shall fail to make such Deposit at the Time appointed, or shall fail to execute a proper Contract in Writing, and to give Security for the Payment of the Rent and the due Performance of such Contract, in the Manner directed by this Act, within the Time to be appointed for that Purpose, then and in every such Case it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, or the said Commissioners of Stamps, or the major Part of them, authorized as aforesaid, to declare the Bidding and Contract of such Person or Persons null and and void, and his or their Deposit, if made, to be forfeited, and to cease the Duties whosoever he or they shall have been declared the Farmer or Farmers, to be upon put up to be let to firm, pursuant to the Direction of this Act, and so from time to time as often as such Failure shall be made.

LIII. And be it further enacted, That in case any of the said Duties to arise in any District or Districts shall not be let to farm at the Time occasioned to such Advertisement, for Want of a sufficient Bidding for such Duties, it shall be lawful for the said Lord High Treasurer, or the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three of them, or the said Commissioners of Stamps, or the major Part of them, authorized as aforesaid, to appoint such future Day or Days as they shall judge most proper, for letting the said Duties to arise in such District or Districts respectively, in the Manner and upon the like Notice as heretofore directed, or to receive Proposals for farming such Duties, and so let the same to farm by private Contract for any Period of Time not exceeding Three Years as aforesaid: Provided always, that no Contract for letting the Duties herein mentioned to farm shall be made with any Person or Persons licensed to let Horses for Hire, nor to any One for his or their Use, or on his or their Behalf, or so as that he or they shall have any Interest therein, or Benefit therefrom, but that the same (if so made) shall be utterly null and void; and that if any such Contract shall be assigned to any such Person or Persons as aforesaid, or to any other Person or Persons for his or their Use, so that he or they shall have any Interest therein or Benefit therefrom, such Assignment shall be also utterly null and void.

LIV. And in order to prevent Disputes concerning the said Duties hereby granted, in Cases where the same may be collected in One District, Division or Collection, and the Tickets may be delivered in another District, Division or Collection: Be it further enacted, That the said Duties shall belong, and the Tickets issued thereupon shall be delivered and accounted for, to the Person or Persons respectively who shall be the Farmer or Farmers of the several Duties arising within the District, Division or Collection within which the Inn, House or other Place at which the Person or Persons letting any Horse or Horses for Hire shall be licensed as aforesaid is situated, and the Keeper of every Toll Gate or Bar, at whose Gate or Bar such Ticket shall be delivered, shall deliver the same to the Farmer or Farmers of the said Duties arising within such District, Division or Collection as aforesaid, at the Time and in the Manner such Tickets are by this Act directed to be delivered to the several Collectors.

LV. And be it further enacted, That no Person farming the said Duties, or any Part thereof, or appointed a Collector thereof, shall in pursuance of such Appointment be disqualified from voting at any Election or Elections of Members to serve in Parliament, any Law or Statute to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

LVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Stamps or the major Part of them, from time to time as Occasion shall require, to delegate and appoint to any the Persons who shall become Farmers or Lessees of the said Duties, and their Executors, Administrators and Assigns, but also any other Person or Persons, at the Request and upon the Nomination and for the Use of such Farmers or Lessees, or their Executors, Administrators or Assigns, to be Collectors of the said Duties arising within the respective Districts, with full Powers to grant the necessary Licences to Persons within the respective Districts, for letting out Horses for Hire in the Manner aforesaid, and to take Securities by Bond or Bonds from the Person or Persons to be licensed, in the Name of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, with such Conditions as are required by this Act, and to receive the Stamp Office Weekly Accounts relating to the said Duties heretofore directed and required to be delivered by Persons letting Horses for Hire in the Manner aforesaid within their respective Districts, and the Money due thereon, and to administer the Oath or Affirmation heretofore required to be made as to the Truth of the Accounts to be delivered by the Persons licensed under this Act, and generally to execute and do all other the Powers, Matters and Things touching the collecting, managing and enforcing the Payment of the said Duties within and for their respective Districts, which by this Act are given to and authorized to be done by any Collector or Collectors of the said Duties.

LVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Person or Persons so farming the said Duties, or any Part thereof, with the Consent of the said Commissioners of Stamps or the major Part of them, to vary the Mode of keeping the Weekly Accounts directed by this Act to be kept by the several Persons who may let out Horses for Hire, in such Manner as they shall judge most convenient for keeping the said Accounts: and such Person or Persons so farming the said Duties shall also be at Liberty, by an Indentment or on the Face of the Tickets or Certificates to be delivered by them to the several licensed Persons as aforesaid, to add the Name or Number of the District which he or they shall so farm.

LVIII. And be it further enacted, That all Securities, Bonds or Obligations taken by the Person or Persons farming the said Duties, or any Part thereof, from such Postmasters, Innkeepers, or other licensed Persons under this Act, shall be taken in the Name of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and shall and may be sued and prosecuted in the Name of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, by and with the Consent of His Majesty's Attorney General in England, or the Lord Advocate in Scotland.

LIX. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said Thirty first Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty four, no Person or Persons shall commence any Action or Suit in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or elsewhere in England or Wales, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, for the Recovery of any Penalty or Penalties to be incurred under this Act, until the Expiration of Fourteen Days after such Person or Persons shall have delivered or caused shall be liable to the Person or Persons incurring such Penalty or Penalties, or left for him, her, or them, or his, her, or their Dwelling House, or usual or last Place of Abode, a printed or written Notice of the Intention of such Person or Persons to apply to the Commissioners of Stamps in Great Britain, for Leave to commence such Action or Suit, and which Notice shall state the Office or Offices complained of, the Day of commencing the same, and the Amount of such Penalty intended to be recovered; and that it shall not be lawful for such Person or Persons, at the Trial of such Action or Suit, to give in Evidence any Matter or Thing relating to any Office not specified and set forth in such Notice.

LX. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Farmer or Farmers of any of the said Duties, or for any other Person or Persons, to sue or prosecute for any such pecuniary Penalty in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or elsewhere in England or Wales, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, without having first obtained the Consent in Writing of the said Commissioners of Stamps, or Two of them, or unless the Suit or Prosecution for the same shall be carried on by the Solicitor of Stamps, or of some other Solicitor or Attorney to be approved of by the said Commissioners or any Two of them, and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, or any Two of them, if they shall think fit, to order the Proceedings to be stayed in any such Suit or Prosecution on Payment of Part only of any Penalty incurred, with or without Costs, or on Payment only of the Costs incurred in such Prosecution, or any Part thereof, as they shall judge proper and expedient.

LXI. And he it further enacted, That all the Powers, Provisions, Articles, Clauses, Penalties, Forfeitures, and all other Directions, Matters and Things prescribed or appointed by this Act, with relation to the said Duties, or to the Persons appointed or to be appointed to collect the same, shall and may be put in force and carried into Execution by the Person or Persons serving the said Duty, or any Part thereof, in like Manner as any Collector hereby directed to be appointed is authorized and empowered by this Act to put in force and execute the same; and that the Person or Persons serving the said Duties shall be entitled to the same Privileges, and to have and use the like Hierarchies for collecting and recovering the Duties by this Act imposed, in like Manner as if the Duties were sued for by or on Behalf of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, and such Duties had not been let to farm.

LXII. And he it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall at any Time or Times be sued, molested or prosecuted for any Thing by him, her or them done or executed in pursuance of this Act, or of any Clause, Matter or Thing therein contained, such Person or Persons shall or may plead the General Issue, and give the special Matter in Evidence for his, her or their Defence; and if upon the Trial a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall become convicted, then such Defendant or Defendants shall have Treble Costs awarded to him, her or them against such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs.

LXIII. And he it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons employed in the Execution of this Act, in relation to the said Duties, shall wilfully refuse or neglect to do or perform any Matter or Thing by this Act required or directed to be done or performed by such Person or Persons, whereby any of His Majesty's Subjects shall or may sustain any Damage whatsoever, such Person or Persons so offending shall be liable in any Action to be founded on this Statute, or answer to the Party aggrieved all such Damages, with full Costs of Suit.

LXIV. And he it further enacted, That from and after the said Thirty first Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty four, it shall not be necessary, upon the Trial or Hearing of any Information, Action, Suit or other Proceeding, to be commenced for the Recovery of any of the said Duties on Homes, Mines and Geldings hereby granted as aforesaid, which shall be let to farm in pursuance of this Act, or of any future Act of Parliament, or for the Recovery of any Penalty or Penalties imposed by this Act, or to be imposed by any future Act, in any-one relating to the said Duties, to produce the Instrument whereby the Commissioners of Stamps in Great Britain, or any of them, shall be authorized by the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury to let to farm the Duties granted by this Act, or any of them; or to produce the Commission whereby the said Commissioners of Stamps shall be constituted and appointed such Commissioners; or to prove that the Person executing any Contract or Agreement, or any Commission, Deputation, Authority or other Instrument, are or are not Commissioners of Stamps; or to prove the Execution of any Contract or Agreement whereby any of the said Duties on Homes, Mines and Geldings shall be let to farm; or to prove the Execution of any Assignment of any such Contract or Agreement; or to prove the Execution of any Commission, Deputation or Authority, whereby any Person or Persons shall be appointed a Collector or Collectors of any of the said Duties, by the said Commissioners of Stamps, or any of them; or to prove the Signatures of the said Commissioners of Stamps to any Consent to prosecute for any such pecuniary Penalty as aforesaid: Provided always, that such Contract, Agreement, Assignment, Commission, Deputation or Authority and Consent to prosecute, shall be produced as the Trial or Hearing of any such Information, Action, Suit or Proceeding, and it shall be made to appear that the Person or Persons claiming or acting under such Contract, Agreement, Assignment, Commission, Deputation or Authority, had in fact acted as the Farmer or Farmers, Collector or Collectors of the Duties therein mentioned and described, or some of them, and that in every such Case such Proof shall be deemed and taken by the Judges or Justices before whom any such Trial or Hearing shall be had, to be good and legal Evidence of such Person or Persons being the Farmer or Farmers, Collector or Collectors of the Duties mentioned and described in such Contract, Agreement, Assignment, Commission, Deputation, Authority or other Instrument, unless by other Evidence the contrary shall be made to appear, any Law or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

C A P. LXIII.

An Act to authorize the Advance of Money by the Commissioners under several Acts for the Issue of Exchequer Bills for Public Works, for the building, rebuilding, enlarging or repairing of Gaols in England. [10th July 1823.]

WHEREAS an Act passed in the Third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to amend Two Acts of the Fifty seventh Year of His late Majesty and the First Year of His present Majesty, for authorizing the Issue of Exchequer Bills, and the Advance of Money for carrying on Public Works and Fisheries and Employment of the Poor; and to authorize a further Issue of Exchequer Bills for the Purpose of the said Acts: And Whereas it is expedient that the Provisions of the said recited Act, and of the several Acts of Parliament recited in the said Act, should be extended to empower the Commissioners therein named to advance Money for the building, rebuilding, enlarging, repairing, improving or fitting up of Gaols or Houses of Correction in England; Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That upon the Application of the major Part of the Justices of any County, Riding, Division, City, Town or Place in England, in Quarter Sessions assembled, such major Part to consist of Five at the least, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, who are authorized and empowered to advance Money for public Works under the Provisions of the said recited Act of the Third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, and of the several Acts therein recited, and they are hereby empowered to make Advances, under the Powers, Authorities, Privileges and Regulations of the said Acts, for the building, rebuilding, enlarging, improving, repairing or fitting up of any Gaols or Houses of Correction in England, in like manner in every respect as if Gaols and Houses of Correction had been included in the Provisions of the said recited Act; and it shall be lawful for the Justices of the Peace of any County or of any City, Town or Place, in England, authorized to make Rates for the repairing of any Gaol or House of Correction, to receive any Sums of Money so advanced, and to apply the same to the Purpose for which such Advances shall be made, and to make Rates for the Repayment of any Sums of Money so advanced, in such Manner, and in such Proportions, and at such Times as shall be required by the said Commissioners in their Behalf, and also to assign the Rates so to be made as aforesaid, as a Security for the said Advances, in such Manner and Form as the said Commissioners shall direct and appoint, so as that all Sums so advanced, with Interest thereon at and after the Rate specified in the said recited Act of the Third Year aforesaid, shall be fully repaid and satisfied within the Period of Twenty Years from the advancing thereof; and all such Rates shall be made, assessed, levied and recovered in like Manner as any County Rates may be made, assessed, raised, levied and recovered, and shall continue in force until all such Advances, with Interest after the Rate aforesaid, shall severally and respectively be fully paid and discharged; any Law, Statute, Usage or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

S. O. G. C. 30.

The Application of Quarter Sessions of any County Commissioners may make Advances of Money for building or repairing Gaols, &c. Justices to make Rates for Repayment, and assign the Rates as a Security.

Money advanced to be repaid in 20 Years.

C A P. LXIV.

An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws relating to the building, repairing and regulating of certain Gaols and Houses of Correction in England and Wales. [10th July 1823.]

WHEREAS the Laws now existing relative to the building, repairing and regulating of Gaols and Houses of Correction, in England and Wales, are complicated, and have in many Cases been found ineffective: And Whereas it is expedient that such Measures should be adapted, and such Arrangements made in Prisons, as shall not only provide for the safe Custody, but shall also tend more effectually to preserve the Health and to improve the Morals of the Prisoners confined therein, and shall insure the proper Measure of Punishment to convicted Offenders: And Whereas due Classification, Inspection, regular Labour and Employment, and Religious and Moral Instruction, are essential to the Discipline of a Prison, and to the Reformation of Offenders: And Whereas the present Laws directing the Separation, Superintendance, Employment and Instruction of Prisoners, require to be amended and enlarged, and to be more uniformly and strictly carried into Effect; and it is therefore expedient that the most useful Provisions contained in the several Statutes and Acts, and Parts of Statutes and Acts hereinafter mentioned, should be consolidated, and that some new Provisions should be added thereto: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Commencement of this Act, the several Statutes

- and Acts, and Parts of Statutes and Acts following, shall be repealed, so far as relates to such Gaols or Prisons, or Houses of Correction, as this Act shall extend to; (that is to say) so much of a Statute passed in the First Year of the Reign of King Edward the Third, as relates to Inquiry to be made of Gaolers, which by Duress compel Prisoners to appear; and also, so much of a Statute passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of the said King Edward the Third, as relates to Sheriffs and Gaolers receiving Offenders without taking any thing; and also, so much of a Statute passed in the Fourteenth Year of the Reign of the said King Edward the Third, as relates to the Possession of a Gaoler compelling a Prisoner by Duress to become an Approver; and also, so much of an Act passed in the Seventh Year of the Reign of King James the First, intitled An Act for the due Execution of diverse Laws and Statutes heretofore made against Rogues, Vagabonds and sturdy Beggars, and other Irregular and idle Persons, as relates to the providing Houses of Correction, to the Appointment, Authority and Allowance of the Governor, and to his appointing to Justices for Persons committed to his Custody; and also, so much of an Act passed in the Nineteenth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intitled An Act for the Relief of poor Prisoners, and setting them to work, as relates to the providing Stocks for setting such Prisoners to work, and to the Removal of Prisoners on occasion of Sickness; and also, so much of an Act passed in the Twenty second and Twenty third Years of the Reign of the said King Charles the Second, intitled An Act for the Relief and Release of poor distressed Prisoners for Debt, as relates to Prisoners being allowed to send for Victuals and other Necessaries, and to Fees and Charges, and to the Sequestration of Felons and Debtors; and also, an Act passed in the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of the Reign of King William the Third, intitled An Act to enable Justices of Peace to hold and repair Gaols in their respective Counties; any Thing in an Act made in the Sixth Year of the Reign of King George the First, for making perpetual any Act or Acts relating to the building and repairing of County Gaols, to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding; and also, so much of an Act passed in the Second Year of the Reign of King George the Second, intitled An Act for the Relief of Debtors, with respect to the Imprisonment of their Persons, as relates to Prisoners being allowed by Keepers of Prisons and Gaols to send for Victuals and other Necessaries, and to the taking of Fees, and the making and hanging up Tables thereof, and to Inquiries concerning the same, and to the hearing of Complaints of Excessive against Gaolers, and extending into Gifts and Legacies for the Benefit of poor Prisoners, and hanging up Tables thereof; and also, so much of an Act passed in the Fourteenth Year of the Reign of the said King George the Second, intitled An Act to supply some Defects in the Laws for repairing and rebuilding County Bridges, for repairing, enlarging, erecting and providing Houses of Correction, and for passing Rogues and Vagabonds, as relates to repairing, enlarging and building Houses of Correction, and to buying Houses and Lands for that Purpose; and also, so much of an Act passed in the Sixteenth Year of the Reign of the said King George the Second, intitled An Act for the further Punishment of Persons who shall aid or assist Prisoners in attempt to escape out of lawful Custody, as relates to the Escape of Prisoners from any Gaol or Prison to which this Act shall extend; and also, so much of an Act passed in the Seventeenth Year of the Reign of the said King George the Second, intitled An Act to amend and make more effectual the Laws relating to Rogues, Vagabonds and other idle and disorderly Persons, and to Houses of Correction, as relates to the erecting, enlarging and managing of Houses of Correction, and the filling or vacating out of Masters of them for Misbehaviour; and also, so much of an Act passed in the Twenty fourth Year of the Reign of the said King George the Second (made among other Things for granting an additional Duty upon Spirituous Liquors, and upon Licences for retailing the same, and for repealing an Act of the Twentieth Year of King George the First, made among other Things for more effectually restraining the retailing of distilled Spirituous Liquors), as relates to the retailing of Spirituous Liquors in Gaols, Prisons or Houses of Correction, to the carrying of Liquors into the same, to the Search for such Liquors, and to the hanging up of a Copy of certain Clauses of the said Act in such Gaols, Prisons or Houses; and also, so much of an Act passed in the Thirty second Year of the Reign of the said King George the Second, for Relief of Debtors, with respect to the Imprisonment of their Persons, as relates to Prisoners being allowed to send for Victuals and other Necessaries, and to the setting, signing, reviewing, annulling and hanging up of Tables of Fees, Rates and Benefactions, and Rules for the Government of Gaols and Prisons; and also, an Act passed in the Thirtieth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act for providing Chergymen to officiate in Gaols within that Part of Great Britain called England; and also, an Act passed in the Fourteenth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intitled An Act for preserving the Health of Prisoners in Gaol, and preventing the Gaol Distemper; and also, an Act passed in the Twenty second Year of His said late Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for the amending and rendering more effectual the Laws in being relative to Houses of Correction; and also, Two Acts passed in the Twenty fourth Year of His said late Majesty's Reign, the one made to explain and amend the heretofore recited Act, made in the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of the Reign of King William the Third, and the other made to explain and amend the heretofore recited Act of the Twenty second Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third; and also, an Act passed in the Twenty ninth Year of His said late Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for the more effectual Execution of the Laws respecting Gaols; and also, an Act passed in the Thirty first Year of His said late Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for the better regulating of Gaols and other Places of Confinement, except only so much of the said Act as relates to the Imprisonment and Employment in Hard Labour in the County Gaol of the County of Prisoners sentenced to Transportation, or to whom the Royal Money shall be extended on Condition of Transportation; and also, an Act passed in the Fifty fifth Year of His said late Majesty's Reign, for enlarging the Powers of the heretofore recited Acts of the Thirteenth and Twenty second second Year of His said late Majesty's Reign, for providing Clergymen to officiate in Goals and Houses of Correction within England and Wales; and also, an Act passed in the Fifty eighth Year of His said late Majesty's Reign, to amend so much of the said Act of the Fifty fifth Year of His said late Majesty's Reign, as relates to the Salaries of the Clergymen officiating as Chaplains in Houses of Correction; and the said several Statutes and Acts, and Parts of Statutes and Acts, are hereby repealed accordingly; and from and after the Commencement of this Act shall cease and determine, so far as relates to Goals and Houses of Correction to which this Act shall extend; save and except so far as to the said Acts, or any of them, repeal any former Act or Acts, or any Clause, Matter or Thing therein; and also, save and except as to any Proceeding for the Punishment of any Person for any Offence which shall be done the Commencement of this Act have been committed; and as to any Proclamation before that Time made by any Justice of the Peace or Grand Jury; and as to any Appointment before that Time made by any Officer or other Person, to perform any Duties under the said recited Acts, or any of them; and as to any Rules and Regulations, Acts and Deeds, before that Time lawfully established, made or done, under or by virtue of any One or more of the said Acts; and as to the Fulfillment of any Contracts or Agreements before that Time lawfully made, and/or by virtue of the said recited Acts, or any of them.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act, there shall be maintained, at the Expence of every County in England and Wales, One Common Goal, and at the Expence of every County not divided into Ridings or Divisions, and of every Riding or Division of a County, (having several and distinct Commissions of the Peace, or several or distinct Rates in the Nature of County Rates, applicable by Law to the Maintenance of a Prison for such Division, in England and Wales, at least One House of Correction; and One Goal and One House of Correction shall be maintained in the several Cities, Towns and Places mentioned in the Schedule marked (A.) annexed to this Act; and the Regulations and Provisions contained in this Act shall extend, in Manner hereinafter mentioned, to every such Goal and House of Correction maintained at the Expence of each County, Riding, Division, City, Town or Place, and to the several Goals and Houses of Correction in the Cities of London and Westminster.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That where there shall have been already established, and shall be existing at the Time of passing of this Act, in any County, Riding, Division, City, Town or Place, one or more House or Houses of Correction, not sufficient or capable of being made sufficient for the extended Classification required by this Act, it shall be lawful for the Justices assembled at their General or Quarter Sessions, or the major Part of them, if they shall so think fit, to order and direct that, in Addition to the House of Correction hereinbefore directed to be maintained for the Purposes of this Act, one or more of such Houses of Correction so shall be so existing as aforesaid at the Time of the passing of this Act, shall be continued and maintained for the Reception of One or more particular Class or Classes or Description or Descriptions of Prisoners, as may be prescribed by the Justices assembled at their General or Quarter Sessions as directed by this Act.

IV. And be it further enacted, That at the Moderate General Quarter Sessions which shall be held in every County, Riding or Division of a County in England and Wales, and in the several Districts, Cities, Towns and Places to which this Act shall extend, next after the Commencement of this Act, and at any subsequent General or Quarter Sessions to be held from Time to Time, the Justices of the Peace there assembled shall proceed in carrying this Act into Effect; and such Justices shall, by Orders to be made for that Purpose, ascertain and declare to what Class or Classes of Prisoners every such Goal, House or Houses of Correction, or any Part or Parts of any of them respectively, shall be applicable; and every such Order shall be signed by the Chairmen of such Sessions, and shall be attested by the Clerks of the Peace to the several Justices of the Peace in every such County, Riding or Division, District, City, Town or Place respectively, and Notice thereof shall be inserted in Three of the Newspapers usually circulated in such County, Riding or Division, or District, City, Town or Place respectively, within Three Weeks after any such Order shall be made at any such Sessions; and a Copy thereof shall be served upon the Keeper of every Goal or House of Correction within every such County, Riding, Division, City, District, Town or Place; and after the making of such Order, and Service of such Copy thereof upon such Keeper as aforesaid, such Class or Classes of Prisoners as shall be specified in such Order, and no other, shall be committed to or detained in any such Goal, House or Houses of Correction, or any Part of any of them respectively; and all Persons not coming within the Class or Description of Prisoners who may lawfully be committed to or detained in such Prison as shall be appointed by the Justices for the Confinement of One or more Class or Classes of Prisoners, may be removed to the Goal or House of Correction of the County, Riding or Division; and every such Goal or House of Correction shall be deemed the legal Goal, Prison or Place of Confinement of every Person respectively committed to the same in pursuance of such Order as aforesaid; any thing in any Act or Acts, or any Law, Canon or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding; Provided always, that no Classification of Prisoners shall be made in any House of Correction appointed to the Reception of any particular Class or Classes of Prisoners, which shall be in any way inconsistent with or contrary to the Classification directed by this Act.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where, in any County, Riding or Division of a County, or in any of the Cities, Towns and Places named in the said Schedule (A.) any House of Correction shall be Part of the same Building, or inclosed in the same Boundary Wall or shall be contiguous to the Common Goal, and shall be under the Superintendance of the same Keeper, and the same Visiting Justices, it shall be lawful for the Justices of the Peace of the County, Division, City, Town or Place, assembled at any General or Quarter Sessions, from time to time, with the Consent of the Sheriff of the County for the Time being, signified in Writing under his Hand, to proceed to carry into Effect the Classification and Separation directed by this Act in the whole of such united or contiguous Building or Buildings, instead of in each such House of Correction and Gaol, and to divide the whole of such Building, or united or contiguous Buildings, into such Number of Compartments for the Purpose of such Separation and Classification as would be required under the Regulations of this Act, if the same had been one distinct Gaol or House of Correction; and also at any General or Quarter Sessions from time to time, by their Order or Orders, and with such Consent of the Sheriff as aforesaid, to ascertain and declare what Part or Parts of the same Building, or united or contiguous Building, shall be considered as the Gaol, and what Part or Parts thereof respectively shall be considered as the House of Correction, and shall be appropriated to the Confinement of particular Classes and Descriptions of Prisoners, and to direct what Classes and Descriptions respectively shall be confined in each Part or Division of such Building, or united or contiguous Buildings; and all Persons to be committed to or detained in the respective Parts and Divisions so to be ascertained and appropriated of any such Building, or united or contiguous Buildings, to them respectively applicable, shall be deemed and held to be in legal Custody: Provided that Processors for Debt may be removed to and shall always be confined in the Part or Parts of such Building, or united or contiguous Buildings, which shall be so ascertained or be appropriated as and for the Gaol of the County, Division, City, Town or Place; and such Removal shall not be deemed or taken to be an Escape.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all Persons who in pursuance of any such Order shall be removed to, committed to or detained in the Part of such united or contiguous Buildings, which shall be so declared and ascertained aforesaid to be the Gaol, shall from thenceforth be deemed to be in the legal Custody of the Sheriff and of the Gaoler appointed by the Sheriff, in the same Manner as if such Person had been committed to the Common Gaol before the passing of this Act: Provided also, that the Sheriff shall not be answerable for the safe Custody of any Person who in pursuance of any such Order shall from time to time be removed to, committed to or detained in any Part of such united or contiguous Buildings other than the Part so ascertained and declared to be the Gaol.

VII. And Whereas the Practice of committing Vagrants to Common Gaols has been attended with much Inconvenience to the Classification of Prisoners, and has prevented a Uniformity of Practice in the Management of Prisoners; Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and twenty four, in every County, Riding or Division of a County in England and Wales, and in the several Districts, Cities, Towns or Places to which this Act shall extend, all idle and disorderly Persons, Rogues and Vagabonds, incorrigible Rogues and other Vagrants, shall be committed to some House of Correction belonging to such County, Riding or Division, District, City, Town or Place respectively; and that such House of Correction shall be deemed the only legal Place of Commitment of any such Person in pursuance of any Conviction by lawful Authority; any Thing in any Act contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

VIII. Provided also, and be it enacted, That in all Cases where any Person liable by Law to be committed to the House of Correction shall be apprehended within any District, City, Town or Place mentioned in the Schedule to this Act enacted, and the Inhabitants of any such District, City, Town or Place are or shall be contributory to the Support and Maintenance of the House or Houses of Correction of the County, Riding or Division in which such District, City, Town or Place is situate, it shall and may be lawful for the Justices of the Peace of such District, City, Town or Place, to commit such Person to the House of Correction of the County, Riding or Division in which such District, City, Town or Place is situate; and every Person so committed shall and may be received, detained, dealt with and ordered to be set and kept to Hard Labour or other Work, or conveyed and sent away or discharged, and be subject and liable to the same Correction and Punishment, to all Intents and Purposes, as if committed by any Justice or Justices of the Peace of such County, Riding or Division; and in such Case it shall not be necessary or required that any other House of Correction shall be built or maintained in or for such District, City, Town or Place, and the Inhabitants of such District, City, Town or Place shall not be compelled or compellable to the Payment of any Rate or Sum of Money whatever for the building or maintaining of any other House of Correction in or for such District, City, Town or Place; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

IX. Provided also, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to take away, lessen, vary, alter or affect any Right, Privilege or Franchise, which before the passing of this Act any Mayor, Bailiff or Justice of the Peace for the Time being of any City, Town or Liberty, having a separate Jurisdiction, had by Means of any Grant, Charter or special or local Act of Parliament, to commit Prisoners to the Gaol or House of Correction of any County, Riding or Division.

X. And Whereas it is fit and proper to secure an Uniformity of Practice in the Management of the several Prisons to which this Act shall extend; Be it therefore further enacted, That the following Rules and Regulations shall be observed and carried into Effect in every such Prison in England and Wales, which shall be maintained by any County or Riding or Division of a County as aforesaid, as a Gaol or House of Correction and in the Gaol and House of Correction of every District, City, Town or Place mentioned in the Schedule marked (A.) annexed to this Act, and in every united and contiguous Gaol and House of Correction which shall be jointly used in Manner aforesaid for the Purposes of this Act.

And that in every Prison to be continued under this Act as aforesaid, in any County by Riding or Division of a County, so far as such Rules may be applicable or can be applied to the particular Description or Class of Prisoners confined in such Prison;

First.—The Keeper of every such Prison shall reside therein; he shall not be an Under Sheriff or Bailiff, nor shall he be concerned in any Occupation or Trade whatsoever; no Keeper or Officer of a Prison shall sell, nor shall any Person in Trust for him or employed by him sell or have any Benefit or Advantage from the Sale of any Article to any Prisoner, nor shall he, directly or indirectly, have any Interest in any Contract or Agreement for the Supply of the Prison.

Second.—A Matron shall be appointed in every Prison in which Female Prisoners shall be confined, who shall reside in the Prison; and it shall be the Duty of the Matron constantly to superintend the Female Prisoners.

Third.—The Keeper shall, as far as may be practicable, visit every Ward, and see every Prisoner and inspect every Cell Once at least in every Twenty four Hours; and when the Keeper or any other Officer shall visit the Female Prisoners, he shall be accompanied by the Matron, or in Case of her unavoidable Absence, by some Female Officer of the Prison.

Fourth.—The Keeper shall keep a Journal, in which he shall record all Punishments inflicted by his Authority or by that of the Visiting Justices, and the Day when such Punishments shall have taken place and all other Occurrences of Importance within the Prison, in such Manner as shall be directed by the Regulations to be made under this Act; which Journal shall be laid before the Justices at every General or Quarter Sessions, to be signed by the Chairman, in Proof of the same having been there produced.

Fifth.—One Provision shall be made in every Prison for the Enforcement of Hard Labour in the Cases of such Prisoners as may be sentenced thereto and for the Employment of other Prisoners. The Means of Hard Labour shall be provided and the Materials requisite for the Employment of Prisoners shall be purchased, under such Regulations as may be made for that Purpose by the Justices in General or Quarter Sessions assembled. If the Work to be performed by the Prisoners be of such a Nature as to require previous Instructions, proper Persons shall be appointed to afford the same.

Sixth.—The Male and Female Prisoners shall be confined in separate Buildings or Parts of the Prison, so as to prevent them from seeing, conversing or holding any Intercourse with each other; and the Prisoners of each Sex shall be divided into distinct Classes, Care being taken that Prisoners of the following Classes do not intermix with each other: In Goals.—First, Debtors and Persons confined for Contempt of Court on Civil Process; Second, Prisoners convicted of Felony; Third, Prisoners convicted of Misdemeanors; Fourth, Prisoners committed on Charge or Suspicion of Felony; Fifth, Prisoners committed on Charge or Suspicion of Misdemeanors or for Want of Sureties; In Houses of Correction.—First, Prisoners convicted of Felony; Second, Prisoners convicted of Misdemeanors; Third, Prisoners committed on Charge or Suspicion of Felony; Fourth, Prisoners committed on Charge or Suspicion of Misdemeanors; Fifth, Vagrants. Such Prisoners as are intended to be examined as Witnesses in behalf of the Crown in any Prosecution shall also be kept separate in all Goals and Houses of Correction.

Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to prevent the Justices from authorising, at their Discretion, the Employment of any Prisoner in the Performance of any menial Office within the Prison, or for the Purpose of instructing others; and provided also, that if the Keeper shall at any Time deem it improper or inexpedient for a Prisoner to associate with the other Prisoners of the Class to which he or she may belong, it shall be lawful for him to confine such Prisoner with any other Class or Description of Prisoners, or in any other Part of the Prison, until he can receive the Directions of a Visiting Justice therein, to whom he shall apply with as little Delay as possible, and who in every such Instance shall ascertain whether the Reasons assigned by the Keeper warrant such Deviation from the established Rules, and shall give such Orders in Writing as he shall think fit, under the Circumstances of the particular Case.

Seventh.—Female Prisoners shall in all Cases be attended by Female Officers.

Eighth.—Every Prisoner sentenced to Hard Labour shall, unless prevented by Sickness, be employed so many Hours in every Day, not exceeding Ten, exclusive of the Time allowed for Meals, as shall be directed by the Rules and Regulations to be made under this Act, except on Sundays, Christmas Day, and Good Friday, and on any Days appointed by public Authority for Fasting or Thanksgiving.

Ninth.—Prayers, to be selected from the Liturgy of the Church of England by the Chaplain, shall be read at least every Morning by the Chaplain, the Keeper, or by some other Person, as by the Rules and Regulations shall be directed; and Portions of the Scriptures shall be read to the Prisoners, when assembled for Instruction, by the Chaplain, or by such Person as he may appoint or authorize.

Tenth.—Provision shall be made in all Prisons for the Instructions of Prisoners of both Sexes in Reading and Writing, and this Instruction shall be afforded under such Rules and Regulations, and so such Extent, and to such Prisoners, as to the Visiting Justices may seem expedient.

Eleventh.—Prisoners under Charge or Conviction of any Crime shall attend Divine Service on Sundays, and on other Days when such Service is performed, unless prevented by Illness or by other reasonable Cause, to be allowed by the Keeper, or unless their Attendance shall be dispensed with by One of the Visiting Justices.

Twelfth.—No Prisoner shall be put in Irons by the Keeper of any Prison, except in case of urgent and absolute Necessity; and the Particulars of every such Case shall be forthwith entered in the Keeper's Journal, Justices may authorize the Employment of Prisoners in menial Offices. Keeper may confine a Prisoner with any other Class or Description of Prisoners.

Journal, and Notice forthwith given thereof to One of the Visiting Justices; and the Keeper shall not continue the Use of Irons on any Prisoner longer than Four Days, without an Order in Writing from a Visiting Justice, specifying the Cause thereof; which Order shall be preserved by the Keeper, as his Warrant for the same.

Thirteenth :— Every Prisoner maintained at the Expence of any County, Riding, Division, City, Town or Place, shall be allowed a sufficient Quantity of plain and wholesome Food, to be regulated by the Justices in General or Quarter Sessions assembled, (Regard being had [so far as may relate to convicted Prisoners] to the Nature of the Labour required free or performed by such Prisoners, so that the Allowance of Food may be duly apportioned thereto). And it shall be lawful for the Justices so order for such Prisoners of every Description, as are not able to work, or being able cannot procure Employment sufficient to sustain themselves by their Industry, or who may not be otherwise provided for, such Allowance of Food, as the said Justices shall from time to time think necessary for the Support of Health. Prisoners under the Care of the Surgeons shall be allowed such Diet as he may direct. Care shall be taken that all Provisions supplied to the Prisoners be of proper Quality and Weight. Scales and legal Weights and Measures shall be provided, open to the Use of any Prisoners, under such Restrictions as shall be made by the Regulations of such Prison.

Fourteenth :— Prisoners who shall not receive any Allowance from the County, whether confined for Debt or before Trial, for any supposed Crime or Offence, shall be allowed to procure for themselves, and to receive at proper Hours, any Food, Bedding, Clothing or other Necessaries, subject to a strict Examination, and under such Limitations and Restrictions, as to be prescribed by the Regulations to be made in Manner directed by this Act, as may be reasonable and expedient, to prevent Extravagance and Luxury within the Walls of a Prison; all Articles of Clothing and Bedding shall be examined, in order that it may be ascertained that such Articles are not likely to communicate Infection or facilitate Escape.

Fifteenth :— No Prisoner who is confined under the Sentence of any Court, nor any Prisoners confined in pursuance of any Conviction before a Justice, shall receive any Food, Clothing or Necessaries, other than the usual Allowance, except under such Regulations and Restrictions as to the Justices in General or Quarter Sessions assembled may appear expedient, with reference to the several Classes of Prisoners, or under special Circumstances, to be judged of by One or more of the Visiting Justices.

Sixteenth :— Due Provision shall be made for the Admission, at proper Times and under proper Restrictions, of Persons with whom Prisoners committed for Trial may desire to communicate; and such Rules and Regulations shall be made, by the Justices in General Quarter Sessions assembled, for the Admission of the Friends of convicted Prisoners, as to such Justices may seem expedient; and the Justices shall also inspect such Restrictions upon the Communication and Correspondence of all such Prisoners with their Friends, either within or without the Walls of the Prison, as they shall judge necessary for the Maintenance of good Order and Discipline in such Prison.

Seventeenth :— The Surgeons shall examine every Prisoner who shall be brought into the Prison, before he or she shall be passed into the proper Ward; and no Prisoner shall be discharged from Prison if labouring under any acute or dangerous Distemper, nor until, in the Opinion of the Surgeons, such Discharge is safe, unless such Prisoner shall require to be discharged. The Wearing Apparel of every Prisoner shall be ventilated and purified, if requisite, after which the same shall be returned to him or her, or in case of the insufficiency of such Clothing, then other sufficient Clothing shall be furnished, according to the Rules and Regulations of the Prison; but no Prisoner before Trial shall be compelled to wear a Prison Dress, unless his or her own Clothes be deemed insufficient or improper; or necessary to be preserved for the Purposes of Justice; and no Prisoner who has not been convicted of Felony shall be liable to be clothed in a Party coloured Dress; but if it be deemed expedient to have a Prison Dress for Prisoners not convicted of Felony, the same shall be plain.

Eighteenth :— Every Prisoner shall be provided with suitable Bedding; and every Male Prisoner with a separate Bed, Hammock, or Cot, either in a separate Cell, or in a Cell with not less than Two other Male Prisoners.

Nineteenth :— The Walls and Ceilings of the Wards, Cells, Rooms and Passages used by the Prisoners throughout every Prison, shall be scraped and Lime washed at least Once in the Year; the Day Rooms, Work Rooms, Passages and Sleeping Cells shall be washed or cleaned Once a Week, or oftener if requisite. Convenient Places for the Prisoners to wash themselves shall be provided, with an adequate allowance of Soap, Towels and Combs.

Twentieth :— All Prisoners shall be allowed as much Air and Exercise as may be deemed proper for the Preservation of their Health.

Twenty first :— No Tap shall be kept in any Prison; nor shall Spirituous Liquors of any Kind be admitted for the Use of any of the Prisoners therein, under any Pretence whatever, unless by a written Order of the Surgeons, specifying the Quantity and for whose Use. No Wine, Beer, Cider or other fermented Liquors shall be admitted for the Use of any Prisoners, except in such Quantities, in such Manner and at such Times, as shall be allowed by the Rules hereafter to be made in pursuance of this Act.

Twenty second :— No Gaming shall be permitted in any Prison; and the Keeper shall seize and destroy all Dice, Cards or other Instruments of Gaming.

Twenty third :— No Money under the Name of Garnish shall be taken from any Prisoner on his or her Entrance into the Prison, under any Pretence whatever.

Twenty fourth:— Upon the Death of a Prisoner, Notice thereof shall be given by the Keeper forthwith to One of the Visiting Justices, as well as to the Coroner of the District, and to the nearest Relative of the Deceased, whose practicable.

XI. And be it further enacted, That in case the Coroner shall hold an Inquest on the Body of any Prisoner who shall have died within the Prison, some of the Prisoners confined in that Prison shall be a Juror on such Inquest.

XII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Court of Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London, so far as respects the Prisons within the said City and Liberties thereof, and for Five Justices of the Peace in General or Quarter Sessions assembled, of such County, Riding or Division of a County, or of any District, City, Town or Place to which this Act shall extend, so far as respects the Prisons within their respective Jurisdictions, to make such further and additional Rules for the Government of such Prisons respectively, and for the Duties to be performed by the Officers of the same, as to them may seem expedient; provided, that no such further or additional Rules shall be enforced, until the same shall have been submitted, in London and Middlesex, to the Two Chief Justices, and elsewhere to the Justices of Goal Delivery or of Great Sessions respectively, at some Goal Delivery or Great Sessions to be held after the making such Rules, and until such Chief Justice or Justices of Goal Delivery or of Great Sessions respectively, shall have subscribed a Certificate or Declaration that they do not see any Thing contrary to Law therein: Provided always, that all such Rules and Regulations shall be consistent with and conformable to the Rules and Regulations in this Act contained: And the Justices in General or Quarter Sessions assembled shall and they are hereby required from time to time to cause Copies of so much of the Rules of each Prison as relates to the Treatment and Conduct of Prisoners confined therein, to be printed in legible Characters, and to be fixed up in conspicuous Parts of every Prison, as that every Prisoner may be enabled to have Access thereto; and all Rules and Regulations made and approved pursuant to the Directions of this Act shall be binding upon the Sheriff and upon all other Persons; provided, that no such Rules shall be so construed as to interfere with the Right or Duty of the Sheriff to appoint or remove any Keeper of a County Goal or other Prison subject to the Authority of such Sheriff.

XIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That all the Powers and Authorities given by this Act to Justices of the Peace in General or Quarter Sessions assembled, in the several Counties, and all other Acts to be done and performed by Justices of the Peace at any Sessions in pursuance of this Act, shall be exercised and performed, so far as regards the Prisons in the City of London and Liberties thereof, by the Court of Mayor and Aldermen of the said City, as heretofore has been accustomed, and not by the said Mayor and Aldermen as Magistrates at the General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held in and for the said City; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That the Gaoler and Keeper of every Goal and House of Correction, maintained at the Expence of any County, or of any such Riding or Division of a County as aforesaid, in England and Wales, or maintained by any District, City, Town or Place specified in the Schedule to this Act annexed marked (A.), shall make a Report in Writing, of the actual State and Condition of every such Goal and House of Correction, and of the Number and Description of Prisoners confined therein, to the Justices, at the several General or Quarter Sessions to be holden next after the Commencement of this Act, and at every ensuing General or Quarter Sessions in every such County, Riding, Division, District, City, Town or Place; and shall at every such General or Quarter Sessions attend and give Answer, upon Oath, to all such Inquiries as shall be made by the Justices at such Sessions, with respect to the State and Condition of every such Goal and House of Correction, and of the Prisoners confined therein, and with respect to any other Matters and Things relating to the said Goal and House of Correction, respecting which such Justices shall deem it necessary to make any Inquiry for the Purpose of proceeding and continuing to carry this Act into Execution, and of ascertaining how far every such Goal and House of Correction is capable of affording the Means of the Classification required by this Act.

XV. And be it further enacted, That the Chairman of the Michaelmas Quarter Sessions of the Peace, which shall be held next after the Commencement of this Act, for every County, Riding, Division, District, City, Town or Place to which this Act shall extend, shall transmit, within Fourteen Days after the Termination of such Sessions, to One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, a true and correct Account of their Proceedings at such Sessions for carrying this Act into Effect, and also a Copy of all such Rules and Regulations as shall be then in force for the Government of every Prison within the Jurisdiction of the Justices assembled at such Sessions, and shall also transmit at the same Time, or within Three Months afterwards, to such Secretary of State, Plans of all such Prisons, drawn upon a Scale of One sixteenth of an Inch to a Foot, and the said Copies and Plans shall be carefully preserved in the Office of such Secretary of State; and the Chairman of every such succeeding Michaelmas Quarter Sessions shall transmit, within Fourteen Days after the Termination of such Michaelmas Quarter Sessions, a true and correct Copy of all such Additions to such Rules and Regulations, or Alterations made therein, as shall have been duly sanctioned since the preceding Michaelmas Quarter Sessions, together with Plans, on the Scale above mentioned, of any Additions to the Buildings of such Prison, or Alterations made in the Construction thereof, during the same Period.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That the Justices in every County, Riding, Division, District, City, Town or Place, to which this Act shall extend, at the General or Quarter Sessions next after the Commencement enforcement of this Act, and at every ensuing General or Quarter Sessions, shall and they are hereby required to nominate Two or more Justices who shall consent thereto, to be Visitors of each Goal and House of Correction within their Jurisdiction, and to report the Names and Places of Abode of such Visiting Justices to One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and One or more of the Visiting Justices so appointed shall personally visit and inspect each Prison at least Three Times in each Quarter of a Year, and oftener if Occasion shall require, and shall examine into the State of the Buildings, so as to form a Judgment as to the Repairs, Additions or Alterations which may appear necessary, strict Regard being had to the Classification, Inspection, Instruction, Employment or Hard Labour, required by this Act, and shall further examine into the Behaviour and Conduct of the respective Officers, and the Treatment, Behaviour and Condition of the Prisoners, the Means of setting them to work, the Amount of their Earnings and the Expenses attending the Prisons, and of all Abscons within the same, and in Matters of presuing Necessity, and within the Powers of their Commission as Justices, shall take Cognizance thereof, and proceed to regulate and redress the same; and if the said Visitors shall at any Time observe, or be satisfactorily informed of any extraordinary Diligence or Merit in any Prisoners under their Inspection, they shall report the same to the Justices of Peace for the County, Riding, Division, District, City, Town or Place, at their next or any subsequent General or Quarter Session to be holden for the County or Place in which such Prison is situate, in order that such Justices may, if they shall think proper, recommend any such Offender to the Royal Navy, in such Degree or upon such Terms as to them shall seem meet; and if His Majesty shall thereupon be graciously pleased to shorten the Duration of such Prisoner's Confinement, such Prisoner shall, upon his or her Discharge, together with necessary Clothing, receive such Sum of Money for his or her Subsistence, as the Visiting Justices for the Time being shall think proper, so as such Sum shall not exceed Twenty Shillings, nor be less than Five Shillings, in case such Offender shall have been confined for the Space of One Year, and so in Proportion for any shorter Term of Confinement; and such Sums of Money, as also the Expense of such Clothing, shall be paid out of the County Rate, or other Rate applicable to the Expenses of Prisons.

XVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace for any County, Riding or Division, District, City, Town or Place, at his own free Will and Pleasure, and without being appointed a Visitor, to enter into and examine any Prison of such County, Riding, Division, District, City, Town or Place, at such Time or Times and so often as he shall see fit, and if he shall discover any Abuse or Abuses therein, he is hereby required to report them in Writing at the next General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace, or adjourned Sessions, which shall be holden for such County, Riding or Division, District, City, Town or Place; and then and so often as a Report of any Abuse or Abuses in any such Prison shall be made by the Visiting Justices, or either of them, or by any other Justice of the Peace for such County, Riding or Division, District, City, Town or Place, the Abuse or Abuses so reported shall be taken into immediate Consideration by the Justices of the Peace for such County, Riding or Division, District, City, Town or Place, at the General or Quarter Sessions at which such Report shall be made; and they are hereby required to adopt the most effectual Measures for inquiring into and rectifying such Abuse or Abuses as soon as the Nature of the Case will allow.

XVIII. Provided also, and be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to authorize or empower any Visiting or other Justice of the Peace to converse or hold any intercourse or Communication, except as hereinafter mentioned, with any Person who may be committed by lawful Authority to any such Goal or other Prison, there to be kept in safe and close Confinement, but that, notwithstanding, it shall and may be lawful for any Visiting Justice, so appointed as aforesaid, to visit and inspect, at all Times when he shall think proper, the Apartments or Place in which such Person shall be kept or confined in any Prison, and also to see such Person, and to hear or receive any Representation from him or her as to his or her Treatment in such Prison, and to enquire and enquire into the same; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That the Keeper of every Goal and House of Correction, to which this Act shall extend, shall, previously to the First Day of every Assizes, Great Sessions or Sessions of Goal Delivery, make out a true and just Return in Writing of all Persons in his Custody, who have been sentenced to Hard Labour by the Court at any previous Assizes, Great Sessions or Sessions of Goal Delivery, specifying in such Return the Manner in which such Sessions have been carried into Execution, the particular Species of Labour in which such Prisoners have been employed, and the average Number of Hours in a Day for which such Persons so sentenced have been kept to work; which Return shall be signed by such Keeper, and also by one at least of the Visiting Justices, who shall add three-such Observations as the Case and Circumstances may appear to him to require; and such Return shall be delivered to the Justice of Assize and Goal Delivery, and of Great Sessions, and shall be kept and filed by the proper Officer amongst the Records of the Court.

XX. And be it further enacted, That the Keeper of every Prison within England and Wales, having the Custody of Prisoners charged with Felony, shall, on the Second Day next after the Termination of every Session of the Peace, Session of Oyer and Terminer, or Session of Goal Delivery, Great Session, or other Session held for the Trial of Prisoners being in such Prison, whether such Session shall be held under any Commission, or by virtue of any Charter or Precept, transmit by the Post of that Day to One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, a Calendar containing the Names, the Crimes and the Sentences of every Prisoner tried at such Session, and distinguishing, with respect to all Prisoners capitally convicted, such of them as may have been reprieved by the Court, and stating the Day on which Execution is to be done upon those who have not been reprieved; and that whenever the Court shall adjourn for any longer Time than One Week, the Day upon which the Adjournment shall be made shall be deemed the Termination of the Session within the Meaning of this Act; and every Keeper of any such Prison, who shall neglect or refuse to transmit such Calendar, or shall wilfully transmit a Calendar containing any false or imperfect Statement, shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sums of Twenty Pounds.

XXI. And for the better ensuring the strict Observance of the Rules and Regulations to be made for the Government of the Prisons to which this Act shall extend, be it enacted, That at each Quarter Sessions of the Peace, the Keeper of every Prison within the Jurisdiction of the Court holding such Session shall and is hereby required to deliver or cause to be delivered to such Court, a Certificate, signed by himself, which Certificate shall contain a Declaration how far the Rules laid down for the Government of his Prison have been complied with, and shall point out any and every Deviation therefrom; which may have taken place; and if any Keeper of a Prison shall neglect to deliver, or cause to be delivered, such Certificate as aforesaid, he shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Ten Pounds.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That One Week before the Michaelmas Session in every Year, the Keeper of every Prison to which this Act shall extend shall make up a Return of the State of his Prison for the Year then ending, in the Form contained in the Schedule annexed to this Act, marked (B), and shall deliver the same, or cause the same to be delivered, to the Clerk of the Peace or his Deputy, for the Use of the Justices assembled at such Quarter Sessions.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That at every General or Quarter Sessions, the Visiting Justices shall make a Report in Writing of the State and Condition of each Prison within their Jurisdiction, of what Repairs, Additions or Alterations shall have been made or may be required, and of any Abuse or Abuses which they may have observed, or of which they may have received Information, in the Management of the Prisons, as well as of the general State of the Prisoners, as to Morals, Discipline, Employment and Hard Labour, and Observance of Rules; and the Justices assembled at such Sessions shall proceed to consider every such Report, and to act forthwith as they may see Occasion.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That a General Report, founded on the Report of the Visiting Justices, on the Report of the Chaplains or Chaplains, and on the Certificates of the Keepers of the several Prisons, shall be prepared by the Clerk of the Peace, and submitted to the Justices assembled at every Michaelmas Quarter Sessions; and when approved by the Justices at such Sessions, such Report shall be signed by the Chairman of such Sessions, and shall be by him transmitted (together with a Copy of the Schedule (B) delivered by the Keeper) to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; a Copy of which Report, with the said Schedule attached to it, shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament, within One Month next ensuing, if Parliament shall be sitting, or within One Month after the Time when Parliament shall next sit.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Justices assembled at the General or Quarter Sessions, and they are hereby empowered and required, to nominate and appoint such Keepers, Matrons, Taskmasters, Schoolmasters and other Officers, as to them may seem expedient, for every Prison within their Jurisdiction to which this Act shall extend, except the Keeper of the Common Gaol; and to remove, as Occasion may require, all Officers so by them nominated and appointed: Provided always, that no Woman shall be Keeper of any Prison in which Male Prisoners are confined.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Justices assembled at the General or Quarter Sessions, and they are hereby empowered, to fix Salaries and Allowances, to each Account, and subject to such Conditions as to them shall seem meet, for the Keeper of the Common Gaol, and for every Keeper, Matron, Taskmaster, Schoolmaster and Officer of each Gaol and House of Correction within their Jurisdiction; and to order such Salaries, and the Expence of such Allowances, to be paid out of the Rate lawfully applicable thereto; and the Salaries and Allowances so fixed, to alter, reduce, augment, suspend or stop from time to time, as Occasion shall require: And in case any Keeper or Keeper of any Prison shall, from confirmed Sickness, Age or Infirmary, become incapable of executing the Office in Person, the Justices of the Peace at any General or Quarter Sessions of the County, Riding, Division, District, City, Town or Place respectively, shall take the Circumstances of the Case into their Consideration; and if such Justices shall deem it expedient, they are hereby empowered to grant to such Keeper or Keeper such an Allowance as they in their Discretion shall think proportioned to the Merit and Time of his Service, and may order the Payment thereof out of the Rate lawfully applicable to the holding or repairing of such Gaols and Prisons: Provided always, that the annual Amount paid by way of Superannuation or Allowance to any retired Keeper of any Prison, shall not exceed the Amount of Two Thirds of the Salary fixed for the succeeding Keeper of such Prison.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That whenever the Keeper or any other Officer of any Common Gaol or other Prison to which this Act shall extend, shall be removed from or resign his or her Office, or shall depart this Life, every Keeper or other Officer so removed or resigning, and his or her Family, and the Family of every such deceased Keeper or other Officer, shall forthwith quit the Possession of the House or Apartments in which he, she or they shall have previously resided by virtue of such Office; and that if any Keeper or other Officer so removed or resigning, or any Members of the Family of any Keeper or other Officer so removed, resigning or departing this Life, shall refuse or neglect to quit such Possession for Forty eight Hours after Notice given to him, her or them, in Writing, by the Under Sheriff, or other Officer appointed by the Sheriff, in case the House or Apartments of which Possession shall be required shall be in the Common Gaol, and by the Clerk of the Peace in case such House or Apartments shall be in any House of Correction, any Two Justices, upon Proof made before them of XXIX. And be it further enacted, That no Clergyman so nominated shall officiate in any Prison unless he shall have obtained a Licence for that Purpose from the Bishop of the Diocese wherein the Prison is situate, nor for any longer Time than while such Licence shall continue in force; and Notice of every such Nomination shall, within One Month after it shall take place, be transmitted to the Bishop by the Clerk of the Peace or Town Clerk.

Duties of Chaplain.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That every such Chaplain shall on every Sunday, and on Christmas Day and Good Friday, perform the appointed Morning and Evening Services of the Church of England, and preach at such times or times between the Hours of Nine and Five of the Day, as shall be required by the Rules and Regulations to be made as directed by this Act, and shall catechize or instruct such Prisoners as may be willing to receive Instruction; and shall likewise visit the Prison on such other Days, and perform such other Duties as shall be required by the Rules and Regulations to be made as directed by this Act; and shall administer the Holy Sacrament of the Lord's Supper to such Prisoners as shall be desirous, and so such Chaplain may deem to be in a proper Frame of Mind to receive the same; and such Chaplain shall also frequently visit every Room and Cell in the Prison occupied by Prisoners, and shall direct such Books to be distributed and read, and such Lessons to be taught in such Prison, as he may deem proper for the religious and moral Instruction of the Prisoners therein; and he shall visit those who are in solitary Confinement; and it shall be his particular Duty to afford his spiritual Assistance to all Persons under Warrant or Order for Execution; and he shall have free Access to all Persons convicted of Murder, say Law, Statute or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding; except to such Persons as shall be of a religious Persuasion different from that of the Established Church, who shall have made a Request that a Minister of such Persuasion shall be allowed to visit them; and every such Chaplain shall communicate from time to time to the Visiting Justices any Abuse or Impropriety which may have come to his Knowledge; and he shall further keep a Journal, in which he shall enter the Times of his Attendance on the Performance of his Duty, with any Observations which may occur to him as the Execution thereof, and such Journal shall be kept in the Prison, but shall regularly be laid before the Justices for their Inspection at every Quarter Sessions, and shall be signed by the Chairman of the Sessions, in proof of the same having been there produced; and if it shall appear to the Justices in General or Quarter Sessions assembled, that any Chaplain is incompetent to the due Performance of his Duties, or is unfit to be continued in his Office, or shall have refused or wilfully neglected to perform the Duties required of him by the Rules and Regulations to be made as directed by this Act, they are hereby empowered to remove him from such Office.

Journal to be kept by him.

Quarter Sessions may remove Chaplain.

Dismissing Ministers allowed to visit Prisoners.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That if any Prisoner shall be of a religious Persuasion differing from that of the Established Church, a Minister of such Persuasion, at the special Request of such Prisoner, shall be allowed to visit him or her at proper and reasonable Times, under such Restrictions imposed by the Visiting Justices as shall guard against the Introduction of improper Persons, and as shall prevent improper Communications.

Power to Quarter Sessions.

XXXII. And be it enacted, That in case any Chaplain shall from confirmed Sickness, Age or Infirmary, become incapable of executing the Office in Person, the Justices of the Peace, at any General or Quarter Sessions

Southern of the County, Riding, Division, District, City, Town or Place respectively, shall take the Circumstances of the Case into their Consideration; and if such Justices shall deem it expedient, they are hereby empowered to grant to such Chaplain such Allowance as they in their Discretion shall think proportionate to the Merits and Time of his Services, and may order the Payment out of the Rates lawfully applicable to the building and repairing such Gaols and Prisons: Provided always, that the Amount so paid by way of Superannuation or Allowance to any retired Chaplain of any one Prison, shall not exceed the Amount of Two Thirds of the Salary paid for the succeeding Chaplain of such Prison.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That the Justices in General or Quarter Sessions assembled shall and they are hereby required from time to time to appoint a Surgeon, being a Member of one of the Royal Colleges of Surgeons, to each of the Prisons within their Jurisdiction to which this Act shall extend; and every such Surgeon shall and is hereby required to visit every Prison to which he shall be so appointed Twice at least in every Week, and oftener if necessary, and to see every Prisoner confined therein, whether Criminal or Debtor, and to report to every General or Quarter Sessions the Condition of the Prison, and the State of Health of the Prisoners under his Care; and he shall further keep a Journal, in which he shall enter the Date of every Attendance on the Performance of his Duty, with any Observations which may occur to him in the Execution thereof, and shall sign the same with his Name; and such Journal shall be kept in the Prison, but shall regularly be laid before the Justices for their Inspection at every Quarter Sessions, and shall be signed by the Chairman of the Sessions, in proof of the same having been there produced; and it shall and may be lawful for the Justices, at every General or Quarter Sessions after such Appointment, to direct a reasonable Sum to be paid as Salary to such Surgeon, and also such Sums of Money as shall be due for Medicines, and other Articles for the Sick.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act, there shall be kept in every Prison to which this Act shall extend, a Book, in which the Chaplain and every other Officer of the said Prisons not residing within such Prisons, but according to or required to attend on such Prisons, shall regularly insert the Date of every Visit made by such Chaplain or other such Officer respectively; and every such Entry shall be signed with the Name and in the proper Handwriting of such Chaplain or other Officer respectively, and shall contain such Remarks as may be thought necessary on the Occasion of any such Visit; and every Keeper of every such Prison shall be responsible for the safe Custody of such Book, whole, unannotated and unaltered, and shall at all Times, when required so to do, produce such Book for Inspection to the Justices at every General or Quarter Sessions, and to the Visiting Justices, or to any Justice of the Peace for the County, Riding, Division, District, City, Town or Place wherein such Prison shall be situate; and the Chaplain shall, on every Michaelmas Quarter Sessions, deliver to the Justices a Statement of the Condition of the Prisoners and his Observations thereupon.

XXXV. And Whereas Provision is made in this Act for supplying poor Prisoners with Food and Clothing: And Whereas Requests have been made, and Benefactions have been given, for supplying such poor criminal Prisoners with these Necessaries: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Justices in General or Quarter Sessions assembled, to apply such Requests or Benefactions for the Benefit of such poor Prisoners, either by providing them with the Implements of Labour, or with the Means of returning to their own Homes, or in such Manner as to the Magistrates may appear expedient.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That the Chief Justices of the Courts of King's Bench and Common Pleas, and the Chief Baron of the Court of Exchequer, or any One of them, together with the Lord Mayor and Two of the Aldermen, or with Three of the Aldermen of the City of London, for and in respect of the Gaols and Prisons within the City of London and the Liberties thereof, and the said Chief Justice or Chief Baron, or any One of them, with Three Justices of the Peace of the Counties of Middlesex and Surrey respectively, for and in respect of the Gaols and Prisons in the Counties of Middlesex and Surrey, and the Justices of Gaol Delivery and Great Sessions, and the Justices of Peace of every other County, Riding and Division of a County, at any General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden for such County, Riding or Division respectively, in their respective Jurisdictions, and all Commissioners for charitable Uses, shall do their best Endeavours and Diligence to examine and discover the several Gifts, Legacies and Bequests bestowed and given for the Benefit and Advantages of the poor Prisoners in the several Gaols and Prisons to which this Act shall extend, and to send for any Deeds, Wills, Writings and Books of Account whatsoever, and any Papers concerned therein, and to examine them upon Oath to make true Discovery thereof (and which such Chief Justices, Chief Barons, Justices of Gaol Delivery and Great Sessions, Mayors, Aldermen and Justices of the Peace, have hereby full Power and Authority to do), and to order and settle the Payment, Recovery and Receipt of all such Gifts, Legacies and Bequests, when so discovered and ascertained, in such easy and expeditious Manner, that the Prisoners for the future may not be defrauded, but receive the full Benefit thereof, according to the true Intent of the Donors, or the Provisions of this Act; and that Lists or Tables of such Gifts, Legacies and Bequests, for the Benefit of the Prisoners in every Gaol or Prison respectively, fairly written, shall be registered by the Clerks of the Peace of the respective Counties and Places in the Rolls of their respective Sessions, without Fee or Reward, and Copies thereof shall be hung up in such Gaols and Prisons respectively, in some open Room or Place, to which the Prisoners may have Recourse at Occasion shall require.

XXXVII. And whereas Persons are often committed to Prison for Trial, who are willing to be employed in such Work or Labour as can be conveniently executed or done in the Prisons to which they are so committed, and it is fit that such Persons should be so employed rather than that they should be obliged to remain idle during their Confinement: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any One or more Visiting Justice or Justices of any Prison to which this Act shall extend, to authorize, by an Order in Writing, the Employment of any such Prisoners, with their own Consent, in any such Work or Labour; and it shall be lawful for the Keeper of such Prison to employ such Prisoners in such Work or Labour accordingly, and to pay to such Prisoners any such Wages or Portion of the same, and at such Periods, as shall be directed by such Justice or Justices: Provided always, that it shall not be lawful to place together, on account of such Employment, any Prisoners who would otherwise be kept separate under the Provisions of this Act.

XXXVIII. And whereas Persons convicted of Offences are frequently sentenced to Imprisonment without being sentenced to Hard Labour: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for Two or more Visiting Justices of any Prison, to order that all such Persons confined in such Prison, in pursuance of any Sentence or Conviction, except such Prisoners as shall maintain themselves, shall be set to some Work or Labour not severe: And it is hereby declared, that no such Prisoner, who shall be of Ability to earn, and who shall have the Means of earning or of otherwise providing for his own Subsistence, shall have any Claim to be supported at the Expence of the County, Riding or Division, or by the Sheriff or the Keeper of the Prison; provided that when such Ability shall cease by reason of Sickness, Infirmary, the want of sufficient Work, or from any other Cause, every such Person shall, during the Continuance of his Inability, receive such Provision and Support as shall be directed for other convicted Prisoners in the same Prison; and the Keeper of every such Prison shall keep an Account of the Work done by every Prisoner so set to work as aforesaid, and shall account to such Prisoner for so much of the net Profit which such Prisoner shall have earned, or for such daily or other Allowance for the Work and Labour done by such Prisoner, as shall be directed either by the Rules and Regulations of such Prison, or in case of no Provision being made on this Head by those Rules and Regulations, three for each Part of the net net Profit, or for such daily or other Allowance as shall be directed by the Visiting Justices, and shall pay the Assent of all Accoutmentals of such Allowance to such Prisoner at his or her Discharge.

XXXIX. And whereas it is desirable that Prisoners discharged from Prison should be supplied with the Means of returning to their Families, or to their Place of Settlement, or to some Place of Employment, where they may be engaged in a Life of honest Labour for their Maintenance, and prevented from pursuing evil Courses: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any One or more of the Visiting Justice or Justices of any Prison to which this Act shall extend, from whence any Prisoner shall be discharged, to direct that such moderate Sum of Money shall be given and paid to and on every such Prisoner so discharged, who shall not have the Means of returning to his or her Family or Place of Settlement, or resorting to any Place of Employment or honest Occupation, as in the Judgment of such Justice or Justices shall be requisite and necessary for such Purpose, under all the Circumstances attending the Case of any such Prisoner; and that such Sum of Money shall be paid by the Keeper of such Prison to or for the Use of such Prisoner, for the Purpose aforesaid, and that all such Sums shall be provided for, either out of such Beggar or Beneficence as aforesaid, or in such Manner as is by this Act directed with respect to the Expence of the Support and Maintenance of the Prisoners in such Prison respectively.

XL. And be it further enacted, That if any Person, in Contravention of the existing Rules, shall carry or bring, or attempt or endeavour to carry or bring into any Prison to which this Act shall extend, any Spirituous or Fermented Liquor, it shall be lawful for the Gaoler, Keeper, Turnkey or any other of the Abolitioners to the said Gaoler or Keeper, in apprehend or cause to be apprehended such Offender, and to carry him or her before a Justice of the Peace (who is lawfully empowered to hear and determine such Offence in a summary Way), and if he shall lawfully convict such Person of such Offence, he shall forthwith commit such Offender to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, there to be kept in Custody for any Time not exceeding Three Months, without Bail or Mainprize, unless such Offender shall immediately pay down such Sum of Money, not exceeding Twenty Pounds, and not less than Ten Pounds, as the Justice shall impose upon such Offender to be paid, One Moiety to the Informer, and the other Moiety in Aid of the Rate applicable to the Maintenance of such Prison; and if any Justice shall receive Information upon Oath, that any Spirituous or Fermented Liquor is unlawfully kept or disposed of in any Prison, he may enter and search, or cause his Warrant to enter and search for such Liquor; and in case it shall be found, it shall be lawful for the Person so finding to seize the same, and cause it to be disposed of as the Justice shall direct; and if any Gaoler or Keeper of any Prison shall sell, use, lend or give away, or knowingly permit or suffer to be sold, used, lent or given away, in such Prison, or brought into the same, any Spirituous or Fermented Liquor, in Contravention of the existing Rules of such Prison, he shall for every such Offence, sever and above any other Punishment by this Act enacted, forfeit and lose the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That the Keeper of every Prison shall have Power to hear all Complaints touching any of the following Offences: (That is to say,) Disobedience of any of the Rules of the Prison; Assaults by Two Persons confined in such Prison upon another, when no dangerous Weapon or Bruise is given; profane Cursing and Swearing; any indecent Behaviour, and any irreverent Behaviour at Chapel, all of which are declared to be Offences by this Act, if committed by any Description of Prisoners; Absence from Chapel without Leave; Idleness or Negligence in work, or wilful Mismanagement.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That the Keeper of every Prison shall have Power to hear all Complaints touching any of the following Offences: (That is to say,) Disobedience of any of the Rules of the Prison; Assaults by Two Persons confined in such Prison upon another, when no dangerous Weapon or Bruise is given; profane Cursing and Swearing; any indecent Behaviour, and any irreverent Behaviour at Chapel, all of which are declared to be Offences by this Act, if committed by any Description of Prisoners; Absence from Chapel without Leave; Idleness or Negligence in work, or wilful Mismanagement.

ment of it, which are also declared to be Offences by this Act, if committed by any Prisoner under Charge or Custody of any Crime; and the said Keeper may examine any Persons teaching such Offences, and may detestate thereupon, and may punish all such Offences by ordering any Offender to close Confinement in the refractory or solitary Cells, and by keeping such Offenders upon Bread and Water only, for any Term not exceeding Three Days.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That in case any Criminal Prisoner shall be guilty of any repeated Offence against the Rules of the Prison, or shall be guilty of any greater Offence than the Gaoler or Keeper is by this Act empowered to punish, the said Gaoler or Keeper shall forthwith report the same to the Visiting Justices, or One of them for the Time being; and any One such Justice, or any other Justice acting in and for the County, or Riding or Division of a County, or for the District, City, Town or Place to which such Prison belongs, shall have power to inquire upon Oath, and to determine concerning any such Matter so reported to him or them, and to order the Offender to be punished by close Confinement for any Term not exceeding One Month, or by personal Correction in the case of Prisoners convicted of Felony, or sentenced to Hard Labour.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall convey or cause to be conveyed into any Prison to which this Act shall extend, any Mask, Vase, or other Disguise, or any Instrument or Arms proper to facilitate the Escape of any Prisoner, and the same shall deliver or cause to be delivered to any Prisoner in such Prison, or to any other Person therein, for the Use of any such Prisoner, without the Consent or Privy of the Keeper of such Prison, every such Person shall be deemed to have delivered such Vase or Disguise, Instrument or Arms, with Intent to aid and assist such Prisoner to escape or attempt to escape; and if any Person shall, by any Means whatsoever, aid and assist any Prisoner to escape or in attempting to escape from any Prison, every Person so offending, whether an Escape be actually made or not, shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof, shall be transported beyond the Seas for any Term not exceeding Fourteen Years.

XLIV. And, to the intent that Prosecutions for Escapes, Breaches of Prison, and Rescues, may be carried on with as little Trouble and Expence as is possible, Be it enacted, That any Offender escaping, breaking Prison, or being rescued therefrom, may be tried either in the Jurisdiction where the Offence was committed, or in that where he or she shall be apprehended and returned; and in case of any Prosecution for any such Escape, Attempt to escape, Breach of Prison or Rescue, either against the Offender escaping or attempting to escape, or having broken Prison, or having been rescued, or against any other Person or Persons concerned therein, or aiding, abetting or assisting the same, a Certificate given by the Clerk of Assize or other Clerk of the Court in which such Offender shall have been convicted, shall, together with due Proof of the Identity of the Person, be sufficient Evidence in the Court and Jury of the Nature and Fact of the Conviction, and of the Species and Period of Confinement to which such Person was sentenced.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That in case it shall appear at any Time to the Justices at any General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace, holden in any County or Riding, or in any such Division of a County as aforesaid, or in any District, City, Town or Place to which this Act shall extend, by any Report made under the Provisions of this Act, of the State of any Prison, or such Justices at such Sessions, or by any Presentment at any Time made by the Grand Jury at the Assize, Great Sessions, Session of Goal Delivery or Session of the Peace, to be holden for any such County, Riding, Division, District, City, Town or Place, or by any Presentment at any Time made by any Two or more Justices of the Peace in and for the same, and laid before the Justices at such General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace, that any Goal or House of Correction, to which this Act shall extend, within such County, Riding, Division, District, City, Town or Place, is insufficient, inconvenient, or in want of Repair or otherwise inadequate to give Effect to the Rules and Regulations prescribed by this Act, or that there is a Necessity for the Erection of any new Goal or House of Correction: the Justices assembled at such General or Quarter Sessions, or at the General or Quarter Sessions, or Adjournment thereof, next after any such Report or Presentment made, shall and they are hereby required to cause Notice to be given, Three Times at least, in some public Newspaper circulating within such County, Riding, Division, District, City, Town, or Place, of such Report or Presentment having been laid before such Sessions, and of their Intention to take the same into Consideration at the next ensuing or some subsequent General or Quarter Sessions, or Adjournment thereof; and in case the Justices at such last-mentioned Sessions, or the major Part of them, shall resolve that such Report or Presentment is well founded, then it shall and may be lawful for such Justices, and they are hereby required, at the Sessions mentioned in such Notice, or at a subsequent Session, or Adjournment thereof, with the like Notice, to take such Measures, either by Contract or otherwise, as shall appear to them to be requisite and proper, for the altering, enlarging or repairing, or for building or rebuilding any such Goal or House of Correction, regard being had, in the case of Contracts, to the Reasonableness of the Price and Responsibility of the Contractors; and every Contractor shall give sufficient Security for the due Performance of his Contract to the Clerk of the Peace or Town Clerk for the County, Riding, Division, District, City, Town or Place, to be respected at all reasonable Rates by any Justice, or by any other Person contributing to the Rate of such County, Riding, Division, District, City, Town or Place, without Fee or Reward.

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That after such Presentment and Notice as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for the Justices in General or Quarter Sessions assembled, or the major Part of them, and they shall have full Power and Authority, to purchase any Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Ways, Watercourses and other Easements, for the Purpose of enlarging or rendering concessions, or for the building or rebuilding any Prison, and to direct the Property so purchased to be conveyed to such Person or Persons as the said Justices shall think fit, in trust for the Purpose aforesaid, under the Regulations and Directions in this Act contained; and such Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Ways, Watercourses, or other Easements, shall, when enclosed and added to such Prison, be deemed and taken to be Parts of such Prison, and to be within the County, Riding, Division, City, District, Town or Place, to the Use of which such Prison may be applied, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, so long as the same shall be used by such County, Riding, Division, City, District, Town or Place for the Purpose of this Act, and no longer.

When Prisons become unsafe or inconvenient, Two Justices (One a Visitor) may order Repairs, and shall report to Sessions.

XLVII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That if it shall at any Time happen, that any such Goal or House of Correction shall become unsafe or unfit for the Custody of the Prisoners confined therein, between the several Terms of holding the General or Quarter Sessions, it shall and may be lawful for any Two or more Justices (one of whom shall be a Visiting Justice for the Prison) for the County, Riding, Division, District, City, Town or Place, to order such Repairs and Alterations to be immediately done and made, as may be necessary and sufficient for the safe and proper Custody of such Prisoners and the upholding of such Prison; and such Justices shall report the same to the next Court of General or Quarter Sessions to be holden for such County, Riding, Division, District, City, Town or Place; and such Court is hereby authorized to order the Payment of such Sum or Sums of Money as shall have been properly expended in such Repairs or Alterations as aforesaid.

XLVIII. And be it further enacted, That every Goal, House of Correction or other Prison, for any County, Riding or Division, County of a City, or County of a Town, or for any Town, Liberty, Soke or Place, not being a County, but having an exclusive Jurisdiction for the Trial of Felonies or Misdemeanors committed therein, which is now built or shall hereafter be built, together with the Ground whereon the same shall stand, and every Court, Yard, Building and Appurtenance thereto belonging, with every Addition that shall hereafter be made thereto, which said Goal, House of Correction, or other Prison, Court, Yard, Building, Appurtenance or Addition, is or shall be situate within the Limits of any other County, Riding or Division, County of a City, County of a Town, or of any other Town, Liberty, Soke or Place, not being a County, but having an exclusive Jurisdiction for the Trial of Felonies or Misdemeanors committed therein, shall be deemed and taken to be Part of the County, Riding or Division, County of a City, County of a Town, or of the Town, Liberty, Soke or Place for which the same shall be used as a Goal, House of Correction, or other Prison, so long as the same shall be so used, and no longer; and the Justices of the Peace, Mayors, Justices, Clerks, Constables, and other Officers of such County, Riding or Division, County of a City, County of a Town, or of such Town, Liberty, Soke or Place, for which the same shall be used as a Goal, House of Correction, or other Prison, shall, during the Time that the same shall be so used, have as full Power and Authority therein, as they would have if the same was not situate within the Limits of such other County, Riding or Division, County of a City, County of a Town, or of such Town, Liberty, Soke or Place; any Charter, Law or Usage to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Plans for Prisons to provide separate Places of Confinement, Classification, &c. of Felons.

XLIX. And be it further enacted, That in the altering, enlarging, repairing, building or rebuilding of any Goal or House of Correction under this Act, the Justices shall adopt such Plans as shall afford the most effectual Means for the Security, Classification, Health, Inspection, Employment and Religious and Moral Instruction of the Prisoners; the Building shall be so constructed or applied, and the Keepers' and Officers' Apartments so situated, as may best ensure the Safety of the Prison, and facilitate the Control and Superintendance of those committed thereto; distinct Wards, and dry and airy Cells shall be provided, in which Prisoners of the several Descriptions and Classes hereinafter enumerated may be respectively confined; and it shall be considered as a primary and inalterable Rule, that the Male Prisoners shall in all Cases be separated from the Female, so as to prevent any Communication between them: Provision shall be made for the Separation of Prisoners into the following Classes: If a Goal; First, Debtors and Persons confined for Contempt of Court on Civil Process; Secondly, Prisoners convicted of Felony; Thirdly, Those committed upon Trial of Misdemeanors; Fourthly, Those committed on Charge or Suspicion of Felony; Fifthly, Those committed on Charge of Misdemeanor, or for Want of Sureties; If a House of Correction; First, Prisoners convicted of Felony; Secondly, Prisoners convicted upon Trial of Misdemeanors; Thirdly, Those committed on Charge or Suspicion of Felony; Fourthly, Those committed on Charge of Misdemeanors; Fifthly, Vagrants. Places of Confinement shall also be set apart in every Goal and House of Correction for such Prisoners as are intended to be examined as Witnesses in behalf of the Crown in any Prosecutions, and such further Means of Classification shall be adopted as the Justices shall deem conducive to good Order and Discipline; separate Rooms shall be provided as Infirmary or Sick Wards for the Two Sexes, and as far as is practicable for the different Descriptions of Prisoners; and warm and cold Baths, or Bathing Tubs, shall be introduced into such Parts of the Prison as may be best adapted for the Use of the several Classes; proper Yards shall be allotted to the different Classes for Air and Exercise, and each Class shall have the Use of a Privy, and be furnished with a Supply of good Water; a separate sleeping Cell shall, if possible, be provided for every Prisoner; but as the Numbers may sometimes be greater than the Prison is calculated to contain, under the Arrangement required by this Act, and as it is expedient that Two Male Prisoners only should never be lodged together, a small Proportion of Cells or Rooms shall be provided for the Reception of Three or more Persons; every Prison shall contain Rooms and Places properly fitted up for the Exercise of Labour and Industry, and also a competent Number of Cells adapted to solitary Confinement, for the Punishment of refractory Prisoners, and for the Reception of such Persons as may by Law be confined therein;

therein; a Chapel shall be provided in every Prison, in such a convenient Situation as to be easy of Access to all the Prisoners; it shall be fitted up with separate Divisions for Males and Females, and also for the different Classes; it shall be strictly set apart for Religious Worship, or for the occasional Religious and Moral Instructions of the Prisoners, and shall never be appropriated to or employed for any other Purpose whatsoever; in Cases where the Justices shall deem it necessary that the Chaplain should reside, either occasionally or permanently, within the Prison or near to it, proper Apartments shall be provided therein, or in the Neighbourhood thereof, for his Accommodation.

L. And be it further enacted, That in case it shall be expressly provided that the Place wherein any old Prison is situated is improper, and that the Prison ought to be removed in some other Part of the County, Riding, Division, District, City, Town or Place, or that a new Goal or House of Correction is necessary, the Justices in their General or Quarter Sessions assembled shall take such Presentment into their Consideration, and if it shall be resolved by the Justices assembled at Two successive General or Quarter Sessions, or the major Part of them, that such old Prison ought to be removed, or that such new Prison is necessary, it shall be lawful for the Justices so assembled to contract for the building of a new Goal or House of Correction in any part of the County, Riding, Division, District, City, Town or Place which they may deem most eligible; and whenever the Site of any Prison shall be changed, and the old Site shall be no longer necessary for the Purpose of a Prison, it shall be lawful for the Justices so assembled to make sale thereof, (unless it be the Property of the King's Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, or of some private Individual), for the best Price that can be gotten for the same, and to direct the Purchase Money to be paid to the Treasurer of such County, Riding, Division, District, City, Town or Place, and to direct the Trustee of such Lands and Hereditaments, his Heirs, Executors or Administrators, (according to the Tenure thereof), and the Clerk of the Peace or Town Clerk, to convey the Inheritance of such Site to the Purchaser; and every such Conveyance, together with the Treasurer's Receipt for the Purchase Money, shall give a good and valid Title to the Purchaser; and the Purchase Money shall be applied by the Treasurer in Aid of the Rate of such County, Riding, Division, District, City, Town or Place; and whenever the Building of any Court of Justice is or shall be so attached to any Prison, as to render it impracticable or inconvenient to repair, enlarge, improve or rebuild the said Prison, without also altering or pulling down the Building of the said Court, then and in such Cases it shall be lawful for the Justices in General or Quarter Sessions assembled, to cause such Courts to be altered or pulled down, or to be rebuilt, either on the same or on any other Site, subject to the same Provisions as aforesaid by this Act appointed with respect to Goals.

LL. And be it further enacted, That whenever the Justices in General or Quarter Sessions assembled shall deem it necessary that the Prisoners, or any Part of them, shall be removed from any House of Correction within their Jurisdiction, in order that the same may be repaired, improved, enlarged or rebuilt, or on account of any contagious or infectious Disease therein, or of the over-crowded State of such House of Correction, or for any of the Purposes of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the said Justices, by an Order in Writing to be signed by the Chairman of such General or Quarter Sessions, to direct the Keeper of such House of Correction to remove such Prisoners to such other Place or Place of Confinement within their Jurisdiction as the said Justices shall appoint, and to confine such Prisoners therein during the Time such Necessity shall exist; and that when such House of Correction shall be repaired, enlarged, improved or rebuilt, it shall be lawful for the said Justices, by a like Order in Writing, to direct the said Keeper to remove to the House of Correction so repaired, enlarged, improved or rebuilt; or when such contagious Disease shall have ceased to exist, or the Purposes for which the Prisoners shall have been so removed shall have been answered, to remove back to the House of Correction from whence the Prisoners came all such Prisoners as shall then remain in his Custody; and that if for any of the Causes above recited, the said Justices so assembled as aforesaid shall deem it necessary to remove the Debtors and other Prisoners from any Common Goal, the said Justices shall give due and sufficient Notice thereof in Writing to the Sheriff of such County, Riding, Division, City or Town, wheresoever it shall be lawful for the said Sheriff to remove such Debtors and other Prisoners to such Prison or other Place of Confinement within his Jurisdiction as the Justices with the Consent of the said Sheriff shall appoint, and in case that therein during the Time such Common Goal shall be repairing, enlarging, improving or rebuilding, or during the Continuance of such contagious Disease on account of which the said Prisoners were removed, or during such Time as shall be requisite for any Purposes of this Act; and that when such Goal shall be made fit for the Receipt and safe keeping of such Debtors and other Prisoners, then it shall be lawful for the said Sheriff to remove thither all such Prisoners as shall then be in his Custody; and further, if a new Common Goal shall be erected, or a Prison previously used for other Purposes shall be adapted to the Use of a Common Goal, and the Justices in General or Quarter Sessions assembled shall, with the Consent of the Sheriff, order and declare that from a Day to be named such new Goal or Prison newly adapted to such Purpose, shall become the Common Goal, it shall be lawful for the Sheriff on that Day, or at any Time thereafter, to remove all Prisoners in his Custody to the last-mentioned Goal or Prison.

LII. And be it further enacted, That whenever any contagious Disease or other Emergency shall render necessary the immediate Removal of the Prisoners, or any of them, confined in any Goal or House of Correction, and that previous thereto it shall be impossible to obtain for such Purpose the Order of the Justices in General or Quarter Sessions assembled, it shall and may be lawful for the Visiting Justices of such Prison, and they are hereby empowered to issue an Order under their Hands and Seals to the Keeper of every such Prisoner to remove such Prisoners, or any of them, to such either Prison or other Place of Confinement within their Jurisdiction as shall be specified in such Order.

LIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That every such Removal shall be subject to all such Restrictions as to its Duration as is hereby required and directed, and that every such Order of Visiting Justices shall be laid before the Justices assembled at the General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace which shall be held next after such Order shall have been made: Provided also, that the Prisoners confined in any Common Gaol of any County, City, Town or Place, shall not be removed without the Consent of the Sheriff of such County, City, Town or Place: Provided also, that no Removal, made under the Authority of this Act, shall be deemed or taken to be an Escape: and that nothing herein contained shall extend to discharge the Sheriff or other Officer from being answerable for the actual Escape of any Prisoner in his Custody.

LIV. And be it further enacted, That when it shall appear that the Amount of any Estimate approved by the Justices, for the building or rebuilding, repairing or enlarging any Gaol or House of Correction, under the Powers of this Act, shall exceed One Half of the Amount of the ordinary annual Assessment for the Rate of any County or Riding, or of any such Division of a County as aforesaid, or of any District, City, Town or Place, (such ordinary Assessment to be taken as an Average of such Rate for the last Seven Years preceding,) it shall and may be lawful for the Justices, in Quarter Sessions assembled, from time to time to borrow and take up on Mortgage of such Rate, by Instrument in the Form contained in the Schedule to this Act assented inrolled (C), or to the like effect, any Sum of Money not exceeding the Amount of such Estimate, in Sums not less than Fifty Pounds, nor exceeding One hundred Pounds each, at Interest, as to the said Justices shall appear necessary and expedient for the Purposes aforesaid, and to secure every such Sum of Money so borrowed upon the Credit of the said Rate; and it shall and may be lawful for the Justices so assembled, and they are hereby authorized to treat and agree with any Person for the Loan of any such Sums of Money, and by their Order to confirm every such Agreement; and every such Agreement, signed by the Chairman and Two or more other Justices present at the Time of making such Order, shall be and the same is hereby declared to be effectual for securing to the Person so advancing any such Sum of Money every such Sum, with the Interest for the same, on such Terms as in and by such Agreement shall be stipulated; and Copies or Extracts of all such Agreements shall be kept with the Clerk of the Peace; and it shall and may be lawful for every Person who shall be entitled to the Money thereby secured, and such Person is hereby empowered (by indorsing his Name on the Back of such Security) to transfer the same, and his Right to the Principal Money and Interest thereby secured, unto any other Person; and every such Assignee may in like Manner transfer the same again, and so inter se; and the Person to whom such Security or any such Assignment thereof shall be made, and his Executors, Administrators and Assigns, shall be Creditors upon the said Rate in an equal Degree one with another, and shall not have any Preference with respect to the Priority of any Monies so advanced.

LV. And be it further enacted, That the said Justices shall and they are hereby authorized and required to charge the Rate to be raised upon such County, Riding, Division, District, City, Town or Place, not only with the Interest of the Money so borrowed, but also with the Payment of such further Sums as shall ensure the Payment of the Whole of the Sums borrowed within Fourteen Years from the Time of borrowing the same: and such Sums shall be secured on the County, Riding, Division, District, City, Town or Place, in such Manner as County Rates are directed to be assessed by the Laws now in being, and paid and applied under the Direction of the Justices, in Discharge of the Interest and of so many of the Principal Sums on the said Securities, as such Money will extend to discharge in each Year, until the Whole of the Money for which such Securities shall be made and the Interest thereof, shall be fully paid and discharged; and the Justices are required to fix One or more Day or Days in each Year on which such Payment shall be made, and shall make Orders for Assessments in due Time, so as to provide for the regular Payment thereof; and they are hereby required to appoint a proper Person to keep an exact and regular Account of all the Receipts and Payments, under the Authority of this Act, in a Book or Books, separate and apart from other Accounts, and the same to adjust and settle in such Manner that it may easily be seen what Interest is growing due, and what principal Money has been discharged, and what remains due; and the Book or Books so adjusted and settled to deliver into Court at every General or Quarter Sessions to be held for such County, Riding, Division, District, City, Town or Place; and the Justices shall and they are required, at every such Sessions, carefully to inspect all such Accounts, and to make Orders for carrying the several Purposes of this Act into Execution, in such Manner as to them shall seem meet: and if at any Time it shall appear to the Justices, that the Person so appointed has neglected such Order, and has not duly and without Delay, applied the Money in his Hands to the Purposes hereby directed, such Person shall forfeit Half the Amount of the Money which shall not have been applied to the Purposes of this Act; and the Justices so assembled in Sessions as aforesaid shall direct in what Order such Securities shall be discharged, by driving Lots or otherwise, as they shall think fit, taking care to discharge in the first Place all such Securities as shall bear the highest Rate of Interest.

LVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the King's Most Excellent Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and for all Bodies Public and Corporate, and also for all Guardians, Committees, Trustees, Treasurers and Attorneys of all Persons being Infants, Lunatics, Idiots, under Coverture, or any other Disability, and also for all other Persons who are or shall be seized, possessed of, or interested in any Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Easements or Privileges, which shall be deemed necessary for the Purposes of this Act, to contract or agree for, and to sell, convey and assure such Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Easements and Privileges, unto such Person as shall be named by the Justices at General or Quarter Sessions, in trust and for the Purpose of erecting new Prisons or of enlarging old ones, and the Yards, Courts and Outlets thereto belonging; and all such Contracts, Agreements, Sales, Conveyances and Assurances shall be valid and effectual in Law to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever; any Law, Statute, Usage or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

LVII. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Lands or Hereditaments of the King's Majesty shall be requisite, and shall be contracted for, to be used for the Purposes aforesaid, the same, if held by the King's Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, in the Right of His or their Royal Crowns, shall and may be legally conveyed by an Instrument, under the Hand and Seal of the Lord High Treasurer, or of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or of any Three of them, and if Parcel of the Duchy of Lancaster, by an Instrument under the Hand and Seal of the Chancellor of the same Duchy, and if Parcel of the Duchy of Cornwall, by an Instrument under the Hand and Seal of the Officers of the same Duchy, authorised to grant Leases under an Act of the last Session of Parliament, intituled An Act to enable His Majesty to make Leases, Copies and Grants of Offices, Lands and Hereditaments, Parcel of the Duchy of Cornwall, or assigned to the same, or any Two of such Offices.

LVIII. And be it further enacted, That whenever any such Corporation, Guardian, Committee, Trustee or Attorney, or other Person interested in any Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Easements or Privileges, contiguous to any Goal or House of Correction, which shall be deemed necessary for the Purposes of enlarging or rendering more commodious any such Goal or House of Correction, upon Notice in Writing to him, her or them given, or left at the Place or Places of Abode of such Person or Persons, or of the Principal Officer or Officers of such Corporation, shall, for the Space of Twenty one Days after such Notice so given or left, neglect or refuse to treat, or shall refuse to accept such Price as shall be offered by the Justices or their Agent, or shall otherwise not agree for the Sale of such Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Easements or Privileges; and whenever by reason of Absence or Incapacity any Person shall be prevented from treating for such Sale, then and in every such Case the Justices at the General or Quarter Sessions next after the Termination of such Twenty one Days, or at an Adjournment thereof, shall and they are hereby required to cause Notice to be given Three Times at least to some public Newspaper circulating within such County, Riding, Division, District, City, Town or Place, of their Intention to take into Consideration, at the next ensuing or some subsequent or General Quarter Sessions or Adjournment thereof, the Matter of such Neglect, Refusal or Omission, or Prevention to treat, or to accept of such Price offered, or to agree for such Sale as aforesaid, and the Causes and Reasons thereof respectively; and the Person or Persons, or some Officer of any Corporation so neglected as aforesaid, in any such Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Easements and Privileges, or some Person on their Behalf respectively, shall have Liberty to attend such Meeting, if they shall think fit, and to state to the Justices there assembled their Reasons for such Neglect, Refusal or Omission as aforesaid; and in case the Justices at such last mentioned Sessions, or the major Part of them, shall, after hearing what the Parties interested as aforesaid, or their Agents, have to allege in behalf of their respective Tenements, and upon due Consideration had of such Matter as aforesaid, resolve to proceed to the Valuation and Purchase of such Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Easements or Privileges, notwithstanding such Neglect, Refusal or Omission, or Prevention as aforesaid, then and in every such Case the Justices at such Sessions, or any Two or more of them appointed for that Purpose, shall cause the Value of such Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Easements and Privileges, to be inquired into and ascertained by a Jury of indifferent Men of the County, Riding, Division, District, City, Town or Place, wherein the same shall be situate, and to that End shall summons before such Jury, and examine upon Oath (which Oath any One of the Justices is hereby empowered to administer) any Person or Person whomsoever; and such Justice, or any Two of them, shall, by ordering a View or otherwise, use all Ways and Means for the Information of themselves and of such Jury in the Premises; and when such Jury shall have inquired of and ascertained by their Verdict the Value of such Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Easements and Privileges, the said Justices shall thereupon order that the Sum which shall so appear to be the Value of such Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Easements and Privileges, shall be paid in such Manner as is hereinafter directed touching the Money to be paid for such Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Easements or Privileges, for Sale whereof the Persons interested shall contract and agree in []Hence aforesaid; which Verdict and Order shall be filed of Record by the Clerk of the Peace, or other Officer having the Custody of the Records of the County, Riding, Division, District, City, Town or Place, and shall be final and conclusive, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, against all Parties and Persons whomsoever, claiming or to claim in Possession, Reversion, Remainder or otherwise, their Heirs and Successors, as well absent as present, Infants, Lunatics, Mins and Persons under Coverture, or any other Disability whatsoever, Corporations, Guardians, Committees, Husband, Trustees and Attorneys, or any other Person or Persons whomsoever.

LIX. And be it further enacted, That for the summoning and returning such Juries, such Justice or any Two of them may issue their Warrant to the Sheriff or Officer having the returning of Writs within the County, Riding, Division, District, City, Town or Place within the Limits of which the Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Easements or Privileges shall be situate, requiring him to

LXII. And be it further enacted, That if any Money shall be agreed or awarded to be paid for any Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Easements or Privileges, purchased, taken or used by virtue of the Powers of this Act, which shall belong to any Corporation, Feme Covert, Infant, Lunatic, Person or Persons under any other Disability or Incapacity, such Money shall, in case the same shall amount to the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, with all convenient Speed be paid into the Bank of England, in the Name and with the Privy of the Accountant General of the High Court of Chancery, to be placed to his Account, or pay to the Justices of the Peace for the County of
to the Intent that such Money shall be applied under the Direction and with the Approbation of the said Court, to be signified by an Order made upon a Petition to be preferred in a summary Way by the Person or Persons who would have been entitled in the Reversion and Profits of the said Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Easements or Privileges, in the Purchase of the Land Tax, or Discharge of any Debt or Debts, or such other Incumbrances or Part thereof as the said Court shall authorize to be paid, affecting the same Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, or affecting other Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Easements or Privileges, standing entitled therewith to the same or the like Uses, Intents and Purposes; or where such Money shall not be so employed, then the same shall be laid out and invested, under the like Direction and Approbation of the said Court, in the Purchase of other Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Easements or Privileges, which shall be con-voted and settled to, for and upon such and the like Uses, Trusts, Assents and Purposes, and in the same Manner as the Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Easements or Privileges, which shall be so purchased, taken or used as aforesaid, most settled or limited, or such of them as at the Time of making such Conveyance and Settlement shall be existing undetermined and capable of taking Effect: and in the meantime and until such Purchase shall be made, the said Money shall by Order of the Court of Chancery, upon Application thereto, be invested by the said Accountant General in his Name, in the Purchase of Three Pounds per Centum Consolidated or Three Pounds per Centum Reduced Bank Annuity; and in the meantime, and until the said Bank Annuity shall be ordered by the said Court to be sold for the Purposes aforesaid, the Dividends and Annual Produce of the said Consolidated or Reduced Bank Annuity shall from time to time be paid by Order of the said Court to the Person or Persons who would for the Time being have been entitled to the Revenues and Profits of the Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Easements or Privileges so hereby directed to be purchased, in case such Purchase or Settlement were made.

LXIII. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That if any Money so agreed or awarded to be paid for any Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Easements or Privileges, purchased, taken or used for the Purposes aforesaid, and belonging to any Corporation, or to any Person or Persons under Disability or Incapacity as aforesaid, shall be less than the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, and shall amount to or exceed the Sum of Twenty Pounds, then and in all such Cases the same shall, at the Option of the Person or Persons for the Time being entitled to the Revenues and Profits of the Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Easements or Privileges so purchased, taken or used, or of his, her or their Guardian or Guardians, Committee or Committees, in case of Infancy or Lunacy, to be assigned in Writing under their respective Hands, be paid into the Bank of England, in the Name and with the Privy of the said Accountant General of the High Court of Chancery, and be placed to his Account as aforesaid, in order to be applied in Manner hereinafter directed; or otherwise the same shall be paid, at the like Option, to Two Trustees, to be nominated by the Person or Persons making such Option and approved of by the said Justices (such Nomination and Approbation to be signified in Writing under the Hands of the nominating and approving Parties), in order that such Principal Money, and the Dividends arising thereon, may be applied in Manner hereinafter directed, so far as the Case be applicable, without obtaining or being required to obtain the Direction or Approbation of the said Court of Chancery.

LXIV. Provided also, and he it further enacted, That where such Money so agreed or awarded to be paid as next before mentioned shall be less than Twenty Pounds, then and in all such Cases the same shall be applied to the Use of the Person or Persons who would for the Time being have been entitled to the Revenues and Profits of the Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Easements or Privileges, so purchased, taken or used for the Purposes of this Act, in such Manner as the Trustees shall think fit; or in case of Infancy or Lunacy, then to his, her or their Guardian or Guardians, Committee or Committees, to and for the Use and Benefit of such Person or Persons so entitled respectively.

LXV. And he it further enacted, That in case the Person or Persons to whom any Sum or Sums of Money shall be awarded for the Purchase of any Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Easements or Privileges, to be purchased by this Act, shall refuse to accept the same, or shall not be able to make out a good Title to the Premises to the Satisfaction of the said Justices; or in case such Person or Persons to whom such Sum or Sums shall be so awarded as aforesaid cannot be found, or if the Person or Persons entitled to such Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Easements or Privileges, be not known or discovered; then and in every such Case it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Justices to order the said Sum or Sums of Money so awarded as aforesaid to be paid into the Bank of England, in the Name and with the Privy of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery, to be placed to the Account to the Credit of the Persons interested in the said Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Easements or Privileges (describing them, subject to the Order, Control and Disposition of the said Court of Chancery); which said Court of Chancery, on the Application of any Person or Persons making Claim to such Sum and Sums of Money, or any Part thereof, by Motion or Petition, shall he and is hereby empowered, in a summary Way of Proceeding or otherwise, as to the same Court shall seem meet, to order the same to be laid out and invested in the Public Funds, and to order the Distribution thereof, or Payment of the Dividends thereof, according to the respective Estate or Estates, Title or Interest, of the Person or Persons making Claim thereunto, and to make such other Order in the Premises as to the said Court shall seem just and reasonable; and the Cashier or Cashiers of the Bank of England, who shall receive such Sum or Sums of Money, is and are hereby required to give a Receipt for such Sum or Sums of Money, mentioning and specifying for what and for whose Use the same is or are received, to such Person or Persons who shall pay any such Sum or Sums of Money into the Bank as aforesaid.

LXVI. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That where any Question shall arise touching the Title of any Person to any Money to be paid into the Bank of England in the Name and with the Privy of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery, in pursuance of this Act, for the Purchase of any Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Easements or Privileges, or of any Estate, Right or Interest in any Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Easements or Privileges to be purchased in pursuance of this Act, or to any Bank Annuity to be purchased with any such Money, or the Dividends or Interest of any Bank Annuity, the Person or Persons who shall have been in Possession of such Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Easements or Privileges, at the Time of said Purchase, and all Persons claiming under such Person or Persons, shall be deemed and taken to have been lawfully entitled to such Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Easements or Privileges, according to such Possession, until the contrary shall be shown to the Satisfaction of the said Court of Chancery; and the Dividends or Interest of the said Bank Annuities to be purchased with such Money, and also the Capital of such Bank Annuities, shall be paid, applied and disposed of accordingly, unless it shall be made appear to the said Court that such Possession was a wrongful Possession, and that some other Person or Persons was or were lawfully entitled to such Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Easements or Privileges, or to some Estate or Interest therein.

Court of Chancery may order successive Estates of Pur-
paid.

LXVII. Provided also and be it enacted, That where by reason of any Disability or Incapacity at the Person or Persons or Corporations entitled to any Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Easements or Privileges, to be purchased under the Authority of this Act, the Purchase Money for the same shall be required to be paid into the Court of Chancery, and to be applied in the Purchase of other Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Easements or Privileges, to be settled to the like Uses in purchase of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Court of Chancery to order the Expenses of such last mentioned Purchases from time to time to be made in pursuance of this Act, or so much thereof as the said Court shall deem reasonable, to be paid by the said Justice out of any Moneys to be received for the Purpose of this Act, who shall from time to time pay such Sums of Money for such Purpose as the said Court shall direct.

Execution of Act charged upon County Rates.

LXVIII. And in order to defray the Expenses of the several Matters and Things heretofore directed to be done, respecting Goals, Houses of Correction, and other Prisons, and for the Support and Maintenance of Prisoners confined therein, who are entitied by Law to such Support, and for all other Expenses necessary to the Execution of this Act, and not heretofore particularly provided for: Be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Justices, at their General or Quarter Sessions assembled, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, to cause such Sums of Money as shall be necessary for all or any of those Purposes, to be raised on the Counties, Ridings, Divisions, Districts, Cities, Towns or Places to which this Act shall extend, in the same Manner as Rates applicable to the building, repairing or maintenance of such Prisons respectively are now directed to be raised by Law.

Recovery and
Penalties.

LXIX. And be it further enacted, That all Fines, Forfeitures and Penalties imposed by this Act, or which shall be imposed by virtue of any Rule to be made in pursuance thereof, shall, on Conviction of the Offender before any One Justice of the Peace within his Jurisdiction, be levied by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods and Chatties, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of such Justice of the Peace, who is hereby authorized to hear and examine Witnesses on Oath or Affirmation, on any Complaint, and to determine the same; and all such Fines, Forfeitures and Penalties, the Application whereof is not heretofore particularly directed, shall be paid from time to time to the Treasurer of the County, Riding, Division, District, City, Town or Place for the Time being, and shall be applied and disposed of in aid of the Rate applicable to the Purpose of this Act, and to or for no other Use or Purpose whatsoever; and for want of sufficient Distress, the Offender shall be committed to the Common Goal or House of Correction, for such Term not exceeding Six Calendar Months, nor less than One Month, as such Justice shall think proper.

Form of Con-

LXX. And for the more easy and speedy Conviction of Offenders against this Act, be it further enacted, That the Justice before whom any Person shall be convicted of any Offence against this Act, shall and may cause the Conviction to be drawn up in the following Form of Words, or in any other Form of Words to the same Effect, as the Case shall happen; viz;

“ BE it remembered, That on _____ in the Year of our Lord
A. D. _____ A. B. is convicted before me, C. D., One of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the of _____ for that the said A. B. (specifying the Offence, and the Time and Place when and where he same was committed, as the Case shall be), and the said A. B. is for this said Offence adjudged by me, the said Justice to forfeit and pay the Sum of _____ or to be imprisoned in _____ for the Space of _____ [or the Case shall be]. Given under my Hand and Seal, the Day and Year first above mentioned.”

Appeal to
sions.

LXXI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Person shall think himself or herself aggrieved by any Conviction of any Justice, in pursuance of this Act, such Person may appeal to the Justices of the Peace at any Quarter Sessions of the County, Riding, Division, District, City, Town or Place wherein such Conviction shall have taken place, within Four Calendar Months after the Cause of such Complaint shall have arisen, such Appellant first giving or causing to be given Ten clear Days' Notice at least in Writing of his or her Intention to bring such Appeal, and of the Manner thereof, to the Justice or Justices before whom the Conviction shall have been had, and to the Clerk of the Peace for the County, Riding or Division, District, City, Town or Place, in which such Conviction shall have been had, and within Two Days after such Notice entering into Recognizance before some Justice for such County, Riding or Division, District, City, Town or Place, with Two sufficient Sureties, conditioned to try such Appeal, and abide the Order of, and to pay such Costs as shall be awarded by the Justices at such Sessions; and the Justices at such Sessions, upon due Proof of such Notice being given as aforesaid, and of the entering into such Recognizance, shall hear and finally determine the Matter of such Appeal in a summary Way, and award such Costs to the Parties appealing or appealed against as they the said Justices shall think proper; and the Determination of such Sessions shall be final, binding and conclusive to all Intents and Purposes.

Costs.
Final.

LXXII. And be it further enacted, That no Order made touching any of the Matters in this Act contained, nor any Conviction of any Offender against this Act, shall be quashed for Want of Form, or be removed or removable by Certiorari, by any other Writ or Process whatsoever, into any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster; and that where any Distress shall be made for any Fine, Penalty, or Sum of Money to be levied by virtue of this Act, the Distress itself shall not be deemed to be unlawful, nor the Party making the same be deemed a Trespasser, on account of any Defect or Want of Form in the Summons, Conviction, Warrant of Distress or other Proceedings relating thereto; nor shall such Party be deemed a Trespasser de facto, on account of any Irregularity which shall be afterwards done by the Party distraining, but the Person aggrieved by such Irregularity shall and may recover full Satisfaction for the special Damage (if any) in an Action upon the Case; but no Plaintiff shall recover in any Action for such Irregularity as aforesaid, if Tender of sufficient Amends shall have been made by or on behalf of the Party distraining before such Action brought.

LXXIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Suit or Action shall be prosecuted against any Person for any Thing done in pursuance of this Act, such Person may plead the General Issue, and give the Act and the special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the same was done by Authority of this Act; and if a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant, or the Plaintiff shall become nonsuit, or discontinue his or her Action after Issue joined, or if upon Demurrer or otherwise, Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff, the Defendant shall recover Double Costs, and have the like Remedy for the same as any Defendant hath by Law in other Cases; and though a Verdict shall be given for the Plaintiff in any such Action, such Plaintiff shall not have Costs against the Defendant, unless the Judge before whom the Trial shall be shall certify his Approbation of the Action, and of the Verdict obtained thereupon.

LXXIV. And be it further enacted, That all Matters and Things which by this Act the Sheriff of any County is required or authorized to do and perform, shall, in those Districts, Cities, Towns, Liberties or Places where the Sheriff hath no Jurisdiction, be done and performed by the Bailiff or Stibbs, or other like Officer or Officers, having or exercising within their respective Districts, Cities, Towns and Liberties, Duties analogous to the Duties of the Sheriff of a County; and that all Matters and Things which by this Act the Treasurer of any County is required or authorized to do and perform, shall, in those Places where the County Treasurer hath no Authority, be done and performed by the Officer or Officers having and exercising within such Places Duties analogous to those of a County Treasurer; and that all Matters and Things which by this Act the Clerk of the Peace of any County, Riding or Division is required or authorized to do and perform, shall, in those Places where the Clerk of the Peace of the County hath no Authority, be done and performed by the Town Clerk or other like Officer having and exercising within such Places Duties analogous to those of the Clerk of the Peace of any County.

LXXV. And be it further enacted, That all Actions, Suits and Prosecutions to be commenced against any Person for any Thing done in pursuance of this Act, shall be laid and tried in the County where the Facts were committed, and shall be commenced within Six Calendar Months after the Fact committed, and not otherwise.

LXXVI. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to the Royal Hospital of Bethlehem and Prison of Bridewell, nor to the King's Bench or Fleet Prison, or to the Prison of the Marshalsea or Palace Courts, the General Penitentiary at Millbank, nor to the Penitentiary at Gloucester; nor to any Ships or Vessels provided in any Port or navigable River for the Reception and Employment of Convicts sentenced to Transportation; nor to exempt any such Convicts from any Punishment or Discipline to which they were liable by Law before the passing of this Act.

LXXVII. And be it further enacted, That where any Prison is situate on Lands of the King's Majesty, in Right of His Royal Crown, or of His Duchy of Lancaster, or of the Duchy of Cornwall, such Lands, with their Appurtenances, shall remain for ever unalienable, so long as they shall be used for the Purpose of such Prison.

LXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That this Act, and the several Clauses, Matters and Things therein contained, shall commence and take Effect from and after the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, and not sooner.

sexed, there shall be allowed and paid for every Hundred Weight thereof, a Drawback equal in Amount to the Duty paid on every Four Bushels of the Rough Rice or Paddy from which the same shall here be cleared.

Conditions on which such Drawback obtained.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted, That such Drawback upon such Rice so exported, shall be paid and allowed upon such Foreign Rough Rice or Paddy only as shall have been or shall be warehoused upon its first Importation into any Part of Great Britain, and as shall be taken out of Warehouse upon Payment of the Duty due upon the Importation of the same, for the sole and express Purpose of being cleaned, and as shall be returned or cleared into the Warehouse from which it shall have been taken within One Calendar Month from the Time when the Duty shall be paid thereon, and as shall remain in such Warehouse until the same shall be duly exported, and as shall be so exported, and then such Warehouse: Provided also, that the Owner or Proprietor of such Rice, at the Time of re-warehousing such Rice, when cleaned, shall make Oath before the Chief Officer of the Customs at the Port where the same shall be warehoused (and which Oath the said Officer is hereby authorized and required to administer) that the said Rice is the same which was so taken from the said Warehouse for the Purpose of undergoing the Process of cleaning, and the Duty paid thereon as aforesaid.

Date of Identity of Rice.

Foreign Drawbacks allowed on Goods having paid former Duties.

VI. Provided also, and be it enacted, That the Drawbacks granted, allowed and made payable on the Exportation of any of the Articles specified in the Schedules (A.) and (B.) to this Act annexed, under and by virtue of any Act or Acts in force immediately before the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, shall remain and continue payable with respect to such Goods, Wares and Merchandise as shall have paid the Duties imposed on the Importation thereof, under any Act or Acts in force before the said Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, and which shall be exported after the said Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty three; any thing in this Act to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Goods imported may be warehoused, and Duty paid on taking out for Home Consumption.

VII. Provided also, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to compel the Proprietor or Proprietors of Goods, Wares or Merchandise specified in Tables (A.) and (B.) to this Act annexed, to pay the Duties thereon upon the Importation or Landing of such Goods, Wares or Merchandise in Great Britain, in any case where such Goods, Wares or Merchandise may or might by Law be warehoused or otherwise secured without Payment of Duty, or in any Case where the Whole or any Part of the Duties on such Goods, Wares or Merchandise are or may be permitted to be secured by Bond or otherwise; but that in all such Cases the Duties specified in the Tables (A.) and (B.) to this Act annexed may be secured by Bond or otherwise, in such Manner and under such Rules, Regulations, Restrictions and Conditions as are or may be contained in any Act or Acts for that Purpose, except when it is otherwise provided by this Act: Provided also, that in case the Importer or Proprietor of any Goods, Wares or Merchandise specified in Tables (A.) and (B.) to this Act annexed, which shall have been lodged in Warehouse or otherwise secured at any Time on or immediately before the said Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, and on which the Duties due on the Importation thereof shall not have been paid, shall be desirous of taking any such Goods, Wares or Merchandise out of such Warehouse, or from any Place wherein the same shall be secured, for the Purpose of being used or consumed in Great Britain, then and in such case the Duties imposed by this Act shall be payable thereon, notwithstanding such Goods, Wares or Merchandise may have been imported and warehoused before the said Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, except where it is otherwise provided by this Act.

In what Case Duty payable on Goods warehoused before 10th Oct. 1823.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That all Goods of the Manufacture of the East Indies, Perals or Claws, liable to the Payment of any Duties under this Act, or any Act or Acts in force at the Time of the passing of this Act, and which may have been or may be lodged or secured without Payment of Duty in any Warehouse at any Port in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, under the Provisions of any Act or Acts in force for that Purpose, shall and may be delivered out of any such Warehouse for the Purpose of being exported, and shall and may be exported from and out of such Warehouse to any British Colony, Plantation, Territory or Dominion, or Vessels of the Barbets of not less than One hundred Tons, without Payment of any Duties of Customs or Excise whatsoever.

L. India Goods, &c. may be exported from Warehouse to British Colonies, &c. as Vessels not less than 100 Tons, Duty free.

IX. And Whereas by the Laws now in Force Coral Beads imported into Great Britain from any Place within the Limits of the Charter of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies may be lodged and secured in Warehouses without Payment of Duty, and may be exported directly from such Warehouses: And Whereas it is expedient to allow such Coral Beads to be removed from such Warehouses Coastwise by Sea, or by Inland Navigation, or by Land Carriage, to any Port in Great Britain to which any East India Goods may be legally removed for the Purpose of Exportation: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the proper Officer or Officers of His Majesty's Customs to grant Permission for the Removal of any such Coral Beads Coastwise by Sea or Inland Navigation, or by Land Carriage, from any Warehouse or Warehouse in the Port of London in which such Coral Beads shall have been lodged or secured, to any other Port in Great Britain in which any East India Goods may by Law be legally removed for the Purpose of Exportation therefrom, due Entry being first made with such Officer or Officers of the Beads so to be removed.

East India Coral Beads may be removed from London Warehouse to any Port of G. B. for Exportation.

X. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in case any Coral Beads which shall be so removed under the Authority of this Act shall not be well and truly delivered, without Alteration or Diminution, into the Custody and Possession of the Collector and Comptroller at the Port to which the same are ordered to be removed, within Three Calendar Months next after the Time when such Coral Beads shall be so removed from the Warehouse or Warehouses in London, all such Cord Beads so removed shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of His Majesty's Customs; and the Owner, Proprietor, or other Person at whose Instance such Cord Beads shall have been removed, and every Person into whose Hands such Cord Beads or any Parts thereof shall knowingly come, or who shall knowingly harbour, keep, or conceal such Cord Beads, or any Part thereof, or who shall knowingly permit or suffer the same to be harboured, kept, or concealed, shall forfeit Triple the Value thereof.

XI. And be it further enacted, That before any Sugar imported into Great Britain, as being the Produce of any British Colony, Plantation or Territory in the East Indies, shall be admitted to Entry on Payment of the Duty imposed on such Sugar by this Act, and the Table marked (B.) thereto annexed, the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of the Ship or Vessel in which any such Sugar shall be imported, shall produce and deliver to the Collector or other Chief Officer of the Customs at the Port of Importation, a Certificate under the Hand and Seal of the Collector or other Chief Officer of the Customs at the Port or Place in the East Indies where such Sugar shall have been taken on board; or if on such Collector or other Chief Officer of the Customs that be residing at such Port or Place, then a Certificate shall be produced under the Hand and Seal of the Principal Officer of such Port or Place, or of the Judge or Commercial Resident of the District, testifying that Oath had been made before him, (who is hereby authorized and required to administer such Oath and to grant such Certificate,) by the Shipper of such Sugar, that the same was really and good de facto the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of such British Colony, Plantation or Territory; and the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of such Ship or Vessel in which such Sugar shall be imported into Great Britain or Ireland respectively, shall make Oath before the Collector or other Chief Officer of the Port of Importation, (who is hereby authorized and required to administer the same), that the Sugar so imported is the same as mentioned and referred to in the said Certificate; and on Failure of such Certificate being produced, and Proof on Oath as aforesaid being made, such Sugar shall be deemed and taken to be the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of some Place in the East Indies, not being a British Colony, Plantation or Territory, and shall be charged with the Duty imposed by this Act, and the Table marked (B.) thereto annexed, on such Sugar of Foreign Growth, Produce or Manufacture.

XII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in all Cases where at any Time previous to the passing of this Act any Segre of the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of any British Colony, Plantation or Territory in the East Indies, (such Sugar being considered as cloyed, or otherwise refined so as to be equal to the Quality of cloyed, and being subject and liable under any Act or Acts in force immediately before the passing of this Act to a Duty of Two Pounds Five Shillings for every Hundred Weight thereof), shall have been imported into any Part of the United Kingdom, and any Bond shall have been given or entered into, or any Deposit shall have been made for securing the Payment of Five Shillings per Hundred Weight, Part of the said Duty under any such Act, and being the Amount of the Increase of Duty on such Sugar under any such Act, every such Bond shall from and after the passing of this Act be and become void and be hereby declared to be void, and shall be cancelled, and the Amount of every such Deposit shall be restored and repaid under the Direction of the Commissioners of the Customs, and no Payment of the said increased Duty of Five Shillings shall be required for or on account of any such Sugar in respect of which any such Bond shall have been given or any such Deposit made; any thing in any such Act or Acts to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That a Proportion of the Duties by this Act granted on Sugar, the Produce of the East Indies, shall and may from time to time be suspended, in such and the like Manner as any Duties of Customs payable on such Sugars at any Time before the passing of this Act may be suspended under or by virtue of any Act or Acts in force immediately before the passing of this Act.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That the Duties imposed and made payable on such Sugar by this Act shall continue in force until and upon the First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-four.

XV. And Whereas by an Act passed in the First and Second Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act to amend the Duties of Customs on the Importation into Great Britain of certain Sorts of Wood and Timber, and various Drumsticks or Allowances in respect of such Duties, and to grant other Duties and Drawbacks in lieu thereof; and by the Table (A.) thereto annexed, it is provided that Staves of the Growth and Production of the British Colonies or Plantations in America, and imported directly from thence, above Three Inches in Thickness or above Seven Inches in Breadth, and not exceeding Sixty three Inches in Length, shall be deemed Clap Boards, and be charged with Duty accordingly; and above Three Inches in Thickness or above Seven Inches in Breadth, and exceeding Sixty three Inches in Length, shall be deemed Pipe Boards, and be charged with Duty accordingly. And Whereas it is expedient to alter the said Dimensions in the said Act and Table specified: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, Staves of the Growth and Production of the British Colonies or Plantations in America, and imported directly from thence, above Three Inches and Half of an Inch in Thickness, or above Seven Inches in Breadth, and not exceeding Sixty three Inches in Length, shall be deemed Clap Boards, and be charged with Duty accordingly; and above Three Inches and Half of an Inch in Thickness, or above Seven Inches in Breadth, and exceeding Sixty three Inches in Length, shall be deemed Pipe Boards, and shall be charged with Duty accordingly.

XVI. And Whereas by the said recited Act passed in the said First and Second Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, and by Table (A.) annexed thereto, certain Drawbacks of the Duties imposed by the said Act are allowed on Fir Timber being Eight Inches square and not exceeding Ten Inches square, of the Growth of Norway, and imported directly from thence, which shall have been used or employed in any of the Mines of Tin, Lead or Copper, in the Counties of Devon and Cornwall; And Whereas it is expedient so alter the said Drawbacks in the said Act and Table specified: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, the Drawbacks in the said last recited Act and Table mentioned and specified shall be allowed on Fir Timber, or any Wood chargeable as Fir Timber, being Five Inches square and not exceeding Ten Inches square, of the Growth of Norway, and imported directly from thence, which shall be used or employed in any of the Mines of Tin, Lead or Copper, in the Counties of Devon and Cornwall, under the like Conditions and Regulations as the Drawbacks on Timber of the Discretions mentioned and specified in the said Act and Table were paid and allowed.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, it shall be lawful to import into the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland any Wood fit for Ship building, the Growth or Produce of the Colony of New South Wales, or any of the Settlements or Dependencies thereof, or Norfolk Island or Fox Darwin's Land, and imported directly from the said Places, during the Period of Ten Years from the First day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, without Payment of any Subsidy, Custom or other Duty whatever for the same, provided due Entry shall be made thereof, and such Wood shall be duly landed in the Presence of the proper Officer or Officers at the Port of Importation.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, an Act made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for encouraging the Manufacture of Leather, by lowering the Duty payable upon the Importation of Oak Bark, when the Price of such Bark shall exceed a certain Rate, for a limited Time; and also an Act made in the Fifty second Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, for making perpetual the said recited Act of the Twelfth Year of His said late Majesty's Reign, or so much of the said Acts as shall be in force at the Time of the passing of this Act, shall be and shall remain the same in and are hereby repealed.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, it shall and may be lawful to import into Great Britain any Wine whatever as well for Sale as for private Use, in Packages each of which shall contain at least Three Dozen repuged Quart Bottles or Flasks, or Six Dozen repuged Pint Bottles or Flasks, on Payment of the same Duties, as well of Customs as Excise, as French Wine is or shall be subject to, in such Manner, and under and according to such and the like Rules, Regulations, Conditions and Restrictions, and subject to such and the like Penalties and Forfeitures, as are provided and enacted in any Act or Acts of Parliament with respect to French Wine so imported into Great Britain, so far as the same are applicable thereto.

XX. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, the Drawbacks of the Duties of Customs and Excise payable and allowable by any Act or Acts in force immediately before the said Tenth of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, upon the Exportation of any Wine, shall cease and determine, and in lieu and instead thereof there shall be paid and allowed, upon the Exportation of any Wine from Great Britain, a Drawback of the full Duties of Customs and Excise which shall have been paid upon the Importation thereof into Great Britain: Provided always, that such Drawback shall be paid and allowed under the Rules, Regulations, Conditions and Restrictions, and subject to the like Penalties and Forfeitures, as former Drawbacks upon Wine, and shall only be allowed and paid on Wine which shall be exported from Great Britain in Packages each containing not less than Three Dozen repuged Quart Bottles or Flasks, or Six Dozen repuged Pint Bottles or Flasks; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, it shall and may be lawful to carry and export from Great Britain to Ireland, and from Ireland to Great Britain, and to import into Ireland from Great Britain, and into Great Britain from Ireland, any Tobacco, either manufactured or unmanufactured, in any Ship or Vessel of the Burthen of Seventy Tons or upwards, any thing in any Act or Acts in force in Great Britain or Ireland immediately before the passing of this Act to the contrary thereof in any way notwithstanding; subject nevertheless to all such Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties and Forfeitures, as are imposed upon such Importations and Exportations respectively, in Vessels of the Tonnage in which such Tobacco may be exported or imported, under any Act or Acts in force immediately before the passing of this Act: Provided always, that if any such Tobacco shall be so exported or imported in a Vessel of less Burthen than Seventy Tons according to the Rules of Admeasurement prescribed by Law, all such Tobacco, and also the Ship, Vessel and Boat, with their Materials and Furniture, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of the Customs or Excise.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, it shall and may be lawful to export from Great Britain to Ireland, and from Ireland to Great Britain respectively, any Goods, Wares or Merchandise liable to Duties on the Importation thereof from Foreign Parts, and to import the same into either Country from the other, subject and liable to such Rules, Regulations, Conditions, Restrictions and Provisions, as such Goods are subject and liable to when removed and carried Coastwise from one Port in Great Britain to another Port in the same, under and by virtue of any Act or Acts in force in Great Britain immediately before the passing of this Act: and any Ship or Vessel in which such Goods, Wares or Merchandise shall be conveyed from our Country to the other, shall in all Instances and Purposes whatsoever be deemed and taken to be a Conating Ship or Vessel, and shall be liable to the Payment of such Duties only, and subject to such Regulations and Instructions only, as Conating Vessels are now by Law subject and liable to.

XXIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That all Goods, Wares and Merchandise which, at any Time before the said Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, shall have been or shall be imported into Ireland, and which at the Time of such Importation shall have been or shall be subject to Duties lower than the Duties payable on the Importation of the like Articles into Great Britain, shall, after the said Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, remain and continue liable to such Duties as Importations into Great Britain, and shall be entitled to such Drawbacks on Exportation from Ireland to Great Britain, and shall be imported and exported under all such Rules and Regulations as were applicable to such Goods, Wares and Merchandise, under any Act or Acts in force immediately before the said Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, and as if this present Act had not been passed.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons to export Tobacco Pipe Clay from any Part in Great Britain, or in the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark or Man in any Place whatever, any Prohibition or Penalty, or any Clause, Matter or Thing whatever, contained in any Act or Acts in force immediately before the passing of this Act, to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That before any Blubber, Train Oil, Head Matter or Whale Fin, the Produce of Fish or Creatures living in the Sea, imported into Great Britain, shall be admitted to Entry on Payment of the Duty imposed on such Blubber, Train Oil, Spermaceti Oil, Head Matter or Whale Fin, as being taken and caught wholly by His Majesty's Subjects usually residing in any Part of His Majesty's Dominions, and imported from any British Colony, Island, Plantation, Settlement or Territory, the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of the Ship or Vessel in which the same shall be imported, shall produce and deliver to the Collector or other Chief Officer of the Customs, at the Port of Importation, a Certificate under the Hand and Seal of the Governor or Deputy Governor of such British Colony, Island, Plantation, Settlement or Territory, or of the Collector or other Chief Officer of the Customs, of the Port or Place in such British Colony, Island, Plantation, Settlement or Territory where such Train Oil, Blubber, Spermaceti Oil, Head Matter or Whale Fin shall have been taken on board; or if no such Governor or Deputy Governor, or Collector or other Chief Officer of the Customs, shall be residing there, then a Certificate shall be produced under the Hand and Seal of the Naval Officer or other Principal Officer of such Port or Place, or of One of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the District; or if there shall be no such Naval Officer, or other Principal Officer or Justice of the Peace, then a Certificate shall be produced of Two principal Inhabitants at the Place of Shipment, testifying that Oath hath been made before him or them (who is and are hereby authorized and required to administer such Oath and to grant such Certificate) by the Skipper of such Blubber, Train Oil, Spermaceti Oil, Head Matter or Whale Fin, that the same was really and lawfully the Produce of Fish or Creatures living in the Sea, actually caught and taken wholly by His Majesty's Subjects carrying on such Fishery, and usually residing in some Part of His Majesty's Dominions; and the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of the Ship or Vessel in which the Blubber, Train Oil, Spermaceti Oil, Head Matter or Whale Fin shall be imported into any Part of the United Kingdom, shall make Oath before the Collector or other Chief Officer at the Port of Importation, that the Blubber, Train Oil, Spermaceti Oil, Head Matter or Whale Fin as imported is the same as mentioned and referred to in the said Certificate; and the Importer or Importers, Consignee or Consignees of such Blubber, Train Oil, Spermaceti Oil, Head Matter or Whale Fin, shall also make Oath before the Collector or Comptroller or other proper Officer of the Customs, at the Time of Entry, that to the best of his or their Knowledge and Belief the Blubber, Train Oil, Spermaceti Oil, Head Matter or Whale Fin so imported was actually caught and taken by British Subjects usually residing in some Part of His Majesty's Dominions; and on Failure of such Certificates being produced, and Proof on Oath as aforesaid being made, such Blubber, Train Oil, Spermaceti Oil, Head Matter and Whale Fin shall be deemed and taken to be of Foreign Fishing, and shall be charged with the Duty by Law imposed upon such Articles of Foreign Fishing.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful upon the Return of any Ship or Vessel from the Greenland Seas or Davis's Straits with any Blubber, being the Produce of Whales or other Creatures living in the Sea, caught and taken in the said Fishery, for the Importers or Proprietors thereof to cause the same to be boiled into Oil at the Port of Importation in the United Kingdom, under the Care and Inspection of the proper Officer or Officers of His Majesty's Customs, and such Oil so produced shall afterwards be admitted to Entry and the Duties paid thereon accordingly; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that in case any Blubber shall have been so imported in any Ship or Vessel employed in the said Fishery, and shall have been boiled into Oil before the said Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, such Oil shall be admitted to Entry, and the Duty shall be charged thereon, according to the Regulations and Directions of this Act.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That so long as any Bounties shall be paid or payable for the Support and Encouragement of the Fisheries carried on in the Greenland Seas and Davis's Straits, or for the Support and Encouragement of the Southern Whale Fishery, the several Duties of Customs payable under this

XXVIII. And Whereas by an Act made in the Tenth Year of the Reign of King George the First, among other Things, for prohibiting the Importation of Chocolate ready made, and Cocoa Paste, it is among other Things enacted, that no Chocolate ready made, or Cocoa Paste, shall be imported or brought into Great Britain from any Part or Parts beyond the Seas, upon pain of forfeiting all such Chocolate ready made and Cocoa Paste: And Whereas by an Act passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of King George the Second, intitled An Act to prevent Frauds in the Revenue of Excise with respect to Starch, Coffee, Tea and Chocolate, it is among other Things enacted, that if any Person or Persons shall import any Cocoa Nut Shells or Husks, without the Nuts thereto containing, it shall and may be lawful for any Officers of the Customs or Excise or Inland Duties to seize and secure the same: And Whereas by an Act made in the Fifty first Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, among other Things to prohibit the Importation of Foreign Chocolate into Ireland, it is among other Things enacted, that during such Time as the Importation of Foreign Chocolate shall be prohibited in Great Britain, it shall not be lawful for any Person or Persons to import into Ireland any Chocolate whatever, except of the Manufacture of Great Britain, under Penalty of Forfeiture thereof: And Whereas it is expedient that the said Prohibition should no longer continue in force, with regard to Chocolate ready made, and Cocoa Paste, the Produce of the British Plantations or Possessions, or any Cocoa Nut Shells or Husks without the Nuts: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the said Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, as much and such Parts of the said several recited Acts, as relate or relate to the Importation of Chocolate ready made or Cocoa Paste of the British Plantations or Possessions, or to any Cocoa Nut Shells or Husks without the Nuts, shall be and the same is and are hereby repealed.

Pease may be imported free from any Payment of Duty.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, it shall and may be lawful for any Person to import Pease for Seed into any Part of the United Kingdom, on Payment of the Duty specified in the Table (A.) to this Act annexed, whatever the Average Price of British Pease may be, and although the Importation of such Pease and Foreign Corn may be prohibited by any Act or Acts relating to the Importation of Corn; any thing contained in any such Act or Acts to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Admission of Oil Seeds.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That at any Time after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, it shall and may be lawful to import into any Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Seeds of any Sort commonly made use of for the Purpose of extracting Oil therefrom, although the Price of molting British Rape Seed shall be less than Seventeen Pence Ten Shillings per Last, and whatever the Price of such British Rape Seed may be: any Thing in any Act or Acts in force immediately before the said Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty three to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding, subject nevertheless to the Payment of such Duties or Customs as shall be payable on such Seeds so imported or the Time of such Importation.

Imports on Customs of Mohair Yarn under 16 G. 4. c. 25. § 2. repealed.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, the Bounty of Allowance made payable on the Exportation of Casimets made in any Part of the United Kingdom, of Mohair Yarn mixed with Worsted, under and by virtue of an Act made in the First and Second Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to grant certain Bounties on the Exportation of Stuffs made of his mixed wool Mohair, and of Stuffs made of Mohair mixed with Woads, the Manufacture of Great Britain and Ireland, shall be and the same is hereby repealed: Provided always, that the Bounties granted, allowed and made payable by the said Act, shall remain and continue payable under the Regulations contained in or referred to by the said recited Act, upon such Casimets which shall be exported at any Time within Three Calendar Months after the said Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty three.

Duties to continue in respect of certain Casimets.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That there shall be paid to any Person or Persons, who, at any Time after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, shall really and bona fide export, from any Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland by way of Merchandise, certain Silk Manufactures made in any Part of the said United Kingdom, the several Bounties or Allowances mentioned, specified and set forth in the Table marked (E.) to this Act annexed, in like of all former Bounties or Allowances on any Silk Manufactures, under any Act or Acts in force immediately before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, and such former Bounties and Allowances shall, from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, wholly cease and determine; and such Bounties and Allowances under this Act shall be allowed and paid in such and the like Manner, and under such and the like Rules, Regulations, Re-restrictions, Penalties and Forfeitures, as are prescribed or imposed by the several Laws in force at the Time of the passing of this Act, for granting Allowances on the Exportation of Silk Manufactures.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, upon the Exportation from Great Britain in any Place except Ireland, and upon the Exportation from Ireland to any Place except Great Britain, of any Beef, Pork, Tongues, Hams or Bacon, salted in Great Britain or Ireland, there shall be paid and allowed an Allowance or Bounty of One Shilling for each and every Cwt. hundred Pounds Weight thereof, until the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty five; and that such Bounty or Allowance shall be paid and allowed under the Rules and Regulations of any Act or Acts in force granting an Allowance or Bounty on Articles of the like Nature in Great Britain or Ireland respectively before the Twenty sixth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty two.

XXXIV. And Whereas some of the Duties imposed upon the Importation of certain Goods, Wares and Merchandises into Great Britain, are under the Management in part of the Commissioners of Customs, and in part of the Commissioners of Excise, and some other Import Duties are under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise: And Whereas for the Convenience of Trade, and for the better and more economical Collection of the Revenue, it may be found expedient that all Import Duties should be placed under the Management of the Commissioners of Customs, or that such Duties as have hitherto been under the Management in part of the Commissioners of Customs, and in part of the Commissioners of Excise, should be wholly managed either by the Commissioners of Customs, or by the Commissioners of Excise: Be it therefore enacted, That at any Time after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, by His Order in Council, to declare and direct that all such Duties as aforesaid, or any of them, may be placed under the sole Management of the Commissioners of Customs, or under the sole Management of the Commissioners of Excise, as shall be expressed and directed in such Order, and for a Time to be mentioned in such Order; and such Order in Council shall be published in the London Gazette; and such Duties shall, during the Time mentioned in such His Majesty's Order in Council, become and be placed either under the sole Management of the Commissioners of Customs, or under the sole Management of the Commissioners of Excise, as shall be directed in such Order in Council; and all Drawbacks allowed by Law upon the Exportation of any Articles liable to such Duties, shall be allowed and made payable under the Direction of the Commissioners so named in such Order in Council, any Act or Acts, or any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding; and the Inamline in the London Gazette of any such Order in Council shall be good and sufficient Evidence in all Cases that such Order was made, and was of the Purport and Effect published and contained in such Gazette, without producing or giving any other Evidence of any such Order in Council.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That during the Time mentioned in any such Order in Council as aforesaid, when any such Duties as aforesaid shall be placed under the sole Management of the Commissioners of Customs, or under the sole Management of the Commissioners of Excise, as the Case may be, all and singular Powers and Authorities, and Rules and Regulations, in any wise relating to such Duties, or to the Importation, Entering, Landing, Warehousing, Exportation or Bending of the Goods or Commodities in respect of which such Duties shall be payable, contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament, or exercised under any Usage or Customs in force at or immediately before the passing of this Act, or granted to and exercised by the Commissioners and Officers of Customs, or by the Commissioners and Officers of Excise respectively, shall, for and during the Time mentioned in any such Order in Council as aforesaid, be secured, exercised and put in force for the securing and collecting such Duties by the Commissioners and Officers of Customs, or by the Commissioners and Officers of Excise, as the Case may be, under whose Management such Duties shall be placed by such Order in Council, as if all and singular such Powers and Authorities had been originally given and granted to the Commissioners, under the Management of whom such Duties shall be placed by such Order in Council as aforesaid; and that all Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures imposed by any such Act or Acts of Parliament, in respect of any Matter or Thing to be done, or refused or neglected to be done, by any Person or Persons in any wise relating to such Duties, or to the Importation, Entering, Landing, Warehousing, Exportation or Bending of such Goods, without, or under, or contrary to the Warrant, Order, Approbation or Permission of the Commissioners or Officers of Customs or Excise respectively, under whose Management and Collection such Duties were placed before the making of such Order in Council, shall, during the Time mentioned in such Order in Council, be incurred, lost and forfeited, and shall and may be sued for, recovered, levied, assigned and applied upon the like Act or Acts being done, or refused or neglected to be done, without, or under, or contrary to the Warrant, Order, Approbation or Permission of the Commissioners or Officers of Customs, or Commissioners or Officers of Excise, as the Case may be, under the Management of whom such Duties shall be placed by such Order in Council as aforesaid, in like Manner to all Intent and Purposes whatever, as if all such Powers, Authorities, Rules, Regulations, Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures were specified and set forth, and inserted, contained and repeated in the present Act: any thing in any other Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, no Drawback whatever shall be paid or payable upon any Goods, Wares or Merchandises entered or shipped for Exportation from any Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in any Case where such Goods, Wares or Merchandises shall be unreturnable by reason of Damage or Decay, and shall thereby become and shall be of less Value for Home Consumption than XXXVIII. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intitled An Act for preventing Frauds and regulating Accounts in His Majesty's Customs, it is amongst other Things enacted, that the Master or Purser of any Ship or Vessel arriving from Ports beyond the Seas shall make a just and true Entry upon Oath of the Barthes, Contents and Loading of every such Ship or Vessel, with the particular Marks, Numbers, Qualities and Contents of every Parcel of Goods thereon laden, as the best of his Knowledge, also when and in what Port he so took in his Landing, of what Country built, how manned, who was Master during the Voyage, and who are the Owners thereof: And Whereas it is expedient to make further and other Provisions for carrying into Effect the Purposes of the said recited Act: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, it shall be lawful for the Collector or other Chief Officer of the Customs at the Port where any such Ship or Vessel shall arrive, and he is hereby authorized and empowered, in Cases where he shall deem it necessary so to do, to call upon the Captain, Master, Purser or other Person (so making any such Oath as aforesaid,) to answer all such Questions relating to his Voyage, and to the Cargo laden on board his Vessel, as shall be demanded of him, or to produce any Bill or Bills of Lading, or a true Copy thereof, for the Whole or any and every Part of the Cargo laden on board his said Ship or Vessel; and in case of Refusal to answer such Questions, or to produce such Bill or Bills of Lading, or such Copy, or if the Bill of Lading or Copy so produced shall be a false Bill of Lading or Copy, or if any Bill of Lading shall be signed or uttered by such Captain, Master, Owner or other Person, and the Goods expressed in the same shall not have been load file shipped on board the said Ship or Vessel, or if the Bill of Lading shall not have been signed by the said Captain, Master, Purser or other Person, or the Copy made or received, previous to his leaving the Country from which he shall have arrived, then and in every such Case such Captain, Master, Purser or other Person shall forfeit and pay the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

XXXIX. And Whereas by the said recited Act, passed in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of the Reign of King Charles the Second, Officers of His Majesty's Customs are authorized and empowered to enter on board any Ship or Vessel arriving from Foreign Ports beyond the Seas, and from thence to bring on Shore all Goods for which the Duties are not paid or compounded for within Twenty Days after the Entry of the Ship or Vessel, and to secure the same in His Majesty's Warehouse until the Duties thereon are fully paid: And Whereas it frequently happens that the Officers of the Customs or Excise, stationed on board such Ships or Vessels for the Security of the Haven, are detained on account of a few Packages only of the Cargo of such Ship or Vessel being left on board, whereby considerable Expence is unnecessarily incurred: Be it therefore enacted, That in all Cases where the Cargo of any Ship or Vessel arriving in any Port in Great Britain, from Ports beyond the Seas, shall have been discharged, with the Exception only of a few Packages, it shall and may be lawful for the proper Officer or Officers of His Majesty's Customs or Excise, when such Revenue is concerned, and he and they so and are hereby authorized and empowered to bring on Shore all such remaining Packages and to deposit the same in His Majesty's Warehouse at the Port of Importation, for the Security of the Duties thereon, although Twenty Days may not have expired from the Entry of such Ship or Vessel.

XI. And Whereas it is expedient to make further Provisions with respect to Goods landed in Great Britain on Bills of Sight, Bills of View or Reference: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, whenever any Goods, Wares or Merchandise shall be landed in Great Britain on Bills of Lading, Bills of View or Surreance, the Importer or Importers, Owner or Owners, or Consignee or Consignees, or his or their Agent or Agents, at whose Instance or Request such Goods, Wares and Merchandise shall be so landed, shall and he and they and are hereby required to make, perfect Entry of all such Goods, Wares and Merchandise, with the proper Officers or Officers of the Customs and Excise, where that Revenue is concerned, appointed for that Purpose, and to pay all Duties which may be due and payable upon the Importation of such Goods, Wares and Merchandise, within Three Days next after the landing thereof; and in case of Non-Payment of all such Duties, it shall and may be lawful for the proper Officer or Officers of the Customs or Excise, where that Revenue is concerned, and he and they in and are hereby authorized and required to convey all such Goods, Wares and Merchandise to and to deposit the same in His Majesty's Warehouse at the Port of Importation, there to remain for the space of One Calendar Month; and if the Importer or Importers, or Owner or Owners, or Consignee or Consignees of such Goods, Wares and Merchandise, or his or their Agent or Agents, shall refuse or neglect to enter such Goods, Wares and Merchandise, and to pay the full Duties thereon, together with the Charges of Warehouse Rent, so or before the Expiration of such Calendar Month, all such Goods, Wares and Merchandise shall be sold under the Direction of the Commissioners of Customs or Excise, where that Revenue is concerned, and the Produce thereof shall be applied towards Payment of the Duties and Charges of Warehouse Rent thereon; and the Overplus, if any, shall be paid to the Proprietor of such Goods, Wares and Merchandise, or other Person authorized to receive the same.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, whenever any Goods, Wares or Merchandise shall have been or shall be lodged or secured in any of His Majesty's Warehouses in Great Britain, for Security of the Duties thereon, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of Customs or Excise, where that Revenue is concerned, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, to charge and demand and receive Warehouse Rent for such Goods, Wares and Merchandise, for all such Time as such Goods, Wares and Merchandise shall remain in such Warehouse, at and after such and the same Rate as is or may be payable for Goods, Wares and Merchandise of the like Nature, when warehoused and secured in any other Warehouse in which such Goods, Wares and Merchandise are or may be by Law allowed to be warehoused and secured without Payment of Duty.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That in case the Duties payable on any Goods, Wares and Merchandise warehoused in His Majesty's Warehouse for Security of the Duties thereon, shall not have been or shall not be paid within One Calendar Month, in case such Goods, Wares or Merchandise shall be of a perishable Nature, or otherwise within Three Calendar Months next after the Day when such Goods, Wares and Merchandise shall have been or shall be first lodged and secured in such Warehouse, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of Customs and they are hereby required to order such Goods, Wares and Merchandise to be publicly sold by Auction; and after such Sale, the Produce thereof shall be first applied towards Payment of the Duties and of the Warehouse Rent and all other Charges thereon; and the Overplus, if any, shall be rendered and paid to the Proprietor or other Person lawfully authorized to receive the same.

XLIII. And Whereas by an Act made in the Forty third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act for the further Regulation of the Collection of the Duties of Customs in Great Britain, in certain Cases, it is among other Things enacted, that it shall not be lawful for any Person or Persons whatsoever, to lade or put off, or cause to be laded or put off from any Quay, Wharf or other Place on Land, into any Ship, Vessel, Lighter, Boat or Bottom, any Goods, Wares or Merchandise whatsoever, with intent to export the same to Parts beyond the Seas, until such Person or Persons shall deliver or cause to be delivered, by themselves or Agent, to the Controlling Searchers of His Majesty's Customs or some one of them, a true and correct Copy in Writing of the Concoct or Entry, together with the Indorsement thereon, for all such Goods, Wares and Merchandise so intended to be exported; And Whereas it is expedient to make further Provision with respect to such Goods; Be it enacted, That from and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, if any Goods, Wares or Merchandise intended to be exported from Great Britain and laded in the Payment of any Duty on the Exportation thereof, shall be so laded or put off from any Quay, Wharf or other Place on Land, into any Ship, Vessel, Lighter, Boat or Bottom, or shall be brought to any Quay, Wharf or other Place in Great Britain, for the Purpose of being shipped for Exportation, and upon Examination of such Goods, Wares or Merchandise by the proper Officer or Officers of His Majesty's Customs, such Goods, Wares and Merchandise shall be found not to agree with the Indorsement upon the Concoct or the Copy of the Concoct delivered to the proper Officers for the Shipment of such Goods, that then and in every such Case the whole of the Goods contained in any Package not so agreeing with the Indorsement upon the Concoct or Copy of the Concoct as aforesaid, shall be forfeited and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of His Majesty's Customs.

XLIV. And for preventing Frauds upon His Majesty's Revenue on the Importation of manufactured Goods which pay Duty according to the Value thereof, by importing some Part of a manufactured Article at one Port, and the remaining Part of such Article at another Port, or by importing such Parts at different Ports at the same Port, and placing a small Value upon such Goods in consequence of their being in an imperfect State; Be it enacted, That from and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, it shall not be lawful to import any distinct or separate Part of any Article of Foreign Manufacture into the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, not accompaid by the other Part, or all the other Parts of such Article, so as to be complete and perfect, and any such distinct or separate Part of any Article of Foreign Manufacture which shall be brought into the United Kingdom, not accompanied by the other Part, or all the other Parts of the same Article, so as to be complete and perfect, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of His Majesty's Customs.

Forfeited.

XLV. And Whereas it is expedient for the Convenience of Trade, and the Ease and Accommodation of Merchants, that the Oaths now required by Law to be taken with respect to the Import and Export of certain Goods, Wares and Merchandises, should be administered by One only of the proper Officers of the Customs, and that the Signature of One Officer in certain Documents should be sufficient in Law: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, in all Cases where any Oath is by any Act or Acts in force required to be taken, relating to the Import, Export or carrying Coastwise of any Goods, Wares or Merchandises, such Oath shall and may be administered by the Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs; and that the Signature of the Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs to any Document relating to the entering or clearing of any Ships or Vessels, or relating to the Import, Export or carrying Coastwise of any Goods, Wares or Merchandises (save and except such Documents as relate to the Registry of Ships, or to the Payment or Receipt of Money), shall be deemed sufficient, and such Documents (except as aforesaid) shall be as good and valid to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as if the same had been signed by Two or more Officers of Customs; any Thing in any Act or Acts, or any Custom or Usage to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Oaths may be administered, and certain Documents signed by One Officer only.

XLVI. And Whereas it is expedient for the better Security of the Revenue, and of the Merchants and Traders, to establish Regulations for restraining improper Persons from acting as Agents for transacting Business at the Custom House in London; Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the Expiration of One Calendar Month next after the passing of this Act, it shall not be lawful for any Person to act as an Agent for transacting any Business at the said Custom House, which shall relate to the Entry or Clearance of any Ship or Ships, or to the clearing of any Goods or Baggage, or the passing of any Entry whatsoever, upon which any Revenue of Customs shall be due or payable, unless such Person shall be authorized so to do by Licence under the Hands and Seals of the Commissioners of Customs for the Time being; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, or any Two of them, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to grant any such Licence to any Person or Persons who may require the same; and in such Cases it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to require a Bond to be given by every Person to whom such Licence shall be granted for the Purpose of acting as such Agent respectively, with One sufficient Surety, in the Sum of One thousand Pounds, conditioned for the faithful and discreet Conduct of every such Person, and of his Clerk acting for him as herein provided, and to deliver up such Licence if the same shall be revoked within Seven Days after the Notice of such Revocation.

Agents for transacting Business at the Custom House to be licensed by Commissioners of Customs.

Bond with Surety required for 1000l.

Persons certified by Lord Mayor, &c. may be licensed as Agents without Sureties.

XLVII. Provided always, and he it enacted, That the said Commissioners of Customs shall and they are hereby authorized and required to grant any such Licence, without such Bond or Surety as aforesaid, to any Person being One of the Sworn Brokers of the City of London, upon the Production by any such Person of a Certificate signed by the Lord Mayor, or by the proper Officer of the Court of Aldermen of the said City, that such Person is a fit and proper Person to be licensed as such Agent.

Proviso as to Clerks in Custom House.

XLVIII. Provided also, and he it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to authorize the Commissioners of the Customs to grant any Licence to any Officer or Clerk in the Custom House at London to act as such Agent, nor to prevent any Officer or Clerk in the Long Room of the said Custom House from passing Entries under the Authority of an Act made in the Fifty first Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled An Act for the Abolition and Regulation of certain Offices in the Customs, without any such Licence as is required by this Act.

Treasury may revoke Licence.

XLIX. And he it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Two of them for the Time being, by any Order in Writing under their Hands, to revoke any Licence granted in pursuance of this Act to any Person or Persons to transact Business at the said Custom House, whenever it shall appear to the said Commissioners expedient so to do.

After Notice of Revocation, Licence to be void.

L. And he it further enacted, That after the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury shall by any such Order have revoked any such Licence, a Copy of the Order of Revocation shall be delivered to the Person to whom such Licence was granted, or shall be left at his usual Dwelling House or Place of Abode, or Counting House; and from and after the Delivery or leaving of a Copy of such Order as aforesaid, the Licence granted to such Person shall be and the same is hereby declared to be null and void.

Agents acting without Licences.

Penalty 100l.

LI. And he it further enacted, That if any Person not being licensed to transact Business in Manner heretofore recited and authorized by this Act, or whose Licence shall be revoked, or who if licensed shall be in Partnership with any Person or Persons who shall not be licensed as aforesaid, shall act as an Agent in transacting such Business at the said Custom House, every such Person shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

Penalty for Merchants' and Brokers' Clerks acting for such Merchants or Brokers.

LII. Provided always, and he it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to prevent any Clerk who shall be lawfully employed in the Service of any Merchant, or of any such Sworn Broker, or of any Two or more Merchants or Brokers in Copartnership, duly authorized by such Merchant or Merchants, or Broker or Brokers; but it shall be lawful for such Clerk to act for such Merchant or Merchants, or Broker or Brokers, in transacting any Business for or on behalf of his Employer at the Custom House.

Provided always, That such Clerk shall be allowed to act only for the Merchant or Merchants, or Broker or Brokers in Copartnership, in whose Service he shall actually be engaged, and for whom he shall be authorized to act, by Writing under his or their Hand or Hands, and not for any other Merchant or Merchants, or Broker or Brokers, unless such Clerk shall be duly licensed so to do under the Authority of this Act.

LIII. And Whereas it has happened that Persons acting as Agents have frequently made and attested Declarations as to the Value of Goods without any lawful Authority for so doing, to the great Injury of the Importers or Proprietors of such Goods, Wares and Merchandise, and to the Prejudice of the Revenue; For Remedy whereof be it enacted, That if at any Time after the passing of this Act, any Person or Persons shall make and attest any Declaration of the Value of any Goods, Wares or Merchandise imported, not being the Importer or Proprietor or Consignor of the Goods, Wares and Merchandise mentioned in such Declaration, or not having proper and sufficient Authority from the real Importer or Importers, or Proprietor or Proprietors, or Consignor or Consignees of such Goods, Wares and Merchandise, every such Person shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

LIV. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Broker, Agent or Clerk shall make any Application to any Officer or Officers of the Customs to transact any Business relating to the Entry or Clearance of any Ship or Ships, or to Goods, Wares or Merchandise imported or exported, or to the Revenue of Customs thereon, and such Officer or Officers shall have any Doubt whether such Broker, Agent or Clerk has any Authority from the Merchant or Merchants, or other Person or Persons in whose Name or in whose Behalf any such Broker, Agent or Clerk shall make such Application, it shall be lawful for such Officer or Officers, and he and they is and are hereby authorized to require any such Broker, Agent or Clerk respectively, to produce to such Officer or Officers from the Merchant or other Person in whose Name or whose Behalf any such Application shall be made, and in Default of the Production of such written Authority, it shall be lawful for such Officer or Officers to refuse to transact any such Business relating to the Entry or Clearance of any Ship or Ships, or to such Goods, Wares or Merchandise, or the Revenue of Customs thereon, or to do any Act, Matter or Thing required to be done by any such Officer in the Execution of his Duty, in respect to such Ship or Ships, or to such Goods, Wares and Merchandise, or the Revenue of Customs thereon; any Act, Law, Usage or Customs to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

LV. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Clerk or other Person in the Service or Employ of any Broker or Agent who shall be licensed under the Authority of this Act, to act for such Broker or Agent without a written Appointment from such Broker or Agent for such Purpose, nor unless such Appointment shall by such Clerk be produced to the Commissioners of Customs, and shall be allowed and sanctioned by the Signature of such Commissioners, or any one or more of them, for the Time being.

LVI. And be it further enacted, That all the Monies owing by the Duties imposed by this Act (the necessary Charges of raising and assessing for the same excepted) shall from time to time be paid into the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer, and shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and shall be appropriated in like Manner and to the like Services as the Duties by this Act repealed would have been if this Act had not passed.

LVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to affect or alter the Hereditary Revenue of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors in Scotland, or other Revenues then granted to His Majesty King George the Second, during his Life, and reserved to His late Majesty King George the Third, during his Life, by an Act made in the First Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, and reserved to His present Majesty, during his Life, by an Act made in the First Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for the Support of His Majesty's Household, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; and here, and the Civil List Establishment payable out of the same, shall continue to be paid in like Manner as at the same; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

LVIII. And be it further enacted, That the Duties and Drawbacks imposed and allowed by this Act, according as they are hereby or may hereafter be made and become Duties of Customs or Excise, shall not may be managed, ascertained, rated, levied, collected, answered, paid, recovered and allowed, in such and the like Manner as former Duties and Drawbacks of Customs or Excise upon Goods, Wares or Merchandise in general, were or might have been managed, ascertained, rated, levied, collected, answered, paid, recovered and allowed, and under and subject to all such Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Provisions, Penalties and Forfeitures, and Modes of enforcing and recovering the same, as any such or the like Goods, Wares or Merchandise were particularly subject and liable to by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on or immediately before the passing of this Act.

LIX. And be it further enacted, That the several Penalties and Forfeitures in this Act mentioned shall and may be prosecuted, determined, recovered, levied, mitigated and disposed of by such Ways, Means and Methods, as any Penalties or Forfeitures may now be prosecuted, determined, recovered, levied, mitigated and disposed of, by any Act or Acts relating to the Revenue of the Customs or Excise, whose that Revenue is concerned, in Great Britain.

LX. And be it further enacted, That if any Action or Suit shall be brought or commenced against any Person or Persons for any Thing done in pursuance of this Act, such Action or Suit shall be commenced within Three Calendar Months next after the Fact complained, and not afterwards, and shall be laid in the County or Place where the Cause of Complaint did arise, and not elsewhere; and the Defend-

An Act for the better Administration of Justice in the Equity Side of the Court of Exchequer in Ireland. [11th July 1825.]

WHEREAS it hath appeared, by Reports made to the King's most Excellent Majesty from the Commissioners appointed by His Majesty upon an Address of the Knights, Citizens and Burgesses, in Parliament assembled, to inquire into the Duties and Emoluments of the Officers, Clerks and Ministers of Justice in all Temporal and Ecclesiastical Courts in Ireland, that the several Ministerial Officers

• Officers of the Equity Side of His Majesty's Court of Chancery in England require Regulations for • ensuring the more easy, cheap and expeditious Administration of Justice in the said Court; And
 • Whereas some of such Regulations may be carried into Effect by General Orders of the said Court; but
 • certain other Regulations are required which cannot be carried into effect without the Aid of Parlia-
 • ment: And Whereas it is expedient that the Fees to be taken by the said several Officers of the said
 • Court should be ascertained and regulated by Law: May it therefore please Your Majesty that
 • it may be enacted; And be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the • Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament
 • assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Commencement of this Act, it • shall and may be lawful for the several Officers in, of or belonging to the said Court, mentioned and
 • described in the several Tables to this Act annexed, to ask, demand, have, receive, take and accept, for
 • and by reason, and on account of the several Acts, Matters and Things to be done in or concerning the • Business of their several and respective Offices, or of the several Services to be performed, touching or
 • concerning such Offices, the several Fees, Payments and Sums and Sums of Money in the said Tables
 • hereunto annexed respectively mentioned, and some other or greater Fees or Sums of Money whatever;
 • and that no Officer or Attendant of the said Court, nor any Deputy or Clerk of any such Officer, nor
 • any Person acting in any of the said Offices of the said Court, or doing any Part of the Business thereof,
 • mentioned in the said Tables or either of them, shall ask, demand or receive, from any of the Parties of
 • the said Court, or from any Person or Persons whatsoever on their Behalf, any Fee or Sum or Sums of • Money whatever, on account of, or for the Performance of, or under pretence of performing any Act,
 • Matter or Thing whatsoever, in any way relating to the Business of the said Court, not mentioned in the
 • said Tables, or some or one of them, as payable for or in respect of such Act, Matter or Business, except
 • under the Provisions of this Act, any Law, Usage or Custom as any Time hereinafter made, used or
 • exercised, to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding; and that the said Tables, and all Directions,
 • Matters and Things contained therein, shall be taken as Part of this Act to all Intents and Purposes • whatsoever.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Court from time to time to vary and alter the Amount of any of the Fees aforesaid, by decreasing or increasing the same, or to abolish any of the said Fees altogether; and also to direct and authorize the Payment of any new or additional Fee to the several Officers and Persons in the said Tables mentioned, or any of them, or to any other Person, for or in respect of any Matters or Things mentioned in the said Tables, or any of them, or of any other Matter or Things to be done in the Execution of the Duty of the Office of such Officers or Persons respectively, and all such Fees, the Amount whereof shall be so altered, and also such new or additional Fees which shall be so made payable, and also any Order for the Abolition of any Fee, shall be specified and set forth in a Table or Tables to be made by order of the said Court, and signed by Three at least of the Barons thereof, and such Order shall specify the Grounds and Reasons upon which such Fees shall have been altered, abolished or made payable respectively; and a Copy of every such Order, signed as aforesaid, shall be transmitted by the Chief Baron of the said Court to the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of England, who shall cause Copies of the same to be laid before both Houses of Parliament, immediately after the Commencement of the then next Session of Parliament: and thereupon every such Fee shall be and be deemed and taken to be a legal Fee according to the Terms of such Order, and payable and receivable as such Fees and after the last Day of such Session of Parliament, as if the same had been included in any of the Tables annexed to this Act.

III. Provided also, and be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Court to make any such Order or Orders of the said Court, for the altering or discharging any Course of Proceedings in Suits pending or to be brought at the Equity Side of the said Court, and to direct that such Process shall issue, and in such Manner and Course as in all such Suits as to the said Court shall appear fit and expedient, in the same Manner and with the same Force and Effect in all respects as if the Act had not passed; and that no Clause, Matter or Thing contained in any Act or Acts from time to time in force in England, for the granting or regulating the Payment of any Stamp Duty, or any Process in any Suit at the Equity Side of the said Court, shall extend or be construed to extend to prevent, alter or affect the Course of any of such Proceedings, or the issuing of any such Process, or to warrant or authorize the Receipt of any greater Fee, by the Attention of the Number of Words in any Sheet of Proceeding; and that the several Stamp Duties from time to time imposed or payable on any such Proceeding or Process shall be paid and payable upon the same as altered by the said Court, or upon such Proceeding or Process as shall be substituted for any which may be abolished, such Process or Proceeding being by such Order declared to be so substituted.

IV. And be it further enacted, That if any Officer at the Equity Side of the said Court, mentioned in the said Tables, or either of them, shall at any time after the Commencement of this Act ask or demand, or shall have, take, accept or receive from any Suitor, Solicitor or other Person whatsoever, save and except only from the Principal Officer by and under whom any such Deputy or Clerk, or other Person, shall be immediately employed, any Gift, Fee, Reward or Remuneration, for or by reason, or on account, or under pretence of any Service of their own, or of any Person or Persons employed by or under them respectively, in any of the Offices of the said Court, or of any such Deputy or Clerk, or other Person, shall ask or demand, or shall have, take, receive or accept any Gift, Fee or Reward, Gratuity or Remuneration, for or by reason, or on account, or under pretence of the Services of their Principals or Employers,

The Officers of the Court of Chancery mentioned in the Tables annexed to this Act.

Fees may be altered or new Fees allowed by Order of the Court.

Such Orders to be transmitted to Lord Lieutenants, who shall cause
 Copies thereof
 to be laid before Parliament.

Court may also make Course of Proceedings in Suits, and Stamp Duties
 applied to Processes be altered.

Deputies or Clerks taking Fees contrary to Act.

Employers, or for or by reason, or on account, or under pretext of any Matter or Thing whatsoever, done in and about the Business of their respective Offices, other than and except only such Fees and Sums of Money as shall from time to time be lawful, under the Provisions of this Act, every Deputy, Clerk or other Person so offending, shall for every such Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

V. And be it further enacted, That if any Person who shall hold any of the said Offices mentioned and described in any of the Tables to this Act assessed shall by himself, or by his Deputy, or by any Clerk or Person authorized on his Behalf, wilfully and knowingly ask, demand, have, take, receive or accept, directly or indirectly, any Gift, Fee, Reward, Gratuity or Remuneration, for or by reason, or on account, or under pretext of any Service in any of the Offices in the said Tables specified, other than and except only such Fees and Sums of Money as shall from time to time be lawful under the Provisions of this Act, or shall wilfully and knowingly ask, demand, have, take or receive or accept, directly or indirectly, any Gift, Fee, Reward, Gratuity or Remuneration, for or by reason, or on account, or under pretext of any Service in any way concerning or relating to the Business of any of the said respective Offices, not then allowed to be taken under the Provisions of this Act, every such Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of One hundred Pounds, and shall also forfeit and lose all and every Office and Offices in or under the said Court, which such Person shall hold or be possessed of at the Time of such Offence, and shall for ever after be incapable and incapacitated from holding any Office in or under the said Court.

VI. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Third Day of the Michaelmas Term next after the passing of this Act, no Person whatsoever shall in any wise act in the Business of any of the Offices or Places in the Equity Side of the said Court of Exchequer, mentioned in the Tables to this Act assessed, or any of them, or shall do any Act relating to the Business of any such Office, whether as a Principal or Deputy, or a Clerk, and such Person shall have taken and subscribed, before the Chief or one other Baron of the said Court, an Oath in the Form following, that is to say,

I, A. B. do solemnly swear, That I will, to the best of my Knowledge, Skill and Judgment, execute and perform such of the Duties of the Office of _____ at the Equity Side of the Court of Exchequer in England, as I shall personally execute, and that I will well and faithfully pay every Deputy or Clerk, whom I shall or may at any Time employ in any Part of the Business of the said Office, such Salaries and Allowances as they shall from time to time be respectively entitled to by Law, or such additional Sums as I shall contract or agree to pay them respectively; and that I will not by myself, or by any Deputy or Clerk, or other Person or Persons, ask or demand, or have, take, accept or receive any Gift, Fee, Reward, Gratuity or Remuneration whatever, other than such as shall at the Time of receiving the same be authorized and allowed by the Tables which shall be then in force, or under the Provisions of some Act of Parliament; and that I will in all Things relating to my said Office conduct myself according to the Rules and Regulations which shall from time to time be in force for the Regulation of such Office, and of the Business thereof. So help me GOD.

And any Officer, Deputy, Clerk or other Person, who shall at any Time after the Third Day of the said Michaelmas Term personally act in any Matters relating to the Business of any such Office in the said Court, without having taken and subscribed such Oath as aforesaid, shall for every Day on which he shall so act forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

VII. And be it further enacted, That every Officer at the Equity Side of the said Court of Exchequer shall, on or before the Third Day of the Michaelmas Term next after the passing of this Act, and every Officer of the said Court who shall be hereafter appointed, within Three Calendar Months after he shall have taken the Oath of Office required by this Act, affix or cause to be affixed or hung up in his Office a Table of all such Fees as it shall be then lawful to receive pursuant to the Directions of this Act, in his said Office, in respect of the Business thereof; and if at any Time any of such Fees shall be altered or abolished, or any new Fee or Fees authorized according to the Directions of this Act, in respect of the Business of such Office, then and in every such Case such Officer shall, within One Week from the Time of such Change, alter such Table so kept in his Office pursuant and according to such Change, and to the Order for making the same; and such Table shall at all Times be written or printed in fair and legible Characters, and shall be framed and glazed, so as to be preserved from being erased or altered in any other Manner save as aforesaid, and shall be always kept affixed or hung up in such Manner that the same shall be accessible to and legible by all Persons resorting to such Office; and in case such Table shall not be so affixed or hung up, and continually kept so framed and glazed and legible in the said Office, such Officer shall, for every Day on which such Table shall not be so kept and legible as aforesaid in such Office, forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That every Officer at the Equity Side of the said Court of Exchequer shall, in every Five Years, that is to say, in Michaelmas Term One thousand eight hundred and twenty eight, and in like Manner on some Day in Michaelmas Term One thousand eight hundred and thirty three, and so in Michaelmas Term in every Fifth Year succeeding, deliver to the Chief Housekeeper of the said Court, in open Court, a Table or Schedule, under the Hand and Seal of such Officer respectively, specifying and setting forth the Rate of all Fees charged or received in the Office of such Officer at any Time during Five Years then next immediately preceding, and paid to or received by such Officer, or any his Deputy or Clerk, or other Person whatsoever, directly or indirectly, for the Benefit of such Officer, or his Deputy or Clerks respectively; and every such Officer shall, at the Time of the Delivery of such Table, make Oath to the Truth thereof in open Court, to the best of his Knowledge and Belief, which Oath shall be written at the Foot of such Table, and shall be signed by such Officer.

X. And he it further enacted, That the Chief Remembrancer of the said Court shall, upon the Receipt of such Tables, carefully examine the same and the several Fees therein stated and set forth, and shall compare the same with the several Fees contained in the Tables to this Act annexed, and with such Orders of the said Court as may have altered the said Fees, or any of them, or may have added any new or other Fees; and in case it shall appear to such Chief Remembrancer, upon Examination, that any Fee or Fees contained in the said Table shall exceed in Amount the Fee allowed to be taken according to the Tables to this Act annexed, or any Orders of the said Court for altering the same, or shall not be included in or allowed by such Tables or Orders respectively, the said Chief Remembrancer shall file all such Tables of Fees to which an Examination or Objection shall appear, or which shall be approved of by the said Court, and shall transmit a Copy of every such Table of Fees so filed, signed by such Chief Remembrancer, to the Clerk of His Majesty's Privy Council in Ireland, on or before the Thirty-first Day of December next ensuing every such Michaelmas Term in which the same shall have been delivered as aforesaid.

X. And he it further enacted, That the said Chief Remembrancer of the said Court shall, on or before the Thirty-first Day of December next after every such Michaelmas Term, in each Fifth Year, transmit to the Clerk of His Majesty's Privy Council in Ireland a List of all Officers of the said Court who shall have neglected or omitted to deliver the Tables required by this Act, for the Five Years preceding such Michaelmas Term; and if any Officer shall omit or neglect to deliver such Table as is required by this Act, or if the Chief Remembrancer shall neglect or omit to transmit to the Privy Council Copies of the Tables so delivered as aforesaid, by the Officers of the said Court, or any of them, or shall neglect or omit to transmit a List of such Officers so neglecting to deliver in such Tables, every such Officer and Chief Remembrancer so making Default shall forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

XI. And he it further enacted, That from and after the First Day of August next after the passing of this Act, it shall not be lawful for any Person who now holds or shall hereafter hold any of the Offices of the said Court, mentioned and specified in any of the Tables to this Act annexed, or who now is or shall hereafter be appointed a Deputy or Clerk of any Person who now holds or shall hereafter hold any such Office, to act or practice, either in his own Name or in the Name of any other Person or Persons, as an Attorney or Solicitor, in any of the Courts of Law or Equity in Ireland; and every such Officer or Person who shall directly or indirectly, by himself, or any other Person in Partnership with or in trust for him, act as such Attorney or Solicitor, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, shall for every Time he shall so act forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

XII. And he it further enacted, That all Officers of the said Court of Exchequer who shall be entitled to any Fees under the Provisions of this Act, shall employ in their respective Offices a sufficient Number of Writing Clerks to make Copies of Bills, Pleadings, Affidavits, Orders, Decrees and other Things belonging to their respective Offices, and required by or on Behalf of the Suters of the said Court, and to do and perform all other Business requisite to be done and performed in such respective Offices, so that the Business of any Suter of the said Court shall not be unreasonably delayed therein; and such Officer shall pay to every such Writing Clerk for all Copies made by such Writing Clerk after the Rate of not less than One Penny Halfpenny for every Office Sheet, containing of Sovereign two Words of every such Copy made by such Clerk, and for a Part or Partion of any Office Sheet; and it shall not be lawful for any such Officer to cause or direct, or knowingly permit any such Copy, or any Part thereof, to be made in any other Place or by any other Person, than in the proper Office of such Officer, and by a Writing Clerk employed in such Office, and paid exclusively by such Officer after the Rate aforesaid, at least; and every such Officer shall be responsible for the Accuracy of every Copy so made in his Office, and for the same being duly compared with the Original from which it shall be made; and every such Officer who shall cause or direct, or knowingly permit any Copy to be made contrary to this Act, or who shall not pay the Writing Clerk for writing the same, according to the Rate by this Act directed at the least, shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

XIII. Provided always, and he it enacted, That if at any Time or Times it shall be ascertained by Affidavit or otherwise, to the Satisfaction of the Court, that any Officer of the said Court hath not in his Office sufficient Room for the reasonable Accommodation of himself, his Deputies and Assistants, and of a sufficient Number of Clerks to do and perform the Business as required to be done in such Office as aforesaid, then and in every such Case it shall and may be lawful to and for such Court to make an Order, declaring that the same has been so proved, and that it shall be lawful for such Officer to cause, direct or permit any such Copy, or any Part thereof, to be made in any Place and by any Person whatever; and that for every Copy or Part of a Copy which shall be so made in any other Place than the said Office, such Officer, in assessing and charging his Fees in respect thereof, shall allow out of the Fees usually payable on such Copies or Parts of Copies, One Penny Halfpenny for every Office Sheet thereof; and every such Order shall be good and valid, and shall be a sufficient Justification in all respects to any Person acting in pursuance thereof, for One Year from the Date thereof, unless sooner rescinded, and shall and may be renewed from time to time, until by means of new Buildings or new Arrangements, or otherwise, sufficient Room shall have been obtained for the Purposes in that behalf aforesaid; and the Rowler only of the Fees to which such Officer would then be lawfully entitled in case such Copying had been regularly done in his Office, which shall remain after such Deductions as aforesaid, shall be deemed and taken to be the lawful Fees or Fee of such Officer in such Case.

XIV. Provided also, and he it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Attorney or Solicitor of the said Court to prepare, for the Attestation of the proper Officers of the said Courts, Engrossments and Copies of all or any such Deceits, Reports, Accounts, Affidavits and other Matters or Things as such Attorney or Solicitor shall have Occasion to file; and that every such Officer shall compare and attest such Copy, and shall in such Case deduct and allow, out of the Fee payable to such Officer for such attested Copy, the Sum of One Penny Halfpenny for every Office Sheet thereof; and shall mark the Fees on such Documents, pursuant to this Act, as if such Copy had been prepared by such Officer; and further, that it shall and may be lawful for any Attorney or Solicitor of the said Court to prepare Drafts of Deceits and all other Documents, in like Manner as the Attorneys or Solicitors of the said Court have heretofore been accustomed to do.

XV. And he it further enacted, That in all Copies, Engagements, Exemplifications or Extracts of any Rules, Findings, Deceits or other Matters chargeable according to the Length thereof, whether the Charge for the same shall be computed according to the Sheet, the Skis, the Roll or the Side, a Fraction of a Sheet, Skis, Roll or Side respectively, of any such Copy, Engagement, Exemplification or Extract, may be charged for by any Officer as an entire Sheet, Skis, Roll or Side; provided that on each such Copy, Engagement, Exemplification or Extract respectively, there shall be charged only One such Fraction of a Sheet, Skis, Roll or Side respectively.

XVI. And he it further enacted, That in all Copies of Accounts and Schedules whatsoever issued from any Office at the Equity Side of the said Court, the Charge or Fee whereupon it or are or shall or may be lawfully computed according to the Contents, all Sums of Money, and Dates of the Year and Days of the Month, and Numbers, shall be expressed in Figures, and shall be charged as if the same were expressed in Figures and not in Words, in Manner and according to the Directions following; (that is to say), One Penny, or any Number of Pennies, shall be charged as One Word, One Shilling, or any Number of Shillings, shall be charged as One Word; One or more Penny or Pence, whether with or without any Fraction of a Penny, shall be charged as One Word; every Fraction of a Penny not joined with any Penny or Pence shall be charged as One Word, whether the same shall occur singly or shall be combined in any Manner or Form whatsoever; and any definite Number whatever shall be charged as One Word and no more.

XVII. And he it further enacted, That upon the Back of all Copies, Engagements, Exemplifications and Writings which shall be issued from any Office at the Equity Side of the said Court, or by any Officer at the Equity Side of the said Court, there shall be endorsed and written by the said Officer, or his sufficient Deputy or Clerk, the full Amount of all Office Fees charged as such Copy, Engagement, Exemplification or Writing respectively, and the Rate of such Fees, and the mode of Charge according to which such Fees shall be computed, and the Number of Sheets, Skins or Sides on which such Fees shall be charged or calculated; and upon any Taxation of Costs between Party and Party, or between Attorney and Client, such Copy, Engagement, Exemplification or Writing shall be produced before the Taxing Officer in all Cases where it shall appear to him practicable; and it shall not be lawful for the Taxing Officer to allow any Charge of any Solicitor or Attorney, with respect to any such Document so produced upon which the Amount and Rates of Fees shall not be as endorsed, but that all said every such Charge shall be struck out of the Bills of such Solicitor or Attorney by such Taxing Officer.

XVIII. And for the Removal of Doubts as to the Extent of the Duty of the Taxing Officer at the Equity Side of the said Court, he it further enacted, That upon all Taxations of Bills of Costs, whether between Party and Party or between Attorney and Client, it shall be the bounden Duty of the Taxing Officer, whether he shall be required so to do or not, and whether any Objection shall have been made or not, to examine and ascertain by all reasonable Methods, that each and every Charge is in any Bill of Costs contained, (whether such shall be a Fee for Counsel, Solicitor or Officer of Court, or Stamp Duty, or any other Disbursement whatsoever, or any Charge for Business done by the Person charging the same), is the proper Charge which, under the Circumstances of the Case, ought to be made; and that upon all such Taxation the Taxing Officer shall determine upon all Charges made by any officer of the said Court of Exchange, and allow all such as shall appear to him made according to the true Right of such Officer respectively.

XIX. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to prevent the Taxing Officer of said Court from taxing all Bills of Costs for Business done previous to the First Day of November Term One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, according to the Rules and Regulations by which any Bill of Costs were taxable at or immediately previous to the Day of passing this Act.

XX. And Whereas the Office of Chief Responable of the said Court of Exchange is now vested in the Most Honourable Richard Marquess Wellesly and the Right Honourable William Lord Mervill; and during the Life of and for the Benefit of the said Marquess Wellesly, and the said Office has been granted in Reversion to Richard Wellesly Esquire, during his Life: And Whereas the Duties of the said Office have heretofore been performed by a Deputy, and by certain Clerks acting under him, entitled the Register, the Clerk in Registrar's Office, the Secretary and the Plazer: And whereas it is expedient that the Duties heretofore appertaining to the said Office of Chief Responable should in future be performed by the Chief Responables, and certain other Officers, as heretofore provided; he it therefore enacted, That the Grants of the said Office of Chief Responable, heretofore made to the said Richard Marquess Wellesly and William Lord Mervill, and to the said Richard Wellesly Esquire, shall from and after the passing of this Act, absolutely cease and determine; and that the said Richard Marquess Wellesly and Richard Wellesly successively shall receive such Compensation as hereinafter provided, for the Loss by them sustained by reason of this Act; and

That Anthony Richard Blake, Barrister at Law, the present Deputy Chief Remembrancer of the said Court, shall, from and after the passing of this Act, become and be Chief Remembrancer of the said Court, and shall hold the said Office during his good Behaviour, and that it shall be his Office and Duty to receive all such References, so Matters of Account, and on all other Matters and Things on the Equity Side of the said Court, and to report thereupon to the said Court, as shall be ordered by the said Court, and to perform all such other Duties heretofore appertaining to the said Office of Chief Remembrancer as have heretofore been performed by the Deputy Chief Remembrancer of the said Court for the Time being, save as hereinafter provided.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That for the Performance of the several Duties heretofore appertaining to the said Office of Chief Remembrancer, which have heretofore been performed by the said Officers or Clerks called the Register, the Clerk in the Register's Office, the Secondary and the Filicer, there shall be at the Equity Side of the said Court a Register, an Assistant Register, a Filicer and a Secondary; and that Francis Harrison Dalrymple, the Person at present performing the Duties of Register in the said Chief Remembrancer's Department, shall be the Register at the Equity Side of the said Court; and that George James Bolles, the Person at present performing the Duties of Clerk in the Register's Office in the said Department, shall be the Assistant Register; and that James Curlew, the Person at present performing the Duties of Secondary in the same Department, shall be the Secondary at the Equity Side of the said Court; and that Richard Ennos, the Person at present performing the Duties of Deputy Filicer in the said Department, shall be the Filicer at the Equity Side of the said Court; and that the said several Officers shall hold their said several Offices during good Behaviour, and shall perform the several Duties mentioned and allotted to them respectively in the Tables to this Act annexed.

XXII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the said Chief Remembrancer shall at all Times superintend the Conduct and Proceedings of the several Officers at the Equity Side of the said Court, and shall inspect their several and respective Offices, and all Records, Books, Accounts, Papers and Documents therein respectively, and shall hear and remove all Complaints which may be made to him of or concerning any Neglect, Delay or Misconduct in any of the said Offices respectively, and shall inquire into the same, and shall admonish such Officers respectively, when he shall find reason so to do, and in any Case which he shall deem of sufficient Importance, shall report the Facts especially to the Court; and it is hereby declared to be the Duty of all the subordinate Officers and their Clerks, to submit themselves quietly and respectfully to such Superintendance and Admonition as aforesaid.

XXIII. Provided also, and be it enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act, it shall not be necessary for the Chief Remembrancer to sign or attest any Decree whatsoever, issuing from the Office of the Register, Assistant Register, Secondary or Filicer, or any other or either of them, but that every such Decree shall be signed or attested by the Officer issuing the same.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That upon the said Office of Chief Remembrancer becoming vacant at any future Time, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, by any Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Ireland, to grant the said Office of Chief Remembrancer of the said Court of Exchequer in Ireland, unto any Person being a practising Barrister at Law, of Ten Years' standing at the least, and who shall during that Period have actually practised as such in some one of His Majesty's Courts at Dublin or Waterford, to hold the said Office during his good Behaviour; and that upon any of the said Offices of Register, Assistant Register, Secondary or Filicer becoming vacant at any future Time, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Ireland, to appoint a proper Person to each Office, to hold the same during his good Behaviour.

XXV. And in order to ascertain the Amount of the annual Compensation which ought to be made to the said Marquess Wellesley during his Life, and to the said Richard Wellesley in Remainder during his Life, for the Loss sustained by them by reason of this Act; Be it further enacted, That the Chief Justice of His Majesty's Court of King's Bench in Ireland for the Time being, the Master of the Rolls in Ireland for the Time being and the Chief Justice of the Court of Common Pleas in Ireland for the Time being, or any Two of them, shall, upon the Application of the said Marquess Wellesley and Richard Wellesley respectively, or of the said Marquess Wellesley or Richard Wellesley alone, make Inquiry into and ascertain the average annual Amount of the Salary, Fees and Emoluments and Fees as shall appear to have arisen from any new Fees, or from any Increase of Fees introduced by or subsequently to the Appointment of the present Holders of the said Office, or as here arisen from computing the Contents of Office Shewts at Seventy two Words instead of Ninety Words each, or from any other Fees which may have been demanded or received contrary to the Provisions of any Act of Parliament, or otherwise contrary to Law; and for those Purposes it shall be lawful for the said Chief Justice of the Court of King's Bench, the said Master of the Rolls and the said Chief Justice of the Common Pleas, or any Two of them, and he or they are hereby authorized, empowered and required, by all such Ways or Means as to him and them shall seem fit and proper, to ascertain the same, and to examine such Persons or Witnesses as they shall think proper to require, together with all such Accounts, Books and Vouchers as they shall call for, and they shall thereupon certify under their Hands and Seals, or under the Hands and Seals of Two of them, the average Amount of the yearly Income of the said Office as reduced by the Exclusion of such Emoluments and Income as aforesaid, for the said Period of Seven Years, distinguishing the Gross Income from the Net Income, and stating the Particulars of the Disbursements out of the Gross Income, which consists the Difference between the Gross and the Net Income, so far as they can ascertain the same; and the said Certificate shall contain a Statement of the particular Fees, Profits and Emoluments on which such Averages shall have been taken as aforesaid, and also of the Fees, Profits and Emoluments heretofore received, which shall be excluded from such Averages; and the said Certificate shall be filed in the Office of the Auditor General in Dublin Castle, and shall remain there as a Record, and a Copy thereof shall be transmitted in the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, who shall cause Copies of the same to be laid before both Houses of Parliament, immediately after the Commencement of the then next Session of Parliament, and the said Certificate shall be final and conclusive from and after the last Day of such Session of Parliament, unless Parliament shall otherwise provide: Provided always, that from and after the filing of the said Certificate, there shall be issued and paid to the said Marquess Wellesley or his Assigns during his Life, and after his Decease to his said Richard Wellesley, and his Assigns during his Life, yearly and every Year, out of and charged upon the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain and Ireland, after payment of all Sums previously charged upon the same Fund, (unless Parliament shall otherwise provide,) a Sum equal to the Sum which shall be so ascertained by such Certificate to be the net annual average Amount of the Income and Emoluments of the said Office of Chief Remembrancer, in full Compensation for the same; such annual Sum to be paid and payable by Four Quarterly Payments in each and every Year, on every Twenty fifth Day of March, Twenty fourth Day of June, Twenty sixth Day of September and Twenty fifth Day of December; the First Payment thereof to be made on the First of the said Days as shall first happen after the passing of this Act, and in proportion to the Time which shall immediately next happen after the passing of this Act, and also such Proportion of any such Quarterly Payment as or the Times of the Decease of the said Marquess Wellesley or Richard Wellesley shall be due from the Quarter Day next preceeding the Time of such Decease.

XXVI. And Whereas some Delay may occur in ascertaining the Amount of the Annual Income of the said Office of Chief Remembrancer, and procuring such Certificate as heretofore directed; Be it therefore enacted, That in the Meantime and until such Certificate shall be obtained and filed as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury to order that there shall be issued and be paid and payable to the said Richard Marquess Wellesley, and his Assigns, and in the Event of the Death of the said Marquess, to the said Richard Wellesley and his Assigns, such annual Sum or Sums of Money on account of the Compensation to be thereafter awarded to said Chief Remembrancer as to them shall appear to be just and reasonable, but not exceeding the net average Amount of the Income and Emoluments of the said Office, as reported by the Commissioners appointed to inquire into the Duties, Salaries and Emoluments of the Officers, Clerks and Ministers of Justice in all Temporal and Ecclesiastical Courts in Ireland, for Three Years, ending the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty; such annual Sum to be paid and payable to the said Richard Marquess Wellesley and his Assigns, or in the Event of his Death, to the said Richard Wellesley or his Assigns, by Four Quarterly Payments in each and every Year, first and clear of all Taxes and Deductions whatsoever, on every Twenty fifth Day of March, Twenty fourth Day of June, Twenty sixth Day of September and Twenty fifth Day of December; the First Payment thereof on account as aforesaid, to be made on the First of said Days which shall next happen after the Commencement of this Act, and in proportion to the Time which shall immediately next happen after the Commencement of this Act; such Payment (if any) to be credited on the Foot of such Annual Income as it shall appear by said Certificate, when filed as aforesaid, that said Richard Marquess Wellesley or Richard Wellesley is entitled to; and in case the Fees or Sums so to be paid as aforesaid shall exceed the Sum to which they or either of them shall appear by said Certificate to be entitled to, then and in such Case such Excess or Overplus shall be deducted from the Quarterly Payment which shall next happen after the filing of said Certificate.

XXVII. And Whereas the said Commissioners so appointed as aforesaid have recommended that the Duty of Taxation at the Equity Side of the said Court of Exchequer should come to be performed by the Chief Remembrancer of the said Court, and that the said Chief Remembrancer should receive certain stated Fees for the Performance of his aforesaid Duties, and that the Duty of Taxation should in future be performed by a distinct Taxing Officer, to be appointed for that Purpose, and that such Taxing Officer should be paid by a Salary, and not by Fees; but it is deemed more expedient that the Duty of Taxation should continue to be performed as heretofore by the Chief Remembrancer, and that in lieu of the Fees recommended for him by the said Commissioners, and also in lieu of all Fees heretofore payable to him, for or in respect of the said Duty of Taxation, or for or in respect of any other Duty appertaining to the said Office of Chief Remembrancer of the said Court, he said Chief Remembrancer shall receive a clear Salary of Three thousand Pounds per Annum: [a] Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the First Day of August next it shall not be lawful for the Chief Remembrancer of the said Court to have, take or receive, or to ask, demand or require, any Fee, Reward, Emolument or Sum of Money whatsoever, from any Suitor of the said Court of Exchequer, or from any Solicitor or Attorney or other Person whatsoever, acting on Behalf of any Suitor of the said Court, for any Matter or Thing done or performed, or required to be done or performed by any such Chief Remembrancer in the Execution of his Duty as such, either in Cases where such Chief Remembrancer has heretofore received or been entitled to any Fees, or in any other Case whatever, any Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding; but all such Fees, Rewards and Emoluments shall, from and after the First Day of August next, entirely cease and determine.
